The extent to which a grower's financial returns might be reduced by the application of the provisions of the amendment to appraisal lots of prunes would depend upon the extent to which such grower failed to keep out of his deliveries prunes having the four worst defects (mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation and decay), which prunes are unfit for human consumption. It is the intent of the amendment that producers take active steps to keep such defects to a minimum. According to the conditions on the individual ranch one or more of a number of steps may be taken to accomplish this, such as improved cultural, harvesting, dehydration and sorting practices.

The use of practices necessary to keep inedible prunes to a minimum should improve financial returns to producers in several respects. Since handlers would receive fewer inedible prunes, fewer would be included in their shipments to the trade, whether for human consumption as prunes or for manufacturing use, thereby increasing consumer acceptance and trade demand for prunes. Not only should producers' deliveries of prunes that are more free of the four inedible defects bring an increased return because of their better quality, but increased consumer acceptance and trade demand would reduce correspondingly the necessity for sacrificing edible prunes in low return outlets such as animal feed in years of heavy production. The expense to producers of cleaning up their deliveries should be offset by the fact that less sorting by handlers would be required and handlers should pay more for the cleaner fruit.

It was testified at the hearing that the use of the appraisal method of delivering prunes by producers to handlers had grown to a far greater extent than was originally intended. Such testimony was strikingly borne out by reports of the tonnages of prunes received as standard prunes, received as substandard, and received under appraisal in the 1952–53 crop year. One of the main purposes of the appraisal method was to avoid having the producer take his prunes back to his ranch for further sorting if the prunes failed to qualify as standard prunes by a slight margin. However, it has developed that prunes have been delivered under the appraisal method which contained defective prunes considerably in excess of the tolerances for standard prunes, and some producers and dehydrators have become careless with respect to the quality of prunes which they produce and deliver to handlers.

It was expected when the marketing agreement and order were put into effect in 1949 that a gradual improvement in the quality of producers' deliveries to handlers would take place. However, the reverse has been true. In an effort to improve the quality of prunes marketed, amendments affecting both handlers and producers have been proposed. Under one amendment handlers would contribute to the improvement of order operations affecting substandard prunes delivered on appraisal certificates in that the present tolerance of 20 prunes per pound with respect to sizes of prunes delivered by handlers to the committee on the equivalent quantity basis would be reduced to five prunes per pound. This should result in appreciably more sorting of appraisal lots by handlers in order to satisfy their equivalent quantity obligations to the committee with as many of the actual defective prunes in the appraisal lots as practicable. In view of the contribution that handlers would be making toward quality improvement, it is believed that the taking of effective measures by producers and dehydrators to keep out of their deliveries as many as practicable of the prunes affected by the four inedible defects would balance their efforts in the direction of quality improvement with those of the handlers. This does not appear too much to expect of a grower who is producing a food crop for human consumption. Should prune producers and dehydrators do this, deliveries on a conditional receiving basis would not be necessary.

In crop years in which a surplus pool is operated, it is contemplated that the Prune Administrative Committee will establish a lower rate of return to equity holders for prunes which are pooled pursuant to the provisions of the proposed amendment than for other surplus substandard prunes. In this way, even in years of heavy prune production, producers and dehydrators will be afforded a financial incentive to improve the quality of prunes produced and to keep out of their deliveries to handlers prunes which are offgrade due to the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation and decay. In short crop years, when no surplus pool would be operated, the demand for edible substandard prunes for manufacturing should provide sufficient financial incentive for producers to keep their appraisal deliveries as free from the four inedible defects as practicable.

With respect to alleged discrimination between cooperative association members and independent producers, the brief states: "Under the program, rightfully, the association is considered as one grower, and therefore can take most of the year to recondition, grade and receive the fruit of its members before reporting its surplus obligation to the committee. The independent grower must make this decision at delivery time, before the industry or the grower knows whether edible offgrade fruit will be used for manufacturing purposes or will be diverted by the committee for stock feed."

Although the association has the authority to concentrate the tonnage of its members before applying the surplus tonnage provision of the order, deliveries of prunes to the association by individual members are required to be, and have been inspected at the time of such delivery and inspection certificates or appraisal certificates have been issued thereon at that time. With respect to operations under the provisions of the amendment, each delivery of substandard prunes by each member to the association would be inspected upon delivery and a certificate of inspection or a certificate of appraisal would be issued thereon. In such a situation, the equivalent quantity obligation of the association under the amendment with respect to the prunes delivered under appraisal certificates would be an aggregate quantity equal to the sum of the quantities which would have to be diverted to nonhuman uses as reflected on the applicable appraisal certificates.

The association is considered one equity holder with respect to surplus pool proceeds and any lower rate of return established by the committee for prunes which are pooled pursuant to the provisions of the proposed amendment would be reflected to the association just as to any other equity holder. The distribution of such surplus pool proceeds to its members would then be a matter of internal operation by the association. No reason has been found which is believed to support the view that the amendment would discriminate between cooperative association members and independent producers.

In explaining the view that the amendment would discriminate as to districts it is stated that in the northern area (Tehama, Butte, Colusa, Sutter, Yuba and Yolo Counties), prunes often crack due to weather and climatic conditions, with mold developing in some of the cracks in some years; that it is impractical for the grower at harvest and delivery time to sort out the inedible defects when it is not known whether the prunes will be used for cattle feed or whether part of the offgrades will later be released by the committee for manufacturing; and that by nature of the delivery problems between areas the amendment further discriminates between districts, as it is impossible for the grower to take the fruit back to the ranch for reconditioning, even if he were assured that the lot could then be sold for manufacturing purposes.

Data presently available are insufficient to show whether, over a period of years, a larger percentage of the prunes in the six counties referred to above are affected by the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation and decay than in other producing areas in California. Such defects do occur in other producing areas, however, and the prevalence of such defects probably varies among areas in different crop years. Should it be true, however, that prunes in any one area are affected by those defects to a greater extent than the prunes in other areas, it appears that a greater need would exist to take remedial actions at the source of such fruit, before it is delivered to distant packing houses. It is recognized that the practice of returning prunes from a handler's plant to a producer's ranch for resorting or reconditioning is expensive even if possible, and that such return is impossible if the lot has been graded and commingled with other prunes. Such factors are inherent in the normal course of making deliveries of prunes, and in the event a lot should be returned to the ranch, many of the expenses would accrue regardless of the distance between the ranch and the packing house.

At prune harvesting time, producers usually are well informed as to the size of the crop and as to the regulations which will probably apply to the handling of it. In the light of such information a producer should be able to plan his harvesting and delivery operations so that his prunes will conform to the requirements of the applicable regulations as to handling, with the maximum possible returns to himself. Whether in years of heavy production or otherwise, it is expected, as stated hereinabove, that the committee will establish a lower rate of return for prunes pooled under the provisions of the proposed amendment than for other surplus substandard prunes. Producers who keep the prunes with inedible defects out of their deliveries would thus receive relatively more for their surplus substandard prunes than those who fail to do so, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the prunes.

Even though the provisions of the proposed amendment may apply to a larger percentage of the prunes in some producing areas than others, it appears that such differences would vary from year to year in their occurrence and their degree; also that such differences would result from conditions in the respective areas. It appears that any program for quality improvement in prunes would apply in different degrees to any areas among which differences in quality of prunes existed.

Reference is made in the brief to provisions in the order that the quality regulations applicable to the receipt and the disposition of prunes by handlers shall be comparable so far as practicable, and it is stated that the proposed amendment appears to be contrary to such provisions. In support of this view the following example is cited:

However, if a grower's lot is delivered on an appraisal certificate and contains 10 percent major defects, his tolerance for inedibles is limited to ½ of 1 percent in order that the edible sub-standards may be used for manufacturing purposes.

This same lot when delivered to a packer can be sorted down to 8 percent major defects, with the equipment which he normally uses in his operations, and can be packed out on a 5 percent inedible tolerance, as compared to the grower's ½ of 1 percent limitation.

The handler also has the added flexibility of blending this 10 percent lot with a lot containing less than maximum allowable percentage of major defects, thus enabling him to ship prunes without reconditioning.

In respect to the above example, the quality regulations applicable to the receipt and disposition of prunes would be more comparable than indicated by the Council. If by incoming inspection it were determined that the offgrade prunes in such lot exceeded the 5 percent tolerance for inedible defects, the handler, on the basis of the appraisal certificate, would be obligated to deliver to the committee for nonhuman uses a quantity of prunes equal to the quantity required to be removed from the lot for the remainder to be standard prunes. The 5 percent tolerance for inedible defects would then apply, in outgoing inspection of the remainder, to a smaller quantity of prunes than the total quantity originally comprising the lot received from the producer. Also, when a lot of prunes to be disposed of by a handler exceeds the 5 percent tolerance for inedible defects, the entire lot is ineligible for disposition for human consumption. In the case of incoming inspection under appraisal, however, the application of the provisions of this amendment would channel to nonhuman uses only a quantity of prunes equivalent to the quantity necessary to be removed from the lot for the remainder to be standard prunes; in the event the offgrade prunes in the lot exceeded the 5 percent tolerance for inedible defects.

Another aspect of comparability of quality regulations is the fact that in order to comply with a proposed tolerance of five prunes per pound in the average size count of prunes delivered to the committee on the equivalent quantity basis (compared with the present tolerance of 20 prunes per pound) handlers would be sorting from the prunes received on appraisal more of the offgrade prunes of poorest quality than heretofore. The efforts of producers and dehydrators to minimize the inedible defects in their appraisal deliveries, which would be expected to result from the adoption of the amendment in question, would complement the quality improvement effected by handlers by such sorting.

With respect to a handler's ability to blend a lot that exceeds the tolerance for major defects with a lot containing less than the maximum allowable percentage of such defects, two factors apparently would tend to reduce any practice of blending for the sole purpose of bringing the average within maximum tolerances. One is the increased sorting by handlers to meet the 5 point tolerance as to size count, in which normally the worst prunes would be removed. The other is the sorting by the handler which would be required to meet any obligations with respect to appraisal lots under this amendment, in which process also it would be normal to remove the worst prunes. The fruit remaining in the handler's possession after sorting would be more free from defects, which should result in less blending for the purpose of coming within maximum tolerances. In view of the foregoing, it is concluded that the application of the quality regulations in the further amended order, including this amendment, to a producer's deliveries of prunes to a handler, would be comparable within the concept of the order with the application of the quality regulations to a handler's dispositions of prunes.

With respect to the possibility that the proposed amendment might cause a shortage in the supply of prunes for juice, it appears that this would be unlikely unless producers make little effort to clean up their deliveries under appraisal. In a short-crop year particularly, there should be ample incentive in the demand for edible substandard prunes for producers to take the necessary steps to see that the edible substandard prunes in their deliveries would be eligible for use in manufacturing outlets. The possibility of an inadequate supply of prunes for the juice trade in any crop year could also be taken into account by handlers who might compensate to some extent for any such contingency by modifying their policies regarding carryover of prunes.

It may be that the appraisal provision in the marketing agreement and order program is essential to practical operations thereunder. However, in the four crop years in which the program has been effective, the quality of prunes delivered under appraisal certificates has not improved but has declined, and it appears that if the program is to serve its purpose, effective action must be taken by producers and dehydrators to reverse this trend. The proposed amendment may not be the best possible way of accomplishing the result. It appears, however, that it does provide an opportunity for improving the quality of prunes delivered, assuming the cooperation of producers and dehydrators and the establishment by the committee of equity values for surplus substandard prunes which would provide an additional financial incentive.

In view of the foregoing, it is concluded that this amendment should be included in the proposed amended order.

(2) In the discussion of the material issue numbered 11, it was concluded that § 993.63 should be amended by adding a new paragraph (lettered (k)) which would authorize the committee to hypothecate binding written contracts for the sale of surplus prunes subject to the following restrictions, which should be set forth in, and be made a part of, each such loan agreement: (a) The recourse of the lender shall be confined to the particular sales contract or the proceeds which are derived therefrom; (b) neither the Secretary, the committee, nor any of the committee's members, alternate members, officers, or employees, shall be liable for the repayment of the particular loan; and (c) the lender waives any right which he might otherwise have, in case of default in repayment, to take any action to obtain either possession or control of the surplus prunes involved. It was contemplated that the inclusion of these restrictions in each such loan agreement would serve to confine the recourse of the lender either to the particular sale contract which had been hypothecated to him, or, if the sale proceeds had been received by the committee, to such proceeds so long as they were in its possession or under its control. The desirability for such a confinement of liability was stressed at the hearing, and the need for it is considered to be obvious.

A question has been raised with respect to the proposed restriction which is set forth under (b) above. The substance of that question is that the enumerated exemptions from liability should be expanded so as to include also "any distributee as such of the loan proceeds, its officers or employees." These distributees would normally be either so-called independent prune producers or the cooperative association of prune producers which operates in the production area, except that, in a relatively few instances, individual independent prune producers may have assigned their interests in these payments to other persons, as for instance, to prune handlers. The amount available for distribution from such a loan would usually be made as a progress payment, and such amount would presumably be reduced by the withholding by the committee therefrom of what it considered to be an adequate sum to cover the estimated expenses for operating the surplus pool. Thus, these distributions would be diffused through payments to large numbers of distributees, and, except in the case of the cooperative association, would be relatively small in each instance. Even in the case of the cooperative association, it is believed to be improbable that such a payment would exceed about 38 percent of the amount of the particular loan. In other words, such a recovery action by a lender against the distributees would apparently entail the bringing of it against such a large number of them, and for such relatively small amounts in each instance, that the possibility of the bringing of such a court action would be remote. However, the specific inclusion of these distributees in the exemption should cause no complications to arise, and it would be in accordance with the intent that they be free from any liability in the matter. In view of this, and since the express inclusion of them in the exemption is desired by the committee, it is concluded that such specific inclusion should be added.

In the original proposal (No. 19) which was set forth in the notice of hearing, the only language which would have operated, to any extent, to have included distributees specifically in the list of those exempted from liability is the following: "nor any organization represented by such member or alternate member." Such a manner of specification would obviously not have been adequate in any event. For instance, it would not have included independent prune producers who are not banded together into an organization. Further, it would seem to imply that such exemption would apply only to the particular organizations (i. e., business companies) of which they are officers or employees. Such differentiations in treatment would, of course, not have been justified. The proposed specified exemptions from liability of members and alternate members of the committee are intended to apply to them solely in their official capacities as such, and without reference to the organizations which they may be considered to represent.

In further regard to the above, the original proposed amendment in this connection which was set forth in the notice of the hearing and discussed at the hearing also specified the exemption from liability of any "agent of the committee." It is provided, in § 993.63 (1) (2) of the order, that the committee may make distribution of the net proceeds from the surplus pool and progress payments from that pool "either directly or through handlers as agents of the committee." Inasmuch as these handler-agents merely act for the committee as intermediaries in the distribution of the pool proceeds, it was originally considered that the exemption of the committee necessarily entailed the exemption of the committee's agents, who performed these ministerial actions of transmitting the money to the individual distributees pursuant to the committee's directions and supervision. However, it is now concluded that, in order to obviate the possibility that any question in this connection will arise in the future, such agents should likewise be included specifically in the list of those who are exempted from liability.

In line with the foregoing, the modifications set forth below are made in the discussion of this matter in the recommended decision and the recommended further amended order.

The first paragraph (see 18 F. R. 5314) of the discussion of the issue numbered 11 in the recommended decision is changed to read as follows:

Section 993.63 should be amended by adding at the end a new paragraph, lettered (k), which would authorize the committee to hypothecate binding written contracts for the sales of surplus prunes to any person, subject to the following restrictions, which restrictions should be set forth in, and form a part of, each such loan agreement: (a) The recourse of the lender shall be confined to the particular sale contract or the proceeds which are derived therefrom; (b) neither the Secretary, the committee, any of the committee's members, alternate members, officers, employees, and agents, nor any distributees as such (including their respective officers and employees) of the loan proceeds, shall be liable for the repayment, in whole or in part, of the particular loan; and (c) the lender waives any right which he might otherwise have, in case of default in repayment, to take any action to obtain either possession or control of the surplus prunes involved. It is intended that the inclusion of these restrictions in each such loan agreement will serve to confine the recourse of the lender either to the particular sale contract which had been hypothecated to him, or, if the sale proceeds have been received by the committee, to such proceeds so long as they remain in its possession or under its control. The desirability for such a confinement of liability was stressed at the hearing, and the need for it is considered to be obvious.

Also, proposed new § 993.63 (k) of the recommended further amended order (see 18 F. R. 5329) is changed to read as follows:

(k) Hypothecation of binding written contracts for the sales of surplus prunes. The committee may hypothecate binding written contracts for the sale of surplus prunes, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the distribution of proceeds of the sales of surplus tonnage prunes in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (i) of this section: Provided, There are included in, and made a part of, the loan agreement in connection with each such loan the following terms and conditions: (1) The recourse of the lender shall be confined to the particular sale contract, or the proceeds which are derived therefrom; (2) neither the Secretary, the committee, any of the committee's members, alternate members, officers, employees, and agents, nor any distributees as such (including their respective officers and employees) of the loan proceeds, shall be liable for the repayment, either in whole or in part, of the particular loan; and (3) the lender waives any right which he might otherwise have, in case of default in repayment, to obtain either possession or control of the surplus prunes involved.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto, and made a part hereof, are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Dried Prunes Produced in California" and "Order, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Dried Prunes Produced in California," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. The marketing agreement, as amended, and the order, as amended, shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the annexed marketing agreement, as amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of the said agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order, which will be published with this decision.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of December 1953.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,

AUTHORITY: §§ 993.1 to 993.97 issued under sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c.

§ 993.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. (1) The findings hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations which were made in connection with the original issuance (14 F. R. 5254) of the marketing agreement and order, as supplemented by the findings and determinations which were made in connection with the issuance (16 F. R. 8437) of the amendment of such marketing agreement and order which was issued on August 17, 1951, and all of said previous findings and determinations, except the finding as to the base period for the parity computation, are hereby ratified and confirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein; (2) the amended order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; (3) said amended order will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified or necessarily included, in the proposals upon which the amendment hearing has been held; and (4) there are no differences in the production and marketing of dried prunes in the production area covered by said amended order, which make necessary different terms applicable to different parts of such area.

Order relative to handling. It is, therefore, ordered, that the handling of dried prunes produced in California shall, from the effective time of this amended order, be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of this amended order:

Sections 993.1 through 993.97 of the recommended marketing agreement, as amended, and order, as amended, set forth in the Assistant Administrator's recommended decision, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 2, 1953 (18 F. R. 5304, F. R. Doc. 53-7645), except for the corrections which are set forth below, and except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions, including those in connection with the exceptions, as set forth herein.

The corrections are as follows: In § 993.28 (a) (1) (beginning in the last line of the second column, and continuing in the third column on page 5320), change the words "territory in Santa Clara west of a line" to read "territory in Santa Clara County west of a line"; in § 993.28 (b) (in the 32d line from the bottom of the first column on page 5321), change the word "handled" to read

"handler"; in § 993.28 (b) (in the 24th and 25th lines from the bottom of the first column on page 5321), correct the spelling of "indepenment" to read "independent"; in § 993.59 (a) (1) (in the tenth line from the bottom of the second column on page 5325), correct the spelling of "effectutae" to read "effectuate"; and in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) I B (5) (b) (in the 22d line of the first column on page 5331), change the period after "prunes" to a semicolon.

DEFINITIONS

§ 993.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary under the act.

§ 993.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 993.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 993.4 Prunes. "Prunes" means and includes all sun-dried or artificially dehydrated plums, of any type or variety, produced from plums grown in the State of California, except: (a) Sulfur-bleached prunes which are produced from yellow varieties of plums and are commonly known as silver prunes; (b) plums which have not been dried or dehydrated to a point where they are capable of being stored prior to packaging, without deterioration or spoilage, unless refrigeration or other artificial means of preservation are used, and so long as they are treated by a process which is in conformity with, or generally similar to, the processes for treatment of plums of that type which have been developed or recommended by the Food Technology Division, College of Agriculture, University of California, for the specialty pack known as "high moisture content prunes," but this exception shall not apply if and when such plums are dried to the point where they are capable of being stored, without deterioration or spoilage, unrefrigerated or not otherwise artificially preserved; and (c) prunes as used in § 993.62.

§ 993.5 Natural condition prunes. "Natural condition prunes" means prunes which have not been processed.

§ 993.6 Processed prunes. "Processed prunes" means prunes which have been cleaned, or treated with water or steam: Provided, That prunes shall not become processed prunes at the time they are cleaned by a producer or a dehydrator in the course of preparing them for delivery to a producer, dehydrator, or handler.

§ 993.7 Standard prunes. "Standard prunes" means any lot of natural condition prunes meeting the applicable grade and size standards prescribed pursuant to § 993.48.

§ 993.8 Standard processed prunes. "Standard processed prunes" means any lot of processed prunes meeting the applicable grade and size standards prescribed pursuant to § 993.49.

§ 993.9 Substandard prunes. "Substandard prunes" means any lot of processed or natural condition prunes failing to meet the applicable grade and size standards prescribed pursuant to §§ 993.48 and 993.49.

§ 993.10 Handle. "Handle" means to receive, process, package, sell, consign, transport, or ship or in any other way to place prunes in the current of commerce (except as a carrier of prunes owned by another person), whatever may be the ultimate destination or end use of the prunes: Provided, That this term shall not include: (a) The selling or delivering of prunes by a producer or dehydrator to a producer, dehydrator, or handler within the State of California; (b) the receiving of prunes by a producer or dehydrator from a producer or dehydrator; and (c) the buying, receiving, selling, or otherwise dealing by a person with prunes which have already been handled within the meaning of this definition by another person, but this exclusion shall be of no effect for the purpose of applying the applicable restrictions of § 993.49 or § 993.50 to the subsequent handling of prunes in the event a handler's prunes are excepted from restrictions in the manner specified in § 993.49 (e) (1) or § 993.50 (c).

§ 993.12 Dehydrator. "Dehydrator" means any person who produces prunes by drying or dehydrating plums by means of sun-drying or artificial heat.

§ 993.13 Producer. "Producer" means any person who is engaged, in a proprietary capacity, in growing plums for drying or dehydrating into prunes.

§ 993.14 Ton. "Ton" means a short ton of 2,000 pounds.

§ 993.15 Grade. "Grade" means the classification of prunes for quality and condition according to the grading specifications established pursuant to the provisions of this subpart.

§ 993.16 Size. "Size" means the number of prunes contained in a pound or the classification of prunes into their various count groups in accordance with the usual practice of the industry.

§ 993.17 Crop year. "Crop year" means the 12-month period beginning August 1 of any year and ending July 31 of the following year.

§ 993.18 Domestic. "Domestic" means the continental United States, Alaska, Canal Zone, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and Canada.

§ 993.19 Proper storage. "Proper storage" means storage of such character as will maintain prunes in the same condition as when received by the handler, except for normal and natural deterioration and shrinkage.

§ 993.20 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder. This order regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California shall be a "subpart" of such part.

PRUNE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE

§ 993.24 Establishment of Prune Administrative Committee. A Prune Administrative Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "committee"), consising of 21 members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established to administer the terms and provisions of this part, of whom, with their respective alternates, 14 shall represent producers and 7 shall represent handlers.

§ 993.25 Term of office. The term of office of members, and their respective alternates, shall be two years, ending on May 31 of even numbered years, and any later date which may be necessary for the selection and qualification of their respective successors.

§ 993.26 Selection. Selection of members of the committee, and their respective alternates, shall be made by the Secretary, for the producer and handler groups from the nominations submitted for that purpose by the respective groups except as otherwise provided in § 993.32, or from among other qualified persons, in the discretion of the Secretary, but such selections shall be made by the Secretary from the classes within each group and in the proportions set forth in § 993.28.

§ 993.27 Eligibility. Each producer member and alternate member of the committee selected to represent a district described in § 993.28 (a) (1) shall be, at the time of his selection and during his term of office, a producer in the district for which he is selected, and shall not be engaged in the handling of prunes, either in a proprietary capacity or as a director, officer, or employee. Each producer member and alternate member of the committee selected to represent producers-at-large in the manner contemplated in §§ 993.26 and 993.28 (a) (3) may be, at the time of his selection and during his term of office, a producer in any district, but he shall not be engaged in the handling of prunes, either in a proprietary capacity or as a director, officer, or employee. Each handler member and alternate member of the committee shall be either a handler of prunes, or an employee, or agent of a handler of prunes, actually engaged in the handling of prunes while he is such member or alternate member.

§ 993.28 Nomnees—(a) Producer nominees—(1) Independent producers. Prior to March 1 of each election year, the committee shall cause to be held, in each of the seven election districts which are described below in this subparagraph, a meeting for the purpose of obtaining names of proposed candidates for nomination to the Secretary for selection as members and alternate members for the respective districts. Each such candidate must be a producer in the district for which he is proposed. Prior to March 15 of that election year, the committee shall prepare for each district and mail to each producer of record in that district who is not a member of a cooperative marketing association a ballot containing the names of such proposed candidates for that district, and the ballot shall also contain blank spaces for use by the voters in writing in the names of any other eligible producers for whom they may wish to vote in lieu of any of those listed. However, the committee may, if it should deem such action to be desirable, use such a ballot for two or more districts jointly: Provided, That the returns shall be considered in the light of the voting by each district separately, and subject to the terms and conditions specified herein which are applicable to voting in the individual districts. Each voter shall be entitled to cast only one vote for a member nominee and only one vote for an alternate member nominee in a district in which he is a producer, and no voter shall vote for candidates in more than one district. In case he is a producer in more than one district, he shall elect in which of such districts he will vote and notify the committee as to his choice. In order to be counted, such a mail ballot must be executed and returned to the committee postmarked not later than the following March 31. One nominee for member and one nominee for alternate member for each district shall be submitted to the Secretary by the committee on the basis of those receiving the plurality of the mail ballots cast for the respective positions in the particular district. The seven districts which are referred to above are described as follows:

District No. 1. The counties of Modoc, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra, Butte, Sutter, Yuba, Nevada, and Placer.

District No. 2. The counties of Napa and Solano.

District No. 3. The counties of Mendocino, Lake, Sonoma, Marin, Del Norte, and Humboldt.

District No. 4. The counties of San Francisco, San Mateo, and Santa Cruz, and all that portion of the territory in Santa Clara County west of a line described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of Alviso Road and San Francisco Bay in Alviso; thence south via Alviso Road to First Street in San Jose; thence south on said First Street to San Carlos Street in San Jose; thence west on San Carlos Street to Meridian Road; thence south on Meridian Road to Dry Creek Road; thence west on Dry Creek Road to the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway; thence southwesterly on the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway to Union Avenue, also known as Ware Avenue; thence south on Union Avenue, also known as Ware Avenue, along a straight line continuing to the Santa Cruz County line.

District No. 5. All of Alameda County and that part of Santa Clara County east and south of District No. 4, extending in a southerly direction to a straight line extending from along the main portion of the Cochran Road, northeasterly to the Stanislaus County line and southwesterly to the Santa Cruz County line.

District No. 6. The counties of San Benito, Monterey, and San Luis Obispo, and all of that portion of Santa Clara County not included in Districts No. 4 and No. 5.

District No. 7. All of the counties in the State of California not included in Districts No. 1 to No. 6, inclusive.

At any time the Secretary concludes that the respective areas covered by the aforementioned seven districts, as delineated above, no longer represent approximately equal segments from the standpoints of numbers of producers of prunes or productions of prune tonnages, he may change such areas with a view to reestablishing such equalization on the basis of the existing situations.

(2) Cooperative producers. Prior to March 1 of each election year, the committee shall report to the Secretary the total tonnage of prunes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof and the total tonnage of prunes handled by cooperative marketing associations as the first handlers thereof during the crop year preceding such election year. Prior to March 15 of each election year, the Secretary shall determine and announce the number of producer member nominees and producer alternate member nominees which shall be nominated by cooperative marketing associations handling prunes on behalf of their members. Such number of nominees shall bear, as far as practicable, the same percentage compared to the total of 14 producer members and their alternates as the prune tonnage handled by cooperative marketing associations as the first handlers thereof bears to the total tonnage handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof during the crop year preceding such election year. Prior to March 31 of each election year the cooperative marketing associations handling prunes shall nominate to the Secretary on behalf of their members such number of producer nominees and their respective alternates.

(3) Producers-at-large. The number of nominees and their respective alternates then required to make up the total of 14 producer member nominees and their alternates shall be nominated to the Secretary by the seven independent producer nominees nominated for members on the committee pursuant to the provisions of this section. Such nominations shall be made prior to April 15 and shall be by majority vote.

(b) Handler nominees. Prior to March 15 of each election year, the Secretary shall determine and announce the number of handler member nominees and handler alternate member nominees which shall be nominated by cooperative marketing associations handling plunes, on the same basis as his determination of the number of cooperative producer nominees, as set forth in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, and at the same time he shall determine and announce, for those handlers who are not cooperative marketing associations (referred to in this subpart as "independent handlers"), the number of handler member nominees and handler alternate member nominees to be nominated by large handlers, the number to be nominated by medium handlers, and the number to be nominated by small handlers. Large handlers shall be deemed to be those who during the preceding crop year individually handled as the first handlers thereof, 17 or more percent of the total tonnage handled by independent handlers as the first handlers hereof; medium handlers, those who during the preceding crop year individually handled as the first handlers thereof, eight or more percent but less than 17 percent of the total tonnage handled by independent handlers as the first handlers thereof; and small handlers, those who during the preceding crop year individually handled as the first handlers thereof, less than eight percent of the total tonnage handled by independent handlers as the first handlers thereof. The Secretary shall, in his discretion and insofar as it is possible to do so, apportion 40 percent of the independent handler nominees to large handlers, 20 percent of the independent handler nominees to medium handlers, and 40 percent of the independent handler nominees to small handlers, but in the event that these proportions cannot be followed, there shall be at least one independent handler member nominee and handler alternate member nominee apportioned to each of the three classes of independent handlers, and the nominees for any remaining member positions, including the respective alternates, shall be apportioned to the size class or classes as determined at a general meeting of independent handlers which shall be called for that purpose by the committee, such determination to be made on the basis of a majority vote of all independent handlers who are present at such meeting and participate in the voting, and on the further basis of one vote for each such handler in each balloting. Prior to March 31 of each election year, the cooperative marketing associations handling prunes shall nominate to the Secretary such number of handler member nominees and their respective alternates as the Secretary has determined and announced for cooperative marketing associations. Prior to March 31, at a meeting called for that purpose by the committee, each class of independent handlers shall nominate the number of handler member nominees and their respective alternates as determined and announced by the Secretary for each class, respectively. At such meeting, nominations shall be made by each class of independent handlers for nominees of that class, on the basis of a majority vote of all handler members of that class present and participating in the voting and on the further basis of one vote for each handler in each class in each balloting for nominees of that class.

§ 993.29 Alternates. An alternate for a member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of such member (a) during his absence, and (b) in the event of his removal, resignation, disqualification, or death, until a successor for such member's unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§ 993.30 Failure to nominate. In the event nominations for any positions on the committee are not received within the prescribed periods, the Secretary may select such members or their alternates, without regard to nominations, but each such selection shall be on the bases prescribed in § 993.28.

§ 993.31 Acceptance. Each person selected as a member or alternate member of the committee shall, prior to serving on the committee, qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance within 15 days after receiving notice of his selection.

§ 993.32 Vacancies. In the event of any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a member or alternate member of the committee to qualify, or, by the removal, resignation, disqualification, or death of any member or alternate member, a successor for such person's unexpired term shall be nominated within 60 calendar days after such vacancy occurs. Such nomination shall be made in the manner provided for in this subpart, insofar as applicable, except that nominations for independent producer member and alternate member positions may, at the discretion of the committee, be made to the committee by the incumbents of the remaining independent producer member positions.

§ 993.33 Obligations. Upon the removal, resignation, disqualification, or expiration of the term of office of any member or alternate member of the committee, such member or alternate member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver to his successor, to the committee, or to a designee of the Secretary all property (including, but not limited to, all books and records) in his possession or under his control as member or alternate member, and he shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor, committee, or designee full title to such property and funds, and all claims vested in such member or alternate member. Upon the death of any member or alternate member of the committee, full title to such property, funds, and claims vested in such member or alternate member shall be vested in his successor or, until such successor has been selected and has qualified, in the committee.

§ 993.34 Voting procedure and verbatim record. Except as specifically otherwise provided in this section, all decisions of the committee shall be by majority vote of the members present and voting and a quorum must be present. A quorum shall consist of at least 12 members of whom at least eight must be producer members and at least four must be handler members. Except in case of emergency, a minimum of five days' advance notice must be given with respect to any meeting of the committee. In case of an emergency, to be determined within the discretion of the chairman of the committee, as much advance notice of a meeting as is practicable in the circumstances shall be given. The committee may vote by mail or telegram upon due notice to all members, but any proposition to be so voted upon first shall be explained accurately, fully, and identically by mail or telegram to all members. When any proposition is submitted for voting by such method, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption. Any recommendation submitted to the Secretary by the committee, pursuant to the requirements of §§ 993.41 through 993.45, §§ 993.48 through 993.50, or §§ 993.59 through 993.63, shall be on the basis of an affirmative vote by at least 75 percent of the members present (in case of fractional numbers, expressed in terms of the next highest whole number): Provided, That, at least 11 members vote affirmatively on any such recommendation. The committee shall file with the Secretary, along with recommendations submitted to the Secretary pursuant to the requirements of §§ 993.41 through 993.45, §§ 993.48 through 993.50, or §§ 993.59 through 993.61, a verbatim record of those portions of its meetings relative to such requirements. Whenever the committee votes on any matter involving a recommendation or proposal to the Secretary, it shall report promptly to the Secretary the individual votes cast in connection therewith, and, in addition, the committee shall report to the Secretary the individual votes cast in connection with any other matter on which there is a roll call.

§ 993.35 Compensation and expenses. The members of the committee, and their alternates when acting as members, shall receive $10.00 per day for each day devoted to performing their duties hereunder, plus their reasonably necessary expenses.

§ 993.36 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this subpart; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this subpart.

§ 993.37 Duties. The committee shall have, among others, the following duties:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer, dehydrator, or handler;

(b) To keep minutes, books, and other records which shall clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, and such minutes, books, and other records shall be subject to examination by the Secretary at any time;

(c) To make, subject to the prior approval of the Secretary, scientific and other studies, and assemble data on the producing, handling, shipping, and marketing conditions relative to prunes, which are necessary in connection with the performance of its official duties;

(d) To select, from among its members, a chairman and other appropriate officers, and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the committee as it may deem advisable;

(e) To appoint or employ such other persons as it may deem necessary, and to determine the salaries and define the duties of such persons;

(f) To submit to the Secretary not later than the fourth Tuesday of July of each year, a budget of its anticipated expenditures and the recommended rate of assessment for the ensuing crop year, and the supporting data therefor;

(g) To submit to the Secretary such available information with respect to prunes as the committee may deem appropriate, or as the Secretary may request;

(h) To prepare and submit to the Secretary monthly statements of the financial operations of the committee, exclusive of surplus tonnage operations, and to make such statements, together with the minutes of the meetings of said committee, available for inspection at the offices of the committee, by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

(i) To prepare and submit to the Secretary annually, as soon as practicable after the end of each crop year and at such other times as the committee may deem appropriate or the Secretary may request, a statement of the financial operations of the committee with respect to the surplus tonnage for such crop year and to make such statement available at the offices of the committee, for inspection by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

(j) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a certified public accountant at least once each crop year, and at such other times as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. Such report shall show, among other things, the receipt and expenditures of funds. At least two copies of such audit report shall be submitted to the Secretary; a copy of each such report shall be available, at the offices of the committee, for inspection by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

(k) To give the Secretary the same notice of meetings of the committee as is given to the members of the committee;

(l) To give producers, dehydrators, and handlers reasonable advance notice of meetings of the committee, and to maintain all such meetings open to such persons;

(m) To investigate compliance with the provisions of this subpart and with any rules and regulations established pursuant to such provisions; and

(n) To establish, with the approval of the Secretary, such rules and procedures relative to administration of this subpart as may be consistent with the provisions contained in this subpart and as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of the act and the efficient administration of this subpart.

MARKETING POLICY

§ 993.41 Report of marketing policy. Prior to the beginning of each crop year, the committee shall prepare and submit to the Secretary a report setting forth its marketing policy for the regulation of the handling of prunes in such crop year, pursuant to §§ 993.48 through 993.63. Such report shall include the data and information used by the committee in the formulation of such marketing policy. In developing the marketing policy, the committee shall give consideration to the following factors:

(a) The estimated tonnage of prunes from preceding crop years held by handlers;

(b) The estimated tonnage of prunes from preceding crop years held by producers and dehydrators;

(c) The estimated production of prunes in such crop year;

(d) An appraisal of the quality and size of prunes of the crop to be produced in such crop year;

(e) The estimated tonnage of prunes marketed in recent crop years in domestic commerce, segregated by uses;

(f) The estimated tonnage of prunes marketed in recent crop years in foreign commerce, segregated by countries or groups of countries in such a way as to indicate the variables, if any, in the tonnages marketed in each such country or groups of countries under different pricing conditions;

(g) The current prices being received for prunes by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

(h) The trend and level of consumer income;

(i) The estimated probable market requirements for prunes in such crop year in domestic commerce, segregated by uses;

(j) The estimated probable market requirements for prunes in such crop year in foreign commerce, segregated by countries or groups of countries in such a way as to reflect the apparent variables, if any, in such requirements under different pricing conditions;

(k) Such factors, in supplying foreign commerce, as may tend to directly affect, burden, and obstruct the normal channels of domestic commerce;

(l) Such other factors as may have a bearing on the marketing of prunes; and

(m) In the event that the committee contemplates that it will recommend to the Secretary that the salable and surplus percentages for a particular crop year should be established pursuant to the provisions of § 993.59 (b), it shall also consider, formulate, and include in its marketing policy its recommendations as to terms and conditions, including pricing formulae, for the sale of surplus tonnage that may be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of § 993.63 (b) (2), and a compensating payment calculated to move the desired quantity of prunes in export in accordance with said § 993.63 (b) (2).

§ 993.42 Policy meeting. The committee shall hold its initial policy meeting for the purpose of formulating and adopting the marketing policy for any crop year not later than the third Tuesday in June preceding the beginning of such crop year. It shall hold another meeting in this connection not later than the following July 12 (except that, if such date should fall on a legal holiday, a Saturday, or a Sunday, not later than the following work day) for the purpose of reconsidering its original marketing policy for the ensuing crop year, including the consideration of the Secretary's tentative views in respect thereto, submitted pursuant to § 993.43. The committee shall submit to the Secretary, as promptly as practicable after the conclusion of this second policy meeting, a report showing any revisions or changes it desires to make in its marketing policy for the ensuing crop year as formulated at its first meeting, together with the supporting data and reasons therefor. In the event the committee has recommended that the salable and surplus percentages for the ensuing crop year should be established pursuant to the provisions of § 993.59 (b), the Secretary shall have the right to disapprove any terms and conditions, including pricing formulae and compensating payment, submitted by the committee pursuant to the provisions of § 993.41 (m), within seven calendar days after he receives in Washington, D. C., the committee's policy report developed at said second marketing policy meeting.

§ 993.43 Time of submission and Secretary's tentative views. The original marketing policy report, together with any committee recommendation pursuant to § 993.41 (m), for any crop year shall be submitted to the Secretary within ten days after the policy meeting specified in § 993.42. The Secretary shall notify the committee of his tentative views in respect to the committee's marketing policy as soon as reasonably practicable after he receives the report thereon.

§ 993.44 Subsequent modifications or changes. In the event the committee subsequently determines that the marketing policy developed pursuant to § 993.42 should be modified or changed by reason of changes in economic or other conditions, it shall make such modification or change in the manner provided for above for the original formulation of a marketing policy, insofar as applicable, and shall submit promptly a report of such modified or changed marketing policy to the Secretary, along with the data which it considered in connection with the making of such modification or change: Provided, That, in case the salable and surplus percentages for the particular crop year were established pursuant to the provisions of § 993.59 (b), the Secretary shall notify the committee promptly of his views in regard to such modifications or changes, including any disapproval thereof.

§ 993.45 Notice. The committee shall promptly give reasonable publicity to producers, dehydrators, and handlers of the contents of each marketing policy report submitted to the Secretary and of each report modifying or changing a marketing policy. Such publicity may be given through newspapers having general circulation in the area or through other channels, but the committee may use any or all of such media. Copies of all such reports shall be maintained in the offices of the committee where they shall be available for examination by producers, dehydrators, and handlers.

GRADE AND SIZE REGULATIONS

§ 993.48 Receiving of natural condition prunes by handlers—(a) General. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, no handler shall receive prunes from producers or dehydrators, except in accordance with the terms and conditions with respect to grades and sizes set forth in this section: Provided, That no handler shall receive any prunes (either as standard prunes or as substandard prunes) from producers or dehydrators, unless such prunes have been properly dried and cured in original natural condition, without the addition of water, and free from active insect infestation, so that they are capable of being received, stored, and packed without deterioration or spoilage. Any high moisture content prunes, as described in the exception in § 993.4 (b), in the possession of a handler, shall be held separate and apart from any surplus prunes (including both standard and substandard prunes) held by him. If, and so long as, a handler commingles his salable prunes with any surplus prunes, this prohibition as to storage shall apply to the entire mass. In the event such high moisture content prunes are dried or dehydrated to a point where they are capable of being stored, without deterioration or spoilage, unrefrigerated or not otherwise artificially preserved, they shall be deemed, at that time, to have been received by such handler as prunes, and to be subject to all of the conditions and restrictions of this subpart.

(b) Regulation. Continuing until such regulation is superseded by other regulations prescribed by the Secretary, no handler shall receive prunes from producers or dehydrators, other than as substandard prunes, unless they meet the minimum standards for natural condition prunes as set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A).

(c) Superseding regulation. In case the committee should recommend to the Secretary that the minimum standards as to grade, as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section, should be superseded by other minimum standards as to grades and sizes, it shall submit its recommendation to the Secretary, together with the data and information upon which it acted in making such recommendation, including information as to factors affecting the supply of, and demand for, prunes by grades and sizes, and such other information as the Secretary may request. The Secretary shall issue such superseding regulation if he finds, upon the basis of the recommendation and supporting data submitted to him by the committee, or from other pertinent information available to him, that to do so would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Any such superseding regulation, insofar as it applies to grades, shall not be below the applicable minimum standards for grades of natural condition prunes as set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A), and any such minimum standards for grades shall provide a maximum tolerance for total defects, and may provide a maximum tolerance for single defects or classes of defects. Any superseding regulations issued by the Secretary shall subsequently be modified, suspended, or terminated, in case he finds that the pertinent facts and circumstances so warrant; and the committee, in submitting any recommendation therefor to the Secretary, shall, in each instance, submit to him the information and data on the basis of which such recommendation is made. The committee shall promptly give reasonable publicity to producers, dehydrators, and handlers of each recommendation submitted by it to the Secretary and of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary. Such publicity may be given through newspapers having general circulation in the area or through other channels, but the committee may use any or all of such media. In addition, the committee shall give written notice by registered mail of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary to all handlers of whom the committee has a record.

(d) Inspection. Each handler shall, at his own expense, cause an inspection to be made of prunes tendered to him by any producer or dehydrator. Prior to accepting any such tender of prunes as prunes meeting the applicable minimum standards for grades and sizes, each such handler shall obtain a certificate that the prunes meet the aforementioned requirements for standard prunes as established pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section, and said handler shall submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Such certificates shall be issued by inspectors of the Dried Fruit Association of California, No. 1 Drumm Street, San Francisco, California. The Secretary may designate another inspection agency in the event the services of the Dried Fruit Association of California prove unsatisfactory. Any prunes so certified as meeting the applicable requirements shall be known and referred to as standard prunes.

(e) Substandard natural condition prunes—(1) Producer's or dehydrator's options. Any natural condition prunes tendered to a handler by a producer or dehydrator which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards as to grades and sizes, may: (i) At the producer's or dehydrator's option, be returned to such producer or dehydrator for sorting; or, (ii) by agreement between such producer and handler or dehydrator and handler, be received pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; or, (iii) be turned over to the handler unsorted to be held by him, as substandard natural condition prunes, for the account of the committee. Any such substandard prunes, except as otherwise specifically provided, shall be treated the same as, and be subject to, the same provisions respecting surplus prunes, as contained in §§ 993.59 through 993.63, and, except those referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, shall be held by a handler separate and apart from any standard prunes held by him.

(2) Equivalent quantity basis. In the event a producer or dehydrator should elect to arrange with a handler for the receiving of substandard prunes tendered by him to such handler for sorting or disposing of such prunes unsorted in conformity with the provisions of this subpart, the inspection agency designated to make inspections of prunes shall issue, at the handler's expense, a certificate of appraisal on such prunes so tendered, which shall show the percentage thereof comprising offgrade prunes necessary to be removed therefrom for the remainder to be standard prunes. A quantity of prunes equivalent to the weight of such offgrade prunes represented by the application of such percentage to the total tonnage so appraised and certified shall be treated as substandard prunes and held as such for the account of the committee: Provided, That any prunes so treated as substandard prunes shall be in conformity with the applicable requirements as set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and § 993.63 (f). No certificate of inspection on such substandard natural condition prunes so tendered shall be required pursuant to this section after a certificate of appraisal has been issued applicable to such prunes.

(3) Comparable size requirement of prunes treated as surplus substandard prunes. The weighted average size count of substandard prunes of a size count of 121 or less prunes per pound which are held for the account of the committee by a handler on the equivalent quantity basis prescribed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall not exceed by more than five prunes per pound, when delivered to the committee the weighted average size count of such offgrade prunes in appraisal lots as shown on the applicable certificates of appraisal issued to the handler for that crop year. The weighted average size count of substandard prunes of a size count of 121 or less prunes per pound, which are turned over to a handler unsorted to be held by him as substandard prunes, for the account of the committee, shall be no greater when delivered to the committee than the weighted average size count of such offgrade prunes as shown on the applicable certificates of inspection issued to the handler for that crop year, except for such tolerance allowances in connection with shrinkage in weight as the committee may establish. Any substandard prunes of a size count of 122 or more prunes per pound, whether received as such or in appraisal lots, which are held for the account of the committee by a handler shall have no limitation with respect to the weighted average size count thereof when delivered to the committee: Provided, That such substandard prunes shall be treated as a size category separate and apart from any other substandard prunes held by the handler, and when delivered to the committee, the weighted average size count thereof shall not be averaged in with nor affect the weighted average size count of any other substandard prunes which the handler delivers to the committee.

§ 993.49 Regulation of the handling of prunes subsequent to their receipt by handlers—(a) General. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes, except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this section.

(b) Regulation. Continuing until such regulation is superseded by other regulations prescribed by the Secretary, except as otherwise specifically provided, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for standard prunes or standard processed prunes.

(c) Superseding regulation. In case the committee should recommend to the Secretary that the minimum standards as to grade, as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section, should be superseded by other minimum standards as to grades and sizes, it shall submit its recommendation to the Secretary together with the data and information upon which it acted in making such recommendation, including information as to factors affecting the supply of, and demand for, prunes by grades and sizes, and such other information as the Secretary may request. The Secretary shall issue such superseding regulation if he finds, upon the basis of the recommendation and supporting data submitted to him by the committee, or from other pertinent information available to him, that to do so would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Any such superseding regulation, insofar as it applies to grades, shall not be below the applicable minimum standards for grades of standard prunes or standard processed prunes, as set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A), and any such minimum standards for grades shall provide a maximum tolerance for total defects, and may provide a maximum tolerance for single defects or classes of defects. Any superseding regulation issued by the Secretary may subsequently be modified, suspended, or terminated in case he finds that the pertinent facts and circumstances so warrant, and the committee, in submitting any recommendation therefor to the Secretary shall, in each instance, submit to him the information and data on the basis of which such recommendation is made: Provided, That, at all times, the regulation shall be comparable so far as practicable, to the then current regulation in effect with respect to the receiving of natural condition prunes by handlers from producers or dehydrators. The committee shall promptly give reasonable publicity to producers, dehydrators, and handlers of each recommendation submitted by it to the Secretary and of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary. Such publicity may be given through newspapers having general circulation in the area or through other channels, but the committee may use any or all of such media. In addition, the committee shall give written notice by registered mail of each superseding regulation issued by the Secretary to all handlers of whom the committee has a record.

(d) Inspection. Each handler shall, at his own expense, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of prunes, unless they are specifically excepted in this section, cause an inspection to be made of such prunes to determine whether they meet the then applicable grade and size standards for standard prunes or standard processed prunes. Each such handler shall not ship or otherwise make final disposition of such prunes, for any use unless they are specifically excepted in this section, if they do not meet such minimum standards. Such handler shall obtain a certificate that such prunes meet the aforementioned minimum standards and such handler shall submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Such certificates shall be issued by inspectors of the Dried Fruit Association of California, No. 1 Drumm Street, San Francisco, California. The Secretary may designate another inspection agency in the event the services of the Dried Fruit Association of California prove unsatisfactory.

(e) Exceptions to restrictions—(1) Inter-plant and inter-handler transfers. Notwithstanding the restrictions contained in paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section, any handler may transfer prunes from one plant owned by him to another plant owned by him within the State of California without having any inspection made as provided for in paragraph (d) of this section, and any handler may ship prunes from his plant to another handler's plant within the State of California without having an inspection made as provided for in paragraph (d) of this section. A report of such inter-handler transfer shall be made promptly by the transferring handler to the committee. The receiving handler shall, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of such prunes, comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) Defective prunes accumulated from standard prunes and prunes received by a handler for his own account which fail to meet the quality standards for disposition. Any defective prunes which may be accumulated by a handler by removing them from his standard prunes and any prunes received by a handler for his own account which fail to meet the quality standards for the disposition of prunes, may be disposed of, or marketed for disposition, as animal feed, pitted prunes, or as other prune products in which they lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption: Provided, That any such prunes which are disposed of, or marketed for disposition, for human consumption shall meet those minimum standards prescribed in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) as relate to the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay. The committee shall issue any such rules and regulations as may be necessary to insure such uses. Each handler shall, at his own expense, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of prunes under this subparagraph, cause an inspection to be made of such prunes by the inspection agency. Such handler shall obtain from the inspection agency a certificate that such prunes meet the applicable conditions contained in this subparagraph, and submit it, or cause it to be submitted together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Otherwise, such prunes may be shipped or disposed of for the purposes specified in this subparagraph without regard to the restrictions contained in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

§ 993.50 Regulation of the handling of prunes during any crop year when the estimated seasonal average price is in excess of parity—(a) Determination. If the Secretary should find that the estimated seasonal average price for prunes for any crop year will be in excess of the price level contemplated by the provisions of section 2 (1) of the act, he shall issue an order in which such finding is set forth, and, in such order, he may provide that, for such crop year, the handling of prunes shall be in accordance with the provisions set forth in this section.

(b) Receiving of prunes by handlers. In lieu of the provisions set forth in § 993.48, a handler may receive any tender of prunes from a producer or dehydrator: Provided, That such prunes have been properly dried and cured in original natural condition, without the addition of water, and free from active insect infestation, so that they are capable of being received, stored, and packed without deterioration or spoilage. For the assistance of the committee in its supervision of operations under this section, each handler shall, at his own expense, cause an inspection to be made by the inspection agency for the purpose of ascertaining the net weight of the delivery and the percentage of defective prunes in such delivery which is in excess of the maximum tolerances specified in § 993.97 (Exhibit A, paragraph C of subdivision I), and whether the prunes in the delivery meet the requirements of paragraph D of said subdivision I. In the case of each such inspection, the handler shall obtain from the inspection agency a certificate showing the results of the inspection including the percentage of such excess by defects or groups of defects, as the committee may require, and he shall submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee.

(c) Disposition of prunes by handlers. In lieu of the requirements set forth in § 993.49, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of prunes (regardless of whether natural condition or processed prunes), for human consumption as prunes, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for natural condition prunes or processed prunes, as the case may be. Also, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of natural condition prunes or of processed prunes for use in the manufacture of any prune product for human consumption as food, which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) for natural condition prunes or processed prunes, as the case may be, which relate to the defects of mold, insect infestation, imbedded dirt, and decay. Any handler may ship or otherwise make final disposition of any natural condition prunes or of any processed prunes, as the case may be, for any use other than those referred to in the two preceding sentences. Such disposition without regard to the quality of prunes shall include, but is not limited to, disposition for animal feed, botanicals, and distillation. Each handler shall, at his own expense, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of prunes, cause an inspection to be made by the inspection agency to determine whether they meet the applicable grade standards, as set forth in this paragraph, and he shall obtain from the inspection agency a certificate that such prunes meet the aforementioned applicable minimum standards and submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, together with such other instruments and records as the committee may require, to the committee. Notwithstanding the aforesaid restrictions, any handler may transfer prunes from one plant owned by him to another plant owned by him within the State of California, and any handler may ship prunes from his plant to another handler's plant within the State of California, without having such inspection made and certificate issued. A report of each inter-handler transfer shall be made promptly by the transferring handler to the committee, and the receiving handler shall, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of such prunes, comply with the requirements of this paragraph. The committee is hereby authorized to exercise such supervision as may be reasonably necessary to insure that prunes are disposed of for the respective uses for which they were intended, and that the prunes used for each particular purpose meet the applicable minimum grade standards prescribed in this paragraph.

(d) Inspection agency. The inspection agency referred to in this section shall be the same as the inspection agency which is provided for in §§ 993.48 and 993.49.

(e) Assessments. In lieu of the payment of assessments pursuant to the computation method prescribed in § 993.81 (a), each handler shall pay to the committee, upon demand, with respect to all prunes received by him as the first handler thereof, his pro rata share of such expenses which the Secretary finds will be incurred pursuant to the provisions of § 993.80 by the committee during such crop year. Also, in such an event, each handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be equal to the ratio between the total tonnage received by him as the first handler thereof during such crop year and the total tonnage received by all handlers as the first handlers thereof during the same crop year. The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment to be paid by such handlers on the basis of a specified rate per ton. At any time during or after a crop year the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to apply to all prunes received by handlers as the first handlers thereof during such crop year to obtain sufficient funds to cover any finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses of the committee. Each handler shall pay such additional assessment to the committee upon demand. The Secretary shall reduce the assessment rate applicable to all such tonnage during the particular crop year if he finds that when thus reduced it will provide funds sufficient to enable the committee properly to perform its authorized functions. In all other respects, the provisions of §§ 993.80 through 993.82 shall remain in full force and effect.

(f) Effective provisions. In any crop year while the provisions of this section are in effect, the provisions of §§ 993.1 through 993.45, §§ 993.71 through 993.77 and §§ 993.84 through 993.93 shall remain in full force and effect, except to the extent that they may be in conflict to handlers for supplying the market requirements of a foreign country or group of foreign countries excluded from the estimates upon which the salable percentage for such crop year was based. The total amount of money distributed among handlers as compensating payments for such period shall be limited to the funds so withheld from the proceeds of the surplus standard prunes sold hereunder to handlers for such period. Such funds shall be allocated equitably among handlers in accordance with terms and conditions established by the committee. Handlers who have purchased their full shares of the surplus standard prunes offered for such period shall have priority in such allocation over handlers who shall have failed to purchase their full shares of such offer. No handler shall be compensated at a rate greater than that established as the compensating payment for such period. In the event the rate of such compensation to any handler is less than that established as the compensating payment for such period, the committee shall release to such handler, in lieu of money and for use as salable tonnage, a quantity of surplus standard prunes held by him for the account of the committee sufficient to rectify the deficiency in the rate paid to such handler, the value of the surplus standard prunes so released to be established on the basis of the price at which such prunes were offered during such period. The compensating payments, applicable to any prunes sold by any handler for shipment to or use in a foreign country or group of foreign countries excluded from the estimates upon which the salable percentage was based, shall not be made until satisfactory proof of the shipment of such prunes has been furnished to the committee. The committee shall establish for each period a final date before which the shipment of prunes so sold during such period shall be made in order for the handler making the sale thereof to qualify for the compensating payment applicable thereto: Provided, That the committee shall not establish any such date for any period during a crop year that will permit a handler to ship any such prunes later than July 31 of such crop year and to qualify for the compensating payment for such period. The maximum quantity of prunes for which a handler shall be entitled to receive compensating payments hereunder during any crop year shall be limited to the total quantity of surplus standard prunes, received from producers and dehydrators during such crop year and held by him for the account of the committee, uncommitted to anyone other than to him: Provided, That in the event that the committee shall have given such handler specific authority to sell, for shipment during such crop year to a foreign country or group of foreign countries excluded from the estimates upon which the salable percentage was based, a quantity of standard prunes, or standard processed prunes, in excess of such uncommitted surplus standard prunes so received and held by him, he shall be entitled to receive compensating payments applicable thereto after qualifying hereunder for such compensating payments.

(3) Countries estimated to have no probable market requirements. In case a handler, during any crop year, sells a quantity of prunes for shipment to and for use in a foreign country which, at the time the salable and surplus percentages for such crop year were recommended, the committee estimated would have no probable market requirement, the committee may, upon adequate proof of such sale, offer to sell, and sell, to such handler a quantity of surplus standard prunes, held by him for the account of the committee, and uncommitted, equivalent to the quantity so sold for use in such foreign country calculated on the basis of natural condition weight. Prior to making any offer, the committee shall determine the price at which the prunes included in such offer shall be sold, taking into consideration the price received for the quantity of salable tonnage prunes sold for use in such country by the handler, together with other factors and conditions affecting the marketing of prunes at the time of such offer. The committee may also sell direct to such a foreign market surplus standard prunes or surplus standard processed prunes for use in the foreign country in which such market develops if it determines that the sale cannot reasonably be made by handlers from salable tonnage. Any such direct sale by the committee may be made at a negotiated price.

(4) Notice to Secretary of proposed sales for export. The committee shall file with the Secretary, by telegram or air mail letter, seven calendar days prior to making any offer to sell under either subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, surplus standard prunes or surplus standard processed prunes pursuant to this paragraph, complete information with respect thereto, including the basis for such proposal. The Secretary shall have the right to disapprove, within such seven-day period the making of such an offer or any term or condition thereof. No such notice of individual offers under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph shall be required, but the committee shall keep the Secretary currently informed in respect thereto.

(c) Sales for animal feed and certain manufacturing uses. The committee may sell any surplus prunes for animal feed, botanicals, distillation, or for any manufacturing uses which were not provided for in estimating the salable quantity of standard prunes for the then current crop year. Such sales may be made at negotiated prices. The committee is hereby authorized to exercise such supervision as may be reasonably necessary to insure that such prunes are disposed of for the respective uses for which they are sold.

(d) Sales to handlers—(1) Authorization under specified supply conditions. If the committee finds that total contracted sales by all handlers during the crop year exceeds 80 percent of the total salable tonnage received by all handlers plus 80 percent of the estimated tonnage held unsold by producers and dehydrators which would become salable tonnage; or, if the committee finds that more than 20 percent of the uncontracted salable tonnage is being held so tightly by relatively few handlers, dehydrators, or producers as seriously to restrict commerce in prunes, and if 75 percent of all handlers have made a written request therefor and such requesting handlers have purchased over 65 percent of the salable tonnage purchased from producers and dehydrators, the committee may, in either event, sell to handlers standard prunes from he surplus tonnage for use as salable tonnage, subject to the additional conditions set forth in subparagraphs (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of this paragraph.

(2) Authorized commencement date. No such sale shall be made prior to December 15 of the crop year.

(3) Quantity limitation. No single sales offer of surplus tonnage to handlers shall exceed 20 percent of the original estimated salable tonnage.

(4) Prices. If any such sale is made for manufacturing purposes in which the prunes will lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption, it may be made by the committee at a negotiated price; otherwise, such sales shall not be made by the committee at a price below that which reflects the average price received by producers for salable tonnage during the then current crop year to a date as near as practicable to the date of the offer, as shown by the reports required to be filed under the provisions of § 993.73, plus accrued charges for receiving and storing of surplus tonnage.

(5) Pro rata shares and termination of offers. In any offer by the committee to sell surplus tonnage to handlers pursuant to this paragraph, each handler shall be given the first opportunity to purchase his share of the offer, which share shall be determined as the same proportion that the respective surplus tonnage held by him is of the surplus tonnage held by all handlers. In the event that any handler declines or fails to purchase any or all of his share of any such offer, the remaining portion thereof shall be re-offered by the committee to all handlers who purchased all of their respective shares of such offer, in proportion to their respective shares. Any balance remaining unsold after such re-offer shall be withdrawn from the particular offer. Any offer outstanding as of July 5 of any crop year shall be withdrawn and the committee shall not make any further offer to sell surplus tonnage to handlers after that date, except that if the committee determines, with the approval of the Secretary, that a major change in conditions has occurred, such as the involvement of the United States in war or a crop failure in the following year, or any other significant development, which indicates a shortage of supply, the said July 5 limitation shall no longer apply.

(6) Notice to Secretary of proposed sales to handlers. The committee shall file with the Secretary, by telegram or air mail letter, seven calendar days prior to making any offer to sell surplus prunes pursuant to this paragraph, complete information with respect thereto, including the basis therefor. The Secretary shall have the right to disapprove, within such seven-day period, the making of such an offer or any term or condition thereof.

(e) Sales of standard prunes for manufacturing purposes—(1) Manufacturing outlets included in estimate of salable percentage. In the event it appears that the total salable tonnage is not sufficient to meet the estimated domestic and foreign requirements due to the expansion of manufacturing outlets, which outlets were provided for in estimating the salable percentage, to a greater extent than was anticipated at the time of estimating the salable percentage, the committee may offer to sell, and sell, surplus standard prunes to handlers for resale or use for such manufacturing purposes in which such prunes will lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption, in such quantities as are necessary to meet the increased demand. The quantity of prunes offered to individual handlers to meet such deficiency shall be in the proportion that the respective handler's sales or uses for manufacturing bears to sales or uses for manufacturing by all handlers. No such sale shall be made by the committee at a price below that which reflects the average price received by producers for salable tonnage during the then current crop year to a date as near as practicable to the date of the offer, as shown by the reports required to be filed under the provisions of § 993.73, plus accrued charges for receiving and storing of surplus tonnage.

(2) Manufacturing outlets not included in estimate of salable percentage. The committee may offer to sell, and sell, to any handler, a quantity of surplus standard prunes for any manufacturing use, which manufacturing use was not included in the estimates upon which the salable percentage was based either because it was considered to have no probable market requirement or because it was not considered in any way by the committee, in the event of proof of demand for such quantity for such purpose. Such sale may be made at a negotiated price. The committee shall require proof that any standard prunes so sold were used for the purpose for which they were sold.

(3) Notice to Secretary of proposed sales of standard prunes for manufacturing purposes. The committee shall file with the Secretary, by telegram or air mail letter, seven calendar days prior to making any offer to sell under either subparagraph (1) or subparagraph (2) of this paragraph surplus standard prunes to handlers pursuant to this paragraph, complete information with respect thereto including the basis for such proposal. The Secretary shall have the right to disapprove, within such seven-day period, the making of such offer or any term or condition thereof.

(f) Sales of substandard prunes for animal feed and for manufacturing purposes. Except as provided in the next two succeeding sentences of this paragraph, the committee may sell direct, or sell to handlers for resale, substandard prunes for animal feed, and for any manufacturing purpose in which such prunes will lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption: Provided, That any such prunes which are sold for disposition for manufacturing purposes for human consumption, either directly to handlers, or for resale by handlers, shall, at the time of such disposition or use, meet those minimum standards prescribed in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) as relate to the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay, and any such prunes so sold by the committee to a person who is not a handler shall meet those quality standards at the time of disposition by the committee. Whenever a certificate of inspection applicable to prunes turned over to a handler unsorted by a producer or dehydrator to be held by such handler as substandard natural condition prunes for the account of the committee pursuant to the provisions of § 993.48 (e) (1) (iii) shows that such prunes fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A), when considered in terms of the entire lot, as they relate to the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay, such prunes shall be sold or disposed of by the committee only to persons who are not handlers of prunes and only for disposition as animal feed, for distillation, or for any use other than for human consumption. Whenever a certificate of appraisal issued pursuant to the provisions of § 993.48 (e) (2) shows that if the quantity of substandard prunes to which such certificate applies were to have all offgrade prunes removed therefrom such offgrade prunes would fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) as they relate to the defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay, a quantity of prunes equivalent to the weight of such offgrade prunes necessary to be removed from the total tonnage shown on the applicable certificate in order for the remainder to be standard prunes shall be sold or disposed of by the committee only to persons who are not handlers of prunes and only for disposition as animal feed, for distillation, or for any use other than for human consumption. No sales of substandard prunes for manufacturing purposes for human consumption shall be made while standard prunes are available in the surplus tonnage. The committee is hereby authorized to exercise such supervision as may be reasonably necessary to insure that substandard prunes are disposed of for the respective uses for which they were sold. All such sales may be made at negotiated prices.

(g) Donations of surplus prunes. The committee may donate limited quantities of surplus prunes for use in research or promotional activities.

(h) Unsold surplus tonnage. The committee shall endeavor to sell all prunes in the surplus tonnage at a rate so as to achieve, as nearly as may be practicable, the complete disposition of the surplus tonnage not later than July 31 of the crop year. Any surplus tonnage remaining unsold as of July 31 shall be disposed of as soon as practicable for animal feed, distillation, or in any other outlets which are not competitive with the sale of prunes in normal marketing channels, not otherwise provided for in this paragraph, unless determination with respect to a shortage of supply has been made as provided for in paragraph (d) (5) of this section. The committee may dispose of unsold surplus prunes after July 31 at negotiated prices.

(i) Proceeds of sales of surplus tonnage—(1) Charges against proceeds. Expenses incurred by the committee for the receiving, handling, holding, or disposing of any quantity of surplus tonnage shall be charged against the proceeds of sales of surplus tonnage.

(2) Distribution of net proceeds. Net proceeds from the disposition of surplus tonnage shall be distributed by the committee either directly, or through handlers as agents of the committee, under safeguards to be established by the committee, to persons in proportion to their contributions thereto, or to assignees of such interests, with appropriate grade and size differentials as established by the committee. Progress payments may be made by the committee in the same manner, as sufficient funds accumulate. Distribution of the proceeds in connection with the surplus tonnage contributed by a nonprofit cooperative agricultural marketing association which has authority to market prunes of its members and to allocate the proceeds therefrom to such members shall be made to such association, if it so requests. Prior to making any such distribution, the committee shall submit to the Secretary a report including all pertinent details with respect thereto.

(j) Prohibition against the hypothecation of surplus. In no event shall the committee hypothecate surplus tonnage.

(k) Hypothecation of binding written contracts for the sales of surplus prunes. The committee may hypothecate binding written contracts for the sale of surplus prunes, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the distribution of proceeds of the sales of surplus tonnage prunes in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (i) of this section: Provided, There are included in, and made a part of, the loan agreement in connection with each such loan the following terms and conditions: (1) The recourse of the lender shall be confined to the particular sale contract, or the proceeds which are derived therefrom; (2) neither the Secretary, the committee, any of the committee's members, alternate members, officers, employees, and agents, nor any distributees as such (including their respective officers and employees) of the loan proceeds, shall be liable for the repayment, either in whole or in part, of the particular loan; and (3) the lender waives any right which he might otherwise have, in case of default in repayment, to obtain either possession or control of the surplus prunes involved.

REPORTS AND BOOKS AND OTHER RECORDS

§ 993.71 Confidential information. All reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to the committee which include data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing of the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handler from whom received shall be received by, and at all times kept in the custody and under the control of one or more employees of the committee, who shall disclose such information to no person except the Secretary. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this section, information may be disclosed to the committee when reasonably necessary to enable the committee to carry out its functions under this subpart.

§ 993.72 Reports of acquisitions, sales, uses, and shipments. Each handler shall file such reports of his acquisitions, sales, uses, and shipments of prunes, as may be requested by the committee.

§ 993.73 Reports of prices. Each handler shall file with the committee such price reports as may be requested by the committee, showing the weighted average price paid by such handlers to producers and dehydrators for each size of prunes and the quantity purchased at each such price, to enable the committee to determine the average price received by producers for the purposes set forth in § 993.63.

§ 993.74 Reports of surplus tonnage. Each handler shall file with the committee such reports of the total substandard prunes and other surplus tonnage by grade and size classifications thereof, held in his warehouses or under his control and the location thereof, as may be requested by the committee.

§ 993.75 Other reports. Upon the request of the committee, each handler shall furnish such other reports and information as are needed to enable the committee to perform its functions under this subpart.

§ 993.76 Records. Each handler shall maintain such records of prunes received, held, and disposed of by him as are prescribed by the committee and needed by it to perform its functions under this subpart.

§ 993.77 Verification of reports. For the purpose of checking and verifying reports filed by handlers or the operation of handlers under the provisions of this subpart, the committee, through its duly authorized agents, shall have access to any premises where prunes may be held by any handler and at any time during reasonable business hours, shall be permitted to inspect any prunes so held by such handler and any and all records of such handler with respect to the holding or disposition of all prunes which may be held or which may have been disposed of by him.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 993.80 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses (exclusive of expenses for the receiving, handling, holding, or disposing of any quantity of surplus tonnage) as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each crop year for the maintenance and functioning of the committee and for such other purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of this subpart, determine to be appropriate. The recommendation of the committee as to these expenses and the recommended rate of assessment for each crop year, together with all data supporting such recommendations, shall be filed with the Secretary not later than the fourth Tuesday of July preceding the crop year in connection with which such recommendations are made.

§ 993.81 Assessments—(a) Requirement for payment and rate of assessment. The funds to cover the expenses of the committee (exclusive of expenses for the receiving, handling, holding, or disposing of any quantity of surplus tonnage) shall be acquired by levying assessments. Each handler shall pay to the committee, upon demand, with respect to all salable tonnage prunes handled by him as the first handler thereof and on all prunes sold to him from surplus tonnage for resale to other than Federal governmental agencies, his pro rata share of such expenses which the Secretary finds will be incurred as aforesaid, by the committee during each crop year. Each handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be equal to the ratio between the total salable tonnage handled by him as the first handler thereof plus the tonnage sold to him from surplus tonnage for resale to other than Federal governmental agencies, during the applicable crop year, and the total salable tonnage prunes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof plus tonnage sold to such handlers from surplus tonnage for resale to other than Federal governmental agencies, during the same crop year. The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment to be paid by such handlers on the basis of a specified rate per ton. At any time during or after a crop year the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to apply to all salable tonnage prunes handled by handlers as the first handlers thereof and on all tonnage sold to handlers from surplus tonnage for resale to others than Federal governmental agencies during such crop year to obtain sufficient funds to cover any finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses of the committee. Each handler shall pay such additional assessment to the committee upon demand. The Secretary shall reduce the assessment rate applicable to all such tonnage during the particular crop year if he finds that when thus reduced it will provide funds sufficient to enable the committee properly to perform its functions under this subpart.

(b) Advance payments. In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the committee, the committee may accept advance payments from any handler to be credited toward such assessments as may be levied pursuant to this section against the respective handler.

(c) Use and refund of excess funds from assessments. Any money collected as assessments during any crop year and not expended in connection with the respective crop year's operations hereunder may be used and shall be refunded by the committee in accordance with the provisions hereof. Such excess funds may be used by the committee during the period of five months subsequent to such crop year in paying the expenses of the committee incurred in connection with the new crop year. The committee shall, however, from funds on hand, including assessments collected during the new crop year, distribute or otherwise make available, within six months after the beginning of the new crop year, the aforesaid excess, as verified by audit, to each handler from whom an assessment was collected, as aforesaid, in the proportion that the amount of the assessment paid by the respective handler bears to the total amount of the assessments paid by all handlers during said previous crop year. Any money collected from assessments hereunder and remaining unexpended in the possession of the committee upon the termination hereof shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct.

(d) Suits for collection. The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name, or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's assessment.

§ 993.82 Funds. All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this subpart shall be used solely for the purposes authorized in this subpart and shall be accounted for in the manner provided for in this subpart. The Secretary may, at any time, require the committee or its members and alternate members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 993.84 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the committee, or any employee, representative, or agent thereof shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any person, for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate member, employee, representative, or agent, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 993.85 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 993.86 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 993.87 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 993.88 Agents—(a) Authorization by Secretary. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the United States Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

(b) Authorization by committee. The committee may authorize any person or persons or agency to act as its agent or representative in connection with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 993.89 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart, as well as any amendments to this subpart, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare, and shall continue in force until terminated, or during suspension, in one of the ways specified in § 993.90.

§ 993.90 Termination or suspension—(a) Failure to effectuate policy of act. The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart, by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine. The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart, whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) Referendum. The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart on or before the fifteenth day of July of any crop year, to be effective at the end of such crop year, whenever he is required to do so by the provisions of section 8c (16) (B) of the act. The Secretary may, at any time he deems it desirable, hold a referendum of producers to determine whether they favor termination of this subpart. However, beginning with 1951, if the Secretary receives a recommendation, adopted by at least a majority vote of the producer members of the committee, requesting the holding of such a referendum, the Secretary shall hold such a referendum: Provided, That the Secretary shall not be required to hold such a referendum upon the basis of such a request more than once every two years.

(c) Termination of act. The provisions of this subpart shall terminate, in any event, upon the termination of the act.

§ 993.91 Procedure upon termination. Upon the termination of this subpart, the members of the committee then functioning shall continue as joint trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee. Action by such trustee shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees. Such trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary, and shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all the funds, properties, and claim vested in the committee or the joint trustees, pursuant to this subpart. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or the joint trustees, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the said committee and upon said joint trustees.

§ 993.92 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendement to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter rise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary, or of any other person, with respect to such violation.

§ 993.93 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed from time to time, by any person or by the committee, and may be made a part of this subpart by the procedures provided under the act.

I. Minimum standards for natural condition prunes:

A. Defects. Defects are: (1) Off-color; (2) inferior meat condition; (3) end cracks; (4) fermentation; (5) skin or flesh damage; (6) scab; (7) burned; (8) mold; (9) imbedded dirt; (10) insect infestation; (11) decay.

B. Explanation of terms. (1) "Off-color" means a dull color or skin differing noticeably in appearance from that which is characteristic of mature, properly handled fruit of a given variety or type.

(2) "Inferior meat condition" means flesh which is fibrous, woody or otherwise inferior due to immaturity to the extent that the characteristic texture of the meat is substantially affected.

(3) "End cracks" means callous growth cracks, at the blossom end of prunes, aggregating more than three-eighths of one inch (⅜") but not more than one-half of one inch (½") in length.

(4) "Fermentation" means damage to the flesh by fermentation to the exent that the characteristic appearance or flavor is substantially affected.

(5) "Skin or flesh damage" means growth cracks, splits, breaks in skin or flesh of the following descriptions:

(a) Callous growth cracks, except end cracks as defined in this section, aggregating more than three-eighths of one inch (⅜") in length;

(b) Splits or skin breaks exposing flesh and affecting materially the normal appearance of the prunes.

(c) Any cracks, splits or breaks open to the pit;

(d) Healed or unhealed surface or flesh blemishes caused by insect injury and which materially affect appearance, edibility or keeping quality;

(e) Skin damage caused by rain or overdipping to the extent that the prunes cannot be processed normally without material aloughing of the skin.

(6) "Scab" means tough or thick scab exceeding in the aggregate the area of a circle three-eighths of one inch (⅜") in diameter or by unsightly scab of another character exceeding in the aggregate the area of a circle three-fourths of one inch (¾") in diameter.

(7) "Burned" means injury by sunburn or excessive heat in dehydration to the extent that the characteristic appearance, flavor or edibility of the fruit is noticeably affected.

(8) "Mold" means a characteristic fungus growth and is self-explanatory.

(9) "Imbedded dirt" means the presence of dirt or other extraneous material so imbedded in, or adhering to, the prune that it cannot be removed in normal processing.

(10) "Insect infestation" means the presence of insects, insect fragments or insect remains.

C. Maximum tolerances. Tolerance allowances shall be on a weight basis and shall not exceed the following:

(1) The tolerance allowance for decay shall not exceed one percent (1%).

(2) The combined tolerance allowance for mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed five percent (5%).

(3) The combined tolerance allowance for fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed eight percent (8%).

(4) The combined tolerance allowance for end cracks, fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed ten percent (10%), except that the first eight percent (8%) of end cracks shall be given one-half value and any additional percentage of end cracks shall be given full value.

(5) The combined tolerance allowance for off-color, inferior meat condition, end cracks, fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed twenty percent (20%), except that the first eight percent (8%) of end cracks shall be given one-half value and any additional percentage of end cracks shall be given full value.

(6) Prunes showing obvious live insect infestation shall be fumigated prior to acceptance.

D. Natural condition prunes must be properly dried and cured in original natural condition, without the addition of water, and free from active infestation, so that they are capable of being received, stored and packed without deterioration or spoilage.

II. Minimum standards for processed prunes:

A. Defects. Defects are: (1) Off-color; (2) inferior meat condition; (3) end cracks; (4) fermentation; (5) skin or flesh damage; (6) scab; (7) burned; (8) mold; (9) imbedded dirt; (10) insect infestation; (11) decay.

B. Explanation of terms. (1) "Off-color" means a dull color or skin differing noticeably in appearance from that which is characteristic of mature, properly handled fruit of a given variety or type.

(2) "Inferior meat condition" means flesh which is fibrous, woody or otherwise inferior due to immaturity to the extent that the characteristic texture of the meat is substantially affected.

(3) "End cracks" means callous growth cracks, at the blossom end of prunes, aggregating more than three-eighths of one inch (⅜") but not more than one-half of one inch (½") in length.

(4) "Fermentation" means damage to the flesh by fermentation to the extent that the characteristic appearance or flavor is substantially affected.

(5) "Skin or flesh damage" means growth cracks, splits, breaks in skin or flesh of the following descriptions:

(a) Callous growth cracks, except end cracks as defined in this section, aggregating more than three-eights of one inch (⅜") in length;

(b) Splits or skin breaks exposing flesh and materially affecting the normal appearance of French prunes; or markedly affecting the normal appearance of varieties other than the French variety;

(c) Any cracks, splits or breaks open to the pit;

(d) Healed or unhealed surface or flesh blemishes caused by insect injury and which materially affect appearance, edibility or keeping quality.

(6) "Scab" means tough or thick scab exceeding in the aggregate the area of a circle three-eighths of one inch (⅜") in diameter or by unsightly scab of another character exceeding in the aggregate the area of a circle three-fourths of one inch (¾") in diameter.

(7) "Burned" means injury by sunburn or excessive heat in dehydration to the extent that the characteristic appearance, flavor or edibility of the fruit is noticeably affected.

(8) "Mold" means a characteristic fungus growth and is self-explanatory.

(9) "Imbedded dirt" means the presence of dirt or other extraneous material so imbedded in, or adhering to, the prune that it cannot be readily removed in washing the fruit.

(10) "Insect infestation" means the presence of insects, insect fragments or insect remains.

C. Maximum tolerances. Tolerance allowances shall be on a weight basis and shall not exceed the following:

(1) There shall be no tolerance allowance for live insect infestation.

(2) The tolerance allowance for decay shall not exceed one percent (1%).

(3) The combined tolerance allowance for mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed five percent (5%).

(4) The combined tolerance allowance for fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed eight percent (8%).

(5) The combined tolerance allowance for end cracks, fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed ten percent (10%), except that the first eight percent (8%) of end cracks shall be given one-half value and any additional percentage of end cracks shall be given full value.

(6) The combined tolerance allowance for off-color, inferior meat condition, end cracks, fermentation, skin or flesh damage, scab, burned, mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation, and decay shall not exceed twenty percent (20%), except that the first eight percent (8%) of end cracks shall be given one-half value and any additional percentage of end cracks shall be given full value.

[Docket No. AO 201-A2]

Handling of Dried Prunes Produced in California

ORDER DIRECTING THAT A REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG PRODUCERS OF PRUNE PLUMS IN CALIFORNIA FOR DRYING OR DEHYDRATING INTO DRIED PRUNES IN SAID STATE; DESIGNATING AGENTS TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM; AND DETERMINING THE REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers who, during the period August 1, 1952 through July 31, 1953 (which is hereby determined to be a representative period for the purpose of this referendum), were engaged, in the State of California, in the growing of prune plums for the production, for market, of dried prunes to determine whether such producers approve or favor the issuance of a further amended order regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California; said order, as proposed to be amended, being annexed to the decision of the Secretary of Agriculture filed [1] simultaneously herewith.

The procedure applicable to this referendum shall be the "Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda Among Producers in Connection with Marketing Orders (Except Those Applicable to Milk and its Products) to Become Effective Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended" (15 F. R. 5176).

W. Allmandinger, R. G. Rush, G. R. Eastman, and Hugh Ross, of the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents of the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct said referendum jointly or severally.

Copies of the text of the aforesaid amended order may be obtained or examined in: The Office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.; the office of the Prune Administrative Committee, No. 2 Pine Street, San Francisco 11, California; the San Francisco Marketing Field Office, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1000 Geary Street, San Francisco 9, California; and the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in each of the prune producing counties in California.

Ballot forms for use in the referendum may be obtained from the San Francisco Marketing Field Office, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, 1000 Geary Street, San Francisco 9, California, and the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in each of the prune producing counties in California.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of December 1953.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

ORGANIZATION AND DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The actions herein are pursuant to authority delegated to the Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, by the Secretary of Agriculture.

FUNCTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

SECTION 1. General. The Agricultural Marketing Service, hereinafter referred to as "AMS," is responsible for the marketing and distribution functions of the Department. These consist of marketing research and related statistical and economic research, marketing services and regulatory activities, school lunch program, and food distribution activities, including those under section 32 (7 U. S. C. 612c) and the Defense Production Act.

SEC. 2. The Office of the Administration—(a) The Administrator. The Administrator is responsible for the general direction and supervision of AMS. He reports to the Assistant Secretary for Marketing and Foreign Agriculture.

(b) Deputy Administrator, Marketing Research and Statistics. The Deputy Administrator for Marketing Research and Statistics is responsible for

(1) Assisting the Administrator in the over-all planning and administration of all programs and activities of AMS, and

(2) Planning and administering a program for research and development relating to agricultural marketing and distribution, for analyses relating to farm prices, income and population, and demand for farm products, and for crop and livestock estimates.

(c) Deputy Administrator, Marketing Services. The Deputy Administrator for Marketing Services is responsible for

(1) Assisting the Administrator in the over-all planning and administration of all programs and activities of AMS, and

(2) Directing and coordinating the administration of marketing services (inspection, classing, grading, standardization and market news), regulatory activities, food distribution, surplus removal and related programs and activities, including those specifically assigned under section 5 hereof, and

(3) Administering the U. S. Warehouse Act, section 201 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, and section 203 (j) of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946.

(d) Assistant Administrator for Management. The Assistant Administrator for Management is responsible for:

(1) Participating with the Administrator, Deputy Administrators, and other key staff members, in the over-all planning and administration of all programs and activities of AMS, with particular respect to the management aspects, and

(2) Formulating, directing, coordinating and integrating the over-all management, budget, fiscal, personnel, and administrative services activities to meet the requirements of the marketing and distribution programs of AMS.

SEC. 3. Staff Assistants—(a) Liaison Office, Commissioners of Agriculture. This office is responsible for

(1) Providing leadership and consulting services to assist States in the development of sound marketing service projects and coordinating similar lines of work between States,

(2) Reviewing and approving projects proposed by the State Departments of Agriculture and Bureaus of Markets under matching funds provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946.

(b) Chairman, Outlook and Situation Board. The Chairman of the Outlook and Situation Board is responsible for

(1) Acting as Chairman of the Outlook and Situation Board, and

(2) Providing for the technical review and approval of all economic Outlook and Situation reports prepared within the Department.

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

SEC. 7. Deputy Administrators. Under the supervision and direction of the Administrator, the Deputy Administrator, Marketing Research and Statistics, and the Deputy Administrator, Marketing Services, are hereby delegated the authority, severally, to perform all the duties and to exercise all the functions and powers (including the power of redelegation) which are now, or which may hereafter be, vested in the Administrator. The authority herein conferred upon each Deputy Administrator shall be exercised by each of such officers in connection with the programs and activities of the Agricultural Marketing Service assigned to the respective Deputy Administrator's direction and supervision. The authority granted herein may also be exercised in the discharge of any additional functions which the Administrator may assign.

SEC. 8. Assistant Administrator for Management. Under the direction and supervision of the Administrator, the Assistant Administrator for Management is hereby delegated the authority to perform all the duties and to exercise all the functions and powers (including the power of redelegation) which are now, or which may hereafter be, vested in the Administrator, with respect to formulating, directing, coordinating, and integrating the over-all management, budget, fiscal, personnel, and administrative services activities to meet the requirements of AMS.

SEC. 9. Staff Assistants. Under the supervision and direction of the Administrator, and in connection with the respective functions herein assigned to each of them, the officers in charge of the Liaison and the Statistical Clearance Offices, and the Chairman, Outlook and Situation Board, are hereby delegated authority to perform all the duties and to exercise all the powers and functions of the Administrator.

SEC. 10. Marketing Research and Statistics Divisions. Under the supervision and direction of the Deputy Administrator, Marketing Research and Statistics, and in connection with the respective functions herein assigned to each of them, the Directors of the Marketing Research and Statistics Divisions are hereby authorized to perform all of the duties and to exercise all the powers and functions which the officials of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the Production and Marketing Administration, and the Agricultural Research Administration were authorized and empowered to perform in connection with said functions at the time of their transfer to AMS.

SEC. 11. Marketing Services Divisions. Under the supervision and direction of the Deputy Administrator, Marketing Services,

(a) The Directors of the Cotton Division, Dairy Division, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Grain Division, Livestock Division, Poultry Division, Tobacco Division, and Food Distribution Division are hereby delegated authority, in connection with the respective functions herein assigned to each of them, to perform all the duties and to exercise all of the powers and functions which the respective Directors of the Cotton Branch, Dairy Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Grain Branch, Livestock Branch, Poultry Branch, Tobacco Branch, and Food Distribution Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration were authorized and empowered to perform in connection with said functions at the time of their transfer to AMS, and

(b) The Director of the Fruit and Vegetable Division is hereby delegated authority to perform all the duties and to exercise all the powers and functions which the Director of the Sugar Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, was authorized and empowered to perform in connection with market news and grades and standards at the time of the transfer of such functions to AMS.

SEC. 12. Management Services Divisions. Under the supervision and direction of the Assistant Administrator for Management and in connection with the respective functions herein assigned to each of them, the Directors of the Budget and Finance Division, Administrative Services Division, and the Personnel Management Division, are hereby delegated the authority to perform all the duties and to exercise all the functions and powers (including the power of redelegation) which are now, or which may hereafter be, vested in the Assistant Administrator for Management.

SEC. 13. U. S. Warehouse Act and Freight Rate Services Branches. Under the supervision and direction of the Deputy Administrator, Marketing Services, and in connection with the respective functions herein assigned to each of them, the Chiefs of the U. S. Warehouse Act Branch and the Freight Rate Services Branch are hereby delegated authority to perform all the duties and to exercise all of the powers and functions which the respective chiefs of the U. S. Warehouse Act Division and the Traffic Management Division of the Transportation and Warehousing Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, were authorized and empowered to perform in connection with said functions at the time of their transfer to AMS.

SEC. 14. Concurrent authority and responsibility to the Administrator. No delegation or authority prescribed herein shall preclude the Administrator, either Deputy Administrator, or the Assistant Administrator for Management, from exercising any of the powers or functions or from performing any of the duties conferred herein, and any such delegation or authorization is subject at all times to withdrawal or amendment by the Administrator and, in their respective fields, by either Deputy Administrator, or the Assistant Administrator for Management. The officers to whom authority is delegated herein shall keep the Administrator's Office advised with respect to major problems and developments and consult with it before taking actions which involve policy questions or major questions involving relationships with other Federal agencies, other agencies of the Department, other organizational divisions or branches of AMS, or State agencies.

SEC. 15. Existing regulations and orders. All regulations, orders, and similar instruments heretofore issued by any officer of the Department of Agriculture relating to the functions affected by this document shall continue in full force and effect, unless and until withdrawn or superseded by instruments of like authority.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of December 1953 to become effective January 2, 1954.

Bureau of Foreign Commerce

[Case No. 168]

ERNST COHN ET AL.

ORDER REVOKING LICENSES AND DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Ernst Cohn, Herbert James Philippi, N. V. Amsterdamsche Maatschappij voor Industrie en Handel—"Hydrocarbon", 384 Herengracht, Amsterdam, C. Netherlands; respondents; Case No. 168.

The respondents, Ernst Cohn, Herbert James Philippi, and N. V. Amsterdamsche Maatschappij voor Industrie en Handel—"Hydrocarbon", having been charged by the Director of the Investigation Staff, Bureau of Foreign Commerce (formerly the Office of International Trade), United States Department of Commerce, with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, in that, as alleged, they caused false representation as to ultimate consignees and destinations to be made in applications for export licenses filed with the Office of International Trade (now Bureau of Foreign Commerce) and thereafter transshipped commodities exported under such export licenses to other consignees and destinations, were duly served with the charging letter, acknowledged receipt thereof, and submitted their defenses and explanations thereto. At the same time that the charging letter was issued respondents were temporarily suspended from validated license privileges pending the determination of this proceeding. They were informed of their right to counsel and a formal hearing, if demanded. They did not demand a hearing. In accordance with the regulations, the evidence in this case together with the charges and all communications received from the respondents were submitted to the Compliance Commissioner for consideration, report, and recommendation by him.

The Compliance Commissioner has reported the facts with his recommendation and has transmitted the same together with the entire record to the undersigned Director, Office of Export Supply.

Now upon considering the facts of this case, after reviewing the entire record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner, I hereby make the following Findings of fact. (1) At all times hereinafter mentioned Ernst Cohn and Herbert James Philippi were co-managers of N. V. Amsterdamsche Maatschappij voor Industrie en Handel, sometimes known as N. V. Hydrocarbon, engaged in the export-import and transit business in Amsterdam, Holland, at Herengracht 384, and all the acts hereinafter set forth were committed by said individuals on behalf of and in the name of their firm. They are all hereinafter referred to as respondents.

(2) In November and December 1950, and in January, February, and July 1951, respondents caused their agent in New York City to submit to the Office of International Trade, now the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, eight applications for export licenses to ship oils or wax to themselves or other consignees therein represented to be the ultimate consignees and, in the said applications, they represented that either Holland or West Germany was the country of ultimate destination.

(3) Respondents gave to their said agent the information of names of ultimate consignees and countries of ultimate destination with knowledge that such information so given was false in each instance and with the intention that the names of the true consignees and the true countries of ultimate destination be concealed from the then Office of International Trade.

(4) Export licenses were granted upon the applications filed by respondents' agent upon their instructions.

(5) Respondents' agent, upon being placed in funds by respondents, purchased the oil or wax so licensed to be exported and, under the authority of the licenses so granted, shipped oils and wax out of the United States. In each case, the oils or wax arrived in Europe and, upon arrival there, respondents, with knowledge that each such shipment had been made under an export license permitting its export from the United States for consumption by the consignee named in the license only in the country therein named as country of ultimate destination, diverted or caused to be diverted and transshipped oils or wax so shipped from the consignees and countries named in the licenses to other consignees and countries not authorized or permitted thereby. Although only Holland and West Germany had been named in the applications as countries of ultimate destination, respondents actually transshipped commodities exported thereunder to Poland, Switzerland, Rostock in East Germany, Hungary, France, and Austria.

And from the foregoing, I conclude (a) that respondents knowingly concealed from their agent in the United States and from the United States Government the identities of the true ultimate consignees and the true countries of ultimate destination for the oils and wax for which they caused their agent to apply for export licenses and they did further knowingly state falsely and knowingly misrepresent to their said agent and through it to the United States Government the names of ultimate consignees and countries of ultimate destination to be inserted in applications for export licenses, in violation of § 381.1 (b) (1), (2), and (3) (i) and (ii) of the Export Control Regulations; and (b) that respondents knowingly caused to and did divert and transship oils and wax exported from the United States under the authority of licenses granted for such export to named ultimate consignees and named countries of ultimate destination from such named persons and countries to other persons and other countries not permitted or authorized under said licenses and contrary to the terms thereof, in violation of §§ 381.1 (b) (3) (i), 381.4 (b) (3) and (d) (2) of the Export Control Regulations.

The Compliance Commissioner has recommended that respondents be suspended from export privileges for a period of five years or for the duration of export control legislation, whichever is the shorter, and has stated numerous reasons for such recommendation, primarily among them being "• • • that the very nature of respondents' business is such that it is more than likely that commodities received by them from the United States will be distributed all over Europe, including Soviet-bloc countries * * *". I have carefully considered his report and recommendation and I have concluded that the terms of the recommended order are reasonable, necessary, and proper to achieve effective enforcement of the law and they are accordingly adopted.

Now, therefore, it is ordered as follows:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which the respondents, or any of them, are named, or in which they appear or participate as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be forthwith returned to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce for cancellation.

II. Respondents and each of them are hereby denied and declared ineligible for a period of five (5) years from the date hereof or for the duration of export control legislation, whichever is the shorter, to exercise the privilege of participating directly or indirectly in any manner or capacity in the exportation of any commodity from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, participation in an exportation shall be deemed to include and prohibit respondants' participation (a) in the filing of any validated export license application, (b) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document, (c) in the receiving in any foreign country of any exportation from the United States, and (d) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States.

III. Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the named respondents, their successors or assigns, directors, officers, associates, partners, representatives, agents, and/or employees, but also to any person, firm, corporation or business organization with which they, or any of them, may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV. No person, firm, corporation, or other business organization shall knowingly apply for or obtain any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation from the United States under validated or general licenses, or otherwise, to or for the named respondents or any of them, or any person, firm, corporation or other business organization within the scope of Part III above, without prior disclosure of such facts to, and specific authorization from, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

Dated: December 28, 1953.

Director,

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6538]

BLACK HILLS POWER & LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Take notice that on December 21, 1953, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Black Hills Power & Light Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of South Dakota and doing business in the States of South Dakota and Wyoming, with its principal business office at Rapid City, South Dakota, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of such number of shares of Comon Stock as will equal an aggregate offering price not in excess of $300,000, computed upon the market value of Applicant's Common Stock as determined from transactions or quotations in the over the counter market on a specified date within fifteen days prior to the date of filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission a letter of notification under Regulation A of the Securities Act of 1933. The securities proposed to be issued will be offered to holders of the presently outstanding Common Stock of Applicant pro rata according to their preemptive rights, with additional rights to such stockholders to subscribe for any shares not taken upon the exercise of the preemptive rights. The offering will not be underwritten. The Applicant, however, proposes to pay compensation of 25 cents per share to security dealers who are members of the National Association of Security Dealers, Inc. who assist stockholders in the exercise of their warrants and whose names are stamped on warrants that have been duly exercised. The net proceeds to Applicant from the issuance and sale of the Common Stock is estimated at $260,000 after deducting expenses and commissions; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard, or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the fifteenth day of January 1954, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

OTTER TAIL POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Take notice that on December 21, 1953, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Otter Tail Power Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota and doing business in the States of North Dakota, South Dakota and Minnesota, with its principal business office at Fergus Falls, Minnesota, seeking an order authorizing the issuance and sale of $2,500,000 of its ten-year Convertible Debentures, bearing interest at the rate of 4 percent per year, to be issued in January or February 1954, to mature January 1, 1964. The application also seeks authority to issue an unspecified number of shares of Common Stock, par value $5.00 each, upon conversion of such Convertible Debentures (the exact number of shares to be issued upon conversion to be determined at the time of entering into the Underwriting Agreement referred to in the application). The proposed Debentures will be offered to common stockholders ratably in the proportion of $4.00 Debentures to each share of Common Stock outstanding, pursuant to the preemptive rights of the holders of Common Stock, and it is contemplated that the warrants by which the Convertible Debentures will be so offered to common stockholders will expire fourteen days from the date of issue. Applicant also seeks an order granting exemptions from the competitive bidding requirements of § 31.1 of the Commission's rules and regulations with respect to the underwriting of said Convertible Debentures; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the fifteenth day of January 1954, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket Nos. G-2332, G-2333]

ARKANSAS-OKLAHOMA GAS CO., AND FORT SMITH CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

In the matters of Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Company, Docket No. G-2332; Fort Smith Gas Corporation, Docket No. G-2333.

Take notice that there have been filed with the Federal Power Commission by the persons and on the dates hereinafter designated several interdependent applications each for authorization pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act as hereinafter set forth, all as more fully described in the respective interdependent applications.

Arkansas-Oklahoma Gas Company (Arkansas-Oklahoma), a Delaware corporation, address 35 South Seventh Street, Fort Smith, Arkansas, filed on December 11, 1953, an application at Docket No. G-2332 pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act for authority to sell and transfer its gathering, transmission and distribution facilities to the Fort Smith Gas Corporation (Fort Smith Gas), and to abandon the service rendered through such facilities.

A companion application at Docket No. G-2333 was filed on December 11, 1953, by Fort Smith Gas, an Arkansas corporation, address 35 South Seventh Street, Fort Smith, Arkansas, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the acquisition and operation of the facilities proposed to be sold by Arkansas.

The facilities proposed to be acquired by Fort Smith Gas include 61.2 miles of gathering lines, 236.9 miles of transmission lines, 231.6 miles of distribution mains, and 207,000 feet of customers' services. Following the acquisition of these facilities, Fort Smith Gas proposes to use such facilities in exactly the same manner as now employed by Arkansas-Oklahoma for the transmission and distribution of natural gas in Sebastian, Crawford and Franklin Counties in Arkansas, and LeFlore and Sequoyah Counties in Oklahoma.

The facilities are proposed to be purchased for the net book value as of the date of purchase. At September 1953 the net book value was $1,938,009.34.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 15th day of January 1954. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File Nos. 54-196, 59-97, 70-2681, 70-3156]

MISSION OIL CO. ET AL.

ORDER REGARDING CONSOLIDATION OF PROPERTIES AND ELIMINATION OF HOLDING COMPANY, AND ORDER CONFORMING TO SUPPLEMENT R OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

DECEMBER 24, 1953.

In the matter of The Mission Oil Company, Southwestern Development Company and subsidiaries, and Sinclair Oil Corporation, File Nos. 54-196, 59-97; Albert R. Jones, et al., File No. 70-2681; Southwestern Development Company, Amarillo Gas Company, Amarillo Oil Company, Clayton Gas Company, Dalhart Gas Company, Red River Gas Company, West Texas Gas Company, File No. 70-3156.

An application-declaration having been filed with this Commission pursuant to sections 7, 10 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Southwestern Development Company ("Southwestern"), a registered holding company, and by its wholly owned subsidiary companies, Amarillo Gas Company ("Amarillo Gas"), Amarillo Oil Company ("Amarillo Oil"), Clayton Gas Company ("Clayton"), Dalhart Gas Company ("Dalhart"), Red River Gas Company ("Red River"), and West Texas Gas Company ("West Texas"), regarding certain proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

In brief, it is proposed that the Southwestern holding-company system, presently consisting of Southwestern which is the parent holding company, and six subsidiaries thereof, will be changed so that there will continue in existence a single operating public-utility company—namely, Amarillo Gas, whose name will be changed to Pioneer Natural Gas Company ("Pioneer")—and a single non-utility company—Amarillo Oil, which will be a subsidiary of Pioneer. Southwestern will be liquidated and dissolved, and its stockholders will receive in place of their shares in Southwestern, a pro rata amount of the common stock of Pioneer. Sinclair Oil Corporation ("Sinclair"), a partially exempt registered holding company, which owns approximately 53 percent of the common stock of Southwestern, will receive in exchange therefor a like percentage of the common stock of Pioneer.

The steps in the program are as follows:

(a) Amarillo Oil will transfer its transmission line properties to West Texas in exchange for the latter's production properties (gasoline plant, gathering lines and any other production facilities). This exchange will be made on the basis of the respective book values of the properties, with Amarillo Oil paying West Texas in cash the excess of the book value of the West Texas properties over that of Amarillo Oil in the amount of approximately $142,300.00.

(b) Southwestern will make a contribution to the capital of West Texas by cancelling all indebtedness owing by West Texas to Southwestern.

(c) Under a plan of reorganization to be entered into between Southwestern, Amarillo Oil and Red River, Amarillo Oil will amend its charter to authorize an additional number of shares of its stock (approximately 87,000 shares) of a par value of $25 per share having an aggregate par value equal to the net book value of Red River's properties and the indebtedness of Amarillo Oil to Southwestern. Red River will subscribe for such part thereof as will equal the book value of all of its properties less its liabilities, which properties will be transferred by Red River to Amarillo Oil in payment for such stock, Amarillo Oil assuming Red River's liabilities. Southwestern will subscribe for the balance of such shares and pay therefor by cancelling the indebtedness owing by Amarillo to Southwestern. Red River will dissolve and distribute its holdings of Amarillo Oil stock to Southwestern in cancellation of Red River's stock held by Southwestern.

(d) Under a plan of reorganization to be entered into between Southwestern and Amarillo Gas, Amarillo Gas will amend its corporate charter so as to change its name to Pioneer, reclassify its capital stock, and make other provisions necessary to the consummation of the transactions involved in the program, as well as to provide additional protection for investors.

(e) Also pursuant to the plan of reorganization between Southwestern and Amarillo Gas, Southwestern will (1) surrender the presently outstanding 5,000 shares of capital stock of Amarillo Gas, par value $100 per share, owned by it for conversion into 66,666⅔ reclassified shares of the par value of $7.50 per share, and (2) cancel all indebtedness owing by Amarillo Gas to Southwestern and transfer to Amarillo Gas all of the assets and properties of Southwestern other than Amarillo Gas $7.50 par value capital stock held by it, including all of the outstanding capital stocks of Amarillo Oil, West Texas, Dalhart and Clayton, in payment for the unissued 1,388,847⅓ shares of the $7.50 par value capital stock of Amarillo Gas (including 66,666⅔ shares of reclassified treasury stock) which 1,388,847⅓ shares will be issued to Southwestern. As a part of the consideration for the transfer of these assets by Southwestern, Amarillo Gas will assume all of the liabilities of Southwestern including $9,450,000 principal amount of notes having varying maturities and interest rates from 2½ percent to 3¼ percent per annum.

(f) Immediately following the completion of the steps set forth in paragraph (e) above, West Texas, Dalhart and Clayton will transfer, in liquidation, all of their properties to Amarillo Gas subject to and upon the assumption of all of their liabilities by Amarillo Gas. West Texas, Dalhart and Clayton will then be dissolved.

(g) Upon the completion of the steps set forth above, a meeting of the stockholders of Southwestern will be held to authorize the distribution of Southwestern's assets to its stockholders and its dissolution.

(h) Southwestern will transfer to the holders of the 727,757 shares of its capital stock in exchange for the surrender for cancellation by such stockholders of the shares of $5.00 par value capital stock of Southwestern presently held by them, two shares of Pioneer $7.50 par value capital stock for each share of Southwestern stock so held.

(i) After consummation of all of the foregoing transactions, Southwestern will be dissolved.

It is stated that the right of Southwestern stockholders to receive Pioneer capital stock in exchange for the surrender for cancellation of their shares of Southwestern capital stock shall be without limitation as to time, and that Southwestern will, however, during a reasonable period following the beginning of such distribution and transfer make every reasonable effort from time to time to locate such Southwestern stockholders as are entitled to receive Pioneer capital stock but whose Southwestern stock has not been surrendered for exchange.

The declaration states that The New Mexico Public Service Commission has jurisdiction over the sale of the stock or properties of Clayton and that its approval has been obtained, and that no other State or Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Southwestern has also requested an order of the Commission pursuant to section 5 (d) of the act to be issued upon the filing of a certificate of notification of consummation of the transactions as proposed in the application-declaration, which order shall direct that Southwestern has ceased to be a holding company under the act and that its registration under the act has ceased to be in effect.

Southwestern and Sinclair have applied, in certain proceedings captioned "In the Matter of The Mission Oil Company, Southwestern Development Company and Subsidiaries, and Sinclair Oil Corporation, File Nos. 54-196, 59-97, and in the Matter of Albert R. Jones, et al., File No. 70-2681", filed under section 11 (e) of the act, wherein the Commission approved a plan of reorganization by its Findings, Opinion and Order dated December 21, 1951 (Holding Company Act Release No. 10969) for a Supplemental Order containing recitals conforming to Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code with regard to certain of the transactions outlined above, and also with respect to the sale by Sinclair (within six months from the date of this order or within such longer time as the Commission may by further order direct) of the stock of Pioneer which Sinclair will receive in lieu of the Southwestern stock which it now holds and the investment of an amount equal to the proceeds of such sale in Sinclair Refining Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Sinclair.

Southwestern has filed a notice of special meeting, proxy and letter of transmittal in connection with a special meeting which it proposes to hold to obtain authorization of certain of the transactions outlined above.

It is requested that the Commission's order entered herein become effective upon the issuance thereof.

Appropriate notice of said filing having been given pursuant to Rule U-23 and no hearing having been requested of or ordered by the Commission; and

The Commission finding (which findings will be contained in a memorandum opinion to be filed herein) that the proposed transactions satisfy the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that the application be granted and that the Commission's order herein become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, That said application-declaration, as amended, be and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 and to the following additional terms and conditions:

(1) That jurisdiction be and the same hereby is, reserved over all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions and the consummation thereof;

(2) That jurisdiction be and the same hereby is reserved to issue an order pursuant to section 5 (d) of the act with respect to Southwestern upon the filing of a certificate of notification of consummation of the transactions as proposed in the application-declaration as amended.

It is further ordered and recited, Supplementing and amending, to the extent necessary, the Commission's order of December 21, 1951, referred to above, that the steps and transactions itemized below are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which Sinclair, Southwestern, and the subsidiaries of Southwestern are members, and are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and are hereby approved and authorized:

(1) The issuance by Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) to Southwestern of new certificates evidencing 1,388,847⅓ shares of the $7.50 par value capital stock of Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) (including 66,666⅔ shares of reclassified treasury stock) and the assumption by Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) of all liabilities of Southwestern, including the obligations of Southwestern to Guaranty Trust Company then outstanding under the presently outstanding loan agreement between Southwestern and Guaranty, in exchange for the transfer by Southwestern to Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) of all assets of Southwestern other than the 66,666⅔ reclassified shares of $7.50 par value capital stock held by Southwestern (including all the outstanding capital stocks of Amarillo Oil, West Texas, Dalhart and Clayton and notes of Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) held by Southwestern).

(2) The distribution and transfer by Southwestern to its shareholders, in exchange for the surrender of Southwestern stock, of 1,455,514 shares of the $7.50 par value capital stock of Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) to be received by Southwestern from Amarillo Gas (Pioneer).

(3) The sale, at public or private sale, by Sinclair of the 769,721.72 shares of the $7.50 par value capital stock of Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) to be received by it in exchange for the 384,860.86 shares of the $5.00 par value common stock of Southwestern now held by Sinclair.

(4) The investment by Sinclair of an amount equal to the proceeds of the above-mentioned sale by it of the $7.50 par value capital stock of Amarillo Gas (Pioneer) as a contribution to the capital of Sinclair Refining Company, a Maine corporation, and a wholly owned subsidiary of Sinclair.

CENTRAL OHIO LIGHT & POWER CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE REGARDING ISSUANCE OF BANK LOAN NOTES TO BE OUTSTANDING AT ANY [redacted] TIME

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Central Ohio Light & Power Company ("Central"), a public-utility subsidiary of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration, and an amendment thereto, with this Commission pursuant to section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 (a) (2) thereunder regarding the following proposed transactions:

Central has established a line of credit with six banking institutions in the aggregate amount of $3,500,000, and proposes to borrow from time to time prior to December 31, 1954, up to but not to exceed $3,500,000 outstanding at any one time and to issue and deliver to said banks its notes as evidence of such borrowings. The notes to be issued by Central will in each case be dated as of the date of such borrowings, will bear interest from the dates thereof at the then prime interest rate, which is presently 3¼ percent per annum, and will mature not more than 270 days after the date of issuance. Central may prepay the notes from time to time, in whole or in part, without premium, and partial payments would be made ratably on all of the notes on the date or dates designated by Central.

The amount of not to exceed $3,500,000 outstanding at any one time proposed to be borrowed will be used by Central for the following purposes:

(a) The payment, simultaneously with the initial borrowing under such line of credit, on or before January 11, 1954, of

(1) All of Central's then outstanding 3½ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due 1963, in the face amount of $900,000, at the redemption price thereof of 102.25 percent of par together with accrued interest to the date of redemption;

(2) All of Central's presently outstanding notes payable, which mature on January 11, 1954, in the face amount of $1,600,000, at the face amount thereof, and

(3) All of Central's presently outstanding notes payable to banks, which mature on January 7, 1954, in the face amount of $400,000, at the face amount thereof; and

(b) To finance part of the costs of Central's construction program which it estimates at $964,000 for 1954.

Central agrees that provision will be made in its next permanent financing for the prepayment of all of the notes then outstanding and that, at such time, the authorization requested herein with respect to such notes shall terminate.

No finders' fees or commissions are to be paid by Central in connection with the proposed issuance of the notes. Expenses to be incurred by Central are estimated not to exceed $500.

Central requests that the Commission's order permitting its declaration to become effective be issued as soon as practicable pursuant to Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, waives the 30-day waiting period and requests that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

The Commission having examined Central's declaration and the statements contained therein and having found that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied; and

Due notice of the filing of said declaration having been given and no hearing having been ordered by, or requested of, the Commission:

It is hereby ordered, That the declaration of Central, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective, forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

1954, for subsequent credit upon indebtedness to the Corporation. Future payment funds accepted on or after January 1, 1954, for subsequent credit upon indebtedness to the bank, shall be subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon with the borrower at the time of their acceptance. The agreement with the borrower shall specify the rate of interest to be allowed on such funds, which rate may be as allowed on funds accepted before 1954 or as determined by the board of directors of the bank, and such agreement shall include and be consistent with the terms and conditions prescribed by statute for such funds (12 U. S. C. 781 Eighteenth). A bank may also deem it advisable to include terms and conditions similar to those contained in § 10.124 (c) and (d), as well as an express statement that future payment funds are not subject to withdrawal. The form of such agreement, its conformity with the terms and conditions prescribed by statute, and the procedure for making it effective with the borrower, shall have the approval of the district general counsel.

PART 959—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE COUNTIES OF CROOK, DESCHUTES, JEFFERSON, KLAMATH, AND LAKE IN OREGON, AND MODOC AND SISKIYOU IN CALIFORNIA

LIMITATIONS OF SHIPMENTS

§ 959.310 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 114 and Order No. 59, as amended (7 CFR Part 959) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the counties of Crook, Deschutes, Jefferson, Klamath, and Lake in the State of Oregon, and Modoc and Siskiyou in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Oregon-California Potato Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, and (iv) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

(b) Order. (1) During the period January 6, 1954 to June 30, 1954, both dates inclusive, no handler shall ship any potatoes unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade, and are of a size not smaller than 8 ounces minimum weight: Provided, That any such potatoes meeting the requirements of the U. S. No. 1 grade may be shipped if the potatoes are of a size smaller than 8 ounces minimum weight but not smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight: And provided further, That potatoes may be shipped for dehydration, or manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol if such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 grade and are at least 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight.

(2) Pursuant to § 959.54, each handler may ship not in excess of five hundredweight per week without regard to the limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and §§ 959.41 and 959.60.

(3) The limitations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for the following purposes: (i) Grading or storing in the production area, (ii) seed, (iii) canning or freezing, (iv) charity, and (v) livestock feed within the production area.

(4) Each handler making shipments of potatoes for dehydration, or manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and shipments of potatoes pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall (except for shipments of potatoes for grading or storing in the production area, and shipments of potatoes for livestock feed within the production area) (i) file an application with the committee pursuant to § 959.130 for permission to make such shipments, (ii) pay assessments on such shipments pursuant to § 959.41, and (iii) have such shipments (except shipments of seed potatoes) inspected pursuant to § 959.60, and for each shipment of potatoes for dehydration, or manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol made pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and for each shipment of potatoes made pursuant to subdivisions (iii) and (iv) of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall furnish a record of shipment applicable thereto to the committee: Provided, That each application to ship potatoes for dehydration, or manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, or alcohol pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and to ship potatoes pursuant to subdivisions (iii) and (iv) of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph shall be accompanied by the applicant handler's certification and the buyer's certification that the potatoes to be shipped are to be used for the purpose stated in the application: And provided further, That each handler agrees in his application to furnish a copy of the bill of lading on each such shipment and to bill each such shipment directly to the applicable processor.

(5) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 114 and Order No. 59, as amended, and the aforementioned grades and sizes shall have the same meaning assigned those terms in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540–51.1559 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein.

(6) The provisions of § 959.309, Limitation of Shipments, effective September 7, 1953 (18 F. R. 5163), as from time to time amended, are hereby terminated as of the effective date of this paragraph (b).

The regulation limiting shipments of potatoes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, that was issued on August 26, 1953 (18 F. R. 5163), effective on September 7, 1953, has since had four amendments. In order to facilitate references to the respective amendments and to prescribe a modification of the terms thereof, § 959.309 is being terminated and superseded by this section.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of December 1953, to become effective January 6, 1954.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch.

PART 41—VISAS: DOCUMENTATION OF NONIMMIGRANT ALIENS UNDER THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

VALIDITY OF NONIMMIGRANT VISA

The following amendment to Part 41, Chapter I, Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations, is hereby prescribed:

Paragraph (c) of § 41.15 Validity of nonimmigrant visa is amended to read as follows:

(c) A nonimmigrant visa may, in consideration of reciprocal treatment accorded nationals of the United States within a similar class by the government of the country of which the alien is a national, or in consideration of the alien's purpose in traveling to, or through, the United States, or for other valid reasons, be issued valid for (1) a period of validity which is less than the time specified in paragraph (b) of this section, (2) a limited number of applications for admission within the period of the validity of the visa, or (3) application for admission at a specified port or specified ports of entry in the United States.

(Sec. 104, 66 Stat. 174; 8 U. S. C. 1104)

The regulation contained in this order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) relative to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date are inapplicable to this order because the regulation contained therein involves foreign affairs functions of the United States.

Dated: December 24, 1953.

PART 399—POSITIVE LIST OF COMMODITIES AND RELATED MATTERS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Section 399.1 Appendix A—Positive List of Commodities is amended in the following particulars:

1. The following commodities are added to the Positive List. These commodities were formerly licensed by the Department of State. All outstanding licenses for these commodities issued by the Department of State prior to January 1, 1954, remain valid until they expire or are revoked.

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Unit	Processing code and related commodity group	GLV dollar-value limits	Validated license required
	Special-purpose vehicles, n. e. c.:
791113	Amphibian combat vehicles or carriers, n. e. c. (new), single rear axle drive, except armored vehicles or carriers.	No.	TRAN	None	R
791113	Amphibian combat vehicles or carriers, n. e. c. (new), front and rear axle drive or multiple rear axle drive, except armored vehicles or carriers.[1]	No.	TRAN	None	RO
900238	High speed cameras, capable of recording at rates in excess of 250 frames per second.	No.	FILM	None	RO
900600	Parts, n. e. c., special fabricated for high speed cameras capable of recording at rates in excess of 250 frames per second.	----------	FILM	25	RO
919010	Radiosondes.	No.	SATE	None	R

[1] These commodities are subject to the IC/DV requirements (see § 373.2).

2. The revised entries set forth below are substituted for entries presently on the Positive List. Where the Positive List contains more than one entry under a single Schedule B number, the entry to be superseded is identified by a numerical reference enclosed in parentheses following the commodity description in the revised entry.

Dept. of Commerce Schedule B No.	Commodity	Unit	Processing code and related commodity group	GLV dollar-value limits	Validated license required
	Radio and television apparatus:
707815	Television picture receiving tubes (cathode ray) (specify by type number).[1 2]	No.	RARA 51	100	R
707820	Cathode-ray tubes, n. e. c. (formerly 709903) (report television cathode-ray tubes in 707812 and 707815).[2 3]	No.	RARA 51	25	RO
708410	Doppler equipment, and specially fabricated parts, n. e. c. (list).[4]	----------	RARA	None	RO
[illegible]	Carrier current equipment (high frequency wire transmitting and receiving apparatus), n. e. c., and specially fabricated parts, n. e. c. (includes telemetering equipment).[5]	----------	RARA 50	None	R
	Research laboratory apparatus and equipment, n. e. c., and specially fabricated parts, n. e. c.:
919080	Supersonic generators for operation at 17,000 cycles per second or over (15).[6]	No.	SATE	None	RO
919080	Parts, n. e. c., specially fabricated for supersonic generators for operation at 17,000 cycles per second or over (16).[6]	----------	SATE	25	RO

[1] The letter "A" is deleted in the column headed "Commodity Lists," indicating that the commodity is no longer subject to the IC/DV procedure. (See § 373.2.)

[2] All cathode-ray tubes, some of which were licensed by Department of State, are now licensed by Bureau of Foreign Commerce. All outstanding licenses for cathode-ray tubes issued by the Department of State prior to Jan. 1, 1954, remain valid until they expire or are revoked.

[3] The Schedule B No. is changed.

[4] Doppler equipment was licensed by the Department of State. Other electronic detection and navigational apparatus, some of which was licensed by Bureau of Foreign Commerce, is now licensed by Department of State. All outstanding licenses issued by the Department of State or Bureau of Foreign Commerce prior to Jan. 1, 1954, remain valid until they expire or are revoked.

[5] Telemetering equipment, formerly licensed by Department of State, is now licensed by Bureau of Foreign Commerce. All outstanding licenses for telemetering equipment issued by the Department of State prior to Jan. 1, 1954, remain valid until they expire or are revoked.

[6] All supersonic generators and parts, some of which were licensed by Department of State, are now licensed by Bureau of Foreign Commerce. All outstanding licenses for supersonic generators and parts issued by the Department of State prior to Jan. 1, 1954, remain valid until they expire or are revoked.

This amendment shall become effective as of 12:01 a. m., January 1, 1954.

TITLE 45—PUBLIC WELFARE

Chapter V—War Claims Commission

Subchapter C—Appeals and Hearings

PART 515—APPEALS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 515.2 (c) (1) which appeared at 18 F. R. 7794, December 3, 1953, is corrected as follows:

The reference in the last line of § 515.2 (c) (1) to § 515.22 should have read § 515.33.

2. Section 515.5 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 515.5 Appeal proceedings in general. • • •

(c) Findings and conclusions of the Commission upon a decision of the Council on Appeals. (See Subpart D of this part.)

3. Section 515.6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 515.6 Council on Appeals. (a) The Council on Appeals shall consist of three members.

(b) The Council on Appeals shall consider appeals within the War Claims Commission and shall render decisions on appeals. (See Subpart D of this part.) The Director, Appeals and Hearings Service, shall serve as Chairman of the Council on Appeals.

4. Section 515.30 is amended to read as follows:

§ 515.30 Council on Appeals to render decisions on appeals. (a) After a hearing upon an appeal has been held, the Council on Appeals shall, as soon as practicable after receipt of the transcript of the hearing, consider all evidence presented by the appellant in connection with an appeal and shall render a decision on the appeal. (Subject to § 515.31)

(b) If no hearing is requested upon the appeal, the Council on Appeals, shall consider all additional evidence and shall render a decision on the appeal. (Subject to § 515.31)

5. Section 515.31 is amended to read as follows:

§ 515.31 Decision of the Commission. The decision of the Council on Appeals shall be the final action of the Commission, subject to the provisions of § 515.35: however, provided that in the case of appeals arising under section 7 (b) or (c) of the act, or where it is determined by the Council on Appeals that elements of Commission policy are involved, the decision shall be referred to the Commissioners and when approved by two Commissioners, shall become the final decision of the Commission.

FIRE EXTINGUISHING APPLIANCE INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HOLDING OF TRADE PRACTICE CONFERENCE

Notice is hereby given that a trade practice conference for the Fire Extinguishing Appliance Industry will be held by the Federal Trade Commission in the Drake Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on January 19, 1954, commencing at 10 a. m., e. s. t.

The purpose of the conference is to afford industry members an opportunity to consider and propose for establishment, subject to the Commission's approval, a comprehensive set of trade practice rules for the industry in substitution for those promulgated by the Commission on November 13, 1935. Copies of "suggested" rules, as prepared by a member of the Commission's staff and distributed to industry members for their consideration at the conference, are available upon request.

Products of the industry consist of appliances which are represented as being capable of extinguishing fires, with the exception of sprinkler systems and automotive fire apparatuses. All persons, firms, corporations and organizations engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution of such industry products are cordially invited to attend and participate in the conference proceedings.

[Docket No. G-2173]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE FOR HEARING

On May 19, 1953, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), a Delaware corporation with its principal office in Shreveport, Louisiana, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of approximately 4.5 miles of 6⅝-inch pipe line from a point at or near the Willow Springs Field in Gregg County, Texas, to a point of interconnection with Texas Eastern's existing 24-inch pipe line in Harrison County, Texas. The proposed facility is to be used for the transportation of natural gas to be purchased by Texas Eastern in the Willow Springs Field to augment its available gas reserves for service to existing markets. The application is on file and open to public inspection.

Temporary authorization for the construction and operation of the abovementioned facility was granted on June 4, 1953.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 6, 1953 (18 F. R. 3181).

The Commission orders:

(1) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on January 18, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(2) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: December 29, 1953.

Issued: December 29, 1953.

JERSEY CENTRAL POWER & LIGHT CO. AND GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE TO BANKS OF NOTES IN AN AGGREGATE AMOUNT

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Jersey Central Power & Light Company ("Jersey Central"), a public-utility subsidiary of General Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), regarding the proposal of Jersey Central, inter alia, to issue and sell to two banks, pursuant to the terms of a credit agreement between Jersey Central and the said banks, unsecured notes in an amount not to exceed $7,500,000 outstanding at any one time;

The Commission by order dated April 6, 1953 (Holding Company Act Release No. 11818) having granted and permitted to become effective the said amended application-declaration, subject, however, to a condition, among others, to the effect that Jersey Central shall not issue and sell any notes under the credit agreement if, after such issuance and sale, there would be more than $3,000,000 of such notes outstanding at any one time, unless and until an amendment to the application-declaration shall have been filed by Jersey Central and a further order shall have been issued, which order may contain such further conditions as may then be deemed appropriate; and that jurisdiction be reserved with respect to the issuance and sale by Jersey Central of any notes under the credit agreement as a result of which the aggregate principal amount of notes outstanding thereunder at any one time would exceed $3,000,000;

Jersey Central having filed a further amendment to its application-declaration stating that it has borrowed $3,000,000 under the credit agreement, that it is anticipated that it will be necessary for Jersey Central to borrow an additional $1,000,000 in the latter part of December 1953 and that it will be necessary for Jersey Central to effect additional borrowings in the early part of 1954 prior to the time of the financings which will supply it with the common stock and bond components of its 1954 financing program;

Jersey Central having, in said amendment, requested that the Commission amend its order of April 6, 1953 so as to remove the condition which limited the amount which Jersey Central may borrow under its credit agreement and have outstanding at any one time;

Jersey Central having estimated that the expenses to be incurred in connection with each closing involving the sale of its additional notes will not exceed $450 for legal fees and $500 for miscellaneous out-of-pocket expenses, which, if they do not exceed those amounts, do not appear unreasonable; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application-declaration, as further amended, that the applicable standards of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that it is not necessary to impose any terms and conditions other than those set forth in Rule U-24, and deeming it appropriate that said application-declaration, as further amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration, as further amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and the jurisdiction reserved in the Commission's order of April 6, 1953 be, and the same hereby is, released.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTRIC CO.

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Pennsylvania Electric Company ("Penelec"), a public-utility subsidiary of General Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and amendments thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), regarding the proposal of Penelec to issue and sell to three banks, pursuant to the terms of a credit agreement between Penelec and the said banks, unsecured notes in an amount not to exceed $10,000,000 outstanding at any one time;

The Commission by order dated May 4, 1953 (Holding Company Act Release No. 11889), having granted the said amended application, subject, however, to a condition to the effect that Penelec shall not issue and sell any notes under the credit agreement maturing by their terms subsequent to December 31, 1953, if after such issuance and sale there would be more than $5,400,000 of notes of such maturity outstanding at any one time, unless and until an amendment to the application shall have been filed by Penelec and a further order shall have been issued, which order may contain such further conditions as may then be deemed appropriate;

Penelec having filed a further amendment to its application stating that it has borrowed $5,000,000 under the credit agreement, that it appears that additional borrowings under the credit agreement may become necessary in December 1953, and that it will be necessary for Penelec to effect additional borrowings in the early part of 1954 prior to the time of the financings which will supply it with the common stock and bond components of its 1954 financing program;

Penelec having, in said amendment, requested that the Commission amend its order of May 4, 1953 so as to remove the condition which limited the amount which Penelec may borrow under its credit agreement and have outstanding at any one time.

Penelec having estimated that the expenses to be incurred in connection with each closing involving the sale of its additional notes will not exceed $450 for legal fees and $500 for miscellaneous out-of-pocket expenses, which if they do not exceed those amounts do not appear unreasonable; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application, as further amended, that the applicable standards of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that it is not necessary to impose any terms and conditions other than those set forth in Rule U-24, and deeming it appropriate that said application, as further amended, be granted forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application, as further amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and the jurisdiction reserved in the Commission's order of May 4, 1953, be, and the same hereby is, released.

NEW ENGLAND GAS AND ELECTRIC ASSN. AND ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

ORDER GRANTING AND PERMITTING APPLICATION-DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE AND RESERVING JURISDICTION

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

New England Gas and Electric Association ("Negas"), a registered holding company, and its non-utility subsidiary, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company ("Algonquin"), having filed a joint application-declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 6 (a) (2), 6 (b), 7, 10 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and Rule U-23 thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Algonquin proposes to incur a bank loan of $2,000,000 with interest at 4½ percent per annum, to be evidenced by an unsecured note maturing in 16 equal quarterly payments commencing January 1, 1955, and to issue and sell $5,150,000 principal amount of 25-year unsecured notes, at the principal amount thereof, which notes are to be issuable in denominations of not less than $500,000, will be dated December 30, 1953, and will bear cumulative interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum for the first five years and at the rate of 5 percent per annum thereafter, payable only if earned in accordance with a formula contained in certain agreements referred to in such notes. The proposed 25-year notes are to be subordinate to the outstanding bonds and to the proposed unsecured bank note to be issued by Algonquin and will be exchangeable for debentures bearing the same terms and conditions. Algonquin also proposes to amend its First Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated as of March 1, 1951, so as to defer the commencement of regular sinking fund payments from July 1, 1954, to July 1, 1955, and to eliminate the provisions for a contingent sinking fund of $3,000,000.

Negas proposes to acquire $1,787,050 principal amount of the 25-year notes to be issued by Algonquin and also proposes to borrow $1,500,000 from banks, to be evidenced by 3¾ percent unsecured notes maturing October 21, 1955.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the joint application-declaration, a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission, and the Commission having considered the record and having filed its memorandum opinion this day with respect to this matter:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the joint application-declaration, as amended, be and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved with respect to all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions.

DECEMBER 29, 1953.

In the matter of The Southern Company, Alabama Power Company, Georgia Power Company; File No. 70-3168.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission by The Southern Company ("Southern"), a registered holding company, and two of its public-utility subsidiary companies, Alabama Power Company ("Alabama") and Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act"). Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (b), 7, 10 and 12 (f) of the act and Rule U-43 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 14, 1954 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said joint application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said joint application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Southern proposes to issue to forty-nine banks unsecured promissory notes in an aggregate principal amount of $15,000,000. Each of said notes will mature February 1, 1956, and will bear interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum. The agreement under which it is proposed to issue such notes provides for the renewal thereof extending the maturity date to February 1, 1959. The proposed notes may be prepared in whole at any time or in part from time to time wtihout penalty or premium. The proceeds to be derived from the sale of the proposed notes, together with treasury funds, will be used by Southern to purchase the common stocks of Alabama and Georgia as described below.

Alabama and Georgia propose to issue and sell to Southern 80,000 and 100,000 shares, respectively, of their no par common stocks for an aggregate consideration of $8,000,000 in the case of Alabama and of $10,000,000 in the case of Georgia. The proceeds from the sale of such stock will be used by these companies to finance improvements, extensions and additions to their respective utility plants.

The joint application-declaration indicates that Southern requests authority to renew the proposed notes on February 1, 1956, and states that should the Commission prefer to withhold action at this time with respect to the renewal of such notes, Southern requests the Commission to reserve jurisdiction with respect thereto. The application-declaration further states that it is contemplated that the proposed notes will be paid at or before their maturity, or their exended maturity, through the issuance and sale by Southern of such securities as may be appropriate and approved by the Commission. Southern agrees that such securities will meet the requirements of section 7 (c) (1) of the act or that it will demonstrate that such securities are for necessary and urgent corporate purposes and that the requirements of section 7 (c) (1) would impose an unreasonable financial burden upon Southern and are not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

The joint application-declaration further states that the proposed common stock sale by Alabama and Georgia are subject to the jurisdiction of the Alabama Public Service Commission and the Georgia Public Service Commission, respectively and that no other State commission, and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Fees and expenses are estimated at $10,500 for Southern, $3,700 for Alabama and $3,900 for Georgia including legal fees of $6,500 in the case of Southern and $500 each for Alabama and Georgia.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 19 NUMBER 3

Washington, Wednesday, January 6, 1954

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter III—Foreign and Territorial Compensation

Subchapter B—The Secretary of State

[Dept. Reg. 108.209]

PART 325—ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION IN FOREIGN AREAS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

DECEMBER 28, 1953.

Effective the beginning of the first pay period following January 16, 1954, the following amendments to Part 325, Chapter III, Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

1. Section 325.1 (g) (1) (18 F. R. 2815) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The temporary assignment or temporary duty of an employee away from his permanent station not classified for differential to a post or area which is so classified, or away from his permanent station which is classified for differential to a post or area classified at a higher rate, when the period of such assignment or duty is actually 60 calendar days or more, or when the head of agency shall have determined by appropriate personnel documentation that the contemplated duration of temporary assignment or temporary duty is for a substantial period of time estimated at not less than 60 calendar days.

2. Section 325.5 (b) (18 F. R. 2817) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Payment for detail as defined in § 325.1 (g) shall be made at the rate established for the differential post or area of detail from the date of arrival to the close of business on the date of departure or the date differential is terminated under other provisions of this part; except that if, for unforeseen circumstances, the actual duration of detail as defined in § 325.1 (g) (1) is for a period of less than 60 calendar days, payment shall not be made in the absence of the required personnel documentation.

3. Delete the first sentence of § 325.9 (a) (18 F. R. 2818) and substitute therefor the following: "Within three months after first arrival of personnel at a post or in an area not classified for differential, agencies believing the post or area to involve extraordinarily difficult living conditions, excessive physical hardship, or notably unhealthful conditions, may submit Form DSP–36."

4. Section 325.9 (c) (1) (18 F. R. 2818) is amended to read as follows: "(1) an informal report stating that there have been no changes in conditions or".

5. Section 325.10 (18 F. R. 2818) is amended by the addition of the following sentence to the end of the section: "Rates of differential payment are subject to increase or decrease depending upon changed environmental conditions and/or changes in policy or standards of determination."

6. Part 325 is amended by the addition of the following §325.13:

§ 325.13 Effective date of classifications and reclassifications. (a) As a rule, the effective date of an initial classification will be the date of first arrival of employees assigned or detailed to the post or area, even though this date is prior to the date of approval of the classification. However, where these employees or their agency delay unduly in submitting the basic data prescribed in § 325.9, the effective date of any resulting classification will not necessarily be the date of arrival.

(b) Any reclassification of a post or area already classified in § 325.11 will be made currently effective.

(E. O. 10000, 13 F. R. 5456, 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

For the Secretary of State.

22. Wherever, in Part 201, the designations "Assistant Administrator for Regulatory and Market Service Matters" and "Assistant Administrator" appear, they are deleted and the designations "Deputy Administrator for Marketing Services" and "Deputy Administrator", respectively, are substituted therefor.

23. Wherever, in Parts 201 and 202, the designation "Livestock Branch" appears, it is deleted and the designation "Livestock Division" is substituted therefor.

24. Wherever, in Parts 201 and 202, the designations "Packers and Stockyards Division" and "Division" appear, they are deleted and the designations "Packers and Stockyards Branch" and "Branch", respectively, are substituted therefor.

25. The definition of the term "Secretary" appearing in Parts 53, 101, 123, 132, 160, 171, 201 and 202 is amended to read:

Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

C. Title 32A of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

1. Wherever, in Defense Food Order 1 (DFO 1—Castor Oil), the designations "Production and Marketing Administration" and "Fats and Oils Branch" appear, they are deleted and the designations "Commodity Stabilization Service" and "Peanut and Oil Branch", respectively, are substituted therefor.

2. Wherever, in Defense Food Order 2 (DFO 2—Processed Fruits and Vegetables: Set Aside Requirements) and the sub-orders thereunder, the designations "Production and Marketing Administration" and "Fruit and Vegetable Branch" appear, they are deleted and the terms "Agricultural Marketing Service" and "Fruit and Vegetable Division", respectively, are substituted therefor.

3. Wherever, in Defense Food Order 4 (DFO 4—Regulations Governing filing of and Actions on Petitions for Relief from Hardship and Other Adjustments and Exceptions and Appeals), the designations "Production and Marketing Administration" and "PMA" appear, they are deleted and the designations "Agricultural Marketing Service or Commodity Stabilization Service (whichever is appropriate)" and "AMS", respectively, are substituted therefor; and wherever the designation "Office" appears in said DFO 4, it is deleted and the designation "Division" is substituted therefor.

4. Section 1 (d) of said DFO 4 is amended to read as follows:

(d) "Director" means the Director or Acting Director of a Division of AMS or the Chief or Acting Chief of a Branch of the Commodity Stabilization Service (whichever is appropriate).

5. Since the delegations of authority, pursuant to which Defense Food Order 5 (DFO 5—Procedures of the Production and Marketing Administration Pursuant to NPA Delegation 14 Governing Filing of and Actions on Applications for Authorized Construction Schedules, Allotments of Controlled Materials and DO Ratings for Other Materials and Equipment) was issued, are no longer in effect, said DFO 5 is terminated.

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall be effective January 2, 1954.

The foregoing amendments relate primarily to matters of agency management and personnel and to this extent are excepted from the requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). Such amendments also delete provisions no longer of any effect. It is found upon good cause under said section 4 that notice and other public rule making procedure with respect to such deletion is unnecessary and impracticable and good cause is found for making the amendments effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

CHANGES IN CODIFICATION

In order to conform Title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the present organizational structure of the Department of Agriculture, the following changes are made in the codification of that title:

1. Chapter I is redesignated "Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture".

2. Chapter II is redesignated "Chapter II—Agricultural Marketing Service, Department of Agriculture".

3. Part 301 of Chapter III is transferred to Chapter I as Part 171 of that chapter.

4. A new headnote "Subchapter I—Process or Renovated Butter" is inserted in Chapter I preceding Part 171 as transferred to that chapter by item 3 above.

5. The headnote "Chapter III—Bureau of Dairy Industry, Department of Agriculture" is deleted.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 24th day of December, 1953.

[Amdt. 56]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

CIVIL USAGE OF MILITARY AERODROMES OR SEADROMES

Since military instrument approach procedures are not published in the Flight Information Manual, Airman's Guide, or FEDERAL REGISTER, it is necessary to provide some means by which civil aircraft can operate into military airports under instrument conditions. This amendment specifies the instrument approach procedures which apply to civil aircraft when operating into military aerodromes or seadromes. The amendment is adopted without delay in order to provide for safety in air commerce. Therefore, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable.

In § 609.3 a new paragraph (h) is added to read:

§ 609.3 Introduction. • • •

(h) Civil usage of military aerodromes or seadromes. An approach conducted into a military aerodrome or seadrome by a civil aircraft [1] shall be executed in accordance with the standard instrument approach procedure and the takeoff and landing minimums prescribed by the military agency having jurisdiction over the particular aerodrome or seadrome," unless another procedure or other minimums have been specifically prescribed by the Administrator.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 551)

This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1954.

In the Matter of William G. Barnard, Sr., and William G. Barnard, Jr., Copartners Trading as Natural Foods Institute

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission on February 21, 1952, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging them with the use of unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of said act. After the service of the said complaint, respondents filed their answer thereto admitting all of the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true, waiving any and all hearings as to the facts and conclusions and consenting to the issuance of an order, reserving, however, the right to file objections to the form and contents of the order. Thereafter the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by a hearing examiner of the Commission, duly designated by it and named in the "Notice" appended to the complaint at the time of its issuance, upon the said complaint and respondents' answer thereto, and said hearing examiner, on April 24, 1952, filed his initial decision.

Within the time permitted by the Commission's rules of practice, counsel for respondents filed with the Commission an appeal from said initial decision, and thereafter this proceeding regularly came on for consideration by the Commission upon the record herein, including briefs in support of and in opposition to said appeal, no oral argument having been requested.

The Commission on March 31, 1953, issued its order granting respondents' appeal. On the same day the Commission issued, and thereafter caused to be served, its order granting leave to respondents and to counsel supporting the complaint to file with the Commission objections to the order to cease and desist which the Commission proposed to issue as a part of its decision herein, after making appropriate findings as to the facts and conclusion consonant with the pleadings; under the terms of this order such objections were to be filed within twenty days after service thereof and the proposed order to cease and desist attached thereto.

No objections were filed by respondents. On April 23, 1953, counsel supporting the complaint filed objections to the proposed order to cease and desist, and also filed a motion for reconsideration by the Commission of its order granting respondents' appeal.

The Commission having entered its order denying the said motion and rejecting the objections to the proposed decision, the proceeding came on for final consideration by the Commission upon the record herein on review, and the Commission, having duly considered the matter and being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and makes the following findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion drawn therefrom,[1] and order, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner

1. It is ordered, That the respondents William G. Barnard, Sr., and William G. Barnard, Jr., individually or as copartners trading as Natural Foods Institute, or under any other trade name, and their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of their various foods, drugs and devices or any other products or devices of substantially similar composition or construction or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other names, do forthwith cease and desist from, directly or indirectly:

[1] Filed as part of original document.

(a) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement concerning respondents' food and drug products and devices, by means of the United States mails or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents, directly or by implication:

(1) That their Chic tablets are a reducing formula, or will reduce weight;

(2) That their Garlic Capsules are odorless in use, or that said Garlic Capsules are a disinfectant of the intestinal canal;

(3) That their Papain Tablets are an effective treatment for indigestion;

(4) That mastitis can be contracted by humans;

(5) That their Papaya Pulp does not contain sugar, or is a valuable food for diabetics;

(6) That their Peppermint Tea is a tonic, or sweetens the intestinal tract;

(7) That their Alfalfa Tea produces muscle, bone, or hair in human beings to any significant degree;

(8) That Dr. Gaymont's Yogourt Culture is an effective treatment for stomach ulcers or colitis;

(9) That red beet juice will build red blood or red corpuscles of the blood or tone up the blood to any significant degree;

(10) That dehydrated powdered vegetables are more digestible or nutritious than fresh vegetables;

(11) That celery juice has any therapeutic value in the treatment of arthritis or rheumatic conditions;

(12) That the use of the NFI Vibrator provides benefits in excess of those supplied by massage or stimulates or improves the circulation of the blood generally throughout the body;

(13) That the use of the Oster Stim-U-Lax Junior stimulates or improves the circulation of the blood generally throughout the body;

(b) Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of said products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph (a) hereof.

2. It is further ordered, That the respondents William G. Barnard, Sr., and William G. Barnard, Jr., individually or as copartners trading as Natural Foods Institute, or under any other trade name, and their representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of their various foods, drugs, devices, health books, juice extractors or expressors, kitchen equipment, or any other merchandise related to health problems, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(a) Representing, directly or by implication:

(1) That a deficiency of minerals and salts in the diet is the primary cause of nearly every sickness and disease;

(2) That eating the various vegetable and fruit juices in the manner recommended in the book entitled "Raw Vegetable Juices" is a cure for arthritis, gall bladder trouble, anemia, tuberculosis, asthma, heart trouble, indigestion, colitis, boils, cancer, convulsions, diabetes, high blood pressure, miscarriage, rheumatism, eczema, goiter, liver trouble, kidney trouble, obesity, nervousness, prostate trouble, chicken pox, the common cold, hernia, or hives, or the common ailments suffered by mankind;

(3) That by eating carrots and the other vegetables in the manner recommended in the book entitled "Health Via the Carrot and Other Vegetables" humans will remain healthy;

(4) That eating carrots and the other vegetables in the manner recommended in the book entitled "Health Via the Carrot and Other Vegetables" is a cure for indigestion, glandular troubles, headaches, rheumatism, disorders of the blood stream, diabetes, asthma, diseases peculiar to women, colds, influenza, arthritis, or cancer;

(5) That eating carrots and other vegetables in the manner set out in the book "Health Via the Carrot and Other Vegetables" will cure a "tired feeling" unless such representation be expressly limited to such condition when due to a dietary deficiency of the type which can be corrected by eating carrots and other vegetables;

(6) That the system or method of treatment outlined in the book entitled "The Grape Cure" will relieve or cure cancer;

(7) That the system or method of treatment recommended in the book entitled "My Water Cure" is an effective cure for any curable disease;

(8) That the consumption of raw fruits and vegetables prepared in the Vita-Mix results in better digestion, restful sleep, normal elimination, strong healthy teeth, or continued good eyesight;

(9) That the consumption of raw fruits and vegetables prepared in the Vita-Mix is an effective treatment for digestive disturbances, insomnia, disorders of elimination, carious or otherwise diseased teeth, or impaired eyesight;

(10) That the consumption of raw fruits and vegetables prepared in the Vita-Mix will result in good health;

(11) That the consumption of vitamins and minerals increases the individual's resistance to most common ailments;

(12) That nutritional deficiencies are increasing or that according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, three out of every four meals in the U. S. are deficient in the minimum daily requirements of vitamins and minerals and other nutrients;

(13) That the consumption of raw fruits and vegetables prepared in the Vita-Mix is an effective treatment for or a cure for diseases of the bowel;

(14) That 90 percent or any substantial percentage of the rejections in the draft in World War II was because of malnutrition;

(15) That cooked and peeled vegetables are so deficient in nutritional quantities that children's teeth or tonsils are adversely affected;

(16) That Vitamin E is the anti-sterility vitamin;

(17) That the ingestion of Vitamin A builds resistance against any infectious diseases;

(18) That consumption of the entire cucumber is an effective treatment for nervous conditions in women;

(19) That consumption of lettuce is an effective treatment for nervous conditions;

(20) That the necessity for the removal of the tonsils of children arises from malnutrition;

(21) That the consumption of fruit and vegetable juices prepared in the Juicex will assure health, vigor or charm;

(22) That the consumption of expressed fruit and vegetable juices will regenerate or rebuild the system.

(b) Using the word "Institute" or any simulation thereof as a part of respondents' trade name, or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondents' business is an organization for the promotion of research, experimentation, investigation and study.

(c) Using the term "Sterilizer" or any other word of similar import, either alone or in conjunction with other words, in the trade name of respondents' kitchen implement "NFI Vegetable and Fruit Washer and Sterilizer," or otherwise representing, directly or by implication, that respondents' implement is a sterilizer or possesses germicidal properties or qualities.

3. It is further ordered, That, with respect to the issues raised by the complaint other than those to which this order relates, the complaint be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

4. It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

In the Matter of Marlene's, Inc., a Corporation, and R. J. Smasal, M. T. King, and James O. Webb, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation; Edward H. Larson and Nelson J. McMahon, Individually and Doing Business as O'Neil, Larson & McMahon, a Partnership

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission, on June 4, 1952, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging them with the use of unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of said act. Thereafter, counsel supporting the complaint and counsel for respondents, on December 31, 1952, entered into a stipulation as to the facts, which was subsequently amended by a supplemental stipulation as to the facts filed on January 14, 1953, wherein it was stipulated and agreed that the facts set forth therein might be taken as the facts in this proceeding in lieu of evidence in support of the charges stated in the complaint or in opposition thereto, and that the hearing examiner might, without any intervening procedure, issue his initial decision herein upon the basis of said stipulations. Thereafter, counsel for respondents filed a motion to dismiss the complaint and counsel supporting the complaint filed an answer in opposition thereto. After final consideration of the record, including said motion to dismiss and answer thereto, the hearing examiner, on February 13, 1953, filed his initial decision herein.

Within the time permitted by the Commission's rules of practice, counsel for respondents filed an appeal from said initial decision. The Commission having duly considered said appeal and briefs and oral argument of counsel in support of and in opposition thereto and being of the opinion that, for the reasons stated in the accompanying opinion of the Commission, the appeal is without merit:

It is ordered, That respondents' appeal from the initial decision of the hearing examiner be, and it hereby is, denied.

The Commission is of the further opinion, however, that the initial decision of the hearing examiner is inappropriate to dispose of this proceeding, for the reason that the stipulated facts and the hearing examiner's findings based thereon with respect to respondent James O. Webb do not warrant an order against him as an individual. Therefore, the Commission, being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and makes the following findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion drawn therefrom,[1] and order, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

It is ordered, That the respondents, Marlene's, Inc., a corporation, its officers, and R. J. Smasal, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents Edward H. Larson and Nelson J. McMahon, individually and doing business as O'Neil, Larson & McMahon, or under any other name, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of respondents' preparation designated as "Mynex", or any other preparation containing substantially similar ingredients or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from, directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by means of the United States mails or by any means in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which represents directly or by implication:

(a) That respondents' weight-reducing plan is basically different from or superior to other weight-reducing plans requiring a low calorie diet with a dietary supplement;

(b) That Mynex tablets possess weight-reducing properties;

(c) That Mynex tablets will prevent the development of a tired, weak, or rundown feeling except when such conditions result solely from vitamin or mineral deficiencies;

(d) That specific or predetermined weight reduction will be achieved within a prescribed period of time through the use of respondents' plan;

(e) That respondents' preparation or plan has been approved for advertising by the Canadian government;

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated, by any means, for the purpose of inducing, or which is likely to induce, directly or indirectly, the purchase of respondents' preparation, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, any advertisement which contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to Martin P. King and as to James O. Webb in his individual capacity but not in his capacity as an officer of the corporate respondent.

It is further ordered, That Marlene's, Inc., R. J. Smasal, Edward H. Larson, and Nelson J. McMahon shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: November 19, 1953.

In the Matter of Country Tweeds Incorporated, a Corporation, and Marcus Weisman, Individually and as an Officer of Said Corporation

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission on February 21, 1952, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging them with the use of unfair methods of competition and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of that act. After the filing by respondents of their answer to the complaint, hearings were held at which testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint were introduced before a hearing examiner of the Commission, theretofore duly designated by it, and such testimony and other evidence were duly recorded and filed in the office of the Commission. Thereafter, the said hearing examiner, on April 17, 1953, filed his initial decision.

Within the time permitted by its rules of practice, the Commission, having reason to believe that said initial decision did not constitute an adequate disposition of the proceeding, issued an order placing this case on its docket for review, served on all parties its tentative decision herein and granted to them permission to file with the Commission any objections they might have to said tentative decision. None of the parties having filed any objections to said tentative decision, this proceeding regularly came on for final consideration before the Commission upon the aforesaid complaint and respondents' answer thereto; and the Commission, having duly considered the matter and being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and being of the opinion that the hearing examiner's initial decision does not constitute an adequate disposition of this proceeding, makes this its findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion[1] and order to cease and desist, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

It is ordered, That respondent Country Tweeds Incorporated, a corporation, and its officers, and respondent Marcus Weisman, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of respondents' coats designated Kashmoor coats, or any coats of substantially similar composition, do forthwith cease and desist from using the word "Kashmoor" to designate, describe or refer to such coats, unless when such word is used, whether on labels or in advertising, other words are used which clearly and conspicuously disclose that such coats contain no cashmere.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

Issued: November 25, 1953.

By the Commission.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

PHILMOR CO.

Subpart—Using, selling or supplying lottery devices: § 3.2480 In merchandising. In connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, of watches, silverware, novelties or any other merchandise, (1) supplying to or placing in the hands of others punchboards, push cards or other lottery devices, either with other merchandise or separately, which punchboards, push cards or other lottery devices are designed or intended to be used in the sale or distribution of said merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise or lottery scheme; and (2) selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise or lottery scheme; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Elliott Melvin Fisher et al. d. b. a. Philmor Company, Baltimore, Md., Docket 6121, December 8, 1953]

In the Matter of Elliott Melvin Fisher, Edward Shores, Irvin Katz (Also Known as Irwin Katz), Lucius D. Smith, Jr., Copartners, Doing Business as Philmor Company

This proceeding was heard by William L. Pack, hearing examiner, upon the complaint of the Commission, respondents having filed no answer nor entered any appearance at a hearing held by said examiner, theretofore duly designated by the Commission, in accordance with the notice given in the complaint and supplemental notice issued by said examiner and duly served upon the respondents.

Thereafter the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said examiner upon the complaint, and said examiner, having duly considered the matter and having found that the proceeding was in the interest of the public, made his initial decision, comprising certain findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion drawn therefrom,[1] and order to cease and desist.

No appeal having been filed from said initial decision of said hearing examiner, as provided for in Rule XXII, nor any other action taken as thereby provided to prevent said initial decision becoming the decision of the Commission thirty days from service thereof upon the parties, said initial decision, including said order to cease and desist, accordingly, under the provisions of said Rule XXII became the decision of the Commission on December 8, 1953.

Said order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Elliott Melvin Fisher, Edward Shores, Irvin Katz (also known as Irwin Katz) and Lucius D. Smith, Jr., individually and as partners trading under the name Philmor Company, or any other name, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of watches, silverware, novelties or any other merchandise do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Supplying to or placing in the hands of others punchboards, push cards or other lottery devices, either with other merchandise or separately, which punchboards, push cards or other lottery devices are designed or intended to be used in the sale or distribution of said merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise or lottery scheme.

2. Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise or lottery scheme.

By "Decision of the Commission and Order to File Report of Compliance", Docket 6121, December 8, 1953, which announced and decreed fruition of said initial decision, report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondents herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: December 8, 1953.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

SEYMOUR SALES CO. ET AL.

Subpart—Using, selling or supplying lottery devices: § 3.2480 In merchandising. In connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of cameras, pens, or other articles of merchandising in commerce: (1) Supplying to or placing in the hands of others push cards, sales cards, punchboards, or other lottery devices, either with other merchandise or separately, which said push cards, sales cards, punchboards, or other lottery devices are designed or intended to be used in the sale or distribution of said merchandise to the public; and (2) selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a game of change, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, Seymour Sales Company et al., Chicago, Ill., Docket 6060, November 25, 1953]

In the Matter of Seymour Sales Company (Erroneously Named in the Complaint as Seymour Sales, Inc.), and Seymour Galter and Flavia Galter, Individually and as Officers of Seymour Sales Company

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission, on November 18, 1952, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging them with the use of unfair acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of said act. After the issuance of said complaint and the filing of respondents' answer thereto, hearings were held at which testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of said complaint were introduced before a hearing examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, and such testimony and other evidence were duly recorded and filed in the office of the Commission. Thereafter the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by said hearing examiner upon the complaint, answer thereto, testimony and other evidence, and proposed findings as to the facts and conclusions presented by counsel (oral argument not having been requested), and said hearing examiner, on July 30, 1953, filed his initial decision herein.

Within the time permitted by the Commission's rules of practice, respondents filed an appeal from said initial decision, and the Commission, after duly considering said appeal and the record herein, issued its order denying said appeal.

The Commission is of the opinion, however, that the initial decision of the hearing examiner is not appropriate in all respects to dispose of this proceeding, principally because the order therein is inconsistent with the form of order which the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has determined is appropriate in cases where the facts are essentially similar to those in this case. Hamilton Manufacturing Company v. Federal Trade Commission, 194 F. 2d 346; U. S. Printing & Novelty Co., Inc. v. Federal Trade Commission, 204 F. 2d 737. Therefore, the Commission, being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and makes the following findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion drawn therefrom,[1] and order, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner:

It is ordered, That respondent Seymour Sales Company (incorrectly named in the complaint as Seymour Sales, Inc.), a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, and respondent Seymour Galter, individually and as an officer of said corporation, and his representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of cameras, pens, or other articles of merchandise in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Supplying to or placing in the hands of others push cards, sales cards, punchboards, or other lottery devices, either with other merchandise or separately, which said push cards, sales cards, punchboards, or other lottery devices are designed or intended to be used in the sale or distribution of said merchandise to the public.

2. Selling or otherwise disposing of any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

It is further ordered, That the complaint be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to the respondent Flavia Galter in her individual capacity but not as an officer of the corporate respondent.

It is further ordered, That respondents Seymour Sales Company and Seymour Galter shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Chapter III—Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, Social Security Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 301—ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

PART 310—VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION OF FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

ADOPTION AND PROMULGATION OF REGULATIONS

Notice having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 18, 1953 (18 F. R. 8512), that the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, with the approval of the Commissioner of Social Security and the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, proposed to prescribe certain regulations in lieu of the §§ 301.7, 301.8, and Part 310 of the present regulations of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions (45 CFR § 301.7, § 301.8, and Part 310) and that prior to the official adoption of the proposed regulations, consideration would be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto submitted to the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington 25, D. C., within a period of 15 days from the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and the regulations proposed to be adopted having been set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER on page 8512 (18 F. R. 8512), and the 15-day period having elapsed and no data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposed regulations having been submitted, the proposed regulations as printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 8512) are hereby adopted and promulgated effective thirty days after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: January 4, 1954.

[SEAL] J. DEANE GANNON,
Director,
Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.

Approved: January 4, 1954.

JOHN W. TRAMBURG,
Commissioner of Social Security.

Approved: January 4, 1954.

NELSON W. ROCKEFELLER,
Acting Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

In Part 301—Organization and Operation of Federal Credit Unions, §§ 301.7 and 301.8 are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.7 Fee for examination. (a) Each Federal credit union shall pay the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions a fee for each examination in accordance with the schedule of fees fixed from time to time by the Director.

(b) In establishing such fees, the Director shall consider the anticipated aggregate cost of the examination program including supervision, salaries, travel and all other items which affect the cost of the examination program.

(c) The fee for examinations of Federal credit unions with assets of less than $25,000 shall not exceed 50 cents per hundred dollars of assets as of the effective date of the examination. The Director may establish a minimum fee for examination which shall not exceed $25.00. The Director may waive the fee for an examination within twelve months after the date a charter is approved if the payment would, in the opinion of the Director, cause a hardship.

(d) Each Federal credit union shall be notified at least 30 days prior to the effective date of any schedule of fees fixed pursuant to this section. Upon receipt of such notification interested persons may submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration by the Director, and the Director may, after consideration, make such revisions in the proposed schedule or such change in the effective date as he deems appropriate. Each Federal credit union shall be notified of such revision or change not less than 15 days prior to the final effective date.

(e) The check in payment of the examination fee shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the United States and the check shall be delivered to the examiner at the completion of the examination.

§ 301.8 Fee for examination of Federal credit unions in liquidation. Federal credit unions in liquidation may be examined prior to or following completion of liquidation. A fee assessed in accordance with the most recent schedule of examination fees prescribed by the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions as provided in § 301.7 shall be paid for each such examination.

(48 Stat. 1221, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 1766 and note)

Part 310—Voluntary Liquidation of Federal Credit Unions, is hereby amended to read as follows:

310.1 Approval of liquidation.
310.2 Notice of liquidation to Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.
310.3 Transaction of business during liquidation.
310.4 Notice of liquidation to members.
310.5 Notice of liquidation to creditors.
310.6 Report at commencement of liquidation.
310.7 Reports during period of liquidation.
310.8 Examinations of Federal credit unions in voluntary liquidation.
310.9 Responsibility for conduct of voluntary liquidations.
310.10 Completion of liquidation.
310.11 Distribution of assets.
310.12 Final report.
310.13 Retention of records.
310.14 Cancellation of charter.
310.15 Further instructions and information.

AUTHORITY: §§ 310.1 to 310.15 issued under 48 Stat. 1221, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 1766 and note.

§ 310.1 Approval of liquidation. A Federal credit union may go into voluntary liquidation on approval of a majority of its members in writing or by a vote in favor of such liquidation by a majority of the members of the credit union at a regular meeting of the members or at a special meeting called for that purpose. Where authorization for liquidation is to be obtained at a meeting of members, notice in writing shall be given to each member at least seven days before such meeting and the minutes of the meeting shall show the number of members present and the number that voted for and against liquidation. If approval by a majority of all members is not obtained at the meeting of members, authorization for voluntary liquidation shall be obtained by having a majority of members sign a statement in substantially the following form:

We the undersigned members of the ---- ---- Federal Credit Union, Charter No. ----, hereby request the dissolution of our credit union.

§ 310.2 Notice to Bureau of Federal Credit Unions. When the board of directors of a Federal credit union decides to submit the question of liquidation to the members, the president shall notify within 10 days the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions by letter in which the reasons for the proposed liquidation are set forth in detail. The president of the Federal credit union shall notify the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions within 10 days after the vote is taken as to whether the members approved or disapproved the proposed liquidation.

§ 310.3 Transaction of business during liquidation. Immediately on decision by the board of directors of a Federal credit union to seek approval of members for liquidation, payments on shares, withdrawal of shares, and granting of loans shall be suspended pending action by members on the proposal to liquidate, and on approval by members of such proposal, payments on shares, withdrawal of shares, and the making of loans shall be permanently discontinued.

§ 310.4 Notice to members of liquidation. When voluntary liquidation of a Federal credit union has been decided upon, a notice of such decision shall be handed to each member or mailed to his last known address together with a request that the member furnish his passbook or confirm in writing the shares held by him in the Federal credit union and the loans owed by him to the Federal credit union.

§ 310.5 Notice of liquidation to creditors. On approval of the members of a Federal credit union of a proposal to liquidate, the board of directors of the Federal credit union shall immediately cause to be prepared and mailed to all creditors a notice of liquidation and to present claims to the Federal credit union within ninety days.

§ 310.6 Report at commencement of liquidation. At the commencement of voluntary liquidation of a Federal credit union, the treasurer or agent conducting the liquidation shall file with the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions a financial and statistical report on form FCU 109 rev.

§ 310.7 Reports during period of liquidation. Federal credit unions in the process of voluntary liquidation shall forward to the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions a copy of the monthly financial and statistical report on form FCU 109 rev. for June 30 and December 31 within 10 days after the close of the month to which the reports apply. Additional reports, as determined by the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions to be necessary, shall be furnished promptly on request.

§ 310.8 Examinations of Federal credit unions in voluntary liquidation. When deemed advisable by the Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, an examination of the books and records of a Federal credit union may be made prior to, during, or following completion of voluntary liquidation. A fee for each such examination shall be assessed at the rate currently in effect for examinations of operating Federal credit unions.

§ 310.9 Responsibility for conduct of voluntary liquidation. The board of directors of a Federal credit union in voluntary liquidation shall be responsible for conserving the assets, for expediting the liquidation, and for equitably distributing the assets to members at the completion of liquidation. The board of directors shall determine that all persons handling or having access to funds of the Federal credit union are adequately covered by surety bond. The board of directors shall appoint a custodian for the Federal credit union's records that are to be retained for 5 years after the charter is canceled. The board of directors may appoint a liquidating agent and delegate part or all of these responsibilities to him and may authorize reasonable compensation for his services; any such liquidating agent shall be bonded for the faithful performance of his duties. The supervisory committee shall be responsible for making periodic audits of the credit union's records, at least quarterly, during the period of liquidation.

§ 310.10 Completion of liquidation. As soon as all assets of the Federal credit union have been converted to cash or found to be worthless and all loans and debts owing to it have been collected or found to be uncollectible and all obligations of the Federal credit union have been paid, with the exception of amounts due its members, the books shall be closed and the pro rata distribution to members computed. The amount of gain or loss shall be entered in each member's share account and should be entered in his passbook or statement of account.

§ 310.11 Distribution of assets. Checks shall then be drawn for the amounts to be distributed to each member who has surrendered his passbook or statement of account or has given a written confirmation of his balance. The checks shall be mailed to such members at their last known address or handed to them in person. The passbooks on hand shall be retained with the credit union records. The Regional Representative of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions shall be notified promptly of the date final distribution of assets to the members is instituted.

§ 310.12 Final report. Within 120 days after the final distribution to members is instituted, the Federal credit union shall furnish to the regional office of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions the following:

(a) A schedule of unpaid claims, if any, due members who failed to surrender their passbooks or confirm their balances in writing during liquidation or due members or creditors who failed to cash final distribution checks within the time limit which shall be prepared on form FCU 61d or its equivalent; this schedule shall be accompanied by a certified check or money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States in the exact amount of the total unpaid claims. The Bureau of Federal Credit Unions will deposit said funds in a special account with the Chief Disbursing Office of the Treasury of the United States where they will be held for the account of the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit

Unions as trustee for the individuals named on said schedule. Such individuals, or any persons making claims on their behalf, may submit to the Bureau their claim in writing for such funds.

(b) A copy of a schedule showing the name, book number, share balance at the commencement of liquidation, pro rata share of gain or loss, and the amount distributed to each member.

(c) A summary report on liquidation in duplicate on form FCU 61f.

(d) The Certificate of Dissolution and Liquidation on form FCU 61e signed under oath by the board of directors or agent who conducted the liquidation and made the final distribution of assets to the members.

(e) The name and address of the custodian of the Federal credit union's records.

(f) The charter of the Federal credit union.

§ 310.13 Retention of records. All records of the liquidated credit union necessary to establish that creditors were paid and that members' shareholdings were equitably distributed shall be retained by a custodian appointed by the board of directors of said Federal credit union for a period of 5 years following the date of cancellation of the charter.

§ 310.14 Cancellation of charter. On proof that distribution of assets has been made to members and within one year after receipt of the Certificate of Dissolution and Liquidation (form FCU 61e), the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions shall cancel the charter of the Federal credit union concerned.

§ 310.15 Further instructions and information. Further detailed instructions and information pertaining to voluntary liquidations may be obtained from the Washington or regional offices of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 10724, 10725]

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICE

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules to delete authority for operation in the Mississippi River system areas by coast stations and ship stations, on currently assignable frequencies for telephony within the band 4000 kc to 18,000 kc; and to include authority for operation by such stations on other frequencies for telephony within the same band, Docket No. 10724; modification of licenses of coast stations currently authorized to operate in the Mississippi River System areas on certain frequencies between 4000 and 18,000 kc, Docket No. 10725.

The Commission has instituted Docket proceedings in the above matters in connection with an earlier Docket 10377 which consisted of an overall plan of non-Government coast telephone and ship telephone assignments in the band 4000–18,000 kc. As a result of the comments received in Docket 10377 the Commission on May 6, 1953, issued a report and order which made final the assignments for marine telephony except for those involved in the Mississippi River and tributary system, hereinafter referred to as the "Rivers" and announced that the proposal with respect to the Rivers was withdrawn because of the objections received with reference to that portion of the plan.

On October 14, 1953, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making which was a new plan of frequency assignments for the Rivers. This new proposal, identified as Docket 10724, was modified considerably from the Commission's original proposal and took into consideration the comments which had been filed in that regard. The last date for filing comments on this latter proposal was November 4, 1953, but upon receipt of a request for extension from the American Waterways Operators, Inc., this date was extended to November 18, 1953.

Also on October 14, 1953, the Commission issued an order in Docket 10725 to the licensees shown in the table below to show cause why their licenses should not be modified so as to delete the frequency 8840 kc now assigned for use on the Rivers. The dates for comments have now expired. Several comments were received in both dockets and are summarized in the following paragraphs.

The original plan, as proposed by the Commission, for use on the Rivers provided for operation on frequencies allotted to the U. S. in complete conformity with the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations. If adopted, such a plan would have afforded all of the interference-free protection provided by the Table of Frequency Allocations and the Geneva Agreement (1951).

In view of the objections by various Rivers operators to specific frequencies and their desire to continue to use simplex rather than duplex operations, the Commission made alternate proposals in this proceeding. The frequencies which have been selected, while not in conformity with the International Frequency List evolved at the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (Geneva, 1951), were in accordance with the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations and appeared to be those most likely to provide interference-free operations for the Rivers system. In addition, it should be understood that the assignments might, in time, acquire an international registration status if no interference is caused to assignments which are in accordance with the International Frequency List.

In each case, the 4 and 8 Mc frequencies selected are within bands allocated to maritime telephony. This is a comparatively stable service, with planned communication channels adequately spaced both frequency-wise and geographically to afford a maximum of interference-free operation. Such a situation does not exist in the 6 Mc band in which there is no allocation for maritime telephony in the Atlantic City Radio Regulations and where all of the service allocations which are made would appear to be in conflict with any use of these frequencies by the Rivers. For instance, the band 5950–6200 kc is allocated to international broadcasting. The use of any frequency in this band by the Rivers would be subject to accepting any harmful interference from the transmission of broadcasting stations. The band 6200–6525 kc is allocated exclusively for maritime telegraphy hence the spacing between channels is narrow. In the passenger ship working band, 6200–6265.5 kc, the channel separation is 3.75 kc. The band 6265.5–6280 kc, assigned for ship telegraph calling purposes, has a channel separation of but 1.5 kc. Between 6280.5 and 6357 kc, the cargo ship working band, the spacing between channels is but 0.75 kc. The Rivers operations which use telephony require band widths considerably greater than those employed in the crowded radiotelegraph bands and thus would be likely to cause interference to more than one of the planned channels in the radiotelegraph service in the band 6200–6525 kc. In addition, the Rivers operations would also be vulnerable to receiving interference from one or several such planned radiotelegraph channels. The band 6357–6525 kc is allocated to coast telegraph stations with 3.5 kc separation between assigned frequencies. In all, there are 48 assignable frequencies in this band. Of this total, in addition to their planned use by various other countries, 27 are allocated to the United States, 12 to Canada and Mexico and the remaining 9 to the Caribbean and South American areas. Thus virtually all are capable of direct interference to the Rivers on any frequency between 6357 and 6525 kc. Even if direct interference were not received from one or more coast stations it is almost certain that the Rivers operation would cause interference to ships near the United States trying to receive coast stations of the United States and other countries.

The band 6525–6685 kc is allocated to the aeronautical mobile route service, which, being a safety service, cannot tolerate harmful interference. This is also true of the band 6685–6765 kc which is allocated to the aeronautical mobile off-route service.

The band 6765–7000 kc is allocated to the fixed service and is not channelled. As a practical matter, the fixed service is so pressed for spectrum space that any in-band fixed frequency capable of supporting voice operations on the Rivers in this frequency range has long since been put to use in the fixed service.

Comments received from Warner & Tamble Radio Service, Inc., state that Docket "No. 10377 says there are 70 telephony exclusive frequencies in the A. C. tables allotted to Marine Coast and ship use. Why they are not put into operation instead of borrowing frequencies is the prime question. In borrowing frequencies allotted elsewhere for use on the Rivers, it should be explained whether there are other frequencies that may be borrowed in the same way." The Commission points out that the above statement is incorrect due perhaps to some misunderstanding upon the part of the company. Nowhere can the Commission find such a statement in Docket No. 10377. In the entire world-wide marine telephony allotment plan there are forty channels in the 4 and 8 Mc ranges combined and none in the 6 Mc range. Of this figure, 20 channels are for coast telephony and 20 are for ship telephony. Of the total, exactly half were allotted for use in the continental U. S., giving us 6 coast and 6 ship telephone channels at 4 Mc and 4 coast and 4 ship telephone channels at 8 Mc. From the above it is obvious that those frequencies, from which one can "borrow", are very limited in number. Of those thus far selected, the respondent has, for the most part, rejected them as unsatisfactory.

Warner & Tamble Radio Service, Inc., further states that "the Commission washes its hands by direct expression of its opinion that the industry should devise and install a VHF system in substitution for the existing system. The impossibility of such undertaking in any practical way is widely known and understood. Why the Commission has its opinion may well be for further inquiry."

"The real and material question is whether the new frequency complement (sic) is subject to expansion and in what respects. It is not enough for it to be no more than the present system which is inadequate in available frequencies."

The respondent should be well aware of the difficulties thus far encountered in selecting acceptable replacement frequencies for use on the Rivers. The possibility of finding additional frequencies in the high frequency portion of the spectrum to accommodate an expanding Rivers system will become increasingly remote with time. As a practical matter, therefore, the only solution to the problem appears to be the ultimate adoption of a VHF system. Any long range planning so far as communications are concerned should certainly give serious consideration to the adoption of a VHF system by the Rivers interests. Rather than looking toward expanding the frequency complement of existing operations using high frequencies within the U. S., the Commission is presently faced with the serious problem of minimizing the short-distance use of such frequencies. This is brought about by the ever-growing requirements for international radio communications which can only be satisfied in the high frequency region of the spectrum. Therefore, as a practical matter, the Commission has found it in the public interest to plan the utilization of high frequencies by services which have international communication requirements.

The purpose of the proceedings in Docket No. 10724 and 10725 is related to the necessity of operating the Rivers system on an "in-band" basis. The Commission has not attempted, in those proceedings, to expand the Rivers high frequency system. Consequently, the comments of the interested persons relating to the expansion of this system through the allocation of additional frequencies are considered beyond the scope of these proceedings.

With respect to the 4 Mc frequencies proposed for use on the Rivers, the Commission has encountered unexpected difficulties in clearing 4372.4 kc for full-time use but has been able to clear 4067 kc for twenty-four hour use rather than for daytime only. Therefore, the amendments to the Commission's rules make 4067 kc available for use on a full-time basis as a replacement for 4162.5 kc. 4372.4 kc will be a replacement for 6455 kc and subject to the same limitations. This choice also is in agreement with the Radiomarine Corporation of America (RMCA) comments concerning the 4 Mc frequencies wherein the full-time use of 4067 kc as a replacement for existing use of 4162.5 kc was recommended. RMCA further notes that the frequency 4372.4 kc is only 5.4 kc removed from the RMCA coast telegraph station WNY, New York, which is assigned the frequency 4367 kc and that mutual interference may result. While this is a possibility, any interference which may arise is expected to be only intermittent and will not seriously impair the use of either frequency. It is believed that the geographical separation is such that any interference which may occur can be minimized by reasonable adjustment of existing equipment.

Comments filed with respect to the 6 Mc problem by RMCA, Warner & Tamble, American Waterways Operators, Inc., and the American Petroleum Institute unanimously object to the deletion of 6 Mc frequencies and request a hearing in the event the Commission decides to take such action. In general, the technical recommendations submitted by RMCA are supported by all of the interested parties.

The Commission believes that particularly for the benefit of boat owners, a complete discussion of this problem in this Report and Order is desirable and may result in a considerable over-all saving for most boat owners with respect to the cost of crystal replacements and with respect to the number of times it may be necessary for service trips to be made aboard the various vessels.

The RMCA comments state in part "• • • In our opinion, the absence of a 6 Mc frequency in the complement of frequencies allocated to the Mississippi River Valley system will so handicap the service as to reduce its efficiency by fifty percent • • •"

From the comments filed in this Docket and in Docket 10377 (the original proposal) and from many meetings of the Commission's staff with industry representatives, it is obvious that many of the Rivers interests share the view that the loss of the frequency 6455 kc will be a severe handicap to the Rivers communication system. The Commission's proposal to delete 6 Mc assignments was based upon engineering analysis which indicated that the substitution of a 4 Mc frequency would not jeopardize the efficiency of the system but in fact, with a few operational changes with respect to frequency usage, could even result in a more efficient system. As a practical matter and to determine what effect the loss of 6 Mc assignments might have, the Commission, through the cooperation of Rivers interests, conducted a two-week extended frequency utilization survey. This survey involved observations of radio operations on the Rivers for the purpose of determining which frequencies were utilized the most, over what distances each frequency was usable and what the pattern of use on the Rivers appeared to be. Over two thousand observations of "frequency vs. distance" were made during the two-week period covering a trip down the Rivers from Pittsburgh to Memphis. These observations were logged and analyzed. From the data obtained it was found that for the period September 3 through September 19, 1953, the following ratios and facts are applicable:

a. 4162.5 kc—16.5 contacts per hour were made on this frequency.

b. 6455 kc—11.8 contacts per hour were made on this frequency.

c. 8840 kc—Due to infrequent use of this frequency very little time was spent observing and contacts per hour are estimated on the basis of limited monitoring as 2 per hour.

d. 90 percent of the contacts made on 6455 kc were during the hours and over the distance which received coverage through the use of 4162.5 kc.

e. According to observed propagation conditions it is estimated that 100 percent of the 6 Mc contacts could have been made by a combination of 4 Mc and 8 Mc frequency usage.

From the above data it is to be expected that fully 90 percent of the traffic now conducted on the Rivers on 6455 kc could be handled during the same hours on a 4 Mc frequency and the remaining 10 percent on the 8 Mc frequency. This increased 4 Mc loading could be adequately handled by the additional 4 Mc frequency being made available for the Rivers.

In addition, to the above statistics, the special survey indicated:

a. The majority of schedules held today between coast and ship telephone stations on the Rivers are held on 2782 and 4162.5 kc.

b. The majority of river boats cover only one frequency at a time, generally 2738 kc, switching to the appropriate frequency to cover traffic schedules at the appointed times.

From the above, it appears unlikely that there will be any appreciable increase in the number of times that coast stations call ship stations without making contact if there is no 6 Mc frequency available. Therefore, the RMCA comment "• • • Added to the fact that the Mississippi River Valley maritime mobile radiotelephone service may be forced to consume twice the time and use its frequencies twice as much to communicate the same inteligence as it now communicates, if it loses all 6 Mc frequencies, is the fact that it will also be forced to make a large number of unsuccessful attempts to reach vessels with which it can now make contact * * *" appears to be unduly pessimistic.

RMCA submits "that the best solution to the problem facing the Commission and the service is the allocation of two 6 Mc derogation frequencies, in addition to the two 4 Mc frequencies and the one 8 Mc frequency proposed by the Commission in this proceeding, to the Mississippi River Valley maritime mobile radiotelephone service. The fact that any 6 Mc frequency assigned to this service at this time will take second place to in-band assignments increases the likelihood of harmful interference by such assignments to Mississippi River Valley operations on such a frequency." It must be pointed out that this suggestion fails to indicate the probability of interference to the in-band user of the frequency which is being used in derogation by the Rivers.

As an example, should the Commission condone the continued use of 6455 kc in derogation, there would be no initial expense to current licensees as far as crystals are concerned. However, the frequency 6453 kc is to be activated in the near future by high-powered Government coast telegraph stations which, in all probability, will cause such harmful interference as to preclude the use of 6455 kc by the Rivers. Should the Rivers operations cause harmful interference to the coast stations, the Commission will have no alternative but to invoke the existing rule provisions under which 6240 and 6455 kc were originally assigned which read as follows:

§ 7.304 Assignable frequencies. * * *
(d) * * *
(8) The frequencies 6,240 and 6,455 kc are authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes), upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused. In order to avoid such interference, transmission on these frequencies during the period from two hours after local sunset until two hours before local sunrise is prohibited.

In the event of interference, the Commission under the facts of this case would necessarily favor the operation which is in conformity with the Geneva Agreement (1951). The same principle would be applicable to the use of any other 6 Mc frequencies by the Rivers on a derogation basis.

If the Rivers operators received authorization to use another 6 Mc derogation frequency, there would be the matter of time and expense in securing crystals to activate it. Perhaps the new derogation frequency would be usable for a week, a month or six months before interference was again caused to an in-band user, who might not activate the frequency until after the Rivers activate it, and the Rivers operation would again be forced to move. In view of this fact the Commission can not accept the responsibility for the expense and unsettled position in which the Rivers system will be placed if the Rivers operators insist upon using 6 Mc frequencies on a derogation basis.

As a practical matter, it is to be expected that continued use of 6455 kc will result in interference to the U. S. coast telegraph use of 6453 kc and that it will be necessary for the Rivers to shift to 6240 kc, perhaps in a matter of a few months. However, it is expected that the reason which now makes the use of 6240 kc impractical, (it is now in the band used internationally for ship telegraph) will continue to make use of the frequency by the Rivers impractical. However, as previously mentioned, the Commission is unable to choose any other 6 Mc frequency which will not have similar problems associated with its activation by the Rivers and it is this sort of insecurity of the Rivers position with respect to the use of derogation frequencies which the Commission is striving to eliminate.

The Rivers interests have thus far recommended moving from one 6 Mc frequency to another 6 Mc frequency. The Commission is of the opinion that moving from one derogation frequency, 6455 kc, to another 6 Mc derogation frequency will be but the first of many such steps until finally, tiring of the expense of moving and the haphazard service resulting therefrom, the Rivers system will seek to move in-band to 4 Mc, if a frequency can be found at that time.

The Commission does not wish to take the responsibility for creating any such chaotic conditions with respect to the Rivers communications system. It is therefore making available an additional 4 Mc frequency now in lieu of the 6 Mc channels which, we are convinced, will eventually become unusable on the Rivers. The Commission is not making final the deletion of either of the 6 Mc frequencies presently assigned to the Rivers. However, as indicated above, continued use of either 6 Mc frequency, or any other 6 Mc frequency for which application might be made, can and will be authorized only in strict conformity with § 7.304 (d) (8) of the rules, which deals with the use of 6 Mc frequencies by the Rivers system. The Commission strongly urges ship owners to convert as rapidly as possible from operations on 6 Mc to the new 4 Mc frequencies. We are convinced that this will result in the least number of frequency changes which ship owners will be required to make and will preclude the possibility of loss of communications which would be incurred during shifts from one 6 Mc frequency to another 6 Mc frequency. The Commission believes that such 6 Mc shifts will become inevitable as more and more of the scheduled in-band assignments in the 6 Mc region are activated. It should also be noted that international protection to the use of the new 4 Mc frequencies, as previously mentioned, is contingent on actual use being made thereof.

With respect to the 8 Mc problem, comments from Warner and Tamble state, in part: "8440 and 8840 are deleted because A. C. does not allow allocation of a Geneva 8 kc (sic) radio telephone band for the simplex operation of both coast and ship stations, and, therefore the replacement is duplex operation in day use of the New York pair 8811.5–8262.3 kc although in disregard of their international allocation * * *" This is far from correct for several reasons. (1) 8440 kc is not now, nor has it ever been, either a subject of this proceeding or authorized for use on the Rivers. (2) The frequency in question, 8840 kc, must be deleted since its continued use would result in mutual interference with the assignment of 8837 kc to the aeronautical mobile route service in accordance with the Geneva Agreement. (3) The original proposal to substitute a duplex pair of frequencies, also assigned at New York, to replace 8840 kc was not made in "disregard of their international allotment." As previously stated in Docket 10377, such use of this pair in the Mississippi River area would not materially alter the international interference pattern contemplated by international allotment of the pair to the New York area and was therefore considered consistent with international obligations. (4) The Geneva Agreement makes provision for the activation of assignments in addition to those in the new International Frequency List, subject only to the protection of those that are in that list.

The RMCA comments received with respect to the Commission's selection of 8205.5 kc as a replacement for the presently authorized 8840 kc suggested that 8761.3 kc would be a better choice because of possible interference to 8205.5 kc by ships communicating by radiotelephone with Nicaragua or the Dominican Republic. The Commission considered several possible replacements for 8840 kc but because of various potential interference conflicts, both U. S. Government and foreign, 8205.5 kc is considered the best choice.

The date of deletion of authorized operation on 8840 kc was proposed to be December 1, 1953. The Aeronautical Mobile service plan for activating the frequency 8837 kc has been delayed unexpectedly for an estimated four months. Considering the comments of interested parties with respect to the length of time required for frequency changes to be made, it appears that for the Rivers, this delay is fortunate in helping to meet the changeover problem. The amendments to the Commission's rules revise the dates of deletions to May 1, 1954.

In view of the above, the Commission is amending its rules so as to provide the following frequency complement on the Rivers:

Present frequency	Date of deletion	Hours of use	Replacement frequency	Date available	Remarks
4[illegible]5	May 1, 1954	24	4067	May 1, 1945	Complete replacement for the present frequency.
6240	(1)	Day only (6 a. m.–5 p. m. C. S. T.).			Use of this frequency will be in accordance with the existing rule provisions.
6455	(1)	do	4372.4	May 1, 1954	Use of 6455 kc may be continued in accordance with existing rule provisions. Those ships and coast stations the licensees of which desire to utilize 4372.5 kc in lieu of 6455 kc may do so.
8840	May 1, 1954	do	8205.5	do	Complete replacement for the present frequency.

The rule amendments provide opportunity for a change-over period beginning January 1, 1954, and lasting until May 1, 1954. This period, which is common to all frequencies, will permit the frequencies on each vessel to be changed on one service trip aboard except for those vessels, the licensees of which, choose to continue 6 Mc service. Inasmuch as it may be impractical for all vessels to change frequencies on a predetermined date, it may be necessary for some, if not all, coast stations to provide service on the new frequencies, as well as the old frequencies during the changeover period. However, this is a matter which may be worked out by the Rivers interests.

It is suggested that efforts be made to activate the two 4 Mc frequencies and the replacement 8 Mc frequency as quickly as practicable. This is true because of the urgent requirement to clear 8837 kc for the aeronautical mobile route service and 6453 kc for the coast telegraph service.

Because of the necessity of permitting all shipowners to plan their frequency changes at the earliest practicable date, the usual thirty-day period between the adoption of this Report and Order and the effective date of the rule amendments is being reduced so as to make them effective on January 1, 1954. It is believed that this will assist the Rivers interests in making the necessary equipment adjustment; Therefore,

It is ordered, That effective January 1, 1954, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

It is further ordered, That, in view of the emergency which necessitates putting the above described channel shifts into effect as soon as possible and the infeasibility of securing new applications for frequencies from all ship station licensees now authorized to use frequencies on the Mississippi River system for radiotelephone communication with coast stations of this system, the licenses of such ship stations are modified effective January 1, 1954, so as to add the frequencies 4067 kc, 4372.4 kc and 8205.5 kc for a period not to exend beyond July 1, 1954; and

It is further ordered, That effective January 1, 1954, the licenses of coast stations shown below, are modified so as to add the frequency 8205.5 kc; and

It is further ordered, That effective May 1, 1954, the licenses of coast stations shown below, are modified so as to delete the frequency 8840 kc.

[4] Available for Mississippi River system beginning January 1, 1954.
[5] Available beginning November 1, 1953.
[6] Available exclusively for test purposes in the Great Lakes area on condition that interference shall not be caused to any maritime mobile telephone service of the Great Lakes area conducted on 4422.5 kc; available for regular service in the Great Lakes area, without this limitation beginning March 15, 1954.
[7] Available exclusively for test purposes in the Great Lakes area on condition that interference shall not be caused to any maritime mobile telephone service of the Great Lakes area conducted on 8820 kc; available for regular service in the Great Lakes area without this limitation beginning January 15, 1954.
[8] Not available after May 1, 1954.
[8a] Available in the Great Lakes Area beginning December 1, 1953.

b. Section 7.306 (a) (2) is amended by deleting the following frequencies and footnote 1a from the table:

c. Section 7.304 (d) (5) is amended to read as follows:

(5) The frequencies 4067 kc and 4162.5 kc are authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes); such use of these frequencies is authorized upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

d. Section 7.304 (d) (8) is amended to read as follows:

(8) Use of the frequencies 6240 kc, 6455 kc, and 8840 kc are authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes), upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which, in the discretion of the Commission, may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused. In order to avoid such interference, transmission on these frequencies during the period 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

e. Section 7.304 (d) (9) is amended to read as follows:

(9) Use of the frequencies 4372.4 kc and 8205.5 kc is authorized for use by coast stations serving vessels on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters only (except the Great Lakes), upon the express condition that transmission on these frequencies during the period 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

f. Amend § 7.306 (c) to read, with respect to the specific frequencies set forth therein, as follows:

b. Section 8.351 (d) (9) is amended to read as follows:

(9) Use of the frequencies 4162.5 kc and 4067 kc in the Mississippi River system is authorized upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused.

c. Section 8.351 (d) (11) is amended to read as follows:

(11) Use of the frequencies 6240 kc, 6455 kc, and 8840 kc is authorized in the Mississippi River system upon the express condition that interference shall not be caused to the service of any station which may have priority on the frequency or frequencies used for the service to which interference is caused. In order to avoid such interference, transmission on these frequencies during the period from 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

d. Section 8.351 (d) (12) is amended to read as follows:

(12) The frequency 4372.4 kc may be used beyond July 1, 1954 by ship stations on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (except the Great Lakes) which are not licensed to transmit on 6240 kc and/or 6455 kc.

e. Section 8.351 (d) is amended by deleting subparagraph (13).

f. Section 8.351 (d) (14) is added to read as follows:

(14) The frequencies 4372.4 kc and 8205.5 kc are authorized for use on the Mississippi River and connecting inland waters (except the Great Lakes), upon the express condition that transmission on these frequencies during the period from 8:00 p. m. until 5:00 a. m., c. s. t., is prohibited.

g. Amend § 8.354 (a) (2) to read, with respect to the specific frequencies set forth, therein, as follows:

2782 kc [4]
4162.5 kc [4] until May 1, 1954.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter B—Hunting and Possession of Wildlife

PART 6—MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

ORDER PERMITTING KILLING OF WATERFOWL OR COOT IN AGRICULTURAL AREAS OF CALIFORNIA

Basis and purpose. It has been determined from investigations and information received that serious agricultural crop depredations are likely to occur in portions of the State of California and that these depredations may be alleviated and a large portion of the crops saved from serious injury or destruction by authorizing such waterfowl or coot to be taken in the affected areas.

Since the following order is an emergency measure, notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001, et seq.), and it shall become effective immediately.

Subject to the following conditions, restrictions, and requirements, such waterfowl or coot as are found damaging crops in agricultural areas of California may be killed by shooting with a shotgun only on or over such crops during the period or periods to be announced in accordance with this order: Provided, however, That no period of shooting shall extend beyond April 15, 1954. The facts as to the existence of an emergency condition in any particular community which requires the killing of one or more species of waterfowl or coot as contemplated herein, the extent of the area, and the period of time during which, and the conditions under which, such killing may be permitted, shall be ascertained by the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service and announced by him by suitable publication in the area where the emergency exists, which finding and announcement shall be final. Any such period of time during which killing is permitted shall be shortened by similar announcement upon a finding that the particular emergency condition no longer exists.

Such birds as are killed under the provisions of this order may not be sold, offered for sale, bartered, or shipped for purposes of sale or barter, or be wantonly wasted or destroyed. They may be used as food for personal use within the State of California and they may be donated to hospitals and other charitable institutions within the State for use as food, but they may not be possessed by or served as food in any restaurant, club, or other public or private eating establishment. No carcasses of birds killed hereunder may be possessed under any circumstances beyond April 20, 1954

This order does not permit the killing of any waterfowl or coot in violation of any State law or regulation. The said order is an emergency measure designed to aid in relieving depredations and is not to be construed as a reopening or extension of the open hunting season prescribed for the State of California by regulations promulgated under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (40 Stat. 755; 16 U. S. C. 704), which open hunting season will expire January 10, 1954 (18 F. R. 5175).

Dated: December 31, 1953.

RALPH A. TUDOR,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

In F. R. Doc. 53-10804, appearing in the issue for Wednesday, December 30, 1953, at page 8871, the signature appearing at the end of the document should read "George A. Dice, Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration."

[7 CFR Part 942]

[Docket No. AO 103-A13-RO1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the reopening of the public hearing held May 7, 1953, New Orleans, Louisiana, on proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New Orleans, Louisiana, marketing area.

The purpose of the reopened hearing is to afford interested parties opportunity to introduce additional evidence with respect to the amendments proposed at said hearing, and to receive evidence concerning the additional proposals for amendment hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof. Neither the proposals set forth below nor those contained in the original notice of hearing have been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The reopened hearing will be held in the L'Enfant's Boulevard Room, 5236 Canal Boulevard, New Orleans, Louisiana, beginning at 10:00 a. m., January 14, 1954.

The following additional amendments have been proposed by the Borden Company, Cloverland Dairy Products Corporation, Gold Seal Creamery, St. Charles Dairy, Inc., Estelle Dairy, Hayes Dairy Products, Inc., Roemer Dairies, and Brown's Velvet Dairy Products, Inc.

7. Delete § 942.41 (c) and substitute, therefor, the following:

(c) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cheese other than Cheddar.

8. Delete § 942.41 (d) and substitute, therefor, the following:

(d) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce ice cream or ice cream mix.

9. After (d) in § 942.41, add a new paragraph (e) which shall read as follows:

(e) Class IV milk shall be (1) all skim milk and butterfat disposed of as any item other than those classified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section; (2) skim milk and butterfat disposed of for livestock feed; (3) skim milk dumped, and (4) skim milk and butterfat accounted for as actual plant shrinkage but not in excess of 2 percent of receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, from producers.

10. Renumber § 942.54 to § 942.50.

11. After § 942.53, insert a new § 942.54 which shall read as follows:

§ 942.54 Class IV prices. The price for Class IV milk shall be computed in the same manner as the price for Class III milk, less a cooling and transportation charge of $0.35 a hundredweight.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, M. M. Truxillo, 3709 S. Carrollton Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be inspected there.

HANDLING OF MILK IN LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., January 11, 1954, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, marketing area (7 CFR 946 et seq.). Those proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Louisville, Kentucky, milk marketing area were proposed as follows:

By the Louisville Milk Dealers Association:

1. In § 946.70 add a new paragraph to read as follows:

(e) Deduct for each pound of butterfat in producer milk which was allocated to Class II pursuant to § 946.46 and which was either used in the production of butter or American type cheeses or assigned to such products pursuant to § 946.44 an amount obtained by dividing by 3.8 that amount by which the Class II price exceeds the price calculated pursuant to § 946.51 (b) (1).

2. To § 946.44 (c) add the following proviso: "Provided, That such milk or skim milk if transferred or diverted during the months of March through September to a nonpool plant located 100 miles or more from the City Hall at Louisville, Kentucky, by the shortest hard surface highway distance as determined by the market administrator may be classified in Class II if the conditions set forth in paragraph (d), (1), (2) and (3) of this section are met."

By the Falls Cities Cooperative Milk Producers', Inc.:

3. Delete § 946.46 (a) (3) and renumber subparagraphs (4), (5), (6) and (7) of this section and all references to them wherever they appear in the order to read (3), (4), (5) and (6) respectively.

By the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

4. Delete § 946.44 (d) (1).

5. Add a new subparagraph in § 946.46 (a) to provide for the subtraction of skim milk contained in products other than milk, skim milk and cream received from pool plant from the class to which assigned pursuant to § 946.41.

6. Make such changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 565 Starks Building, Louisville 2, Kentucky, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated December 31, 1953, at Washington, D. C.

[Docket No. AO 232-A2]

HANDLING OF MILK IN SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in Room 215, U. S. Post Office and Court House, San Antonio, Texas, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., January 11, 1954, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modification thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area were proposed, as enumerated below:

By Producers Association of San Antonio Inc.:

1. That § 949.51 (b), be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

(b) Adjust the price calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section so that it does not exceed the price calculated pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section by less than $2.00 or more than $2.50 during the months of April, May, and June, and so it does not exceed the price calculated pursuant to paragraph

(d) of this section by less than $2.00 or more than $2.70 for all the other months.

2. That § 949.51 be amended by adding to paragraph (c) thereof the following: "The provisions of this paragraph shall operate only to the extent that the difference in Class I price under Order No. 43, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the North Texas marketing area and that provided under this order shall not be greater than 50 cents."

3. That § 949.53 shall be amended as follows: Delete paragraph (a) therefrom and substitute the following:

(a) Multiply the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling price (use the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., during the month by 4.0.

4. That § 949.54 shall be amended as follows:

a. Delete paragraph (b) therefrom and substitute the following:

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month minus one cent by 0.100.

b. Add to § 949.54 the following paragraph:

(c) Class III milk. Multiply such price for the current month minus one cent by 0.100.

5. That § 949.41 shall be amended by adding thereto the following:

(c) Class III milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat used to produce cheese other than cottage cheese.

6. That the order, as amended, shall be further amended to include the following section:

§ 949.— Class III price. The Class III price shall be an amount calculated as follows:

The average or the basic or field price per hundredweight reported paid or to be paid for milk of 4 percent butterfat received from farmers during the current month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator:

Fort Worth Poultry, Egg and Cheese Plant, Round Rock, Texas, Fort Worth Poultry, Egg and Cheese Plant, Alice, Texas.

By the Dairy Branch:

7. Make such other changes as may be required to make the entire order conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 1204 N. Main Avenue, San Antonio 2, Texas, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be inspected there.

Dated: December 31, 1953, at Washington, D. C.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[18 CFR Parts 1, 4, 5, 131]

[Docket No. R–128]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DECEMBER 22, 1953.

Amendment of Part 1, Rules of Practice and Procedure, and of Parts 4, 6, 9, 24 and 25 of Subchapter B, Regulations Under the Federal Power Act Relating to Applications for Licenses, Permits, and Amendments, Surrender or Termination of License, Transfer of License or Lease of Project Property, Declarations of Intention and Applications for Vacation of Withdrawal and for Determination Permitting Restoration to Entry.

1. Notice of proposed rule making was given in the above-entitled matter on November 5, 1953. Said notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 17, 1953 (18 F. R. 7274), and provided in paragraph 7 for the submission by interested persons of data, views and comments by December 10, 1953.

2. The title set out above is amended so as to include a reference to Part 5, omitted in error from the original notice and to Part 131 of Subchapter D, Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, which Part is proposed to be amended in this supplemental notice.

3. In addition to the amendments to its rules of practice and procedure listed in paragraph 2 of that notice, the Commission proposes to prescribe new paragraph (c) § 1.34, to read as set forth below. This amendment is, in effect, an interpretation of the language in section 19 (a) of the Natural Gas Act and section 313 (a) of the Federal Power Act relating to applications for rehearing of Commission orders. Its adoption is made desirable by the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in Texas-Ohio Gas Company v. Federal Power Commission, No. 11,851, decided October 15, 1953.

4. Additional amendments are proposed to be made to Part 5 and also it is proposed to amend Subchapter D, Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, Chapter I of Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations to prescribe therein (in lieu of existing sections) amended sections of Part 131 set forth below. The changes in Part 131 are necessary to bring these forms into conformity with the amendments proposed herein and in the original notice, referred to above.

5. The amendments to the Commission's general rules and regulations proposed herein and those accompanying the original notice are proposed to be issued under the authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the section 309 of the Federal Power Act, as amended, 49 Stat. 858, 16 U. S. C. 825 (h) and section 16 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, 52 Stat. 830, 15 U. S. C. 717 o.

6. Any interested person may submit to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before January 25, 1954, data, views and comments in writing concerning the amendments proposed herein and those proposed in the original notice. The Commission will consider these written submittals before acting upon the proposed amendments An original and 9 copies should be filed of any such submittals.

[SEAL] J. H. GUTRIDE,
Acting Secretary.

1. In § 1.34 add new paragraph (c) as follows:

§ 1.34 Application for rehearing. • • •

(c) Action on. Unless the Commission acts upon the application for rehearing within thirty days after it is filed, such application shall be deemed to have been denied.

2. In § 4.50 change "quadruplicate" in the first paragraph to read "sextuple". Also delete the sentence reading "Exhibits shall be certified in accordance with § 131.4."

3. In § 4.60 change "three copies" to read "five copies".

4. In § 4.70 change "quadruplicate" in the first paragraph to read "sextuple".

5. In § 5.1 change "quadruplicate" to read "sextuple". And change "the Commission's rules" to read "this chapter".

6. In § 131.2 delete the parenthetical instruction indicating the number of copies to be filed. Change item 9 in the form set out in the section to read as follows:

9. The proposed initial and ultimate scheme of development for the project is as follows: (See § 4.40 (b).)

7. In § 131.3 delete the parenthetical instruction indicating the number of copies to be filed.

8. In § 131.5 delete the parenthetical instruction indicating the number of copies to be filed. Change item 3 in the form set out in the section to read:

3. The transmission line will carry about _____ kwh of hydroelectric energy in an average water year from _____ the source of supply, to _____, the point of delivery; and _____ kwh of non-project energy in the same (the opposite) direction. The project energy will be used for the following purposes:

9. In § 131.6 delete the third sentence beginning with the word "Unless" in the parenthetical instruction paragraph in item (2). In item 4 (c) of the form delete the word "other".

10. Delete the Note, referring to Order No. 106, appended to § 131.6 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

NOTE: The following requirements for the project map to be filed as Exhibit K are prescribed:

There shall be submitted pursuant to §§ 4.60 and 131.6 with each application for license for a minor project having installed water-wheel capacity of 100 horsepower or less, a map, designated as Exhibit K, showing the portion of the stream developed, the location of all essential project works (dams, reservoirs, conduits, powerhouses, tailraces, access roads, and transmission lines), and the area occupied by all project works as limited by a project boundary, and indicating State, county, meridian, township, range, section, and the smallest legal subdivision or numbered lot or tract. The map shall show the ownership, whether Government or private, for each parcel of land affected by the project. The map shall also indicate whether or not the affected Government land is included in any reservation such as a national forest, Indian reservation, etc.

Exhibit K shall conform to the following specifications and shall show the following information:

(1) The exhibit shall be an ink drawing on tracing linen, not smaller than 8 inches by 10½ inches, accompanied by four prints thereof drawn to an appropriate scale of one inch equals not more than 1,000 feet.

(2) The project boundary shall be stated separately for each facility, and shown on the map. The number of feet on each side of the surveyed center lines of the conduits, roads, powerhouse unit, tailrace, and transmission lines shall be at least 10 feet. The distances of the project boundary from the survey center lines need not be identical on both sides of the center lines of the structures nor for all parts of the project, and, in the vicinity of the powerhouse, they shall be large enough to allow at least 10 feet on each side of the powerhouse and to include all appurtenant project structures. Unequal offsets or changes in offsets with points of change should be definitely described on the map. The project boundary inclosing the dam and reservoir should be a surveyed line with stated courses and distances, which line shall be not less than 20 feet horizontal measurement from the ends and from the axis on the downstream side of the dam and not less than 10 feet outside of a contour around the reservoir established by the highest point on the dam and abutment. The area of the enclosure in acres should be given. The project area and boundary at the powerhouse, dam, and reservoir should, if necessary for clarity, be shown in an insert sketch to a larger scale than that used for the rest of the project works.

(3) If practicable, there shall be shown one or more ties by distance and bearing from a definite point or points on the project boundary which point or points can be identified on the ground, to established corners of the public land survey or to a mineral monument or other fixed recognizable object if the land is unsurveyed.

(4) If the project affects unsurveyed Government lands, the protraction of township and section lines shall be shown; such protractions, whenever available, to be those recognized by the agency of the United States having jurisdiction over the lands.

(5) The map shall bear the following certificate dated and signed by the applicant: "This map is a part of the application for a license made by the undersigned this _____ day of _____, 19__."

(Name of applicant)

11. In § 131.10 delete the parenthetical instruction indicating the number of copies to be filed. Change the parenthetical instruction included in item 8 of the form set out in the section to read:

(Here give a concise general description of the project and the proposed scheme of development including an estimate of the installed capacity and the average annual output.)

12. a. In § 131.20 change the words "authorized the giving of" in items (6) and (7) of the form to read "given". Change the words "approval of" in item (7) of the form to read "approval to". In footnote 5 to this section change the second sentence to read:

If the Commission acts favorably upon the application, it will issue to the applicants an order approving the transfer of the license.

b. In the same footnote 5 delete from the fifth sentence:

(e. g. acquisition of water rights under state laws from the transferor.

c. Also in the same footnote 5 delete the last sentence.

13. In § 131.30 delete the parenthetical instruction indicating the number of copies to be filed.

AGENCY HEADS ET AL.

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY AND ASSIGNMENT OF FUNCTIONS

SECTION 100. Authority. The delegations in this document are made pursuant to authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 161, Revised Statutes (5 U. S. C. 22) and Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1953, as well as all other statutes and prior Reorganization Plans vesting authority in the Secretary of Agriculture with regard to the functions of the Department of Agriculture.

SEC. 101. General purpose. The purpose of this document is to provide as nearly as may be a general and concise authority under which the agencies of this Department are vested with authorities adequate to the discharge of their responsibilities. As a result of the terms of Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 1953, the Secretary of Agriculture is enabled to provide the subordinate officers and units of the Department with such delegations and assignments as he finds are necessary or desirable in relation to the functions performed.

SEC. 102. Relation to Office of the Secretary. No delegation or authorization prescribed in this document shall preclude the Secretary from exercising any of the powers or functions or from performing any of the duties conferred herein and any such delegations or authorization is subject at all times to withdrawal or amendment by the Secretary. No delegation or authorization prescribed in this document shall preclude the exercise of any delegation or authorization otherwise provided to the Under Secretary, Assistant Secretaries, Administrative Assistant Secretary, or Assistant to the Secretary for Agricultural Credit, or to the Staff agencies as provided in section 112 hereof.

SEC. 103. Responsibilities of Agency Heads—a. Responsibility to the Secretary. The delegations contained in this document are made subject to the general responsibility of the Secretary to the President and to the Congress for the administration of the Department. The head of each agency (1) will maintain close working relationships with the officer to whom he reports, (2) will keep him advised with respect to major problems and developments, and (3) will discuss with him proposed actions involving major policy questions or other important considerations or questions, including matters involving relationships with other agencies of this Department, other Federal agencies, or other governmental or private organizations or groups.

b. Responsibility for coordination of policies and operations. It is the responsibility of each agency to consult and cooperate with other Department agencies when its activities relate to, affect, or are affected by the work of these agencies and to see that its policies, programs, and operations are coordinated with theirs, to the end that the Department operates with maximum unity and effectiveness.

c. Responsibility for efficient operations. Agency heads, having broad authority to carry on the functions of their agencies, are responsible for seeing that the work of their agencies is efficiently administered and that the public obtains the fullest possible benefit for the funds expended. To accomplish these objectives and to insure that the maximum possible improvements in programs and operations are achieved, agency heads should see that periodic reviews are conducted as required by Executive Order 10072 and 5 U. S. C. 1151.

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT

SEC. 109. Service agencies. The Service agencies of the Department of Agriculture are grouped as follows:

a. Federal-States relations:

Agricultural Research Service.
Forest Service.
Soil Conservation Service.
Federal Extension Service.
Agricultural Conservation Program Service.
Farmer Cooperative Service.

b. Marketing and Foreign Agriculture:

Agricultural Marketing Service.
Foreign Agricultural Service.
Commodity Exchange Authority.

c. Agricultural Stabilization:

Commodity Stabilization Service (including Commodity Credit Corporation functions assigned in accordance with Commodity Credit Corporation by-laws).
Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees.
Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

d. Agricultural Credit:

Farmers Home Administration.
Rural Electrification Administration.

SEC. 110. Staff Agencies. The Staff agencies of the Department of Agriculture are as follows:

a. Office of the Solicitor.
b. Administrative Agencies:

Office of Budget and Finance.
Office of Hearing Examiners.
Office of Information.
Library.
Office of Personnel.
Office of Plant and Operations.

SEC. 111. The functions of the Staff agencies are prescribed particularly in the Department's Administrative Regulations and otherwise.

SEC. 112. Delegations and authorizations to Service agencies shall be subject to such delegations and authorizations as are granted to Staff agencies by the Administrative Regulations or otherwise.

GENERAL DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

SEC. 116. Delegations of authority to agency heads. The head of each agency shall, under the general direction and supervision of the Secretary of Agriculture and the Under Secretary, and the Assistant Secretary, the Administrative Assistant Secretary, or the Assistant to the Secretary in charge of Agricultural Credit to whom is assigned the general direction and supervision of his agency, direct and supervise the activities of the employees of his agency. Subject to any reservation of authority contained in the assignment of functions to the individual agency, or otherwise reserved in the Administrative Regulations, the head of any agency is hereby delegated authority to take any action, including the authority to execute any document, authorize any expenditure, and promulgate any rule, regulation, order or instruction, required by law or deemed by him to be necessary and proper to the discharge of the functions assigned to his agency. The head of any such agency may, consistent with and with due regard to his personal responsibility for the proper discharge of the functions assigned to his agency, delegate and provide for the redelegation of his authority to appropriate officers and employees. Reservations of authority to the Secretary are subject to the provisions otherwise made for the authority of the Under Secretary and Assistant Secretaries.

PRIOR AUTHORIZATIONS

SEC. 120. Status of prior authorizations and delegations. All delegations and authorizations of the Secretary affecting the subject matter of this document or in conflict with the provisions of section 116 are hereby rescinded except where reserved or otherwise expressly recognized by reference in this document. However, any regulation, order, authorization, or similar instrument, heretofore issued by the Secretary, shall remain in full force and effect, excepting that any delegations or authorizations contained therein shall be construed to conform to the assignments made in this document. Also, any regulation, order, authorization, or similar instrument including delegations of authority heretofore issued pursuant to any secretarial delegation or authorization by any other officer of the Department shall continue in full force and effect unless and until withdrawn or superseded pursuant to authority granted in this document. Nothing in this document shall be construed to disturb other regulations or instructions governing the general conduct of officers and employees of the Department or providing for the orderly handling of correspondence and communications.

FEDERAL–STATES RELATIONS; AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH SERVICE

ASSIGNMENT OF FUNCTIONS

SEC. 200. Assignment of functions. The following assignment of functions is hereby made to the Agricultural Research Service:

a. Coordination of all research activities of the Department, including examination and analysis of all such activities current and contemplated, review and approval of all projects or proposals prior to initiation, advice and consultation on planning with heads of agencies, and reports and recommendations to the Secretary.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 10559, 10560]

GULF COAST BROADCASTING CO., AND BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF TEXAS

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES AND SCHEDULING HEARING

In re applications of Gulf Coast Broadcasting Company, Corpus Christi, Texas, Docket No. 10559, File No. BPCT-723; Baptist General Convention of Texas, Corpus Christi, Texas, Docket No. 10560, File No. BPCT-906; for construction permits for new television broadcast stations.

There being under consideration a second petition to enlarge the issues filed by Baptist General Convention of Texas on December 3, 1953; an opposition filed by Gulf Coast Broadcasting Company on December 9, 1953; and a reply to the opposition filed by the Convention on December 14, 1953;

It appearing that the second petition of the Convention has stated sufficient facts as to the commitments and likely obligations of the Gulf Coast proposal in this proceeding which, when considered in conjunction with the sums shown as available in the Gulf Coast application, would cast a reasonable doubt upon the ultimate ability of Gulf Coast to effectuate its proposals; and

It further appearing that the opposition filed by Gulf Coast constitutes, for all practical purposes, a denial of the allegations made in the second petition with the result that certain areas of fact relating to the allocation of funds by Gulf Coast have been placed in dispute; and

It further appearing that the Commission on October 30, 1953, authorized the Hearing Examiner upon a proper showing to add the following issue to this proceeding: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in its application will be effectuated.

It further appearing that in its second petition the Convention has made sufficient allegations of fact to warrant the addition of this issue;

It is ordered, This 24th day of December 1953, that the second petition of Baptist General Convention of Texas filed December 3, 1953, is granted and that the issue above set forth is added to this proceedings; and

It is further ordered, That the hearing will reconvene at 10:00 a. m., January 18, 1954.

STANDARD BROADCAST, FM, TELEVISION, AND INTERNATIONAL STATIONS

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT, BROADCAST LICENSEES AND PERMITTEES

In the matter of amendment of Annual Report Form 324 and deletion of Annual Report Form 324-A; applicable to Standard Broadcast, FM, Television and International Stations, Docket No. 10746; amendment of Schedules 10-A and 10-B (Employees and Their Compensation) of Annual Report Form 324; applicable to Standard Broadcast, FM, Television and International Stations, Docket No. 10107.

1. On November 5, 1953, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making (18 F. R. 7250) in the above-entitled matter. The period in which interested parties were afforded an opportunity to submit written comments has expired. Numerous comments were received supporting the proposed revisions and deletions, and no comments were received opposing the changes. The Commission, therefore, is adopting the proposed revisions and excisions, with minor editorial changes.

2. It is ordered, therefore, That, effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, pursuant to authority under section 4 (i), 303 (r), and 308 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, F. C. C. Form 324, Annual Financial Report of Networks and Licensees of Broadcast Stations, is amended accordingly. Sections 0.206 (c) is amended as set forth below.

3. It is further ordered, That Annual Financial Report Form 324-A, Summary Estimate of Station Broadcast Revenues and Expenses, is hereby deleted.

4. It is further ordered, That each network and licensee of broadcast stations and each permittee whose station was operated during 1953 shall prepare and file its annual financial report to the Commission for the year 1953 on or before April 1, 1954, and for each calendar year thereafter in the form and manner herein prescribed.

Adopted: December 16, 1953.

Released: December 21, 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

Amend section 0.206 (c) to read, as follows:

(c) All applications and amendments thereto filed under Title II and Title III of the act, including all documents and exhibits filed with and made a part thereof, and all communications protesting or endorsing any such applications, authorizations, and certifications issued upon such applications; all pleadings, depositions, exhibits, transcripts of testimony, reports of examiners or presiding officers, exceptions, briefs, proposed reports, or findings of fact and conclusions; all minutes and orders of the Commission. The information filed under § 1.341 (47 CFR 1.341) and network and transcription contracts filed pursuant to § 1.342 (47 CFR 1.342) shall not be open to public inspection. The Commission may, however, either on its own motion, or on motion of an applicant, permittee or licensee, for good cause shown, designate any of the material in this subsection as confidential.

[Docket No. 10824]

COAST STATIONS IN MISSISSIPPI RIVER SYSTEM

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of modification of license of coast stations currently authorized to operate in the Mississippi River System areas on certain frequencies between 4000 and 18,000 kc, Docket No. 10824.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington 25, D. C., on the 28th day of December 1953.

The Commission having under consideration the matter of modifying licenses of coast stations operating in the Mississippi River System areas on certain frequencies between 4000 and 18,000 kc pursuant to the Atlantic City Table of Frequency Allocations or the Geneva Agreement (1951).

It appearing, that on December 28, 1953, the Commisison adopted a report and order in Docket No. 10724 which amended Part 7 of the Commission's rules with reference to the availability of frequencies for use by coast stations in the Mississippi River System areas; and

It further appearing, that certain coast stations in the Mississippi River System area are currently operating on the frequency 4162.5 kc which is in the Atlantic City frequency band allocated for use by ship telegraph stations and that the continued use of this frequency by the subject coast stations will result in harmful mutual interference; and

It further appearing, that the Commission's report and order in Docket No. 10724 makes available for assignment the frequency 4067 kc as a replacement for 4162.5 kc and makes available additionally the frequency 4372.4 kc effective January 1, 1954; and

It further appearing, that the above report and order deletes the availability, for assignment to the subject coast stations, the frequency 4162.5 kc effective May 1, 1954.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the licensees listed below are directed to show cause, on or before February 1, 1954, why their licenses should not be modified to delete, as of May 1, 1954, the frequency 4162.5 kc and to add, as of February 15, 1954, the frequencies 4067 and 4372.4 kc.

Released: December 30, 1953.

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

ORDER APPROVING PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND REQUIRING TARIFF REVISIONS TO BE FILED

This is a rate proceeding arising from rate increases filed by Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco).

The record herein has been certified to us for approval of a proposed settlement, as stated on the record by Commission Staff Counsel in open hearing and as agreed to by all parties to the proceeding on the record. Upon consideration of the record, we approve the terms of the proposed settlement, permitting the agreed upon rate increases to become effective subject to the terms and conditions, agreed to by the parties, as hereinafter set forth.

On September 17, 1952, Transco filed with the Commission proposed Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19, and 24; Third Revised Sheet No. 16; First Revised Sheets Nos. 39, 40, and 41; and Original Sheet No. 41-A to Transco's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1. By these filings Transco's proposed rate increases which would have resulted in increased revenues of approximately $9,819,394, based on estimated sales of 173,366,309 Mcf for the twelve months ending September 30, 1953.[1]

On October 15, 1952, pending a hearing and the Commission's decision upon the question of the lawfulness of the rates proposed by Transco, the Commission suspended the proposed tariff sheets until March 18, 1953, and until such further time thereafter as such proposed tariff sheets might be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

Pursuant to Commission order, hearing was commenced with regard to the proposed rates on December 1, 1952. Following various recesses and continuances during which there were forty-three actual days of hearings, hearings were resumed on December 7, 1953. In the interim, by order issued on March 26, 1953, the suspended tariff sheets were permitted to become effective as of March 18, 1953, under bond and subject to refund, with interest, of the portion of the increased rates and charges which the Commission might find not justified.

At the conclusion of the hearing session on December 7, 1953, the hearing was recessed from day to day, pursuant to request by all parties, to permit the parties to confer respecting the possibility of agreement on or simplification of the issues involved in the proceedings. On December 17, 1953, final agreement was reached by the parties as to the rate increases to which Transco was entitled, the rates to be observed by Transco under its various rate schedules in the respective zones, and the terms and conditions to be attached to the settlement.

On the basis of an extensive field examination of the books, records and operations of Transco, the Commission's staff computed a net investment rate base for the twelve months ending September 30, 1954, of $242,505,207, with no allowance for working capital because of available Federal income tax accruals. Based upon a 6 percent rate of return upon this rate base, and estimated sales and transportation of 191,000,000 Mcf for the twelve months ending September 30, 1954, the staff developed an overall total cost of service of $60,901,800.

Transco contends that an amount of $5,372,025, less related accrued depreciation, representing financing costs associated with its 6 percent Interim Notes convertible into Preferred Stock on May 1, 1951, in the amount of $26,500,000, which were issued by Transco to finance in part the facilities authorized in Docket No. G-704, should be added to the above-described rate base of $242,505,207. On the basis of a 6 percent rate of return on Transco's computed rate base of $247,373,659, which includes the financing cost items less the related depreciation reserve, Transco's overall total cost of service would be $61,845,656, also based on estimated sales and transportation of 191,000,000 Mcf for the twelve months ending September 30, 1954. All parties to these proceedings have agreed that the issue with respect to the claimed financing costs shall be reserved for future disposition by the Commission.

These costs of service computations were presented to all parties to these proceedings in the conference, and it was agreed that Transco will, as soon as possible, file the following revisions to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, which will supersede the revised sheets which were placed under bond on March 18, 1953: Third Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19, and 24, and Fourth Revised Sheet No. 16. These revised sheets will contain the following rates:

Type of service	Rate schedule	Demand charge per Mcf	Commodity charge per Mcf
			Cents
Contract demand	CD-1	$1.89	20.5
	CD-2	2.37	25.7
	CD-3	2.95	32.0
General service	G-1	2.28	20.5
	G-2	2.79	25.1
	G-3	3.42	30.8

The demand components in the above rates include the following amounts reflecting the disputed rate base items which will be conditionally refundable pending final disposition by the Commission of such disputed items or of a Court of competent jurisdiction, if review is had:

Rate schedule:	Monthly demand charge conditionally refundable per Mcf of billing demand
CD-1	$0.09
CD-2	.12
CD-3	.15
G-1	.11
G-2	.14
G-3	.17

Where applicable the minimum annual bill amounts corresponding to the foregoing rates shall be included in the appropriate tariff sheets.

It was agreed that the application of the above-described rates to estimated jurisdictional sales under such rate schedules of 185,000,000 Mcf[2] for the twelve months ending September 30, 1954, is estimated to yield revenue of [1] A comparison of the proposed increases under the settlement with the increases proposed September 17, 1952, appears in Appendix A hereto.

[2] Total sales and transportation of 191,000,000 Mcf, less 4,000,000 Mcf direct sales and 2,000,000 Mcf of transportation.

$60,269,161. Such sum plus estimated revenues from transportation of $440,000 (Schedule X–1) and estimated Direct Sales revenues of $1,136,000 compare with the cost of service of $61,845,656. Such rates are found to be just and reasonable provided that the portion of the demand charges associated with the disputed rate base items are continued in effect under bond, pending final determination by the Commission. The estimated revenue effect by rate schedules is shown in Appendix B hereto.

It was further agreed that the cost of service including the disputed rate base items of approximately $5,372,025 less the related depreciation reserve for the period from March 18 through November 30, 1953, is $42,455,960 and that refunds shall be computed as if the rates which are to be made effective as of December 1, 1953, were effective during the period from March 18, 1953, through November 30, 1953. Upon the basis of such rates, the amount presently refundable to Transco's customers is approximately $1,563,141. Transco agrees to refund to its customers entitled thereto within 30 days from the date of the issuance of this order the approximate amount of $1,563,141 together with interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the respective dates of receipt of the amounts making up said $1,563,141.

It was further agreed that on the basis of the above-described computation the amount remaining in Transco's hands for the period from March 18, 1953, through November 30, 1953, related to the rate base items less the related depreciation reserve is approximately $568,955. The refundability of any of the amount of $568,955 is to be dependent upon a final order of the Commission or a Court of competent jurisdiction if review is had.

The Commission finds:

(1) The proposed settlement of the rate proceedings on the basis heretofore described, subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter ordered, is appropriate and in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and should be approved and made effective as hereinafter provided and ordered.

(2) Transco should refund, within thirty days from the date of the issuance of this order, to its firm customers for the period extending from March 18, 1953, through November 30, 1953, the amount of approximately $1,563,141, plus 6 percent interest per annum from the respective dates of the receipt of the amounts of which the $1,563,141 is composed.

(3) Transco should maintain under the bond which was accepted by the Commission on April 10, 1953, the amount of approximately $568,955, relating to the increased charges associated with the disputed rate base items of $5,372,025, less the related depreciation reserve which amount has been collected by Transco from its customers during the period from March 18, 1953, through November 30, 1953. In addition, Transco should maintain under said bond all amounts associated with the disputed rate base items to be collected by Transco under the conditionally refundable demand charges hereinabove set forth for the period from and after December 1, 1953, and until such further time as is necessary pending the issuance of a Commission order disposing finally of the issues pertaining to the disputed rate base items.

(4) If the so-called Texas gathering tax is held to be invalid by the final judgment of a Court of competent jurisdiction, Transco, upon receipt of any refund of such tax which has been paid by it upon gas later sold in interstate commerce for resale, should distribute such amounts so refunded in respect to such gas among all its resale gas customers, without additional cost or liability to Transco, such distribution to be in proportion to the total volume of gas purchased from Transco during the period from and after March 18, 1953. Further, if such tax is invalidated, Transco should, in reference to its sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, within ninety days from the date of such invalidation, file a reduction in the commodity charges in its Rate Schedules G–1, G–2, G–3, CD–1, CD–2, and CD–3 equal to the savings resulting from such invalidation, such reduction to be retroactively effective to the date of such invalidation.

(5) In the event that the actual Federal income tax payable by Transco is fixed at either more or less than the rate of 52 percent during the period after December 1, 1953, and prior to December 31, 1954, Transco should within the time hereinafter specified file revised Rate Schedules CD and G which will reflect the increase or decrease in the Federal income taxes payable by reason of a change in the tax rate of 52 percent, such increase or decrease to be equitably apportioned among such rate schedules in the three zones on Transco's system.

(6) It is appropriate and in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that all the issues in these proceedings with the exception of those relating to the disputed rate base items of $5,372,025 and related depreciation reserve of $351,845 be disposed of at this time, and that such disputed items be and the same hereby are reserved for disposition by further order of the Commission.

(7) The terms and conditions relating to billing practices and payment of bills embodied in First Revised Sheets Nos. 39, 40, 41, and Original Sheet No. 41–A to Transco's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, are appropriate and in the public interest in the circumstances of this case.

The Commission orders:

(A) The increase in rates and charges embodied in Transco's Second Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19, 24, and Third Revised Sheet No. 16 to Transco's FPC Gas Tariff Original Volume No. 1, with the exception of those amounts associated with the disputed rate base items and with the related depreciation reserve, be and the same are hereby disallowed. First Revised Sheets Nos. 39, 40, 41 and Original Sheet No. 41–A be and the same are hereby permitted to go into effect on December 1, 1953.

(B) Within thirty days from the date of issuance of this order, Transco shall file the following revised tariff sheets, Third Revised Sheets Nos. 5, 9, 12, 17, 19, and 24 and Fourth Revised Sheet No. 16 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, bearing an effective date of December 1, 1953, reflecting the rates approved in the proposed settlement. Such tariff sheets shall be subject to the conditions described in Findings (2) through (6) above.

(C) Transco, over the signature of a responsible officer, shall file with the Commission within 10 days from the date of the issuance of this order, in writing and under oath, an original and four conformed copies of its acceptance of the terms and conditions of this order; and within 45 days from the date of issuance of this order, shall submit the details of its calculations resulting in the refund of approximately $1,563,141, together with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, from the respective dates of receipt of the amounts making up said approximate amount of $1,563,141, ordered pursuant to Finding (2) and shall submit therewith copies of releases from its wholesale customers with respect to such refunds.

(D) Transco shall keep and maintain under the bond which was accepted by the Commission on April 10, 1953, the amount of approximately $568,955, relating to the increased charges associated with the disputed rate base items of $5,372,025 less the related depreciation reserve, which amount has been collected by Transco from its customers during the period from March 18, 1953, through November 30, 1953. In addition, Transco shall maintain under said bond all amounts associated with the disputed rate base items to be collected by Transco under the conditionally refundable demand charges hereinabove referred to for the period from and after December 1, 1953, and until such further time as is necessary pending the issuance of a Commission order disposing finally of the issues pertaining to the disputed rate base items.

(E) In the event that the Federal income tax rate during the period after December 1, 1953 and prior to December 31, 1954 is more or less than 52 percent Transco shall file within 30 days from the date of such change in the tax rate revised schedules of rates for Contract Demand (CD) and General Service (G) reflecting the increase or decrease in Federal income tax payments, such revised filings to be made effective with the effective date of such change in tax rates.

(F) The record in this proceeding shall remain open in accordance with the ruling of the Presiding Examiner as contained in the record, for such further hearings as shall be necessary to enable disposition of the disputed rate base items and related matters; and the hearings herein be and the same hereby are adjourned to reconvene on January 25, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C.

(G) This order is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against Transcontinental.

Adopted: December 29, 1953.

Issued: December 30, 1953.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-2345]

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Texas Gas Transmission Corporation has filed its reclassification and original cost studies of its gas plant, in compliance with the requirements of Gas Plant Accounts Instruction 2-D of the uniform system of accounts prescribed for natural gas companies, and the Commission's Order No. 73 with respect thereto. Subsequently, the Commission's staff made a field examination of the original cost studies, after which conferences were held with company representatives concerning proposed adjustments to the plant accounts in the amount of $1,189,456.05, representing charges considered to be improper. Of this amount, agreement was reached as to $554,968.69 and Texas thereafter reduced its plant accounts accordingly. The remainder of the proposed adjustments, $634,487.36, arose from accounting entries reflecting the following:

Interest during construction. Interest during construction was capitalized in the aggregate amount of $2,060,221.74, for the period from September 1947 through December 1949, on funds expended in the construction of company facilities authorized by the Commission in the certificate issued March 30, 1949, at Docket No. G-859.

Such funds were derived from the company's equity funds, the issuance to banks of $7,750,000 of 2½ percent notes, and the sale of $60,000,000 of 3⅝ percent First Mortgage Bonds. The bonds were sold on December 23, 1948, but, in accordance with the terms of the indenture, the proceeds thereof were not available to Texas until the date of issuance of the certificate in Docket No. G-859. After issuance of the certificate, on March 30, 1949, Texas used a portion of the proceeds to retire the bank loans then outstanding.

After the conclusion of the field examination, Texas made a recalculation of the accruals of interest during construction which resulted in a reduction of the total amount by $7,148.20, or from $2,060,221.74 to $2,053,073.54, but the company has not made entries in the accounts giving effect to this revision.

The company's revised interest calculations show, in substance, the following claimed legitimate charges to its plant accounts:

Period	Interest on $7,750,000, 2½ percent bank loans	Interest and expense on $60,000,000 3⅝ percent bonds	Interest on equity funds at 6 percent per annum	Total
Sept. 1947 through Dec. 22, 1948	$32,918.36		[1] $138,970.48	$171,888.84
Dec. 23, 1948, through Mar. 1949	50,392.45	$423,853.00	41,512.11	515,757.56
Apr. 1949 through Dec. 1949		1,317,177.46	98,641.14	1,415,818.60
Total	83,310.81	1,741,031.45	279,123.73	2,103,465.99
Less: Interest on 2½ percent bank loan from Dec. 23, 1948, through Mar. 1949				50,392.45
Total				2,053,073.54

[1] Including period through Dec. 31, 1948.

As appears from the foregoing tabulation, Texas has deducted from the capitalized interest the amount of $50,392.45 attributable to the interest on bank loans between December 23, 1948 and April 1, 1949, notwithstanding the availability of such funds for construction purposes during that period. Included, however, is $423,853.99, representing the bond interest accruing during the period, although the bond proceeds were not available to the company for construction or any other purpose until after March 30, 1949.

It therefore appears that the company's plant accounts may be overstated in the amount of $380,609.74, determined as follows:

Item	Amount
Improper charges of bond interest, Dec. 23, 1948, through Mar. 30, 1949	$423,853.99
Excess of capitalized interest revealed by company's recalculation of charges	7,148.20
Total	431,002.19
Less: Interest on bank loans from Dec. 23, 1948, to Apr. 1, 1949, excluded by Texas	50,392.45
Net overstatement	380,609.74

Charges paid to affiliated company on steel plate purchases. During 1948 and 1949 Texas acquired 181,341.16 tons of steel plates for fabrication into pipe from Pittsburgh Coke and Chemical Company (Pittsburgh) at a cost of $15,799,138.83, and entered corresponding charges in its plant accounts. Of this amount, $253,877.62 was stated by Pittsburgh to represent "handling charges" assessed on the basis of $1.40 per ton of plate.

As disclosed by various reports filed with the Commission and with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the President of Texas, as of December 31, 1948, was one J. H. Hillman, Jr., who was also Chairman of the Board of Pittsburgh. Moreover, members of the Hillman family owned, directly or beneficially, the controlling interest in Pittsburgh as well as in three affiliated companies which, in turn, held 1,032,189 shares, or 46.8 percent, of the voting stock of Texas, in the following proportions:

Company	Shares
W. J. Rainey, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.	446,273
Hecla Coal & Coke Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.	296,399
Pennsylvania Industries, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.	289,517

In view of these indications that Texas and Pittsburgh were under common direction and control at the time of these acquisitions of plate, the Commission's staff examined the books and records of Pittsburgh in order to ascertain the actual cost of the plate to Pittsburgh. These studies have shown that the billed cost to Texas did not exceed the actual legitimate cost to Pittsburgh, except for the aforementioned "handling charges" and certain discount items for which Texas has made voluntary adjustments.

It appears, however, that the "handling charges" of $253,877.62 may represent, in whole or in part, profits paid to an affiliate in contravention of the Commission's "no-profits-to-affiliates" rule. It further appears that the plant accounts of Texas may be overstated in the amount of $253,877.62 as a result of the above-described transactions.

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforementioned charges of $380,609.74 and $253,877.62, totaling $634,487.36, to the plant accounts of Texas, reflecting, respectively, capitalization of interest during construction, and the stated cost to Texas of steel plates acquired from Pittsburgh, are questioned.

(B) Texas shall present any justification there may be for its accounting for the foregoing items and shall show cause, if any there be, why it should not, by appropriate accounting entries, reduce its plant accounts by the amount of $634,487.36, such showing to be made in writing and under oath, within 30 days from the date of issuance hereof.

(C) A public hearing be held in the Commission's Hearing Room, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., at a date and time to be hereafter fixed, with respect to the issues involved in the proceedings.

(D) Interested State Commissions may participate in the hearing ordered in paragraph (C), as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, dated January 1, 1948 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: December 29, 1953.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-3237]

ADOLF GOBEL, INC.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December A. D. 1953.

The Commission by order adopted March 13, 1953, pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, having summarily suspended trading in the $1.00 par value common stock of Adolf Gobel, Inc., on the American Stock Exchange for a period of ten days from that date, and subsequently having entered additional orders further suspending such trading in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on that Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder, for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, effective at the opening of the trading session on said Exchange on December 31, 1953, for a period of ten days.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN NATURAL GAS CO. AND MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING PROPOSED ISSUANCE AND SALE OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

DECEMBER 29, 1953.

The Commission, by order dated June 2, 1953, granted and permitted to become effective an application-declaration filed by American Natural Gas Company, a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary Michigan Consolidated Gas Company ("Michigan Consolidated") pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") regarding, among other things, the issuance and sale by Michigan Consolidated of $20,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds ___ percent Series due 1978 ("New Bonds") subject to the condition that the issuance and sale of said bonds should not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding should have been made a matter of record in this proceeding.

Following publication of an Invitation for Bids, Michigan Consolidated received on June 15, 1953, at the time and place fixed for the opening of bids, only one bid for the aforesaid bonds. This bid was submitted by a group of bidders represented jointly by Halsey, Stuart & Co. Inc., Harriman, Ripley & Co., Incorporated, and Union Securities Corporation, and specified an interest rate of 5 percent and a price to Michigan Consolidated of 100.125 percent of the principal amount of the New Bonds. The bid was rejected by Michigan Consolidated.

In order to provide, on an interim basis, the urgently needed funds which sale of the bonds would have provided, Michigan Consolidated on July 2, 1953, filed an application with the Commission on Form U-1 (File No. 70-3103) requesting authority to enter into a credit agreement with a group of banks entitling the Company to borrow from time to time up to $20,00,000 on notes maturing July 30, 1954. On July 31, 1953, the Commission entered an order authorizing such borrowings, and as of October 31, 1953, Michigan Consolidated had borrowed $20,000,000 under the credit agreement. The Company desires, however, to proceed with its bond financing program as soon as practicable in order to refund such short term borrowings.

The procedure which Michigan Consolidated now proposes to follow in an effort to sell New Bonds on satisfactory terms is as follows:

1. The Registration Statement heretofore filed under the Securities Act of 1933 with respect to the New Bonds will be amended so as to reflect changes in the dating, maturity and other terms of the New Bonds, and to bring up to date information concerning Michigan Consolidated reflected therein.

2. When the Registration Statement as so amended has become effective, and necessary authority has been obtained in this proceeding under the act, the Company proposes to issue an invitation to investment banking firms to submit bids for the New Bonds, either on their own respective behalves or on behalf of groups represented by them respectively, such bids to be submitted on a date (within six weeks of the issuance of the invitation) to be fixed by the Company on not less than 45 hours prior notice by telegram to those so invited. The terms and conditions relating to bids so invited will provide that acceptance of any bid shall be subject to the further approval of the Commission. Except as aforesaid, the proposed procedure, terms and conditions relating to bids, and purchase contract provisions, will conform to those customarily followed by Michigan Consolidated when operating pursuant to the requirements of Rule U-50.

As a result of its earlier attempt to sell the New Bonds, Michigan Consolidated believes that most, if not all, of those potentially interested in bidding for the New Bonds (as a member of a group of bidders or otherwise) are already known to it. Those invited to bid will include the Representatives of the several groups which indicated an interest in the New Bonds when earlier offered for competitive bids. These groups in the aggregate included more than 125 investment banking firms located throughout the country. Should the Company be advised of other responsible prospective bidders, or of firms previously included in bidding groups who wish to bid under different arrangements, the invitation will be extended to them also.

Notice is hereby given that Michigan Consolidated has filed an amendment to its application-declaration proposing the issuance and sale of the New Bonds as set forth above requesting exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 to the extent required by the proposed modified competitive bidding procedure outlined above, and asking that the Commission's order thereon be made effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 12, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law, if any, raised by the said amendment which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, said application-declaration, as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

OHIO EDISON CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING SUBMISSION TO COMPETITIVE BIDDING OF BONDS AND UNDERWRITING OF COMMON STOCK TO BE SOLD PURSUANT TO RIGHTS OFFERING TO STOCKHOLDERS

DECEMBER 30, 1953.

Ohio Edison Company ("Ohio"), a registered holding company and a public-utility company, having filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 7 and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-42 and U-50 thereunder, in respect of the following proposed transactions:

Ohio proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $30,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, __ percent Series of 1954 due 1984. The bonds will be issued under and secured by the existing Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated August 1, 1930, as previously supplemented and amended, and as to be further supplemented and amended by a supplemental indenture to be dated January 1, 1954. The price to be received by the company (which shall be not less than 100 percent nor more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount) for said bonds and the rate of interest thereon (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent) will be determined by competitive bidding.

Ohio also proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to an underwritten rights offering to its common stockholders, 527,830 additional shares of authorized but unissued $12 par value common stock. Stockholders of record at the close of business on January 14, 1954, will be offered one additional share for each ten shares held, at a price to be fixed by the company prior to the offering. The stockholders will also have the privilege to subscribe, subject to allotment, for such additional number of unsubscribed shares as the stockholder may elect. The sale of unsubscribed shares will be underwritten, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50. The offering by the company will remain open until 3:30 p. m., e. s. t., January 29, 1954. The company may, for a period of two days prior to the time for submission of bids for the unsubscribed shares, purchase a maximum of 52,783 shares of its common stock through regular brokerage channels in order to stabilize the market for such stock and facilitate the offering of the shares. Prospective purchasers of the unsubscribed shares will be asked to state the compensation to be paid by the company to them for their services and agreement to purchase, at the subscription price, such number of shares of the new common stock as are not subscribed by the stockholders, plus such additional number of shares of Ohio's common stock as are purchased through stabilization transactions.

The net proceeds to be received from the proposed issue and sale of bonds and common stock will be used to finance property additions, and for other corporate purposes.

The filing discloses that the proposed transactions have been authorized by The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio subject to a reservation of jurisdiction as to selling price and interest rate of the bonds, and as to the subscription price of the common stock and the underwriters' compensation in connection with the issuance and sale thereof.

The application-declaration, as amended, stating that the estimated fees and expenses to be incurred and paid by applicant-declarant in connection with the proposed issue and sale of bonds and common stock amount to $239,364, as follows:

	Additional common stock	New bonds
Federal original issue tax	$10,000	$33,000
Filing fee—Securities and Exchange Commission	2,206	3,083
Printing of temporary bonds	----------	1,750

Services, other than in connection with transfer agents, of Commonwealth Services, Inc.	7,500	7,500
Miscellaneous	5,000	5,000
Total	116,131	123,233

The application-declaration further stating that the estimated fees of counsel for the underwriters amount to $9,000 as to the bonds and $6,000 as to the common stock; and

The record being incomplete as to the fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, and Commonwealth Services Inc., and the other fees and expenses appearing not unreasonable, if they do not exceed the estimates, and it appearing appropriate to approve the payment of such other fees and expenses and to reserve jurisdiction over the fees of counsel, accountants and Commonwealth Services Inc. until the record is completed in respect thereof; and

Notice of the filing of said application-declaration having been given in the manner prescribed by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations under the act, and a hearing in respect of the proposed transactions not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise; and

The Commission finding in respect of the proposed transactions that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules thereunder are satisfied, and observing no basis for adverse findings, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, that said application-declaration as amended be, and it hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the provisions of Rule U-24, and to the following terms and conditions:

(1) The proposed issuance and sale of bonds shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, in respect thereof, shall have been made a part of the record in this proceeding, and a further order shall have been entered with respect thereto, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may be deemed appropriate, for which purpose jurisdiction is hereby reserved.

(2) The proposed issuance and sale of additional common stock shall not be consummated until the subscription price per share and the results of competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, as to the compensation of the underwriters in connection with such issuance and sale of stock, shall have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered with respect thereto, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may be deemed appropriate, for which purpose jurisdiction is hereby reserved.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction also be, and it hereby is, reserved in respect of fees and expenses of counsel, accountants and Commonwealth Services Inc.

By the Commission.

APPALACHIAN ELECTRIC POWER CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING SALE OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING

DECEMBER 30, 1953.

Appalachian Electric Power Company ("Appalachian"), a public-utility subsidiary of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, having filed an application, and an amendment thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") in which it designates section 6 (b) of the act and Rules U-42 (b) (2) and U-50 thereunder as applicable to the following proposed transactions:

Appalachian proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $20,000,000 principal amount of its first mortgage bonds, __ percent Series due 1983. The bonds are to be issued under an indenture dated as of December 1, 1940, as heretofore supplemented, between Appalachian and Bankers Trust Company as Trustee, and an indenture supplemental to said indenture to be dated as of December 1, 1953. The price of the bonds shall be not less than 100 percent or more than 102¾ percent of the principal amount thereof and the interest rate (which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent) will be determined by competitive bidding.

The net proceeds from the sale of Appalachian's 1983 Series Bonds will be applied, in part, to the prepayment, without premium, of $19,000,000 aggregate principal amount of notes payable to banks, issued for construction purposes, and the balance will be used to pay part of the cost of extensions, additions and improvements to Appalachian's properties.

The issue and sale of Appalachian's bonds have been expressly approved by the Virginia State Corporation Commission, in which State Appalachian is organized and doing business, and the Tennessee Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, in which State Appalachian also does business.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the application, and a hearing not having been requested of or ordered by the Commission;

The Commission observing that it is unnecessary to determine whether the filing is an application under section 6 (b) or a declaration under section 7 of the act since the Commission finds that it is appropriate to grant such application, as amended, or permit such declaration, as amended, to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said application or declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted or permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the further condition that the proposed sale of bonds shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding with respect thereto shall have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved over the payment of all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Interstate Transportation of Animals and Poultry

[B. A. I. Order 383, Revised, Amdt. 15]

PART 76—HOG CHOLERA, SWINE PLAGUE, AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE SWINE DISEASES

SUBPART B—VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

MOVEMENT OF SWINE AND SWINE PRODUCTS FROM A NON-QUARATINED AREA

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by sections 1 and 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111, 120), § 76.30 of the regulations restricting the interstate movement of swine and certain swine products because of vesicular exanthema (9 CFR Supp., Part 76, Subpart B; 18 F. R. 3636, 3829, as amended) is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (c) of § 76.30 is amended to read:

§ 76.30 Movement of swine and swine products from a non-quarantined area. * * *

(c) Movement of swine fed raw garbage. * * *

(2) During the period from January 1, 1954, to June 30, 1954, both dates inclusive, swine which have been fed raw garbage but which, for a period of 30 consecutive days just prior to the interstate movement, have been fed cooked garbage or other feeds to the exclusion of any raw garbage, which have been kept on a premise on which no raw garbage has been fed to swine during such 30-day period, and which have not come in contact with swine fed any raw garbage during such 30-day period, may be moved interstate under this subpart from a non-quarantined area, if accompanied by a certificate signed by an inspector of the Bureau, an inspector employed by the State of origin of the swine, or other inspector who may be approved by the Chief of Bureau for this purpose, stating that as far as he has been able to determine such swine have been fed cooked garbage or other feeds to the exclusion of any raw garbage for a period of 30 consecutive days just prior to the interstate movement and that a visual inspection of all swine on the premises of origin just prior to movement therefrom disclosed no indication of vesicular exanthema. The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to such movements.

2. Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (d) of § 76.30 is amended to read:

(d) Movement of swine products derived from swine fed raw garbage. * * *

(2) During the period from January 1, 1954, to June 30, 1954, both dates inclusive, swine products derived from swine which had been fed raw garbage but which, for a period of 30 consecutive days just prior to slaughter, had been fed cooked garbage or other feeds to the exclusion of any raw garbage, which had been kept on a premise on which no raw garbage had been fed to swine during such 30-day period, and which had not come in contact with swine fed any raw garbage during such 30-day period, may be moved interstate under this subpart from a non-quarantined area. The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to such movements.

The amendment is in the nature of a relief of restrictions in that it extends to June 30, 1954, the provisions contained in § 76.30 (c) (2) and (d) (2) of the regulations permitting the interstate movement, from a non-quarantined area for any purpose, of swine which have been fed raw garbage but which have been fed cooked garbage or other feeds to the exclusion of any raw garbage for 30 days prior to such movement and of swine products derived from swine which had been fed raw garbage but which had been fed cooked garbage or other feeds to the exclusion of any raw garbage for 30 days prior to slaughter, provided the other requirements of said provisions are complied with. The present provisions terminate December 31, 1953. The amendment should be made effective on January 1, 1954, in order to be of maximum benefit to affected persons. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Admin-

PART 144—CHARTER AND BYLAWS

ADOPTION OF CHARTER N OR CHARTER K (REV.)

JANUARY 4, 1954.

Resolved, that pursuant to Part 108 of the general regulations of the Home Loan Bank Board (24 CFR Part 108) and § 142.1 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR 142.1), the heading and first sentence of § 144.3 of the rules and regulations for the Federal Savings and Loan System (24 CFR 144.3) are hereby amended, effective January 7, 1954, to read as follows:

§ 144.3 Adoption of Charter N or Charter K (rev.). A Federal association that has a Charter E or a Charter K may amend such charter in its entirety to read in the form of Charter N or Charter K (rev.), by majority vote of such association's members present at any duly called regular or special meeting of members and the members of a Charter N Federal association may similarly amend such association's charter in its entirety to read in the form of Charter K (rev.): Provided, That, in the case of a Federal association that has a Charter K or Charter N, the board of directors of such association shall first have proposed such amendment, and the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be the approval by the Board of such proposal.

Resolved further that, as the foregoing amendments are procedural in nature, notice and public procedure thereon are found unnecessary and, as they should take effect immediately in order to enable Federal savings and loan associations desiring to do so, to take advantage of the provisions thereof at their annual meetings of members to be held in January of 1954, it is determined that deferment of the effective date of these amendments would not be in the public interest and such amendments shall take effect upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 5, 48 Stat. 132, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 1464)

PART 372—PROVISIONS FOR INDIVIDUAL AND OTHER VALIDATED LICENSES

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

PART 376—PERIODIC REQUIREMENTS LICENSE

PART 377—TIME LIMIT (TL) LICENSE

PART 379—EXPORT CLEARANCE

PART 380—AMENDMENTS, EXTENSIONS, TRANSFERS

PART 381—ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

PART 398—PRIORITY RATINGS AND SUPPLY ASSISTANCE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 368.1 Import certificate and delivery verification on selected imports into the United States is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraph (b) Import certificate covering imports into United States is amended to read as follows:

[1] This amendment was published in Current Export Bulletin No. 721, dated December 24, 1953, and in the reprint pages, dated December 24, 1953.

(b) Import certificate covering imports into United States—(1) General. Where a person in the United is purchasing or intending to receive, or receiving, commodities from a foreign country and is required by such country, in connection with the granting of an export license, to furnish an import certificate, such person shall apply for his certification by filling out and executing Form IT–826, in duplicate (in triplicate for "source material", or "facilities for the production of fissionable material", as defined and described in the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, and regulations of the Atomic Energy Commission).

(2) Where to file. (i) All requests for certification and validation of import certificates or requests for amendments of import certificates may be filed with the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, Operations Division, Washington 25, D. C., or with any of the following field offices of the Department of Commerce:

Boston.	Los Angeles.
Buffalo.	Miami.
Chicago.	New Orleans.
Cincinnati.	New York.
Cleveland.	Philadelphia.
[illegible]	Pittsburgh.
Detroit.	Portland.
El Paso.	San Francisco.
Houston.	Savannah.
Jacksonville.	Seattle.

(Blank forms are obtainable at the same offices or any other field office.)

(ii) The import certificate may be presented for validation either in person or by mail. The duly validated form will be returned to the United States importer and shall be dispatched by him to the foreign exporter or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the regulations of the exporting country.

(3) "Cross reference card" (Form IT–827). In submitting Form IT–826, the United States importer shall fill out and attach a "cross reference card", Form IT–827, showing his name and address. Form IT–826 will be returned without action unless accompanied by a cross-reference card.

(4) Statements and representations (i) All statements and representations made in an import certificate and any amendment thereto shall be deemed to be continuing in nature, until such time as the transaction described in the import certificate is completed and the goods are delivered into the economy of the importing country. Any change of fact or intention in regard to the transaction as set forth in the import certificate shall be promptly disclosed to the Department of Commerce by the United States importer. Such disclosure shall be by presentation of an amended import certificate which sets forth all changes of facts or intention, and shall be accompanied by the original import certificate bearing the certification of the Department of Commerce. In those cases where the original import certificate has been transmitted by the United States importer to his foreign exporter, the United States importer must, wherever possible, obtain the original import certificate prior to applying for an amendment of such certificate. Where the original import certificate is unobtainable because the foreign exporter has surrendered it to his government, or for any other valid reason, the United States importer must submit a written statement giving his reason or reasons for failure to submit the original certificate.

(ii) All the terms, conditions, provisions, and instructions, including the certification, contained in or issued in connection with such Form IT–826 are hereby incorporated as a part of this part with the same force and effect as if set forth in full in this part.

b. In paragraph (c) Reexportation or transshipment of commodities covered by a U. S. import certificate the words "the export regulations" are substituted for the words "Parts 370 to 399, inclusive".

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

2. Section 370.1 Definitions is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraph (n) Accepted order is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

b. Paragraph (o) Export control document is amended to read as follows:

(o) Export control document. (1) "Export control document" means a validated export license; an application for a validated export license, including any supporting documents; an ultimate consignee or purchaser statement; an import certificate and delivery verification, as specified in Parts 368 and 373 of this subchapter; a shipper's export declaration presented to a collector of customs or postmaster in connection with the clearance of any shipment for exportation to Canada or, under validated or general license, to any other foreign destination, whether or not authenticated by a collector of customs or postmaster; a dock receipt or bill of lading issued by any carrier in connection with any exportation subject to the regulations in this part; and any other document provided under the regulations in this part to be evidence of the existence of an export license for the purpose of loading onto an exporting carrier or otherwise facilitating or effecting an exportation from the United States of any commodity or commodities requiring an export license, or the reexportation of any such commodities.

(2) "Export control document" also means the following documents: Customs Form 3139, Application for Identification Card of Authorized Forwarding Agent or Exporter; Customs Form 3141, Identification Card of Authorized Forwarding Agent or Exporter or Employee Thereof; and Customs Form 7512, Transportation Entry and Manifest of Goods Subject to Customs Inspection and Permit when used for Transportation and Exportation (T. & E.) or an Immediate Exportation entry (I. E.).

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 23, 1954.

3. Section 370.2 Prohibited exportations is amended by the addition of the following paragraph (c):

(c) Revocation of licenses. All export licenses are subject to revision, suspension, or revocation without notice.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 23, 1954.

4. Section 370.4 Exportations authorized by Government agencies other than BFC is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraph (a) Arms, ammunition, and implements of war: Helium is amended to read as follows:

(a) Arms, ammunition, and implements of war: Helium. Regulations promulgated by the Secretary of State under the authority of section 12 of the Joint Resolution of Congress approved November 4, 1939 (54 Stat. 11; 22 U. S. Code 452), and sections 3 and 4 of the Helium Act of September 1, 1937 (50 Stat. 886 and 887; 50 U. S. Code 165), shall continue to govern the exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and helium, except that no export license shall be issued where the proposed exportation would be contrary to the foreign policy of the United States.

NOTE: 1. Arms, ammunition, and implements of war. (a) Regulations concerning the exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war are published in the document "International Traffic in Arms." Copies of this publication are furnished by the Department of State upon request.

(b) An application to export any of the following articles, which are listed in Proclamation 3038, effective January 1, 1954, should be made on the license form obtainable from the Department of State.

(c) Any inquiries as to the applicability of Proclamation 3038 to certain articles or commodities, application forms and procedure, or other matters relative to arms, ammunition, and implements of war should be addressed to the Office of Munitions Control, Department of State, Washington 25, D. C.

(3) The signature of the order holder on the application constitutes a representation on the part of the order holder that (i) the application accurately and fully reflects all of the terms and conditions of the order; (ii) the order holder has no information concerning the export transaction that is inconsistent with or undisclosed by the application; (iii) all documents and records evidencing the order and other facts of the export transaction on which this application is based will be retained by the order holder for three years from the date of receipt by BFC of the application, and will be made available to the BFC upon demand; and (iv) the order holder will inform the BFC of any material or substantive changes in the terms of the export transaction, at the time these facts become known to him, whether before or after the license has been issued.

The remainder of paragraph (a) is unchanged.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of Deeember 24, 1953.

6. Section 372.3 How to file an application for export license is amended in the following particulars:

Item 11 (d) of Note 2. Preparation of Form IT-419 (Revised April 1952) following paragraph (c) Information required is amended to read as follows:

Item 11 (d). Unit price should be shown except where a large variety of products within a single Schedule B classification makes such a breakdown extremely difficult. In such cases only total price need be shown. The applicant must show total price in the customary form of quotation such as f. o. b. (factory), f. a. s. (named port), c. i. f., or other form. The particular form of price quotation must be specified.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

7. Section 373.1 Export licensing general policy is amended in the following particulars:

a. The introductory text is amended to read as follows: "The following general, but not exclusive, policy for export licensing and related procedures are hereby established."

b. Paragraphs (a) Price, (b) Accepted orders: evidence and certification, and (h) Commodities subject to this export licensing policy are deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

8. Section 373.6 Export licensing policy for materials covered by NPA M (Materials) Orders is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

9. Section 373.24 Applicability of multiple commodity group provisions to Commodity Group 3 commodities, paragraph (a) Export licensing general policy is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

10. Section 373.31 Applicability of multiple commodity group provisions to Commodity Group 5 commodities, paragraph (a) Export licensing general policy is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

11. Section 373.39 Applicability of multiple commodity group provisions to Commodity Group 6 commodities, paragraph (a) Export licensing general policy is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

12. Section 373.48 Applicability of multiple commodity group provisions to Commodity Group 7 commodities, paragraph (a) Export licensing general policy is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

13. Section 373.51 Insulated wire and cable is deleted.

15. Section 373.59 Applicability of multiple commodity group provisions to Commodity Group 9 commodities, paragraph (a) Export licensing general policy is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

16. Section 376.1 Periodic requirements license, paragraph (d) Waiver of order requirements is amended by deleting the reference to "373.1 (b)" in the last sentence, which, as amended, reads as follows: "The provisions of § 372.1 (e) relating to export orders are, therefore, waived with respect to applications for Periodic Requirements (PRL) licenses."

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

17. Section 377.3 Consideration of applications, paragraph (c) Orders is amended to read as follows:

(c) Orders. An applicant for a Time Limit (TL) license is not required to hold an export order from the foreign consignee or purchaser for the commodities subject to this procedure. The requirements of § 372.1 (e) of this subchapter relating to export orders are, therefore, waived with respect to applications for Time Limit (TL) licenses.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

18. Part 379 Export clearance is amended by adding thereto § 379.5 Destination control and § 379.6 Return or unloading of cargo at direction of Department of Commerce or Collector of Customs. These sections are presently numbered §§ 381.4 and 381.5, respectively. This amendment makes no substantive changes.

a. In the Interpretations following § 379.5, as renumbered, the references to "§ 381.4" are amended to read "§ 379.5".

b. In subparagraph (2) of § 379.6, as renumbered, paragraph (a) Exporting carriers the words "export regulations" are substituted for the words "export control regulations (Parts 370 through 399)".

c. In subparagraph (3) of § 379.6, as renumbered, paragraph (a) Exporting carriers the reference to "§ 381.4 (f)" is amended to read "§ 379.5 (f)".

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 23, 1954.

19. Section 380.2 Amendments or alterations of licenses is amended in the following particulars:

a. Subparagraph (3) of paragraph (e) Changes which require neither amendment nor new license is amended to read as follows:

(3) Other changes in price (see paragraph (i) (2) of this section).

b. Subdivision (i) of paragraph (g) Procedure for submitting requests for amendments, subparagraph (2) Information required is amended to read as follows:

(i) The reasons for the requested amendment must be clearly stated in answer to item 10. In requesting an amendment for change in the purchaser or ultimate consignee, the licensee must comply, where applicable, with the provisions of § 373.65 of this subchapter regarding a statement from the new ultimate consignee or purchaser if the shipment is destined to an R country or with the provisions of § 373.2(c) of this subchapter regarding the submission of an import certificate.

c. Subparagraph (2) Necessary amendments to show price changes of paragraph (i) Price amendments is amended to read as follows:

(2) Necessary amendments to show price changes. Except under the conditions described below, an export license shall be amended for: (i) Any upward change in unit price or total value shown on the license, if the commodity is licensed by dollar value (those commodities on the Positive List of Commodities (§ 399.1 of this subchapter) which do not show a specific unit of quantity are licensed by dollar value); or, (ii) an upward change in unit price or total value in excess of 25 percent beyond that shown on the license, if the commodity is licensed in units other than dollars.

(a) Where the licensee avails himself of permissible weight and volume tolerances. In such cases, the total value for the commodity shown on the shipper's export declaration may exceed the total value shown on the license. However, the unit value shown on the license may not be increased, except in accordance with subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(b) Where price increases can be justified before the collector of customs on the basis of changes in point of delivery, port of exit, or as a result of transportation costs, drayage, port charges, warehousing, etc.

(c) Where unit or total price is not shown on the license but is based upon the market price at a specified date plus an exporter's mark-up, or like basis. In such cases, the unit or total price need only conform with the price statement on the license.

d. Subparagraph (3) Price changes for which amendments are not required of paragraph (i) Price amendments is amended to read as follows:

(3) Additional price changes for which amendments are not required. Export licenses need not be amended to show changes in unit or total value where the change involves a reduction in prices: Provided, That when commodities are licensed in quantities determined only by dollar value indicated on the license, the value shown on the shipper's export declaration shall not exceed the total value shown on the license. Shipments against such licenses will be charged in terms of dollars as shown on the shipper's export declarations.

The note following subparagraph (3) remains unchanged.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

20. Part 381—Enforcement Provisions, is amended to read as follows:

Sec.
- 381.1 Sanctions.
- 381.2 Causing, aiding, and abetting a violation.
- 381.3 Conspiracy, attempt, and solicitation to violate.
- 381.4 Acting with knowledge of a violation.
- 381.5 Misrepresentation and concealment of facts.
- 381.6 Diversion, reexportation, transshipment.
- 381.7 Licensee accountable for use of license.
- 381.8 Unauthorized use and alterations of export control documents.
- 381.9 Trafficking and advertising export control documents.
- 381.10 Applicability of export denial orders to parties other than those named therein.

AUTHORITY: §§ 381.1 to 381.10 issued under sec. 2, 63 Stat. 7, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2023. E. O. 9630, 10 F. R. 12245, 3 CFR, 1945 Supp., E. O. 9919, 13 F. R. 59, 3 CFR 1948 Supp.

§ 381.1 Sanctions. (a) Any person who violates the export control law or any order, regulation, or license issued thereunder is punishable for each violation by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. A violator is subject also to administrative action which may result in suspension, revocation, and denial of export privileges under the export control law, and to exclusion from practice before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce.

(b) The submission of false or misleading statements and the concealment of material facts are punishable also under other laws. In addition, commodities attempted to be, or being, or intended to be, or which have been, exported or shipped from or taken out of the United States in violation of the export control law or of any proclamation, order, rule, regulation, or license issued thereunder are subject to seizure and forfeiture, as are the vessels, vehicles, and aircraft carrying such commodities.

NOTE: See Part 382, Denial or Suspension of Export Privileges, and § 384.2, paragraph (a) Activities of persons appearing before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce in connection with export control matters.

§ 381.2 Causing, aiding, and abetting a violation. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to cause, or aid, abet, counsel, command, induce, procure, or permit the doing of any act prohibited by, or the omission of any act required by, the export control law or any proclamation, order, rule, regulation, or license issued thereunder.

§ 381.3 Conspiracy, attempt, and solicitation to violate. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to conspire or to act in concert with one or more persons in any manner or for any purpose to bring about, or to do any act which solicits the commission of or which constitutes an attempt to bring about, a violation of the export control law or any proclamation, order, rule, regulation or license issued thereunder; and any such act or conspiracy shall constitute a violation.

§ 381.4 Acting with knowledge of a violation. It is unlawful for any person, whether as principal or agent or otherwise, to buy, receive, conceal, store, sell, dispose of, transport, finance, forward, or otherwise service, in whole or in part, any exportation from the United States, knowing that with respect to the whole or any part of such exportation, a violation of the export control law or any proclamation, order, rule, regulation or license has occurred, is about to, or is intended to occur.

§ 381.5 Misrepresentation and concealment of facts—(a) General. All representations, statements, and certifications made, and material facts concealed, by any person, for the purpose of or in connection with effecting an exportation of any commodity from the United States, or the reexportation, transshipment or diversion of any commodity so exported, or in the course of an investigation or other action instituted under the authority provided in the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, shall be deemed to constitute representations, statements and certifications made to, and material facts concealed from, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce and the Bureau of Customs with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of these agencies under the statutes, proclamations, Executive Orders, and regulations relating to export control and orders or licenses issued or established thereunder.

(b) Persons liable. It is unlawful under the export regulations and the export control law, in addition to the provisions of any other law, for any person, whether or not situated in the United States, knowingly to make any false or misleading representation, statement, or certification, or to falsify or conceal any material fact, whether directly to the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, any collector of customs, or an official of any other United States agency, or indirectly through any other person or foreign government agency or official:

(1) In the course of an investigation or other action instituted under the authority of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, or

(2) For the purpose of or in connection with an exportation from the United States, or the reexportation, transshipment or diversion of any such exportation, or the issuance, or maintenance in effect, of any document relating to export control.

(c) Types of misrepresentation and concealment. Without limitation of the foregoing or of any other provisions of the law or the export regulations no person shall, with respect to:

(1) Country of destination. Falsely state or conceal the country of ultimate or intermediate destination intended;

(2) Consignee, purchaser, commodity. Falsely describe or conceal the true commodity, or the true ultimate or intermediate consignee, purchaser, or any other party in interest to the transaction;

(3) Orders. Solicit or submit any order for the purchase or importation from the United States of any commodity, or state in writing any commitment to purchase or import the same, for the sole purpose of obtaining an export license with the intention not to abide by such order or commitment, or not to perform the terms thereof, whether or not the applicant or licensee is aware of such intention;

(4) End use. Falsely state or conceal the end use;

(5) Ultimate consignee or purchaser statement. Submit an ultimate consignee or purchaser statement which is false in any respect or which conceals any material fact; or

(6) Import certificate, delivery verification. Make any false statement or conceal any material fact in connection with an import certificate or delivery verification.

(d) Representations to be continuing in effect; notification. All representations, statements, and certifications made by any person are deemed to be continuing in effect. It is unlawful for any person who has made such representation, statement or certification to fail to notify in writing the Bureau of Foreign Commerce of any change of any material fact or intention from that previously represented, stated, or certified. Such notification shall be made immediately upon receipt of any information which would lead a reasonably prudent person to believe that a change of material fact or intention has occurred or may occur in the future.

§ 381.6 Diversion, reexportation, transshipment. Except as specifically authorized by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, it is unlawful for any person knowingly to dispose of, divert, transship or reexport commodities to any person or destination or for any use in violation of or contrary to the terms, provisions, or conditions of any export control document, any prior representation, any form of notification of prohibition against such action, or any other provision of the export control law or any proclamation, order, rule, regulation or license issued thereunder.

§ 381.7 Licensee accountable for use of license. The applicant to whom the license is issued becomes the licensee and will be held strictly accountable for use of the license. It is unlawful, without prior written approval of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, for the licensee to permit any other person to facilitate or effect the exportation of any commodity described in the license, except under the direction and responsibility of or as the true agent in fact for the licensee, regardless of the terms of sale or exportation or other agreement between the licensee or the order holder and the purchaser or ultimate consignee of such commodity.

§ 381.8 Unauthorized use and alterations of export control documents. Except as otherwise specifically authorized in the export regulations or in writing by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, it is unlawful for any person, whether or not the licensee, to obtain, use, or alter, or to assist in or permit the use or alteration of, any export control document, for the purpose of or in connection with facilitating or effecting any exportation or reexportation other than that set forth in such document or except in accordance with all the terms, provisions and conditions thereof.

§ 381.9 Trafficking and advertising export control documents—(a) Unlawful practices. Without limitation of any provision of law or of the export regulations it is unlawful for any person, without prior written approval of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, to do any of the following with respect to any exportation or reexportation under any export control document:

(1) Transfers or changes of authority. To effect any transfer of, or other change of the authority granted in, such document, whether by sale, grant, gift, loan or otherwise, to any person, or to permit any person to use the same otherwise than for the true account of and as true agent in fact for the licensee; or for any person not the licensee to receive or accept a transfer or other change of the authority granted in, or otherwise to use, an export control document, except for the true account of and as true agent in fact for the licensee.

(2) Change in named parties. To effect any change of, substitution for, or addition to, the parties named in an export control document; or to transfer, obtain, purchase, or create any interest or participation in the transaction described in any export control document.

(3) Unlawful advertising or soliciting. To offer or solicit by advertisement, circular, or other communication any transfer or change of an export control document or any interest therein hereinabove declared unlawful. Such communication shall be deemed unlawful:

(i) Even though coupled with a condition requiring approval by the Bureau of Foreign Commerce of a new consignor or consignee or other change in the export license, by way of transfer, amendment or otherwise;

(ii) Where, in offering or soliciting the sale for exportation of any commodities, the communication indicates that the proposed seller of such commodities holds or will furnish a license or other export control document for the exportation of such commodities;

(iii) Where, in offering or soliciting the purchase for exportation of any commodities, such communication is addressed by the proposed buyer directly or indirectly to any person on the condition that such person as a seller then holds or will furnish a license or other export control document for the exportation of such commodities.

INTERPRETATIVE STATEMENT

Sections 381.7, 381.8 and 381.9, among other things, make it unlawful for a licensee or other person holding an export control document to sell or to offer to sell, or for any person to purchase or to offer to purchase, the commodities described in such document with the understanding that the document may be used by or for the benefit of the purchaser to effect exportation of the said commodities; for any person to effect exportation thereof for the benefit of or for the "account" of any person other than the licensee, regardless of the device, means or fiction employed; for the licensee fictitiously to act as principal or agent of another person who actually is effecting the exportation, or for such other person fictitiously to act as the licensee's principal or agent for the same purpose; or for the named consignee to act "for the account" of a new unlicensed consignee. Where a licensed transaction has failed of accomplishment for any reason, the license may not, without special authorization of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, be used for any other transaction. Changes of consignors and consignees will be permitted only under the strict provisions of the regulations.

(b) Transfer of dock receipts, bills of lading, or liens. (1) Paragraph (a) of this section is not to be construed to affect the transfer and other use of dock receipts, bills of lading, or other commercial documents necessary to complete a transaction authorized by the export license, or impair the validity of liens or other security titles or interests created in good faith with respect to commodities or documents in the course of financing, warehousing, forwarding, or transporting commodities.

(2) However, where the person entitled to the foreclosure of any lien or other security title or interest, or where the exercise of any rights by the holder of the lien or other security title or interest, contemplates an exportation under the license by someone other than the licensee, or to someone other than the purchaser or ultimate consignee designated in the license, such person must apply for a new license or for an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Part 380 of this subchapter.

§ 381.10 Applicability of export denial orders to parties other than those named therein. Without prior disclosure of the facts to, and specific authorization of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, it is unlawful for any person, with knowledge that another person is then subject to an order suspending, revoking, or denying his export privileges or is then excluded from practice before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, directly or indirectly in any manner or capacity, (a) to apply for, obtain or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading or other export control document relating to an exportation or reexportation of commodities by, to, or for such suspended person, or (b) to order, receive, use, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate in, any exportation from the United States or a reexportation of any commodity exported from the United States, so that such suspended person will directly or indirectly obtain any benefit therefrom. For the purpose of this section the term "suspended person" is defined to include any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization whose export privileges are suspended, revoked, or denied by any order of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce or who is excluded by order from practice before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce; and any other person, firm, corporation, or other business organization also suspended or excluded from practice because of his or its relationship to such suspended person through ownership, control, position of responsibility or other like connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith during the period of such order, and whether or not named in such order.

NOTE: Orders of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce which suspend, revoke or deny the export privileges of any person or which exclude any person from practice before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce provide that the terms and prohibitions of such orders apply not only to the persons expressly named therein but also, for the purpose of preventing evasion, to any other person, firm, corporation, or other business organization with which such person may be then or thereafter (during the term of the order) related by ownership, control, position of responsibility or other such connection in the conduct of trade involving exports from the United States or services connected therewith. See §§ 382.1, 384.2, and 382.51, Table of compliance orders currently in effect denying export privileges of this subchapter. This table contains a list of persons whose export privileges are currently revoked, suspended or denied or who are currently excluded from practice before the Bureau of Foreign Commerce. This list contains the names and addresses of such persons, the effective and expiration dates of the orders, a brief summary of the export privileges affected, and the citations to the volumes and pages of the FEDERAL REGISTER where complete texts of the orders are published. The publication of such orders in the FEDERAL REGISTER constitutes legal notice of the terms thereof to all persons.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 23, 1954.

21. Section 398.5 DMS: Export allocations and procedures is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 24, 1953.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter G—Procurement

PART 591—PROCUREMENT BY FORMAL ADVERTISING

PART 592—PROCUREMENT BY NEGOTIATION

PART 596—CONTRACT CLAUSES AND FORMS

PART 605—PROCUREMENT FORMS

PART 606—ARMY EMERGENCY FACILITIES DEPRECIATION BOARD

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 591.203 is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 591.203 Maintenance and retention of records—(a) Preaward transaction file. (1) Each purchasing office or installation which initiates or effects procurement by formal advertising will maintain a master file for each procurement initiated. This file will contain the original or a certified copy of each paper related to the procurement, beginning with the procurement directive or other paper initiating the procurement. The purpose of the file is to provide a complete résumé of the transaction prior to and including the award. This master file will be preserved in the office or installation which initiated the procurement for a period of 6 years following final payment on the contract or contracts entered into under the directive. Exceptions to this requirement will be made only if responsibility for the file is transferred to another office, or, if early retirement is authorized under pertinent special regulations.

(2) In the event the resulting contract or contracts are transferred to other offices or installations for administration, only those records that are necessary for the administration of the contract are required to be forwarded to the administering office or installation. The cover sheet for the contract administration file maintained by the office or installation administering the contract (paragraph (b) of this section) will identify the master file and give the name of the installation where the contract was initiated and where all records not transferred are maintained. Original or authenticated copies of correspondence pertinent to the contract and all required determinations and findings with supporting data such as are involved in awards to other than low bidders, mistake in bid cases, preawards surveys, invitations for bids and abstracts of bids, etc., pertaining to a particular contract will accompany such contract at all times.

(b) Contract administration file. Each purchasing office or installation which administers contracts awarded by formal advertising will maintain files which will provide a complete résumé of the administration of each contract. Unless these files are set up on an individual contract basis they must be so organized that they will provide an accurate and complete identification and cross-reference to related files. Upon final payment all papers pertaining to the administration of a particular contract will be consolidated into a single file. This file will be preserved in such office or installation for a period of 6 years following the final payment on the contract unless retired under pertinent special regulations.

2. Section 592.308 is rescinded and the following substituted therefor:

§ 592.308 Maintenance and retention of records—(a) Preaward transaction file. (1) Each purchasing office or installation which initiates or effects procurement by negotiation will maintain a master file for each procurement initiated. This file will contain the original or a certified copy of each paper related to the procurement, beginning with the procurement directive or other paper initiating the procurement. The purpose of the file is to provide a complete résumé of the transaction prior to and including the award. This master file will be preserved in the office or installation which initiated the procurement for a period of 6 years following final payment on the contract or contracts entered into under the directive. As a minimum in negotiated procurements, a memorandum for record, signed by the Contracting Officer briefly setting forth facts, conclusions and actions regarding the transaction, will be included as part of the file. Exceptions to this requirement will be made only if responsibility for the file is transferred to another office, or, if early retirement is authorized under the provisions of pertinent special regulations.

(2) In the event the resulting contract or contracts are transferred to other offices or installations for administration, only those records that are necessary for the administration of the contract are required to be forwarded to the administering office or installation. The cover sheet for the contract administration file maintained by the office or installation administering the contract (paragraph (b) of this section) will identify the master file and give the name of the installation where the contract was initiated and where all records not transferred are maintained. Original or authenticated copies of correspondence pertinent to the contract and all required determinations and findings with supporting data, such as are involved in mistakes in proposals, preaward surveys, etc., pertaining to a particular contract will accompany such contract at all times.

(3) The file containing the records and documents of negotiations referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be identified by a cover sheet designated as "Summary of Negotiation and Contract Award Data." The Head of each Procuring Activity is authorized to publish an appropriate form of such designation and to delegate authority for local reproduction. The form so published shall include as a minimum a checklist and certification substantially as detailed below. Additional items and/or reductions of monetary limits separating Parts I and II of the form, determined by the Head of a Procuring Activity to be necessary or appropriate to its contract procedure or records thereof, may be included in the form promulgated by the Procuring Activity.

SUMMARY OF NEGOTIATION AND CONTRACT AWARD DATA

The purpose of this summary, pursuant to § 592.308, is to present a brief statement of basic data as to which complete detail in narrative or documentary form are contained in the assembled file underlying this cover sheet. Each pertinent item on this form is to be completed either by filling in blanks or by the insertion of data appropriate to the purpose of the item and as to which supporting papers are contained in the file.

Contract date _____ Contract No. _____
Name of Contractor _____

PART I. Items 1 to 8 below will be completed for all negotiated contracts, except those covering small purchase.

1. (Copy of procurement order, requisition, or document upon which procurement is based, or reference thereto.)
2. (Complete justification for negotiation.)
3. (Copy of request for proposals, including drawings and specifications or reference thereto.)
4. Number of requests for proposals distributed _____
   Date of distribution _____
   Number of proposals received _____
   Date of award _____
5. (Statement relative to contingent fees, signed by the Contractor.)
6. (Special contract provisions, or reference thereto.)
7. Small business _____ (Yes or No.)
8. Regular dealers _____ or manufacturer _____ (Yes or No.)

PART II. Items 9 to 14 below will be completed for negotiated contracts which are expected to exceed $25,000 (except that the Head of each Procuring Activity may reduce the dollar value if desired.)

9. Labor area classification _____
10. Amount of work to be subcontracted $_____ _____ percent.
11. (Explanation of any Government financial assistance required by the Contractor.)
12. (Detail of survey or other determination of Contractor's ability to consummate the contract.)
13. (Justification for this award, and determination if required.)
14. (Summary of proposal received, with comparative information on all factors entering into total cost.)

I certify that I have this date reviewed this contract file and that it contains papers in support of the above data and is otherwise considered to provide a clear and complete record of the negotiation and award of this contract.

(Signature) _____
Contracting officer, or Contracting officer's representative

(Date) _____

(b) Contract administration file. Each purchasing office or installation administering contracts awarded by negotiation will maintain files which will provide a complete résumé of the administration of each contract. Unless these files are set up on an individual contract basis they must be so organized that they will provide an accurate and complete identification and cross-reference to related files. Upon final payment all papers pertaining to the administration of a particular contract will be consolidated into a single file. This file will be preserved in such office or installation for a period of 6 years following the final payment on the contract unless retired under pertinent special regulations.

3. Section 596.566 is revoked and § 596.104–12a is amended to read as follows:

§ 596.104–12a Military security requirements; research and development contracts. The following clause is approved for use in research and development contracts with educational or nonprofit institutions, as a deviation from Armed Services Procurement Regulation (Subchapter A, Chapter IV of this title) pending inclusion in a future revision of Armed Services Procurement Regulation.

MILITARY SECURITY REQUIREMENTS—RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CONTRACTS

(a) The provisions of this clause shall apply to the extent that this contract involves access to security information classified "Top Secret," "Secret" or "Confidential."

(b) The Government shall notify the Contractor of the security classification of this contract and the elements thereof, and of any subsequent revisions in such security classification, by the use of a Security Requirements Check List (DD Form 254) and Appendage thereto (DD Form 254–1).

(c) To the extent the Government has indicated as of the date of this contract, or thereafter indicates, security classification under this contract as provided in paragraph (b) of this clause, the Contractor, except as otherwise provided in this clause, shall safeguard all classified elements of this contract and shall provide and maintain a system of security controls within its own organization in accordance with the requirements of (1) the Department of Defense Industrial Security Manual for Safeguarding Classified Security Information as in effect on the date of this contract, which Manual is hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of this contract, and (2) any amendments to said Manual required by the demands of national security as determined by the Government and made after the date of this contract, notice of which has been furnished to the Contractor by the Contracting Officer.

(d) Designated representatives of the Government responsible for inspection pertaining to industrial security shall have the right to inspect at reasonable intervals the procedures, methods, and facilities utilized by the Contractor in complying with the requirements of the terms and conditions of this clause. Should the Government, through its authorized representative, determine that the Contractor has not complied with such requirements, the Government shall inform the Contractor in writing of the proper actions to be taken in order to effect compliance with such requirements.

(e) In the event a change in security requirements, as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this clause, results (1) in a change in the security classification of this contract or any element thereof from a nonclassified status to a classified status or from a lower classification to a higher classification, or (2) in more restrictive area controls than previously required, the Contractor shall exert every reasonable effort compatible with its established policies to continue the performance of work under the contract in compliance with such change in security classification or requirements. If, despite such reasonable efforts, the Contractor determines that the continuation of work under this contract is not practicable because of such change in security classification or requirements it shall so notify the Contracting Officer in writing.

(f) After receiving such written notification, the Contracting Officer shall explore the circumstances surrounding the proposed change in security classification or requirements and shall endeavor to work out a mutually satisfactory method whereby the Contractor can continue performance of the work under this contract.

(g) If, upon the expiration of fifteen (15) days after receipt of the notification by the Contracting Officer of the Contractor's stated inability to proceed, (1) the application to this contract of such change in security classification or requirements has not been withdrawn or (2) a mutually satisfactory method for continuing performance of work under this contract has not been agreed upon, the Contractor may request the Contracting Officer to terminate the contract in whole or in part. Thereupon, the Contracting Officer shall terminate the contract in whole or part, as may be appropriate, and such termination shall be deemed a termination under the provisions of the clause of this contract entitled "Termination for the Convenience of the Government."

(h) The Contractor agrees to insert, in all subcontracts hereunder which involve access to classified security information, provisions which shall conform substantially to the language of this clause, including this paragraph (h) but excluding paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of this clause.

(i) The Contractor also agrees that it shall determine that any subcontractor proposed by it for the furnishing of supplies and services which will involve access to classified security information in the Contractor's custody has been granted an appropriate facility security clearance which is still in effect, prior to being accorded access to such classified security information.

§ 596.566 Master Lump Sum Ship Repair Contract. [Revoked.]

4. Part 605, Army Emergency Facilities Depreciation Board, is redesignated Part 606, Army Emergency Facilities Depreciation Board, and a new Part 605, Procurement Forms, is added as follows:

Sec.
605.009 Master Contract for Repair and Alteration of Vessels (DD Form 731).
605.009–1 Applicability.
605.009–2 Conditions on use.

§ 605.009 Master Contract for Repair and Alteration of Vessels (DD Form 731).

§ 605.009–1 Applicability. (a) DD Form 731 is prescribed for use in continental United States for contracting for the repair and alteration of vessels and other floating equipment, except for minor repairs accomplished while the vessel remains in the possession of the Government.

(b) DD Form 731 has been printed and copies may be requisitioned through normal publications supply channels.

§ 605.009–2 Conditions on use. (a) Provisions of this subchapter, such as those that are applicable to approval of awards, procurement action reporting, advertising, and authority to negotiate apply to the placement of individual job orders rather than to the master contract itself.

(b) The provisions of DD Form 731 relating to Government property do not conform to Part 412 of this title. Job Orders placed under DD Form 731 contracts are exempt from the requirements of Part 412 of this title and Appendix B following Part 413 of this title. However, provisions not in conflict with DD Form 731 may be included in individual job orders making Government property furnished under such job orders subject to specific requirements of Appendix B following Part 413 of this title.

(c) Clause 3 (b) of DD Form 731 is in substance a provision for the placement of letter orders for vessel repair work. Accordingly, all orders placed under Clause 3 (b) are subject to the provisions of this subchapter and Subchapter A of Chapter IV of this title relating to letter orders.

(d) For all contracts entered into by the Department of the Army on DD Form 731, all of Clause 8, paragraph (e) will be deleted except the last sentence.

(e) Clause 23 of DD Form 731 entitled "Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act" is not applicable to contracts for the repair and alteration of vessels entered into by the Army. The Davis-Bacon Act is not applicable to the contracts for the repair or alteration of vessels when the work is placed through competitive bidding and the place of performance is not known at the time when bids are invited or to job orders of $2,000 or less in amount. The following additional clause shall be included in all contracts entered into by the Army on DD Form 731:

Clause 39. Alteration in contract. The following alterations have been made in the provisions of this contract:

(a) Clause 23 entitled "Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act" is deleted.

(b) In each case where the Davis-Bacon Act is applicable to a job order issued under this contract, such job order will have attached thereto, and will incorporate by reference, the standard Davis-Bacon clause prescribed by the Armed Services Procurement Regulation together with the schedule of wage determinations made by the Secretary of Labor for the work covered by such job order.

(f) Contracts entered into on DD Form 731 will be numbered in accordance with § 590.603–4 of this subchapter. Each job order issued under such contract shall contain a reference to the number of the master contract under which it is issued. The job orders under a master contract shall be numbered in sequence beginning with the Arabic numeral 1. Change orders or supplemental agreements relating to a particular job order shall be numbered in sequence beginning with the Arabic numeral 1.

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

DELAWARE AND SCHUYLKILL RIVERS, N. J., AND PA.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U. S. C. 499), § 203.227 is hereby amended to provide special regulations for the operation of the South Street drawbridge across the Schuylkill River in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as follows:

§ 203.227 Delaware and Schuylkill Rivers, N. J., and Pa. in vicinity of Philadelphia and Bristol; bridges. • • •

(g) The general regulations contained in paragraphs (a) to (f), inclusive, of this section shall apply to all bridges except as modified by the special regulations contained in paragraph (h) of this section.

(h) Special regulations for South Street Bridge in Philadelphia. (1) The owner of or agency controlling this drawbridge will not be required to keep draw tenders in constant attendance.

(2) Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw, at least 8 hours' advance notice of the time the opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge.

(3) Upon receipt of such advance notice the authorized representative, in compliance therewith, shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw on proper signal at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel.

(4) The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides thereof, in such manner that it can easily be read at any time, a copy of the regulations in this section together with a notice stating exactly how the representative specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph may be reached by telephone or otherwise.

(5) The operating machinery of the draw shall be maintained in a serviceable condition, and the draw opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is in proper order for satisfactory operation.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICE

GENERAL PURPOSE WATCHES

In the matter of petition of the American Merchant Marine Institute to exempt ocean going vessels using telegraphy from maintaining a radiotelephone watch on 2182 kc.

By the Commission: Commissioner Webster concurring except for paragraphs 3, 4, and 5; Commissioner Bartley dissenting and issuing a statement; Commissioner Hennock dissenting and concurring in the views of Commissioner Bartley.

1. The Commission has received a petition from the American Merchant Marine Institute (formerly the National Federation of American Shipping) for revision of § 8.223 so as to "exempt from the watch standing requirements of this section vessels which are required • • • to maintain a radiotelegraph watch for safety purposes".

Section 8.223 provides as follows: "Effective on and after January 1, 1954 • • • each ship station • • • licensed to transmit by telephony on one or more frequencies within the band 1600–3500 kc shall, during its hours of service for telephony, maintain an efficient watch for the reception of Class A3 emission on the radio channel of which 2182 kc is the assigned frequency, whenever such station is not being used for transmission on that channel or for communication on other radio channels. • • •"

This rule and other related rules were adopted by the Commission on April 23, 1952, following proposed rule making and oral argument in Docket No. 9797. The Commission's Report stated that the requirements of these rules were designed to implement "the view that a calling-working frequency method for the maritime radiotelephone service in the medium and very high frequency bands is highly desirable".

2. In view of the instant petition and a supporting statement filed by the Association of American Ship Owners, the Commission has again examined § 8.223 both with respect to its legal basis and its desirability.

3. The Communications Act of 1934, as amended, confers upon the Commission broad authority to promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the operation of licensed radio facilities in the public interest (National Broadcasting Co. v. United States, 319 U. S. 190), and further makes clear in the case of installations aboard ship, that the promotion of safety of life and property is of primary importance. (See section 1.) The duty to insure that licensed stations are operated in the public interest is supplemented in the case of ship radio installations and operations by additional provisions vesting substantial authority in the Commission over matters connected with radio equipment and its operation on shipboard.

4. Thus, in the case of shipboard radio installations, the Commission not only has its customary authority to classify stations (303 (a)), prescribe the nature of the service to be rendered (302 (b)), etc., and to make such regulations not inconsistent with law as it may deem necessary to carry out these provisions, but it is also given wide additional authority to protect life at sea. (See sections 320, 321, and 325 of the act). While it is true that the statute contains no specific provision authorizing the Commission to prescribe watches in connection with voluntarily installed radiotelephone installations, Congress did not attempt in the Communications Act, even with respect to mandatory equipment, to fill in all details or to delineate every aspect of the broad regulatory powers with which it was endowing the Commission. Nor has an examination of the legislative history of Part II of Title III disclosed any indication that Congress, in imposing the compulsory watch requirements of section 353(c), intended to preclude Commission action to require watches in cases not covered by that provision. Since the Commission has broad powers which, in the case of shipboard installations, are focused upon safety, the absence of specific language conferring authority does not vitiate these powers.

5. The rule in question clearly is not inconsistent with any provision of the Communications Act or treaty. It is complementary to existing statutory and treaty provisions. The furtherance of safety of life at sea is a cardinal purpose of the Communications Act (section 1), and as such is obviously within the concept of the public interest as applied to the operation of shipboard radiotelephone facilities. A rule which maintains the value of such facilities as instruments of safety is therefore an implementation of the statutory purpose. It is, therefore, our opinion that the adoption of § 8.223 was legally warranted under the authority conferred upon the Commission by the Communications Act.

6. Re-examination of the desirability of applying the requirements of § 8.223 to vessels compulsorily equipped with a radiotelegraph installation has, however, raised questions as to the value of the requirement with respect to such vessels.

7. There is no doubt, but, that in the absence of treaty or legislation which makes the wide-spread installation of radiotelephone equipment mandatory, an effective radiotelephone safety system must depend upon general voluntary installation of such equipment. Experience has shown that the effectiveness of search, aid and rescue operations utilizing radio is a function, among other matters, of the number of vessels (and coast stations) equipped with radio transmission and reception facilities. It appears, therefore, that it is incumbent upon the Commission to exercise its regulatory authority so as to encourage the voluntary installation of radiotelephone equipment upon a maximum number of vessels.

8. It appears that with respect to vessels compulsorily equipped with radiotelegraph installations for safety purposes and thereby required by law to maintain watch on the radiotelegraph calling and distress frequency 500 kc, the additional watch-standing requirement of § 8.223 may be unnecessarily burdensome. Thus, if such vessels did not maintain a radiotelephone watch, the gap between them and vessels fitted solely with radiotelephone equipment could in many instances be bridged by the utilization of coast radiotelegraph stations. This approach is in line with the regulatory policy reflected by the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea, London, 1948, wherein it is provided that certain ships shall, unless fitted with a prescribed radiotelegraph installation, be fitted with a prescribed radiotelephone installation and shall, while at sea, listen on the radiotelephone distress frequency during such periods as may be determined by the Administration. Further, statements made by the petitioner indicate that in the absence of relief from the 2182 kc watch requirement, some of the larger ocean-going vessels required by law to be fitted with radiotelegraph installations and voluntarily fitted with 2 Mc radiotelephone installations will either remove or not utilize such radiotelephone equipment. The elimination of radiotelephone installations on such vessels would tend to lessen over-all safety of life at sea.

9. We, therefore, conclude that pending the accumulation of further information and experience in this regard, vessels compulsorily fitted with radiotelegraph equipment should be excepted from the requirement of § 8.223.

10. Because the requirement here involved would otherwise become effective January 1, 1954, it is impracticable to comply with the public notice and procedure for rule making provided by section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act. Accordingly; It is ordered, That effective January 1, 1954, § 8.223 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section and except for stations on board vessels required by law to be fitted with radiotelegraph equipment, each ship station (in addition to those ship stations specified in paragraph (a) of this section) licensed to transmit by telephony on one or more frequencies within the band 1600 to 3500 kc shall, during its hours of service for telephony, maintain an efficient watch for the reception of class A3 emission on the radiochannel of which 2182 kc is the assigned frequency, whenever such station is not being used for transmission on that channel or for communication on other radio-channels. When the ship station is in Region 1 or 3, such watch shall, insofar as is possible, be maintained at least twice each hour for three minutes commencing at x h 00 and x h 30, Greenwich mean time (G. M. T.).

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066 as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Released: December 31, 1953.

Acting Secretary.

DISSENTING STATEMENT OF COMMISSIONER BARTLEY

In my opinion the Communications Act, wholly apart from the compulsory telephony on one or more frequencies within the band 1600 to 3500 kc shall, during its hours of service for telephony, maintain an efficient watch for the reception of class A3 emission on the radiochannel of which 2182 kc is the assigned frequency, whenever such station is not being used for transmission on that channel or for communication on other radio-channels. When the ship station is in Region 1 or 3, such watch shall, insofar as is possible, be maintained at least twice each hour for three minutes commencing at x h 00 and x h 30, Greenwich mean time (G. M. T.).

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066 as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Released: December 31, 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

DISSENTING STATEMENT OF COMMISSIONER BARTLEY

In my opinion the Communications Act, wholly apart from the compulsory radio installation provisions contained in Title 3, Part 2, thereof, clearly contemplates the close interdependence of radio stations aboard ships at sea. Section 322 of the act requires ship stations within their scope of normal operations to exchange radio communications or signals with any other station on shipboard. Section 321(b) of the act requires radio stations not only to refrain from interfering with radio distress signals and communications but also to "assist the vessel, in distress, so far as possible by complying with its instructions."

In my judgment, all those who desire the privilege of using a frequency for radiotelephone communications aboard ship should share in the responsibility of maintaining "an efficient watch," in the interest of promoting safety of life at sea for all users.

It seems to me that by allowing the exemption requested by the larger vessels, we weaken the entire program of encouraging the expansion of radiotelephone use and may well reduce its value on small boats which are primarily dependent upon radiotelephone.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 963]

[Docket No. AO-233-A1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE STARK COUNTY, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Canton, Ohio, on September 24 and 25, 1953, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued on September 15, 1953 (18 F. R. 5629).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on December 8, 1953, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 12, 1953 (18 F. R. 8178).

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision (18 F. R. 8178; F. R. Doc. 53-10373) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein subject to the following revision:

1. In the last paragraph beginning in column 3, page 8178, change the fifth sentence to read as follows: "The present schedule of standard utilization percentages is based upon the assumption that the supply of milk is normal in relation to sales during November, the usual month of lowest production, when the total utilization of Class I milk in the market is equal to 85 percent of the receipts of milk from producers."

Rulings. Within the period reserved for filing exceptions to the recommended decision, exceptions were submitted on behalf of interested parties. These exceptions have been fully considered and to the extent to which the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled.

Determination of representative period. The month of October 1953 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order, as hereby amended.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Stark County, Ohio, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Stark County, Ohio, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of December 1953.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Stark County, Ohio, Marketing Area

§ 963.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the appplicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Canton, Ohio, on September 24 and 25, 1953, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order as hereby amended as set forth below:

The provisions of the "Recommended marketing agreement and order" contained in the recommended decision issued by the Deputy Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration on December 8, 1953 and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 12, 1953 (18 F. R. 8181; F. R. Doc. 53-10373) shall be and are the terms and provisions of this order as if set forth in full herein.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Parts 1, 43]

[Docket No. 10830]

REPORTS OF COMMUNICATION COMMON CARRIERS AND THEIR AFFILIATES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of rescission of Statistical Circular No. 2, Annual Statistical Report for Small Communication Carriers (by Wire or Radio), and Statistical Circular No. 3 for Class C Telephone Carriers; Corresponding revision of Part 1 of the Commission's rules, Docket No. 10830.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. Effective with the 1953 reporting year, it is proposed to rescind Statistical Circular No. 2 prescribed as an annual report for miscellaneous classes of small communication carriers (telephone, telegraph, and radio-telegraph carriers having annual operating revenues not exceeding $50,000) and Statistical Circular No. 3 prescribed as an annual report for Class C telephone carriers (those having annual operating revenues exceeding $50,000 but not more than $100,000). In lieu of requiring these annual reports, it is proposed to solicit through correspondence with individual carriers or groups of carriers, such information as may be required for the performance of the Commission's functions.

3. Consistent with the foregoing it is also proposed to revise § 1.544 (a) of the Commission's rules and regulations as follows: Delete subparagraphs (6) and (7) and change the number designation of present subparagraph (8) to (6).

4. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the above proposals should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the manner proposed herein, may file with the Commission, on or before January 22, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. At the same time persons favoring the proposal may file statements in support thereof. Statements or briefs in reply to original comments may be filed within ten days from the last day for filing original comments. The Commission will consider all comments that are received before taking final action in the matter, and if comments are received which appear to warrant the holding of oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

5. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments filed shall be furnished to the Commission.

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Released: January 4, 1954.

[Docket No. 10821]

DOMESTIC PUBLIC RADIO SERVICES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE-MAKING

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule-making in the above entitled matter.

2. The purpose of this proceeding is to delete from present Part 6 of the rules those provisions which relate to domestic radio services (§ 6.101, et seq., to end of Part 6) and to transfer such provisions, with certain amendments and additions, to a new part designated as Part 21. This new part sets forth the rules and regulations applicable to all domestic public radio services other than Aeronautical, Maritime, and certain Alaskan and Special Emergency Services. Thus, the new part contains rules for the regular operation of such common carrier services as Land Mobile, and those heretofore described as Microwave Relay, Short Haul Toll, Rural Radiotelephone, TV Pickup and STL, Developmental, Domestic Control, Repeater, etc.

3. This notice of proposed rule-making is issued during the pendency of several proceedings involving proposals affecting the use of various frequency bands (Dockets Nos. 10315, 10345 and 10797) as more particularly indicated at appropriate places in the proposed rules. It is intended that final action in the instant proceeding will be coordinated with, and dependent upon, the final action taken in these proceedings. It should be particularly noted that any authorizations with respect to facilities utilizing frequencies in the 72-76 Mc. band will carry a condition that such authorizations may be modified or terminated at any time without hearing, upon notice to the grantee, as may be required by final disposition of the proceedings in Docket No. 10315.

4. The proposed rules, authority for which is contained in sections 4 (i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended are set forth below.

5. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein, may file with the Commission, on or before February 26, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing original comments or briefs. The Commission will consider all such comments before taking action in this matter, and, if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

6. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: December 23, 1953.

Released: December 29, 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

1. Delete from Part 6 of the Commission's rules, § 6.101, et seq., to end of part, and adopt new Part 21 as set forth below:

§ 21.0 Basis and purpose. (a) The basis for the rules in this part is the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and applicable treaties and agreements to which the United States is a party. The rules in this part are issued pursuant to the authority contained in Title II and III of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which vests authority in the Federal Communication Commission to regulate common carriers of interstate and foreign communications and to regulate radio transmissions and issue licenses for radio stations.

(b) The purpose of the rules and regulations in this part is to prescribe the manner in which portions of the radio spectrum may be made available for the use of radio for domestic common carrier operations which require transmitting facilities on land.

SUBPART A—DEFINITIONS

§ 21.1 Definitions (as used in this part).—(a) Antenna power gain. The square of the ratio of the root-mean-square free space field intensity produced at one mile in the horizonal plane, in millivolts per meter for one kilowatt antenna input power to 137.6 mv/m. This ratio should be expressed in decibels (db). (If specified for a particular direction, antenna power gain is based on the field strength in that direction only.)

(b) Antenna structure.[1] The term "antenna structure" includes the radiating system and its supporting structures.

(c) Authorized frequency. The frequency assigned to a station by the Commission and specified in the instrument of authorization.

(d) Authorized power. The power assigned to a radio station by the Commission and specified in the instrument of authorization. The authorized power does not necessarily correspond to the power used by the Commission for purposes of its Master Frequency Record (MFR) and notification to the Bureau of the International Telecommunications Union.

(e) Auxiliary test station. A land station used for test transmissions only, operating on mobile station frequencies from a specified fixed location, for the purpose of determining the performance of receiving equipment which is remotely located from the base station with which it is associated.

(f) Base station. A land station in the land mobile service carrying on a service with land mobile stations.

(g) Carrier. In a frequency stabilized system, the sinusoidal component of a modulated wave whose frequency is independent of the modulating wave; or the output of a transmitter when the modulating wave is made zero; or a wave generated at a point in the transmitting system and subsequently modulated by the signal; or a wave generated locally at the receiving terminal which when combined with the side bands in a suitable detector produces the modulating wave.

(h) Carrier frequency. The frequency of the carrier.

[1] For complete reference to rules and regulations pertaining to coordination of antenna structures and hazards to air navigation, see Part 17 of this subchapter.

(i) Central exchange station. A fixed station in the rural radiotelephone service used for transmitting communications to rural subscriber stations associated therewith.

(j) Communication common carrier. Any person engaged in rendering communication service for hire to the public.

(k) Control point. A control point is an operating position at which an operator responsible for the operation of the transmitter is stationed and which is under the control and supervision of the licensee.

(l) Control station. A fixed station used to control directly the operation of other fixed radio stations, or automatically to transmit to an alarm center telemetering information relative to the operation of such stations.

(m) Dispatch communication. Two-way voice communication, normally of not more than one minute's duration, between common carrier land mobile stations, or between a common carrier land mobile station and a land line telephone station not connected to a public message telephone system.

(n) Dispatch point. A dispatch point is a base station operating position, operated by a subscriber, which is under the control and supervision of the base station licensee.

(o) Domestic fixed public service. A fixed service, the stations of which are open to public correspondence, for radiocommunication between points all of which lie within: (1) the 48 states and the District of Columbia, or (2) within a single territory or possession of the United States.[1]

(p) Domestic public land mobile radio service. A public communication service for hire between land mobile stations wherever located and base stations which are located within the continental limits of the United States or its territories and possessions.

(q) Domestic public radiocommunication services. The land mobile and domestic fixed public services the station of which are open to public correspondence.[2]

(r) Effective radiated power. The product of the antenna input power and the antenna power gain. This product should be expressed in watts. (If specified for a particular direction, effective radiated power is based on the antenna power gain in that direction only.)

(s) Facsimile. A system of telecommunication for the transmission of fixed images with a view to their reception in a permanent form.

(t) Fixed service. A service of radiocommunication between specified fixed points.

(u) Fixed station. A station in the fixed service.

(v) General communication. Two-way voice communication, through a base station, between a common carrier land mobile station and a land line telephone station connected to a public message land line telephone system, or between two common carrier land mobile stations.

(w) Harmful interference. Any radiation or any induction which endangers the functioning of a radionavigation service or of a safety service or obstructs or repeatedly interrupts a radio service.

(x) Intercity radio service. A domestic public radio service rendered on microwave frequencies by fixed stations between points which lie within the continental limits of the United States or between points in its territories and possessions or to points in nonoverseas foreign countries.

(y) Intercity station. A fixed station in the Intercity Radio Service, operating on microwave frequencies, which is used for the transmission for hire of public correspondence between points in the continental United States or between points in its territories and possessions or to points in non-overseas foreign countries.

(z) Inter-exchange station. A fixed station in the Rural Radiotelephone Service which is used exclusively for interconnection of public message telephone exchanges.

(aa) Landing area. A landing area means any locality, either of land or water, including airports and intermediate landing fields, which is used, or approved for use for the landing and take-off of aircraft, whether or not facilities are provided for the shelter, servicing, or repair of aircraft, or for receiving or discharging pasengers or cargo.

(bb) Land mobile service. A mobile service between base stations and land mobile stations, or between land mobile stations.

(cc) Land mobile station. A mobile station in the land mobile service capable of surface movement within the geographical limits of a country or continent.

(dd) Land station. A station in the mobile service not intended for operation while in motion.

(ee) Local television program transmission service. A domestic public radio service for the transmission of television program material and related communications to television broadcasting stations or to television receiving apparatus associated in a "closed circuit" operation.

(ff) Message center. The point at which messages from members of the public are accepted by the carrier for transmission to the addressee.

(gg) Microwave auxiliary station. A mobile station used in connection with (1) the alignment of microwave transmitting and receiving antenna systems and equipment, (2) coordination of microwave radio survey operations, and (3) cue and contact control of television pickup station operations.

(hh) Microwave frequencies. As used in this part, this term refers to frequencies of the order of 890 Mc. and above.

(ii) Mobile service. A service of radiocommunication between mobile and land stations or between mobile stations.

(jj) Mobile station. A radio station in the mobile service intended to be used while in motion or during halts at unspecified points.

(kk) Private line service. A service whereby facilities for communication between two or more designated points are set aside for the exclusive use or availability for use of a particular customer and authorized users during stated periods of time.

(ll) Public correspondence. Any telecommunication which the offices and stations, by reason of their being at the disposal of the public, must accept for transmission.

(mm) Public message telephone exchange. A wire center at which telephone subscriber lines are terminated, where manual or automatic switching facilities are provided for interconnecting the line of each subscriber to that of another subscriber or to a trunk circuit to another wire center in the same exchange area or to a toll circuit to a more distant exchange.

(nn) Public message telephone service. A service whereby telephone facilities are offered to the public for communication between all points served by a carrier or by interconnected carriers on a non-exclusive message by message basis, contemplating a separate connection for each occasion of use.

(oo) Radiocommunication. Any telecommunication by means of Hertzian waves.

(pp) Radio station. A separate transmitter or a group of transmitters including the accessory equipment required for carrying on a radiocommunication service.

(qq) Rated power output. The term "rated power output" of a transmitter means the normal radio frequency power output assessed to a transmitter by its manufacturer.

(rr) Record communication. Any transmission of intelligence which is reduced to visual record form at the point of reception.

(ss) Repeater station. A fixed station established for retransmitting automatically radiocommunications received from one or more land mobile stations and directed to a specified location.

(tt) Rural radiotelephone service. A domestic public radio service rendered by fixed stations used to provide (1) public message telephone service rendered through a central exchange station to fixed locations or regular subscriber stations in the same exchange area, in rural areas to which it is impracticable to extend service via land lines, or (2) public message telephone service between land line telephone exchanges which it is impracticable to interconnect by other means, or (3) private line telephone or telegraph service between 2 or more points to which it is impracticable to extend service via land line.

(uu) Rural subscriber station. A fixed station in the Rural Radiotelephone Service used for transmitting telephone messages from a subscriber's telephone instrument to a central exchange station.

(vv) Signaling communication. One-way communication from a base station to a mobile receiver for the purpose of actuating a signaling device in the mobile unit or for communicating information to the desired mobile unit.

(ww) Standby transmitter. The term "standby transmitter" means a transmitter maintained for use in lieu of the main transmitter only during periods when the main transmitter is out of service for maintenance or repair.

(xx) Telegraphy. A system of telecommunication for the transmission of written matter by the use of signal code.

(yy) Telephony. A system of telecommunication set up for the transmission of speech, or in some cases, other sounds.

(zz) Television. A system of telecommunication for the transmission of transient images of fixed or moving objects.

(aaa) Television non-broadcast pickup station. A land mobile station used for the transmission of television program material and related communications for non-broadcast purposes.

(bbb) Television pickup station. A land mobile station used for the transmission of television program material and related communications from the scenes of events occurring at points removed from television broadcast station studios to television broadcast stations.

(ccc) Television STL station (studio transmitter link). A fixed station used for the transmission of television program material and related communications from a studio to the transmitter of a television broadcast station.

SUBPART B—APPLICATIONS AND LICENSES

§ 21.10 Station authorization required. No radio transmitter shall be operated in the Domestic Public Radio Services except under and in accordance with a station authorization granted by the Federal Communications Commission.

§ 21.11 General citizenship restrictions. A station license may not be granted to or held by:

(a) Any alien or the representative of any alien.

(b) Any foreign government or the representative thereof.

(c) Any corporation organized under the laws of any foreign government.

(d) Any corporation of which any officer or director is an alien.

(e) Any corporation of which more than one-fifth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by: aliens or their representatives; a foreign government or representatives thereof; or any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country.

(f) Any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which any officer or more than one-fourth of the directors are aliens, if the Commission finds that the public interest will be served by the refusal or revocation of such license.

(g) Any corporation directly or indirectly controlled by any other corporation of which more than one-fourth of the capital stock is owned of record or voted by aliens or their representatives or by a foreign government or representative thereof; or any corporation organized under the laws of a foreign government—if the Commission finds that the public interest will be served by the refusal or revocation of such license.

§ 21.12 Place of filing applications and number of copies. (a) To assure that necessary information is supplied in a consistent manner by all persons, standard forms are prescribed for use in connection with the majority of applications and reports submitted for Commission consideration. Standard numbered forms applicable to the Domestic Public Radio Services are discussed within this subpart and may be obtained from the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C. or from any of the Commission's engineering field offices, the addresses of which are listed in section 0.40 of Part 0 of the Commission's rules.

(b) Every application for a radio station authorization, except applications for stations located in the Territory of Alaska, and all correspondence relating thereto shall be submitted to the Commission's office at Washington 25, D. C., attention of the Secretary.

(c) Applications for station authorizations in the Territory of Alaska shall be submitted to the Federal Communications Commission, Radio District No. 14, Room 801 Federal Office Building, Seattle 4, Washington, attention of the Engineer-in-Charge.

(d) Unless otherwise specified in a particular case, or for a particular form, each application, including exhibits and attachments thereto, shall be filed in duplicate.

(e) Each application, including exhibits and attachments thereto, for station authorization in the Territory of Alaska shall be filed with one copy more than the number of copies indicated in this part for stations located elsewhere.

§ 21.13 Subscription and verification of applications. One copy of each application for an authorization shall be signed under oath or affirmation by the applicant, if the applicant be an individual; by any one of the partners, if an applicant be a partnership; by an officer, if the applicant be a corporation; or by a member who is an officer, if the applicant be an unincorporated association: Provided, however, That applications may be signed by the attorney-in-fact for an applicant (a) in case of physical disability of the applicant, or (b) his absence from the continental United States. If it be signed by a person other than the applicant, such person must set forth in the verification the grounds of his belief as to all matters not stated upon his knowledge and the reason why it is not made by the applicant. Applications filed on behalf of eligible governmental entities such as states and territories of the United States and political subdivisions thereof, the District of Columbia, and units of local government including incorporated municipalities, shall be signed by such duly elected or appointed officials as may be competent to do so under the law of the jurisdiction. Where more than one copy of an application is required to be filed with the Commission, only the original need be signed and verified; the copies may be conformed.

§ 21.14 Informal applications. An application not submitted on a standard form prescribed by the Commission is an informal application. Each informal application shall be submitted in duplicate, normally in letter form, and the original copy shall be subscribed and verified as provided in § 21.13. Each application shall be clear and complete within itself as to the facts presented and the action desired.

§ 21.15 Content of applications. (a) Each application, unless otherwise authorized, shall be specific with regard to frequency or frequencies, power, hours of operation, equipment, antenna height, antenna gain and directivity, points or areas of communication, location of the station, full and complete disclosures with regard to the real party or parties in interest, and shall set forth all matters and things required to be disclosed or answered by the application forms and the Commission's rules.

(b) Each application for construction permit for new or additional radio facilities shall be accompanied by a showing of the applicant's legal, financial, technical and other qualifications to be a licensee in the Domestic Public Radio Services.

(c) Except in cases where such information is already on file with the Commission, applications in these services shall include a single copy of:

(1) The partnership agreement properly certified by each of the partners, if the applicant is a partnership.

(2) The by-laws and the acts or articles of incorporation (or charter) including any amendments thereto, if the applicant is a corporation, certified by an officer of the corporation.

(3) The by-laws and articles of association, including any amendments thereto, certified by an appropriate officer of the organization, if the applicant is an unincorporated association.

(d) Each application for construction permit for new or additional radio facilities shall include a showing that the applicant is financially qualified to construct and operate the proposed facilities. Relative thereto, a copy of the applicant's current balance sheet should be furnished. If a loan or other credit arrangement is to be consummated to finance the proposed operation, full particulars relative thereto should be disclosed, including the identity of the creditor.

(e) Each application for construction permit for new or additional radio facilities shall include a statement of the applicant's technical qualifications. Relative thereto, a showing should be made of the arrangements made to ensure the rendition of good public communication service. Among other things, applicant should disclose the particulars of arrangements to procure the necessary space and personnel for the proposed operations, as well as to show the specific arrangements made to obtain the requisite first or second class licensed radio operators for construction and technical maintenance of the radio installation.

(f) Each application for construction permit for a radio station situated at a

[1] In exceptional cases, facilities within the United States for communication with facilities in Canada or Mexico are also deemed to be in the domestic fixed public service.

[2] Parts 7 and 8 of this subchapter are applicable to Maritime services. Part 9 of this subchapter is applicable to Aeronautical services; and Part 14 of this subchapter is applicable to certain Alaskan services.

specified fixed location which involves new antenna construction or modification of existing antenna construction shall be accompanied by FCC Form 401–A (revised)[1] in triplicate in all cases when:

(1) The station operates upon frequencies below 890 Mc.; or

(2) The antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an over-all height of 170 feet above ground level (including any man-made structure on which it is to be mounted): Provided, however, That FCC Form 401–A is not required for stations operating above 890 Mc. when the antenna is mounted upon an existing man-made structure and does not increase the over-all height of such man-made structure by more than 20 feet; or

(3) The antenna structure proposed to be erected will exceed an over-all height of one foot above the established airport (landing area) elevation for each 200 feet of distance, or fraction thereof, from the nearest boundary of such landing area: Provided, however, That FCC Form 401–A is not required for stations operating above 890 Mc. when the antenna is mounted upon an existing man-made structure and does not increase the over-all height of such man-made structure by more than 20 feet; or

(4) The antenna structure proposed to be modified is already required to be marked or lighted as a navigation hazard to aircraft.

(g) An application for mobile units to be licensed in the name of a person who is not the licensee of the base station with which the mobile units will be associated in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service shall be accompanied by the information indicated in paragraph (b) of this section together with an affirmative showing that:

(1) The mobile units for which authorization is sought are for the applicant's own use; and

(2) Definite arrangements have been made for the requested number of mobile units to obtain communication service, upon the frequencies requested, through the base stations specifically identified in the application; and

(3) Specific arrangements, the details of which should be set forth, have been made for installation and technical service and maintenance of the mobile units by licensed first or second class radio operators.

(h) Each application for construction permit for radio facilities which are to be used in rendering communication service for hire shall be accompanied by a statement showing the extent to which the applicant intends actively to participate in the day-to-day operation of the proposed facilities. In the event the applicant does not intend actively to participate in the day-to-day management and operation, he should state his reasons therefor and fully disclose the details of the proposed operations, including a showing of how control thereof will be retained by the applicant.

(i) Each application for construction permit for a developmental authorization shall be accompanied by pertinent supplemental information as required by § 21.405 in addition to such information as may be specifically required by this section.

(j) Each application for construction permit for a station intended to operate upon frequencies below 890 Mc. from a specified fixed location, which proposes to establish a new communication facility or make changes in the area of coverage of a station already authorized, shall be accompanied by technical engineering information with respect to:

(1) Type of antenna polarization used.

(2) Type of antenna used, including type number and manufacturer thereof.

(3) Antenna power gain with respect to a reference half-wave dipole antenna, expressed in decibels.

(4) Antenna radiation pattern (on letter size polar coordinate paper) showing the antenna power gain distribution in the horizontal plane with respect to a reference half-wave dipole antenna, expressed in decibels.

(5) Orientation of directional antenna array, expressed in degrees of azimuth, with respect to true north.

(6) Antenna height above average terrain (see also § 21.113).

(7) Antenna transmission line type, length, and radio frequency power transmission losses between the output of the transmitter and the antenna radiating system, expressed in decibels.

(8) Topographic maps (see also § 21.114) showing thereon:

(i) Exact station location.

(ii) Location of radials used in determining elevation of average terrain.

(iii) Location of the contour describing the limits of the area of reliable service[2] to be covered by the station, if the station is to be used in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service. If the station is to be used exclusively for the rendition of communication service between specified fixed points, the location of such contour need not be shown.

(k) In the Rural Radiotelephone Service and the Intercity Radio Service, each application for initial installation of a radio station, or for installation of additional transmitters, or for authority to communicate with new points, shall be accompanied by the showing required by §§ 21.608 and 21.706, respectively.

§ 21.16 Additional statements. The Commission may require an applicant to submit such documents and written statements of fact, under oath, as in its judgment may be necessary.

§ 21.17 Form of amendments to applications. Any amendment to an application shall be subscribed, verified, and submitted in the same manner, and with the same number of copies, as was the original application.

§ 21.18 Amendments of applications ordered. The Commission may, upon its own motion or upon the motion of any party to a proceeding, order the applicant to amend his application so as to make the same more definite and certain.

§ 21.19 Application for special temporary license. (a) Special temporary license may be granted for the operation of a new or existing station in the Domestic Public Radio Services for a limited time, or in a manner and to an extent or for service other or beyond that authorized in an existing license upon proper application therefor. Except as hereafter provided, no such request will be considered unless full particulars as to the purpose for which the request is made are stated and unless the request is received by the Commission at least 10 days prior to the date of proposed operation. A request received within less than 10 days may be accepted upon due showing of sufficient reasons for the delay in submitting such request. A request for special temporary license may be submitted as an informal application in the manner set forth in § 21.14.

(b) In cases of emergency found by the Commission, involving danger to life or property or due to damage of equipment, or during a national emergency proclaimed by the President or declared by the Congress or during the continuance of any war in which the United States is engaged and when such action is necessary for the national defense or safety or otherwise in furtherance of the war effort, or in cases of emergency where the Commission finds that it would not be feasible to secure renewal applications from existing licensees or otherwise to follow normal licensing procedure, the Commission will grant construction permits and station licenses, or modifications or renewals thereof, during the emergency found by the Commission or during the continuance of any such national emergency of war, as Special Temporary Licenses, only for the period of emergency or war requiring such action, without the filing of formal applications.

§ 21.20 Defective applications. (a) Applications which are defective with respect to completeness of answers to questions, execution or other matters of a formal character will not be received for filing by the Commission, unless the Commission shall otherwise permit, and will be returned to the applicant with a brief statement as to the omissions.

(b) Applications which are not in accordance with the Commission's rules, regulations or other requirements will be considered defective unless accompanied by a request of the applicant for a waiver of, or an exception to, any rule, regulations or requirement with which the application is in conflict. Such request shall show the nature of the waiver or exception desired and set forth the reasons in support thereof.

(c) Applications tendered for filing are given a file number. The assignment of a file number to an application is for the administrative convenience of the Commission and does not indicate the acceptance of the application for filing and consideration.

§ 21.21 Inconsistent or conflicting applications. When an applicant has an application pending and undecided, no inconsistent or conflicting application filed by the same applicant, his successor or assignee, or on behalf or for the benefit of said applicant, will be considered by the Commission.

§ 21.22 Repetitious applications. (a) Where an applicant has been afforded an opportunity for a hearing with respect to a particular application for a new station, or for an extension or enlargement of service or facilities, and the Commission has, after hearing or default, denied the application or dismissed it with prejudice, the Commission will not consider a like application involving service of the same kind to the same area by the same applicant, or by his successor or assignee, or on behalf of or for the benefit of the original parties in interest, until after the lapse of 12 months from the effective date of the Commission's order. The Commission may, for good cause shown, waive the requirements of this section.

(b) Where an appeal has been taken from the action of the Commission in denying a particular application, another application for the same class of station and for the same area, in whole or in part, filed by the same applicant or by his successor or assignee, or on behalf or for the benefit of the original parties in interest, will not be considered until the final disposition of such appeal.

§ 21.23 Amendments of applications. (a) Any application may be amended as a matter of right, prior to the designation of such application for hearing, merely by filing the appropriate number of copies of the amendments in question duly executed.

(b) Requests to amend an application after it has been designated for hearing will be considered only upon written petition properly served upon the parties of record, and will be granted only for good cause shown.

§ 21.24 Dismissal of applications. (a) Any application may be dismissed without prejudice as a matter of right prior to the designation of such application for hearing.

(b) Requests to dismiss an application without prejudice after it has been designated for hearing will be considered only before public notice of the issuance of a proposed decision proposing denial of the application, upon written petition properly served upon all parties of record, and will be granted only for good cause shown. Such petition must be accompanied by the affidavit of a person with knowledge of the facts as to whether or not consideration has been promised to or received by the petitioner, directly or indirectly, in connection with the filing of such petition.

(c) An applicant not desiring to prosecute his application may request the dismissal of same without prejudice. A request of an applicant for the return of an application which has been accepted for filing will be considered as a request to dismiss the same without prejudice. Where an applicant fails to respond to official correspondence or request for additional material, the application will be dismissed without prejudice.

§ 21.25 Partial grants. Where the Commission, without a hearing, grants any application in part, or with any privileges, terms, or conditions other than those requested, or subject to any interference that may result to the station if a designated application or applications are subsequently granted, the applicant will be informed of the reasons for such action and the action of the Commission shall be considered as a grant of such application unless the applicant shall, within 20 days from the date on which public announcement of such grant is made, or from its effective date if a later date is specified, return the instrument of authorization and file with the Commission a written statement rejecting the grant as made and setting forth the reasons why the application should be granted as originally requested. Upon receipt of such statement, the Commission will vacate its original action upon the application and reconsider the same. Upon such reconsideration, it will either grant or set the application for hearing in the same manner as other applications are set for hearing.

§ 21.26 Grants without a hearing. (a) Where an application for radio facilities is proper upon its face and where it appears from an examination of the application and supporting data that (1) the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified; (2) a grant of the application would not cause harmful interference to an existing station or station for which a construction permit is outstanding within its service area; (3) a grant of the application would not preclude the grant of any pending application; and (4) a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience or necessity, the Commission will grant the application without a hearing.

(b) In making its determinations pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the Commission will not consider any other application as being mutually exclusive with the application under consideration unless such other application was tendered for filing with the Commission not later than the close of business one business day preceding the day on which the Commission takes action with respect to the application under consideration.

(c) When any instrument of authorization is granted without a hearing, such grant shall remain subject to protest for a period of 30 days. During such 30-day period, any party in interest may file a protest under oath directed to such grant and request a hearing on such application. Any protest so filed shall contain such allegations of fact as will show the protestant to be a party in interest and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Within 15 days from the date of filing of such protest, the Commission will make findings as to whether such protest meets the foregoing requirements and, if it so finds, the application involved will be set for hearing upon the issues set forth in such protest, together with such further specific issues, if any, as may be prescribed by the Commission. With respect to all issues set forth in the protest and specifically adopted by the Commission, both the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence and the burden of proof shall be upon the protestant.

(d) Pending the hearing described in paragraph (c) of this section, and the decision thereon, the effective date of the Commission's action to which protest is made will be postponed to the effective date of the Commission's decision after hearing, unless the authorization involved is necessary to the maintenance or conduct of an existing service, in which event the Commission will authorize the applicant to utilize the facilities or authorization in question pending the Commission's decision after hearing.

§ 21.27 Designation for hearing. (a) If, upon examination of any application, the Commission is unable to find that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by a grant thereof, it will forthwith notify the applicant and other known parties in interest of the grounds and reasons for its inability to make such finding. Such notice will advise the applicant and all other known parties in interest of the objections made to the application as well as the source and nature of such objections. The applicant will be given a period of 30 days from the date of such notice within which to reply thereto. If the Commission, after considering such reply, shall be unable to find that public interest, convenience, or necessity would be served by the grant of the application, it will designate the application for hearing on the grounds or reasons then obtaining and will notify the applicant and all other known parties in interest of such action and the grounds and reasons therefor.

(b) The parties in interest, if any, who are notified by the Commission of its action with respect to a particular application may acquire the status of a party to the proceeding by filing a petition for intervention showing the basis for their interest at any time not less than 10 days prior to the date of hearing.

(c) At any hearing subsequently held, the applicant shall have both the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence upon any issue specified by the Commission, as well as the burden of proof upon all such issues.

(d) Where a grant of the application would preclude the grant of an application or applications mutually exclusive with it, the Commission may, if public interest will be served thereby, make a conditional grant of one or more of such mutually exclusive applications for hearing. Such conditional grant will be made upon the express condition that it is subject to being withdrawn if, at the hearing, it is shown that public interest will be better served by a grant of one of the other applications. Such conditional grants will be issued only where it appears:

(1) That some or all of the applications were not filed in good faith but were filed for the purpose of delaying or hindering the grant of another application; or

(2) That public interest requires the prompt establishment of radio service in a particular community or area; or

(3) That a grant of one or more applications would be in the public interest

[1] For complete regulations relative to antenna clearance requirements, see Part 17 of this subchapter.

[2] Reference should also be made to § 21.504.

and that a delay in making a grant to any applicant until after the conclusion of a hearing on all applications might jeopardize the rights of the United States under the provision of an international agreement to the use of the frequency in question; or

(4) That a grant of one application would be in the public interest and that it appears from an examination of the remaining applications that they cannot be granted because they are in violation of provisions of the Communications Act, or of other statutes, or of the Commission's rules and regulations.

§ 21.28 Transfer and assignment of station authorization. A station authorization, the frequencies authorized to be used by the grantee of such authorization, and the rights therein granted by such authorization shall not be transferred, assigned, or disposed of in any manner, voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly, or by transfer of control of any corporation holding such authorization, to any person, except upon application to the Commission and upon finding by the Commission that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served thereby. Requests for authority of the type referred to herein shall be submitted on the forms prescribed by § 21.29 (h) and shall be accompanied by the further showing required by § 21.29 (h).

§ 21.29 Forms to be used—(a) Application for construction permit for base stations and fixed stations. A separate application for construction permit shall be submitted for each base station and each fixed station. Such applications shall be accompanied by the supplementary information set forth in § 21.15 as may be appropriate.

(b) Application for construction permit for mobile stations. A separate application on FCC Form 401 shall be submitted for a construction permit for the maximum number of mobile units expected to be placed in operation within the ensuing license period: Provided, however, In the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service, an application for construction permit for land mobile units to be licensed in the name of the base station licensee may be combined on the same application form with an application for the base station with which the land mobile units will be associated. In the preparation of such blanket applications, care should be exercised that data furnished therein in all particulars is clearly differentiated between the land mobile and base station installations. Applications for mobile stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service which are submitted by persons who propose to become subscribers to a common carrier service for public correspondence shall be accompanied by the supplementary showing set forth in § 21.15 (g). In the case of mobile transmitters, including hand-carried or pack-carried units which are purchased as a complete packaged unit and used without modification, the application for license may be submitted simultaneously with the application for construction permit.

(c) Application for modification of construction permit. Under circumstances requiring deviation from the terms of a construction permit, before such deviations are begun, application for modification of construction permit shall be submitted on FCC Form 401. No changes shall be effected until authorized by the Commission through issuance of an appropriate modified construction permit.

(d) Application for extension of expiration date of construction permit. Application for extension of time within which to complete construction of a station shall be filed on FCC Form 701 at least 30 days prior to the expiration date of such permit, if the facts supporting such application for extension are known to applicant in time to permit such filing. In other cases, such applications will be accepted upon a showing, satisfactory to the Commission, of sufficient reasons for filing within less than 30 days prior to the expiration date. Such applications will be granted upon a specific and detailed showing that the failure to complete was due to causes not under the control of the grantee, or upon a specific and detailed showing of other matters sufficient to justify the extension (see also § 21.31 (a)).

(e) Application for station license. Upon completion of construction or installation of a station in exact accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the construction permit and upon satisfactory completion of equipment tests in accordance with § 21.212 (a) an application for license to operate the station may be filed on FCC Form 403 prior to the expiration date of the construction permit.

(f) Renewal of station license. Unless otherwise directed or permitted by the Commission, each application for renewal of license other than special temporary authorizations shall be submitted on FCC Form 405 not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days prior to the expiration date of the license sought to be renewed. Expiring developmental authorizations may be renewed only upon a factual showing of need beyond the expiration date of the authorization sought to be renewed.

(g) Application for modification of station license. An application for modification of any station license in these services may be filed at any time during the term of that license. Application for modification of a station license shall be made on FCC Form 403 and shall be submitted in duplicate not less than 60 days prior to the date contemplated for such modification, unless otherwise permitted.

(h) Application for consent to assignment, or transfer of control of corporation holder of radio station construction permit or license. An application on FCC Form 702 or FCC Form 703, as the circumstances require, shall be submitted to the Commission when a construction permit or license, or the control of a corporation holding such permit or license, is to be transferred as a result of a voluntary act (contract or other agreement) or an involuntary act (death or legal disability) of the grantee of a permit or station license, or by involuntary assignment of the physical property of the station pursuant to a court decree in bankruptcy proceedings, or other court order, or by operation of law in any other manner. Applications filed on FCC Form 702 or FCC Form 703 shall be accompanied by a factual showing by the assignee of his legal, financial, technical and other qualifications to be the licensee of the radio facilities described in such application.

(i) Applications for authority to operate mobile units of Canadian registry in the United States.[5] Applications for authority to operate mobile units of Canadian registry within the United States shall be made upon FCC Form 410 which shall be filed with the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Forms may be obtained from the FCC Secretary or from the Controller of Telecommunications, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Canada.

§ 21.30 Period of construction. Each construction permit for a radio station in the Domestic Public Radio Services will specify a maximum of 60 days from the date of grant thereof as the time within which construction of the station shall begin, and a maximum of six months thereafter as the time within which construction shall be completed and the station ready for operation, unless otherwise determined by the Commission upon proper showing in any particular case.

§ 21.31 Forfeiture of station authorizations. (a) A construction permit shall be automatically forfeited if construction has not been commenced within the time specified therein or if the station is not ready for operation within the term of the construction permit, or within such additional time as the Commission may have allowed upon a proper showing, upon FCC Form 701 filed prior to the date sought to be extended, that failure to commence or complete construction was due to causes not under the control of the permittee (see also § 21.29(d)).

(b) A license or special temporary authorization shall be automatically forfeited upon the expiration date specified therein unless prior thereto an application for renewal of such license or authorization shall have been filed with the Commission (see also § 21.29 (f)).

§ 21.32 License period. Licenses for stations in the Intercity Radio and Local Television Program Transmission Services will be issued for a period not to exceed five years; licenses for stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio and Rural Radiotelephone Services will be issued for a period not to exceed three years; except that licenses for developmental stations will be issued for a period not to exceed one year.[4]

[5] Applications for authority to operate mobile units in Canada. Applications for authority to operate mobile units, which have been licensed in this service by the Commission, shall be made upon proper form and be filed with the Controller of Telecommunications, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Canada, from whom the application forms are obtainable.

SUBPART C—TECHNICAL STANDARDS

§ 21.100 Frequencies. The frequencies available for use in the services covered by this part of the rules are listed in the applicable subparts of this part. Assignment of frequencies will be made only in such a manner as to facilitate the rendition of communication service on an interference-free basis in each service area. Unless otherwise indicated, each frequency available for use by stations in these services will be assigned exclusively to a single applicant in any service area. All applicants for, and licensees of, stations in these services shall cooperate in the selection and use of the frequencies assigned in order to minimize interference and thereby obtain the most effective use of the authorized facilities. In the event harmful interference occurs or appears likely to occur between two or more radio systems and such interference cannot be resolved between the licensees thereof, the Commission may specify a time sharing arrangement for the stations involved or may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the licensees to make such changes in operating techniques or equipment as it may deem necessary to avoid such interference.

§ 21.101 Frequency stability. (a) The carrier frequency of each transmitter authorized in these services shall be maintained within the following percentage of the assigned frequency, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

Frequency range:	Frequency tolerance (percent)
Below 50 Mc	0.01
50–1,000 Mc	0.005
1,000–10,000 Mc	0.05

[1] To be specified in the authorization.

(b) Hand or pack carried transmitters having a final stage plate power input of less than 3 watts shall maintain their carrier frequency within the following percentage of the assigned frequency:

Frequency range:	Frequency tolerance (percent)
50–500 Mc	0.01

§ 21.102 Frequency measuring or calibrating apparatus. (a) The licensee of each station, other than a mobile station, regulated by the rules of this part shall operate at the transmitter a frequency measuring device independent of the frequency control of the transmitter.

(b) The frequency measuring device shall have an accuracy sufficient to determine that the operating frequency is within one-half of the allowed tolerance.

(c) Exception to the above provisions of this section may be made provided:

(1) The applicant makes a satisfactory showing that the nature of the proposed operations precludes compliance with the above provisions; and

(2) A satisfactory alternative method of maintaining the operating frequency within the allowed tolerance is employed.

§ 21.103 Types of emission. The types of emission which the various stations in the Domestic Public Radio Services may use are specified in the rules in this part governing the particular service. (See § 2.201 of this subchapter for information concerning the manner of designating various classes of emission.)[2]

§ 21.104 Bandwidth of emission. (a) The necessary bandwidth of an emission is the width of the frequency band which is necessary in the over-all system including both transmitter and receiver for the proper reproduction at the receiver of the desired information but does not necessarily indicate the interfering characteristics of the emission. The necessary bandwidth for an emission may be calculated using the formulas in § 2.202 of this subchapter.

(b) The occupied bandwidth is the band of frequencies comprising 99 percent of the total radiated power extended to include any discrete frequency on which the power is at least 0.25 percent of the total radiated power.

(c) The authorized bandwidth is the band of frequencies, normally centered around the assigned frequency, within which the authorized bandwidth is approximately equal to the occupied bandwidth modified to fall within the standard channeling scheme adopted by the Commission. The authorized bandwidth for stations in these services is specified in the rules relating to the particular service.

(d) Each authorization issued to a station under this part will show as a prefix to the emission classification, a figure specifying the bandwidth authorized to be used by the station. This figure does not necessarily indicate the bandwidth actually occupied by the emission at any instant.

§ 21.105 Emission limitations. (a) Any emission appearing on any frequency removed from the carrier frequency by at least 50 percent, but not more than 100 percent, of the maximum authorized bandwidth shall be attenuated not less than 25 db below the unmodulated carrier.

(b) Below 500 Mc., any spurious or harmonic emission appearing on any frequency removed from the carrier frequency by at least 100 percent of the maximum authorized bandwidth shall be attenuated below the unmodulated carrier by not less than the amount indicated in the following table:

Authorized power (watts input):	Attenuation (db)
3 watts or less	40
Over 3 watts up to and including 25 watts	50
Authorized power (watts input)—Continued	Attenuation (db)
Over 25 watts up to and including 150 watts	60
Over 150 watts up to and including 600 watts	70
Over 600	80

(c) Above 500 Mc., any spurious or harmonic emission appearing on any frequency removed from the carrier by at least 100 percent of the maximum authorized bandwidth shall be attenuated below the unmodulated carrier by not less than the amount indicated in the following table:

Effective radiated power:	Attenuation (db)
5 watts or less	40
Over 5 watts and including 50 watts	50
Over 50 watts and including 100 watts	60
Over 100 watts	70

(d) When an unauthorized emission results in harmful interference, the Commission may require appropriate technical changes in equipment to alleviate the interference.

§ 21.106 Transmitter power. (a) The power which a station will be permitted to use in these services will be the minimum required for satisfactory technical operation commensurate with the size of the area to be served and local conditions which affect radio transmission and reception. In cases of harmful interference, the Commission may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, order a change in the effective radiated power of a station.

(b) The rated power output of a transmitter employed in these radio services shall not exceed the values shown in the following tabulation:

Frequency range:	Rated power output (average)
Below 30 Mc	50 watts.
30–50 Mc	250 watts.
50–76 Mc	50 watts.
76–500 Mc	250 watts.
500–10,000 Mc	100 watts.
Above 10,000 Mc	Unlimited.

(c) Transmitters in these radio services normally will not be authorized where the input parameters of current and voltage which are applied to the final radio frequency stage exceed the values recommended by the tube manufacturers.

(d) The operating power of each transmitter shall be maintained as near as practicable to the power specified in the instrument of station authorization: Provided, further, That the operating power of each base station transmitter shall not deviate by more than 10 percent above and 15 percent below the authorized power. In the event it becomes impossible to operate within such limits of the authorized power, the station may be operated with reduced power for a period of 10 days or less, provided the Commission and the Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located shall be notified in writing immediately thereafter and also upon the resumption of normal operating power.

(e) Below 500 Mc., the operating power of stations in these services shall be determined by the indirect method. This is the product of the plate voltage (E_p) and the plate current (I_p) of the last radio stage, and an efficiency factor (F); that is:

[4] In the case of common carrier Television-STL and Television Pickup stations to which are assigned frequencies allocated to the broadcast services, the authorization to use frequencies shall, in any event, terminate simultaneously with the expiration of the authorization for the broadcast station to which such service is rendered.

[2] The use of FO and AO emission in the 72–76 Mc. band will not be authorized, except for temporary or short periods necessary for testing incident to the construction or maintenance of a radio station.

$$\text{Operating power} = E_p \times I_p \times F$$

The efficiency factor, F, shall be that which is established by the transmitter manufacturer for each type of transmitter for which he requests FCC type acceptance, and shall be as shown in the instruction books generally supplied to the customer with each transmitter so approved. In the case of composite equipment, the factor F shall be furnished to the Commission by the applicant along with a statement of the basis used in determining such factor.

§ 21.107 Directional antennas. (a) Each station authorized under the rules of this part, other than stations operating in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service, shall employ a directional antenna oriented with the main lobe of radiation directed toward the receiving station with which it communicates, unless otherwise specifically provided by the rules of this part.

(b) Each station required by the rules of this part to operate with a directional antenna shall not exceed the following limits of beam width, measured in the horizonal plane at the half power points, for the main lobe of radiation:

Frequency range:	Maximum beam width
Below 500 Mc	80°
500–1,500 Mc	20°
1,500–5,000 Mc	12
5,000–10,000 Mc	8
Above 10,000 Mc	3

(c) Each directional antenna system required by this section shall be adjusted so that maximum radiation in any secondary lobe is suppressed below the maximum level of signal in the main lobe by at least the amount shown below:

Suppression of Maximum Signal in Any Secondary Lobe Below the Maximum Signal in the Main Lobe

Frequency:
Below 500 Mc	10 db.
500 Mc. and above	20 db.

(d) In the event harmful interference is caused to the operation of other stations, the Commission may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, order a change in the directional pattern of the antenna.

(e) No change in omni-directional or directional antenna or the patterns thereof shall be effected without prior authorization from the Commission.

§ 21.108 Antenna polarization. (a) Unless otherwise authorized, stations operating in the 72–76 Mc. band and each base, mobile and auxiliary test station operating in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service shall employ an antenna which radiates a signal, the electrical component of which is vertically polarized.

(b) Unless otherwise authorized, each station operating on frequencies below 500 Mc. (other than base, mobile and auxiliary test stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service, and stations operating in the 72–76 Mc. band) shall employ an antenna which radiates a signal, the electrical component of which is horizontally polarized.

(c) Stations operating in the Domestic Public Radio Services above 890 Mc. are not limited as to the type of polarization of the radiated signal: Provided, however, That in the event harmful interference is caused to the operation of other stations, the Commission may, after notice and opportunity for hearing order the licensee to change the polarization of the radiated signal.

§ 21.109 Simultaneous use of common antenna structure. The simultaneous use of common antenna structures by more than one Domestic Public Radio station, or by one or more Domestic Public Radio stations and one or more stations of any other class or service, may be authorized provided complete responsibility for maintaining the structure and for painting and illuminating the structure, when required by the Commission, is assumed by one of the licensees. In each case involving the use of an antenna structure by more than one licensee, the applicant shall submit to the Commission, with his application, a signed and verified copy of the agreement setting forth which party has assumed the aforementioned responsibility.

§ 21.110 Marking of antenna structures. No permittee or licensee who has been required to paint or light an antenna structure shall discontinue the required painting or lighting without having obtained prior written authorization therefor from the Commission.

§ 21.111 Description of station location. The location of the transmitting antenna shall be considered to be the station location. Applications for stations at specified fixed locations shall describe the transmitting antenna site by its geographical coordinates accurate to the nearest second of latitude and longitude, and also by conventional reference to street number, landmark, etc. Such coordinates shall be specified in terms of degrees, minutes and seconds.

§ 21.113 Method for determining average terrain elevation. The average elevation above mean sea level of the terrain surrounding a transmitting antenna site shall be determined as follows: Profile graphs must be drawn for at least eight radials from the antenna site. These profiles should be prepared for each radial beginning at the antenna site and extending 10 miles therefrom. Normally, the radials are drawn for each 45° of azimuth; however, where feasible, the radials should be drawn for angles along which roads tend to follow. (The latter method may be helpful in obtaining topographical data where otherwise unavailable, and is particularly useful in connection with mobile field intensity measurements of the station and correlation of such measurements with predicted field intensities.) In each case, one or more radials must include the points or principal cities to be served, particularly in cases of rugged terrain, even though the point or city may be more than 10 miles from the antenna site. Additionally, where feasible, radials should be drawn in the direction of any co-channel stations which are authorized within 75 miles of the antenna site. The profile graph for each radial should be plotted by contour intervals of from 40 to 100 feet and, where the data permits, at least 50 points of elevation (generally uniformly spaced) should be used for each radial. In instances of very rugged terrain where the use of contour intervals of 100 feet would result in several points in a short distance, 200 or 400 foot contour intervals may be used for such distances. On the other hand, where the terrain is uniform or gently sloping, the smallest contour interval indicated on the topographic map should be used, although only a relatively few points may be available. The profile graphs should accurately indicate the topography of each radial, and the graphs should be plotted with the distance in miles as the abscissa and the elevation in feet above mean sea level as the ordinate. The profile graphs should indicate the source of the topographical data employed. The graph should also show the elevation of the center of the radiating system. The graph may be plotted either on rectangular coordinate paper or on special paper which shows the curvature of the earth. The average elevation of the 8 mile distance between 2 and 10 miles from the antenna site should then be determined from the profile graph for each radial. This may be obtained by averaging a large number of equally spaced points, by using a planimeter, or by obtaining the median elevation (that exceeded for 50 percent of the distance) in sectors and averaging these values.

§ 21.114 Topographical data. In the preparation of the profile graphs described in § 21.113, and in determining the location and height above sea level of the antenna site, the elevation or contour intervals shall be taken from United States Geological Survey Topographic Quadrangle Maps, United States Army Corps of Engineers maps or Tennessee Valley Authority maps, whichever is the latest, for all areas for which such maps are available. If such maps are not published for the area in question, the next best topographic information should be used. Topographic data may sometimes be obtained from State and municipal agencies. Data from Sectional Aeronautical Charts (including bench marks) or railroad depot elevations and highway elevations from road maps may be used where no better information is available. In cases where limited topographic data is available, use may be made of an altimeter in a car driven along roads extending generally radially from the transmitter site. Ordinarily, the Commission will not require the submission of topographical maps for areas beyond 15 miles from the antenna site, but the maps must include the principal community to be served. If it appears necessary, additional data may be requested. United States Geological Survey Topographic Quadrangle Maps may be obtained from the Department of the Interior, Geological Survey, Washington 25, D. C. Sectional Aeronautical Charts are available from the Department of Commerce, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 21.115 Transmitter location. (a) Where appropriate to the kind of service to be afforded, the transmitter location should be as near to the center of the proposed service area as possible, consistent with the applicant's ability to find a site with sufficient elevation to provide reliable service throughout the area.[3]

(b) The transmitting location of a base station should be selected so that the area of interference-free service encompasses the urban population within the area to be served.[4]

(c) The applicant shall determine, prior to filing an application for a radio station authorization, that the antenna site specified therein is adequate to render the service proposed.[4] In considering applications proposing the use of such locations, the Commission may require site tests to be made pursuant to a developmental authorization in the particular service concerned. Propagation tests should be conducted in accordance with recognized engineering methods and should be made with a transmitting antenna having a height as near as possible to the proposed antenna height, using a baloon or other support, if necessary and feasible. Full data obtained from such surveys and its analysis, including a description of the methods used and the name, address, and qualifications of the engineer making the survey, must be supplied to the Commission.

(d) Antenna structures should be so located and constructed as to avoid making them hazardous to air navigation.[5] The antenna shall be maintained in good structural condition, as well as any required painting or lighting, as a safeguard to life and property both on the ground and in the air.

§ 21.116 Transmitter construction and installation. (a) In general, each transmitter authorized to be used in the Domestic Public Radio Services shall be so constructed or installed that all controls thereon which might cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized emission shall be protected from access by unauthorized personnel.

(b) In these services, each station will be provided with at least one control point. Prior authority from the Commission is required for the installation of any control point which is to be at an address different from that of the transmitter or where the transmitter is not within immediate reach of the operator on duty at the proposed control point.

(c) At each transmitter control point the following facilities shall be installed:

(1) A carrier operated device which will provide continuous visual indication when the transmitter is radiating, or, in lieu thereof, a pilot lamp or meter which will provide continuous visual indication when the transmitter control circuits have been placed in a condition to activate the transmitter: Provided, however, That the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to hand-carried or pack-carried transmitters.

(2) Facilities which will permit the operator to turn transmitter carrier on and off at will.

(d) Except for those stations which normally operate with continuous radiation, or stations which are continuously under the effective operational control of a radio operator 24 hours per day, the transmitter control circuits from any operating position which are not within immediate reach of the operator on duty shall be so installed that grounding of either side of the circuit or a short across the circuit will not cause the transmitter to radiate.

§ 21.117 Limitation on use of transmitter for other services. Transmitters licensed for operation for services governed by this part may not be concurrently licensed or used for non-common carrier communication purposes.

§ 21.118 Acceptability of transmitters for licensing below 500 Mc. (a) Each transmitter installed after the effective date of these rules, which is proposed to be licensed under these rules, must be of a type acceptable to the Commission, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Transmitters authorized to the present licensee prior to April 1, 1954, may continue to be operated until April 1, 1958, except where the particular transmitter causes interference due to failure to comply with the technical standards contained in these rules.

(c) The majority of transmitters considered acceptable for licensing are included on a list compiled by the Commission entitled: "Transmitters Acceptable for Licensing". Applications for inclusion on such list may be submitted by the manufacturer of the transmitter following the procedure specified in Part 2 of this subchapter. Copies of this list are available for inspection at the Commission's office in Washington, D. C. and at each of its field offices.

(d) Non-listed transmitters will be considered acceptable for licensing if the applicant proposing to use such transmitters, or a qualified engineer acting on behalf of the applicant, can make a satisfactory showing that the subject transmitter is capable of complying with the technical standards contained in these rules. This showing shall follow the procedure specified in Part 2 of this subchapter.

(e) Acceptance for licensing is only to the effect that insofar as can be determined from the tests performed or the data submitted, the equipment complies with current technical standards of the service in which the equipment will be operated. Acceptance may be withdrawn upon subsequent inspection or operation showing the equipment is not as represented or does not comply with the applicable technical standards of the Commission. Acceptance shall not be construed to mean that the equipment will continue to be satisfactory as the state of the art progresses or as the Commission's technical standards may be changed in accordance therewith. Acceptance for licensing is limited to a determination that the equipment is capable of complying with the technical requirements of these rules and shall not be construed as a determination with respect to mechanical features nor of reliability under service conditions.

SUBPART D—TECHNICAL OPERATION

§ 21.200 Station inspection. The licensee of each station authorized in the Domestic Public Radio Services shall make the station and station records available for inspection by representatives of the Commission at any reasonable hour.

§ 21.201 Posting of station authorizations. (a) The station permit, license and any other instrument of authorization or order concerning the construction of a station at a specified fixed location or its manner of operation shall be posted so that all terms thereof are visible in a conspicuous place at the principal control point of the transmitter. At all other control points, a photocopy of such documents shall be posted in the aforementioned manner.

(b) If the station is authorized for mobile operation, the documents specified in paragraph (a) of this section

[3] Location of the antenna at a high point of elevation is desirable to reduce to a minimum the transmission shadow effect due to hills, buildings or other obstructions which may reduce materially the intensity of the station's signals in a particular direction. The transmitting site should be selected consistent with the purpose of the station, i. e., whether it is intended to serve a small city, a metropolitan area, a large region, or specified fixed points of communication. In providing the best service to an area, it is usually preferable to use a high antenna rather than a lower antenna with higher power. The location should be so chosen that line-of-sight can be obtained from the antenna over the principal cities or specified fixed points of communication to be served. In no event should there be a major obstruction in this [illegible].

[4] It is recognized that topography, shape of the desired service area, and population distribution may make the choice of a transmitter location difficult. In such cases, consideration may be given to the use of a directional antenna system, although it is generally preferable to choose a site where a nondirectional antenna may be employed.

[4] In cases of questionable antenna locations, it is desirable to conduct propagation tests to indicate the field intensity which may be expected in the principal areas or at the fixed points of communication to be served, particularly where severe shadow problems may be expected.

[5] See Part 17 of this subchapter for provisions relating to antenna structures.

shall be retained as a permanent part of the station record, but need not be posted.

§ 21.202 Transmitter identification card. An executed transmitter identification card (FCC Form 452–C, Revised) or a metal tag with the same information shall be affixed to each transmitter. In vehicular installations, it is preferred that the identification card or metal tag be affixed to the control equipment at the transmitter operating position. The following information shall be entered on the card or metal tag by the permittee or licensee:

(1) Station call sign.

(2) Name of permittee or licensee.

(3) Location(s) of transmitter records.

(4) Frequency or frequencies on which the transmitter is adjusted to operate.

(5) Signature of the permittee, licensee, or responsible official thereof. (The signature may be omitted when a metal tag is used.)

§ 21.203 Posting of operator licenses. (a) Whenever a licensed radio operator is required for the operation of a radio station, the original license of each operator, other than an operator exclusively performing service and maintenance duties, shall be posted or kept immediately available at the place where he is on duty as an operator: Provided, however, That if an operator who is on duty holds a restricted radiotelephone operator permit of the card form (as distinguished from such document of the diploma form) or holds a valid license verification card (FCC Form 758–F) attesting to the existence of any other valid commercial radio operator license, he may have such permit or verification card in his personal possession or otherwise immediately available at the place where he is on duty as an operator.

(b) The original license of every station operator who performs service and maintenance duties exclusively at that station shall be posted at the transmitter involved whenever the transmitter is in actual operation while service or maintenance work is being performed by him or under his immediate supervision and responsibility: Provided, That in lieu of posting his license, he may have on his person his license or a valid verification card.

§ 21.204 FCC publications required for reference. For reference purposes, the permittee or licensee of radio facilities in the Domestic Public Radio Services shall maintain and have available at its principal office in the city in which the facilities are located a current copy of this part (available at the Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.).[2]

[2] It is suggested that the following additional documents be obtained from the Government Printing Office and maintained for reference:

(1) Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

(2) Part 1 of the Commission's rules "Rules Relating to Practice and Procedure".

(3) Part 2 of the Commission's rules "Rules Governing Frequency Allocations and Radio Treaty Matters; General Rules and Regulations".

(4) Part 13 of the Commission's rules "Rules Governing Commercial Radio Operators".

(5) Part 17 of the Commission's rules "Rules Concerning the Construction, Marking and Lighting of Antenna Structures".

(6) Part 45 of the Commission's rules "Preservation of Records of Telephone Carriers".

(7) Part 61 of the Commission's rules "Tariffs, Rules Governing the Construction, Filing and Posting of Schedules of Charges for Interstate and Foreign Communications Service".

(8) Part 63 of the Commission's rules "Extension of Lines and Discontinuance of Service by Carriers".

§ 21.205 Operator requirements. (a) Any radio operator (including the holder of a restricted radiotelephone permit) in charge of a radio station in these services, shall be competent to maintain proper radio logs and records relative to such operations where they are required.

(b) When a radio station is radiating, all adjustments or tests during or coincident with the installation and servicing or maintenance of the transmitter and its associated radio equipment which may affect the quality of transmission or possibly cause the station radiation to exceed the limits specified in its instrument of authorization or in the rules pertaining to such station shall be made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a first or second class radio operator license (either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, or both, as may be appropriate for the type of emission being used), who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the radio facilities.

(c) When a radio station is not radiating, persons of appropriate technical skill, who are not licensed radio operators, may perform the above functions without direct supervision after having been authorized to do so by the responsible first or second class licensed radio operator under whose immediate supervision the facilities shall thereafter initially be placed in operation and be determined to be operating properly.

(d) In all cases, except where manual radiotelegraph keying is employed, the person responsible for the technical installation, servicing and maintenance of a radio station in these services shall hold a valid first or second class radiotelephone license issued by the Commission.

(e) Where manual radiotelegraph keying is employed exclusively, the person responsible for the technical installation, servicing and maintenance of a radio station in these services shall hold a valid first or second class radiotelegraph operator license issued by the Commission.

(f) In cases where manual radiotelegraph keying and other types of radio transmission are employed, the person responsible for the technical installation, servicing and maintenance of a radio station in these services shall hold a radiotelegraph operator license of first or second class.

(g) During the course of normal rendition of service, a station employing manual radiotelegraph keying shall be operated only by a person holding a valid radiotelegraph operator license or radiotelegraph operator permit issued by the Commission. Persons not holding such authorizations are forbidden to manipulate a manually operated telegraph key at such stations during periods of station operation.

(h) Any person may, after obtaining permission from the station licensee, operate the following types of stations during the course of normal rendition of service, under the circumstances set forth below:

(1) A mobile station, when communicating with or through a base station in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service.

(2) A base station, when operated from a dispatch point which is under the effective operational control of a licensed radio operator on duty at the transmitter control point.

(3) A rural subscriber or mobile station in the Rural Radiotelephone Service.

(i) Central exchange stations, Interexchange stations, Auxiliary test stations, and Base stations, including radio control stations which may be associated therewith, shall be operated during the course of normal rendition of service under the effective operational control of a person holding a valid restricted radiotelephone operator permit or higher class of commercial radio operator license issued by the Commission.

(j) TV–STL stations, TV Non-Broadcast Pickup stations, TV Pickup stations, Microwave Auxiliary stations, and Developmental stations shall be operated during the course of normal rendition of service under the effective operational control of a person holding a valid first or second class radiotelephone operator license issued by the Commission.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, unless the transmitter and its associated equipment is so designed that none of the operations necessary to be performed during the course of normal rendition of service may cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized radiation, such transmitter shall be operated by a person holding a first or second class commercial radio operator license (either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, as may be appropriate for the type of emission being used).

(m) The provisions of this section authorizing certain unlicensed persons to operate mobile stations shall not be construed to change or diminish in any respect the responsibility of station licensees to have and to maintain effective operational control over the stations operating under their license (including all transmitter units thereof), or for the proper functioning of those stations in accordance with the terms of the instrument of station authorization and applicable rules and regulations.

(n) Any reference in this section to a commercial radio operator license or permit of any class issued by the Commission shall not be construed to include Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorizations.

(o) A licensee of radio facilities in these services shall be required to have available on call at all times (either as an employee or through appropriate contractual arrangement with a person holding the requisite class of radio operator license) a licensed first or second class commercial radio operator (either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph, as may be appropriate for the type of emission being used) to perform necessary technical servicing and maintenance of the radio facilities expeditiously, including such measurements of frequency, power, modulation, bandwidth of emission, etc., as may be required.

§ 21.206 Inspection and maintenance of antenna structure obstruction marking and associated control equipment. The licensee of any radio station which has an antenna structure required to be painted or illuminated pursuant to the provisions of section 303 (q) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or Part 17 of this subchapter, shall operate and maintain the structure marking and associated control equipment in accordance with the following:

(1) The required lighting of the antenna structure shall be observed at least once each 24 hours, either visually or by observing an automatic and properly maintained indicator designed to register any failure of such lights, to insure that all such lights are functioning properly as required, or, alternatively, there shall be provided and properly maintained an automatic alarm system designed to detect any failure of the lights and to provide indication of such failure to the licensee.

(2) Any observed or otherwise known failure of a code or rotating beacon light or top light not corrected within thirty minutes shall be reported immediately by telephone or telegraph to the nearest Airways Communication Station or office of the Civil Aeronautics Administration. Further notification by telephone or telegraph shall be given immediately upon resumption of the required illumination.

(3) All automatic or mechanical control devices, indicators and alarm systems associated with the tower lights shall be inspected at intervals not to exceed three months to insure that such apparatus is functioning properly.

(4) All lighting shall be exhibited from sunset to sunrise unless otherwise specified in the instrument of station authorization.

(5) A sufficient supply of spare lamps shall be maintained for immediate replacement purposes at all times.

(6) All towers shall be cleaned or repainted as often as is necessary to maintain good visibility.

(7) Entries concerning the operation and maintenance of marked antenna structures shall be made in the technical log of the station as set forth in § 21.208 (g).

§ 21.207 Transmitter measurements. (a) The licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the carrier frequency of each transmitter operating in these services is maintained within the tolerance prescribed in § 21.101 or in the instrument of station authorization. This determination shall be made, and the results thereof entered in the technical log of the station, in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed.

(2) When any change is made in the transmitting equipment which may affect the carrier frequency or the stability thereof.

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months, for transmitters employing crystal-controlled oscillators.

(4) At intervals not to exceed one month, for transmitters not employing crystal-controlled oscillators.

(b) The permittee or licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the operating power of each transmitter which operates below 500 Mc. from a specified fixed location conforms to the requirements of § 21.106 (d). Where the transmitter is so constructed that a direct measurement of plate current in the final radio stage is not practicable, the operating power may be determined from a measurement of the cathode current in the final radio stage. When the operating power is determined from a measurement of the cathode current, the required record entry shall indicate clearly the quantities that were measured, the measured values thereof, and the method of determining the operating power from the measured values. This determination shall be made, and the results thereof entered in the station records, in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed.

(2) When any change is made in the transmitter which may cause the operating power to deviate by more than 10 percent above and 15 percent below the authorized power specified in the instrument of station authorization.

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months.

(c) The permittee or licensee of each station shall employ a suitable procedure to determine that the modulation characteristics of each transmitter and the signal radiated therefrom conform to the terms of the instrument of station authorization and to the applicable rules of this part. This determination shall be made, and the results thereof entered in the technical log of the station in accordance with the following:

(1) When the transmitter is initially installed.

(2) When any change is made in the transmitter which may affect the modulation characteristics.

(3) At intervals not to exceed six months.

(d) In the case of mobile transmitters, the determinations required by paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section may be made at a test or service bench: Provided, That the measurements are made under load conditions equivalent to actual operating conditions; And provided further, That after installation in the mobile unit, the transmitter is given a routine check to determine that it is capable of being received satisfactorily by an appropriate receiver.

(e) The determinations required by paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be made by a person holding a valid first or second class radio operator license who shall authenticate the accuracy of such entries by signing his name in the technical log of the station together with the class, serial number and expiration date of his license: Provided, however, That the licensee of the station may optionally have the required determinations made by any qualified engineering measurement service, in which case the required record entries shall show the name and address of the engineering measurement service as well as the name of the person making the measurements.

(f) Where automatic frequency monitors are employed which have an accuracy of at least one half of the required frequency tolerance of the transmitters with which they are associated, their use shall be deemed to meet the frequency checking requirements for the period during which they were so used. The use of a frequency monitor in lieu of frequency checks will be recorded in the station log in the same manner and at the same intervals as required in paragraph (a) (3) or (4) of this section.

§ 21.208 Station records. (a) Station records shall be kept in an orderly manner, and in such detail that the data required is readily available. Key letters, abbreviations or symbols may be used if proper meaning or explanation is set forth in the record.

(b) Each entry in the records of a station shall be signed by a person qualified to do so, having actual knowledge of the facts to be recorded.

(c) No record or portion thereof shall be erased, obliterated, or willfully destroyed within the required retention period. Any necessary correction may be made only by the person originating the entry who shall strike out the erroneous portion, initial the correction made and indicate the date of correction.

(d) The records required by this part shall be retained for a period of at least one year: Provided, That:

(1) Records involving communications incident to a disaster or which include communications incident to, or involved in, an investigation by the Commission and concerning which the licensee has knowledge, shall be retained by the licensee until specifically authorized in writing by the Commission to destroy them.

(2) Records incident to or involved in any claim or complaint of which the licensee has knowledge shall be retained by the licensee until such claim or complaint has been fully satisfied or until the same has been barred by statute limiting the time for the filing of suits upon such claims.

(e) For each station in these services the licensee shall maintain, in a permanently bound book, a technical log of the station operation showing:

(1) The results and dates of the transmitter measurements required by § 21.207, and the information concerning the identity of the person making such measurements as required by § 21.207 (e).

(2) Pertinent details concerning any servicing or maintenance performed on a transmitter which may affect its proper operation, including the date thereof, as well as the class, serial number and expiration date of the license of the responsible radio operator who shall authenticate the accuracy of such log by signing his name therein.

(3) The log entry concerning the class, serial number and expiration date of the radio operator license of the person responsible for the technical performance of a station, as required in the rules of this part, is not required to be repeated in the case of a person who is regularly employed as operator on a full-time basis at the station.

(f) For each station which is required to be operated by a licensed radio operator or by the holder of a restricted radiotelephone operator permit during the course of normal rendition of service, the person or persons responsible for the operation of the transmitting equipment each day shall sign his name in the station's technical log when entering upon duty, and again when leaving duty, at the station.

(g) For each station having an antenna structure which is required to be obstruction lighted, appropriate entries shall be made in the station's technical log as follows:

(1) The time the required obstruction lighting is turned on and off each day, if manually controlled.

(2) The time the daily check of the proper operation of the obstruction lights was made.

(3) In the event of any observed or otherwise known failure of an obstruction light:

(i) Nature of such failure.

(ii) Date and time the failure was observed or otherwise noted.

(iii) Date, time and nature of the adjustments, repairs, or replacements made.

(iv) Identification of Airways Communication Station (Civil Aeronautics Administration) notified of the failure of any code or rotating beacon light not corrected within thirty minutes, and the date and time such notice was given.

(v) Date and time notice was given to the Airways Communication Station (Civil Aeronautics Administration) that the required illumination was resumed.

(4) Upon performance of the three-month periodic inspection required by § 21.206 (3):

(i) The date of the inspection and the condition of all obstruction lights and associated obstruction lighting control devices, indicators and alarm systems.

(ii) Any adjustments, replacements, or repairs made to insure compliance with the lighting requirements and the date such adjustments, replacements, or repairs were made.

(h) An operating log record of all transmissions shall be kept for all stations showing therein the time and duration of each transmission and the identity of the station to which the transmission was directed: Provided, That such log keeping requirements are waived for any station which is authorized to operate during the course of normal rendition of service without a licensed radio operator in attendance or where the station is operated as an integrated part of a land-line public communication system under conditions where no traffic tickets are customarily used. However, in lieu of the operating log which a station is required to keep, a chronological record of such essential information in the form of traffic tickets, or on a separate sheet, is permissible. When such records are kept in lieu of an operating log, the minimum retention period thereof shall be as prescribed in paragraph (d) of this section, provision for shorter retention periods in other parts of the Commission's rules notwithstanding.

(i) Each entry in the station log shall normally be made in ink or indelible pencil: Provided, however, That in any case where it is impracticable to make such entries in the logs immediately, rough logs may be kept in the form of notes or memoranda which shall be transcribed into the station log as soon as possible by the person qualified to do so who has actual knowledge of such facts being recorded.

§ 21.209 Communications concerning safety of life and property. (a) Handling and transmission of messages concerning the safety of life or property which is in imminent danger shall be afforded priority over other messages.

(b) No person shall knowingly cause to be transmitted any false fraudulent message concerning the safety of life or property, or refuse upon demand immediately to relinquish the use of a radio circuit to enable the transmission of messages concerning the safety of life or property which is in imminent danger, or knowingly interfere or otherwise obstruct the transmission of such messages.

§ 21.210 Suspension of transmission. Transmission shall be suspended immediately upon detection by the station or operator licensee or upon notification by the Commission of a deviation from the technical requirements of the station authorization and shall remain suspended until such deviation is corrected, except for transmission concerning the immediate safety of life or property, in which case transmission shall be suspended immediately after the emergency is terminated.

§ 21.211 Operation during emergency. The licensee of any station in these services may, during a period of emergency in which normal communication facilities are disrupted as a result of hurricane, flood, earthquake, or similar disaster, utilize such station for emergency communication service in a manner other than that specified in the instrument of authorization: Provided, (a) That as soon as possible after the beginning of such emergency use, notice be sent to the Commission at Washington, D. C., and to the Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located, stating the nature of the emergency and the use to which the station is being put, and (b) that the emergency use of the station shall be discontinued as soon as substantially normal communication facilities are again available, and (c) that the Commission at Washington, D. C., and the Engineer-in-Charge shall be notified immediately when such special use of the station is terminated: Provided further, (d) That, in no event, shall any station engage in emergency transmission on frequencies other than, or with power in excess of, that specified in the instrument of authorization or as otherwise expressly provided by the Commission, or by law: And provided further, (e) That the Commission may, at any time order the discontinuance of any such emergency communication.

§ 21.212 Equipment, service and maintenance tests. (a) When construction and installation or modification of a station has been completed in accordance with the terms of a construction permit, the technical provisions of the application therefor and the applicable provisions of this part, the permittee is authorized to test the equipment for a period not to exceed 10 days: Provided, That:

(1) The Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located is notified 2 days in advance of the date on which the transmitter will first be tested in such manner as to produce radiation, giving the name of the permittee, station location, call sign, and frequencies on which tests are to be conducted.

(2) The Commission reserves the right to cancel, suspend, or change the date of beginning of such tests when such action may appear to be in the public interest, convenience or necessity

(3) All necessary precautions are taken to avoid interference to any other authorized station.

(4) No service to the public may be furnished over the facilities being tested during the equipment test period.

(b) When construction and equipment tests are completed in exact accordance with the terms of the construction permit, the technical provisions of the application therefor, and the other applicable provisions of this part, and after an application for station license has been filed with the Commission showing the station to be in satisfactory operating condition, the permittee is authorized to conduct service tests in exact accordance with the terms of the construction permit until the application for station license is granted: Provided, That:

(1) The Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located is notified 2 days in advance of the beginning of the tests.

(2) The Commission reserves the right to cancel or suspend, or change the date of beginning for the period of such tests as and when such action may appear to be in the public interest, convenience or necessity by notifying the permittee.

(3) Service tests shall not commence after the expiration date of the construction permit.

(4) Charges for service furnished during the service test period may be made, pursuant to the provisions of legally applicable tariffs (see § 61.62 of this chapter governing the construction, filing and posting of charges for interstate and foreign communication service).

(c) When a construction permit and license, or a construction permit and modification of license are issued simultaneously for a mobile station, units of such station may be placed in operation without equipment and service test notification to the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located, unless otherwise specifically required.

(d) The licensees of all stations in these services are authorized to make such routine tests as may be required for the proper maintenance of the station: Provided, That all necessary precautions are taken to avoid interference with other authorized services. The time taken for such tests shall be held to a minimum.

(e) The authorization for tests embodied in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not be construed as constituting a license to operate but as a necessary part of the construction.

§ 21.213 Station identification. (a) Each station in these services, except as hereinafter provided, shall identify itself by transmitting its assigned call sign in connection with each communication or exchange of communication. In the event of a prolonged series of communications, a station shall identify itself at least every half hour. However, stations continuously engaged in a public telephone message, radiophoto, or program transmission shall not be required to transmit identifying call signs when such identification would interrupt the continuity of the message, radiophoto or program that is being transmitted. In any such case, the identifying call sign shall be transmitted immediately following the conclusion of the message, radiophoto or program: Provided, That the requirement for transmission of station identification is waived for: (1) Fixed stations automatically transmitting or retransmitting by self-actuating means, and (2) fixed stations employing continuous radiation with multi-channel transmission.

(b) In lieu of the use of an official call sign, as prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, a station may identify itself as follows:

(1) A mobile station in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service or Rural Radiotelephone Service may identify itself by (i) the special mobile unit designation assigned by the licensee or (ii) its assigned telephone number, provided adequate records are maintained by the licensee to permit ready identification of the mobile station.

(2) A rural subscriber station may identify itself by its assigned telephone number, provided adequate records are maintained by the licensee to permit ready identification of the rural subscriber station.

(3) A station at a specified fixed location may identify itself by the name of the city in which the station is located.

(c) Wherever it appears that the manner of identification used by a licensee in lieu of the official call sign is unsatisfactory, the Commission may require the licensee to change the method of station identification.

(d) Where transmission of station identification is required such transmission shall be capable of being received and understood at an appropriate receiver without the use of special channeling or transmission unscrambling devices: Provided further, That:

(1) Where telephone is employed, station identification shall be by aural transmission.

(2) Where telegraphy, radiophoto or facsimile transmission is employed, the station identification shall be transmitted in the International Morse Code as "QRA de" followed by the station call sign.

(3) Where television transmission is employed, station identification shall be transmitted either visually for a period of not less than 5 seconds, or via aural or telegraphic transmission.

SUBPART E—MISCELLANEOUS

§ 21.300 Business records. Each licensee of radio facilities authorized under the rules of this part and required to file FCC Form L shall keep complete records of all phases of such operations distinctly separate and apart from any other business or activity conducted by the licensee.

§ 21.301 National defense; free service. Any common carrier authorized under the rules of this part may render to any agency of the United States Government free service in connection with the preparation for the national defense. Every such carrier rendering any such free service shall make and file, in duplicate, with the Commission, on or before the 31st day of July and on or before the 31st of January in each year, reports covering the periods of 6 months ending on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December, respectively, next prior to said dates. These reports shall show the names of the agencies to which free service was rendered pursuant to this rule, the general character of the communications handled for each agency, and the charges in dollars which would have accrued to the carrier for such service rendered to each agency if charges for such communications had been collected at the published tariff rates.

§ 21.302 Answers to notices of violation. Any person receiving official notice of a violation of the terms of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, any other Federal statute or Executive Order pertaining to radio or wire communications or any international radio or wire communications treaty or convention, or regulations annexed thereto to which the United States is a party, or the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, shall, within 3 days from such receipt, send a written answer to the office of the Commission originating the official notice. If an answer cannot be sent, or an acknowledgment made within such 3-day period, acknowledgment and answer shall be made at the earliest practicable date with a satisfactory explanation of the delay. The answer to each notice shall be complete in itself and shall not be abbreviated by reference to other communications or answers to other notices. If the notice relates to some violation that may be due to the physical or electrical characteristics of transmitting apparatus, the answer shall state fully what steps have been taken to prevent future violations, and, if any new apparatus is to be installed, the date such apparatus was ordered, the name of the manufacturer, and promised date of delivery. If the installation of such apparatus requires a construction permit, the file number of the application shall be given or, if a file number has not been assigned by the Commission, such identification as will permit ready reference thereto. If the notice of violation relates to inadequate maintenance resulting in improper operation of the transmitter, the name and license number of the operator performing the maintenance shall be given. If the notice of violation relates to some lack of attention to, or improper operation of, the transmitter by other employees, the reply shall set forth the steps taken to prevent a recurrence of such lack of attention or improper operation.

§ 21.303 Discontinuance, reduction or impairment of service. (a) If, for any reason beyond the control of the station licensee, the public communication service provided by a station in the Domestic Public Radio Services is involuntarily discontinued, reduced or impaired for a period exceeding 24 hours, the station licensee shall immediately give notification thereof in writing to the Commission at Washington 25, D. C., and the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located. In such cases, the licensee shall furnish full particulars as to the reasons for such discontinuance, reduction or impairment of service, including a statement as to when normal service is expected to be resumed. When normal service is resumed, immediate notification thereof shall be given in writing to the Commission at Washington 25, D. C. and the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located.

(b) No station which is subject to Title II of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, shall voluntarily discontinue, reduce or impair any public communication service without obtaining prior authorization from the Commission pursuant to the procedures set forth in Part 63 of this chapter. In the event that permanent doscontinuance of service is authorized by the Commission, the station licensee shall immediately give notification of the effective date thereof in writing to the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district in which the station is located and shall promptly send the station license to the Commission at Washington 25, D. C. for cancellation.

§ 21.304 Tariffs, reports, and other material required to be submitted to the Commission. Part 1 of this chapter, beginning with § 1.541, contains a summary of certain material and reports, including, but not limited to schedules of charges and accounting and financial reports, which must be filed with or submitted to the Commission.

§ 21.305 Reports required concerning amendments to charters, by-laws, and partnership agreements. Any amendments to charters, articles of incorporation or association, or partnership agreements shall promptly be filed with the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

SUBPART F—DEVELOPMENTAL AUTHORIZATIONS

§ 21.400 Eligibility. Developmental authorizations for stations in the Domestic Public Radio Services will be issued only to persons who are legally, financially and otherwise qualified to conduct experimentation utilizing hertzian waves for the development of engineering or operational data, or techniques, directly related to a proposed Domestic Public Radio Service or to a regularly established radio service regulated by the rules of this part.

§ 21.401 Scope of service. Developmental authorizations may be issued for:

(a) Field strength surveys relative to and precedent to the filing of applications for construction permits, in connection with the selection of suitable locations for stations proposed to be established in any of the regularly established radio services regulated by the rules of this part; or

(b) Development of proposed Domestic Public Radio Services to be governed by the rules and regulations of this part.

§ 21.402 Adherence to program of research and development. The program of research and development, as stated by an applicant in the application for construction permit or license or in the instrument of station authorization, shall be substantially adhered to unless the licensee is otherwise authorized by the Commission.

§ 21.403 Special procedure for the development of a new service or for the use of frequencies not in accordance with the table of frequency allocations. (a) An authorization for the development of a new service or for the use of frequencies not in accordance with the Table of Frequency Allocations will be granted for a limited time only after the Commission has made a preliminary determination of the following factors, as the case may require:

(1) That the public interest, convenience or necessity warrants consideration of the establishment of the proposed service or the use of the proposed frequency;

(2) That the proposed operation appears to warrant consideration to effect a change in the Table of Frequency Allocations;

(3) That some operational data should be developed for consideration in any rule-making proceeding which may be initiated.

(b) Applications for construction permits for stations which are intended to be used in the development of a proposed service shall be accompanied by a petition to amend the Commission's rules with respect to frequencies and such other items as may be necessary to provide for the regular establishment of the proposed service.

§ 21.404 Terms of grant; general limitations. (a) Developmental authorization normally shall be issued for one year, or such shorter term as the Commission may deem appropriate in any particular case, and shall be subject to cancellation without hearing by the Commission at any time upon notice to the licensee.

(b) Where some phases of the developmental program are not covered by the general rules of the Commission or by the rules of this part, the Commission may specify supplemental or additional requirements or conditions in each case as it may deem necessary in the public interest, convenience or necessity.

(c) Frequencies allocated to the service toward which such development is directed will be assigned for developmental operation on the basis that no interference will be caused to the regular services of stations operating in accordance with the Commission's Table of Frequency Allocations.

(d) The rendition of communication service for hire is not permitted under any developmental authorization unless specifically authorized by the Commission.

(e) The grant of a developmental authorization carries with it no assurance that the developmental program, if successful, will be authorized on a permanent basis either as to the service involved or the use of the frequencies assigned or any other frequencies.

§ 21.405 Supplementary showing required. (a) Authorizations for development of a proposed radio service in the Domestic Public Radio Services will be issued only upon a showing that the applicant has a definite program of research and development, the details of which shall be set forth, having reasonable promise of substantial contribution to these services within the term of such authorization. In addition to showing that the applicant is financially qualified or that adequate provision has been made to underwrite the costs of the proposed venture, a specific showing should be made as to the factors which the applicant believes qualify him technically to conduct the research and development program, including a description of the nature and extent of engineering facilities which applicant has available for such purpose.

(b) Expiring developmental authorizations may be renewed only upon the applicant's compliance with the applicable requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 21.406 relative to the authorization sought to be renewed and upon a factual showing that further progress in the program of research and development requires further radio transmission and that the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by renewal of such authorization.

§ 21.406 Developmental reports required. (a) Upon completion of the program of research and development, or, in any event, upon the expiration of the instrument of station authorization under which such investigations were permitted, or at such other times during the term of the station authorization as the Commission may deem necessary to evaluate the progress of the developmental program, the licensee shall submit, in duplicate, a comprehensive report on the following items, in the order designated:

(1) Report on the various phases of the project which were investigated.

(2) Total number of hours of operation on each frequency assigned.

(3) Copies of any publication on the project.

(4) A listing of any patents applied for, including copies of any patents issued as a consequence of the activities carried forth under the authorization.

(5) Detailed analysis of the result obtained.

(6) Any other pertinent information.

(b) In addition to the information included in paragraph (a) of this section, the developmental report of a station authorized for the development of a proposed radio service shall include comprehensive information on the following items:

(1) Probable public support and methods of its determination.

(2) Practicability of service operations.

(3) Interference encountered.

(4) Pertinent information relative to merits of the proposed service.

(5) Propagation characteristics of frequencies used, particularly with respect to the service objective.

(6) Frequencies believed to be more suitable and reasons therefor.

(7) Type of signals or communications employed in the experimental work.

(c) Normally, development reports will be made a part of the Commission's public records. However, an applicant may request that the Commission withhold from the public certain reports and associated material relative to the accomplishments achieved under developmental authorization, and, if it appears that such information should be withheld, the Commission will so direct.

SUBPART G—DOMESTIC PUBLIC LAND MOBILE RADIO SERVICE

§ 21.500 Eligibility. Authorizations for base stations and auxiliary test stations to be operated in this service will be issued to existing and proposed communication common carriers. Authorizations for mobile stations on land or on board vessels will be issued to communication common carriers or to individual users of the service. Applications will be granted only in cases where it is shown that (a) the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to render the proposed service, (b) there are frequencies available to enable the applicant to render a satisfactory service, and (c) the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant thereof.

§ 21.501 Allocation of frequencies. The following frequencies are available to the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service for the uses set forth below:

(a) For assignment, in accordance with the Zone Allocation Plan, to stations of communication common carriers which are also in the business of affording public landline message telephone service, for General and Dispatching Communications (provided that Signaling Communications may also be furnished by any facility rendering such General or Dispatching service):

Geographical zone allocation	Base station frequencies (Mc.)	Mobile and auxiliary test station frequencies (Mc.)

[3] Domestic control stations which were authorized to use these frequencies on the effective date of these rules may be authorized to continue operation on such frequencies until the investment in such facilities has been amortized, but in no event beyond April 1, 1955, under the condition that harmful interference is not caused to stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service and the Rural Radiotelephone Service. In any case where use of these frequencies is required by an applicant in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service or the Rural Radiotelephone Service for the purpose of providing any of the basic services relating thereto (i. e., for stations other than developmental or control), continued operation of control stations thereon will not be authorized beyond the term of the then effective authorization therefor.

(d) For assignment to base stations of communication common carriers for use exclusively in providing a one-way signaling service to mobile receivers:

35.58 Mc. 43.58 Mc.

If an applicant for authorization to provide an exclusive one-way signaling service provides, or proposes also to provide, General or Dispatching service in accordance with paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section, the application for a one-way facility should be supported with full information to show why the proposed signaling service could not be provided in connection with such General or Dispatching service.

(e) For assignment to stations using radio facsimile as an integral portion of common carrier message telegraph pick-up or delivery procedure:

[3] Assignments made to stations on frequencies in this band are subject to the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to operational fixed stations of reception of television stations on channels 4 or 5. Pending promulgation of more definite engineering criteria setting forth the conditions under which assignments can be made to stations which are less than 80 miles from television station assignments on channels 4 or 5, assignments will be made only to stations located 80 miles or more from locations at which television assignments on channels 4 or 5 are listed in the Commission's television assignment plan. Any authorizations granted for use of these frequencies will carry a condition that they are subject to modification or termination at any time without hearing, upon notice to the grantee, as may be required by the final determination of the proceedings in Docket No. 10315.

(g) For assignment to control and repeater stations functioning in conjunction with the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service, on a shared basis with all other radio services:

Stations operating on these frequencies must accept any interference that may be experienced from the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical equipment in the 890–940 Mc. band.[4]

[4] A repeater station normally will not be authorized unless the land mobile radio system with which it is associated is continuously open for public correspondence and the emissions of the repeater station are under the constant operational surveillance of the land mobile system's licensed operating personnel.

In any particular case, where it appears that unusual radio wave propagation conditions are involved, the Commission may require greater separation than indicated in the above table, or make assignments at lesser station spacing.

§ 21.504 Service area of base station. In this service, the limits of reliable service area of a base station are considered to be described by the contour within which the reliability of communication service is 90 percent, i. e., within the area circumscribed by such contour, nine out of every ten calls initiated by the base station can be satisfactorily received by the mobile unit on the first attempt to establish communication.

§ 21.505 Antenna height limit for base stations. In view of the fact that the predominant need for mobile communication service can usually be met by base stations within the classification set forth in § 21.502, and because widespread coverage is undesirable in areas where no substantial need exists for mobile communication service through a distant base station, base stations will not be authorized to employ transmitting antennas in excess of 500 feet above average terrain unless, upon an affirmative showing by the applicant, unusual and exceptional circumstances are established which warrant authorization of an antenna structure of greater elevation.

§ 21.506 Power limitation. Stations in this service shall not be permitted to exceed 500 watts effective radiated power and shall not be authorized to use transmitters having a rated power output in excess of the limits set forth in § 21.106 (b). A base station standby transmitter having a rated power output in excess of that of the main transmitter of the base station, with which it is associated, will not be authorized.

§ 21.507 Types of emission.[5] (a) Stations in this service shall normally be authorized to use only type A3 or F3 emission for radiotelephony: Provided, That stations operating in accordance with the provisions of § 21.501 (e) shall also be authorized to employ type A4 or F4 emission. The authorization to use the aforementioned types of emission shall be construed to include the use of tone signals or signaling devices whose sole function is to establish and maintain communication between stations.

(b) Other types of emission not described in paragraph (a) of this section may be authorized upon a satisfactory showing of need therefor. An application requesting such authorization shall fully describe the emission desired, shall indicate the bandwidth required for satisfactory communication, and shall state the purpose for which such emission is required.

§ 21.508 Authorized bandwith of emission. The maximum bandwidth of emission which will normally be authorized for the various types of emission used in this service are set forth below:

Type of emission	Authorized bandwidth (below 300 Mc.)	Authorized [illegible] Mc.
	Kilocycles	Kilocycles
A3	6	[illegible]
A4	10	[illegible]
F3	40	[illegible]
F4	36	[illegible]

§ 21.509 Modulation requirements. (a) The use of higher modulating frequencies than 3000 cycles per second is not authorized below 500 Mc.

(b) When amplitude modulation is used, the modulation percentage shall be sufficient to provide efficient communication and shall be normally maintained above 70 percent on peaks, but shall not exceed 100 percent on negative peaks.

(c) When phase or frequency modulation is used, the deviation arising from modulation shall not exceed plus or minus 15 kc from the unmodulated carrier below 500 Mc.

(d) Each transmitter authorized or installed after July 1, 1950 shall be provided with a device which will automatically prevent modulation in excess of that specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section which may be caused by greater than normal audio level: Provided, however, That this requirement shall not be applicable to transmitters having a rated power output of 2 watts or less.

§ 21.510 Permissible communications. (a) Mobile stations in this service are authorized to communicate with and through base stations only.

(b) Base stations in this service are normally authorized to communicate with associated land mobile stations in the same service: Provided, however, That base stations may also render service to properly licensed transient land mobile stations normally associated with another common carrier base station, including mobile units of Canadian registry. Under specific authorization from the Commission, service may be rendered to stations on board vessels. Authority to provide service to vessels may be granted upon a showing that the rendition of service to vessels will not degrade, by kind or extent of usage, the service which would be available, in the absence of service to vessels, to land vehicles receiving or subsequently requesting such services in the area: Provided, That any authorization to render service to vessels shall automatically terminate at the expiration of 60 days after inauguration of VHF public coastal service in the area involved, unless the Commission authorizes continuance of such service to vessels upon a satisfactory showing that there is some special need for continuance of such service in the public interest. Applications for authority to communicate with vessels shall be accompanied by a showing of the following:

(1) The total number of land mobile units being served through the base station.

[5] Further reference should be made to §§ 21.103 to 21.105, inclusive. The use of FO and AO emission in the 72–76 Mc. band will not be authorized, except for temporary or short periods necessary for testing incident to the construction or maintenance of a radio station.

(2) The total number of land mobile units to which it is reasonably expected that such service will be furnished at any time in the next 12 months.

(3) The total number of stations on board vessels proposed to be served through the base station.

(4) The total number of stations on board vessels to which it is reasonably expected that such service will be furnished at any time in the next 12 months.

(5) Other facilities available in the area providing service to mobile stations on board vessels.

(6) Such other information as may be deemed pertinent, showing that communication with vessels will not degrade or deny service to land vehicles receiving or requesting land vehicular communication service over the radio facilities of the base station, and that such service to vessels is necessary and desirable.

(c) Applications requesting renewal of authority to render service to vessels shall be accompanied by a current showing of information as required in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Mobile stations in this service may not be operated for the rendition of two-way communication service aboard aircraft.

(e) Base stations in this service may render one-way signaling service to receivers installed aboard vessels and aircraft, without special authorization from the Commission.

(f) Base stations in this service may be authorized to communicate with Rural Subscriber stations in the Rural Radiotelephone Service, where the use of wire lines is not practicable or feasible. Authorization for the rendition of such service may be granted upon a satisfactory showing that the rendition of such service will not degrade the mobile communication service rendered by the base station. Applications for authority to communicate with a Rural Subscriber station shall be accompanied by a supplementary showing as set forth in § 21.608.

(g) The base and mobile station facilities authorized in this service shall not be used in connection with any taxicab operations wherein the licensee is directly or indirectly interested through stock ownership or otherwise.

(h) Pursuant to the provisions of the "Convention Between the United States of America and Canada, Relating to Operation by Citizens of Either Country of Certain Radio Equipment or Stations in the Other Country", United States licensed mobile units in this service which are in Canada may be authorized by the Canadian Government to communicate with or through Canadian licensed common carrier base stations in the land mobile radio service. Canadian licensed mobile units in the common carrier land mobile radio service which are in the United States may communicate with and through United States licensed base stations in this service provided authority for such communication has been granted by the Commission upon proper application therefor.[6]

(i) Unless otherwise prohibited by agreements, laws, rules, regulations, etc. of the foreign country concerned, base stations in this service are not prohibited from rendering trans-border communication service for hire to mobile units in that country which are properly licensed to operate in the common carrier land mobile service of either country.

(j) Simultaneous use of more than one base station transmitter for communicating with a single mobile unit or a single fixed point is prohibited. However, where more than one base station transmitter is authorized to enable a base station to serve an extended area, separate base station transmitters may be used simultaneously in communicating with two or more separate mobile units or fixed points, provided such use does not result in degradation of the quality of service which could be rendered in the absence of use of more than one base station transmitter.

(k) Auxiliary test stations in this service shall normally be operated upon mobile station frequencies only for the purpose of determining the performance of receiving equipment remotely located from the base station with which it is associated: Provided, however, That a transmitter used in an auxiliary test station may be used as a standby transmitter upon the frequency of the base station with which it is associated whenever such base station is out of service for maintenance or repair.

§ 21.511 Base stations may be authorized only as part of integrated radio system. Base stations will be authorized only as a part of an integrated communication system wherein mobile units associated therewith are also licensed to the base station licensee (see § 21.15 (g)).

§ 21.512 Communication service to own mobile units. Upon filing an application for renewal of station license for a base station in this service, the applicant shall show that, during the preceding license period, at least an average of 50 percent of the mobile units on any channel to which communication service has been rendered by a base station have been used by persons not directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with the applicant. If an applicant is unable to meet such criterion, he shall show what efforts have been made to achieve use of the service by the public and offer such further showing or explanation as he may deem appropriate.

§ 21.513 Priorities for service to subscribers. Subscriptions to mobile telephone service shall be afforded in the following order of precedence and in chronological order of filing of request for service within each of the following customer categories:

[6] Reference should be made to paragraph (1) of § 21.29 concerning applications of Canadian licensees for authority to operate mobile transmitters in the United States.

(a) Category 1: Public Safety and Health. Official federal, state, county and municipal government agencies protecting the public safety and health; private organizations and persons engaged primarily in protecting the public safety and health such as physicians, hospitals, ambulance services, volunteer fire departments, American Red Cross, licensed protective patrols and armored cars and similar agencies.

(b) Category 2: Public Service. Contract carriers, common carriers, and public utilities (exclusive of taxicab and livery service), for communications other than correspondence of the general public.

(c) Category 3: Quasi Public Service. Emergency repair organizations, not included in Category 1, protecting health and property; press associations, newspapers and broadcasting stations.

(d) Category 4: Physically Handicapped. Persons who because of physical handicaps, operate specifically equipped vehicles and are unable to leave such vehicles without assistance.

(e) Category 5: Industrial. Gas or oil producing or drilling operators; producers and distributors of fuel and lumber and other construction materials and equipment; food processing, distribution and storage organizations; producers of substantial quantities of food; business concerns engaged in construction of housing and industrial or public works; taxicabs and livery service.

(f) Category 6: Traveling Public. Trains and watercraft where service is made available to passengers.

(g) Category 7: All others.

After initial establishment of service in accordance with the foregoing table of priorities, when facilities in a given area are insufficient to furnish service to all who desire mobile radiotelephone service, applications for new or additional mobile units shall be ranked within the categories noted above in order of date of filing and service shall be afforded such applicants as facilities become available, in descending order of precedence.

§ 21.514 Location of message center. The message center shall be so located that the major portion of the local exchange landline telephone calls, on behalf of subscribers to the service, to and from the message center, shall cost no more than the local message rate.

§ 21.515 Responsibility for operational control and maintenance of mobile units. The licensee of a base station in this service shall be responsible for exercising effective operational control over all mobile units with which it communicates. The proper installation and maintenance of such mobile units shall be responsibility of the respective licensees thereof.

§ 21.516 Changes in equipment. The licensee of a station in this service may replace equipment without authorization from the Commission provided that the replacement equipment is identical to that specified in the current instrument of authorization and that it is a "packaged" unit. Requests for authority to make other changes in equipment shall be submitted to the Commission in appropriate applications for construction permits or modifications thereof, as the case may require. No changes for which authorization is required shall be made without prior approval from the Commission.

§ 21.517 Control points and dispatch points.[1] (a) Dispatch points may be installed or removed without authorization. Dispatch point circuit facilities shall be installed in conformance with the requirements of paragraph (c) (2) of this section.

(b) To insure the maintenance of station control, means shall be provided whereby each dispatch point is maintained under the effective operational supervision of one or more control points.

(c) At each control point for a base station or fixed station in this service, the following facilities will be installed:

(1) Equipment to permit the responsible radio operator to monitor aurally, at such intervals as may be necessary to insure proper operation thereof, all transmissions originating at dispatch points under his supervision and of stations with which the radio station communicates.

(2) Facilities which will permit the responsible radio operator either to disconnect immediately the dispatch point circuits from the transmitter or immediately to render the transmitter inoperative from any dispatch point associated therewith.

SUBPART E—RURAL RADIOTELEPHONE [illegible]

§ 21.600 Eligibility. Authorizations for central exchange stations and inter-exchange stations will be issued to existing and proposed communication common carriers. Authorizations for rural subscriber stations will be issued to communication common carriers or to individual users of the service. Applications will be granted only in cases where it is shown that (a) the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to render the proposed service, (b) there are frequencies available to enable the applicant to render a satisfactory service and (c) the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant thereof.

§ 21.601 Allocation of frequencies.[1] (a) The following frequencies are available primarily to the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service and, on a secondary basis, to stations in the Rural Radiotelephone Service, provided no harmful interference is caused to stations in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service:

(c) Within the geographic areas in which the frequencies in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section may be assigned, and under the same limitations of shared usage and reservations concerning interference set forth therein, such frequencies may also be assigned to radio relay stations in the Rural Radiotelephone

[1] Inter-island and intra-island point-to-point telephone and point-to-point telegraph stations which were licensed, on the effective date of these rules, in the Fixed Public Services outside the continental limits of the United States, shall be licensed in this service and may be authorized to continue the use of the previously authorized frequencies on the condition that harmful interference will not be caused to services operating in accordance with the table of frequency allocations.

[1] Reference should be made to paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 21.116 for additional control point requirements and also to § 21.205 concerning operator requirements.

Service upon a satisfactory showing as to why it is impracticable to achieve the requisite communication without the use of radio relay stations operating on such frequencies.

§ 21.602 Transmitter power. Stations in this service shall not be authorized to use transmitters having a rated power output in excess of the limits set forth in § 21.106 (b) and a standby transmitter having a rated power output in excess of that of the main transmitter with which it is associated will not be authorized.

§ 21.603 Types of emission.[1] (a) Stations in this service within the continental limits of the United States normally shall be authorized to use only type A3 or F3 emission for radiotelephony. However, multi-channel type of amplitude or frequency modulated emission for radiotelephony may be authorized upon a satisfactory showing of need therefor and provided that the criteria concerning bandwith of emission set forth in § 21.604 (b) are satisfied.

(b) In addition to the types of emission which may be authorized under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, stations in this service outside the continental limits of the United States may be authorized to employ other types of amplitude and frequency modulated emission for telephony and facsimile upon a showing of need therefor.

(c) The authorization for use of the aforementioned types of emission shall be construed to include the use of tone signals or signaling devices whose sole function is to establish and maintain communication between stations.

§ 21.604 Authorized bandwith of emission. (a) The maximum bandwidth of emission which will normally be authorized for single channel operation in this service is set forth below:

Type of emission:	Authorized bandwidth (kilocycles)

(b) Bandwidths of emission greater than shown in paragraph (a) of this section may be authorized for multi-channel operation provided a showing is made that the efficiency of frequency utilization per derived communication channel is equivalent to or greater than on a single channel basis.

§ 21.605 Modulation requirements. (a) When amplitude modulation is used, the modulation percentage shall be sufficient to provide efficient communication and shall be normally maintained above 70 percent on peaks, but shall not exceed 100 percent on negative peaks.

(b) Each transmitted initially installed after the effective date of these rules shall be provided with a device which will automatically prevent modulation in excess of the maximum bandwidth of emission specified in the instrument of station authorization.

[1] Further reference should be made to §§ 21.103 to 21.105, inclusive.

§ 21.606 Permissible communications. (a) Rural Subscriber stations normally are authorized to communicate with and through the central exchange station with which they are associated. However, where the establishment of central exchange station facilities in this service is shown to be impracticable, Rural Subscriber stations may be authorized to communicate with and through a specified base station in the Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service pursuant to the provisions of § 21.510 (f).

(b) Central Exchange stations may communicate only with Rural Subscriber stations.

(c) Inter-Exchange stations may communicate only with other Inter-Exchange stations.

(d) The foregoing paragraphs of this section shall not be construed to prohibit stations in this service from communicating through radio relay stations authorized pursuant to the provisions of § 21.601 (c).

§ 21.607 Priority of service. Within the Rural Radiotelephone Service, the frequencies set forth in § 21.601 are intended primarily for use in rendition of public message telephone exchange service and to provide radio trunking facilities between public message telephone exchanges. However, the frequencies may also be used for the rendition of private leased line communication service provided that such usage will not reduce or impair the extent or quality of communication service which would be available, in the absence of private leased line service, to the general public receiving or subsequently requesting message telephone service over the public message telephone exchange and radio trunking facilities.

§ 21.608 Supplementary showing required with applications. (a) Each application for initial installation of a radio station in this service, or for installation of additional transmitters, or for authority to communicate with new points, shall be accompanied by a statement showing how the proposed construction, etc., will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity. Among other things, such statement should include information concerning:

(1) The number of communication cricuits (telephone, telegraph, etc.) to be derived initially from the radio facilities proposed to be established. In the case of a radio system involving one or more circuit branching points, indicate the number of such circuits to be derived in each section of the system.

(2) The availability, adequacy, and reliability of existing public communication facilities in the area proposed to be served by the proposed radio facilities, indicating:

(i) The type of each communication facility (open wire, cable, radio, etc.).

(ii) The number of communication circuits of each type, listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, currently being derived from each of these facilities.

(iii) The number of communication circuits to be added in each category to meet current and anticipated future load demands.

(iv) Current traffic load trends, as indicated by periodic traffic load studies, including an estimate as to future circuit requirements.

(v) Where more than 24 circuits are to be derived from the proposed construction, list the circuit groups currently operated, the number of circuits in each group, and the estimated number of circuits required in each group to meet load demands for the ensuing one year, two year, or five year period, as may be appropriate in order to provide adequate justification for said increases.

(b) After an application for the initial establishment of a radio station or for the addition of transmitters on an existing system has been granted, and where the number of communication circuits (i. e., telephone, telegraph, etc.) is to be expanded without otherwise affecting the terms of the applicable radio station authorization, authority to install necessary channelizing equipment shall be secured by an application filed pursuant to section 214 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Part 63 of this chapter, in those cases where the applicant is subject to the provisions of section 214.

§ 21.609 Rural subscriber and central exchange stations at temporary fixed locations. (a) Authorizations may be issued upon proper application for the use of frequencies listed in § 21.601 (a) by rural subscriber stations and central exchange stations for rendition of rural radiotelephone service to subscribers at temporary locations under the following conditions:

(1) Operation at any one location normally shall not exceed 6 months.

(2) The station shall be used only for rendition of communication service at a remote point where the provision of wire telephone facilities is not practicable.

(3) The antenna height employed at any location shall not exceed the criteria set forth in § 17.3 of this subchapter unless, in each instance, authorization for use of a specific maximum antenna height for each location has been obtained from the Commission prior to erection of the antenna. Requests for such authorization shall be accompanied by FCC Form 401–A (revised) completed in triplicate.

(b) Applications for authorizations to operate rural subscriber stations and central exchange stations at temporary locations under the provisions of this section shall be made upon FCC Form 401, and may be accompanied by completed FCC Form 403 for simultaneous consideration provided the equipment to be used is of "packaged" design. Blanket applications may be submitted for the required number of rural subscriber and central exchange transmitters.

§ 21.610 Notification of station operation at temporary locations. The licensee of stations which are authorized pursuant to the provisions of § 21.609 shall notify the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district wherein operation is to be conducted, at least two days prior to installation of the facilities, stating:

(a) The call sign and specific location of the transmitter.

(b) The identity and location of the station with which it will communicate.

(c) The exact frequency to be used.

(d) The commencement and termination dates of operation from each location. A copy of the foregoing notification shall be posted with the station license.

SUBPART I—INTERCITY RADIO SERVICE

§ 21.700 Eligibility. Authorizations for stations in this service will be issued to existing and proposed communication common carriers. Applications will be granted only in cases where it is shown that (a) the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to render the proposed service, (b) there are frequencies available to enable the applicant to render a satisfactory service, and (c) the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant thereof.

§ 21.701 Allocation of frequencies. (a) The following frequencies are available for assignment to Intercity stations in this service on a shared basis with stations in the Local Television Program Transmission Service:

(d) The following frequencies are available for assignment to microwave auxiliary stations in this service on a shared basis with other radio services:

27.23–27.38 Mc. Band

27.255 Mc.

Assignments to stations on frequencies in this band are subject to the condition that they must accept any interference that may be experienced from the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical equipment operating in the 26.96–27.28 Mc. band.

§ 21.702 Transmitter power. Stations in this service shall not be authorized to use transmitters having a rated power output in excess of the limits set forth in § 21.106 (b) and a standby transmitter having a rated power output in excess of that of the main transmitter with which it is associated will not be authorized.

§ 21.703 Emission limitations.[5] (a) Stations in this service operating on frequencies in the 72–76 Mc. and 890–940 Mc. bands shall be authorized to employ only amplitude modulated or frequency modulated emission for radiotelegraphy, radiotelephony and facsimile.

(b) Stations in this service operating on frequencies in the 27.23–27.28 Mc. band shall be authorized to employ only amplitude modulated or frequency modulated emission for radiotelephony.

(c) Except as limited by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, stations operating in the frequency bands listed in § 21.701 may be authorized to use amplitude modulated, frequency modulated or pulse type of emission for radiotelegraphy, radiotelephony, facsimile and television.

(d) In addition to the aforementioned types of emission, use of unmodulated emission in other than the 27.23–27.28 Mc. and 72–76 Mc. bands may be authorized upon a sufficient showing of need therefor.

(e) The maximum bandwidth of emission normally authorized in this service reception of television stations on channels 4 or 5. Pending promulgation of more definite engineering criteria setting forth the conditions under which assignments can be made to stations which are less than 80 miles from television station assignments on channels 4 or 5, assignments will be made only to stations located 80 miles or more from locations at which television assignments on channels 4 or 5 are listed in the Commission's television assignment plan. Any authorizations granted for use of these frequencies will carry a condition that they are subject to modification or termination at any time without hearing, upon notice to the grantee, as may be required by the final determination of the proceedings in Docket No. 10315.

[5] The use of FO and AO emission in the 72–76 Mc. band will not be authorized except for temporary or short periods necessary for testing incident to the construction or maintenance of a radio station.

shall not exceed the limits set forth below:

Frequency band:	Maximum bandwidth (kc.)
27.23–27.28 Mc	36
72–76 Mc	36
890–940 Mc	400
	(Mc.)
2450–2500 Mc	10
3700–4200 Mc	20
5925–6425 Mc	25
9800–9900 Mc	20
10,500–11,700 Mc	50
16,000–18,000 Mc	100
26,000–30,000 Mc	200

Above 890 Mc., bandwidths in excess of the above limits may be authorized upon a sufficient showing of need therefor. The maximum bandwidths set forth in this paragraph shall not be construed as authority to employ bandwidths of emission in excess of that specified in the instrument of station authorization.

§ 21.704 Modulation requirements. (a) When amplitude modulation is used, the modulation percentage shall be sufficient to provide efficient communication and shall normally be maintained above 70 percent on peaks, but shall not exceed 100 percent on negative peaks.

(b) Each transmitter operating on frequencies below 500 Mc. shall be provided with a device which will automatically prevent modulation in excess of the maximum bandwidth of emission specified in the instrument of station authorization.

§ 21.705 Permissible communications. Stations in this service are authorized to render any kind of communication service provided for in the legally applicable tariffs of the carrier, unless otherwise directed in the applicable instrument of authorization or limited by § 21.703.

§ 21.706 Supplementary showing required with applications. (a) Each application for initial installation of a radio station in this service, or for installation of additional transmitters, or for authority to communicate with new points, shall be accompanied by a statement showing how the proposed construction, etc. will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity. Such statement must include information concerning:

(1) The nature and classification of the communication services to be provided (e. g., telegraph, telephone, program transmission for radio, television broadcasting, or theatre television, etc.).

(2) The number of communication circuits (telephone, telegraph, etc.) to be derived initially from the radio facilities proposed to be established. In the case of a radio system involving one or more circuit branching points, indicate the number of such circuits to be derived in each section of the system.

(3) The availability, adequacy, and reliability of existing public communication facilities in the area proposed to be served by the proposed radio facilities, operated by the applicant or any other carrier, indicating:

(i) The type of each communication facility (open wire, cable, radio, etc.).

(ii) The number of communication circuits of each type, listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, currently being derived from each of these facilities.

(iii) The number of communication circuits planned to be added in each category to meet current and anticipated future load demands.

(iv) Current traffic load trends, as indicated by periodic traffic load studies, including an estimate as to future circuit requirements.

(v) Where more than 24 circuits are to be derived from the proposed construction, list the circuit groups currently operated, the number of circuits in each group, and the estimated number of circuits required in each group to meet load demands for the ensuing one year, two year, or five year period, as may be appropriate in order to provide adequate justification for said increases.

(b) After an application for the initial establishment of a radio station or for the addition of transmitters on an existing system has been granted, and where the number of communication circuits (i. e., telephone, telegraph, etc.) is to be expanded without otherwise affecting the terms of the applicable radio station authorization, authority to install necessary channelizing equipment shall be secured by an application filed pursuant to section 214 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Part 63 of this chapter in those cases where the applicant is subject to the provisions of section 214.

SUBPART J—LOCAL TELEVISION PROGRAM TRANSMISSION SERVICE

§ 21.800 Eligibility. Authorizations for stations in this service will be granted to existing and proposed communication common carriers. Applications will be granted only in cases where it is shown that (a) the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to render the proposed service, (b) there are frequencies available to enable the applicant to render a satisfactory service, and (c) the public interest, convenience or necessity would be served by a grant thereof.

(g) The following frequencies are available for assignment to microwave auxiliary stations in this service on a shared basis with other radio services:

27.23–27.28 Mc. Band

27.255 Mc.

Assignments to stations on frequencies in this band are subject to the condition that they must accept any interference that may be experienced from the operation of industrial, scientific, and medical equipment operating in the 26.96–27.28 Mc. band.

§ 21.802 Assignment of frequencies to mobile stations. The assignment of frequencies to mobile stations in this service shall not be limited to a single licensee within any area. However, geographical limits within which mobile units may operate may be imposed by the Commission.

§ 21.803 Transmitter power. Stations in this service shall not be authorized to use transmitters having a rated power output in excess of the limits set forth in § 21.106 (b) and a standby transmitter having a rated power output in excess of that of the main transmitter with which it is associated will not be authorized.

§ 21.804 Emission limitations. (a) Stations in this service operating on frequencies in the 27.23–27.28 Mc. band shall be authorized to employ only amplitude modulated or frequency modulated emission for radiotelephony.

(b) Except as limited by paragraph (a) of this section, stations operating in the frequency bands listed in § 21.801 may be authorized to use amplitude modulated, frequency modulated or pulse type of emission for radiotelephony and television. In addition to the aforementioned types of emission, use of unmodulated emission may be authorized upon a sufficient showing of need therefor.

(c) The maximum bandwidth of emission normally authorized in this service shall not exceed the limits set forth below:

Frequency band:	Maximum bandwidth (kc.)
27.23–27.28 Mc.	36
	(Mc.)
2450–2500 Mc.	10
3500–4200 Mc.	20
5925–7125 Mc.	[1] 25
9800–9900 Mc.	20
10,500–12,200 Mc.	50
12,700–13,200 Mc.	[1] 25
16,000–18,000 Mc.	100
26,000–30,000 Mc.	200

Above 2450 Mc., bandwidths in excess of the above limits may be authorized upon a sufficient showing of need therefor. The maximum bandwidths set forth in this paragraph shall not be construed as authority to employ bandwidths of emission in excess of that specified in the instrument of station authorization.

§ 21.805 Modulation requirements. (a) When amplitude modulation is used, the modulation percentage shall be sufficient to provide efficient communication and shall normally be maintained above 70 percent on peaks; but shall not exceed 100 percent on negative peaks.

(b) Each transmitter operating on frequencies below 500 Mc. shall be provided with a device which will automatically prevent modulation in excess of the maximum bandwidth of emission specified in the instrument of station authorization.

§ 21.806 Remote control operation of mobile television pickup stations.[1] (a) Mobile television pickup stations (including non-broadcast) may be operated by remote control from fixed locations for periods not to exceed 60 days, provided the Commission's Engineer-in-Charge of the radio district wherein operation is to be conducted shall be notified in writing by the licensee prior to operation of the facilities by remote control concerning:

(1) The call sign and specific location of the transmitter.

(2) The exact frequencies to be used.

(3) The location of the transmitter control point.

(4) The commencement and termination dates of operation from the specified location.

A copy of the foregoing notification shall be kept with the station license.

(b) The Commission may, upon adequate showing by the licensee as to why the television pickup operations should not be conducted under a fixed station authorization, renew the authority granted under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

[F. R. Doc. 54-1; Filed, Jan. 6, 1954; 8:45 a. m.]

[1] The maximum bandwidth of emission listed herein in the frequency bands 6875–7065 Mc. and 12,950–13,200 Mc., shall be subject to the final action taken on Docket No. 10345 (Amendment of Part 4 of this subchapter).

[47 CFR Part 7]

[Docket No. 10831]

AUTHORIZED TRANSMITTER-POWER

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

In the matter of amendment of § 7.134 (e) of the Commission's rules to permit public coast station use of the same power on 156.8 Mc. as licensed for use in the frequency band 161.85 to 162.05 Mc., Docket No. 10831.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has been requested by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company to amend § 7.134 (e) of the Commission's rules governing stations on land in the maritime services to permit public coast stations to use the same transmitter-power on 156.8 Mc. as licensed for use on the public correspondence frequencies 161.9 Mc. and 162.0 Mc. The Company has expressed the view that if a transmitter power in excess of 250 watts is necessary to provide satisfactory communication on the public correspondence frequencies, a comparable power should be permitted on the calling and safety frequency. The Company has further indicated that public coast station use of the same power on the calling and safety frequency 156.8 Mc. as licensed on the public correspondence frequencies would allow for similar station communication range on the frequencies and that the stations could then fully develop the potentialities of the calling and safety frequency for promoting safety and expediting contacts with vessels that cannot be called on the public correspondence channels.

3. The issue involved in this proceeding appears to concern the benefits to be derived from the use of the same transmitter-power (in excess of 250 watts) by public coast stations for operation on the safety and calling frequency 156.8 Mc as for operation on public correspondence working channels. To resolve this issue, it appears necessary, in part, to develop the effects which an increased power disparity among stations using 156.8 Mc, introduced by allowing public coast stations to use up to 1000 watts on the frequency, would have upon communications on the frequency; particularly intership communications. Under Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules, public coast stations may be authorized a maximum transmitter-power of 250 watts on the frequency 156.8 Mc; ship and limited coast stations, 100 watts; and marine utility stations, 10 watts. On working channels in the band 161.85 to 162.05 Mc, public coast stations may employ a maximum transmitter-power of 1000 watts. Since the proceeding concerns the use of a frequency which is common for safety and calling purposes to coast and ship stations working in the 152–162 Mc band, the Commission wishes to obtain the views of all concerned in the matter.

4. Interested persons are requested to file with the Commission on or before March 2, 1954, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. The Commission will consider all comments and briefs presented before taking further action with respect to the request for amendment of the rules.

5. The proposed rule making is issued under the authority of sections 303 (c), (e), (f), (h), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Fifteen copies of each brief or written report should be filed as required by § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Released: December 31, 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

LEARNER EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

ISSUANCE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (52 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U. S. C. and Sup. 214), and Part 522 of the regulations issued thereunder (29 CFR Part 522), special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wage rates lower than the minimum wage rates applicable under section 6 of the act have been issued to the firms listed below. The employment of learners under these certificates is limited to the terms and conditions therein contained and is subject to the provisions of Part 522. The effective and expiration dates, occupations, wage rates, number or proportion of learners, and learning period for certificates issued under the general learner regulations (§§ 522.1 to 522.14) are as indicated below; conditions provided in certificates issued under special industry regulations are as established in these regulations.

Single Pants, Shirts and Allied Garments, Women's Apparel, Sportswear and Other Odd Outerwear, Rainwear, Robes and Leather and Sheep-Lined Garments Divisions of the Apparel Industry Learner Regulations (29 CFR 522.160 to 522.168, as amended June 2, 1952, 17 F. R. 3818).

J. Freezer & Son, Inc., Rural Retreat, Va., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (men's dress and sport shirts).

Huntington Manufacturing Co., Inc., "Blue Ridge" Factory, 629 Tenth Street, Huntington, W. Va., effective 12-28-53 to 12-27-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (women's dresses).

Edward Hyman Co., Prentiss Plant, Prentiss, Miss., effective 12-24-53 to 12-23-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (work uniforms, pants, shirts, and coats).

F. Jacobson & Sons, Inc., Salisbury, Md., effective 12-31-53 to 12-30-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (shirts).

Jayson-York, Inc., East Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, York, Pa., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (sport shirts).

McAllisterville Shirt Factory, Box A, Juniata County, Fayette Township, McAllisterville, Pa., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (men's and boys' dress and sport shirts).

McKenzie Pajama Corp., Box 38, McKenzie, Tenn., effective 1-6-54 to 1-5-55; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (pajamas).

Madill Manufacturing Co., Madill, Okla., effective 12-22-53 to 6-21-54; 25 learners for expansion purposes (men's dress trousers).

Monleigh Garment Co., Yadkinville Highway, Mocksville, N. C., effective 1-5-54 to 1-4-55; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (pajamas).

The Morelle Manufacturing Co., 226-28 Center Street, Ashtabula, Ohio, effective 12-28-53 to 12-27-54; 10 learners for normal labor turnover purposes (dresses).

Rainfair, Inc., Wynne, Ark., effective 1-4-54 to 7-3-54; 50 learners for plant expansion purposes (dress pants).

Richfield Shirt Factory, Monroe Township, Juniata County, Richfield, Pa., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (men's and boys' shirts).

Salem Shirt Factory, Delaware Township, Mifflintown, Pa., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (men's and boys' shirts).

Troutman Shirt Co., Inc., Mooresville, N. C., effective 1-13-54 to 1-12-55; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (work shirts).

Troutman Shirt Co., Inc., Mooresville, N. C., effective 1-13-54 to 7-12-54; 20 learners for expansion purposes (work shirts).

Waverly Garment Co., Waverly, Tenn., effective 12-26-53 to 12-25-54; 10 percent of the total number of factory production workers for normal labor turnover purposes (work shirts and army clothing).

Wilmore Manufacturing Co., Wilmore, Ky., effective 12-23-53 to 12-22-54; 10 learners for normal labor turnover purposes (boys' and men's shirts).

Knitted Wear Industry Learner Regulations (29 CFR 522.68 to 522.79, as amended January 21, 1952, 16 F. R. 12866).

Wonderknit Corp., 120 West Grayson Street, Calax, Va., effective 12-28-53 to 12-27-54; 50 learners for expansion purposes (sport shirts and polo shirts).

Each certificate has been issued upon the employer's representation that employment of learners at subminimum rates is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, and that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available. The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided in the regulations and as indicated in the certificates. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, pursuant to the provisions of Part 522.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of December 1953.

ROBERT G. GRONEWALD,
Authorized Representative of the Administrator.

[Public Announcement 16]

SOUTH-COLUMBIA BASIN IRRIGATION DISTRICT, COLUMBIA BASIN PROJECT, WASHINGTON

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SALE OF FULL-TIME FARM UNITS

LANDS COVERED

DECEMBER 14, 1953.

SECTION 1. Offer of farm units for sale. It is hereby announced that certain farm units in the South-Columbia Basin Irrigation District, Columbia Basin Project, Washington, will be sold to qualified applicants in accordance with the provisions of this announcement. Applications to purchase farm units may be submitted beginning at 2:00 p. m., January 5, 1954.

The farm units hereby offered for sale by the United States are all in Block 16, Franklin County, Washington, and are described as follows:

The official plat of this irrigation block is on file in the office of the County Auditor, Franklin County, Pasco, Washington, and copies are on file in the office of the Bureau of Reclamation at Ephrata, Washington, and the Regional office at Boise, Idaho.

SEC. 2. Limit of acreage which may be purchased. The lands covered by this announcement have been divided into farm units. Each of the farm units represents the acreage which, in the opinion of the Regional Director, Region 1, Bureau of Reclamation, will support an average-size family at a suitable level of living. The law provides that with certain minor exceptions not more than one farm unit in the entire project may be held by any one owner or family. A family is defined as comprising husband or wife, or both, together with their children under 18 years of age, or all of such children if both parents are dead.

PREFERENCE OF APPLICANTS

SEC. 3. Nature of preference. Except for a prior preference given applicants for exchange under the provisions of the act of August 13, 1953 (67 Stat. 566), a preference right to purchase the farm units described above will be given to veterans (and in some cases to their husbands or wives or guardians of minor children) who submit application during a 45-day period beginning at 2 p. m., January 5, 1954, and ending at 2 p. m., February 19, 1954, and who, at the time of making application, are in one of the following five classes:

a. Persons, including those under 21 years of age, who have served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard of the United States for a period of at least ninety (90) days at any time between September 16, 1940, and July 3, 1953, inclusive, and have been honorably discharged.

b. Persons, including those under 21 years of age, who have served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard of the United States during the period prescribed in subsection a. of this section regardless of length of service, and who have been discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred during such period in the line of duty, or subsequent to a regular discharge, have been furnished hospitalization or awarded compensation by the Government on account of such wounds or disability.

c. The spouse of any person in either of the first two classes listed in this section, if the spouse has the consent of such person to exercise his or her preference right. (See subsection 7. c. of this announcement regarding the provision that a married woman must be head of a family.)

d. The surviving spouse of any person in either of the first two classes listed in this section, or in the case of the death or marriage of such spouse, the minor child or children of such person by guardian duly appointed and qualified and who furnishes to the examining board acceptable evidence of such appointment and qualification.

e. The surviving spouse of any person whose death has resulted from wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty while serving in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, or Coast Guard during the period described in subsection a. of this section, or in the case of death or marriage of such spouse, the minor child or children of such person by a guardian duly appointed and qualified and who furnishes to the examining board acceptable evidence of such appointment and qualification.

SEC. 4. Definition of honorable discharge. An honorable discharge means:

a. Separation from the service by means of an honorable discharge or by the acceptance of resignation or a discharge under honorable conditions.

b. Release from active duty under honorable conditions to an inactive status, whether or not in a reserve component or retirement.

Any person who obtains an honorable discharge as herein defined shall be entitled to veterans preference even though such person thereafter resumes active military duty.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED OF PURCHASERS

SEC. 5. Examining board. An examining board of three members has been appointed by the Regional Director, Region I, Bureau of Reclamation, to determine the qualifications and fitness of applicants to undertake the purchase, development, and operation of a farm on the Columbia Basin Project. The board will make careful investigations to verify the statements and representations made by applicants. Any false statements may constitute grounds for rejection of an application, and cancellation of the applicant's right to purchase a farm unit.

SEC. 6. Minimum qualifications. Certain minimum qualifications have been established which are considered necessary for the successful development of farm units. Applicants must meet these qualifications in order to be eligible for the purchase of farm units. Failure to meet them in any single respect will be sufficient cause for rejection of an application. No added credit will be given for qualifications in excess of the required minimum. The minimum qualifications are as follows:

a. Character and industry. An applicant must be possessed of honesty, temperate habits, thrift, industry, seriousness of purpose, record of good moral conduct, and a bona fide intent to engage in farming as an occupation.

b. Farm experience. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an applicant must have had a minimum of two years (24 months) of full-time farm experience, which shall consist of participation in actual farming operations, after attaining the age of 15 years. Time spent in agricultural courses in an accredited agricultural college or time spent in work closely associated with farming, such as teaching vocational agriculture, agricultural extension work, or field work in the production or marketing of farm products, which, in the opinion of the board will be of value to an applicant in operating a farm, may be substituted for full-time farm experience. Such substitution shall be on the basis of one year (academic year of at least nine months) of agricultural college courses or one year (twelve months) of work closely associated with farming for six months of full-time farm experience. Not more than one year of full-time farm experience of this type will be allowed. A farm youth who actually resided and worked on a farm after attaining the age of 15 and while attending school may credit such experience as full-time experience.

Applicants who have acquired their experience on an irrigated farm will not be given preference over those whose experience was acquired on a nonirrigated farm, but all applicants must have had farm experience of such nature as in the judgment of the examining board will qualify the applicant to undertake the development and operation of an irrigated farm by modern methods.

c. Health. An applicant must be in such physical condition as will enable him to engage in normal farm labor.

d. Capital. An applicant must possess assets worth at least $4,500 in excess of liabilities. Assets must consist of cash, property readily convertible into cash, or property such as livestock, farm machinery and equipment, which, in the opinion of the board, will be useful in the development and operation of a new, irrigated farm. In considering the practical value of property which will be useful in the development of a farm, the board will not value household goods at more than $500 or a passenger car at more than $500. Assets not useful in the development of a farm will be considered if the applicant furnishes, at the Board's request, evidence of the value of the property and proof of its conversion into useful form before execution of a purchase contract.

SEC. 7. Other qualifications required Each applicant (except guardian) must meet the following requirements:

a. Be a citizen of the United States or have declared an intention to become a citizen of the United States.

b. Not own outright, or control under a contract to purchase, more than ten acres of crop land or a total of 160 acres of land at the time of execution of a purchase contract for a farm unit.

c. If a married woman, or a person under 21 years of age who is not eligible for veterans preference, be the head of a family. The head of a family is ordinarily the husband, but a wife or a minor child who is obliged to assume major responsibility for the support of a family may be the head of a family.

WHERE AND HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

SEC. 8. Filing application blanks. Any person desiring to purchase a farm unit offered for sale by this announcement must fill out the attached application blank and file it with the Land Settlement Branch, Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, in person or by mail. Additional application blanks may be obtained from the office of the Bureau of Reclamation at Ephrata, Washington; Post Office Box 937, Boise, Idaho; or Washington, D. C. No advantage will accrue to an applicant who presents an application in person. Each application submitted, including the evidence of qualification to be submitted following the public drawing, will become a part of the records of the Bureau of Reclamation and cannot be returned to the applicant.

SELECTION OF QUALIFIED APPLICANTS

SEC. 9. Priority of applications. All applications, except those received from qualified exchange applicants prior to 2 p. m., February 19, 1954, which shall be given prior preference, will be classified for priority purposes as follows:

a. First Priority Group. All complete applications filed prior to 2 p. m., February 19, 1954, by applicants who claim veterans preference. All such applications will be treated as simultaneously filed.

b. Second Priority Group. All complete applications filed prior to 2 p. m., February 19, 1954, by applicants who do not claim veterans preference. All such applications will be treated as simultaneously filed.

c. Third Group. All complete applications filed after 2 p. m., February 19, 1954. Such applications will be considered in the order in which they are filed if any farm units are available for sale to applicants within this group.

SEC. 10. Public drawing. After the priority classification, the Board will conduct a public drawing of the names of the applicants in the First Priority Group as defined in subsection 9. a. of this announcement. Applicants need not be present at the drawing to participate therein. The names of a sufficient number of applicants (not less than four times the number of farm units to be offered for sale) shall be drawn and numbered consecutively in the order drawn for the purpose of establishing the order in which the applications drawn will be examined by the Board to determine whether the applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this announcement, and to establish the priority of qualified applicants for the selection of farm units. After such drawing, the Board shall notify each applicant of his respective standing as a result of the drawing.

SEC. 11. Submission of evidence of qualification. After the drawing, a sufficient number of applicants, in the order of their priority as established by the drawing, will be supplied with forms on which to submit evidence of qualification, showing that they meet the qualifications set forth in sections 6 and 7 of this announcement and, in case veterans preference is claimed, establishing proof of such preference, as set forth in section 3 of this announcement. Full and accurate answers must be made to all questions. The completed form must be mailed or delivered to the Land Settlement Branch, Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, within 20 days of the date the form is mailed to the last address furnished by the applicant. Failure of an applicant to furnish all of the information requested or to see that information is furnished by his references within the time period specified will subject his application to rejection.

SEC. 12. Examination and interview. After the information outlined in section 11 of this announcement has been received or the time for submitting such statements has expired, the Board shall examine in the order drawn a sufficient number of applications together with the evidence of qualification submitted to determine the applicants who will be permitted to purchase farm units. This examination will determine the sufficiency, authenticity, and reliability of the information and evidence submitted by the applicants.

If the applicant fails to supply any of the information required or the Board finds that the applicant's qualifications do not meet the requirements prescribed in this announcement, the applicant shall be disqualified and shall be notified by the Board, by registered mail, of such disqualification and the reasons therefor and of the right to appeal to the Regional Director, Region 1, Bureau of Reclamation. All appeals must be received in the office of the Land Settlement Branch, Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, within 15 days of the applicant's receipt of such notice or, in any event, within 30 days from the date when the notice is mailed to the last address furnished by the applicant. The Land Settlement Branch will promptly forward the appeal to the Regional Director.

If the examination indicates that an applicant is qualified, the applicant may be required to appear for a personal interview with the Board for the purpose of: (a) Affording the Board any additional information it may desire relative to his qualifications; (b) affording the applicant any information desired relative to conditions in the area and the problems and obligations relative to development of a farm unit; and (c) affording the applicant an opportunity to examine the farm units.

If an applicant fails to appear before the Board for a personal interview on the date requested, he will thereby forfeit his priority position as determined by the drawing.

If the Board finds that an applicant's qualifications fulfill the requirements prescribed in this announcement, such applicant shall be notified, in person or by registered mail, that he is a qualified applicant and shall be given an opportunity to select one of the farm units available then for purchase. Such notice will require the applicant to make a field examination of the farm units available to him and in which he is interested, to select a farm unit, and to notify the Board of such selection within the time specified in the notice.

SELECTION OF FARM UNITS

SEC. 13. Order of Selection. The applicants who have been notified of their qualification for the purchase of a farm unit will successively exercise the right to select a farm unit in accordance with the priority established by the drawing. If a farm unit becomes available through failure of a qualified applicant to exercise his right of selection or failure to complete his purchase, it will be offered to the next qualified applicant who has not made a selection at the time the unit is again available. An applicant who is considered to be disqualified as a result of the personal interview will be permitted to exercise his right to select, notwithstanding his disqualification, unless he voluntarily surrenders this right in writing. If, on appeal, the action of the Board in disqualifying an applicant as a result of the personal interview is reversed by the Regional Director, the applicant's selection shall be effective, but if such action of the Board is upheld by the Regional Director, the farm unit selected by this applicant will become available for selection by qualified applicants who have not exercised their right to select.

If any of the farm units listed in this announcement remain unselected after all qualified applicants whose names were selected in the drawing have had an opportunity to select a farm unit, and if additional applicants remain in the First Priority Group, the Board will follow the same procedure outlined in section 10 of this announcement in the selection of additional applicants from this group.

If any of the farm units remain unselected after all qualified applicants in the First Priority Group have had an opportunity to select a farm unit, the Board will follow the same procedure to select applicants from the Second Priority Group, and they will be permitted to exercise their right to select a farm unit in the manner prescribed for the qualified applicants from the First Priority Group.

Any farm units remaining unselected after all qualified applicants in the Second Priority Group have had an opportunity to select a farm unit will be offered to applicants in the Third Group in the order in which their applications were filed, subject to the determination of the Board, made in accordance with the procedure prescribed herein, that such applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this announcement.

If any farm units offered by or under this announcement remain unsold for a period of two years following the date of this announcement, the District Manager, Columbia River District, Bureau of Reclamation, may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of such units to qualified applicants without regard to the provisions of section 10 of this announcement.

SEC. 14. Failure to select. If any applicant refuses to select a farm unit or fails to do so within the time specified by the Board, such applicant shall forfeit his position in his priority group and his name shall be placed last in that group.

PURCHASE OF SELECTED UNITS

SEC. 15. Execution of purchase contract. When a farm unit is selected by an applicant as provided in section 13 of this announcement, the District Manager will promptly give the applicant a written notice confirming the availability to him of the unit selected and will furnish the necessary purchase contract, together with instructions concerning its execution and return. In that notice the District Manager will also inform the applicant of the amount of the irrigation charges assessed by the South-Columbia Basin Irrigation District or, if such charges have not been assessed, of an estimate of the amount of the charges for the first year of the development period, to be deposited with the District Manager.

If the purchase is made subsequent to April 1 of any year following the first year of the development period, a deposit will be required to cover the payment of water charges for the next full irrigation season following the purchase.

SEC. 16. Terms of sale. Contracts for the sale of farm units pursuant to this announcement will contain, among others, the following principal provisions:

a. Down payment. An initial or down payment of not less than 20 percent of the purchase price of the lands being purchased from the United States will be required. Larger proportions, or the entire amount of the price, may be paid initially at the purchaser's option.

b. Schedule for payment of balance; Interest rate. If only a portion of the purchase price is paid initially, the remainder will be payable within a period of 20 years following the date of the contract. No payments on the principal, except the down payment, will be required during the first three years and the District Manager may postpone such payments for as long as the first five years of the contract. Interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of three percent per annum, however, will be payable annually. When payments on the principal are resumed, they will be payable each year. The schedule of principal payments, which will be established by the District Manager, will provide for relatively small payments during the first years and larger payments during the later years of the contract period. Payment of any or all installments, or any portion thereof, may be made before their due dates at the purchaser's option.

c. Development requirements. In order that the irrigable area of the entire farm unit shall be developed with reasonable dispatch, each purchaser will be required, as a minimum, to clear, level, irrigate, and plant to crops by the end of each of the calendar years indicated below, and to maintain in crops thereafter, the following percentages of irrigable land as tentatively or finally classified:

Size of farm unit in irrigable acres	Percentage of land classified tentatively or finally as irrigable to be developed by end of each year. (Period will begin with year of purchase if contract is executed and water is available on or before May 1 of that year; otherwise period will begin with the next calendar year)
	2d year	3d year	4th year	5th year
10 to 40	75
41 to 60	50	75
61 to 80	50	65	75
81 to 100	40	60	65	75

d. Residence requirements. A major objective of the settlement program for the Columbia Basin Project is to assist and encourage the permanent settlement of farm families. In keeping with this objective, each purchaser will be required to do the following with respect to residence: (1) Within one year from the date of his contract, or within one year from the date that water is available to the irrigation block in which the farm unit is located, whichever is later, to initiate residence by actually moving onto the unit, such residence to be maintained by living thereon for not less than 12 months within an 18-month period following the initial date of residence, and (2) before receiving title to the unit under the purchase contract, to establish a permanent and habitable dwelling on the unit. The time for compliance with the initiation of residence may be extended by the District Manager for periods of as long as six months, upon his determination that an extension is necessary to avoid undue hardship to the purchaser and that it will not be detrimental to the orderly development of the irrigation block. The latest permissible date for initiating residence, however, will not be extended for more than one year in addition to the one-year period specified above. In extraordinary situations, the requirements under (1) and (2) above may be waived entirely upon the determination by the Regional Director, after recommendation by the District Manager, that such waiver will be in the interest of orderly development of the block. Any such waiver, however, shall be conditioned on the requirement that the purchaser reside close enough to his unit to permit him to develop it through his own efforts.

e. Speculation and landholding limitations. Purchase contracts and deeds covering farm units offered by this announcement will include provisions governing (1) maximum permissible sizes of holdings of irrigable land; (2) continued conformance of land to the area and boundaries of the farm unit plat for the block; (3) prices at which land can be resold during a period of five years following the date on which water is made available to the irrigation block; (4) disposal of land should it become excess at any time; and (5) limitations as to total area that may be operated on the project whether as lessee or as owner or both.

f. Copies of contract form. The terms listed above, and all other standard contract provisions, are contained in the purchase contract form, copies of which may be obtained by writing to the Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington.

IRRIGATION CHARGES

SEC. 17. Water rental charges. During the irrigation season of 1955, while some construction activities will be continuing and the system is being tested, it is expected that water will be furnished on a temporary rental basis to those desiring it. The terms of payment, which will be at a fixed rate per acre-foot of water used, will be announced by the Regional Director before the beginning of the irrigation season.

SEC. 18. Development period charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the repayment contract of October 9, 1945, between the United States and the South-Columbia Basin Irrigation District in the Columbia Basin Project, the Secretary of the Interior will announce a development period of ten years during which time payment of construction charge installments will not be required. This period probably will commence with the calendar year 1956. During the development period, water rental charges will average an estimated $5.50 per year for each irrigable acre as tentatively or finally classified. This figure is preliminary and subject to change because all the data needed to fix the charges are not available nor can they be obtained now. In any event, there will be a minimum charge per farm unit each year whether or not water is used. A notice establishing the details of the plan to be followed and announcing charges and governing provisions for the first year of the development period will be issued prior to January 1 of that year, by the Regional Director, who has the responsibility for fixing charges.

The present plans of the Regional Director are (a) to vary the minimum charge according to the anticipated relative repayment ability of the various land classes; (b) to provide for a small minimum charge for the first year and to increase it each year thereafter so that the charge for the tenth year will be approximately equal to the combined construction and operation and maintenance charge for the following year; and (c) to charge for water in excess of the amount furnished for the minimum charge on an acre-foot basis. The minimum charge will entitle each user to a quantity of water to be specified by the Regional Director, varying with the water requirement classification of the land and the size of the farm unit.

In addition to the water rental charges, the Irrigation District will levy an additional charge to cover administrative costs and probable delinquencies in collections.

SEC. 19. Construction period repayment charges—a. Operation and maintenance charges. After the development period has ended, water users will pay a charge for operation and maintenance of the project irrigation system which will be uniform for the irrigation blocks throughout the project. These charges may or may not be graduated among land classes. Assessment procedure will be left for the Irrigation District Board of Directors to determine, but, in any case, there will be an annual minimum charge per acre. In order to encourage careful use of water, this annual minimum charge will entitle the water user to one-half acre-foot of water per acre less than the amount of water normally required. The normal requirements for the various classes of land will be determined and announced as provided in the repayment contract with the South-Columbia Basin Irrigation District. Water in excess of the quantity covered by the minimum charge will be paid for on an acre-foot basis in accordance with an ascending, graduated scale.

b. Construction charges. The contract between the United States and the South-Columbia Basin Irrigation District requires the payment of construction charges for the project irrigation system during the forty years following the development period. The average construction charge per irrigable acre for the entire project will be $2.12 per year. Thus, the total construction charge payment will average $85 per irrigable acre, but that amount was predicated on an estimated total direct irrigation cost of not to exceed $280,782,180 as indicated by Article 6 of the repayment contract, an amount that it now appears is likely to be exceeded. The contract further provides that construction charges shall be graduated according to the relative repayment ability of the land; consequently, the charge per irrigable acre will be larger for the better lands than for the poorer lands. This allocation of construction charges by classes of land will be made as soon as practicable.

FRED G. AANDAHL,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

BROADCAST BUREAU

ORDER REDEFINING FUNCTIONS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December 1953;

It is ordered, Under the authority of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that:

A. The Broadcast Bureau shall consist of an Office of the Chief, a Broadcast Facilities Division, a Renewal and Transfer Division, a Hearing Division, a Rules and Standards Division, and a License Division.

The Bureau shall assist, advise, and make recommendations to the Commission with respect to the development of a regulatory program for the radio broadcast services except the international broadcast services and shall be responsible for the performance of any work, function, or activities to carry out that program in accordance with applicable statutes, international agreements, rules and regulations and policies of the Commission.

The Bureau shall perform the following functions:

1. Receive, examine, file, index and record applications in the radio broadcast services, issue authorizations in accordance with Commission instructions and directions, and make recommendations to the Commission thereon.

2. Participate in hearings involving applications, rule making and other matters which pertain to the radio broadcast services.

3. Make recommendations to the Commission concerning the promulgation of rules and standards in the radio broadcast services.

4. Participate in international conferences with respect to radio broadcast services.

5. Study frequency requirements in the radio broadcast services and make recommendations with respect to the allocation of frequencies and the drafting of frequency assignment plans in such services.

6. Confer with government and industry groups interested in the problems of radio broadcast services.

7. Study and establish technical requirements for equipment in the radio broadcast services in accordance with standards established by the Commission.

8. Perform all other functions or activities essential to carrying out the above duties and responsibilities.

9. Exercise such authority as may be assigned or referred by the Commission pursuant to section 5 (e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

B. The Bureau shall be under the direction of the Chief of the Bureau who, subject to the decisions and policy determinations of the Commission, shall plan, direct, and coordinate the radio broadcast services functions listed in paragraph A above.

C. The Broadcast Facilities Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall exercise responsibility for all functions indicated in the statement contained in A above, insofar as such functions pertain to standard (AM), FM, television and auxiliary broadcast services, excluding functions enumerated in D, E, F, and G below.

D. The Renewal and Transfer Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall exercise responsibility for all functions indicated in the statement contained in A above, insofar as such functions pertain to applications for renewals of licenses, transfer of control and assignment of licenses or construction permits, and shall exercise responsibility for maintaining the enforcement of applicable statutes, the rules and regulations and orders of the Commission insofar as they relate to radio broadcast stations.

E. The Hearing Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall exercise responsibility for all functions indicated in the statement contained in A above, insofar as such functions pertain to applications which have been designated for hearing and revocations of licenses or construction permits in the radio broadcast services.

F. The Rules and Standards Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall exercise responsibility for all functions indicated in the statement contained in A above, insofar as such functions relate to development or revision of rules and standards, international conferences, and special projects in the radio broadcast services.

G. The License Division shall be under the Direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall exercise responsibility for the receipt, initial examination, filing, indexing, recording and routing of all applications in the broadcast service, the clerical functions with respect to the issuance of broadcast authorizations, and for the maintenance of a public reference room in cooperation with the Docket Division of the Office of the Secretary where public information with respect to all broadcast matters and all docketed proceedings may be examined.

H. This order supersedes the Commission's order of February 14, 1952, Document No. FCC 52–149.

This order shall be effective immediately.

Released: January 4, 1954.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

INSURED MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS NOT MEMBERS OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING CALL FOR REPORT OF CONDITION AND ANNUAL REPORT OF INCOME AND DIVIDENDS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 (e) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, be it resolved that each insured mutual savings bank not a member of the Federal Reserve System, be, and hereby is, required to submit to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation within ten days after receipt of notice of this resolution a report of its condition as of the close of business Thursday, December 31, 1953, on Form 64 (Savings),[1] and a report of income and dividends for the calendar year 1953, on Form 73 (Savings).[1] Said report of condition and report of income and dividends shall be prepared in accordance with, "Instructions for the Preparation of Report of Condition on Form 64 (Savings) and Report of Income and Dividends on Form 73 (Savings)," dated June 1951.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File Nos. 54-205, 59-95]

NORTH AMERICAN CO. AND UNION ELECTRIC CO. OF MISSOURI

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER PURSUANT TO INTERNAL REVENUE CODE AND RELEASING CERTAIN JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO CONSUMMATION OF PLAN

DECEMBER 30, 1953.

In the matter of the North American Company, Union Electric Company of Missouri (File No. 54–205); the North American Company, (File No. 59–95).

The Commission having issued its findings and opinion and order on October 31, 1952, approving a plan for the liquidation and dissolution of the North American Company ("North American"), pursuant to section 11(e) of the act; said plan having been joined in to the extent necessary for its consummation by Union Electric Company of Missouri ("Union"); said plan, on December 11, 1952, having been ordered enforced by the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey; North American having on said date declared said plan to be effective as of January 20, 1953; said plan having become effective; North American having effected the initial partial liquidating distribution of shares of $10 par value common stock of Union to stockholders of North American on January 20, 1953, on the basis of one share of Union common stock with respect to each ten shares of North American common stock held of record on December 22, 1952;

It appearing that in connection with and as a part of the liquidation and dissolution of North American, as required by the plan, North American has proposed to make a second partial liquidating distribution of shares of $10 par value common stock of Union to stockholders of North American on January 21, 1954, on the basis of one share of Union common stock with respect to each ten shares of North American common stock held of record on December 21, 1953, and that in connection with such proposed distribution North American and Union have proposed that North American surrender for conversion 796,124 shares of no par value common stock of Union and receive 796,124 shares of $10 par value common stock of Union as part of the securities required for distribution on January 21, 1954, to the common stockholders of North American;

North American having requested the Commission to issue an appropriate order, with respect to said transactions, under Supplement R of Chapter 1 and section 1808 (f) of Chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended;

The Commission in said order of October 31, 1952, having reserved jurisdiction, inter alia, with respect to (i) the amount of cash to be paid by North American to its stockholders in lieu of fractional shares of such Union common stock which would otherwise be distributed to such stockholders, and (ii) the terms and provisions of the assistance to be provided by North American to its stockholders receiving four shares or less of such Union common stock, in interim distributions as proposed in said plan, to enable such stockholders to dispose of such shares without brokerage charges or commissions;

North American having advised the Commission that cash will be paid at the rate of $23.125 per share of $10 par value Union common stock in lieu of fractional shares of such Union common stock in connection with the second partial liquidating distribution to be effected by North American on January 21, 1954; and North American having further advised the Commission that arrangements have been made with the firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane which will ensure to stockholders receiving four shares or less of such Union common stock and who desire to sell the same, a price, barring unusual market conditions, approximating the closing sale price, but not less than the closing bid price, on January 20, 1954, of such Union common stock on the New York Stock Exchange;

The Commission deeming it appropriate and in the public interest to grant North American's request for an order pursuant to Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

The Commission having considered the entire record and finding that the proposals respecting the cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of such Union common stock and the assistance to be rendered those stockholders of North American receiving four shares or less of such Union common stock who desire to sell the same, are fair and equitable and meet the other applicable standards of the act, and the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to such matters should be released to the extent indicated below;

It is hereby ordered and recited and the Commission finds, That the proposed surrender by North American to Union of 796,124 shares of no par value common stock of Union, represented by certificates Nos. NC79 through NC83, for conversion and the proposed issue by Union and the receipt by North American in exchange therefor upon such conversion of 796,124 shares of $10 par value common stock of Union, represented by certificate No. TNB643, in connection with and as part of the liquidation and dissolution of North American and as authorized or permitted by the order of this Commission of October 31, 1952, and in obedience thereto, are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification required to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It is further ordered, That in connection with the second partial liquidating distribution of shares of $10 par value common stock of Union, as proposed in the plan, jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, released with respect to (a) the amount of cash to be paid to the holders of common stock of North American in lieu of fractional shares of such Union common stock and (b) the assistance to be rendered the North American stockholders receiving four shares or less of such Union common stock who desire to sell the same.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved to enter such other or further orders conforming to the requirements of Supplement R of Chapter I and section 1808 (f) of Chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with respect to all other matters as to which jurisdiction has heretofore been reserved and not herewith specifically released.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

[Declaration of Disaster Area 12]

CALIFORNIA

DECLARATION OF DISASTER AREA

Whereas, it has been reported that on or about December 30, 1953, because of the disastrous effect of forest fires, damage resulted to residences and business property located in certain areas in the State of California; and

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected; and

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act of 1953;

Now, therefore, as Acting Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 207(b) of the Small Business Act of 1953 may be received and considered by the SBA Branch Office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the following county (hereinafter referred to as "the disaster area") suffered damage or other destruction as a result of the catastrophe above referred to:

County of Los Angeles: Small Business Administration, Branch Office, 117 West Ninth Street, Suite 711, Los Angeles 15, Calif.

2. Special field offices will not be established to receive and process such applications.

3. No disaster loan application from any resident or firm situated in the disaster area will be accepted under the authority of this order subsequent to July 31, 1954.

Dated: January 4, 1954.

WENDELL B. BARNES,
Acting Administrator.

3. Effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, paragraph (b–1) of § 22.1 and paragraph (e) (2) of § 22.11 are revoked; subparagraph (1) of § 22.11 (e) is designated as paragraph (e); §§ 22.6, 22.7, 22.9 (a) and (e), 22.10 (a) and (c), and 22.11 (a) and (c) are amended; § 22.11 (f) is amended and is designated as § 22.10 (d). In the main these amendments are the result of the reorganization of the Commission in which the function of adjudicating veterans' appeals was transferred from the Chief Law Officer to the Chief, Appeals Examining Office.

§ 22.6 Where appeals shall be filed. (a) Appeals from Federal employees in the Metropolitan area of Washington, D. C., and outside the continental limits of the United States (except Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands) and employees of the District of Columbia Government shall be submitted to the Chief, Appeals Examining Office, Bureau of Departmental Operations, United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

(b) Appeals from all other employees shall be submitted to the director of the appropriate civil service region or manager of any branch regional office.

§ 22.7 Preliminary consideration of appeals in the Commission. When an appeal is received, it will be examined for the purpose of determining whether or not it is within the scope of the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944, as amended, and the regulations in this part. The decision in this respect will be made by the Chief, Appeals Examining Office or regional director, as appropriate. If it is determined that the appeal is not within the scope of section 14, the employee and his designated representative will be so advised and informed of the right to make a request for reconsideration and to submit evidence and representations in support thereof. If, upon reconsideration, it is again determined that the appeal is not within the scope of the law and regulations, the employee and his designated representative will be advised of the decision and the right of further appeal to the Commissioners as provided in § 22.11. Where the appeal is found to be within the scope of the law and regulations, it will be docketed for investigation and adjudication and the employee and his designated representative and the employing agency will be so advised.

§ 22.9 Hearings—(a) Right to appear personally or by representative. Appellants shall have the right to a hearing and to appear personally or through or accompanied by a designated representative in connection with their appeals to the Appeals Examining Office or the regional office as the case may be. Employing agencies shall also have the right to participate in such hearings. Both parties shall have the right to produce witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses in hearings. If an appellant has expressed a desire for a hearing, arrange-the relevant portions of the testimony. At the conclusion of the hearing, these notes shall be summarized and, when agreed to in writing by all parties concerned, the summary shall constitute the report of the hearing. If the examiner and the parties cannot agree on the summary, the parties shall be permitted to submit, in writing, exceptions to any part of the summary that they question, and such exceptions shall be considered in connection with the making of the finding and recommendation. Hearings shall not be open to the general public or the press. Attendance shall be limited to persons having a direct connection with the appeal.

§ 22.10 Decision in the Commission—(a) By whom made; contents. (1) The decision on the appeal shall be made by the Chief, Appeals Examining Office or the regional director, as appropriate, in a finding consisting of an analysis of the evidence, the reasons for the conclusions reached, and the recommendation for action to be taken by the employing agency concerned.

(2) A recommendation may be made to the employing agency for corrective action, including restoration of the employee to duty retroactively to the effective date of the discharge, suspension for more than 30 days, furlough without pay, or reduction in rank or compensation, as the case may be.

* * * * *

(c) Report by agencies to Commission of action taken or proposed to be taken on finding favorable to employee. When the finding and recommendation is that the employee be restored to his position, or is otherwise favorable to the employee, the employing agency will, at the time the finding and recommendation is transmitted to it, be requested to report to the Chief, Appeals Examining Office or the regional office, as the case may be, within seven (7) days of the receipt of such finding and recommendation, regarding the action taken or proposed to be taken by the employing agency.

(d) Finality of recommendation of Commission. It shall be mandatory for administrative officers of employing agencies to take such corrective action as the Commission finally recommends on appeals. If the employing agency does not submit a further appeal to the Commissioners within seven (7) days after the date of receipt of a finding and recommendation of the Chief, Appeals Examining Office or regional office that are favorable to the employee, the recommendation shall become immediately operative and must be put into effect.

§ 22.11 Further appeals to the Commissioners—(a) Time limit for filing. An appeal may be made by the employee or the employing agency from a decision of the Chief, Appeals Examining Office or regional director to the Commissioners, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. within seven (7) days of the date of receipt of notification of the decision. This time limit may be extended in the discretion of the Commission only upon a showing that circumstances beyond the control of the employee or the employing agency prevented the filing of a further appeal within the prescribed seven (7) days.

* * * * *

(c) Board of Appeals and Review procedures. The Board of Appeals and Review will review the entire record of such further appeals. In its discretion, the Board may afford the parties an opportunity to appear personally and present oral arguments and representations on the procedural aspects of the case and merits of the appeal, but no evidence will be considered by the Board which could have been submitted at the time of the original appeal to the Appeals Examining Office or regional office. If alleged new evidence is offered which was not available at the time of original appeal, the Board will consider whether the evidence is actually new and of such material consequence that the case should be remanded to the office of original jurisdiction. If the case is remanded, the appeal will begin anew in the office of original jurisdiction. In exceptional cases the Board may in its discretion receive and consider new evidence without remanding the case and may afford the parties an opportunity to produce witnesses and cross-examine witnesses.

* * * * *

(e) Reopened appeals. The Commissioners may in their discretion, when in their judgment such action appears warranted by the circumstances, reopen an appeal at the request of the appellant, or his designated representative, or the employing agency concerned and may grant both parties an opportunity for a personal appearance. In connection with such reopened appeals, both parties will be afforded an opportunity to submit briefs or written representations.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Tangerine Reg. 144]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.658 Tangerine Regulation 144—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of tangerines, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than January 8, 1954. Shipments of tangerines grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and, unless sooner terminated, will so continue until January 11, 1954; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation subsequent to January 7, 1954, and in the manner herein provided, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on January 5; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such tangerines; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of tangerines; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Tangerine Regulation 143 (§ 933.657; 19 F. R. 9) is hereby terminated as of the effective time of this section.

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., January 8, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., January 18, 1954, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, that do not grade at least U. S. No. 2; or

(ii) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, that are of a size smaller than 2$\frac{4}{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of tangerines, smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Tangerines (§§ 51.1810 to 51.1836 of this title).

(3) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "U. S. No. 2" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Tangerines (§§51.1810 to 51.1836 of this title).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

PART 963—MILK IN STARK COUNTY, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

§ 963.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order, effective not later than January 6, 1954. Any delay beyond that date in making this order amending the order effective will tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area. The changes effected by this order amending the order do not require persons affected to make substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date. Proposed amendments which would result in changes similar to those effected by this order amending the order were considered at a public hearing on September 24 and 25, 1953; a recommended decision in this proceeding, to which interested parties were given an opportunity to file written exceptions, was issued on December 8, 1953; and a decision in this proceeding was issued on December 31, 1953. Under these circumstances persons affected by this order amending the order have been afforded a reasonable time within which to prepare for its effective date. Therefore, good cause exists, pursuant to section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1000) for making this order amending the order effective January 1, 1954.

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations or producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, amending the order), of more than 50 percent of the volume of the milk covered by this order amending the order which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order amending the order is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period (October 1953) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Stark County, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. In § 963.41 (b) delete the word "or" at the end of subparagraph (4), substitute a semicolon for the period at the end of subparagraph (5) and add the word "or", and add a subparagraph (6) to read as follows:

(6) Disposed of in bulk as milk, skim milk, or cream during any of the months of March through August to a manufacturer of candy, soup, or bakery products who does not dispose of any milk in fluid form.

2. Change § 963.51 to read as follows:

§ 963.51 Class I milk prices. The minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for butterfat and skim milk in producer milk received by such handler during the month which is classified as Class I milk shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Add to the basic formula price the following amount for the month indicated:

Month:	Amount
April, May, and June	$0.95
February, March, and July	1.40
All others	1.85

Provided, That in computing the price to be paid by any handler for butterfat and skim milk contained in producer milk which was received by such handler during the month at a pool plant for which the handler does not hold a permit from the health authorities of either of the cities of Alliance, Canton, or Massillon, Ohio, and which is classified as Class I milk, the amounts to be added to the basic formula price pursuant to this paragraph shall be 25 cents less in each month than the amounts indicated in this paragraph.

(b) Add or subtract from the result computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section a "supply-demand adjustment" computed as follows:

(1) Compute a "current utilization percentage" by dividing the combined total receipts of milk from producers during the first and second preceding months under this order and under Order No. 75 regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area by the total combined utilization of milk in Class I by handlers regulated under the two orders, multiplying the result by 100, and rounding to the nearest whole number;

(2) Compute a "net utilization percentage" by subtracting from the current utilization percentage computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph the appropriate "standard utilization percentage" shown below:

Month for which the price is being computed:	Standard utilization percentage
January	117
February	121
March	125
April	131
May	141
June	157
July	165
August	149
September	133
October	129
November	123
December	121

(3) The amount of the supply-demand adjustment shall be as follows:

Net utilization percentage:	Amount (cents)
+13 or over	−25
+10 or +11	−19
+7 or +8	−13
+4 or +5	−7
+2 to −2	0
−4 or −5	+7
−7 or −8	+13
−10 or −11	+19
−13 or below	+25

When the net utilization percentage does not fall within one of the above tabulated brackets, the supply-demand adjustment shall be determined by the adjacent bracket which is the same as or nearest to the bracket used in the previous month.

(c) The price per hundredweight of butterfat classified as Class I shall be determined by multiplying by 130 the price per pound of butter as described in § 963.50 (b) (1).

(d) From the price computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section subtract an amount equal to the price per hundredweight of butterfat determined pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section multiplied by 0.035, and divide the remainder by 0.965. The result shall be the price per hundredweight of skim milk classified as Class I.

3. Change § 963.52 (a) to read as follows:

(a) Multiply the basic formula price computed pursuant to § 963.50 by a factor obtained by dividing the price computed pursuant to § 963.50 (c) into the amount computed pursuant to § 963.50 (c) (1).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753 as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of January 1954 to be effective on and after the 6th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Interstate Transportation of Animals and Poultry

[B. A. I. Order 388, Revised, Amdt. 16]

PART 76—HOG CHOLERA, SWINE PLAGUE, AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE SWINE DISEASES

SUBPART B—VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

DESIGNATION OF AREAS IN WHICH SWINE ARE AFFECTED WITH VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Administrator of the Agricultural Research Administration by § 76.27 of Subpart B, as amended, Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations (18 F. R. 3637), § 76.27a of said Subpart B (18 F. R. 3829, as amended) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 76.27a Designation of areas in which swine are affected with vesicular exanthema. The following areas are hereby designated as areas in which swine are affected with vesicular exanthema:

The State of California;

The Town of Manchester in Hartford County, in Connecticut;

The Town of Lewiston in Androscoggin County, that area consisting of the Towns of Portland, South Portland, Westbrook, Cape Elizabeth and Scarboro, in Cumberland County, and the Towns of Saco, Biddeford, Kennebunk, Alfred and Sanford in York County, that area consisting of the Towns of Cumberland and Yarmouth, in Cumberland County, and that area consisting of the Towns of Chelsea and Hallowell in Kennebec County, in Maine;

That area consisting of Hampden, Worcester, Middlesex, Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, Bristol, and Plymouth Counties, in Massachusetts;

Eagle Township in Clinton County, Oneida and Roxand Townships in Eaton County, and Danby Township in Ionia County, in Michigan;

Atlantic, Bergen, Camden, Gloucester, Hudson, Hunterdon, and Morris Counties, that area consisting of Union, Middlesex, Monmouth, and Ocean Counties, that area in Lower Township in Cape May County lying east of U. S. Highway No. 9, that area in Dennis Township in Cape May County bounded by the Belleplain State Forest on the south and east and State Highway No. 550 on the north and west and State Highway Spur No. 550 on the west, and all of Burlington County except Delran, Washington, Shamong, Tabernacle, and Bass River Townships, in New Jersey;

The Town of Poland in Chautauqua County, the Town of Poughkeepsie in Dutchess County, and that area in the Town of Clarkstown lying north of New York State Route No. 59 in Rockland County, in New York;

Bucks and Delaware Counties, in Pennsylvania;

That area in Bell County lying north of U. S. Highway No. 190 and west of State Highways No. 36 and No. 317, in Texas.

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon issuance.

Section 76.27 of Subpart B, as amended, Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations (18 F. R. 3637), quarantines the areas so designated.

The amendment designates the following as areas in which swine are affected with vesicular exanthema in addition to the areas heretofore designated:

Eagle Township in Clinton County, Oneida and Roxand Townships in Eaton County, and Danby Township, in Ionia County, in Michigan, and the Town of Poland in Chautauqua County, in New York.

Hereafter, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine and carcasses, parts and offal of swine from or through quarantined areas contained in 9 CFR, Part 76, Subpart B, as amended (18 F. R. 3636, as amended), apply to these areas.

The amendment excludes from the areas heretofore designated as areas in which swine are affected with vesicular exanthema:

That area in Fulton County lying south and west of State Highways Nos. 139 and 154 and west of U. S. Highway No. 29 excluding Fort McPherson, in Georgia;

All of Androscoggin County except the Town of Lewiston, all of Cumberland County except the Towns of Cape Elizabeth, Cumberland, Portland, Scarboro, South Portland, Westbrook, and Yarmouth, all of Kennebec County except the Towns of Hallowell and Chelsea, and all of York County except the Towns of Alfred, Biddeford, Kennebunk, Saco, and Sanford, in Maine;

That area in Atascosa County lying west of State Highway No. 346 and north of State Highway No. 173, in Texas.

The Administrator of the Agricultural Research Administration has determined that swine in these areas are not now affected with the disease, and that the quarantine of such areas is no longer required to prevent the dissemination thereof. Accordingly, these areas are no longer quarantined under said § 76.27, and the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of swine and carcasses, parts and offal of swine from or through quarantined areas contained in 9 CFR, Part 76, Subpart B, as amended (18 F. R. 3636, as amended), no longer apply to such areas. However, the restrictions pertaining to such movement from non-quarantined areas contained in said Subpart B, as amended, apply thereto.

The effect of the amendment is to impose certain further restrictions necessary to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema, a contagious, infectious, and communicable disease of swine, and to relieve certain restrictions presently imposed. The amendment must be made effective immediately to accomplish its purpose in the public interest and to be of maximum benefit to persons subject to the restrictions which are relieved. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to the amendment are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making it effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 259—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

FORMS FOR PERIODIC ACCOUNTING REPORTS

On December 7, 1953, the Securities and Exchange Commission invited all interested persons to submit data, views and comments on a proposal to revise Form U-13-60 (§ 259.313), which is the annual reporting form for mutual and subsidiary service companies under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (Holding Company Act Release No. 12235–X). The Commission has considered the data, views and comments submitted, all of which are favorable, and has adopted the revisions as proposed. This action has been taken pursuant to the provisions of sections 13, 14 and 20 (a) of the act.

Statement of purpose. The Commission is engaged in a comprehensive review of the rules, regulations, forms and procedures adopted under the various statutes administered by it. It is attempting to eliminate duplication and to simplify its requirements wherever practicable without prejudice to the public interest or the protection of investors. The revision of Form U–13–60 is a part of this program and is designed to eliminate needless detail from the form and to avoid unnecessary duplication of information contained in the system annual report on Form U5S (§ 259.5s).

Text of revisions. Form U–13–60 (§ 259.313) is revised as follows:

(1) Items 7, 8, and 9 are deleted.

(2) Schedule 205 is amended by adding the following additional instruction: "Describe any changes made during the year in the bases used and principles and methods applied in the allocation of charges for service."

(3) Schedule 235 is deleted.

(4) Schedule 240 is deleted.

(5) Schedule 245 (and the reference therto in schedule 200) is deleted.

(6) Schedule 250 is amended by inserting after the first sentence of the instructions thereto the following sentences: "If the aggregate amount paid to any one vendee (other than an associate company or an affiliate) and included within one account is less than $2,000, only the aggregate number and amount of all such payments included within the account need be shown."

(7) Schedule 260 is amended by adding the following additional instruction: "The term 'principal items' is defined as items of $500 or more. However, the aggregate number and amount of all items of less than $500 should be reported."

(8) Schedule 265 is amended by adding the following additional instruction: "The aggregate number and amount of all items of less than $1,000 may be shown in lieu of details."

(9) The signature clause is amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission issued thereunder, the undersigned company has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned officer thereunto duly authorized.

(Name of company)

By: --- (Signature and printed name and title of signing office)

Date: ---

(10) The second sentence of Instruction 6 is amended to read as follows: "Every such letter shall be stated to be signed by a duly authorized officer of the company."

(Sec. 20, 49 Stat. 833; 15 U. S. C. 79t)

The above revisions of Form U–13–60 shall be effective as to reports filed for the year 1953 and thereafter. Pending the preparation of new printed forms, reporting companies should note the revisions on the old forms in ink.

By the Commission.

PART 100—FLATHEAD, MISSION AND JOCKO VALLEY IRRIGATION DISTRICTS, MONTANA

WATER DELIVERY RATES

On September 23, 1953, there was published in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 5664) a notice of intention to amend § 100.1 of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations. Interested parties were given opportunity to participate by submitting their views or arguments in writing to the Area Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs at Billings, Montana, within thirty days from the date of the publication. Within the time allowed, the Billings Area Director submitted the views of himself and of the Flathead and Mission Irrigation Districts. The suggested word changes to the amendment published in the FEDERAL REGISTER do not appear to improve or affect the notice as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Section 100.1 is accordingly amended as heretofore published.

§ 100.1 Water delivery rates. For all water delivered to any farm unit, allotment, or tract of land in excess of one and one-half acre-feet of water per acre allowable under the minimum charge assessment fixed under § 100.6 for such allotment, farm unit, or tract, there shall be an additional per acre-foot charge fixed at the rate of two-thirds of the minimum charge, and this charge shall be added to the minimum advance levy for the following irrigation season: Provided, That the maximum charge per acre for water delivered to any farm unit, allotment, or tract, during any irrigation season, shall not exceed $4 per acre for the entire irrigable area of the farm unit, allotment, or tract.

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART A—EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS

RATES OF SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCE

In § 21.133, paragraph (h) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.133 Rates of subsistence allowance. • • •

(h) Employability determined. Upon determination of employability of a veteran who has pursued a course of training under Part VII, except under the conditions stated in § 21.281(c), a lump-sum payment of the 2 months' postrehabilitation pay will be authorized. The amount of such payment will be computed on the basis of the full rate of subsistence allowance applicable to the dependency status, type of training, and compensable disability rating in the individual veteran's case at the time employability was determined and without regard to the fact that the veteran pursuing on-the-job training may have been authorized less than the maximum subsistence allowance payable because of compensation for productive labor being received while in pursuit of training. Upon a subsequent determination of employability made in the case of a veteran who had previously been determined employable, who had been paid the 2 months' gratuity and who was reinducted for additional training, a lump-sum payment of the 2 months' postrehabilitation pay will be authorized in accordance with the principle stated in this paragraph.

PART 120—ANNUAL, SPECIAL OR PERIODICAL REPORTS

STEAM RAILWAY ANNUAL REPORT FORM A

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of December A. D. 1953.

The matter of annual reports from steam railway companies and switching and terminal companies of Class I and Class II being under consideration, and it appearing that the changes in existing regulations to be effectuated by this order are only minor changes with respect to the data to be furnished and that public rule-making procedures are unnecessary;

It is ordered, That the order dated January 22, 1953, In the matter of annual reports from steam railway companies and switching and terminal companies of Class I and Class II (49 CFR 120.11) be, and it is hereby modified with respect to annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1953, and subsequent years, as follows:

§ 120.11 Form prescribed for large and medium steam railways. All steam railway companies and switching and terminal companies of Class I and Class II (§ 126.1 of this chapter) subject to the provisions of section 20, Part I, of the Interstate Commerce Act, are hereby required to file annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1953, and for each succeeding year until further order in accordance with Annual Report Form A (Large and Medium Steam Roads and Switching and Terminal Companies), which is hereby approved and made a part of this section.[1] The annual report shall be filed, in duplicate, in the Bureau of Transport Economics and Statistics, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before March 31, of the year following the one to which it relates.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 997]

[Docket No. AO 205–A1]

HANDLING OF FILBERTS GROWN IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, 1952 Rev., Part 900), a public hearing was held at Portland, Oregon, August 4, 1953, on proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order (7 CFR, 1952 Rev., Part 997) regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington. Said marketing agreement and order are effective pursuant to the provisions of the act.

Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at the aforementioned hearing, and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, on November 20, 1953, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. Notice of such recommended decision, and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 26, 1953 (18 F. R. 7556), as corrected in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 11, 1953 (18 F. R. 8139). The last day for filing such written exceptions has expired, and no exceptions were filed during the prescribed period.

Findings and conclusions. The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the aforesaid recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 53–9964; 18 F. R. 7556, 8139) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein, except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions which are hereinafter set forth:

(1) In drafting that portion of the second sentence of § 997.31 (a) which precedes the colon (see 18 F. R. 7565, first column), there was inadvertently omitted an existing provision which permits the Secretary to select, if he should deem such action to be desirable, eligible members of a group other than the nominees submitted by that group. This deletion was not proposed or contended for at the hearing, and such provision should be retained. In order to accomplish this result, that portion of the second sentence of § 997.31 (a) which precedes the colon is hereby reworded so as to read as follows: "One member and one alternate member shall be selected from nominees submitted by each of the following groups, which nominees shall be eligible members of the respective groups which nominate them, or from among other eligible members of the respective groups:"

(2) The issue numbered (2) involved, in part, a discussion of a proposal to provide a new procedure for the nominations of independent grower representatives on the board. In the discussion of such proposal, it was stated that it was as follows: (a) Names of the candidates to accompany the ballots shall be submitted to the board prior to February 10 of each fiscal year on petitions signed by not less than 10 independent growers of whom it has a record; (b) each such grower may sign only as many petitions as there are positions to be filled; (c) ballots accompanied by the lists of candidates so submitted, together with instructions as to voting, shall be mailed to all independent growers of whom the board has a record; and (d) the qualified person receiving the highest number of votes for the position for which his name was placed on the ballots shall be nominated, except that, in case of a tie vote, the decision as to the nominee shall be made by lot. It was concluded that such proposal should be adopted, except for the proposed procedure for deciding by lot as to the nominee in case of a tie vote. (For discussion of these aspects, see 18 F. R. 7559 and 7560).

A reexamination of the notice of hearing and of the hearing record indicates that the proponent of this proposal, i. e., the Filbert Control Board, actually had in mind, in respect to the step set forth in (b) in the preceding paragraph, that each independent grower will be permitted to sign only as many petitions as there are member positions (rather than the aggregate number of member and alternate member positions) to be filled. Also that the proponent presumably had in mind that the candidates obtained by this petition method would be submitted, as a group list, to the voters along with the ballots from which they could make their choices, whereas our discussion was predicated on the basis that separate petitions would be submitted for each member position and each alternate member position which is to be filled and that the candidates for each such position would be specified in line with the petitions which had been received.

After further consideration, it is concluded that the way of handling this aspect intended by the proponent should be followed in general principle, except that: (a) The maximum number of petitions each independent grower is to be permitted to sign should be the aggregate of the member and alternate member positions to be filled, rather than be limited to the number of member positions to be filled; and (b) it should be specified that each ballot shall contain appropriate blank spaces for the voter to indicate his choice for each member position and for each alternate member position which is to be filled.

With respect to (a) above, it was developed at the hearing that past experience had demonstrated that relatively few independent growers had participated in the election of their nominees and it is very desirable that such interest be stimulated. It was argued that this stimulation would be promoted by giving them an opportunity to name the candidates, instead of relying on the list of the then incumbents of those positions plus names of other potential candidates submitted by such sources as independent handlers and county agents. The restricting of the signing of these positions to the number of the member positions which are to be filled would permit each independent grower to sign petitions for only one-half of the total number of positions which are to be filled. This, it is believed, would not stimulate such grower interest to the same extent as would accrue from permitting each grower to sign as many petitions as there are positions which are to be filled. For obvious reasons, such liberalization should not permit a small group of aggressive independent growers to dominate that aspect, or at least, affect the matter disproportionate to their relative numerical importance. However, it should afford a desirable greater freedom of choice.

With regard to (b) above, the proposal contended for by the proponents under the intended way of handling set forth in the third preceding paragraph would apparently not have established a clear and definite method for the election of nominees for the alternate member positions. In other words, such proposal involved only the naming, by the petition method, of candidates for the member positions, and it was specified therein that "the qualified person receiving the highest number of votes for the position for which his name was placed on the ballot shall be the nominee for that position." That is to say, the exact manner in which the nominees for the alternate member positions should be determined was not prescribed clearly. It is concluded that the nominees for both member positions and alternate member positions can be determined with certainty by the indicated modifications in that regard which are set forth under (b) in the second preceding paragraph.

Under the modified way of handling this aspect which is recommended herein for adoption, independent growers will be enabled to name potential candidates to represent them, but the choice as to which of such candidates they prefer to serve as members and which they prefer to serve as alternate members will be determined by the independent growers generally through the nomination election. This should tend to insure that such representatives are the actual choices of the majority of these growers for the respective positions for which they are nominated.

To effectuate the modification which it is concluded should be made in this connection, § 997.32 (b) is revised to read as follows:

(b) Nominations on behalf of growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers shall be submitted after balloting by such growers conducted as follows: Names of the grower candidates to accompany the ballot shall be submitted to the control board prior to February 10 of each fiscal year on petitions signed by not less than 10 growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers and who are of record with the control board; each grower may sign only as many petitions as there are persons to be nominated; ballots accompanied by the list of candidates submitted by petitions, together with instructions, shall be mailed to all growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers and who are of record with the control board; each ballot shall contain appropriate blank spaces for the voter to indicate his choice for each member position and for each alternate member position which is to be filled; the qualified person receiving the highest number of votes for a particular position shall be the nominee for that position, except that, in case of a tie, the names of the tied candidates shall be submitted. If the Secretary determines that this procedure is unsatisfactory to the growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers because it is too difficult or costly to administer, it does not result in the names of a sufficient number of qualified candidates being submitted with the ballots, or it should be changed for other reasons, he may change this procedure through the formulation and issuance of superseding regulations.

(3) In the heading and the body of § 997.51 (see 18 F. R. 7566, third column), relating to certifications as to quality, the references to "small size filberts for export" are preceded, in each instance, by the word "surplus." Attention has been called to the fact that the decision expressly recognizes that all small size filberts which are exported are surplus and that in other sections of the proposed amended order (see particularly §§ 997.50 (c), 997.76, and 997.91 (a)) relating to small size filberts which are exported the word "surplus" is not used in the references to them. It has been suggested that the use of the word "surplus" in § 997.51 may cause future argument that two types of small size filberts for export are covered, namely, one of which is surplus and the other of which is not surplus. No such differentiation is intended, but it is intended that all small size filberts which are exported shall be considered as surplus. Therefore, in order to eliminate any basis for an argument to the contrary as regards § 997.51, it is concluded that the word "surplus" should be deleted whenever it precedes the words "small size filberts for export" in the title and the body of said section.

Said § 997.51 now contains only provisions for the certification as to quality of "each lot of merchantable filberts handled or to be handled" by a handler. These provisions are being retained in the proposed amendment, and the only substantive change in such provisions which is proposed to be made is to apply the same requirements to small size filberts for export. In order to harmonize the language with respect to the two categories of filberts, it is concluded that the phrase "for each lot of small size filberts for export disposed of by him as agent for the control board" (appearing in the first sentence of said section, 18 F. R. 7566, third column) should be changed to read "for each lot of small size filberts for export disposed, or to be disposed, of by him as agent for the control board."

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto, and made a part hereof, are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Filberts Grown in Oregon and Washington" and "Order, as amended, Regulating the Handling of Filberts Grown in Oregon and Washington," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. The marketing agreement, as amended, and the order, as amended, shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the annexed marketing agreement, as amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said agreement, as amended, are identical with those contained in the attached order, as amended, which will be published with this decision.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary.

AUTHORITY: §§ 997.1 through 997.102 issued under § 5, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c.

§ 997.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. (1) The findings hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations (14 F. R. 5667 and 5694) which were made in connection with the original issuance of this marketing order, and all of such previous findings and determinations, other than the finding as to the base period for the parity computation, are hereby ratified and confirmed, except insofar as such previous findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein;

(2) The amended order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(3) Said amended order will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified, or necessarily included, in the proposals upon which the amendment hearing was held;

(4) There are no differences in the production and marketing of filberts in the production area to be covered by said amended order which make necessary different terms or provisions applicable to different parts of said area.

Order relative to handling. It is, therefore, ordered, that the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington shall, from the effective time of this amended order, be in conformity to, and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this amended order:

DEFINITIONS

§ 997.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may be, authorized to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

§ 997.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 63 Stat. 282).

§ 997.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 997.4 Filberts. "Filberts" means filberts or hazelnuts produced in the States of Oregon and Washington from trees of the genus Corylus.

§ 997.5 Unshelled filberts. "Unshelled filberts" means filberts the kernels of which are contained in the shell.

§ 997.6 Merchantable filberts. "Merchantable filberts" means all unshelled filberts meeting the pack specifications and minimum standards of quality prescribed pursuant to § 997.50 (b), or as such specifications and standards may be modified pursuant to § 997.50 (d).

§ 997.7 Area of production. "Area of production" means the States of Oregon and Washington.

§ 997.8 Grower. "Grower" is synonymous with "producer" and means any person engaged in a proprietary capacity, in the commercial production of filberts.

§ 997.9 Handler. "Handler" means any packer or distributor of unshelled filberts handling not less than 250 pounds of filberts during any fiscal year.

§ 997.10 Packer. "Packer" means any person who packs and handles unshelled filberts.

§ 997.11 Distributor. "Distributor" means any person other than a packer who handles unshelled filberts which have not been subjected, in the hands of a previous holder, to compliance with the surplus-control provisions hereinafter contained.

§ 997.12 Cooperative handler. "Cooperative handler" means any handler which is a cooperative marketing association regardless of where or under what laws it may be organized.

§ 997.13 Sheller. "Sheller" means any person engaged in the business of shelling filberts for any commercial purpose.

§ 997.14 Pack. "Pack" means a specific commercial classification according to size, internal quality, and external appearance and condition of filberts packed in accordance with any of the pack specifications prescribed pursuant to § 997.50.

§ 997.15 To pack. "To pack" means to bleach, clean, grade, or otherwise prepare filberts for market as unshelled filberts in any manner whatsoever.

§ 997.16 To handle. "To handle" means to sell, consign, transport or ship (except as a common carrier of filberts owned by another person), or in any other way to put into the channels of trade, either within the area of production or from such area to points outside thereof: Provided, That such sales or deliveries by growers to a packer for packing or a sheller for shelling or to a distributor within the production area, shall not be considered as handling.

§ 997.17 Federal-State Inspecion Service. "Federal-State Inspection Service" means that inspection service on filberts which is performed within the States of Oregon and Washington by the United States Department of Agriculture or by said Department under a cooperative arrangement with either of such States pursuant to authority contained in any act of Congress.

§ 997.18 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the 12 months from August 1 to the following July 31, both inclusive.

§ 997.19 Handler carryover. "Handler carryover" as of any given date means all merchantable filberts (except merchantable filberts held as surplus) wherever located, then held by handlers or for their accounts (whether or not sold) including the estimated quantity of merchantable filberts in ungraded lots then held by handlers and intended for packing as merchantable filberts.

§ 997.20 Trade carryover. "Trade carryover" means all merchantable filberts theretofore delivered by handlers and then remaining in the possession or control of the wholesale or chain store or supermarket trade, exclusive of filberts in retail outlets, as of any given date.

§ 997.21 Trade demand. "Trade demand" means the quantity of merchantable filberts which the wholesale, chain store and supermarket trade will acquire from all handlers during a fiscal year for distribution in the Continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone; except that there may also be considered in the making of such computation such acquirements for distribution in Canada or Cuba, whenever the board is of the opinion that such distribution may be made to the particular country at prices to handlers approximating such prices on distribution in the Continental United States.

§ 997.22 Control board. "Control board" or "board" means the Filbert Control Board established pursuant to §§ 997.30 through 997.40.

§ 997.23 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder. This order regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington shall be a "subpart" of such part.

FILBERT CONTOL BOARD

§ 997.30 Establishment and membership. A control board consisting of seven members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established.

§ 997.31 Selection and term of office. (a) Members and their respective alternates shall be selected annually by the Secretary for a term of one year beginning with the first Tuesday after the first Monday in April, and shall serve until their respective successors shall be selected and shall qualify. One member and one alternate member shall be selected from nominees submitted by each of the following groups, which nominees shall be eligible members of the respective groups which nominate them, or from among other eligible members of the respective groups:

(1) The cooperative handlers;

(2) All handlers, other than the cooperative handlers;

(3) The group of cooperative handlers or the group of other than cooperative handlers, whichever during the preceding fiscal year handled more than 50 percent of the merchantable filberts handled by all handlers;

(4) Those growers of filberts who market their filberts through cooperative handlers;

(5) All other growers of filberts;

(6) Those growers whose filberts were marketed during the preceding fiscal year through the handler group specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(b) The following additional restrictions shall apply to the growers who do not market their filberts through cooperative handlers: (1) Such a grower may not vote in a nomination election for a representative of his group if, during that portion of the fiscal year up to the time of such election, he handled any filberts which were produced by another grower, and such a grower shall not be selected to serve as a representative of that group, if, during the fiscal year in which the nomination election is held, he handled any filberts which were produced by another grower; and (2) such a grower who, at any time during the fiscal year in which the nomination election is held, was employed by a filbert handler shall not be selected to serve as such a representative, but he shall be entitled to vote in the nomination election.

(c) The seventh member and his alternate shall be selected after the selection of the first six members as provided for in this section, and after opportunity for such six members to nominate a seventh member and his alternate, who shall not be members of any of the six groups described in this section.

§ 997.32 Nominations for members and alternates. (a) Each of the six groups specified in § 997.31 may nominate one person as member and one person as alternate; and the six members first selected by the Secretary may nominate, by majority vote, one person as member and one person as alternate for that member. Nominations for each handler group shall be submitted on the basis of ballots to be mailed by the control board to all handlers in such group whose pack for the preceding fiscal year is on record with the control board. Nominations on behalf of growers who market their filberts through cooperative handlers shall be submitted on the basis of ballot cast by each cooperative handler for its grower patrons.

(b) Nominations on behalf of growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers shall be submitted after balloting by such growers conducted as follows: Names of the grower candidates to accompany the ballot shall be submitted to the control board prior to February 10 of each fiscal year on petitions signed by not less than 10 growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers and who are of record with the control board; each grower may sign only as many petitions as there are persons to be nominated; ballots accompanied by the list of candidates submitted by petitions, together with instructions, shall be mailed to all growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers and who are of record with the control board; each ballot shall contain appropriate blank spaces for the voter to indicate his choice for each member position and for each alternate member position which is to be filled; the qualified person receiving the highest number of votes for a particular position shall be the nominee for that position, except that, in case of a tie, the names of the tied candidates shall be submitted. If the Secretary determines that this procedure is unsatisfactory to the growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers because it is too difficult or costly to administer, it does not result in the names of a sufficient number of qualified candidates being submitted with the ballots, or it should be changed for other reasons, he may change this procedure through the formulation and issuance of superseding regulations.

(c) All votes cast by cooperative handlers, handlers other than cooperative handlers, or for cooperative growers, shall be weighted according to the tonnage of merchantable filberts (computed to the nearest whole ton in case of fractions) recorded by the control board as certified for handling by the handler or for the cooperative grower group during the preceding fiscal year, and if less than one ton is recorded for any such handler or grower group, its vote shall be weighted as one vote. All votes cast by individual growers shall be given equal weight. Nominations received in the foregoing manner by the control board shall be reported to the Secretary on or before March 20 of each fiscal year, together with a certificate of all necessary data and other information deemed by the board to be pertinent or requested by the Secretary. If such nominations of any group are not submitted as hereinbefore provided to the Secretary on or before that date, the Secretary may select the representatives of that group without nomination. If nominations for the seventh member or his alternate are not submitted on or before April 15 of any year, the Secretary may select such member or alternate without nomination.

§ 997.33 Qualification. Any person selected as a member or alternate of the control board shall qualify by filing a written acceptance of his appointment with the Secretary or his designated representative. Any member or alternate, who at the time of his selection, was a member of, or employed by a member of the group which nominated him and who thereafter ceases to be such a member or employee shall thereupon become disqualified to serve further and his position on the control board shall be deemed vacant. In the event any member or alternate member of the control board qualified and selected, in accordance with the provisions of §§ 997.31 and 997.32, to represent growers who market their filberts through other than cooperative handlers should, during his term of office, handle filberts produced by other growers, or become an employee of a handler, his position on the control board shall thereupon be deemed to be vacant: Provided, That these disqualification provisions shall not apply to any initial representative of such growers for the term which began in April 1953 in connection with the continuance, for the balance of such term, of either such prohibited handling or employment situation which existed when he was selected and qualified.

§ 997.34 Alternates. An alternate for a member of the control board shall act in the place and stead of such member (a) in his absence, or (b) in the event of his death, removal, resignation, or disqualification, until a successor for his unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§ 997.35 Temporary substitutes. In the event any member of the control board and his alternate are both unable to attend a meeting of the control board, any alternate for any other member nominated by the same group that nominated the absent member may serve in the place and stead of the absent member and his alternate, or in the event such other alternate cannot attend, or there is no such other alternate, such member or, in the event of his disability or a vacancy, his alternate may designate, subject to the disapproval of the Secretary, a temporary substitute to attend such meeting. At such meeting such temporary substitute may act in the place and stead of such member. For the purposes of this section a cooperative handler group and a cooperative grower group shall be considered the same group.

§ 997.36 Vacancy. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any member or alternate of the control board, a successor for his unexpired term shall be selected in the manner provided in § 997.32, so far as applicable, within 30 days after such vacancy occurs.

§ 997.37 Expenses. The members of the control board shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed their necessary expenses.

§ 997.38 Powers. The control board shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this subpart in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this subpart;

(c) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this subpart;

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this subpart.

§ 997.39 Duties. The duties of the control board shall be among other things as follows:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any handler or grower;

(b) To keep minute books and records which will clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, and such minute books and records shall at any time be subject to the examination of the Secretary;

(c) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(d) To appoint such employees as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries, define the duties and fix the bonds of such employees;

(e) To cause the books of the control board to be audited by one or more competent public accountants at least once for each fiscal year and at such other times as the control board deems necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary three copies of all audit reports made; and

(f) To investigate the growing, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to filberts and to assemble data in connection therewith.

§ 997.40 Procedure—(a) Organization and rules. The members of the control board shall select a chairman from their membership and all communications from the Secretary may be addressed to the chairman at such address as may from time to time be filed with the Secretary. The board shall select such other officers and adopt such rules for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable. The board shall give to the Secretary or his designated agent and representatives the same notice of meetings of the control board as is given to members of the board.

(b) Quorum. All decisions of the control board, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be by a majority vote of the members present. The presence of five members shall be required to constitute a quorum.

(c) Permissive method of voting. The control board may vote by mail or telegram upon due notice to all members: Provided, That voting by mail or telegram shall not be permitted at any assembled meeting of the board. When any proposition is submitted for voting by such method, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption by that method.

(d) Right of the Secretary. The members of the control board (including successors, alternates, or other persons selected by the Secretary), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the control board, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary, in his discretion, at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the control board shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time, and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith.

CONTROL OF DISTRIBUTION

§ 997.50 Pack specifications and minimum standards—(a) General restrictions as to handling. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, and except as otherwise provided in §§ 997.53 and 997.76, no handler shall handle any unshelled filberts except those which have been certified by the control board as merchantable filberts.

(b) Merchantable filberts. Unless and until modified by the Secretary, after consideration of the control board's recommendations and other available pertinent data, unshelled filberts shall be deemed to be merchantable if they meet the following requirements:

(1) As to pack specifications, such filberts shall be "U. S. No. 1, Jumbo," "U. S. No. 1, Large," or "U. S. No. 1, Medium," as now defined in the United States Standards for filberts in the shell (13 F. R. 4623), except that the portion of the tolerance provision in the U. S. No. 1 grade, for grade requirements, other than for type and size, reading "not more than five percent shall be allowed for blanks" shall not be applicable; and

(2) As to minimum standards of quality, shall be U. S. No. 1 grade as defined in the aforementioned standards, with the aforesaid modified tolerance as to blanks, and the lower limit of medium size as defined in such United States Standards for filberts in the shell.

(c) Small size filberts for export. Unless and until modified by the Secretary, after consideration of the control board's recommendations and other available pertinent data, unshelled filberts which are below the minimum requirements for merchantable filberts, as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, only with respect to size may be exported pursuant to the provisions of § 997.76 if they meet the following size requirements: Round type filberts which will not pass through a round opening $^{40}/_{64}$ of an inch in diameter but will pass through a round opening $^{45}/_{64}$ of an inch in diameter, and long type filberts which will not pass through a round opening $^{35}/_{64}$ of an inch in diameter but will pass through a round opening $^{38}/_{64}$ of an inch in diameter: Provided, That 12 percent, by count, shall be allowed for those filberts which fail to meet these size requirements but not more than $^{5}/_{6}$ of this amount, or 10 percent, shall be allowed for filberts which pass through the smallest opening specified for the respective type.

(d) Modifications. The aforementioned pack specifications and minimum standards for unshelled filberts as prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section may be modified, at any time that it appears that such action would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, in which event unshelled filberts desired to be certified must meet the applicable modified pack specifications and minimum standards in order to be considered as merchantable filberts or as small size filberts for export, as the case may be.

(e) Above parity situations. The provisions of this section relating to minimum standards of quality for merchantable unshelled filberts or small size filberts for export, as the case may be, and the applicable grading and inspection requirements pertaining thereto, within the meaning of section 2 (3) of the act, and any other provisions relating to the administration and enforcement thereof, shall continue in effect irrespective of whether the estimated season average price for filberts is in excess of the parity level specified in section 2 (1) of the act.

§ 997.51 Certification of merchantable filberts and small size filberts for export. Each handler, at his own expense, shall obtain a certificate for each lot of merchantable filberts handled or to be handled by him, and for each lot of surplus merchantable filberts, and also for each lot of small size filberts for export disposed, or to be disposed, of by him as agent for the control board. Said certificates shall be obtained from the Federal-State Inspection Service. All such certificates shall show, in addition to such other information as the control board may specify, the identity of the handler, if for export, the country of destination, the quantity and pack of filberts in such lot, markings (if any) on the containers, including brands or labels, and that the filberts covered by such certificates conform to the pack specifications and minimum standards of quality prescribed pursuant to § 997.50 for merchantable filberts or for small size filberts for export, as the case may be. All lots so inspected and certified shall be identified by appropriate seals, stamps, or tags to be affixed to the containers by the handler under the direction and supervision of the control board, or of the Federal-State Inspection Service.

§ 997.52 Copies of certificates. The inspector shall furnish to the control board as many copies of each such certificate as it may request.

§ 997.53 Filberts for packing or shelling. Nothing contained in this part shall be construed to prevent any person from selling or delivering, within the area of production, unshelled filberts, other than merchantable filberts, to any packer for packing or sheller for shelling.

MERCHANTABLE SURPLUS CONTROL

§ 997.60 Salable and surplus percentages for merchantable filberts. The salable and surplus percentages for merchantable filberts for each fiscal year shall be fixed by the Secretary at such amounts as in his judgment will most effectively tend to accomplish the purposes of the act. In fixing such salable and surplus percentages, the Secretary shall give consideration to the ratio of the estimated trade demand to the sum of the estimated production of merchantable filberts and the handler carryover (with appropriate adjustment for such handler carryover as may have theretofore contributed to merchantable surplus), the recommendation submitted to him by the control board, and such other pertinent data as he deems appropriate. The total of the salable and surplus percentages as fixed each fiscal year shall equal 100 percent.

§ 997.61 Increase of salable percentage. At any time prior to February 15 of any fiscal year, the Secretary may, on request of the control board (or if the control board shall fail so to request, on request of two or more packers who have handled during the immediately preceding fiscal year at least ten percent of the total tonnage handled by all packers during such fiscal year) and after a finding of fact, based on such revised and current information as may be pertinent, that the merchantable filberts available for handling will not be sufficient to supply the trade demand, increase the salable percentage to conform to such new relation as may be found to exist between trade demand and available supply.

§ 997.62 Estimated carryover, trade demand, and production. (a) To aid the Secretary in fixing the salable and surplus percentages for merchantable filberts, the board shall furnish to the Secretary, not later than August 20 of each fiscal year, the following estimates and recommendation, each of which shall be adopted by at least a majority vote of the entire control board:

(1) Its estimate of the quantity of merchantable filberts to be produced and packed during such year;

(2) Its estimate of handler carryover as of August 1;

(3) Its estimate of trade carryover as of August 1;

(4) Its estimate of the total trade demand (on the basis of prices not exceeding the maximum prices contemplated in section 2 of the act); in determining such trade demand consideration shall be given to the estimated trade carryover at the beginning and end of the fiscal year; and

(5) Its recommendation as to the salable and surplus percentages to be fixed for merchantable filberts.

(b) The board shall also furnish to the Secretary a complete report of the proceedings of the board meeting at which these recommended salable and surplus percentages to be fixed by the Secretary were adopted.

§ 997.63 Withholding percentage. The withholding percentage shall be the ratio (measured as a percentage) of the surplus percentage to the salable percentage for merchantable filberts. Such percentage shall be announced by the Secretary and, in its computation, may be adjusted by the Secretary to the nearest whole number.

§ 997.64 Withholding of merchantable surplus filberts. No handler shall handle merchantable unshelled filberts unless prior to or upon the shipment thereof (except as otherwise provided in § 997.65) he shall have withheld from handling a quantity of merchantable filberts equal to the withholding percentage, by weight of such quantity handled or certified for handling by him: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply to any lot of filberts for which the merchantable surplus obligation has been met by a previous holder. The quantity of filberts hereby required to be withheld shall constitute, and may be referred to as, the "merchantable surplus" or "surplus obligation" of a handler. The merchantable filberts handled by any handler in accordance with the provisions of this subpart shall be deemed to be that handler's quota fixed by the Secretary within the meaning of Section 8a (5) of the act.

§ 997.65 Postponement of withholding merchantable surplus upon filing bond—(a) Privilege. Compliance by any packer with the requirements of § 997.64 as to the time when merchantable surplus filberts shall be withheld shall be deferred to any date desired by the packer, but not later than December 31 of the fiscal year, upon the voluntary execution and delivery by such packer to the control board, before he handles any merchantable filberts of such fiscal year, of a written undertaking that on or prior to such date he will have fully satisfied his merchantable surplus obligation required by § 997.64.

(b) Bonding requirement. Such undertaking shall be secured by a bond or bonds to be filed with and acceptable to the control board, and with a surety or sureties acceptable to the control board, in the amount or amounts stated below conditioned upon full compliance with such undertaking. Such bond or bonds shall, at all times during their effective period, be in such amounts that the aggregate thereof shall be no less than the total bonding value of the packer's deferred merchantable surplus obligation. The bonding value shall be the deferred merchantable surplus obligation poundage bearing the lowest bonding rate or rates, which could have been selected from the packs handled or certified for handling, multiplied by the applicable bonding rate. The cost of such bond or bonds shall be borne by the packer filing same.

(c) Bonding rate. Said bonding rate for each pack shall be an amount per pound representing the season's domestic price for such pack net to packer f. o. b. shipping point which shall be computed at 95 percent of the opening price for such pack announced by the packer or packers who during the preceding fiscal year handled more than 50 percent of the merchantable filberts handled by all packers. Such packer or packers shall be selected in order of volume handled in the preceding fiscal year, using the minimum number of packers to represent a volume of more than 50 percent of the total volume handled. If such opening prices involve different prices announced by two or more packers for respective packs, the prices so announced shall be averaged on the basis of the quantity of such packs handled during the preceding fiscal year by each such packer.

§ 997.66 Disposition of sums collected through default on bonds—(a) Filbert purchases. Any sums collected through default of a packer on his bond shall be used by the control board to purchase, from packers, as provided in this paragraph, a quantity of merchantable filberts not to exceed the total quantity represented by the sums collected. Purchases shall be made from the salable percentages with respect to which the merchantable surplus obligation has been met and at the bonding rate for each pack. The control board shall at all times purchase the lowest priced packs offered and the purchases shall be made from the various packers as nearly as practicable in proportion to the quantity of their respective offerings of the pack or packs to be purchased.

(b) Unexpended sums. Any unexpended sums, which have been collected by the control board through default of a packer on his bond, remaining in the possession of the control board at the end of a fiscal year shall be used to reimburse the board for its expenses, including administrative and other costs incurred in the collection of such sums, and in the purchase of merchantable filberts as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. Any balance remaining after reimbursement of such expenses shall be distributed among all handlers in proportion to the quantity of merchantable filberts handled or certified for handling by them during the fiscal year in which the default occurred.

(c) Transfer of filbert purchases. Filberts purchased as provided in this paragraph shall be turned over to those packers, who have defaulted on their bonds, for disposal by them as merchantable surplus. The quantity delivered to each packer shall be that quantity represented by the sums collected through default, and the different grades, if any, shall be apportioned among the various packers on the basis of the quantity of filberts to be delivered to each packer to the total quantity purchased by the control board with bonding funds.

§ 997.67 Collection upon bonds. Collection upon any bond or bonds filed pursuant to the provisions of § 997.65 shall be deemed a satisfaction of the merchantable surplus obligation represented by such collection: Provided, That the filberts purchased by the control board with funds collected under bonds and subsequently turned over to such packers are used only for the purposes provided in §§ 997.74 and 997.75.

§ 997.68 Interhandler transfers for merchantable surplus. For the purpose of meeting his merchantable surplus obligation, any handler may, upon notice to and under the supervision and direction of the control board, acquire from another handler merchantable filberts with respect to which the merchantable surplus has not been withheld and any merchantable surplus obligation with respect to any filberts so transferred shall be waived. If any such sales are made from filberts on which the merchantable surplus obligation has been met, the seller's merchantable surplus obligation shall be reduced accordingly upon proof satisfactory to the control board that the purchaser is withholding such filberts as merchantable surplus.

§ 997.69 Assistance of control board in accounting for merchantable surplus. The control board, on written request, may assist handlers in accounting for their merchantable surplus obligation and may aid any handler in acquiring merchantable filberts to meet any deficiency in a handler's merchantable surplus, or in accounting for and disposing of merchantable surplus filberts.

§ 997.70 Application of merchantable salable, surplus, and withholding percentages, and bonding rates, after end of fiscal year. (a) The merchantable salable, surplus, and withholding percentages established for any fiscal year shall continue in effect with respect to all merchantable filberts, for which the merchantable surplus obligation has not been previously met, which are handled or certified for handling as merchantable filberts by any handler after the end of such fiscal year and before merchantable salable, surplus, and withholding percentages are established for the succeeding fiscal year. After such percentages are established for the new fiscal year, the withholding requirements for all such filberts theretofore handled or certified for handling as merchantable filberts during that fiscal year shall be adjusted to the newly established percentages.

(b) The bonding rates established for any fiscal year shall continue in effect with respect to any bond or bonds executed and delivered pursuant to § 997.65 before the bonding rates for the new fiscal year are established. After such bonding rates are established for the new fiscal year, the new rates shall be applicable and any bond or bonds theretofore given for that fiscal year shall be adjusted to the new rates.

§ 997.71 Exchange of merchantable surplus filberts. Any handler who has withheld merchantable surplus filberts pursuant to the requirements of § 997.64 and has had the same certified as merchantable surplus filberts may exchange therefor an equal quantity, by weight, of other merchantable filberts. Any such exchange shall be made under the supervision and direction of the control board with appropriate inspection and certification of the filberts involved.

§ 997.72 Adjustment upon increase of merchantable salable percentage. Upon any increase in the merchantable salable percentage and corresponding decrease in the merchantable surplus and withholding percentages, the merchantable surplus obligation of each handler with respect to the filberts handled by him for the entire fiscal year shall be recomputed in accordance with such revised merchantable salable, surplus, and withholding percentages. From the merchantable surplus filberts still held by a handler and from such merchantable surplus filberts that may have been delivered by him to the control board pursuant to § 997.74, and still held by the control board, the handler shall be permitted to select, under the supervision and direction of the control board, the particular merchantable surplus filberts to be restored to his salable percentage.

§ 997.73 Prohibition against handling of merchantable surplus. Except as provided in §§ 997.74 and 997.75, or for any use other than for distribution as unshelled filberts in established trade channels, merchantable surplus filberts withheld pursuant to the requirements of § 997.64 shall not be handled by any person as unshelled filberts.

§ 997.74 Disposition of merchantable surplus by export. Sales of merchantable surplus filberts for shipment or export to destinations outside the Continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone shall be made only by the control board. Any handler desiring to export any part or all of his merchantable surplus filberts shall deliver to the control board his merchantable surplus to be exported, but the control board shall be obligated to sell in export only such quantities for which it may be able to find satisfactory export outlets. Any filberts so delivered for export which the control board is unable to export shall be returned to the handler delivering them. Sales for export shall be made by the control board only on execution of an agreement to prevent reimportation into the United States; and in case of export to Canada or Mexico, such filberts shall be sold only on the basis of a delivered price, duty paid. A handler may be permitted to act as agent of the control board, upon such terms and conditions as the control board may specify, in negotiating export sales; and when so acting shall be entitled to receive a selling commission of five percent of the export sales price, f. o. b. area of production. The proceeds of all export sales, after deducting all expenses actually and necessarily incurred, shall be paid to the handler whose merchantable surplus filberts are so sold by the board.

§ 997.75 Disposal of merchantable surplus for shelling. (a) Any handler may shell his merchantable surplus filberts or deliver them for shelling to an authorized sheller. Any person who desires to become an authorized sheller in any fiscal year may submit an application to the control board. Such application shall be granted only upon condition that the applicant agrees:

(1) To use such merchantable surplus filberts as he may receive for no purpose other than shelling;

(2) To dispose of or deliver such merchantable surplus filberts, as unshelled filberts, to no one other than another authorized sheller;

(3) To comply fully with all laws and regulations applicable to the shelling of filberts;

(4) To report to the control board, immediately upon receipt of any lot of merchantable surplus filberts, the quantity and pack of the filberts so received and the identity of the person from whom received, and within 15 days after the disposition of such filberts, to report their disposition to the control board. All such reports shall be certified to the control board and to the Secretary as to their correctness and accuracy.

(b) The board, if it finds that such an application is made in good faith and if the applicant may be reasonably relied upon to fulfill and observe the conditions to which it has agreed, shall issue a letter of authority to such applicant to serve as an authorized sheller. Such letter of authority shall expire with the end of the fiscal year during which it is issued by the Board.

CONTROL OF SMALL SIZE FILBERTS FOR EXPORT

§ 997.76 Disposition of small size filberts by export. Sales of small size filberts meeting the pack specifications and minimum standards prescribed in § 997.50 (c), for shipment or export to destinations outside the Continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone shall be made only by the control board. Any handler desiring to export any part, or all, of his small size filberts meeting these specifications shall deliver them to the control board to be exported, but the control board shall be obligated to sell in export only such quantities for which it may be able to find satisfactory export outlets. Any small size filberts so delivered for export which the control board is unable to export shall be returned to the handler delivering them. Sales for export shall be made by the control board only on execution of an agreement to prevent reimportation into the United States; and in case of export to Canada or Mexico, such small size filberts shall be sold only on the basis of a delivered price, duty paid. A handler may be permitted to act as agent of the control board, upon such terms and conditions as the control board may specify, in negotiating these export sales; and, when so acting, shall be entitled to receive a selling commission of five percent of the export sales price, f. o. b. area of production. The proceeds of all such export sales, after deducting all expenses actually and necessarily incurred, shall be paid to the handler whose small size filberts are so sold by the board.

§ 997.80 Reports of handler carryover of merchantable filberts. Each handler, on or before August 5 and January 15 of each fiscal year, shall file with the control board a written report, under oath, of all merchantable filberts (except filberts held as merchantable surplus) including the estimated quantity of merchantable filberts in ungraded lots intended for packing as merchantable filberts, by him held on the first day of August and the first day of January, respectively, showing the pack (if merchantable), and location thereof and the quantities;

(a) Which theretofore have been certified for handling, and on which the merchantable surplus obligation has previously been met;

(b) Which have been packed as merchantable filberts, but have not been certified; and

(c) Which are estimated as merchantable but have not been packed as merchantable filberts and are intended for packing as merchantable filberts.

§ 997.81 Reports of disposition of merchantable surplus. (a) Each handler, before he disposes of any quantity of merchantable surplus filberts held by him, shall file with the control board a report of his intention to dispose of such quantity of merchantable surplus filberts. This report shall be filed not less than five days prior to the date on which the merchantable surplus filberts are disposed of unless the five-day period is expressly waived by the control board.

(b) Each handler, within 15 days after the disposition of any quantity of merchantable surplus filberts, shall file with the control board a report of the actual disposition of such quantity of merchantable surplus filberts. Such reports shall be certified to the control board and to the Secretary as to their correctness and accuracy.

(c) Each handler, from time to time, on demand of the control board, shall file with the board a report of his holdings of merchantable surplus filberts as of any date specified by the board. Such report, at the request of the control board, may be in the form of a confirmation of the records of the control board of such handler's holdings. Such report shall be certified to the control board and to the Secretary as to its correctness and accuracy.

(d) All reports required by this section shall show the quantity, pack, and location of the filberts covered by such reports and in the case of reports required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the applicable handler's storage lot and inspection certificate numbers, and the disposition of the merchantable surplus which is intended or which has been accomplished.

§ 997.82 Other reports. Upon request of the control board, made with the approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the board, in such manner and at such times as it prescribes (in addition to such other reports as are specifically provided for in this subpart), such other information as will enable the control board to perform its duties and to exercise its powers under this subpart.

§ 997.83 Verification of reports. For the purpose of checking and verifying reports made by handlers to it, the control board through its duly authorized agents, shall have access to the handler's premises wherever filberts may be held by such handler and, at any time during reasonable business hours, shall be permitted to inspect any filberts so held by such handler and any and all records of the handler with respect to the holding or disposition of all filberts which may be held or which may have been disposed of by such handler. Every handler shall furnish all labor necessary to facilitate such inspections as the control board may make of such handler's holdings of any filberts. Every handler shall store merchantable surplus filberts in such manner as to facilitate inspection and shall maintain adequate storage records which will permit accurate identification with respect to control board certificates of respective lots of all such filberts held or theretofore disposed of.

§ 997.84 Confidential information. All reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to the board which include data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing of the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handler from whom received shall be received by and at all times kept in the custody and under the control of one or more employees of the board, who shall disclose such information to no person except the Secretary. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this section, information may be disclosed to the board when reasonably necessary to enable the board to carry out its functions under this part.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 997.90 Expenses. The control board is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each fiscal year, for the maintenance and functioning of the control board and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of this subpart, determine to be appropriate. The recommendation of the control board as to the expenses for each such fiscal year, together with all data supporting such recommendations, shall be submitted to the Secretary on or before August 20 of the fiscal year in connection with which such recommendation is made. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by levying assessments as provided in § 997.91.

§ 997.91 Assessments. (a) Each handler shall pay to the control board on demand by the control board, from time to time, the sum of two-tenths of a cent for each pound of filberts certified for him, including those certified as merchantable filberts (including both salable and surplus) and those certified as small size filberts for export. At any time during or after a fiscal year, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to apply to all filberts so certified during such fiscal year, including those certified in said fiscal year prior to the date of such increase, to secure sufficient funds to cover the expenses authorized by § 997.90, or by any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses of the control board, and such additional assessments shall be paid by the handler on demand. At the end of any fiscal year for which the assessment rate may be increased by the Secretary, the rate shall revert to two-tenths of a cent a pound.

(b) Any money collected as assessments during any fiscal year and not expended in connection with the respective fiscal year's operations hereunder may be used and shall be refunded by the control board in accordance with the provisions of this subpart. Such excess funds may be used by the control board during the period of four months subsequent to such fiscal year in paying the expenses of the control board incurred in connection with the new fiscal year. The control board shall, however, from funds on hand, including assessments collected during the new fiscal year, distribute or make available, within five months after the beginning of the new fiscal year, the aforesaid excess to each handler from whom an assessment was collected, as aforesaid, in the proportion that the amount of the assessment paid by the respective handler bears to the total amount of the assessments paid by all handlers during said fiscal year.

(c) Any money collected from assessments under this subpart and remaining unexpended in the possession of the control board upon the termination of this subpart shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 997.95 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the control board, or any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate member, agent or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 997.96 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 997.97 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 997.98 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 997.99 Agents. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the United States Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 997.100 Effective time, termination or suspension.—(a) Effective time. The provisions of this subpart, as well as any amendments to this subpart, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare, and shall continue in force until terminated or suspended in one of the ways specified in this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. (1) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(2) The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(3) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of filberts who during the preceding fiscal year have been engaged in the production for market of filberts in the States of Oregon and Washington: Provided, That such majority have during such period produced for market more than 50 percent of the volume of such filberts produced for market within said States; but such termination shall be effected only if announced on or before July 1 of the then current fiscal year.

(4) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them ceases to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination. (1) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the members of the control board then functioning shall continue as joint trustees for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the control board, of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the board, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(2) Said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the control board and the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the control board or the joint trustees pursuant to this subpart.

(3) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the control board or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the said board and upon said joint trustees.

§ 997.101 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any right or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person, with respect to any such violation.

§ 997.102 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by any person or by the control board.

HANDLING OF FILBERTS GROWN IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

ORDER DIRECTING THAT REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG PRODUCERS OF FILBERTS IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON; DESIGNATING AGENTS TO CONDUCT REFERENDUM; AND DETERMINING THE REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers who, during the period August 1, 1953, through December 31, 1953 (which is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of this referendum), were engaged, in the States of Oregon and Washington, in the growing of filberts for market, to determine whether such producers approve or favor the issuance of an amended order regulating the handling of filberts grown in Oregon and Washington; said order, as proposed to be amended, is annexed to the decision of the Secretary of Agriculture filed simultaneously herewith.[1]

The procedure applicable to this referendum shall be the "Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda Among Producers in Connection with Marketing Orders (Except those Applicable to Milk and its Products) to Become Effective Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended" (15 F. R. 5176).

Robert H. Eaton and R. P. Callaway of the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents of the Secretary to conduct said referendum jointly or severally.

Copies of the text of the aforesaid amended order may be obtained or examined in: the Office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.; Western Marketing Field Office, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, 515 SW. Tenth Avenue, Portland 5, Oregon.

Ballot forms for use in the referendum will be mailed to producers of record with the United States Department of Agriculture and such forms may also be obtained from the office in the production area listed in the preceding paragraph.

(Sec. 5, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] JOHN H. DAVIS,
Assistant Secretary.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Parts 2, 3, 4]

[Docket No. 10832]

FM BROADCAST STATIONS

SPECIFIED NON-BROADCAST ACTIVITIES ON SIMPLEX AND/OR MULTIPLEX BASIS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2, 3, and 4 of the Commission's rules and regulations and the Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations to permit FM broadcast stations to engage in specified non-broadcast activities on a simplex and/or multiplex basis.

1. This notice of proposed rule making relates to certain services now being engaged in by several FM broadcast licensees. These operations, which are usually referred to by the term "functional music", consist of three types—the background music service, storecasting, and transitcasting.

2. The background music service consists of an arrangement whereby FM licensees undertake to supply programs of a background music nature[1] to commercial or industrial establishments such as banks, restaurants, barber shops, factories, etc. The rendition of this service involves the distribution of special receivers for the use of the subscribing establishments. Generally, before broadcasting spoken matter, the station transmits a supersonic signal (called a "beep" tone) which is inaudible to the human ear but which silences the receivers owned or rented by subscribers to the background music service. When the spoken material ends, the station removes the "beep" tone or transmits another signal which turns on the subscribers' receivers.

3. In the storecasting operation, programs originating at the studios of the FM stations in question are picked up by fixed frequency FM receivers with speakers installed in the ceilings of stores at spaced intervals over the aisles. The program format generally consists of continuous music of the background type, interspersed with short news roundups and weather reports, occasional recipes or household hints, and commercial announcements directed to shoppers concerning particular products in the store or stores involved. The inaudible supersonic signal or "beep" which by remote control activates the special receiver employed in this operation to increase the sound level of the spoken material in order to emphasize the commercials.

4. The transitcasting operation closely resembles storecasting except that its programs are designed to reach transit passengers in public vehicles. This programming is also similar to that utilized in storecasting and may be generally characterized as consisting of background music interrupted at fairly regular intervals by short news or sportscasts, weather and time reports, and commercials. The special receivers installed in the transit vehicle are permanently "locked" to the FM station's frequency and contain circuits which are activated by the inaudible supersonic tone in such a way as to increase the volume, usually when spoken material is being broadcast.

[1] The purpose of such music is to create an atmosphere favorable to the conduct of activities to which the music is incidental, such as for example dining in restaurants. Therefore, either through selection or editing, the music tends to be devoid of striking or distracting qualities; extremes such as jazz or classical music are avoided and vocals appear to be seldom used. In short, as it is represented in the releases of the stations concerned, the music is selected and presented as "background."

5. The first of the functional music operations to make its appearance was transitcasting in 1948, which was then followed by storecasting and finally the background music service. In June 1950, inspection of Commission files revealed that 34 stations were engaged in these services; at the present time the number is believed to be lower. The licensees engaged in these operations have entered into contractual arrangements, usually with an intermediary, for the rendition of the service in question to the subscribing party. The contracts on file with the Commission present a fairly wide variety of provisions dealing with the program material to be furnished, the degree of control retained by the licensee, the duration of the contract, etc. Thus, with respect to the programming furnished, the contracts vary from provisions specifying "a planned music service with all voice eliminated by use of supersonic signal control daily from 8:00 a. m., to 3:00 a. m., the following morning", to those in which no specific requirement concerning programming is mentioned; similarly, the contractual term varies from one to three years.

6. After study of the program logs and agreements submitted by licensees engaged in functional music, the Commission dispatched letters to several background music licensees, requesting their comments on whether the operation violated specified provisions of the Communications Act and the Commission's rules and regulations. Upon receipt and study of the stations' comments, which took the position that the operations in question did not violate the act or rules, the Commission issued two public notices. In the public notice dated April 12, 1951 (Mimeo 6285), the Commission advised the stations involved that their operations were not in accordance with law and that they should take steps to bring themselves in compliance therewith: And in its public notice of May 4, 1951 (Mimeo 62347), the Commission requested that all stations engaged in the background music operation submit a statement to the Commission indicating how they intended to achieve compliance with "all lawful requirements." The Commission view, as set out in both notices, was that the "beep" operations were inconsistent with basic statutory duties incumbent upon licensees of broadcast facilities for three reasons: (1) The licensees had given away the power to alter their service to meet the changing needs of the public because they had entered into contracts "to provide subscribers with predominantly 'planned music' during the stipulated periods"; (2) "The remuneration received by [the licensee] for transmission of the 'planned music' in question under these agreements is based upon the payments therefor made by the individual subscribers concerned"; the licensees were therefore in error in not announcing and logging the programs as sponsored; (3) The elimination of sponsorship, station identification, and other announcements from reception by subscribers, although made to the general public, violates the law since the requirements of the act and the rules and regulations contemplate transmission of such information to the station's entire audience and not to the broadcasting of a tone which prevents a portion of the audience from hearing the announcements. The Commission then stated that it would issue its conclusions as to the other questions—including the question whether such operations constitute point-to-point communications not authorized by the broadcast rules—when it had completed its study of the problems common to all "supersonic" operations.

7. Following the issuance of these public notices, petitions were filed by various parties [1] requesting three alternative remedies: (1) Reconsideration by the Commission of the position taken in the public notices referred to, and a holding that "functional music" operations are not in conflict with the act and pertinent Commission rules; (2) institution by the Commission of rule making proceedings looking to the amendment of its rules to authorize such operations by FM broadcast stations; and (3) the issuance, pursuant to section 5 (d) of the Administrative Procedure Act, and after oral argument, of a declaratory order as to the legality of the functional operations "in order that the licensees may be apprised of their legal rights and obligations." Thereafter, in July 1952 the Commission granted renewals of licenses to those FM broadcast stations which had been on a temporary license basis because of their functional music operations. And the Commission continued its overall study of the basic policy and rule questions presented by such operations.

8. In addition to the foregoing petitions relating to functional music operations, three petitions have been filed seeking amendment of the Commission's rules and standards to authorize the transmission of multiplex signals by FM broadcast stations. On April 8, 1950, Raymond M. Wilmotte filed a petition seeking Commission authorization "to permit FM broadcast stations to use any means available to transmit an additional service without affecting the listeners of the present broadcast service." On September 27, 1950, Multiplex Development Corporation requested the Commission to amend its rules and standards "to permit the use of a system of multiple program transmission, known as multicasting, in order to provide a useful supplementary FM broadcast service to individuals and organizations having suitable multiplex receiving equipment and without restriction as to the hours of operation or nature of the supplementary service, provided that such multicasting transmissions do not in any manner cause interference with or degrade the quality of the normal public broadcast transmissions within the high fidelity audio range from 30 to 15,000 cycles, and provided that such multicast transmissions do not cause any increase in present band widths of FM broadcast stations or cause interference with other FM stations on the same or adjacent channels." On March 4, 1953, Mount Mitchell Broadcasters, Inc., licensee of Station WMIT–FM, Clingmans Peak, North Carolina, stated that in addition to its FM broadcast program "it desired to provide a useful supplementary and simultaneous FM service to individuals and organizations having suitable receiving equipment and to provide additional communication channels for [its] own use in improving its existing FM broadcast service." It asserts that equipment is now available, making it possible for FM broadcast stations to multiply the number of useful communication channels from a specific FM transmitter without causing any degradation of the quality of the normal public broadcast transmission within the audio range of 30 to 15,000 cycles, and without causing any increase in present band widths of FM broadcast stations or any interference with other FM stations on the same or adjacent channels.

9. After receipt of these petitions, the Commission continued its study of the legal and policy questions raised by the three services. The fundamental issue presented is whether functional music operations constitute "broadcasting" as defined in section 3 (o) of the Communications Act and may be properly transmitted by a station licensed to provide a broadcast service. On the basis of the data available to the Commission, it is our view that operations having the basic characteristics outlined above are not broadcasting within the meaning of section 3 (o) of the act [2] because they do not appear "intended to be received by the public." [3] Thus, in the background music service, the "beeped-out" or "voiceless" programs are intended solely for the subscribing commercial institution and therefore, would appear to be a non-broadcast operation. In fact, as to all three operations, it would appear that their programming, while capable of being received by the general public, is not so intended, and that essentially these operations are geared and directed to reception by the commercial institutions, stores, or transit audiences involved. [4] The program format utilized during functional music hours, apparently required by these operations, consists of background music interspersed with brief news, weather or time announcements. Accordingly, we are of the view that the services involved are of a non-broadcast nature, being mainly directed to specific establishments or points and the listeners contained therein and not to the general public. The parties engaged in the functional music operations, since they are licensed as broadcasters, are obligated to operate in accordance with all of the provisions of the Communications Act, applicable treaties [5] and the rules issued by the Commission governing the broadcast service. [6]

10. In the light of the foregoing a critical question is presented as to whether it would be in the public interest to authorize such non-broadcast operations in the FM band. In our study of FM we have been somewhat heartened by several factors such as the interest in FM in smaller communities (under 10,000 people), in the fact that some AM stations, particularly in the South, are turning to FM to extend their coverage, the loyal audience of "good music" listeners of the several FM "good music" stations, and the moderate but steady growth in the number of noncommercial educational FM stations. On the other hand, however, the available data indicates that on the whole, FM has not yet succeeded in developing a sound economic base. The approximately $3,000,000 in FM revenue reported in 1952 amounted to about ⅔ of 1% of the total broadcast revenues. Eighty-seven percent of the 616 FM stations on the air were operated by AM licensees, the large majority of which provided the FM service as a "bonus". Only 159 AM–FM stations reported preliminary FM revenues for 1952. These 159 stations aggregated $32.6 million in AM revenues and $1.7 million in FM revenues; thus, FM revenues represented only 5 percent of their combined business. Of the 53 independent FM stations reporting in 1952, only 6 reported a profit: 5 had net incomes before Federal income taxes of $2,000 or less, the highest income being $4,600. [7] These facts, we believe, demonstrate FM's financial difficulties. Indeed, as we have stated, the fact that several FM stations have turned to the functional music operation is an indication of the difficulties encountered by them in their efforts to compete in the general radio advertising market.

11. On the basis of our review of the FM picture, we believe it might be possible to provide for a more effective use of the frequency space now assigned for FM broadcasting—making possible the rendition of new and useful services—and enabling FM broadcast licensees to alleviate, in part, their financial difficulties. It should be emphasized, however, that our aim in this proceeding is not the conversion of the FM broadcast band to some new specialized non-broadcast service or services: On the contrary, authorization of such new ventures must be only as an adjunct to the FM broadcast operation, a subsidiary service so that the main undertaking—the broadcast service to the public—can draw financial sustenance from it. Moreover, a limitation on our proposal which is essential to the maintenance and development of the FM broadcast service is that it be accomplished without appreciable degradation of the superior quality of that service.

12. Accordingly, the Commission proposes to amend its rules and standards in order to provide for the following:

(a) The relaxation of provisions for the minimum hours of operation of FM broadcast stations so as to require FM broadcast stations to operate a minimum total of 36 hours a week during the hours of 6:00 a. m. to midnite. During this 36 hour period of broadcast operation the FM licensee will, of course, be required to render broadcast service intended to serve the public in accordance with the duties and responsibilities of broadcast licensees.

(b) The authorization of secondary or subsidiary licenses to FM broadcast licensees to engage in a limited type of non-broadcast services. The authorization which might aptly be called a Subsidiary Communications Authorization (SCA), would be to engage in services of a non-broadcast nature but involving a specialized programming service provided by the licensee. Such programming would consist of news, music, time, weather, etc. An example of an activity falling within such an authorization is the functional music operation, while one not encompassed within it is a taxicab dispatching service. The FM broadcast licensee would be required to provide the material transmitted under this special authorization and could not delegate or "lease" the authorization conferred by the SCA. But in this non-broadcast operation the licensee would not be subject to non-technical-broadcast requirements. It is proposed to permit operation under an SCA under the following conditions:

(1) FM broadcast stations would be permitted to engage in the specialized non-broadcast activities on a simplex basis during all times not devoted to the 36 hours required for FM aural broadcasting. The material transmitted during this specialized operation may be coded with a "beep" tone so as to maintain its commercial marketability, with the station utilizing appropriate decoding devices in connection with the subscribers' receivers.

(2) The FM broadcast station would be permitted to engage in the specialized non-broadcast activities on a multiplex basis during all regularly authorized broadcast hours.

14. The Commission is aware that the foregoing proposals with respect to a Subsidiary Communications Service might be broader and that the petitions set forth in paragraphs 7 and 8 look toward broader proposals. Experience might well indicate such a broadening to be desirable but we are of the view at this time that the type of limitation suggested herein is to be preferred in light of our objective, i. e., a fuller development of the FM broadcasting service.

15. The Commission desires comments with respect to the above proposals. Such comments may be directed to the views expressed in paragraph 9 concerning the nature of functional music operations. In addition, comments, and where appropriate full information, should be furnished for the following:

(a) Existing or proposed methods of functional music and multiplexing methods or systems.

(b) Technical data obtained in functional music and multiplexing tests and operations.

(c) Non-technical data obtained in functional music and multiplexing tests and operations relating particularly to the public demand for such services.

(d) The plans or proposals of interested persons looking toward the establishment of multiplexing and functional music operations on a commercial basis.

[2] That section provides: "'Broadcasting' means the dissemination of radio communications intended to be received by the public, directly or by the intermediary of relay stations."

[3] We recognize that the functional music operator has no objection to and indeed, probably desires the reception by the general public of his transmissions, in addition to the special places primarily involved. But, as demonstrated by the format adopted and apparently the station's source of the revenues, the service directed to the special points or subscribers would clearly appear to be the key to the overall operation. For this reason we believe the operation must be described as predominantly non-broadcast in nature.

[4] While there are treaties affecting the allocation and utilization of frequencies, it is not believed that any of these treaties prohibit stations operating in the broadcast band from engaging in non-broadcast operations so long as no harmful interference is caused to foreign radio stations.

[5] In view of our conclusions that the type of operation under discussion here does not fall within the statutory definition of "broadcasting" we find it unnecessary to delineate the possible respects in which licensees engaged in such operations do not fulfill the obligations and responsibilities of broadcast licensees. For example, one respect in which a substantial question is raised is whether the functional music operator had retained the full measure of control of station operation required of a broadcast licensee. See Master Bcstg. Corp., 6 Pike and Fischer RR 621; Georgia School of Technology, 10 FCC 110.

[6] None of these stations was engaged in transitcasting or storecasting. At most, functional music operations produced $700,000 or about 25 percent of the $3,000,000 FM revenues reported in 1952. The revenues of stations engaged in functional music were higher than the average revenue of other stations reporting FM income in 1952. Thus, FM stations engaged in functional music reported average revenues of $40,000 while the 195 other FM stations which reported, had an average annual revenue of approximately $11,000.

(e) The extent, if any, of the degradation of the nature, quality or character of the primary broadcast service and interference to other stations operating on the same or adjacent channels which would result from proposed multiplexing and functional music operations. In this regard comments should include the effect, if any, on receivers in the hands of the public.

(f) Amendments of the Commission's rules required to accomplish the subject proposals for multiplexing and functional music operations on a commercial basis.

16. Written comments on the above matters may be filed with the Commission by any interested party on or before February 15, 1954. Replies to such comments may be filed within 10 days from the last date for filing original comments. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

17. This notice is issued pursuant to the authority of sections 4 (i), 301 and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

18. Pending final action by the Commission on the subject proposals FM broadcast licensees presently engaged in functional music operations are authorized to continue such operations.

19. The Commission will specify in subsequent notices the time and nature of demonstrations and tests and such further proceedings as may be necessary.

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Released: December 31, 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,[1]

[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

Dissent of Commissioner Hennock. The Commission has today adopted a notice of proposed rule making looking toward permitting FM broadcast stations for the first time to engage in non-broadcast activities on a simplex and multiplex basis. To this end, it is proposed (a) to cut down the required minimum hours of operation of FM broadcast stations from 42 to 36 hours a week; and (b) to permit FM licensees to obtain Subsidiary Communications Authorizations (SCA) to engage in point-to-point operations on a simplex basis during the time not devoted to the required minimum of 36 hours of FM broadcasting or on a multiplex basis at any time.

The notice (in paragraph 9) recognizes that functional music, storecasting and transitcasting, is not broadcasting within the meaning of section 3 (o) of the Communications Act. Authorization of non-broadcast operations in the FM band, as here proposed, will be therefore, tantamount to a decision that the frequencies heretofore exclusively allocated for FM broadcasting may henceforth be used for non-broadcast operations. This in my opinion is a reallocation of the FM band, and no amount of emphasis "that our aim here is not the conversion of the FM broadcast band to some new specialized non-broadcast service or services" will change this result.

If the spectrum space allocated to FM broadcasting is excessive, or not fully utilized by that service and capable of accommodating the services, all persons interested in radio communications should be given an opportunity to apply for the use of these frequencies. As it is, only FM licensees would be the beneficiaries of this proposal, for only they would be eligible for the proposed SCA to engage in non-broadcast operations. In my opinion, it has not been shown that it would be in the public interest so to restrict the scope of what essentially is a proposal for a new allocation of 20 megacycles of spectrum space.

A failure of the majority to recognize that this proposal constitutes, in effect, a reallocation of the FM band, contains far-reaching implications. Frequencies are allocated to the broadcast services on the theory that they will be used for "the dissemination of radio communications intended to be received by the public". (Sec. 3 (o) of the act). The very justification for allocating exclusively for broadcasting wide portions of the immensely valuable and scarce spectrum space, is the fact that it be used for broadcasting for the benefit of the general public.

Yet, here the Commission is proposing to convert the FM band to private non-broadcast use of FM licensees. This may, in effect, give them a wind-fall from the public domain for which the demand increases daily and the supply decreases constantly. For the uses to which the FM band can be placed through multiplexing may be virtually unlimited. While the Commission emphasizes that the primary use of the band is to remain FM broadcasting by the very nature of the manifold uses, e. g., multiplexing, functional music, storecasting, transitcasting and all other services lying between functional music operation and taxicab dispatching service, FM broadcasting may well be relegated to a subsidiary position. This is certainly a case of the tail wagging the dog.

Time does not permit me to translate these new uses of the FM broadcast band into their effect on the other broadcast services, as well as common carriers and special services.

Clearly a full public hearing is called for here to explore fully the above problems not only raised by the proposed reallocation of broadcast frequencies for non-broadcast uses, but also to study and define the uses of multiplexing, and those eligible for its use. I hope that the comments which will be forthcoming will shed further light on the above problems which I find so perplexing at this time.

NOTICE OF AGREEMENTS FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to Section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended; 39 Stat. 733, 46 U. S. C. Section 814.

(1) Agreement No. 7615-1 between Wilhelmsens Dampskibselskab A/S Den Norske Afrika-OG Australielinie, A/S Tonsberg, A/S Tankfart I, A/S Tankfart IV, A/S Tankfart V, A/S Tankfart VI (as one party only), and Aktiebolaget Svenska Amerika Linien (Swedish American Line), modifies their joint service agreement (No. 7615) by extending the geographical scope thereof to include the trade between United States Gulf and South Atlantic ports and ports in the Bordeaux/Hamburg range. Agreement No. 7615 presently covers the trades (a) between United States Gulf and South Atlantic ports and Scandinavian and Baltic ports, and (b) from Vera Cruz and Tampico, Mexico to New Orleans.

(2) Agreement No. 7949 between the member lines of the Transpacific Freight Conference (Hong Kong) and China Navigation Company, Ltd., China Siam Line, and Indo-China Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., covers the transportation of cargo under through bills of lading from Bangkok, Siam and Bangkok's outer harbor of Kohsichang, to United States and Canadian Pacific Coast ports and to Honolulu, Hawaii, with transhipment at Hong Kong. Agreement No. 7949 was filed to supersede and cancel Agreement No. 7851.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Regulation Office, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to either of the agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

Dated: January 4, 1954.

MILLING OF TUNG NUTS

NOTICE OF HEARING ON APPLICATION FOR FINDING THAT INDUSTRY IS OF A SEASONAL NATURE

An application has been filed by the American Tung Oil Association for a determination that the milling of tung nuts constitutes an industry or branch of an industry of a seasonal nature within the meaning of section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the regulations contained in this part.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to §§ 526.6 and 526.7 (29 CFR Part 526) of the regulations of a public hearing to be held in Room 308, Post Office Building, Tallahassee, Florida, on February 8, 1954, at 10:00 a. m. before an authorized representative of the Administrator, for the purpose of receiving evidence and arguments on the questions:

1. Whether milling of tung nuts constitutes an industry or branch of an industry of a seasonal nature within the meaning of section 7 (b) (3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act and Part 526, as amended, of the regulations issued thereunder.

2. What is the scope of the industry.

Any interested person may appear at the hearing to offer evidence, provided that not later than February 1, 1954, such person shall file with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., a notice of intention to appear which should contain the following information:

1. The name and address of the person appearing.

2. If he is appearing in a representative capacity, the names and addresses of the persons or organizations which he is representing.

3. Whether he is appearing in support of or in opposition to the application for exemption.

Such notice may be mailed to the Administrator and shall be considered filed upon receipt. Written statements in lieu of personal appearance may be mailed to the Administrator at any time prior to the date of hearing or may be filed with the presiding officer at the hearing.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of December 1953.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 8621, 10699]

TRAVELERS BROADCASTING SERVICE CORP. AND HARTFORD TELECASTING CO., INC.

ORDER RE ISSUES

In re applications of the Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation, Hartford, Connecticut, Docket No. 8621, File No. BPCT-193; Hartford Telecasting Company, Inc., Hartford, Connecticut, Docket No. 10699, File No. BPCT-1540; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration (1) a motion filed October 16, 1953 by Hartford Telecasting Company, Inc. (hereinafter Hartford) that the Commission (a) delete from its order of designation in this proceeding its findings with respect to the legal and financial qualifications of subject applicant, Travelers Broadcasting Service Corporation (hereinafter Broadcasting), and (b) enlarge its said order by including the issues of the legal and financial qualifications of Broadcasting, as well as of its parent company, Travelers Insurance Company (hereinafter Insurance), and (2) a motion filed October 22, 1953 by Broadcasting that the Commission enlarge its subject hearing order by authorizing the Examiner to add the issue of the sufficiency of each applicant's available funds to effectuate its proposals;

It appearing, that, in its order of designation released October 2, 1953 the Commission designated the subject applications for hearing on the comparative issue only; and

It further appearing, that (a) all of the outstanding stock of Broadcasting is held by insurance; (b) certain real and personal broadcast properties leased to Broadcasting are owned by Insurance; (c) the latter has agreed to advance to Broadcasting such sums of money as may be necessary to maintain and operate the leased property; (d) Insurance has agreed to lease Broadcasting additional real property with buildings, equipment, etc., thereafter to be erected or installed at Broadcasting's request; and (e) the total estimated cost of construction of the proposed television broadcast station in the amount of $1,042,560 is in excess of the funds available to Broadcasting in the absence of financial assistance from Insurance; and

It further appearing, that Hartford contends that Insurance lacks statutory authority to make the investments indicated in the paragraph above in the following manner:

(a) Approval of the action taken by its Finance Committee at the meeting of August 4, 1953 on a certain lease with Broadcasting was not unanimous as required by section 6166, Chapter 295, General Statutes of Connecticut;

(b) The proposed agreements between Insurance and Broadcasting do not constitute loans or investments permitted under sections 6168, 6170 and 6171, Chapter 295, General Statutes of Connecticut and under the applicable statutes of the State of New York where Insurance is also qualified to do business; and

(c) The ownership, operation and control of a television broadcast station through the device of a wholly-owned subsidiary is ultra vires and void under the laws of the State of Connecticut; and

It further appearing, that Broadcasting has submitted an affidavit of the custodian of record for Insurance, showing that at the meeting of its Finance Committee held August 4, 1953 all of the Committee members were present and voted unanimously; and

It further appearing, that (1) Broadcasting contends that, as permitted by section 6171 of Chapter 295, General Statutes of Connecticut, the commitments made to Broadcasting by its parent company did not exceed 8 percent of the total admitted assets of Insurance and (2) Hartford has not controverted said contention; and

It further appearing, that Broadcasting was licensed to broadcast by radio in 1925; that said license, with the approval of The Federal Radio Commission, was transferred to it in 1928 when it was wholly owned by Insurance; that since then its radio broadcast license has been renewed by the Commission regularly; and that Insurance has been examined periodically by representatives of the Insurance Commissioner of Connecticut, as required by section 6032 of its General Statutes, and that the legality of the insurance company's holding of stock in a company engaged in radio broadcasting has not been questioned; and

It further appearing, that (1) no facts have been submitted by Hartford which will support its allegations set forth above; (2) no judicial decisions have been cited substantiating the interpretation advanced by Hartford of sections 6166, 6168, 6170–71 of Chapter 295, General Statutes of Connecticut; (3) Hartford has not made any showing that the charter issued to Broadcasting by the Secretary of the State of Connecticut has been revoked; and (4) Article Three of the Certificate of Incorporation of Broadcasting, as amended January 20, 1953, specifically authorizes said corporation "to * * * maintain and operate anywhere in the United States of America * * * radio and television broadcast stations * * *"; and

It further appearing, that Hartford has raised no questions as to the financial qualifications of Insurance; and

It further appearing, upon careful consideration of the allegations of Hartford and the responses thereto by Broadcasting, that no substantial question has been raised regarding the legal and financial qualifications of Broadcasting and Insurance such as to warrant the inclusion in this proceeding of the issues requested by Hartford; and

It further appearing, that no objections have been raised by Hartford to a grant of the petition filed by Broadcasting; and

It further appearing, that subject petitions were timely filed under § 1.389 of the Commission's rules;

It is ordered, That the above described petition of Hartford is denied, and the above described petition of Broadcasting is granted insofar as it requests that the Hearing Examiner be given authority to enlarge the issues to permit inquiry into the adequacy of finances available to the applicants; and

It is further ordered, That the issues specified in this proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to each applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the applications will be effectuated.

Released: December 28, 1953.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 10 in Miami, Florida; and

It appearing, that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; and that each of the above-named applicants is legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 29th day of January 1954, in Washington, D. C., upon the following issue:

To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences among the applications as to:

(1) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

(2) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(3) The programming service proposed in each of the above-entitled applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

Released: January 5, 1954.

SCRIPPS-HOWARD RADIO, INC., ET AL.

ORDER AMENDING ISSUES

In re applications of Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc., Knoxville, Tennessee, Docket No. 10512, File No. BPCT-630; Radio Station WBIR, Inc., Knoxville, Tennessee, Docket No. 10513, File No. BPCT-686; Tennessee Television, Inc., Knoxville, Tennessee, Docket No. 10514, File No. BPCT-1002; for television construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration a petition filed on December 4, 1953, by Scripp-Howard Radio, Inc., requesting that the November 13, 1953, order of the Commission, released November 16, 1953, denying Scripps-Howard Radio, Inc.'s request for enlargement of the issues in the above-entitled proceeding be amended or modified to permit enlargement of the issues to determine whether funds available will be sufficient to effectuate the proposals of the applicants; the above-described order of the Commission; and an answer filed on December 14, 1953, by Radio Station WBIR, Inc., to subject petition;

It appearing, that the petitioner requests the Commission to amend or modify its November 13, 1953, order, released November 16, 1953, in the above-entitled proceeding, to permit the Examiner on his own motion or on petition by a party to the proceeding to enlarge the issue so as to determine whether funds available to the applicants will be sufficient to effectuate their proposals in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Commission's memorandum opinion and order In re South Central Broadcasting Co., 9 RR 1035; and

It further appearing, that subsequent to the Commission's ruling in the South Central Broadcasting case the above-described issue has been included in the orders of the Commission designating for hearing competing applications for television facilities; and

It further appearing, that Radio Station WBIR, Inc., was the only party to this proceeding that filed an answer to subject petition, and it stated that it had no objection to a grant of the petitioner's request;

It is ordered, That the petition is granted, and that the Commission's order of November 13, 1953, released November 16, 1953, denying petitioner's request for enlargement of the issues is amended to include the following:

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or, on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

RAY HERBERT GUNCKEL, JR., AND B. F. J. TIMM

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Ray Herbert Gunckel, Jr. (new), Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10818, File No. BP-8796, B. F. J. Timm (new), Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10819, File No. BP-8859; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications for construction permit each for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1280 kilocycles, with a power of 1,000 watts, daytime only, at Jacksonville, Florida; and

It appearing, that Ray Herbert Gunckel, Jr., is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified; that B. F. J. Timm is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified except with respect to the matters discussed herein; that no interference would be caused by either proposal to any existing or proposed station, but that the operation of both stations as proposed would result in mutually prohibitive interference with each other and therefore it is necessary to designate the two applications for comparative hearing; and

It further appearing, that on June 10, 1953 Ray Herbert Gunckel, Jr., filed a petition requesting the dismissal of the Timm application or, in the alternative, a conditional grant of the Gunckel application in accordance with the provisions of § 1.385 (e) of the Commission's rules, which petition was based primarily on Gunckel's allegation that the Timm application had been filed to delay action on Gunckel's application to the economic advantage of E. D. Rivers, Sr., in his operation of Station WOBS, Jacksonville, Florida, by whom Gunckel was formerly employed and with whom Timm was associated in the ownership and operation of other radio stations; and

It further appearing, that on June 25, 1953, B. F. J. Timm filed an answer to the above petition in which he stated that he had severed all business relationships with E. D. Rivers, Sr., that the Timm application was not filed to delay action on the Gunckel application and that Timm is seriously prosecuting his application on his own behalf; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the applicants were advised by letters dated October 7, 1953 that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive, that in the Commission's opinion Gunckel's petition of June 10, 1953 could not be granted because the uncontested facts were insufficient to support a finding that the Timm application was not filed in good faith; and

It further appearing, that Ray Herbert Gunckel, Jr., filed a reply on November 5, 1953 in which he reiterated the allegations he made against B. F. J. Timm in previous pleadings; and

It further appearing, that B. F. J. Timm filed a reply on November 5, 1953 in which he expressed his readiness for a hearing on the above applications; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications the various pleadings filed with respect thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether the application of B. F. J. Timm was filed for the purpose of impeding, obstructing, or delaying Commission action on the application of Ray Herbert Gunckel, Jr. (BP-8796) including a determination of the facts and circumstances surrounding the B. F. J. Timm-E. D. Rivers, Sr. 1953 stock transfers in Stations WGAA, Cedartown, Georgia, and WLBS, Birmingham, Alabama.

2. To determine, on a comparative basis, which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would best serve the public interest, convenience or necessity in the light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants to own and operate the proposed stations.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

ESTHERVILLE BROADCASTING CORP.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Estherville Broadcasting Corporation, Estherville, Iowa, File No. BP-8828, Docket No. 10820; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for a construction permit to increase the power of Station KLIL, Estherville, Iowa, from 100 watts to 250 watts, unlimited time, on 1340 kilocycles; and

It appearing, that the applicant is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified, but that the proposed operation would cause interference to Stations KFGT, Fremont, Nebraska; KWLM, Willmar, Minnesota; KROC, Rochester, Minnesota; and KIJV, Huron, South Dakota; and receive interference from Stations KWLM, KROC and KIJV; and

It further appearing, that in a letter dated May 19, 1953, the Southern Minnesota Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KROC, requested that the subject application be designated for hearing; and

It further appearing, that, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the subject applicant was advised by letter dated November 4, 1953, of the aforementioned deficiencies and that the Commission was unable to conclude that a grant of the application would be in the public interest; and

It further appearing, that the licensees of Stations KFGT and KWLM requested in letters dated November 18 and December 3, 1953, respectively, that the subject application be designated for hearing, at which they would appear; and

It further appearing, that the applicant, in a letter dated November 27, 1953, requested that its application be designated for hearing at the earliest possible date; and

It further appearing, that the Commission is still unable to conclude that a grant of the subject application would be in the public interest;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

3. To determine whether the proposed operation would involve objectionable interference to and from Stations KFGT, Fremont, Nebraska; KWLM, Willmar, Minnesota; KROC, Rochester, Minnesota; and KIJV, Huron, South Dakota; and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations, and the nature and character of the program service now being rendered to such areas and populations by Stations KFGT, KWLM, KROC and KIJV, respectively.

It is further ordered, That the Southern Minnesota Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KROC, Rochester, Minnesota; Walker Radio, Incorporated, licensee of Station KFGT, Fremont, Nebraska; Lakeland Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KWLM, Willmar, Minnesota; James Valley Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KIJV, Huron, South Dakota are made parties to this proceeding.

Released: December 29, 1953.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December 1953:

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 12 in West Palm Beach, Florida; and

It appearing, that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; and that each of the above-named applicants is legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 29th day of January 1954 in Washington, D. C., upon the following issue:

To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applications as to:

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-2229]

NORTHWEST ALABAMA GAS DISTRICT

ORDER REOPENING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

Northwest Alabama Gas District (Northwest Alabama), a public corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama, with its principal place of business in Hamilton, Alabama, on August 14, 1953, filed an application pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order directing Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern Natural) to establish physical connection of its transmission facilities with the facilities proposed to be constructed by Applicant for sale and delivery of natural gas for distribution in the communities of Guin, Hackleburg, Haleyville, Hamilton, Sulligent, Winfield, Bear Creek, and Boston, all in Alabama. Applicant also proposes to provide natural gas service to the City of Fayette, Alabama (Fayette), which has filed an application in Docket No. G-2188, pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order directing Southern Natural to serve it.

By order of the Commission issued on November 13, 1953, Fayette was permitted to intervene in Docket No. G-2229.

Pursuant to the order of the Commission issued on October 27, 1953, consolidated hearings in Docket No. G-2229 and related dockets were commenced on November 16, 1953, and concluded on November 18, 1953. By order of the Commission issued on December 4, 1953, the intermediate decision procedure was omitted and the matter is now before us for disposition. On December 23, 1953, Northwest Alabama filed a petition to reopen the proceedings in Docket No. G-2229 for the purpose of taking additional evidence and otherwise correcting deficiencies with respect to the following:

(1) Whether or not there is a firm agreement between Northwest Alabama and Fayette concerning joint construction, operation and maintenance of facilities from Southern Natural's facilities to the Fayette city gate.

(2) Whether the City of Fayette has or has not adopted or accepted evidence of Northwest Alabama in regard to the feasibility of the Fayette project assuming joint construction of facilities proposed by Northwest Alabama.

(3) Whether or not Fayette relies upon the record in Docket No. G-2229 for an allocation of gas to it.

(4) Whether or not the lateral from Guin to Hamilton is of adequate size to carry the estimated load requirements.

The Commission finds: The proceeding in Docket No. G-2229 should be reopened for the sole purpose of affording to Northwest Alabama and Fayette the opportunity to present further evidence with respect to the matters set forth in paragraphs (1) through (4) above.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceeding in Docket No. G-2229 be, and the same hereby is, reopened for the sole purpose of affording to Northwest Alabama and Fayette the opportunity to present further evidence with respect to the matters set forth in paragraphs (1) through (4) above.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and by virtue of the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on Docket No. G-2229, commencing on January 18, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues set forth in paragraphs (1) through (4) above.

Adopted: December 29, 1953.

Issued: January 4, 1954.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

On November 18, 1953, El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal office in El Paso, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings: Provided, That no request to be heard, protest or petition is filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 24, 1953 (18 F. R. 8707).

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on January 20, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of said rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Issued: January 4, 1954.

OLIN INTERSTATE CORP.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

On December 14, 1953, Olin Interstate Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with executive offices at 570 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the acquisition and operation of all of the facilities of Interstate Natural Gas Company, Incorporated (Interstate Natural), a Delaware corporation with its principal office in Monroe, Louisiana. Applicant, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Olin Industries, Inc., proposes to acquire the facilities and properties of Interstate Natural by a corporate merger, with Applicant being the corporation surviving the merger and with its name being changed to "Olin Gas Transmission Corporation."

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened-procedure provided for in § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.32 (b)). Due notice of the filing of the application has been given, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 23, 1953 (18 F. R. 8664).

The Commission finds:

(1) This proceeding, in the circumstances, is not a proper one for disposition under the provisions of the aforesaid § 1.32 (b) of its rules of practice and procedure.

(2) It is appropriate, reasonable, and in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists, to hold a public hearing in the above-entitled proceeding, as hereinafter provided and ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7, 15, and 16 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's general rules and regulations, including rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR, Chapter I), a public hearing be held, commencing on January 19, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application herein.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Adopted: December 30, 1953.

Issued: January 4, 1954.

NEWBERN, TENNESSEE

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 4, 1954.

Take notice that the Town of Newbern (Applicant), a body politic and corporate and an existing municipality of the State of Tennesee, filed on December 17, 1953, an application pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act for an order directing Trunkline Gas Company (Trunkline) to establish physical connection of its transportation facilities with the facilities of Applicant's proposed Natural gas distribution system, and to sell natural gas to Applicant for local distribution to the citizens of Newbern, Tennessee, and its environs.

Applicant proposes to interconnect its facilities with those of Trunkline at a proper place near Applicant's corporate limits.

The estimated maximum daily demand stated by Applicant is less than 2,000 Mcf during the first five-year period.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 22d day of January 1954. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 19 NUMBER 6

Washington, Saturday, January 9, 1954

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 13]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

LIMITATION OF HANDLING

§ 914.313 Navel Orange Regulation 13—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 14 (18 F. R. 5638), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective September 22, 1953, under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on January 7, 1954, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date of this section.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 10, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 17, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 381,150 boxes;

(ii) District 2: 115,180 boxes;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;

(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) Navel oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(4) As used in this section "handled," "handler," "boxes," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "District 4" shall have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of January 1954.

[Lemon Reg. 519]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.626 Lemon Regulation 519—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 18 F. R. 6767), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified in this section was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on January 6, 1954, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 10, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 17, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 50 carloads;

(ii) District 2: 250 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2" and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. [illegible])

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

[ACP-1954, Supp. S]

PART 1101—NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION

SUBPART—1954

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7–17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1954, and section 348 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the 1954 National Agricultural Conservation Program, issued August 3, 1953 (18 F. R. 4643), as amended August 3, 1953 (18 F. R. 4761), and November 4, 1953 (18 F. R. 7024), is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1101.518 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1101.518 Practice A–3: Initial establishment on cropland of perennial or biennial legumes or perennial grasses, or mixtures of legumes and perennial grasses, to retard erosion and to improve soil structure, permeability, or water-holding capacity, as a part of a crop rotation. This practice is applicable only in counties, or parts of a county, where it is determined that crop rotations for soil improvement which include perennial grasses, perennial and biennial legumes, or mixtures of such legumes and perennial grasses, are not now generally in use. Federal cost-sharing on the individual farm will be limited to cropland needing such plantings to retard erosion, for improvement of soil structure, permeability, or water-holding capacity and, on such land, to an acreage which, together with the acreage of all such plantings on cropland on the farm at the beginning of the 1954 program, which will not be plowed under in 1954 before any crop is harvested therefrom, will not exceed 35 percent of the cropland on the farm. Acreages of grasses and legumes on which cost-sharing is allowed under any other practice may not be considered in determining the increase in acreage eligible for cost-sharing under this practice. Minimum seeding rates, eligible seeds, and proportions of grass and legume seeds in eligible mixtures, the minimum requirement for cultural steps essential to successful establishment of the practice, and the minimum rotation period required for the plantings must be specified in the State or county handbook.

* * * * *

2. Section 1101.559 is amended by revising the second sentence to read as follows:

§ 1101.559 Practice D–2: Initial establishment in the cropping system of summer annual legumes and adapted nonlegumes for summer protection from erosion. * * * Vegetable and truck crops for sale, small grains, all soybeans (except in areas, as determined by the Administrator, ACPS, where soybeans are not normally grown commercially for feed or seed), mung beans, or peanuts and seedings (other than crotalaria) interplanted with row crops are not eligible. * * *

3. Section 1101.564 is amended by revising the first sentence to read as follows:

§ 1101.564 Practice E–1: Initiation of stubble mulching into the farming system to improve soil permeability and to protect soil from wind and water erosion. A stubble mulch must be maintained on the surface soil by performing tillage operations which will leave sufficient crop or weed residue on the surface to provide protection against wind and water erosion and incorporate the balance of the residue into the surface of the soil. * * *

4. Section 1101.566 is amended by revising the Maximum Federal cost-share to read as follows:

§ 1101.566 Practice E–3: Wind erosion control operations in serious wind erosion areas. * * *

Maximum Federal cost-share. 50 percent of the average cost of those required protective operations which are not primarily for crop production.

5. A new § 1101.590 is added as follows:

§ 1101.590 Excess cotton acreage. (a) Any person who makes application for payment of cost-shares with respect to any farm located in a county in which any kind of cotton is planted in 1954 shall file with such application a statement that he has not knowingly planted any kind of cotton or caused any kind of cotton to be planted during 1954 on any farm in which he has an interest in excess of the 1954 acreage allotment established for the farm for such kind of cotton under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

(b) Any person who knowingly plants any kind of cotton or causes any kind of cotton to be planted on his farm in 1954 in excess of the 1954 acreage allotment for the farm for such kind of cotton under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall not be eligible for any payment of cost-shares whatsoever on that farm or on any other farm under 1954 programs authorized by sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended. Cotton of any kind shall not be deemed to have been planted on any farm in excess of the farm acreage allotment for such kind of cotton if, after the acreage originally planted to such kind of cotton has been determined and notice thereof sent to the operator of the farm, the acreage planted to such kind of cotton is adjusted to the farm acreage allotment for such kind of cotton in the period allowed under the notice. If the operator is notified that the acreage allotment for any kind of cotton has been exceeded and the acreage planted to such kind of cotton is not adjusted to such acreage allotment in the period allowed under the notice, the acreage allotment for such kind of cotton shall be deemed to have been knowingly exceeded by all producers having an interest in such kind of cotton on the farm. Notice of overplanting to the operator of the farm shall be deemed to be notice to all persons sharing in the production of any kind of cotton on the farm.

(c) For the purposes of this section kind of "cotton" shall be upland cotton or extra long staple cotton.

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164; 16 U. S. C. 590d. Interpret or apply secs. 7–17, 49 Stat. 1148, as amended sec. 348 52 Stat. 59 as amended, Public Law 156, 83d Cong.; 7 U. S. C. 1348, 16 U. S. C. 590g–590q)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

51.165 Argumentation.
51.166 Privacy of hearings.
51.167 Misbehavior before Board.
51.168 Transcript of hearings.
51.169 Notice of decision.
51.170 Probative value of evidence.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.151 to 51.170 issued under sec. 1, 44 Stat. 887; 22 U. S. C. 211a.

§ 51.151 Organization of Board. The Secretary of State shall appoint a Board of Passport Appeals consisting of three or more members, one of whom shall be designated by the Secretary as Chairman. The Chairman shall assure that there is assigned to hear the appeal of any applicant a panel of not less than three members including himself or his designee as presiding officer, which number shall constitute a quorum.

§ 51.152 Decisions of the Board. Decisions shall be by majority vote. Voting may be either in open or closed session on any question except recommendations under § 51.140, which shall be in closed session. Decisions under § 51.140 shall be in writing and shall be signed by all participating members of the Board.

§ 51.153 Counsel to the Board. A Counsel, to be designated by the Secretary of State, shall be responsible to the Board for the scheduling and presentation of cases, aid in legal and procedural matters, information to the applicant as to his procedural rights before the Board, maintenance of records and such other duties as the Board or the Chairman, on its behalf, may determine.

§ 51.154 Examiner. The Board may, within its discretion, appoint an examiner in any case, who may, with respect to such case, be vested with any or all authority vested in the Board or its presiding officer, subject to review and final decision by the Board, but, an applicant shall not be denied an opportunity for a hearing before the Board unless he expressly waives it.

§ 51.155 Chairman. The Chairman, or his designee, shall preside at all hearings of the Board, and shall be empowered in all respects to regulate the course of the hearings and pass upon all issues relating thereto. The Chairman, or his designee, shall be empowered to administer oaths and affirmations.

§ 51.156 Prior administrative remedies. It is required that prior to petitioning for an appeal, an applicant shall (a) exhaust the administrative remedies available in the Passport Office, as set out in § 51.137, and (b) comply with the provisions of § 51.142, as a part of his application, if deemed necessary by the Passport Office.

§ 51.157 Petition. An applicant desiring to take an appeal shall, within thirty calendar days after receipt of the advice of adverse decision by the Passport Office file with the Board a written petition under oath or affirmation which shall, in plain and concise language, refute or explain the reasons stated by the Passport Office for its decision.

§ 51.158 Delivery of papers. Petitions or other papers for the attention of the Board may be delivered personally, by registered mail, or by leaving a copy at the offices of the Board at the address to be stated in the advice of adverse action furnished applicant by the Passport Office.

§ 51.159 Notice of hearing. Applicant shall receive not less than five calendar days notice in writing of the scheduled date and place of hearing which shall be set for a time as soon as possible after receipt by the Board of applicant's petition.

§ 51.160 Appearance. Any party to any proceedings before the Board may appear in person, or by or with his attorney, who must possess the requisite qualifications, as hereinafter set forth, to practice before the Board.

§ 51.161 Applicant's attorney. (a) Attorneys at law in good standing who are admitted to practice before the Federal courts or before the courts of any State or Territory of the United States may practice before the Board.

(b) No officer or employee of the Department of State whose official duties have, in fact, included participation in the investigation, preparation, presentation, decision or review of cases of the class within the competence of the Board of Passport Appeals shall, within two (2) years after the termination of such duties appear as attorney in behalf of an applicant in any case of such nature, nor shall any one appear as such attorney in a case of such class if in the course of prior government service he has dealt with any aspects of the applicant's activities relevant to a determination of that case.

§ 51.162 Supplementary information to applicant. The purpose of the hearing is to permit applicant to present all information relevant and material to the decision in his case. Applicant may, at the time of filing his petition, address a request in writing to the Board for such additional information or explanation as may be necessary to the preparation of his case. In conformity with the relevant laws and regulations, the Board shall pass promptly and finally upon all such requests and shall advise applicant of its decision. The Board shall take whatever action it deems necessary to insure the applicant of a full and fair consideration of his case.

§ 51.163 Hearings. The Passport file and any other pertinent Government files shall be considered as part of the evidence in each case without testimony or other formality as to admissibility. Such files may not be examined by the applicant, except the applicant may examine his application or any paper which he has submitted in connection with his application or appeal. The applicant may appear and testify in his own behalf, be represented by counsel subject to the provisions of § 51.161, present witnesses and offer other evidence in his own behalf. The applicant and all witnesses may be cross-examined by any member of the Board or its counsel. If any witness whom the applicant wishes to call is unable to appear personally, the Board may, in its discretion, accept an affidavit by him or order evidence to be taken by deposition. Such depositions may be taken before any person designated by the Board and such designee is hereby authorized to administer oaths or affirmations for the purpose of the depositions. The Board shall conduct the hearing proceedings in such manner as to protect from disclosure information affecting the national security or tending to disclose or compromise investigative sources or methods.

§ 51.164 Admissibility. The Board and the applicant may introduce such evidence as the Board deems proper. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but reasonable restrictions shall be imposed as to the relevancy, competency, and materiality of evidence presented to the Passport Office's stated reasons for its decision and/or to the application of § 51.135 or § 51.136 to applicant's case.

§ 51.165 Argumentation. All argumentation shall be directed to the application of the passport regulations to the facts of the particular case. The Board will permit no oral argument or motions relative to the legality or propriety of the hearing or other procedures of the Board. Submission of such argument or motions will be confined to the filing of written briefs, objections, or motions to be made a part of the record. The Board will not undertake to consider any such motion or contention.

§ 51.166 Privacy of hearings. Hearings shall be private. There shall be present at the hearing only the members of the Board, Board's Counsel, official stenographers, Departmental employees concerned, the applicant, his counsel, and the witnesses. Witnesses shall be present at the hearing only while actually giving testimony.

§ 51.167 Misbehavior before Board. If, in the course of a hearing before the Board, an applicant or attorney is guilty of misbehavior, he may be excluded from further participation in the hearing. In addition, he may be excluded from participation in any other case before the Board.

§ 51.168 Transcript of hearings. A complete verbatim stenographic transcript shall be made of hearings by qualified reporters, and the transcript shall constitute a permanent part of the record. Upon request, the applicant and each witness shall have the right to inspect the transcript of his own testimony.

§ 51.169 Notice of decision. The Board shall communicate the action recommended under § 51.140 on all cases appealed to it, to the Secretary of State. The decision of the Secretary of State shall be notified in writing to the applicant. Such notice shall be given the applicant as promptly as possible after his hearing before the Board.

§ 51.170 Probative value of evidence. In determining whether there is a preponderance of evidence supporting the denial of a passport the Board shall consider the entire record, including the transcript of the hearing and such confidential information as it may have in its possession. The Board shall take into consideration the inability of the applicant to meet information of which he has not been advised, specifically or in detail, or to attack the creditability of confidential informants.

Adopted by the Board of Passport Appeals December 30, 1953.

Dated: January 4, 1954.

[SEAL] THRUSTON B. MORTON,
Chairman,
Board of Passport Appeals.
JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IV—Joint Regulations of the Armed Forces

Subchapter A—Armed Services Procurement Regulation

PART 406—CONTRACT CLAUSES AND FORMS

SUSPENSION ORDER

1. The following clause will be substituted in lieu of the clause set forth in § 406.104–10 (a), in those contracts of the military departments for the procurement of supplies or services, entered into as of a date on or after January 1, 1954, and until further notice, to which the Renegotiation Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 9, 82d Cong.) would have applied if such contracts had been entered into prior to January 1, 1954:

RENEGOTIATION

(a) This contract shall be subject to any act of the Congress, whether heretofore or hereafter enacted and to the extent indicated therein, providing for the renegotiation of said contract and shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by any such act without subsequent amendment of this contract specifically incorporating such provisions.

(b) The Contractor (which term, as used in this clause, means the party contracting to furnish the materials or perform the work required by this contract) agrees to insert the provisions of this clause, including this paragraph (b), in subcontracts, as defined in section 103 (g) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 9, 82d Cong.), except any subcontracts of a class or type described in section 106 (a) of the Renegotiation Act of 1951.

(c) Nothing contained in this clause shall impose any renegotiation obligation with respect to this contract or any subcontract hereunder which is not imposed by an act of the Congress, heretofore or hereafter enacted.

2. The above clause will not be inserted in those types of contracts which previously had been exempt from the Renegotiation Act of 1951 by virtue of the provisions of that act or by action of the Renegotiation Board (see § 406.104–10 (b) and (c)).

T. P. PIKE,
Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics).

Subchapter K—Marine Investigations and Suspension and Revocation Proceedings

[CGFR 53-57]

PART 137—SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION PROCEEDINGS

STATEMENTS OF POLICY AND REVIEW OF EXAMINER'S DECISION

A notice regarding proposed changes in the rules and regulations governing suspension and revocation was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated September 9, 1953, 18 F. R. 5434, as Items XV and XVI on the agenda to be considered by the Merchant Marine Council, and a public hearing was held by the Merchant Marine Council on September 29, 1953, in Washington, D. C. All comments submitted were considered and where practicable were incorporated into the rules and regulations.

The Commandant of the Coast Guard is required by R. S. 4403, as amended (46 U. S. C. 372), to superintend the administration of the steamboat inspection laws and produce a correct and uniform administration of the inspection laws, rules, and regulations. Section 3 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1002) provides that statements of general policy or interpretations formulated and adopted for the guidance of the public shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. During recent months problems and questions have been raised regarding certain practices which the Coast Guard follows in conducting suspension and revocation proceedings. Therefore, the new regulations designated §§ 137.03-1 to 137.03-30, inclusive, and § 137.21-10 set forth statements of policy that the Coast Guard has followed and will follow in suspension and revocation proceedings affecting merchant mariners' licenses or certificates or documents. These rules cover offenses for which revocation of a license or a certificate or a document is mandatory; offenses for which revocation of a license or a certificate or a document is sought; maritime labor disputes; surrender of a license or a certificate or a document to avoid responding to charges; issuance of a new license or a certificate or a document in place of those surrendered or revoked; and a statement regarding evidence of wrongful possession of narcotics. These rules are based on Item XV of the agenda.

The amendment to § 137.09-75 (e) and the new regulations designated § 137.09-95 and §§ 137.12-1 to 137.12-15, inclusive, establish new procedures whereby the Commandant may initiate a review of suspension or revocation proceedings to correct those cases which present certain inequities against the persons charged. The existing regulations did not make any provision for a review of a Coast Guard examiner's initial decision in a case except when an appeal had been taken by the person charged; nor did they contain any requirement regarding the time within which the Commandant should direct the examiner's order to be reviewed. The revised regulations as set forth in this document establish procedures and authority whereby the Commandant may initiate a review of suspension and revocation proceedings. The use of a discretionary review by the Commandant will assist materially in obtaining uniformity of examiner's orders, as the facts of an individual case may admit, in such or similar types of cases which have been heard by different examiners in different parts of the country. The revised regulations are intended to permit the Commandant, upon his own motion or direction, to review those suspension and revocation proceedings in which the persons charged are found guilty and which are not appealed. These changes in the regulations are based on Item XVI of the agenda.

The rules designated §§ 137.03-1 to 137.03-30, inclusive, and § 137.21-10 are procedures and policies currently followed by the Coast Guard and shall be in effect on and after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The other rules and regulations set forth in this document shall become effective thirty days after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), to promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed:

1. Part 137 is amended by adding a new Subpart 137.03, consisting of §§ 137.03-1 to 137.03-30, inclusive, reading as follows:

SUBPART 137.03—STATEMENTS OF POLICY

Sec.

137.03-1 Offenses for which revocation of licenses or documents is mandatory.
137.03-5 Offenses for which revocation of licenses or documents is sought.
137.03-10 Maritime labor disputes.
137.03-25 Surrender of license or document to avoid responding to charges.
137.03-30 Issuance of a new license or document in place of that revoked or surrendered.

AUTHORITY: §§ 137.03-1 to 137.03-30 issued under R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R. S. 4450, as amended, secs. 1 and 2, 49 Stat. 1544, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, 245, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 239, 367, 50 U. S. C. App. 1275.

§ 137.03-1 Offenses for which revocation of licenses or documents is mandatory. Whenever the holder of a license, or certificate, or document is found guilty of misconduct by virtue of the possession, use, sale, or association with narcotic drugs, the examiner shall enter an order revoking all such licenses, certificates, or documents.

§ 137.03-5 Offenses for which revocation of licenses or documents is sought. It is the established policy of the Coast Guard to initiate administrative action looking to the revocation of licenses, or certificates, or documents of persons who are found guilty of offenses such as serious crimes of violence on shipboard or while ashore, sabotage, fraud in obtaining mariner's licenses or documents, smuggling of aliens into the United States, mutiny, malicious destruction of ship's property, serious cases of theft of ship's property or stores, criminal neglect of duty, misconduct resulting in loss of life or serious bodily injury, and other offenses involving moral turpitude. These are deemed offenses affecting the safety of life at sea, the welfare of seamen, and the protection of property aboard ship.

§ 137.03-10 Maritime labor disputes. Under no circumstances shall the statutory machinery of the Coast Guard be used for the purpose of favoring any party to a maritime, or other, labor controversy. However, if a situation is presented where a proper complaint in writing is lodged, the matter shall be thoroughly investigated and when a violation of existing statutes or regulations is indicated appropriate action shall be taken.

§ 137.03-25 Surrender of license or document to avoid responding to charges. When a mariner surrenders his license, or certificate, or document for the purpose of avoiding a hearing under R. S. 4450, as amended (46 U. S. C. 239), no authority will be given for reissuance of such license, or certificate, or document so surrendered. This policy shall not apply to those cases of voluntary surrender of licenses, or certificates, or documents by persons who have been mentally or physically incapacitated for other than drug or narcotic use, or addiction.

§ 137.03-30 Issuance of a new license or document in place of that revoked or surrendered. (a) Any person whose license, or certificate, or document has been revoked or surrendered for one or more of the offenses listed in or covered by § 137.03-1, § 137.03-5, or § 137.03-25 may, after three years from the date of such revocation or surrender file an application addressed to the Commandant (MVP), U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., requesting the issuance of a new license, or certificate, or document.

(b) Any person whose license, or certificate, or document has been revoked or surrendered for an offense or offenses other than those listed in or covered by § 137.03–1, or § 137.03–5, may, after one year from the date of such revocation or surrender file an application addressed to the Commandant (MVP), U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C., requesting the issuance of a new license, or certificate, or document.

(c) Every application submitted in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section will be referred to a special board appointed to consider such applications. This board will examine all the evidence submitted in support of the request and such other information, or evidence, as may, in the judgment of this board, be considered necessary. This board will submit its findings and recommendations to the Commandant for decision and final action.

(d) The decision and action of the Commandant on the application of any person requesting a new license, or certificate, or document shall be final.

2. Section 137.09–75 (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 137.09–75 Decision. • • •

(e) In the absence of an appeal or review, as provided in Subparts 137.11 and 137.12, the decision of the examiner shall be final and binding on the person charged for all purposes.

3. Part 137 is amended by adding a new § 137.09–95 reading as follows:

§ 137.09–95 Effect of decisions on appeal or review. The decisions of the Commandant on appeals or review of examiners' decisions will be binding upon all examiners, and the principles and policies set forth in such decisions, where applicable, shall be followed by them.

(R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R. S. 4450, as amended, secs. 1 and 2, 49 Stat. 1544, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, 245, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 239, 367, 50 U. S. C. App. 1275)

4. Part 137 is amended by adding a new Subpart 137.12, consisting of §§ 137.12–1 to 137.12–15, inclusive, reading as follows:

SUBPART 137.12—REVIEW OF EXAMINERS' DECISIONS

Sec.
137.12–1 Review of examiners' decisions.
137.12–5 Record for decision on review.
137.12–10 Scope of review.
137.12–15 Commandant's order and decision.

AUTHORITY: §§ 137.12–1 to 137.12–15 issued under R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R. S. 4450, as amended, secs. 1 and 2, 49 Stat. 1544, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, 245, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 239, 367, 50 U. S. C. App. 1275.

§ 137.12–1 Review of examiners' decisions. (a) Any decision of an examiner, in which there has been a guilty finding, may be called up for review by the Commandant on his own motion or direction, within sixty (60) days, after the decision is announced or has been made effective, whichever date is later. On occasion, such action may be taken upon recommendation of the District Commander within whose jurisdiction the decision of the examiner was announced. As used in the regulations in this part the phrase, "on his own motion" means by the Commandant's direction or order, without other procedural formality.

(b) The processes in effect with respect to the preparation and presentation of the record on appeals by merchant seamen, shall apply to the consideration of cases brought up on review by the Commandant.

§ 137.12–5 Record for decision on review. The transcript of testimony, together with all papers, exhibits, etc., filed in the proceedings before the examiner, shall constitute the exclusive record for consideration on review.

§ 137.12–10 Scope of review. (a) The review will be restricted to questions of law, fact, and policy.

(b) The Commandant may adopt in whole or in part the findings, conclusions, and basis therefor stated by the examiner, or he may make entirely new findings on the record. The Commandant may also remand the case to the examiner for further appropriate proceedings.

§ 137.12–15 Commandant's order and decision. (a) In no case will the review by the Commandant be followed by any order issued by him, or modification of any order of the examiner, having the effect of increasing the severity of the examiner's original order, nor will any other action be taken during or following such review which would place the person charged in any worse position than he would have been had no such review been made.

(b) The decision of the Commandant, on review, shall be final.

5. Part 137 is amended by adding a new § 137.21–10 reading as follows:

§ 137.21–10 Evidence of wrongful possession of narcotics. In a hearing held under the regulations in this part on a charge of misconduct involving narcotics, whenever the person charged is shown to have or to have had possession of the narcotic drug, such possession shall be deemed sufficient evidence to authorize the revocation of his license, or certificate, or document, unless the person charged proves the possession not to be wrongful to the satisfaction of the examiner.

(R. S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 416. Interpret or apply R. S. 4450, as amended, secs. 1 and 2, 49 Stat. 1544, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, 245, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 239, 367, 50 U. S. C. App. 1275)

Dated: January 4, 1954.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 10751]

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

PART 13—COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

DISCONTINUANCE OF ISSUANCE OF AIRCRAFT RADIOTELEPHONE OPERATOR AUTHORIZATION

In the matter of discontinuance of issuance of Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization and amendments of Parts 0, 1 and 13 of the Commission's rules; Docket No. 10751.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December 1953;

The Commission having under consideration amendments of Parts 1 and 13 of the Commission's rules so as to discontinue the issuance of the Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization; and

It appearing, that the Commission, on November 12, 1953, adopted a notice of proposed rule-making which included this matter and which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 20, 1953, in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedures Act; and

It further appearing, that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments with respect thereto has now expired; and

It further appearing, that upon discontinuing the issuance of the Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization it will be necessary for persons desiring equivalent operating authority to obtain a Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit, and that such Permit is obtainable only from Commission Field Offices; and

It further appearing, that there was one comment to the effect that where the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit has to be obtained by mail the resultant delay will discourage a student aircraft pilot who is ready for solo flight from continuing with instruction at a radio-controlled airport; and

It further appearing, that in view of the more expeditious procedure adopted for the issuance of the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit such operator permit may normally be obtained during the course of instruction; that it is reasonable to expect candidates to file application for such permit a sufficient time in advance of the need therefor to avoid interruption of flight training; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (l) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That, effective February 1, 1954, Parts 1 and 13 of the Commission's rules are amended without further proceedings in the particulars set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Released: January 5, 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] WM. P. MASSING,
Acting Secretary.

1. Section 1.329 (a) is amended, effective February 1, 1954, to read as follows:

§ 1.329 Application for radio operator license. (a) Application for a new, renewed, replacement or duplicate commercial radio operator license or for an endorsement thereon, or for a verification card, shall be filed on FCC Form No. 756, entitled "Application for Commercial Radio Operator License or Permit": Provided, That application for a new restricted radiotelephone operator permit may be filed on FCC Form No. 753–1, entitled "Application for Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit by Declaration".

2. Section 13.2 (c) (ii) is amended, effective February 1, 1954, by adding the following footnote:

"By Commission order dated December 30, 1953, and effective February 1, 1954, issuance of the Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization was discontinued. Outstanding licenses of this class remain valid until expiration according to the respective terms thereof.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter B—Hunting and Possession of Wildlife

PART 6—MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

ORDER PERMITTING THE KILLING OF WATERFOWL OR COOT IN AGRICULTURAL AREAS OF CALIFORNIA

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the order of the Acting Secretary of the Interior dated December 31, 1953, I have determined that the numbers of coot and widgeon now present and likely to continue to be present in particular communities in California are such as to constitute a serious threat to agricultural crops through depredations by these species. Accordingly, an emergency is found to exist and, to protect crops which are threatened by such migratory birds, the killing of such coot and widgeon as are found damaging crops in the areas described below is hereby permitted, beginning January 11, 1954, and continuing until formally terminated but in any event not beyond April 15, 1954; such killing to be conducted in compliance with applicable State law and subject to the following terms, conditions, and restrictions:

1. Coot may be killed in the counties of Butte, Colusa, Contra Costa, Fresno, Glenn, Imperial, Kern, Kings, Madera, Marin, Los Angeles, Orange, Ventura, Merced, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Solano, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tulare, Yolo, and Yuba.

2. Widgeon may be killed in Imperial County only.

3. Method of killing: Coot and widgeon may be taken by shooting with bow and arrow, or shotgun not larger than No. 10 gage fired from the shoulder.

4. Disposition of coot or widgeon taken: Such birds as are killed under the provisions of this order may not be sold, offered for sale, bartered, or shipped for purposes of sale or barter. They may be used as food for personal use within the State of California and they may be donated to hospitals and other charitable institutions within the State for use as food, but they may not be possessed by or served as food in any restaurant, club, or other public or private eating establishment. No carcasses of birds killed hereunder may be possessed under any circumstances beyond April 20, 1954.

Dated: January 6, 1954.

JOHN L. FARLEY,
Director.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[18 CFR Part 201]

[Docket No. R–130]

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR NATURAL GAS COMPANIES

GAS STORED UNDERGROUND

DECEMBER 29, 1953.

In the matter of amendment of § 201.134, Part 201, Uniform System of Accounts for Natural Gas Companies, of the Commission's general rules and regulations, relating to Accounting for Inventories of Natural Gas Stored Underground.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It is proposed to amend Part 201 of the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Chapter I, Subchapter F, Part 201, § 201.134) entitled "Uniform System of Accounts for Natural Gas Companies" by substituting for the existing paragraph (b) and related Notes B–1 through B–5 of § 201.134 thereof the following amended paragraph (b), with Notes B–1 and B–2 relating thereto:

§ 201.134 Gas stored underground. • • •

(b) Gas utilized for storage during the year (commencing January 1, 1954) shall be priced at cost of purchase or production at the entry point of such gas into the utility's system, plus cost of transmission to the underground storage area and cost of storing the gas underground. Cost of transmitting gas to the storage area shall include applicable portions of transmission operation and maintenance expenses, depreciation, rents, ad valorem and other taxes except income taxes, attributable to the facilities utilized, but shall not include any amounts for return on investment or income taxes related to such return. Such transmission costs shall be determined monthly on the basis of the proportionate Mcf volumes of gas for storage and other purposes, transported through the facilities utilized in moving gas to the storage area. (As here used transmission cost includes cost of gathering where applicable.) Cost of storing gas underground shall include applicable portions of the storage project operations and maintenance expenses, depreciation, rents, ad valorem and other taxes except income taxes, attributable to the storage facilities, but shall not include any amounts for return on investment or income taxes related to such return. Such storage costs shall be determined monthly by allocation of total storage expenses on the basis of the proportionate Mcf volumes delivered to and withdrawn from storage during the month.

NOTE B–1. Where assumptions are necessary as to the source of gas delivered to underground storage, such assumptions shall be observed consistently from year to year in harmony with over-all system operations and the transmission costs attributed to such gas shall be consistent with the assumed source of the gas and its most direct routing to the storage area. If gas stored is from the utility's own production, or assumed to be, production costs attributable to gas stored shall be determined monthly by allocations based on Mcf volumes, for production and gathering operation and maintenance expenses, gas well royalties, rents, depreciation and depletion, ad valorem and other taxes except income taxes, of the particular production area, but shall not include any amounts for return on investment or income taxes related to such return.

NOTE B–2. The provisions of this instruction and the related footnotes shall not be construed as permitting or authorizing a restatement of amounts at which stored gas inventories are stated in the utility's accounts.

3. The change proposed in paragraph 2 above is for the purpose of modifying the existing instructions relative to the cost components to be included in the pricing of inventories of gas stored underground. The existing instructions require that transmission expenses incurred in moving gas to the storage area and the expenses of storage facilities shall not be included in the inventory of gas except as may be authorized by the Commission. The proposed amendment will eliminate the necessity for individual applications for such Commission authorization by directing that gas utilized for storage shall be priced at the cost of purchase or production at the entry point of such gas into the utility's system, plus the cost of transmission to the underground storage area and the cost of storing the gas underground. The proposed change is necessary to secure uniformity in the pricing of inventories of gas stored underground, and will aid in the effective administration of the Natural Gas Act.

4. The amendment to the Commission's general rules and regulations as herein described is proposed to be issued under authority granted the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly section 8 (a) thereof (52 Stat. 833; 15 U. S. C. 717w).

5. Any interested person may submit, in writing, on or before the 5th day of February 1954, to the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., data, views and comments concerning the proposed amendment. The Commission will consider these written submittals before acting upon the proposed amendment.

[Notice No. 13, Docket 3666]

REGULATIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

The Commission is in receipt of applications for early amendment of the above entitled regulations insofar as they apply to shippers in the preparation of articles for transportation, and to all carriers by rail and highway, as published in orders pursuant to section 835, of the Criminal Code and Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Application for these amendments ordinarily would be considered at our next hearing in this docket. It appears, however, that the proposed amendments have been the subject of exchanges and study by interested parties, in which substantial agreement has been reached, and it is proposed that the applications be disposed of by modified procedure. The reasons for the proposed amendments are shown in the appendix, hereof.

Any party desiring to be heard upon any of the proposed amendments shall advise the Commission in writing within 20 days from the date of this notice; otherwise, the Commission may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in the application, or may suspend action pending formal hearing in this docket.

[SEAL] GEORGE W. LAIRD, Secretary.

PART 73—SHIPPERS

SUBPART A—PREPARATION OF ARTICLES FOR TRANSPORTATION BY CARRIERS BY RAIL FREIGHT, RAIL EXPRESS, HIGHWAY, OR WATER

1. Add paragraph (e) to § 73.22 (15 F. R. 8277, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.22, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.22 Specification containers prescribed. • • •

(e) Spec. 5G metal drums manufactured prior to (effective date of Ord. 13) may be continued in service until further order of the Commission.

2. Amend § 73.33 paragraphs (k) (3), (m) (6), and (o) (3) (15 F. R. 8281, 8282, Dec. 2, 1950) (17 F. R. 7280, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.33) to read as follows:

§ 73.33 Qualification, maintenance, and use of cargo tanks. • • •

(k) • • •

(3) The tank shall be inspected for corroded areas, bad dents, or other conditions, including leakage under test pressure, which indicate weakness that might render the tank unsafe for transportation service, and shall be rejected if evidence of any such unsafe condition is discovered.

• • • • •

(m) • • •

(6) All piping, valves, and fittings on every tank motor vehicle shall be proved free from leaks at not less than the design working pressure for the tank. This condition will be considered to have been met when such piping, valves, and fittings have been tested for leakage with gas or air after installation and proved tight at not less than the design working pressure marked on the cargo tank with which they are used. In the event of replacement, all such piping, valves, or fittings so replaced shall be tested in accordance with the requirements of this section before the tank is returned to transportation service. The requirements of this section shall apply with equal force to all hose used on such tanks, except that such hose may be so tested either before or after installation on the tank.

• • • • •

(o) • • •

(3) Filling and discharge lines shall be provided with a shut-off valve located as close to the tank as is practicable, except where an automatic quick-closing internal valve or an automatic shut-off valve is used, in which case a manually operated shut-off valve shall be located anywhere in the line ahead of the hose connection.

NOTE 1: The use of so-called "Stop-Check" or excess flow valves to satisfy with one valve the requirements of this rule and paragraph (o) of this section is forbidden.

• • • • •

3. Amend § 73.34 introductory text of paragraph (k) (17 F. R. 4293, May 10, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.34) to read as follows:

§ 73.34 Qualification, maintenance, and use of cylinders. • • •

(k) The tests prescribed by paragraph (j) of this section must be (for exceptions see subparagraphs (1) to (12) of this paragraph):

• • • • •

SUBPART B—EXPLOSIVES; DEFINITIONS AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.53 paragraphs (g) and (k) (15 F. R. 8285, Dec. 2, 1950) (18 F. R. 6777, Oct. 27, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.53) to read as follows:

§ 73.53 Definition of class A explosives. • • •

(g) Type 7. Blasting caps (see Note 5) are small tubes, usually made of an alloy of either copper or aluminum, or of molded plastic, closed at one end and loaded with a charge of initiating or priming explosives, class A—Type 4, either with or without other suitable explosives. The total weight of explosives per unit shall not exceed 150 grains. Blasting caps (see Note 5) which have been provided with a means for firing by an electric current, and sealed, are known as electric blasting caps.

• • • • •

(k) Explosive projectiles. Explosive projectiles are shells, projectiles, guided missiles with war heads, war heads, or rocket heads, loaded with explosives or bursting charges, with or without other materials, for use in cannons, guns, tubes, mortars or other firing or launching devices.

• • • • •

2. Amend § 73.55 paragraph (a) (15 F. R. 8286, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.55 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.55 Ammunition, nonexplosive. (a) Nonexplosive ammunition is devices containing no explosives, or other dangerous article, such as cartridge cases, dummy or drill cartridges; empty, sand-loaded or solid projectiles with or without tracers (containing not in excess of 12 grams of tracer composition), empty mines, empty bombs, solid projectiles, or empty torpedoes, and is exempt from Parts 71–78 of this chapter. Rotating bands should be protected against deformation by method of packing or loading.

3. Amend § 73.88 paragraph (e) (1) (18 F. R. 6777, Oct. 27, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.88) to read as follows:

(e) • • •

(1) Igniters, jet thrust, are devices consisting of an electrically operated or remotely controlled igniting element and a fast-burning composition assembled in a unit for use in igniting the propelling charge of jet thrust units.

• • • • •

4. Amend § 73.93 heading and introductory text of paragraph (a); add paragraphs (a) (11) and (a) (12) (17 F. R. 1560, Feb. 20, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.93) to read as follows:

§ 73.93 Propellant explosives for cannon, small arms, rockets, guided missiles, or other devices. (a) Propellant explosives for cannon, small arms, rockets, guided missiles, or other devices, when offered for transportation by carriers by rail freight, highway, or water must be packed in containers complying with the following specifications (see paragraph (f) (1) and (f) (2) of this section and § 75.675 of this chapter for shipments by rail express):

• • • • •

(11) Spec. 14, 15A, or 16A (§§ 78.165, 78.168, or 78.185 of this chapter). Wooden boxes, not lined, authorized only for grains not less than 1-inch in diameter or 3 inches in length, provided such grains are tightly packed and are coated with a protective material. Gross weight not to exceed 200 pounds.

(12) Propellant explosives packed in any manner other than as specifically provided for in this paragraph must be in containers approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

• • • • •

5. Amend § 73.105 paragraphs (a) and (b) (15 F. R. 8296, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.105, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.105 Percussion, tracer, combination, time fuzes and tracers. (a) Percussion, tracer, combination, time fuzes and tracers must be packed in strong, tight, outside wooden boxes or spec. 23F (§ 78.214 of this chapter) fiberboard boxes, with special provision for securing individual packages of fuzes or tracers against movement in the box.

(b) The gross weight of one outside wooden box must not exceed 150 pounds, and the gross weight of one outside fiberboard box must not exceed 65 pounds.

• • • • •

SUBPART C—FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.119 paragraphs (a) (2), (a) (8) and (m) (4) (15 F. R. 8298, 8300, Dec. 2, 1950) (18 F. R. 5271, 5272, Sept. 1, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.119) to read as follows:

§ 73.119 Flammable liquids not specifically provided for. (a) • • •

(2) Spec. 5, 5A, 5B, 5C, or 5M (§§ 78.80, 78.81, 78 82, 78 83, or 78.90 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums, with openings not exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

• • • • •

(8) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, 16A, 19A, or 19B (§§ 78.168, 78.169, 78.170, 78.185, 78.190, or 78.191 of this chapter). Wooden boxes with inside containers which must be metal pails, kits, or cans, not over 10 gallons each or inside glass or earthenware containers not over 1 gallon each, except that glass or earthenware containers up to 3 gallons each are authorized when only one inside container is packed in each outside container.

• • • • •

(m) • • •

(4) Spec. 5, 5A, 5B, 5C, 17C (single-trip), or 17E (single-trip) (§§ 78.80, 78.81, 78 82, 78.83, 78.115, or 78.116 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums not over 15 gallons capacity. Authorized only for materials which will not react dangerously with the drum metal, or be decomposed by contact with it.

2. Amend § 73.127 paragraph (a) (1) (15 F. R. 8301, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.127, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.127 Nitrocellulose or collodion cotton, fibrous, or nitrostarch, wet; colloided nitrocellulose, granular or flake, and lacquer base or lacquer chips, wet. (a) • • •

(1) Containers, except cargo tanks or tank cars, as prescribed in § 73.119.

• • • • •

SUBPART D—FLAMMABLE SOLIDS AND OXIDIZING MATERIALS; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.153 paragraph (b) (15 F. R. 8303, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.153, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.153 Exemptions for flammable solids and oxidizing materials. • • •

(b) Liquid or solid organic peroxides, except hydrogen peroxide (see § 73.244 (a)), acetyl benzoyl peroxide, solid, and benzoyl peroxide in strong outside containers having not over 1 pint or 1 pound net weight of the material in any one such package, having inside containers securely packed and cushioned with incombustible cushioning, are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements, unless otherwise provided, for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway. When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements.

• • • • •

2. Amend § 73.163 paragraph (a) (7) (16 F. R. 9374, Sept. 15, 1951) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.163) to read as follows:

§ 73.163 Chlorate of soda, chlorate of potash, and other chlorates. (a) • • •

(7) Chlorate of soda is authorized for shipment in tank cars, spec. 103 or 103W (§§ 78.265 or 78.280 of this chapter), or in tight sift-proof covered hopper cars. Cars must be thoroughly cleaned before loading.

3. Amend entire § 73.182 (15 F. R. 8307, 8308, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.182, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.182 Nitrates. (a) Aluminum nitrate, ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), barium nitrate, calcium ammonium nitrate, calcium nitrate, guanidine nitrate, lead nitrate, magnesium nitrate, nitrates, n. o. s., nitrate fertilizer mixture,[1] nitrate of soda and potash, nitro carbo nitrate, potassium nitrate, silver nitrate, and sodium nitrate, when offered for transportation by rail freight, rail express, highway, or carriers by water shall be packed in containers as follows:

(1) Wooden or fiberboard boxes with glass, metal, or other strong inside containers; in metal or fiber drums; in kegs or barrels; or in strong metal cans. When so packed, they are exempt from specification packaging and labeling requirements.

(b) Aluminum nitrate, ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), barium nitrate, calcium ammonium nitrate, calcium nitrate, guanidine nitrate, nitrate fertilizer mixture,[1] nitrate of soda and potash, potassium nitrate, and sodium nitrate, when offered for transportation by rail freight, rail express, highway, or carriers by water, in addition to containers prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, may be packed as follows:

[1] Applies only to materials classed as dangerous under definition in § 73.150.

(1) In bulk in tight closed freight cars which shall be free of loose boards, cracks, holes, or exposed decayed spots; interior of cars must be swept clean, doors of cars must have tight closure; journals and boxes must be in good condition; and ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), or guanidine nitrate must not be shipped in all-metal cars.

(2) In bulk in siftproof closed or open type motor vehicles which must be swept clean.

(3) In bulk on cargo vessels subject to the Regulations for Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles on Board Vessels prescribed by the Commandant United States Coast Guard (46 CFR Part 146).

(4) In bags not exceeding 200 pounds net weight, moisture-proof, made tight against sifting, and of strength capable of withstanding at least 2 drops from a height of 4 feet so as to strike on a flat concrete surface without failure, when filled as for shipment. Calcium ammonium nitrate, calcium nitrate, sodium nitrate, or nitrate of soda and potash when so packed are exempt from labeling requirements. Rail shipments must be in clean closed cars which shall be free of loose boards, cracks, holes, or exposed decayed spots; interior of cars must be swept clean and be free of any projections capable of injuring bags; doors of cars must have tight closures; journals and boxes must be in good condition; and ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), or guanidine nitrate must not be shipped in all-metal cars (see also § 74.541 (a) (1) of this chapter). Highway shipments must be in closed or open type motor vehicles which must be swept clean and be free of any projections capable of injuring bags; and when shipped in open type motor vehicles the lading shall be suitably covered (see also § 77.823 (a) (4) and (a) (5) of this chapter). Water shipments are also subject to Regulations for Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles on Board Vessels prescribed by the Commandant United States Coast Guard (46 CFR Part 146).

4. Amend entire § 73.183 (15 F. R. 8308, Dec. 2, 1950) (18 F. R. 3135, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.183) to read as follows:

§ 73.183 Potassium nitrate mixed (fused) with sodium nitrite. (a) Potassium nitrate mixed (fused) with sodium nitrite must be packed in containers as follows:

(1) In containers as prescribed in § 73.182 (a).

(2) Spec. 103–W (§ 78.280 of this chapter). Tank cars specially designed, equipped and approved for this service without bottom discharge outlet and with heavier plate thicknesses than the minimum prescribed for cars built under this specification. For specification 103–W tank cars made of plates having the minimum prescribed thicknesses, internal reinforcement of the upper sheets of tank in the region of the dome and reinforcing plates attached to the bottom sheet of the tank which rests on bolsters is required, and these tanks must be equipped with baffle plates. Heater pipes must be of welded construction designed for a test pressure of 500 pounds per square inch. A 1-inch woven asbestos lining must be placed between bolster slabbing and bottom of tank to prevent heat transmission. Safety vents of the frangible disc type may be used and if used the frangible discs must be perforated with ⅛ inch hole. If safety valves are used, a vacuum relief valve must be installed on the dome. Tanks must be stenciled on both sides "Fused Potassium Nitrate and Sodium Nitrite Only".

5. Amend § 73.201 heading and introductory text of paragraph (a), (a) (8) and amend entire paragraph (b) (16 F. R. 5324, June 6, 1951) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.201) to read as follows:

• • • • •

(8) Spec. 36A, 36B, 36C, 44B, or 44E (§§ 78.230, 78.233, 78.234, 78.236, or 78.239 of this chapter). Bags.

(b) Rubber scrap, reclaimed rubber, or regenerated rubber are not subject to Parts 71–78 of this chapter if shipped in the following forms:

(1) Rubber scrap, not ground or ground with cord or fabric insertion, or ground without cord or fabric insertion the particles of which pass over a screen of not less than 5-mesh.

(2) Reclaimed rubber or regenerated rubber when in the form of dense homogeneous nonporous sheets or rolls, the sheets of thickness of ⅛ inch or greater, packed flat or in rolls, or in pelletized form if not less than ¼ inch in diameter, or ground, the particles of which pass over a screen of not less than 5-mesh, all properly cooled before shipment.

(3) Rubber scrap, reclaimed rubber, or regenerated rubber in any form when shipped in covered steel hopper cars, tank cars, or tank or hopper trucks.

6. Amend § 73.206 heading and introductory text of paragraph (a) (18 F. R. 6778, Oct. 27, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.206) to read as follows:

§ 73.206 Sodium or potassium, metallic, sodium amide, sodium potassium alloys, lithium metal, lithium silicon, lithium hydride, and lithium aluminum hydride. (a) Sodium or potassium, metallic, sodium amide, sodium potassium alloys, lithium metal, lithium silicon, lithium hydride, and lithium aluminum hydride, must be packed in specification containers as follows:

• • • • •

7. Amend § 73.217 paragraph (b) (17 F. R. 1561, Feb. 20, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.217) to read as follows:

§ 73.217 Calcium hypochlorite compounds, dry, and lithium hypochlorite compounds, dry. • • •

(b) Strong outside wooden or fiberboard packages containing inside containers of glass or metal not over five pounds capacity each, except that metal inside containers not over seven and one-half pounds capacity each are authorized for material in tablet form only, are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway. When for transportation by water, strong wooden or fiberboard packages containing inside containers of metal not over five pounds capacity each are exempt from specification packaging only.

8. Add § 73.234 (15 F. R. 8312, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.234, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.234 Sodium nitrite. (a) Sodium nitrite must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(1) In containers as prescribed in § 73.154.

(2) Spec. 44C (§ 78.237 of this chapter). Multi-wall paper bags constructed of at least 5 thicknesses of heavy duty shipping sack Kraft paper, or equivalent, with a minimum total basis weight of 320 pounds including a polyethylene, or other suitable pliable plastic material, inner sheet having a minimum basis weight of 20 pounds. All closures must be of such design as to provide a moisture-resistant package when closed for shipment. Net weight not over 100 pounds each. Authorized for carload or truckload shipments only.

SUBPART E—ACIDS AND OTHER CORROSIVE LIQUIDS; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.244 paragraph (a) (15 F. R. 8313, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.244, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.244 Exemptions for acids and other corrosive liquids. (a) Acids and other corrosive liquids, except those enumerated in paragraph (c) of this section, in inside bottles having a capacity not over 1 pound or 16 ounces by volume each inclosed in a metal can in the outside container are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements unless otherwise provided, for transportation by rail freight or highway. When for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements, unless otherwise provided.

• • • • •

2. Add paragraph (a) (14) to § 73.245 (15 F. R. 8313, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.245, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.245 Acids or other corrosive liquids not specifically provided for. (a) • • •

(14) Spec. 17C, 17E, or 17F (§§ 78.115, 78.116, or 78.117 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip) with openings not exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

3. Amend § 73.249 paragraphs (a) (4) and (b) (3) (15 F. R. 8314, Dec. 2, 1950) (18 F. R. 803, Feb. 7, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.249) to read as follows:

§ 73.249 Alkaline corrosive liquids, n. o. s., alkaline caustic liquids, n. o. s., and alkaline battery fluids. (a) • • •

(4) Spec. 17H (§ 78.118 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip). Authorized only for liquid boiler compounds or liquid water treatment compounds.

• • • • •

(b) • • •

(3) Spec. 15A, 15B, 15C, 16A, or 19A (§§ 78.168, 78.169, 78.170, 78.185, or 78.190 of this chapter). Wooden boxes with glass or earthenware inside containers not over 1 gallon each, or with metal cans not over 5 gallons each.

• • • • •

4. Amend § 73.276 paragraph (a) (3) (15 F. R. 8322, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.276, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.276 Anhydrous hydrazine and hydrazine solution. (a) • • •

(3) Spec. 5, 5A, 5C, or 17E (single-trip) (§§ 78.80, 78.81, 78.83, or 78.116 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums which shall be of type 304 or 347 stainless steel, with openings not exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

5. Amend § 73.279 paragraph (a) (2) (15 F. R. 8322, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.279, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.379 Anisoyl chloride. (a) • • •

(2) Spec. 5 (§ 78.80 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums of stainless steel only, with flanges for closures welded in place and having no openings exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

• • • • •

6. Amend § 73.289 paragraph (a) (6) (16 F. R. 11779, Nov. 21, 1951) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.289) to read as follows:

§ 73.289 Formic acid and formic acid solutions. (a) • • •

(6) Spec. 5 (§ 78.80 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums of stainless steel only, with flanges for closures welded in place and having no opening exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

• • • • •

SUBPART F—COMPRESSED GASES; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.302 paragraph (a) (5) (15 F. R. 8325, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.302, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.302 Exemptions for compressed gases. (a) • • •

(5) Foodstuffs or soaps in metal cans with soluble or emulsified compressed gas, provided the pressure in the container does not exceed 105 pounds per square inch absolute at 70° F. or 140 pounds per square inch absolute at 130° F. The metal container must be capable of withstanding without bursting a pressure of two times the pressure of contents at 70° F. or one and one-half times the pressure of the contents at 130° F., whichever is greater.

• • • • •

2. Amend § 73.304 Note 1 to paragraph (c) (15 F. R. 8325, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.304, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.304 Filling limits. • • •

(c) • • •

NOTE 1: Because of the present emergency and until July 1, 1954, or until further order of the Commission, the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section are waived and ICC–3A and 3AA (§§ 78.36 and 78.37 of this chapter) cylinders may be charged with compressed gases, other than liquefied or dissolved gases, to a pressure 10 percent in excess of their marked service pressures.

• • • • •

3. Amend § 73.306 heading and introductory text of paragraph (a) and add paragraph (d) (15 F. R. 8325, 8326, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.306, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.306 Liquefied gases, except acetylene. (a) Liquefied gases, except acetylene, for which charging requirements are not definitely prescribed in §§ 73.308 or 73.312, must be shipped subject to §§ 73.301 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (h), 73.303 (a), 73.304, 73.305, and 73.308 Note 12 in cylinders made under specification containers as follows:

• • • • •

(d) Mixtures containing compressed gas or gases which are nonpoisonous but which are flammable as determined by Bureau of Explosives' flammability test, as provided in § 73.300 (b) (2), (3), and (4), except that the material shall not have a flame flashback in the prescribed test, nor shall the flame be sustained at any degree of the valve opening, must be shipped in cylinders as prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section or in specification containers as follows:

Kind of gas	Maximum permitted filling density (see Note 12)	Cylinders (see Note 11) marked as shown in this column must be used except as provided in Note and § 73.34 (a) to (c)
	Percent
Anhydrous ammonia	54	ICC–4; ICC–3A480; ICC–3AA480; ICC–3A480X; ICC–4A480; ICC–4AA48; ICC–3.

• • • • • • •

5. Amend § 73.312 paragraph (c) (15 F. R. 8327, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.312, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.312 Liquefied petroleum gas. • • •.

(c) Subject to § 73.304 (e), any filling density percentage prescribed in this section is authorized to be increased by 2 for liquefied petroleum gas in spec. 26 [1] or 3 [1] cylinders or in spec. 3A (§ 78.36 of this chapter) marked for 1800 pounds, or higher, service pressure.

6. In § 73.314 paragraph (a) Table, add the entry "Carbon dioxide, liquefied" and cancel the entry "Liquid carbon dioxide"; amend the entry "Liquid hydrocarbon gas" by inserting in its place the six related entries listed below. (17 F. R. 9838, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.314) to read as follows:

§ 73.314 Compressed gases in tank cars. (a) • • •

Liquid hydrocarbon gas (pressure not exceeding 225 pounds per square inch at 105° F.).	do	ICC–105A300, 105A300W, Note 9.
Liquid hydrocarbon gas (pressure not exceeding 300 pounds per square inch at 105° F.).	do	ICC–105A400, 105A400W, Note 9.
Liquid hydrocarbon gas (pressure not exceeding 375 pounds per square inch at 105° F.).	do	ICC–105A500, 105A500W, Note 9.
Liquid hydrocarbon gas (pressure not exceeding 375 pounds per square inch at 130° F.).	do	ICC–106A500, 106A500X.
Liquid hydrocarbon gas (pressure not exceeding 450 pounds per square inch at 105° F.).	do	ICC–105A600, 105A600W, Note 9.

• • • • • •

7. In § 73.315 paragraph (a) (1) Table amend the entry "Carbon dioxide"; amend the entry "Anhydrous ammonia" in paragraph (h) Table; amend paragraph (i) (9) and paragraph (j) (1) (15 F. R. 8331, Dec. 2, 1950) (17 F. R. 9839, Nov. 1, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.315) to read as follows:

SUBPART G—POISONOUS ARTICLES; DEFINITION AND PREPARATION

1. Amend § 73.329 paragraph (b) (1) (16 F. R. 9378, Sept. 15, 1951) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.329) to read as follows:

§ 73.329 Bromacetone; chlorpicrin and methyl chloride mixtures. • • •

(b) Chlorpicrin and methyl chloride mixtures. • • •

(1) Spec. 3A, 3AA, 3B, 3C, 3E, 4A, 4B, 4BA, or 4C (§§ 78.36, 78.37, 78.38, 78.40, 78.42, 78.49, 78.50, 78.51, or 78.52 of this chapter) not over 250 pounds water capacity (nominal). Valves or other closing devices must be protected, to prevent injury in transit, by screw-on metal caps or by packing the cylinders in strong boxes or crates. Cylinders having a wall thickness of less than 0.10 inch must be packed in boxes or crates (see § 73.25).

2. Amend § 73.345 introductory text of paragraph (a); amend paragraphs (b) (9), (b) (10), (b) (11), (b) (12) and (b) (13); add paragraph (b) (14) (15 F. R. 8334, Dec. 2, 1950) (16 F. R. 11779, Nov. 21, 1951) (17 F. R. 4295, May 10, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.345) to read as follows:

§ 73.345 Exemptions for poisonous liquids, class B. (a) Poisonous liquids, class B, as defined in § 73.343, except those as enumerated in paragraph (b) of this section, or as provided for in § 73.359 (c), in tightly closed inside containers, securely cushioned when necessary to prevent breakage and packed as follows, are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway, but when for transportation by carrier by water are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements:

• • • • • •

(b) • • •

(9) Parathion and parathion mixtures containing more than 25 percent parathion by weight.

(10) Hexaethyl tetraphosphate and hexaethyl tetraphosphate mixtures containing more than 25 percent hexaethyl tetraphosphate by weight.

(11) Methyl parathion and methyl parathion mixtures containing more than 25 percent methyl parathion by weight.

(12) Tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate and tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate mixtures containing more than 25 percent tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate by weight.

(13) Tetraethyl pyrophosphate and tetraethyl pyrophosphate mixtures containing more than 25 percent tetraethyl pyrophosphate by weight.

(14) Chloro-o-toluidine hydrochloride.

3. Add paragraph (a) (14) to § 73.346 (15 F. R. 8335, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.346, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.346 Poisonous liquids not specifically provided for. (a) • • •

(14) Spec. 12B (§278.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with not more than one inside glass container of not over 1 gallon capacity, securely cushioned. Completed package, with glass container filled with water, when closed for shipment, must be capable of withstanding six four-foot drops onto solid concrete in the order bottom, four sides, and top without breakage.

4. Add paragraph (a) (8) to § 73.358 (17 F. R. 4295, May 10, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.358) to read as follows:

§ 73.358 Hexaethyl tetraphosphate, methyl parathion, parathion, tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate, liquid. (a) • • •

(8) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with not more than one inside glass container of not over 1 gallon capacity, securely cushioned. Completed package, with glass container filled with water, when closed for shipment, must be capable of withstanding six four-foot drops onto solid concrete in the order bottom, four sides, and top without breakage.

5. Add paragraphs (a) (9) and (b) (7) to § 73.359 (17 F. R. 4295, May 10, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.359) to read as follows:

§ 73.359 Hexaethyl tetraphosphate mixtures, methyl parathion mixtures, parathion mixtures, tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate mixtures, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate mixtures, liquid. (a) • • •

(9) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with not more than one inside glass container of not over 1 gallon capacity, securely cushioned. Completed package, with glass container filled with water, when closed for shipment, must be capable of withstanding six four-foot drops onto solid concrete in the order bottom, four sides, and top without breakage.

(b) • • •

(7) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with not more than one inside glass container of not over 1 gallon capacity securely cushioned. Completed package, with glass container filled with water, when closed for shipment, must be capable of withstanding six four-foot drops onto solid concrete in the order bottom, four sides, and top without breakage.

6. Add § 73.362 (15 F. R. 8336, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.362, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.362 4 Chloro-o-toluidine hydrochloride. (a) 4 Chloro-o-toluidine hydrochloride must be shipped in specification containers as follows:

(1) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with glass polyethylene, or equally efficient inside containers not over 1 quart capacity each, securely packed in a tightly closed metal container.

(2) Spec. 15A or 15B (§§ 78.168 or 78.169 of this chapter). Wooden boxes with glass, polyethylene, or equally efficient inside containers not over 1 quart capacity each. Glass containers must be securely packed in tightly closed metal containers.

(3) Spec. 17C or 17H (§§ 78.115 or 78.118 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip).

(4) Spec. 6A, 6B, or 6C (§§ 78.97, 78.98, or 78.99 of this chapter). Metal barrels or drums.

7. Amend 73.364 introductory text of paragraph (a) (18 F. R. 804, Feb. 7, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.364) to read as follows:

§ 73.364 Exemptions for poisonous solids, class B. (a) Poisonous solids, class B, except beryllium metal powder; cyanides, other than as specified in § 73.370 (b) and (d); hexaethyl tetraphosphate mixtures, methyl parathion mixtures, parathion mixtures, tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate mixtures, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate mixtures, other than as specified in § 73.377 (e); in tightly closed inside containers, securely cushioned when necessary to prevent breakage and packed as follows, are exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements for transportation by rail freight, rail express, or highway, but when for transportation by carrier by water they are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements.

• • • • •

8. Amend § 73.377 paragraph (a) (1) (16 F. R. 11780, Nov. 21, 1951) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 73.377) to read as follows:

§ 73.377 Hexaethyl tetraphosphate mixtures, methyl parathion mixtures, parathion mixtures, tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate mixtures, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate mixtures, dry. (a) • • •

(1) Spec. 12B or 12C (§§ 78.205 or 78.206 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes, with inside containers which must be metal or fiber cans not over 12 pounds capacity each, or paper bags, spec. 2D (§ 78.23 of this chapter), not over 12 pounds capacity each. Inside containers and the completed package must be capable of withstanding the tests prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

• • • • •

SUBPART H—MARKING AND LABELING EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Amend entire § 73.426 (15 F. R. 8343, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 73.426, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 73.426 Cars containing lading which has been fumigated or treated with flammable liquids, flammable gases, poisonous liquids or solids, or poisonous gases. (a) Delivery to carrier of cars containing lading fumigated or treated with flammable liquid or flammable gas is prohibited until 48 hours have elapsed after such fumigation or treatment.

(b) Cars containing lading which has been fumigated or treated with poisonous liquid, solid, or gas, such as carbolic acid, liquid or solid, chlorpicrin, hydrocyanic acid, methyl bromide, etc., must be placarded on each door or near thereto with placard reading as follows (for cleaning cars, see § 74.566 of this chapter):

(Reduced size)

The lading of this car has been FUMIGATED or TREATED with

(Name of poisonous liquid, solid, or gas)

BEFORE UNLOADING, open both doors and DO NOT ENTER until car is free of gas. REMOVE ALL POISONOUS MATERIAL before release of empty car.

PART 74—CARRIERS BY RAIL FREIGHT

SUBPART A—LOADING, UNLOADING, PLACARDING AND HANDLING CAR; LOADING PACKAGES INTO CARS

1. Amend § 74.532 paragraph (k) (15 F. R. 8348, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 74.532, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 74.532 Loading other dangerous articles. • • •

(k) Ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), and guanidine nitrate: Ammonium nitrate, ammonium nitrate (fertilizer grade), and guanidine nitrate in bags must be loaded in all wood box cars, or wooden box cars with steel roofs, or steel box cars with wooden floors. Only clean cars must be used and must be free of any projections that would injure bags.

• • • • •

2. Amend § 74.533 paragraph (a) (18 F. R. 3138, June 2, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 74.533) to read as follows:

§ 74.533 Truck bodies or trailers on flat cars. (a) Truck bodies or trailers containing explosives, class B, explosives, class C, or other dangerous articles as provided in Parts 71–78 of this chapter must be of such design and loaded so that they will not rupture or become permanently distorted under conditions normally incident to transportation and must be so braced and stayed on the flat car that they cannot change position during transit. Packages of explosives and dangerous articles contained therein must be loaded and braced as provided by §§ 74.529, 74.530, and 74.532. Placards must be applied when prescribed by §§ 74.541 and 74.542.

• • • • •

SUBPART B—LOADING AND STORAGE CHART OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Amend § 74.538 paragraph (a) Chart, item (b) and item (11) vertical and horizontal columns by inserting the footnote "e" at the respective intersections; add footnote "e" to paragraph (a) Chart (15 F. R. 8349, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 74.538, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 74.538 Loading and storage chart of explosives and other dangerous articles. (a) • • •

• Does not include nitro carbo nitrate which may be loaded, transported or stored with high explosives.

• • • • •

PART 77—SHIPMENTS MADE BY WAY OF COMMON, CONTRACT, OR PRIVATE CARRIERS BY PUBLIC HIGHWAY

SUBPART C—LOADING AND STORAGE CHART OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Amend § 77.848 paragraph (a) Chart, item (b) and item (11) vertical and horizontal columns by inserting the footnote "e" at the respective intersections; add footnote "e" to paragraph (a) Chart (15 F. R. 8369, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 77.848, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 77.848 Loading and storage chart of explosives and other dangerous articles. (a) • • •

• Does not include nitro carbo nitrate which may be loaded, transported or stored with high explosives.

• • • • •

PART 78—SHIPPING CONTAINER SPECIFICATIONS

SUBPART A—SPECIFICATIONS FOR CARBOYS, JUGS IN TUBS, AND RUBBER DRUMS

Add paragraph (d) to § 78.11–3 and add Note 1 to paragraph (a) in § 78.11–4 (18 F. R. 805, Feb. 7, 1953) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp., 78.11–3, 78.11–4) to read as follows:

§ 78.11 Specification 1G; polyethylene carboys in wooden or glued plywood boxes.

• • • • •

§ 78.11–3 Polyethylene carboys. • • •

(d) Polyethylene carboys formed by blow-molded process must comply with the requirements of § 78.10–3 and are not required to be tested as prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 78.11–4 Outside containers. (a) • • •

NOTE 1: Vertical openings not exceeding ¾ inch in width and extending to within 3 inches of top or bottom on 2 opposite sides of box is permitted.

• • • • •

SUBPART C—SPECIFICATIONS FOR CYLINDERS

Add § 78.56 (15 F. R. 8419, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.56, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.56 Specification 4AA480; welded steel cylinders made of definitely prescribed steels.

§ 78.56–1 Compliance. (a) Required in all details.

§ 78.56–2 Type, size, and service pressure. (a) Must be welded type, having not over 278 pounds nominal water capacity. Closures welded by spinning process not permitted.

(b) Service pressure 480 pounds per square inch.

§ 78.56–3 Inspection by whom and where. (a) By competent inspector; chemical analyses and tests, as specified, to be made within limits of the United States. Interested inspectors are authorized.

§ 78.56–4 Duties of inspector. (a) Inspect all material and reject any not complying with requirements of this specification. For cylinders made by the billet piercing process, billets to be inspected after nick and cold break.

(b) Verify chemical analysis of each heat of material by analysis or by obtaining certified analysis: Provided, That a certificate from the manufacturer thereof, giving sufficient data to indicate compliance with requirements, is acceptable when verified by check analyses of samples taken from one cylinder out of each lot of 200 or less.

(c) Verify compliance of cylinders with specification requirements including: markings; condition of inside; tests; threads; heat treatment. Obtain samples for all tests; check chemical analyses; witness all tests; report volumetric capacity, tare weight (see report form), and minimum thickness of wall noted.

(d) Render complete report (§ 78.56–21) to purchaser, cylinder maker, and the Bureau of Explosives.

§ 78.56–5 Steel. (a) The limiting chemical composition of steel authorized by this specification shall be as shown in § 78.56–20, table I.

§ 78.56–6 Identification of material. (a) Required; any suitable method except that plates and billets for hot-drawn cylinders shall be marked with the heat number.

§ 78.56–7 Defects. (a) Material with seams, cracks, laminations, or other injurious defects, not authorized.

§ 78.56–8 Manufacture. (a) By best appliances and methods; dirt and scale to be removed as necessary to afford proper inspection; no defect acceptable that is likely to weaken the finished cylinder appreciably; reasonably smooth and uniform surface finish required. Exposed bottom welds on cylinders over 18 inches long must be protected by foot-rings. Minimum thickness of heads and bottoms shall be not less than 90 percent of the required thickness of the side wall. Seams must be made as follows:

(b) Circumferential seams: By welding. Brazing is not authorized.

(c) Longitudinal seams: Not permitted.

§ 78.56–9 Welding. (a) The attachment to the tops and bottoms only of cylinders by welding of neckrings, foot-rings, bosses, pads, and valve protection rings is authorized provided that such attachments are made of weldable steel, the carbon content of which does not exceed 0.25 percent.

§ 78.56–10 Wall thickness. (a) For outside diameters over 5 inches the minimum wall thickness shall be 0.078 inch. In any case the minimum wall thickness shall be such that the calculated wall stress at minimum test pressure (§ 78.56–14) shall not exceed the lesser value of either of the following:

(1) One-half of the minimum tensile strength of the material determined as required in § 78.56–15, or,

(2) 35,000 pounds per square inch.

(b) Calculation must be made by the formula:

$$S=\frac{P\ (1.3D^2+0.4d^2)}{D^2-d^2}$$

S=wall stress in pounds per square inch;
P=minimum test pressure prescribed for water jacket test;
D=outside diameter in inches;
d=inside diameter in inches.

(c) Cylinders with wall thickness less than 0.100 inch, the ratio of tangential length to outside diameter shall not exceed 4.0.

§ 78.56–11 Heat treatment. (a) Each cylinder must be uniformly and properly heat treated prior to test. Any suitable heat treatment in excess of 1100° F., is authorized, except that liquid quenching is not permitted. Heat treatment must be accomplished after all forming and welding operations.

(b) Heat treatment is not required after welding weldable low carbon parts to attachments of similar material which have been previously welded to the top or bottom of cylinders and properly heat treated, provided such subsequent welding does not produce a temperature in excess of 400° F., in any part of the top or bottom material.

§ 78.56–12 Openings in cylinders. (a) All openings must be in the heads or bases.

(b) Each opening in cylinders, except those for safety devices, must be provided with a fitting, boss, or pad, securely attached to cylinder by welding or by threads. If threads are used they must comply with the following:

(1) Threads must be clean-cut, even, without checks and cut to gauge.

(2) Taper threads to be of length not less than as specified for American Standard taper pipe threads.

(3) Straight threads having at least 6 engaged threads, to have tight fit and calculated shear strength at least 10 times the test pressure of the cylinder; gasket required, adequate to prevent leakage.

(c) Closure of fitting, boss or pad must be adequate to prevent leakage.

§ 78.56–13 Safety devices and protection for valves, safety devices, and other connections, if applied. (a) Must be as required by the Interstate Commerce Commission's Regulations that apply (see §§ 73.34 (f), 73.124 (a), and 73.301 (i) of this chapter).

§ 78.56–14 Hydrostatic test. (a) By water jacket, or other suitable method, operated so as to obtain accurate data. Pressure gauge must permit reading to accuracy of 1 percent. Expansion gauge must permit reading of total expansion to accuracy of either 1 percent or 0.1 cubic centimeter.

(b) Pressure must be maintained for 30 seconds and sufficiently longer to insure complete expansion. Any internal pressure applied after heat treatment and previous to the official test must not exceed 90 percent of the test pressure.

(c) Permanent volumetric expansion must not exceed 10 percent of the total volumetric expansion at test pressure.

(d) Cylinders must be tested as follows:

(1) Each cylinder, to at least 2 times service pressure.

(2) Or, 1 cylinder out of each lot of 200 or less; to at least 3 times service pressure. Others must be examined under pressure of 2 times service pressure and show no defect.

§ 78.56–15 Physical test. (a) To determine yield strength, tensile strength, elongation, and reduction of area of material. Required on 2 specimens cut from one cylinder having passed the hydrostatic test, or part thereof heat-treated as required, taken at random out of each lot of 200 or less.

(b) Specimens must be: Gauge length 8 inches with width not over 1½ inches; or, gauge length 2 inches with width not over 1½ inches, provided, that gauge length at least 24 times thickness with width not over 6 times thickness is authorized when cylinder wall is not over 3/16 inch thick. The specimen, exclusive of grip ends, must not be flattened. Grip ends may be flattened to within one inch of each end of the reduced section. When size of cylinder does not permit securing straight specimens, the specimens may be taken in any location or direction and may be straightened or flattened cold, by pressure only, not by blows; when specimens are so taken and prepared, the inspector's report must show in connection with record of physical tests detailed information in regard to such specimens. Heating of specimen for any purpose is not authorized.

(c) The yield strength in tension shall be the stress corresponding to a permanent strain of 0.2 percent of the gauge length.

(1) The yield strength shall be determined by either the "offset" method or the "extension under load" method as prescribed in ASTM Standard E8–46

(2) In using the "extension under load" method, the total strain (or "Extension under load"), corresponding to the stress at which the 0.2 percent permanent strain occurs may be determined with sufficient accuracy by calculating the elastic extension of the gauge length under appropriate load and adding thereto 0.2 percent of the gauge length. Elastic extension calculations shall be based on an elastic modulus of 30,000,000. In the event of controversy, the entire stress-strain diagram shall be plotted and the yield strength determined from the 0.2 percent offset.

(3) For the purpose of strain measurement, the initial strain reference shall be set while the specimen is under a stress of 12,000 pounds per square inch, the strain indicator reading being set at the calculated corresponding strain.

(4) Cross-head speed of the testing machine shall not exceed ½ inch per minute during yield strength determination.

§ 78.56–16 Elongation. (a) Physical test specimens must show at least 40 percent for 2-inch gauge length or at least 20 percent in other cases, except that these elongation percentages may be reduced numerically by 2 for 2-inch specimens and by 1 in other cases for each 7,500 pounds per square inch increment of tensile strength above 50,000 pounds per square inch to a maximum of four such increments.

§ 78.56–17 Weld tests—(a) Reduced section tensile test. A specimen shall be cut from the cylinder used for the physical tests specified in § 78.56–15. Specimen shall be taken across the seam, edges shall be parallel for a distance of approximately 2 inches on either side of the weld. The specimen must be fractured in tension. The breaking stress calculated on the parent metal area must be at least equal to two (2) times the stress calculated under § 78.56–10 (b). Should this specimen fail to meet the requirements, specimen may be taken from two additional cylinders from the same lot and tested. If either of the latter specimens fails to meet requirements, the entire lot represented shall be rejected.

(b) Guided bend test. A bend test specimen shall be cut from the cylinder used for the physical tests specified in § 78.56–15. Specimen shall be taken across the seam, shall be 1½ inches wide, edges shall be parallel and rounded with a file, and back-up strip, if used, shall be removed by machining. The specimen shall be bent to refusal in the guided bend test jig illustrated in § 78.56–22. The root of the weld (inside surface of the cylinder), shall be located away from the ram of the jig. No specimen shall show a crack or other open defect exceeding ⅛ inch in any direction upon completion of the test. Should this specimen fail to meet the requirements, specimens may be taken from each of two additional cylinders from the same lot and tested. If either of the latter specimens fails to meet requirements, the entire lot represented shall be rejected.

(c) Alternate guided bend test. An alternate guided bend test jig, as illustrated in § 78.56–23 (a) and (b), may be used for testing the soundness of fillet welded lap joints and joggle butt joints. The test specimen shall be bent across the weld as illustrated in sketch A or B for fillet welded lap joints and as illustrated in sketch C or D for joggle butt joints. The specimen shall be bent until the elongation at the outer surface, adjacent to the root of the weld, between the lightly scribed gauge lines—a to b, shall be at least 20 percent; except that this percentage may be reduced for steels having a tensile strength in excess of 50,000 pounds per square inch, as provided in § 78.56–16. No tested specimens shall show a crack, or other defect, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section. The gauge lines be lightly scribed before bending. The amount of elongation may be conveniently determined with a Brinell microscope or any other suitable method may be employed.

§ 78.56–18 Rejected cylinders. (a) Reheat treatment authorized; subsequent thereto, acceptable cylinders must pass all prescribed tests. Repair of welded seams by welding is authorized.

§ 78.56–19 Marking. (a) Marking on each cylinder stamped as follows:

(1) ICC 4AA480.

(2) A serial number and an identifying symbol, both to be of the purchaser, user, or maker. The symbol must be registered with the Bureau of Explosives. Duplications unauthorized.

(3) Inspector's official mark.

(4) Date of test (such as 1–54 for January 1954).

(5) Additional markings are permitted.

(b) Sequence of marks. Number shall be just below the ICC marking; identifying symbol shall be just below the number; inspector's official mark shall be near the serial number. Date of test shall be so placed that dates of subsequent test can easily be added. Symbol in front of or following the number with space between, or symbol and serial number stamped into welded valve spud directly above the ICC mark located on head of cylinder are also authorized. Other variations in sequence of marks authorized only when necessitated by lack of space.

(c) Location of markings. Markings may be stamped plainly and permanently in the following locations on the cylinder:

(1) On shoulders and top heads not less than 0.087 inch thick.

(2) On neck, valve boss, valve protection sleeve, or similar part permanently attached to top end of cylinder.

(3) On a plate attached to the top of the cylinder or permanent part thereof; sufficient space must be left on the plate to provide for stamping at least six retest dates; the plate must be at least 1/16 inch thick and must be attached by welding, or by brazing at a temperature of at least 1,100° F., throughout all edges of the plate.

(4) Variations in location of markings authorized only when necessitated by lack of space.

(d) Size of marks. Space permitting, at least ¼ inch high.

§ 78.56–20 Authorized steel. (a) Open hearth or electric steel of uniform quality and of the following chemical analyses is authorized (see footnote 1):

TABLE I—AUTHORIZED MATERIALS

Designation	Chemical analysis—limits in percent
	1315 [2]	NAX [2]	SCX [2]	4017 [2]
Carbon	0.10/0.20	0.20 max	0.20 max	0.13/0.20.

Copper	0.40 max		0.20/0.50

[1] Heat of steel made under the above specification, chemical analysis of which is slightly out of the specified range, is acceptable, if satisfactory in all other respects, provided the standard permissible variations from specified chemical ranges and limits published in the American Iron and Steel Institute Products Manual, section 10, dated June 1945 are not exceeded or are approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

[2] Addition of other elements to obtain alloying effect not authorized.

[3] This designation shall not be restrictive and the commercial steel is limited in analysis shown in the table.

§ 78.56–21 Inspector's report. (a) Required to be clear, legible and in following form:

These cylinders were made by process of _____

The material used was type _____ authorized in table I of Spec. No. 4AA480.

The material used was identified by the following _____ (Heat-purchase order) numbers _____.

The material used was verified as to chemical analysis and record thereof is attached hereto. The heat numbers _____ (Were—were not) marked on the material.

All material was inspected and all that was accepted was found free from seams, cracks, laminations and other injurious defects.

The compliance of cylinders with specification requirements was verified including markings, condition of inside, tests, threads, etc. All cylinders with defects which might prove injurious were rejected. The processes of manufacture and heat treatment were supervised and found to be efficient and satisfactory.

The cylinder walls were measured and the minimum thickness noted was _____ inch. The outside diameter was determined by a close approximation to be _____ inches. The wall stress was calculated to be _____ pounds per square inch under an internal pressure of _____ pounds per square inch.

Hydrostatic tests, tensile tests of material, and other tests as prescribed in specification ICC 4AA480 were made in the presence of the inspector and all cylinders accepted were found to be in compliance with the requirements of that specification. Records thereof are attached hereto.

§ 78.56–22 Guided bend test jig. (a) Dimensions as follows:

(b) Dimensions as follows:

Note: Dimensions shown for die and plunger are for ⅜" thick material only. The following dimensions shall be used for other thicknesses. Thickness of plunger member = 4 × thickness of test specimen. Radius of plunger member = 2 × thickness of test specimen. Width of opening, die member = 6 × thickness of test specimen + 1/8". Radius of die member = 3 × thickness of test specimen + 1/16".

§ 78.56–23 Alternate guided bend test jig. (a) Dimensions as follows:

Note: Dimensions shown are suitable for bending lap-weld specimens of 0.05" to 0.133" material thickness. A piece of 2" pipe may be slipped over the mandrel for turning. For any specimen thickness, fillers of appropriate thickness shall be added to one or both sides of the specimen as shown to obtain the required elongation.

SUBPART D—SPECIFICATIONS FOR METAL BARRELS, DRUMS, KEGS, CASES, TRUNKS AND BOXES

1. Amend § 78.80–3 paragraph (a) and add paragraph (a) (3) to § 78.80–13 (15 F. R. 8432, 8433, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.80–3, 78.80–13, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.80 Specification 5; steel barrels or drums.

• • • • •

§ 78.80–3 Composition. (a) Sheets for body and heads to be low carbon, open hearth or electric steel. Stainless steel, when used, must be, except for rolling hoops and chime reinforcement, an austenitic 18 and 8 chrome nickel alloy with carbon content not over 0.08 percent, or other equivalent grades.

§ 78.80–13 Type tests. (a) • • •

(3) Periodic drop and hydrostatic tests are not required when containers fabricated of stainless steel have satisfactorily withstood prescribed tests at the original start of production. Satisfactory test results must be obtained on samples of subsequent containers that have been altered in design or construction. In instances where manufacturers have suspended production for an interval of 12 months or more, drop and hydrostatic tests must be again conducted as prescribed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) as for original start of production.

2. Amend § 78.83–9 paragraph (d) (15 F. R. 8435, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.83–9, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.83 Specification 5C; steel barrels or drums.

• • • • •

§ 78.83–9 Closures. • • •

(d) Openings over 2.3 inches not permitted. For containers over 15 gallons marked capacity, threads for plugs or caps exceeding ¾ inch standard pipe size must comply with the following:

(1) Eight (8) threads or less per inch, thread diameters and thread form must comply with the following drawing (other details on drawing are recommended), or

[Drawing remains unchanged.]

(2) Eleven and one-half (11½) threads per inch, standard pipe size.

3. Cancel entire § 78.86 (15 F. R. 8437, Dec. 2, 1950) (16 F. R. 9381, Sept. 15, 1951) (17 F. R. 7285, Aug. 9, 1952) (49 CFR 1950 Rev., 1953 Supp. 78.86).

SUBPART F—SPECIFICATIONS FOR FIBERBOARD BOXES, DRUMS, AND MAILING TUBES

Amend § 78.207–15 paragraphs (a) (1) and (a) (2) (15 F. R. 8478, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.207–15, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.207 Specification 12D; fiberboard boxes.

• • • • •

§ 78.207–15 Authorized gross weight and parts required. (a) • • •

(1) For authorized gross weight not over 25 pounds, box must be constructed of at least 275-pound test corrugated fiberboard with liners and top and bottom pads, or a complete inner box, of same material.

(2) For authorized gross weight over 25 pounds but not exceeding 75 pounds, inside containers must be packed in boxes of at least 275-pound test corrugated fiberboard and these packages packed in an outside box of at least 350-pound test corrugated fiberboard.

SUBPART G—SPECIFICATIONS FOR BAGS, CLOTH, BURLAP OR PAPER

1. Add § 78.234 (15 F. R. 8482, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.234, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.234 Specification 36C; burlap bags, paper lined.

§ 78.234–1 Compliance. (a) Required in all details.

§ 78.234–2 Capacity. (a) Not over 100 pounds, net.

§ 78.234–3 Burlap. (a) At least equal in quality and strength to 7½ ounce, 40 inch (7½/40) Calcutta A and/or B mill grade. Thread count at least 9 per 37/40 inch, porter, and 9 per inch, shot; this to be an average of 6 counts.

§ 78.234–4 Paper. (a) No. 1 Kraft, creped; at least 30 pounds per ream (480 sheets, 24" x 30") before creping.

NOTE 1: Because of the present emergency and until further order of the Commission, a ream may consist of 500 sheets.

§ 78.234–5 Assembly. (a) Burlap to be lined with 1 sheet of creped paper cemented to burlap.

(b) Adhesive between paper and burlap to be asphalt, any desirable type, at a minimum rate of 110 pounds per ream.

§ 78.234–6 Stretch of paper lining. (a) At least equal to that of burlap in direction of warp and fill and equal to 10 percent in diagonal direction.

§ 78.234–7 Seams. (a) By cementing or taping to give seam strength at least equal to that of bag material and prevent sifting.

§ 78.234–8 Test. (a) The finished container, filled and closed as for shipment, must be capable of withstanding drop test of 4 feet on the butt without sifting or rupture of burlap liners.

§ 78.234–9 Marking. (a) Marking on each container by marks at least 1" high as follows:

(1) ICC–36C: this mark shall be understood to certify that the container complies with all specification requirements.

(2) Name and address of maker; located above or below the mark specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; symbol (letters) authorized if registered with the Bureau of Explosives.

§ 78.234–10 Closing for shipment. (a) As specified for seams, § 78.234–7; or, by tying with 2 steel wires of at least No. 16 Birmingham wire gauge, or any other type of equal efficiency that will be sift-proof and insure equal strength to body of bag.

2. Add § 78.239 (15 F. R. 8483, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.239, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.239 Specification 44E; multiwall paper bags.

§ 78.239–1 Construction and capacity. (a) Bags must be at least 3 thicknesses of paper; this must be heavy duty shipping sack Kraft paper No. 1, or equivalent, with a minimum total basis weight of 130 pounds of paper (500 sheets, 24" x 36"). Outer sheet must be of water-resistant stock and at least 50 pounds basis weight, inner sheets not less than 40 pounds basis weight. Bags to be of sewn and taped, cemented, taped, satchel bottom or other construction of equal efficiency to form a sift-proof and reasonably air-tight container. Authorized for not over 50 pounds net weight, except that bags having a minimum total basis weight of 160 pounds of paper (500 sheets, 24" x 36") with outer sheet of water-resistant stock and at least 60 pounds basis weight, inner sheets not less than 50 pounds basis weight, are authorized for not to exceed 100 pounds net weight of contents.

§ 78.239–2 Mullen or Cady test. (a) Mullen or Cady test of all Kraft paper used must be not less than 90 percent of basis weight. Laminated sheets of paper are to be considered as one thickness of paper.

§ 78.239–3 Adhesive. (a) Moisture resistant adhesive must be used on all seams, joints, and bottom patch, if any.

§ 78.239–4 Closure. (a) For all bags: Any closure for the top which is equal in efficiency to that of the bottom, is authorized.

§ 78.239–5 Tests for shipment. (a) Bags as prepared for shipment must be able to withstand four 4-foot drops, one on each end and one each on opposite sides, without sifting or rupture.

§ 78.239–6 Marking. (a) On each bag with letters and figures at least ½ inch high in rectangle as follows:

ICC–44E

(1) This mark shall be understood to certify bag complies with all specification requirements.

(2) Name and address of maker located just above or below the mark specified in this paragraph; symbol (letters) authorized if registered with the Bureau of Explosives.

SUBPART H—SPECIFICATIONS FOR PORTABLE TANKS

Amend § 78.245–1 paragraph (a) (15 F. R. 8483, Dec. 2, 1950) (49 CFR 78.245–1, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.245 Specification 51; steel portable tanks.

§ 78.245–1 Requirements for design and construction. (a) Tanks shall be of seamless or welded steel construction or combination of both and shall have in excess of 1,000 pounds water capacity. Fusion-welded tanks shall be fully radiographed and stress-relieved. Tanks shall be designed and constructed in accordance with and fulfill the requirements of (1) Par. U–68 or U–200 of Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1949 Edition; or (2) Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1950 Edition; or (3) Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1952 Edition; or (4) the A. P. I.-A. S. M. E. Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels for Petroleum Liquids and Gases, 1943 Edition; or (5) the A. P. I.-A. S. M. E. Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels for Petroleum Liquids and Gases, 1951 Edition; no revisions (any or all of which hereinafter referred to as "the Code").

MINIMUM PHYSICAL PROPERTIES

Tensile Strength---110,000psi Elongation in 2 inches---16 %
Yield Point -----100,000psi Reduction in Area-----50%

Impact Values at Minus 50°F:

Impact specimens shall be prepared and tested in accordance with ASTM Specification E-23 (current issue). The specimens a handling tongs shall be uniformly cooled to the test temperature for at least 30 minutes. The test shall be made within 8 seconds after removal from the cooling medium.

Charpy Keyhole Notch Test: Minimum impact value required for each one of set of three specimens----- 15 ft. lbs.

Section and paragraph	Reason for amendment
73.201, (a), (8) and (b)	To provide spec. 36C and 44E bags for the shipment of rubber scrap, rubber buffings, reclaimed rubber or regenerated rubber; to provide exemptions for the above commodities in certain forms.
73.206, (a)	To provide for the transportation of sodium potassium alloys.
73.317, (b)	To provide further exemption for calcium and lithium hypochlorite compounds, dry in tablet form.
73.234	To provide spec. 44C for the shipment of sodium nitrite.
73.244, (a)	To allow volumetric measures to be used.
73.245, (a) (14)	To provide certain single-trip containers for corrosive liquids.
73.249, (a) (4)	To restrict the use of spec. 17E drums.
73.249, (b) (3)	To provide for larger capacity inside containers.
73.276, (a) (3)	To delete spec. 5G as a container for anhydrous hydrazine and hydrazine solution.
73.279, (a) (2)	To replace spec. 5G with spec. 5 for the shipment of anisoyl chloride.
73.289, (a) (6)	To replace spec. 5G with spec. 5 for the shipment of formic acid.
73.302, (a) (5)	To exclude cosmetics as an exempted commodity.
73.304, (c) Note 1	To limit overcharging of cylinders beyond July 1, 1954.
73.306, (a)	To exclude acetylene from certain shipping requirements.
73.306, (d)	To provide packaging requirements for certain mixtures of compressed gases which are nonpoisonous but which are flammable.
73.308, (a) table	To provide for the shipment of anhydrous ammonia in ICC 4AA480 cylinders.
73.312, (c)	To correct a reference.
73.314, (a) table	To provide uniform reference to requirements governing the transportation of liquefied carbon dioxide and to specifically list tank cars authorized for the transportation of liquid hydrocarbon gas.
73.315, (a) (1) table	To provide uniform reference governing the transportation of liquefied carbon dioxide.
73.315, (b) table	To provide for the use of slip tube gauges on cargo and portable tanks used for anhydrous ammonia.
73.318, (l) (9)	Clarification.
73.318, (j) (1)	To provide use of newly adopted codes for construction of tanks.
73.329, (b) (1)	To provide spec. 4BA for the shipment of chlorpicrin and methyl chloride mixtures.
73.345, (a)	To clarify the regulations.
73.345, (b) (9), (10), (11), (12), (13) and (14).	To clarify application of regulations to certain poisons.
73.346, (a) (14)	To provide spec. 12B for the shipment of poisonous liquids
73.350, (a) (8)	To provide spec. 12B for the shipment of hexaethyltetraphosphate, methyl parathion, parathion, tetraethyl dithio pyrophosphate, and tetraethyl pyrophosphate, liquid.
73.350, (a) (9) and (b) (7)	To provide spec. 12B for the mixtures of commodities contained in § 73.358.
73.362	To provide for the shipment of 4 chloro-o-toluidine hydrochloride.
73.364, (a)	To provide exemptions for mixtures referred to in sec. 73.359.
73.377, (a) (1)	To allow the use of larger inside containers.
73.426	To provide placards for cars which have been fumigated or present other hazards.
74.532, (k)	To permit calcium nitrate to be loaded in other than wooden cars.

SUBPART J—SPECIFICATION FOR CONTAINERS FOR MOTOR VEHICLE TRANSPORTATION

Amend § 78.336-1 paragraph (a) (15 F. R. 8556, Dec. 2, 1950; 49 CFR 78.336-1, 1950 Rev.) to read as follows:

§ 78.336-1 Requirements for design and construction. (a) Tanks shall be of seamless or welded steel construction or combination of both and shall be designed and constructed in accordance with and fulfill the requirements of (1) Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1949 Edition, except that construction under Par. U-70 is not authorized; or (2) Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1950 Edition; or (3) Section VIII of the Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, 1952 Edition; or (4) the A. P. I.-A. S. M. E. Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels for Petroleum Liquids and Gases, 1943 Edition; or (5) the A. P. I.-A. S. M. E. Code for Unfired Pressure Vessels for Petroleum Liquids and Gases, 1951 Edition; no revisions (any of all of which hereinafter referred to as "the Code").

[Vesting Order 15249, Amdt.]

FRIEDRICH WILHELM KOBER ET AL.

In re: Interest in real property and a claim owned by Friedrich Wilhelm Kober and others.

Vesting Order 15249, dated October 18, 1950, is hereby amended as follows and not otherwise:

By deleting the description of Parcel 4 as set forth in Exhibit A attached to and by reference made a part of Vesting Order 15249 and substituting therefor the following description:

Parcel 4:

All that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situated, lying and being in the Town of Phillipsburg, County of Warren, State of New Jersey, and more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at an iron pipe in the West property line of Irwin Street, the beginning is a common corner to Lots Numbers 11 and 12; thence,

(1) North twenty-five degrees thirty minutes (25° 30') West, along property recently conveyed to Edwin G. Shipman one hundred ten and sixty-six one-hundredths feet (110 66/100') to an iron pipe in the rear line of Lots recently conveyed to Harvey L. Stoney, Jacob H. Frick, et al. This corner is one foot six inches (1'-6") from a corner of a lot recently sold to Matthias C. Wagner; thence,

(2) South sixty-two degrees no minutes (62° 00') west, twenty-one feet (21') more or less; thence,

(3) South twenty-five degrees thirty minutes (25° 30') East, along property recently conveyed to Simon Lambert (said property being part of Lot No. 12) a distance of one hundred and ten feet (110') more or less to the West property line of Irwin Street; thence,

(4) North sixty-four degrees thirty minutes (64° 30') East along the West property line of Irwin Street twenty-one feet no inches (21'-0") to the point of beginning.

The above description covers a part of Lot No. 12 Block No. 2, adjoining Lot No. 11, as shown on Map of Phillipsburg Development Corporation property South of Morris Turnpike.

All other provisions of said Vesting Order 15249 and all actions taken by or on behalf of the Attorney General of the United States in reliance thereon, pursuant thereto and under the authority thereof are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on January 6, 1954.

For the Attorney General.

Lots 34, 44, 45, 55, 56, 66, Sec. 19	250
Lots 9, 20, 30, 39, 50, 61, 72, 83, Sec. 19	300

2. Area: The lots listed range in size as follows: Sec. 19, 0.74 acre to 5.49 acres; Sec. 20, all 1.28 acres; Sec. 30, 0.58 acre to 1.44 acres. Most of the lots measure 165 feet wide by 330 feet deep, with the long dimension running east to west.

3. Location: These lands are located in Brevard County, Florida, about 14 miles southeast of Titusville and 18 miles northwest of the town of Merritt Island, across the causeway from Cocoa, Florida.

They are located about center of Merritt Island and may be reached over the causeways from either Titusville or Cocoa. State Highway No. 3 extends along the east end of Sections 19 and 30. A canal and a secondary improved county road run through the center of Section 19 in an east-west direction. Another secondary improved county road extends along the west side of Sections 19 and 30. A secondary county road extends along the south end of Section 20 and may be reached from the town of Orsino.

4. Characteristics of Land: The lands are low in elevation averaging between three to ten feet. They are of a worn down sand dune nature, characteristic of one-time ocean beach dunes. Drainage of certain areas by ditch system is essential to make all of the lands usable and to reduce the prevalent mosquito problem.

Marshes are intemittently wet and dry during summer months. Water becomes deep during the wet seasons. Quite a number of fur-bearing marsh-type animals—the muskrat, mink, otter and rabbit, as well as numerous waterfowl, inhabit the areas. There may be a few alligators in the canal.

Upland areas are sandy in nature and support a heavy growth of palmetto, gallberry and scrub oak. Small growth of good pine, not of commercial value, cover portions of Sections 19 and 30.

The subdivided tracts are served by State Highway No. 3 (asphalt surfaced) connecting the towns of Titusville, 14 miles northwest, and Merritt Island, about 18 miles southwest. A rural electrification line extends along Highway No. 3. There are four or five homes along Highway No. 3 between Titusville and Orsino.

Potable water is available by shallow wells with deep wells furnishing better quality water.

5. Filings: A multiplicity of filings by those persons entitled to claim veteran's preference for service in World War II is anticipated during the simultaneous filing period. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of 43 CFR 257.8, Circ. 1764, containing small tract regulations approved September 11, 1950, the special procedure and drawing outlined therein will be used. This special procedure and the drawing do not apply to veterans of other wars of the United States.

(a) The lands in Sections 19, 20 and 30, above township and range, were placed under consideration for small tract classification on July 11, 1952, and May 12, 1952, respectively. Four preference right applications were regularly filed for Lots 44 and 49, Sec. 19; Lot 32, Sec. 20; and Lot 47, Sec. 30, covering the type of site for which these lands are classified, and this order shall become effective as to such applications upon the date it is signed.

(b) As to lands not covered by applications referred to above, this order shall not become effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order.

(c) Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the date of this order and for a period of 35 days thereafter, the lands described herein shall be subject to the filing of drawing entry cards only by those persons entitled to claim World War II veteran's preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 748; 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–284), as amended. Such veterans desiring to participate in the drawing may apply to the Regional Administrator, Region VI, Bureau of Land Management, U. S. Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C., for a drawing entry card, Form 4–775, upon which the veteran will print clearly his name, post office address and sign his full name in the space provided on the card, certifying that he is a citizen of the United States, over 21 years of age or the head of a family, and entitled to veteran's preference based upon service in World War II and honorable discharge or separation under honorable conditions from such service. Only one drawing entry card may be filed by an entrant. No filing fee or additional papers should accompany the drawing entry cards. All drawing entry cards, when completed as indicated, shall be mailed to the above-mentioned Regional Administrator and must be forwarded in time to reach him not later than 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day from the date of this order. All cards of qualified entrants received not later than the hour and date mentioned will be placed in a drawing receptacle in the Interior Building at Washington, D. C., at 1 p. m. on the second business day following such 35th day and thoroughly mixed in the presence of such persons as may desire to be present. The cards will then be drawn one at a time, by disinterested parties, and numbered in the order drawn to establish an adequate list of eligibles and of alternates to whom the available tracts will be allocated in consecutive order. The numbers assigned in the drawing will fix the order in which the tracts will be allocated to the successful entrants, beginning with Lot 4, Sec. 19, T. 22 S., R. 37 E., and continuing in numerical sequence through Lot 90, excepting Lot 26 which is reserved for recreational use by the public and Lots 44 and 49, which are covered by preference right applications; and Lot 89 which is part of State Highway No. 3; thence beginning with Lot 1 of Sec. 20, above township and range and continuing through Lot 31, Lot 32 being omitted since it is covered by a preference right application; thence beginning with Lot 5, Sec. 30, above township and range, and continuing through Lot 48, excepting Lot 47 which is covered by a preference right application.

6. Awards: Each successful entrant to whom a tract is awarded will be sent by registered mail a decision making appropriate requirements, with an "Offer to Lease and Lease Under Small Tract Act," Form 4–776, in duplicate, bearing the description of the tract. The forms must be completely filled out, signed and returned by the successful entrant within the time allowed, accompanied by a $10.00 filing fee, and in addition, $15.00 representing rental for a 3-year period for home site leases; or a $10.00 filing fee, and in addition, $100 representing rental for a 5-year period for business site leases; also a complete photostat, or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of the Branch of Service which shows clearly his honorable discharge, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. An award to a successful entrant who was not qualified to enter the drawing, or who for any reason falls within the time allowed to comply with the requirements of the decision accompanying the lease forms, will be canceled upon the records, and the lot will become available to the alternate next in line as determined by the drawing. Every lease will contain an option to purchase clause and every lessee may file an application to purchase at the sale price as explained at the bottom of the front page of lease form. Occupation of the land may begin on the effective date of the lease shown at the bottom of the form. As a minimum construction requirement, each lessee before he exercises his option to purchase, must build a habitable house of substantial construction which will withstand the elements of the area, provide adequate water for culinary use, and meet the sanitation requirements of Brevard County. Three photographs of completed improvements must be submitted when lessee makes application to purchase.

7. Rights-of-way: A 33-foot right-of-way for roads and public utilities will be reserved as follows for the lots in Section 19: North side of Lots 4 to 9, inclusive; West side of Lots 5, 7, 11, 13, 16, 18, 22, 24, 26, 28, 32, 35, 37, 41, 43, 46, 48, 52, 54, 57, 59, 63, 65, 68, 70, 74, 76, 79, 81, 85 and 87; East side of Lots 6, 8, 10, 12, 17, 19, 21, 23, 27, 29, 31, 33, 36, 38, 40, 42, 47, 49, 51, 53, 58, 60, 62, 64, 69, 71, 73, 75, 80, 82, 84 and 86; South side of Lots 83 to 88, inclusive. The East side of Lots 4, 14, 15, 25, 26, 34, 44, 45, 55, 56, 66, 67, 77, 78 and 88; West side of Lots 9, 20, 30, 39, 50, 61, 72 and 83; the North side of Lots 45 to 50, inclusive; and the South side of Lots 39 to 44, inclusive, are subject to the existing State or County road rights-of-way.

(a) A 33-foot right-of-way for roads and public utilities will be reserved as follows for the lots in Section 20: North side of Lots 1 to 8, inclusive, and Lots 17 to 24, inclusive; South side of Lots 9 to 16, inclusive; East side of Lots 1, 16, 17 and 32; West side of Lots 8, 9, 24 and 25. The South side of Lots 25 to 32, inclusive, are subject to the existing County road right-of-way.

(b) A 33-foot right-of-way for roads and public utilities will be reserved as follows for the lots in Section 30: North side of Lots 5 to 10, inclusive; South side of Lots 44 to 48, inclusive; East side of Lots 7, 9, 12, 14, 19, 21, 24, 26, 30, 32, 35, 37, 40, 42, 45 and 47; West side of Lots 6, 8, 13, 15, 18, 20, 25, 27, 29, 31, 36, 38, 39, 41, 46 and 48. The East side of Lots 5, 16, 17, 28, 29, 38, 39 and 48, and the West side of Lots 10, 11, 22, 23, 33, 34, 43 and 44 are subject to the existing State and County road rights-of-way.

8. Unsuccessful entrants: Each entrant to whom no lot is allocated will be informed thereof by the return of the drawing entry card filed by him immediately after the drawing is held.

9. Unleased lots: The lots, if any, which are not leased as a result of the drawing, will not become subject to application by veterans who do not participate in the drawing or by the general public until a further order has been issued granting veterans of World War II a preference right of application for a period of 90 days.

FRESH WINTER PEARS

NOTICE OF PURCHASE PROGRAM, UMP 388

In order to encourage the consumption of fresh Winter pears by diverting them from the normal channels of trade and commerce in accordance with section 32, Public Law 320, 74th Congress, approved August 24, 1935, as amended, fresh Winter pears will be purchased during the period January 4, 1954, to and including February 20, 1954, in instances where surpluses have created serious marketing problems, and subject to limitations imposed by the capacity of available outlets to utilize supplies without waste and by the amount of funds available for such purchases. Grades and other specifications are contained in purchase announcements issued by the Department of Agriculture. Information as to this purchase program may be obtained from the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

CERTAIN COMMODITY AREAS OF MANUFACTURING

ANNUAL SURVEYS OF SPECIFIED MANUFACTURED PRODUCTS

In conformity with the act of Congress approved June 19, 1948, 62 Stat. 478, and due notice of consideration having been published (18 F. R. 7827, December 4, 1953) pursuant to said act, I have determined that annual data relating to the industries listed below are needed to aid the efficient performance of essential governmental functions and have significant application to the needs of the public and industry and are not publicly available from non-governmental or other governmental sources.

The industries listed below are significant in the lumber, steel, glass and machinery areas of manufacturing. The establishments in these industries directly employ more than a million persons and, indirectly through their demands upon other industries for materials, machinery, and services, provide jobs for several times that number. Information on the output of these industries is necessary to an adequate measurement of total industrial production. Government agencies need current data on the production and shipments of the products of these industries. Manufacturers in the industries involved, as well as their suppliers and customers and the general public, have also requested such data in the interest of business efficiency and stability.

Information will be collected annually covering each preceding calendar year from all establishments engaged in the production of the products listed below with the exception of the lumber survey, which will be conducted on a sample basis, and the glass containers survey where establishments that file the monthly report on glass containers will not need to submit an annual report on those products.

Lumber.
Glass containers.
Steel mill products.
Power cranes and shovels.

The report forms will require information on shipments and/or production. In addition, data on manufacturers' stocks will be required for lumber and glass containers and data on receipts and consumption will be required for steel mill products. Blank copies of the forms to be used are available to the producers of the listed commodities on request to the Director of the Census, Washington 25, D. C.

I have, therefore, directed that annual surveys be conducted for the purpose of collecting the data hereinabove described.

Dated: January 5, 1954.

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP. ET AL.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS, RECONVENING HEARING, AND FIXING DATE FOR FURTHER HEARING

In the matters of Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, Docket No. G–1850; Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket Nos. G–2062 and G–2286; the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, Docket Nos. G–1787, G–1911, G–1931, G–1936, G–1943, G–2193, and G–2288; the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Natural Gas Company of West Virginia, and Home Gas Company, Docket No. G–1893; the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Natural Gas Company of West Virginia, Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company, and Home Gas Company, Docket No. G–2059; Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G–1905; United Fuel Gas Company, Docket Nos. G–1952 and G–2285; the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Docket Nos. G–2192 and G–2289; United Fuel Gas Company and Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G–2194; Atlantic Seaboard Corporation and Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–2286; Home Gas Company, Docket No. G–2287.

On October 21, 1953, the Commission issued an order in the consolidated proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1850, G–2062, G–1787, G–1911, G–1931, G–1936, G–1943, G–1893, G–2059, G–1905, and G–1952, granting a motion by counsel for the Columbia Companies, applicants herein, that the hearings in the aforesaid proceedings be adjourned to a later date to be set by the Commission. Said order also granted the request of counsel for the Columbia Companies that the reception of evidence with respect to the issues of limitations upon transportation and deliveries of natural gas by the Columbia Companies be deferred to such adjourned hearing, and that the limitations upon maximum volumes of natural gas which may be transported or delivered by the Columbia Companies be stayed pending the completion of hearings and the making of a final determination herein with respect to such issues.

In said order issued on October 21, 1953, the Commission concluded that the record at that time showed that the estimated gas supply of the Columbia Companies will be adequate to enable them to meet the anticipated full peak-day requirements of all domestic, commercial and resale customers of said companies during the 1953–1954 winter season, but that additional substantial volumes of natural gas will be required from sources not presently known or determined if increasing annual deficiencies are to be avoided during the years 1954 through 1957. The Commission further stated: "Should the evidence adduced upon resumption of hearings in these matters be of such portent regarding allocation of volumes available or diversion of further deficiencies that affirmative action is required, we shall at that time take appropriate action to assure an equitable allocation of natural gas available to the Columbia System among the respective companies according to their respective requirements."

On June 18, 1953, applications were filed in Docket No. G–2192 by the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, in Docket No. G–2193 by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, and in Docket No. G–2194 by United Fuel Gas Company and Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, jointly, for certificates of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas transmission facilities, all as fully described in said applications, to enable said applicants to receive and utilize increased volumes of natural gas to be delivered from the facilities of Gulf Interstate Gas Co. pursuant to the authorization granted in Docket No. G–2058, wherein Gulf Interstate Gas Co. was authorized to transport natural gas for the account of United Fuel Gas Company. Delivery of said increased volumes of natural gas is expected to commence on November 1, 1954, and it is anticipated that such deliveries will provide up to 375,000 Mcf per day and up to 109,500,000 Mcf per year of additional gas to the pooled gas supply of the Columbia Companies. Said applications were filed in compliance with the condition attached to the issuance of the certificate granted in Docket No. G–2058 requiring United Fuel Gas Company and any other Columbia System Company which will require additional facilities to receive and transport the volumes of natural gas to be made available from the facilities of Gulf Interstate Gas Co. to file proper certificate applications therefor with the Commission.

On October 21, 1953, additional applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of facilities to provide increased capacity for the receipt, transportation and delivery of additional gas to become available to the pooled gas supply of the Columbia Companies, were filed in Docket No. G–2285 by United Fuel Gas Company, in Docket No. G–2286 by Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, and Virginia Gas Transmission Corporation, jointly, in Docket No. G–2287 by Home Gas Company, in Docket No. G–2288 by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, and in Docket No. G–2289 by The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company.

It appears that each of the foregoing applications for authorization to construct and operate facilities to provide increased capacity for the receipt, transportation and delivery of additional volumes of natural gas to become available to the Columbia Companies involves common questions of law and fact with respect to the pooled supply of natural gas available to the various operating subsidiaries of The Columbia Gas System, Inc., to meet their gas requirements and with respect to the appropriate allocation thereof or diversion of deficiencies in such gas supply.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the public hearing in the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1850, G–2062, G–1787, G–1911, G–1931, G–1936, G–1943, G–1893, G–2059, G–1905, and G–1952 be reconvened at the time and place hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and good cause exists for consolidating the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–2192, G–2193, G–2194, G–2285, G–2286, G–2287, G–2288, and G–2289 with the proceedings hereinbefore designated in paragraph (1), above, for purpose of hearing upon the matters involved and the issues presented by the applications and any supplements or amendments thereto in the aforesaid proceedings.

(3) It is necessary and appropriate for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4, 5, and 7 thereof, that such further hearings shall, in addition to the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) above, be held for the purpose of determining whether the gas supplies available to the Columbia Companies during the winter of 1954–1955, and thereafter, will be adequate to satisfy all the requirements of customers dependent in whole or in part upon the pooled gas supply of such companies for their supply of natural gas, and the just and reasonable limitations upon transportation and deliveries of natural gas by means of the authorized facilities of each of the Columbia Companies, as well as the just and reasonable service rules and regulations, which should be made applicable to such transportation and deliveries in the event the evidence discloses that the gas supplies of the Columbia Companies will be inadequate to satisfy such requirements.

The Commission orders:

(A) The aforesaid proceedings in Docket Nos. G–2192, G–2193, G–2194, G–2285, G–2286, G–2287, G–2288, and G–2289 be and the same hereby are consolidated with the proceedings in Docket Nos. G–1850, G–2062, G–1787, G–1911, G–1931, G–1936, G–1943, G–1893, G–2059, G–1905, and G–1952, for purpose of hearing.

(B) The public hearing in the above consolidated proceedings hereby is reconvened commencing January 18, 1954, at 10:00 a. m. e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C.

Adopted: December 29, 1953.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Donze Enterprises, Inc. (KSGM), Ste. Genevieve, Missouri, for construction permit; Docket No. 10505, File No. BP–8488.

The Commission having under consideration a petition filed January 4, 1954 by Donze Enterprises, Inc., applicant in the above-entitled proceeding, requesting continuance to February 8, 1954 of the hearing presently scheduled to commence January 5, 1954; and

It appearing, that as a result of conferences between counsel for Donze Enterprises, Inc. and Midland Broadcasting Company, party respondent herein, an agreement has been reached whereby Donze Enterprises, Inc. will amend its application and Midland Broadcasting Company will withdraw its protest; and that these matters have been informally discussed with the staff of the Federal Communications Commission; and

It further appearing, that counsel for Midland Broadcasting Company and counsel for the Broadcast Bureau have consented to an immediate consideration and grant of such petition;

It is ordered, This 4th day of January, 1954, that the petition be and it is hereby granted; and the hearing on the above-entitled application now scheduled for January 5, 1954, be and it is hereby continued to February 8, 1954, in Washington, D. C.

AIRCRAFT RADIOTELEPHONE OPERATOR AUTHORIZATIONS

DISCONTINUANCE OF ISSUANCE THROUGH FLIGHT EXAMINERS

In the matter of discontinuance of issuance of aircraft radiotelephone operator authorization and amendments of Parts 0, 1 and 13 of the Commission's rules; Docket No. 10751.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held in its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of December 1953:

The Commission having under consideration amendment of Part 0 of the Commission's rules so as to delete authority for issuance of Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorizations through certain flight examiners; and

It appearing, that the Commission, on November 12, 1953, adopted a notice of proposed rule making which included this matter and which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 20, 1953 in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments with respect thereto has now expired; and

It further appearing, that upon discontinuing the issuance of the Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization through flight examiners it will be necessary for persons desiring equivalent operating authority to obtain such authority from a Commission Field Office; and

It further appearing, that there was one comment to the effect that where the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit, which includes operating authority equivalent to the Aircraft Radiotelephone Operator Authorization, has to be obtained by mail from a Commission Field Office the resultant delay will discourage a student aircraft pilot who is otherwise ready for solo flight from continuing with instruction at a radio-controlled airport; and

It further appearing, that in view of the more expeditious procedure adopted for the issuance of the Restricted Radiotelephone Operator Permit such operator permit may normally be obtained during the course of instruction; that it is reasonable to expect candidates to file application for such permit a sufficient time in advance of the need therefor to avoid interruption of flight training; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (l) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, That, effective February 1, 1954, Part 0 of the Commission's rules is amended by deleting section 0.213 (d) thereof.

Released: January 5, 1954.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812–859]

PORTSMOUTH STEEL CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER GRANTING DELAY IN MAILING ANNUAL REPORT TO STOCKHOLDERS

DECEMBER 31, 1953.

Notice is hereby given that Portsmouth Steel Corporation ("Portsmouth") has filed an application pursuant to section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "act") for an order of the Commission granting an exemption from Rule N–30D–1 (a) of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

On January 26, 1953, the Commission issued an order pursuant to section 6 (c) of the act exempting Portsmouth from the provisions of section 7 (a) of the act with respect to those acts and practices which, if done or performed by a registered investment company, would not violate or contravene any of the provisions of the act. Pursuant to section 6 (e) of the act, however, the exemption order provided that certain sections of the act should apply to Portsmouth and to other persons in their transactions and relations to Portsmouth as though Portsmouth were a registered investment company. Among the sections of the act upon which the exemption was conditioned is section 30 (d), except that section 30 (d) was made applicable only to the extent that reports are to be transmitted to stockholders annually rather than semi-annually.

Rule N–30D–1 (a), promulgated under section 30 (d) of the act, among other things, requires that such reports be mailed to stockholders within 30 days after the date as of which the report is made. The instant application of Portsmouth requests an order of the Commission permitting it to mail such reports within 100 days after the date as of which the report is made.

A substantial part of the assets of Portsmouth consist of its holdings of over 24 percent of the common stock of Detroit Steel Corporation and over 14 percent of the common stock of Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company. In the recent past, Portsmouth has included, as part of its annual report to stockholders, the consolidated balance sheets as well as other pertinent excerpts from the annual reports of these two companies. This practice was inaugurated and continued in the interest of furnishing complete information to the stockholders of Portsmouth; however, in the past it has been approximately three months after the end of the year before this material was available from the above-named companies. Since this is the first year that Portsmouth is subject to the provision of Rule N–30D–1 (a) under the act requiring the mailing to stockholders of its annual report within 30 days after the date as of which the report is made, Portsmouth has requested that it be permitted to mail such report within 100 days after such date, so as to permit it to include the financial data mentioned above of Detroit Steel Corporation and Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company in its report to its stockholders as heretofore.

Section 6 (c) of the act authorizes the Commission by order upon application conditionally or unconditionally to exempt any transaction from any provision or provisions of the act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 14, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing any facts bearing upon the desirability of a hearing on the matter and may request that a hearing be held, such request stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application may be granted as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act.

By the Commission.

As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Agricultural Research Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—HAWAIIAN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

QUARANTINE

§ 301.13 Notice of quarantine. (a) Pursuant to section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161) and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture has determined that it is necessary to quarantine the Territory of Hawaii to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States of dangerous plant diseases and insect infestations, including the Mediterranean fruit fly (Ceratitis capitata (Wied.)), the melon fly (Dacus cucurbitae Coq.), the oriental fruit fly (Dacus dorsalis Hendl.), citrus canker (Xanthomonas citri (Hasse) Dowson), green coffee scale (Coccus viridis (Green)), the bean pod borer (Maruca testulalis (Geyer)), the bean butterfly (Lampides boeticus (L.)), the Asiatic rice borer (Chilo simplex (Butl.)), the mango weevil (Cryptorhynchus mangiferae (F.)), and the Chinese rose beetle (Adoretus sinicus Burm.), which are new to or not widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, and said Secretary has quarantined the Territory of Hawaii because of such diseases and insect infestations.

(b) No fruits or vegetables, in the raw or unprocessed state; peel of fruits of any genus, species, or variety of the subfamily Aurantioideae, Rutoideae, or Toddalioideae of the botanical family Rutaceae; cut flowers; rice straw; or mango seeds shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, tansported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from the Territory of Hawaii into or through the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the regulations hereinafter made or amendments thereto: Provided, That whenever the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch shall find that existing conditions as to the pest risk involved in the movement of the articles to which the regulations supplemental hereto apply, make it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any such regulations, he shall set forth and publish such findings in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which

(c) This section leaves in full force and effect § 301.30 which restricts the movement from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States into any of the States or certain Territories or Districts of the United States of all varieties of sweetpotatoes (Ipomoea batatas Poir.).

RULES AND REGULATIONS

§ 301.13–1 Definitions. For the purpose of the regulations in this subpart the following words, names, and terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Plant pests. The injurious insects and plant diseases referred to in § 301.13, in any stage of development.

(b) Fruits and vegetables. The more or less succulent portions of food plants, and parts thereof, in the raw or unprocessed state, such as bananas, coconuts, pineapples, potatoes, ginger root, tomatoes, peppers, melons, citrus, mangoes, etc.

(c) Cut flowers. Cut blooms of gardenia and mauna loa or leis made thereof.

(d) Mango seeds. Seeds of the fruit of mango (Mangifera spp.), fresh or dried.

(e) Rice straw. Stems or straw of rice (Oryza sativa), when used as packing material or for other purposes.

(f) Inspector. An inspector of the United States Department of Agriculture authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture to enforce the provisions of the Plant Quarantine Act.

(g) Certificate. A document signed by an inspector certifying that a particular ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft, or any specified lot or shipment of fruits or vegetables or other plant materials, via baggage, parcel post, express, freight or other mode of transportation, has been inspected and found apparently free from articles the movement of which is prohibited by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart, and from the plant pests referred to in said quarantine; or that the lot or shipment is of such a nature that no danger of infestation or infection is involved; or that it has been treated in a manner to eliminate infestation. A certificate covering treated products must state the treatment applied.

(h) Person. This term shall be construed to include both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies, and associations.

(i) Moved (move and movement). Shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved, directly or indirectly, from the Territory of Hawaii into or through the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States. Local, interisland movement is in no way affected by the regulations in this subpart. ("Move" and "movement" shall be construed accordingly.)

(j) Disinfection (disinfect and disinfected). The application to parts or all of a ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft of a treatment that may be designated by the inspector as effective against such plant pests as may be present. ("Disinfect" and "disinfected" shall be construed accordingly.)

§ 301.13–2 Regulated articles—(a) Prohibited movement. (1) The movement of insects of the species designated in § 301.13 or other notoriously injurious insects in a live state from the Territory of Hawaii into or through the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, either independently or in connection with any other article, is prohibited, except as provided in § 301.13–14 (b).

(2) Fruits, vegetables, and other products specified in § 301.13, and not eligible for inspection and certification under § 301.13–4 or otherwise expressly authorized movement either in the regulations in this subpart or in administrative instructions issued by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch are prohibited movement.

(b) Regulated movement. The movement of the following fruits and vegetables from the Territory of Hawaii is allowed throughout the year upon compliance with the regulations in this subpart:

Arrowhead (Sagittaria sagittifolia).
Arrowroot (Maranta arundinacea).
Asparagus (Asparagus officinalis).
Bean sprouts, soy (Glycine hispida).
Bean sprouts, mungo (Phaseolus aureus).
Burdock, great (Arctium lappa, Lappa major, L. edulis).
Butterbur (Petasites japonicus).
Cabbage (Brassica oleracea),
Cabbage, Chinese (Brassica pekinensis, B. chinensis).
Cabbage, swamp (Ipomoea reptans).
Carrot (Daucus carota sativa).
Cassava (Manihot sp.).
Celery (Apium graveolens).
Chinese spinach (Amaranthus gangeticus).
Chives (Allium schoenoprasum).
Chrysanthemum, garland (Chrysanthemum coronarium).
Coconuts (Cocos nucifera).
Coriander (Coriandrum sativum).
Dandelion (Taraxacum officinale).
Dropwort, water (Oenanthe stolonifera).
Garlic (Allium sativum).
Ginger bracts (Zingiber mioga).
Ginger root (Zingiber officinale).
Honewort (Cryptotaenia canadensis).
Jesuit's nut (Trapa bicornis, T. natans).
Kudzu (Pueraria thunbergiana).
Leek (Allium porrum).
Lettuce (Lactuca sativa).
Lily root (Nelumbium nucifera).
Mugwort (Artemisia vulgaris).
Nightshade, Malabar (Basella rubra).
Onion, green (Allium fistulosum).
Parsley (Petroselinum hortense).
Perilla (Perilla frutescens).
Pineapples (Ananas sativa), smooth Cayenne.
Potato (Solanum tuberosum).
Radish greens (Raphanus sativus longipinnatus).
Radish, oriental (Raphanus sativus longipinnatus).
Shallot (Allium ascalonicum).
Spinach (Spinacia oleracea).
Sweet corn (Zea mays).
Taro root, shoots and stalks (Colocasia antiquorum esculentum).
Watercress (Nasturtium officinale).
Waternut (waterchestnut) (Eleocharis dulcis (E. tuberosa) (Scirpus tuberosus)).
Yam bean root (Pachyrhizus erosus).
Yams Dioscorea (spp.).

Provided, That additions of other fruits and vegetables may be made to the foregoing list of regulated articles by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch when he determines that such fruits or vegetables, either as ordinarily packed and shipped or after treatment, do not involve risk of spreading any of the plant pests designated in the foregoing quarantine, and when such findings have been made known in administrative instructions of the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch.

§ 301.13–3 Conditions of movement—(a) Certification. Regulated articles shall not be moved from the Territory of Hawaii unless accompanied by a valid certificate issued by an inspector, except that coconuts (husked or unhusked), free from wrapping or packing materials, may be moved through the mails without certification.

(b) Segregation of certified articles. Articles certified after treatment in accordance with § 301.13–4 (b), taken aboard any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft in the Territory of Hawaii must be segregated and protected in a manner as required by the inspector.

§ 301.13–4 Conditions governing the issuance of certificates. Certificates may be issued for the movement of articles permitted movement in accordance with the regulations in this subpart under either of the following conditions:

(a) Fruits and vegetables designated in § 301.13–2 (b) may be certified when they have been inspected by an inspector and found apparently free from infestation.

(b) Fruits, vegetables, and other products designated in § 301.13 (except those listed in § 301.13–2 (b)) for which treatments may be approved by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch may be certified after such treatments have been applied under the observation of an inspector in accordance with administratively approved procedure. Any treatment that may be approved must be applied at the expense of the shipper, owner, or person in charge of such fruits and vegetables, except that no charge will be made for services performed by the inspector in the supervision of such treatments. The Department of Agriculture or its inspector will not be responsible for loss or damage resulting from any treatment prescribed or supervised.

§ 301.13–5 Application for inspection. Persons intending to move any fruits or vegetables that may be certified in accordance with the provisions of § 301.13–4 shall make application for inspection or treatment on forms provided for this purpose as far as possible in advance of the contemplated date of shipment. They will also be required to prepare, handle, and safeguard such articles from infestation or reinfestation, and to assemble them at such points as the inspector may designate, placing them so that inspection may be readily made. All costs, including storage, transportation, and labor incident to inspection, other than the services of the inspector shall be paid by the shipper. Blank forms[1] for use in making applications for inspections will be furnished free upon request to the United States Department of Agriculture, Plant Quarantine Branch, Honolulu, T. H.

§ 301.13–6 Marking, certification and type of container. Each container of articles required to be certified under the regulations in this subpart shall be plainly marked for identification purposes as required by the inspector, and shall be accompanied by a certificate issued in compliance with the regulations in this subpart. In the case of lot shipments, either in containers or in bulk, a certificate covering the lot shall be attached to the waybill, manifest or bill of lading. Containers or wrappers shall be new or of materials approved by an inspector.

[1] Form EQ–170.

§ 301.13–7 Uncertified fruits, vegetables, and cut flowers taken aboard ships, vessels, other surface craft, or aircraft—(a) In the possession of passengers or crew members. Small quantities of fruits, vegetables, and cut flowers, subject to the quarantine and regulations in this subpart, when loose and free of packing materials, may be taken aboard any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft by passengers or members of the crew without inspection and certification in the Territory of Hawaii. However, if such articles so taken aboard, are not eligible for inspection and certification under § 301.13–4 (a), they must be entirely consumed or disposed of before arrival within the territorial waters of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States: Provided, That no such uncertified articles may be taken aboard any aircraft as baggage or otherwise, when such aircraft is to be inspected and certified before its departure from the Territory of Hawaii in the manner set forth in § 301.13–10 of the regulations in this subpart.

(b) As ship's stores or decorations. Fruits, vegetables, and cut flowers subject to the quarantine and regulations in this subpart may be taken aboard ship, vessel, or other surface craft, or aircraft in the Territory of Hawaii without inspection or certification. However, such fruits, vegetables, and cut flowers not eligible for inspection and certification under § 301.13–4 (a) must be entirely consumed or removed from the ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft before arrival within the territorial waters of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States: Provided, That no such uncertified articles may be taken aboard any aircraft as stores or otherwise, when such aircraft is to be inspected and certified before its departure from the Territory of Hawaii in the manner set forth in § 301.13–10.

§ 301.13–8 Inspection of vessels. All ships, vessels, and other surface craft from Hawaii, upon coming within the territorial waters of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, shall be subject to examination by inspectors for the purpose of ascertaining by inspection whether any of the articles or insects prohibited movement by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart are contained in such ships, vessels, or other surface craft, or whether there remains any infestation from such articles. Such inspection will be made at the discretion of the inspector, either in the stream or at a pier, wharf, or mole within the confines of any port in the United States, other than in the Territory of Hawaii. If inspection is made in the stream, the ship, vessel, or other surface craft shall remain in the quarantine or inspection area until the inspector has notified the master or other responsible ship's officer, in writing, that further detention in quarantine for inspection purposes is not required. If inspection is made at a pier, wharf, or mole, the master or other responsible ship's officer shall not permit the unloading of any cargo, stores, baggage, or other personal belongings of the passengers and crew until he receives the written notification referred to above from the inspector. This inspection shall be made only between the hours of sunrise and sunset, and any ship, vessel, or other surface craft arriving after sunset shall remain at anchor in the quarantine or inspection area until inspection can be made on the following morning. Provided; That inspection between the hours of sunset and sunrise may be made when the inspector has been furnished advance information of the approximate hour of arrival, and the number of passengers carried, if any, and when facilities satisfactory to the inspector are provided both aboard the ship, vessel, or other surface craft and on the pier for adequate lighting and availability of stores, quarters, and baggage for inspection, as well as transportation to and from the ship, vessel, or other surface craft in the quarantine or inspection area, if necessary.

§ 301.13–9 Disinfection of vessels. Any ship, vessel, or other surface craft arriving from the Territory of Hawaii at a port in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, which is found upon inspection to contain articles subject to the quarantine and regulations in this subpart infected or infested with any of the plant pests designated in the quarantine or to be contaminated with any article or injurious insect prohibited movement by said quarantine and regulations, shall be immediately disinfected by the person in charge or possession of such ship, vessel, or other surface craft under the supervision of an inspector and in the manner prescribed by him.

§ 301.13–10 Inspection of aircraft. All aircraft arriving from the Territory of Hawaii at a port within the territorial limits of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States shall be subject to examination by inspectors for the purpose of ascertaining by inspection if any article or injurious insect the movement of which is prohibited by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart is contained in any such aircraft, or if any infestation from such prohibited articles remains. Except in the case of forced landings, all aircraft moving between the Territory of Hawaii and the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, shall, upon coming within the territorial limits of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or said Virgin Islands, land at an airport of entry, unless permission to land elsewhere than at an airport of entry is first granted by the Commissioner of Customs, Washington, D. C., with concurrence of the Plant Quarantine Branch, and shall remain there until inspected and released by the inspector. No baggage, cargo, or other articles shall be removed from the aircraft until such removal has been authorized by an inspector: Provided, That in the case of forced landings by such aircraft, the aircraft commander or operator shall not allow any baggage, cargo, or other articles to be removed therefrom, unless such removal is necessary for purposes of safety or the preservation of life or property. As soon as practicable, the aircraft commander, or a member of the crew in charge, or the owner of the aircraft shall communicate with the nearest plant quarantine officer and make a full report of the circumstances of the flight and of the forced landing: Provided further, That aircraft proceeding from the Territory of Hawaii to or through the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States may, at the discretion of an inspector, be inspected immediately prior to the departure of such aircraft from the Territory of Hawaii in lieu of inspection at the port of arrival, and when such aircraft, its cargo, stores, and baggage and other personal effects of passengers and crew members have been inspected and found free of articles or insects, the movement of which is prohibited by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart, the inspector shall issue a certificate to that effect for delivery to the pilot or person in charge of the aircraft as evidence for later presentation at the port of arrival that such inspection has been made.

§ 301.13–11 Disinfection of aircraft. Any aircraft arriving from the Territory of Hawaii at a port in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, which is found upon inspection to contain articles subject to the quarantine and regulations in this subpart infested or infected with any of the plant pests designated in § 301.13 or which is found to be contaminated with any articles or injurious insects prohibited movement by said quarantine and regulations shall be immediately disinfected by or at the direction of the person in charge or possession of such aircraft, under the supervision of an inspector and in the manner prescribed by him; and any aircraft found upon inspection pursuant to the second provision in § 301.13–10 prior to its departure from the Territory of Hawaii for a port in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, to contain or to be contaminated with any articles or injurious insects as aforesaid, shall be disinfected by the person in charge or in possession of such aircraft, under the supervision of an inspector and in a manner prescribed by him, before it will qualify for the certificate referred to in the said second proviso, in § 301.13–10.

§ 301.13–12 Inspection of baggage and cargo. (a) All baggage and other personal effects of passengers and members of crews on ships, vessels, other surface craft or aircraft moving from the Territory of Hawaii shall be subject to examination by an inspector to ascertain if they contain any of the articles prohibited movement by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart. Such baggage inspection shall be made, at the discretion of the inspector, on the dock or on the ship, vessel, other surface craft or aircraft while in a quarantine or inspection area, either at the port of departure in the Territory of Hawaii or at the first or any subsequent port of arrival in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and no baggage or other personal effects of passengers or crew members from the Territory of Hawaii shall be released until said effects have been inspected and passed. Baggage inspections will not be performed until the person in charge or possession of the carrier ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft provides sufficient space and adequate facilities thereon, or on piers or landing fields for such inspection.

(b) Inspectors may require that any box, bale, crate, bundle, package, trunk, bag, suitcase, or other container, carried as ships' stores, cargo, or otherwise, by any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft moving between the Territory of Hawaii and the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, be opened for inspection to determine whether any article prohibited movement by the quarantine and regulations in this subpart is present. If any such prohibited article, including any injurious insect or any fruit or vegetable infested with plant pests, is found, the inspector may order the return of the article to the place of origin under safeguards satisfactory to him, seize and destroy it, or otherwise dispose of it or such part thereof as in his judgment is necessary to comply with the quarantine and regulations in this subpart.

(c) No cargo shall be loaded on or unloaded from any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft arriving from the Territory of Hawaii at a port in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, either at the first or any subsequent port of arrival where passengers are disembarked, without authorization of the inspector in charge of the inspection of passengers' baggage.

§ 301.13–13 Posting of warning notice and distribution of baggage declarations. (a) Before any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft from Hawaii arrives within the boundaries of the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, the master, or other responsible officer thereof, shall cause to be distributed to each adult passenger thereon a baggage declaration[3] to be furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture, calling attention to the provisions of the Plant Quarantine Act, and the quarantine and regulations in this subpart. These baggage declarations shall be executed and signed by the passengers and shall be collected and delivered by the master or other responsible officer of the ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft, to the inspector on arrival at the quarantine or inspection area: Provided, That in the case of aircraft inspected and certified as set forth in the second proviso of § 301.13–10 no baggage declarations will be required.

(b) Every person owning or controlling any dock, harbor, or landing field in Hawaii from which ships, vessels, other surface craft, or aircraft leave for ports in the continental United States, Alaska, or the Virgin Islands of the United States shall post, and keep posted at all times, in one or more conspicuous places in passenger waiting rooms on or in said dock, harbor, or landing field a warning notice directing attention to the quarantine and regulations in this subpart.[3] Every master, or other responsible officer of any ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft leaving Hawaii destined to a port in the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States shall similarly post, and keep posted at all times, such a warning notice in the ship, vessel, other surface craft, or aircraft under his charge.

§ 301.13–14 Shipments for experimental or scientific purposes—(a) Articles for experimental or scientific purposes. Regulated articles, other than live insects of the species designated in § 301.13 or other notoriously injurious insects in a live state, may be moved by the United States Department of Agriculture for experimental or scientific purposes on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch. The container of articles so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Plant Quarantine Branch.

(b) Insects for scientific purposes. Live insects of the species designated in § 301.13 or other notoriously injurious insects in a live state, in any stage of development, may be mailed, shipped, transported, delivered, or removed from the Territory of Hawaii to the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, for scientific purposes only under conditions prescribed by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch. The container of live insects so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch.

This amendment of the quarantine and regulations shall be effective on and after February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine and regulations effective June 24, 1948, as amended effective July 17, 1950, June 27, 1953, and July 20, 1953. Administrative instructions issued by the Chief of the former Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine under the regulations, effective March 9, 1950 and February 18, 1953 (B. E. P. Q. 585 and B. E. P. Q. 592, 7 CFR Supp. 301.13–4a, 301.13–4b) are unaffected by this amendment.

This amendment makes the Hawaiian Fruits and Vegetables Quarantine and regulations thereunder applicable to the movement, of the products and insects regulated thereby, from Hawaii to the Virgin Islands of the United States and specifies the continental United States, Alaska, and Puerto Rico as the other areas to which such movement is regulated by the quarantine and regulations. Certain other formal changes are made in the quarantine and regulations for clarity and consistency.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—SUGARCANE

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE

On March 29, 1951, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 1204), a public hearing was held with respect to proposed changes in the Sugarcane Quarantine (7 CFR 301.16) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161). On September 30, 1953, notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 6244) concerning the proposed amendment of the said quarantine. After due consideration of all relevant matters presented at the public hearing or pursuant to the notice of rule making and under the authority of sections 8 and 9 of said Plant Quarantine Act, the Sugarcane Quarantine (7 CFR 301.16) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.16 Notice of quarantine. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture, having previously quarantined Hawaii and Puerto Rico to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States of certain dangerous plant diseases and insect infestations of sugarcane, now determines that it is necessary also to quarantine the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of dangerous plant diseases and insect infestations of sugarcane found in said Virgin Islands and new to and not widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, including the sugarcane root borer, Diaprepes abbreviatus (L.), and the gummosis disease, Xanthomonas vasculorum (Cobb) Dowson.

(b) Under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture hereby quarantines Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of said dangerous plant diseases and insect infestations of sugarcane.

(c) No canes of sugarcane, or cuttings or parts thereof, or sugarcane leaves, or bagasse, shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States into or through any other State, Territory, or District of the United States: Provided, That the prohibitions of this section shall not apply to the movement of such products from the Virgin Islands of the United States to Puerto Rico; nor prohibit the movement of such products by the United States Department of Agriculture for scientific or experimental purposes; nor prohibit the movement of specific products which the Department may authorize under permit, on condition that they are to be so treated, processed, or manufactured and so handled in connection with such treatment, processing, or manufacture, that, in the judgment of the Department their movement will involve no pest risk, or under certificate issued by the Department that they have been thus treated, processed, or manufactured; Provided, further, That whenever the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch shall find that facts exist as to pest risk involved in the movement of one or more of the products to which this subpart applies, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the requirements contained therein, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions specifying the manner in which the subpart should be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective. As used in this section, the term "State, Territory, or District of the United States" means "Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the continental United States."

This amendment shall be effective on and after February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine effective January 1, 1935.

(Secs. 8, 9, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161, 162)

The foregoing amendment of the Sugarcane Quarantine is issued to protect against the spread of certain pests of sugarcane occurring in the Virgin Islands of the United States to other parts of the United States and to protect the Virgin Islands from such pests occurring in Hawaii and Puerto Rico. The amendment also authorizes the issuance of administrative instructions making the requirements of the Quarantine less stringent under certain circumstances.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—SWEETPOTATOES

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE

On March 29, 1951, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 1204), a public hearing was held with respect to proposed changes in the Sweetpotato Quarantine (7 CFR 301.30) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161). On September 30, 1953, notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 6244) concerning the proposed amendment of the said quarantine. After due consideration of all relevant matters presented at the public hearing or pursuant to the notice of rule making and under the authority of sections 8 and 9 of said Plant Quarantine Act, the Sweetpotato Quarantine (7 CFR Supp. 301.30) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.30 Notice of quarantine. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture, having previously quarantined Hawaii and Puerto Rico to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States of the sweetpotato scarabee (Euscepes postfasciatus Fairm.) and the sweetpotato stem borer (Omphisa anastomosalis Guen.), dangerous insect infestations new to and not widely prevalent or distributed within or throughout the United States, now determines that it is necessary also to quarantine the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of the sweetpotato scarabee from said Virgin Islands.

(b) Under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture hereby quarantines Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of the sweetpotato scarabee (Euscepes postfasciatus Fairm.) and the sweetpotato stem borer (Omphisa anastomosalis Guen.).

(c) No variety of sweetpotatoes (Ipomoea batatas Poir.) shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States into or through any other State, Territory, or District of the United States: Provided, That the prohibitions of this section shall not apply to the movement of sweetpotatoes in either direction between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States; nor prohibit the movement of sweetpotatoes by the United States Department of Agriculture for scientific or experimental purposes; nor prohibit the movement from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States of sweetpotatoes which the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch may authorize under permit or certificate to such northern ports of the United States as he may designate in such permit or certificate, conditioned upon the fumigation of such sweetpotatoes under the supervision of an inspector of said Branch either in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States or at the designated port of arrival, in a manner approved by the said Chief: Provided further, That whenever the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch shall find that facts exist as to pest risk involved in the movement of sweetpotatoes or any classification thereof to which this subpart applies, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the requirements contained therein, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions specifying the manner in which the subpart should be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective. As used in this section, the term "State, Territory, or District of the United States" means "Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the continental United States."

This amendment shall be effective February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine effective October 10, 1934.

(Secs. 8, 9, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161, 162)

The foregoing amendment of the Sweetpotato Quarantine is issued to protect against the spread of certain pests of sweetpotatoes occurring in the Virgin Islands of the United States to other parts of the United States and to protect the Virgin Islands against such pests occurring in Hawaii. The amendment also authorizes the issuance of administrative instructions making the requirements of the Quarantine less stringent under certain circumstances.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—FRUITS AND VEGETABLES FROM PUERTO RICO OR VIRGIN ISLANDS

On March 29, 1951, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 1204), a public hearing was held with respect to proposed changes in the quarantine and regulations relating to fruits and vegetables from Puerto Rico (7 CFR Supp. 301.58, 301.58–1 et seq.) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161). On September 30, 1953, notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 6244) concerning the proposed amendment of said quarantine and regulations to include the Virgin Islands of the United States and to make other changes and the redesignation of the Subpart "Puerto Rican Fruits and Vegetables" in 7 CFR Part 301, containing said quarantine and regulations, as Subpart "Fruits and Vegetables from Puerto Rico or Virgin Islands." After due consideration of all relevant matters presented at the public hearing or pursuant to the notice of rule making and under the authority of sections 8 and 9 of said Plant Quarantine Act, the Subpart "Puerto Rican Fruits and Vegetables" is hereby redesignated as Subpart "Fruits and Vegetables from Puerto Rico or Virgin Islands" and the aforesaid quarantine and regulations are amended to read, respectively, as follows:

QUARANTINE

Sec.
301.58 Notice of quarantine.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

301.58–1 Definitions.
301.58–2 Fruits and vegetables the movement of which is prohibited.
301.58–3 Fruits and vegetables the movement of which is authorized.
301.58–4 Application for inspection.
301.58–5 Certification of shipments.
301.58–6 Marking of containers.
301.58–7 Fruits and vegetables as ships' stores or in the possession of passengers and crew.
301.58–8 Inspection of vessels.
301.58–9 Disinfection of vessels.
301.58–10 Inspection of cargo.
301.58–11 Inspection of personal belongings.
301.58–12 Parcel post inspection.
301.58–13 Movement by the Department of Agriculture.
301.58–14 Special provisions for preflight inspection in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of aircraft, cargo, etc.

AUTHORITY: §§ 301.58 to 301.58–14 issued under secs. 8, 9, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161, 162. Interpret or apply sec. 1, 33 Stat. 1269; 7 U. S. C. 141.

QUARANTINE

§ 301.58 Notice of quarantine. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture having previously quarantined Puerto Rico to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States of certain dangerous insect infestations, including the fruit flies, Anastrepha suspensa (Loew) and A. mombinpraeoptans Sein, and the bean pod borer, Maruca testulalis (Geyer), not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, now determines that it is necessary also to quarantine the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of such dangerous insects from said Virgin Islands.

(b) Under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture hereby quarantines Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of said dangerous insect infestations.

(c) No fruits or vegetables, in the raw or unprocessed state, shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States into or through Alaska, Hawaii, or the continental United States, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed in the regulations hereinafter made or amendments thereto: Provided, That whenever the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch shall find that facts exist as to pest risk involved in the movement of one or more of the products to which this subpart applies, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the requirements contained therein, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions specifying the manner in which the subpart should be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective.

(d) No restrictions are placed hereby on the movement of fruits or vegetables in either direction between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

(e) This section leaves in full force and effect § 301.30 which restricts the movement from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States into any of the States or certain Territories or Districts of the United States of all varieties of sweetpotatoes (Ipomoea batatas Poir.).

RULES AND REGULATIONS

§ 301.58–1 Definitions—(a) Fruits and vegetables. The edible, more or less succulent, portions of food plants in the raw or unprocessed state, such as bananas, oranges, grapefruit, pineapples, tomatoes, peppers, lettuce, etc.

(b) Plant litter. Leaves, twigs, or other portions of plants, or plant remains or rubbish as distinguished from clean fruits and vegetables, or other commercial articles.

(c) Inspector. An inspector of the Plant Quarantine Branch, United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) Moved (movement and move). Shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States into or through Alaska, Hawaii, or the continental United States. ("Movement" and "move" shall be construed accordingly.)

§ 301.58–2 Fruits and vegetables the movement of which is prohibited. Movement of fruits of mango (Mangifera spp.), jobo (Spondias spp.), guava (Psidium guajava), and pomarrosa or rose apple (Eugenia jambos), and all other fruits and vegetables for which movement is not authorized in § 301.58–3, is prohibited: Provided, That any fruit or vegetable the movement of which is thus prohibited may be removed from a prohibited status and included in the list for which movement is authorized in § 301.58–3, by administrative instructions issued by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch when evidence satisfactory to him is obtained that the movement of the product in question, either subject to a specified treatment, or as packed and shipped, will not result in the dissemination of injurious insects.

§ 301.58–3 Fruits and vegetables the movement of which is authorized.[1] (a) Subject to the conditions and limitations noted herein, and to such treatment as is herein or may hereafter be prescribed by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch, the following fruits and vegetables may be moved when such fruits or vegetables are free from plant litter, are marked in compliance with § 301.58–6, and have been inspected by an inspector and certified by him to be free from injurious insect infestation, including the West Indian fruitfly and the bean pod borer, or to have been given prescribed treatment:

String beans, lima beans, faba beans, and pigeonpeas, in the pod, will be certified for movement only when they have been treated as prescribed by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch and under the supervision of an inspector, except that movement of these articles to Baltimore, Maryland, and Atlantic Coast ports north thereof will be allowed under certification but without such treatment.

Citrus fruits (orange, grapefruit, lemon, citron, and lime).
Corn (sweet corn on cob).
Peppers.

(b) The following fruits and vegetables are subject to inspection, either in the field or when presented for shipment, as the inspector may require, but unless found by him to be infested shall be free to move without certification, marking, treatment, or other requirements of this subpart, except that they must be free from plant litter and soil: Provided, That if the inspector shall find any field, grove, lot, shipment, or container of such fruits and vegetables infested with injurious insects, he shall notify the owner or person in charge, in writing, of the existence of the infestation and the extent thereof, and thereafter movement of the fruit or vegetable so specified shall be prohibited while the infestation persists, unless in the judgment of the inspector movement may be safely allowed subject to certification after having been given an approved treatment, or after sorting, conditioning, or other effective safeguard measures:

Algarroba pods (Hymenaea courbaril).
Allium spp. (onion, chive, garlic, leek, scallion, shallot).
Anise (Pimpinella anisum).
Apio, celery root (Arracacia xanthorrhiza).
Arrowroot (Maranta arundinacea).

Yam, fiame (Dioscorea spp.).
Yautia, tanier (Xanthosoma spp.).
Yuca, cassava (Manihot esculenta).

§ 301.58–4 Application for inspection. Persons intending to move any of the fruits or vegetables for which certification is required under § 301.58–3 shall make application for inspection thereof as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment. The application shall show the quantity of the fruits or vegetables which it is proposed to move, their identifying marks and numbers, their exact location, and the contemplated date of shipment. Forms on which to make application for inspection will be furnished, upon request, by the United States Department of Agriculture, Plant Quarantine Branch.

§ 301.58–5 Certification of shipments. (a) Fruits and vegetables for which certification is required under § 301.58–3 shall not be moved by ship, vessel, aircraft, or otherwise, unless each shipment is accompanied by a certificate issued by an inspector showing that such fruits or vegetables have been inspected and pronounced free from injurious insect infestation, including the West Indian fruitfly and the bean pod borer, or that the required treatment has been given. Copies of inspection certificates shall accompany the manifests, memoranda, or bills of lading pertaining to such shipments.

(b) No charge will be made for the inspector's service in inspection and certification, but all costs for labor, cartage, storage, packing and unpacking, and other expenses incidental to inspection shall be borne by the shipper. Applicants for inspection shall place the fruits or vegetables to be inspected so that they can be readily examined; if not so placed, inspection will be refused.

§ 301.58–6 Marking of containers. No fruits or vegetables for which certification is required under § 301.58–3 shall be moved unless the crate, box, bale, or other container thereof is so marked with the marks and numbers given on the application that it may be identified at the port of first arrival.

§ 301.58–7 Fruits and vegetables as ships' stores or in the possession of passengers and crew. The movement of fruits and vegetables is permitted from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States as ships' stores or in the possession of passengers and crew on ships, vessels, or aircraft plying between Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States and any other State, Territory, or District of the United States: Provided, That all such products shall upon arrival in Hawaii, Alaska, or the continental United States be submitted for inspection and disposition as provided in §§ 301.58–8 and 301.58–11, and (a) they must be free from infestation with injurious insects; (b) those fruits and vegetables not listed in § 301.58–3 shall not be landed; (c) prohibited fruits and vegetables retained aboard shall be subject to the safeguards provided in § 352.8 of this chapter.

§ 301.58–8 Inspection of vessels. Inspectors are authorized to enter upon ships, vessels, and aircraft from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States at any time after they come within the territory or territorial waters of any other State, Territory, or District of the United States, whether in the stream or at the dock, wharf, mole, or landing field for the purpose of ascertaining by inspection whether any of the fruits and vegetables covered by this subpart are contained in such ships, vessels, or aircraft as cargo or ships' stores, or whether there remains any infestation from such fruits or vegetables.

§ 301.58–9 Disinfection of vessels. Disinfection under the direction of and in the manner prescribed by the inspector of any ship, vessel, or aircraft plying between Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States and any other State, Territory, or District of the United States upon arrival at the dock, wharf, mole, or landing field may be required if the ship, vessel, or aircraft is found to contain or to be contaminated with any of the fruits or vegetables infested with injurious insects. Such disinfection shall be performed by the person having charge or possession of the ship, vessel, or aircraft and at a place satisfactory to the inspector. When such ship, vessel, or aircraft has been disinfected in a manner satisfactory to such inspector, he shall immediately issue and deliver to the person having charge or possession thereof a certificate to that effect.

§ 301.58–10 Inspection of cargo. Inspectors are authorized to ascertain by inspection of the cargo of any ship, vessel, or aircraft plying between Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States and any other State, Territory, or District of the United States at the port of first arrival, that each lot or shipment moving under certification agrees in nature and amount with the certificate, and that all shipments of fruits and vegetables for which a certificate is required are duly certified; to determine, in the case of fruits and vegetables the movement of which is not authorized, if infestation is present; and to require for such unauthorized shipments safeguards, treatment, return, or destruction, as may be necessary to prevent the dissemination of injurious insects.

§ 301.58–11 Inspection of personal belongings. Inspectors are authorized to inspect the baggage and other personal belongings of passengers and members of the crew on ships, vessels, or aircraft plying between Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States and any other State, Territory, or District of the United States, in order to determine whether they contain products prohibited or restricted movement by this subpart, and if infested or unauthorized products are found, to require such safeguarding, treatment, or destruction as in the judgment of the inspector may be necessary. For the purpose of such inspection an inspector is authorized to open any box, bale, crate, bundle, or other package, including trunks, which may contain or be liable to contain any of the fruits or vegetables covered by the § 301.58. The inspector shall designate whether such inspection shall be made at the port of departure in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States or at the port of debarkation within any other State, Territory, or District of the United States and no such baggage or personal belongings of passengers or crew shall be removed from the dock, airport, or landing field at the port where the inspection is to be made until the same have been inspected and passed by an inspector. The inspection provisions of this section are not applicable to the personal belongings of passengers and crews moving only in either direction between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

§ 301.58–12 Parcel post inspection. Inspectors are authorized to inspect, with the cooperation of the United States Post Office Department, parcel post packages placed in the mails in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States, to determine whether such packages contain fruits or vegetables the movement of which is not authorized under this subpart, to examine fruits and vegetables so found for insect infestation, and to notify the postmaster in writing of any violation of this subpart in connection therewith.

§ 301.58–13 Movement by the Department of Agriculture. The quarantine and regulations in this subpart shall not apply to movement of fruits and vegetables from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States by the United States Department of Agriculture for experimental or scientific purposes.

§ 301.58–14 Special provisions for preflight inspection in Puerto Rico or the Virgin Island of aircraft, cargo, etc. Notwithstanding any other provisions in the regulations in this subpart, any aircraft proceeding from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States to or through Alaska, Hawaii, or the continental United States, and its cargo and stores, and the baggage and other personal belongings of its passengers and crew members, may at the discretion of an inspector, be inspected as provided in this section immediately prior to the departure of such aircraft from Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands of the United States, in lieu of inspection at port of debarkation, and the provisions of §§ 301.58–4 and 301.58–6 through 301.58–11 shall not apply to such aircraft, cargo, stores, baggage, and personal belongings which are so inspected. When such aircraft, cargo, stores, baggage, and personal belongings have been so inspected and found free of dangerous insects and products, the movement of which is prohibited by § 301.58 and the regulations in this subpart, the inspector shall issue a certificate to that effect, for delivery to the aircraft commander, as evidence, for later presentation at the port of debarkation, that such inspection has been made. Any aircraft found upon such preflight inspection to contain or to be contaminated with any such insects or products shall be disinfected by the person in charge or in possession of such aircraft, under the supervision of an inspector and in manner prescribed by him, before it will qualify for such a certificate. When, for any other reason, in the judgment of the inspector a hazard of spread of dangerous insects is presented in the movement of aircraft to be given preflight inspection, disinfection of such aircraft, by the inspector or, under his supervision, by the person in charge or possession of the aircraft, may be required by the inspector before the aircraft will qualify for such a certificate. Products authorized movement in § 301.58–3 must be inspected and certified, or otherwise approved by the inspector for movement, before being taken aboard any aircraft as cargo, stores, baggage, or otherwise, when such aircraft is to be given preflight inspection, and must in other respects comply with the requirements of §§ 301.58–3 and 301.58–5 except insofar as contrary provision is made in this section. The inspection provisions of this section are not applicable to the movement of aircraft, cargo, stores, and personal belongings of passengers and crews moving in either direction only between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States.

This amendment shall be effective February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine and regulations effective January 22, 1941, as amended effective January 26, 1949 and December 7, 1949.

The foregoing amendment is issued to protect against the spread of certain pests of fruits and vegetables occurring in the Virgin Islands of the United States to other parts of the United States. The amendment also relieves certain restrictions on the movement to Baltimore, Maryland, and certain north Atlantic ports of string beans, lima beans, faba beans, and pigeonpeas, and adds horseradish to the list of products free to move without certification unless found upon inspection to be infested. Minor changes for clarity and consistency are also made by the amendment.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—SAND, SOIL, OR EARTH, WITH PLANTS FROM TERRITORIES AND INSULAR POSSESSIONS

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE

On March 29, 1951, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 1204), a public hearing was held with respect to proposed changes in the quarantine covering sand, soil, or earth, with plants from Hawaii and Puerto Rico (7 CFR 301.60) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161). On September 30, 1953, notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 6245) concerning the proposed amendment of the said quarantine to include the Virgin Islands of the United States and to make other changes and the redesignation of the subpart "Sand, Soil, or Earth, with Plants from Hawaii and Puerto Rico" in 7 CFR Part 301, containing said quarantine, as "Sand, Soil, or Earth, with Plants from Territories and Insular Possessions." After due consideration of all relevant matters presented at the public hearing or pursuant to the notice of rule making, and under the authority of sections 8 and 9 of said Plant Quarantine Act, the subpart "Sand, Soil, or Earth, with Plants from Hawaii and Puerto Rico" is hereby redesignated as subpart "Sand, Soil, or Earth, with Plants from Territories and Insular Possessions" and the aforesaid quarantine is amended to read as follows:

§ 301.60 Notice of quarantine. (a) The Secretary of Agriculture, having previously quarantined Hawaii and Puerto Rico to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States, by means of sand, soil, or earth about the roots of plants, of immature stages of certain dangerous insects, including Phyllophaga spp. (White grubs), Phytalus sp., and Adoretus sp., and of several species of termites or white ants, new to and not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, now determines that it is necessary also to quarantine the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of such dangerous insects from said Virgin Islands.

(b) Under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture hereby quarantines Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States to prevent the spread of said dangerous insects.

(c) Sand (other than clean ocean sand), soil, or earth around the roots of plants shall not be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States into or through any other State, Territory, or District of the United States: Provided, That the prohibitions of this section shall not apply to the movement of such products in either direction between Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands of the United States: Provided further, That such prohibitions shall not prohibit the movement of such products by the United States Department of Agriculture for scientific or experimental purposes, nor prohibit the movement of sand, soil, or earth around the roots of plants which are carried, for ornamental purposes, on vessels into mainland ports of the United States and which are not intended to be landed thereat, when evidence is presented satisfactory to the inspector of the Plant Quarantine Branch of the Department of Agriculture that such sand, soil, or earth has been so processed or is of such nature that no pest risk is involved, or that the plants with sand, soil, or earth around them are maintained on board under such safeguards as will preclude pest escape: And provided further, That such prohibitions shall not prohibit the movement of plant cuttings or plants that have been (1) freed from sand, soil, and earth, (2) subsequently potted and established in sphagnum moss, or other packing material approved under § 319.37–16 that had been stored under shelter and had not been previously used for growing or packing plants, (3) grown thereafter in a manner satisfactory to an inspector of the Plant Quarantine Branch to prevent infestation through contact with sand, soil, or earth, and (4) certified by an inspector of the Plant Quarantine Branch as meeting the requirements of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph.

(d) As used in this section, the term "State, Territory, or District of the United States" means "Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, or the continental United States."

This amendment shall be effective February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine effective September 1, 1936.

(Secs. 8, 9, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161, 162)

The foregoing amendment is issued to protect against the spread of certain plant pests occurring in the Virgin Islands to other parts of the United States and to protect the Virgin Islands against such pests occurring in Hawaii. It also relieves requirements by authorizing the certification for movement of plant cuttings or plants that have been handled and grown under specified conditions.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—CITRUS CANKER DISEASE FROM HAWAII

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE

On March 29, 1951, pursuant to a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 1204), a public hearing was held with respect to proposed changes in the Hawaiian Citrus Nursery Stock Quarantine contained in the Subpart "Citrus Canker Disease From Hawaii" (7 CFR 301.75) under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161). On September 30, 1953, notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (18 F. R. 6246) concerning the proposed amendment of said quarantine. After due consideration of all relevant matters presented at the public hearing or pursuant to the notice of rule making and under the authority of sections 8 and 9 of said Plant Quarantine Act, said Subpart "Citrus Canker Disease From Hawaii" is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.75 Notice of quarantine. (a) Pursuant to section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), and having given public hearing as required thereunder, the Secretary of Agriculture has determined that it is necessary to quarantine Hawaii to prevent the spread to other parts of the United States of a dangerous plant disease (Xanthomonas citri (Hasse) Dowson), and other dangerous citrus plant diseases, new to and not widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, and said Secretary has quarantined Hawaii because of said diseases.

(b) No plants or any plant parts, except fruits and seeds, of any genus, species, or variety of the subfamilies Aurantioideae, Toddalioideae, or Rutoideae of the botanical family Rutaceae shall be shipped, offered for shipment to a common carrier, received for transportation or transported by a common carrier, or carried, transported, moved, or allowed to be moved by any person from Hawaii into or through the continental United States, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, except that this subpart shall not prohibit the movement of such plants or plant parts for experimental or scientific purposes by the United States Department of Agriculture, upon such conditions and under such requirements as may be prescribed by the Chief of the Plant Quarantine Branch.

This amendment shall be effective February 12, 1954, and shall supersede the quarantine effective September 15, 1947.

(Secs. 8, 9, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161, 162)

The foregoing amendment is issued to protect the Virgin Islands of the United States against certain citrus pests occurring in Hawaii.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] J. EARL COKE,
Assistant Secretary.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

PART 726—FIRE-CURED, DARK AIR-CURED, AND VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION APPORTIONING NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1954-55 MARKETING YEAR AMONG THE SEVERAL STATES

The purpose of this proclamation is to apportion among the several States the national marketing quotas for fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the 1954-55 marketing year proclaimed on November 27, 1953 (18 F. R. 7653). The findings and determinations contained herein have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government and after due consideration of the data, views, and recommendations received from fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco producers and others as provided in a notice (18 F. R. 6592) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003).

Since fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco growers are now purchasing fertilizer and otherwise planning their 1954 farm operations, it is imperative that they be notified as soon as possible of their 1954 farm acreage allotment and farm marketing quotas. Therefore, it is hereby determined that compliance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act with respect to the effective date is contrary to the public interest, and that the amendments made herein shall become effective upon the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 726.502 is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(e) Apportionment of the quota. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	19,468
Tennessee	21,110
Virginia	9,581
Reserve [1]	252

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no fire-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

2. Section 726.503 is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(e) Apportionment of the quota. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313(a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	17,682
Tennessee	2,830
Indiana	78
Missouri	1
Reserve [1]	103

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no dark air-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

3. Section 726.504 is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(e) Apportionment of the quota. Since Virginia sun-cured tobacco is grown only in the State of Virginia, the quota is apportioned only to that State under section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section, less 31,000 pounds reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no Virginia sun-cured tobacco has been grown within the past five years, becomes the State marketing quota for Virginia. The State marketing quota is hereby converted in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act into a State acreage allotment of 6,104 acres. Likewise, the reserve of 31,000 pounds for establishing allotments for farms upon which no Virginia sun-cured tobacco has been grown within the past five years is hereby converted into 30 acres.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 312, 313, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1312, 1313)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] ROSS RIZLEY,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

GENERAL

§ 728.450 Basis and purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 728.450 to 728.496, inclusive, are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the identification and measurement of farms; the amount, adjustment, and review of the farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess; the issuance of marketing cards and certificates; the identification of marketings of wheat as subject to or not subject to the penalty and lien for the penalty; the rate of the penalty and the manner in which penalties shall be paid by producers and buyers; the refunding of penalty overpayments; the postponement or avoidance of penalty on excess wheat by storage, by delivery to the Secretary of Agriculture, or, in a subsequent year, by underplanting the allotment or producing a less than normal crop; the records and reports required to be made by wheat producers and handlers; and special provisions and exemptions applicable to farms on which 15 acres or less of wheat is planted, to farms on which the normal production of the acreage planted is less than 200 bushels, and to wheat produced by publicly-owned experiment stations. Prior to preparing §§ 728.450 to 728.496, inclusive, public notice (18 F. R. 6711) of the Secretary's intention to formulate and issue the regulations was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), and a draft of the regulations which were being considered for issuance were set out in full in the notice. The data, views, and recommendations submitted by persons interested in the regulations in this subpart have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 728.451 Definitions. As used in this subpart and in all forms and documents in connection therewith, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(b) "Act" means the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 and any amendments or supplements thereto.

(c) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or the officer of the Department acting in his stead pursuant to delegated authority.

(d) "Director" means the Director of the Grain Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) "Committee" means the several committees defined as follows:

(1) "State Committee" means the persons designated by the Secretary as the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee of the Commodity Stabilization Service.

(2) "County Committee" means the persons elected within a county as the county committee, pursuant to the regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(3) "Community Committee" means the persons elected within a community as a community committee pursuant to the regulations governing the selection and functions of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county and community committees.

(4) "Review committee" means the committee appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture to review farm marketing quotas as provided in section 363 of the act.

(f) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, trust, or other business enterprise or legal entity, and, wherever applicable, a State, political subdivision of a State, the Federal Government, or any agency thereof.

(g) "County office manager" means the person employed by the county committee to execute the policies of the county committee and be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the ASC county office, or the person acting in such capacity.

(h) "Landlord or owner" means a person who owns land.

(i) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person, whether or not he rents such land or part thereof to another person.

(j) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the general supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of a crop produced thereon or of the proceeds thereof.

(k) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(l) "Producer or farmer" means a person who as owner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper is entitled to all or a share of the 1954 wheat crop or of the proceeds thereof.

(m) "Buyer" means a person who buys wheat.

(n) "Transferee" means a person who acquires wheat from a producer or any other person by barter, exchange or gift.

(o) "Intermediate buyer" means any buyer or transferee who purchases or acquires any wheat prior to the time the wheat so purchased or acquired has been marketed either (1) to a warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or (2) to any other grain dealer who the county or State committee finds conducts his business in a manner substantially the same as a warehouseman or elevator operator.

(p) "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm or range land under the same ownership which is operated by one person, including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm or range land which the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit in producing range livestock, or with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor, substantially separate from that for any other land; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area in which the principal dwelling is situated or, if there is no dwelling thereon, it shall be regarded as located in the county or administrative area in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(q) "Farm acreage allotment" means that wheat acreage allotment established for the farm under §§ 728.410 to 728.424 as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under date of June 3, 1953 (18 F. R. 3161).

(r) (1) "Wheat acreage" means (i) any acreage seeded to wheat, excluding any acreage (a) seeded to a wheat mixture in wheat mixture counties approved by the Director, or (b) used as green manure, cover crop or hay in green manure, cover crop, and hay counties approved by the Director or in counties designated in June 1953 and thereafter by the President as drought disaster counties under Public Law 875, 81st Congress, and (ii) any acreage of volunteer (self-seeded) wheat which reaches maturity.

(2) Acreage seeded to wheat will not be considered as an acreage of wheat for the farm to the extent that (i) it has been totally destroyed by any cause beyond the control of the producer and cannot be reseeded, and (ii) an additional acreage of wheat, subsequently seeded with prior approval of the county committee, or an acreage of volunteer wheat, with approval of the county committee, or both, is substituted for the destroyed acreage.

(s) "Green manure, cover crop, and hay" wheat means wheat seeded which does not reach maturity because it is, while still green, turned under, pastured off, or cut for hay or silage.

(t) "Wheat mixture" means a mixture of wheat and other small grains (excluding vetch, Austrian winter peas, Rough peas, and flax) containing, when seeded, less than 50 percent by weight of wheat and which when harvested produced less than 50 percent of wheat by weight. An acreage will not be considered as having been devoted to a wheat mixture if the crops other than wheat fail to reach maturity and the wheat is permitted to reach maturity.

(u) "Excess wheat acreage" means the acreage of wheat determined for the farm which is in excess of the farm acreage allotment, except that there shall be no excess wheat acreage for any farm on which (1) the wheat acreage does not exceed 15 acres, (2) the normal yield times the wheat acreage is less than 200 bushels, or (3) the wheat is grown for experimental purposes only by a publicly owned experiment station.

(v) "Normal yield" means the number of bushels of wheat established as the normal yield per acre for the farm under § 728.453.

(w) "Actual yield" means the number of bushels of wheat determined by dividing the number of bushels of wheat produced on the farm in 1954 by the 1954 wheat acreage on the farm.

(x) "Normal production" of any number of acres means the normal yield of wheat for the farm times such number of acres.

(y) "Actual production" of any number of acres means the actual yield of wheat per acre for the farm times such number of acres.

(z) "Farm marketing quota" means the wheat marketing quota established under the act for the farm for the 1954 crop.

(aa) "Farm marketing excess" means the amount of wheat determined for any farm under § 728.459 or § 728.461, whichever is applicable.

(bb) "Marketing year" means the period beginning July 1, 1954, and ending June 30, 1955, both dates inclusive.

(cc) "Market" means to dispose of wheat, in raw or processed form, by voluntary or involuntary sale, barter, or exchange, or by gift, or by feeding (in any form) to poultry or livestock which, or the products of which, are sold, bartered, or exchanged, or are to be so disposed of.

(1) The term "sale" means any transfer of title to wheat by a producer by any means other than barter, exchange, or gift.

(2) The terms "barter" and "exchange" mean transfer of title to wheat by a producer in return for wheat or any other commodity, service, or property, in cases where the value of the wheat or such other commodity, service, or property is not considered in terms of money, or the transfer of title to wheat by a producer in payment of a fixed rental or other charge for land, or the payment of an amount of wheat in lieu of a cash charge for harvesting or milling wheat (commonly called "toll wheat").

(3) The term "gift" means any transfer of title to wheat accompanied by delivery of the wheat by a producer which takes effect immediately and irrevocably and is made without any consideration or compensation therefor.

(4) "Marketed", "marketing", and "for market" shall have meaning corresponding to the term "market" in the connection in which they are used.

(dd) "Penalty" means the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of Public Law No. 74, 77th Congress, as amended by section 3 of Public Law No. 117, 83d Congress.

(ee) "Treasurer of the county committee" means the county office manager or the person designated by him to act as treasurer of the ASC county committee.

§ 728.452 Instructions and forms. The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary and shall cause to be prepared such instructions as are necessary for carrying out the regulations in this part. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 728.453 Normal yields—(a) Farms for which normal yields will be determined. The Secretary, through the county committee, will determine a normal yield for each farm for which a farm marketing excess is determined for the 1954 crop or for which a request is made to the county committee by the operator prior to seeding.

(b) Yields based on reliable records. Where reliable records of the actual average yield per acre for all of the ten calendar years immediately preceding the calendar year in which the yield is determined are presented by the farmer or are available to the county committee, the normal yield per acre of wheat for the farm shall be determined to be the average of such yields, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yields.

(c) Appraised yields. If for any year of such 10-year period records of the actual average yield are not available, or there was no actual yield, the normal yield per acre of wheat for the farm shall be appraised by the county committee, taking into consideration abnormal weather conditions, the normal yield for the county, and the yields in years for which data were available. Where the normal yield for the county is not considered representative of the normal yield for the farm, the county committee in appraising the normal yield for the farm shall take into consideration in lieu thereof the yields obtained on farms in the same locality which are similar with respect to type of soil, typography, and farming practices associated with the production of wheat.

IDENTIFICATION AND MEASUREMENTS OF FARMS

§ 728.454 Identification of farms. Each farm as operated for the 1954 crop of wheat shall be identified by a farm serial number, assigned by the county committee, which shall not be changed, and all records pertaining to marketing quotas for the 1954 crop of wheat shall be identified by the farm serial number.

§ 728.455 Measurements of farms. The county committee shall provide for measuring each wheat farm in the county in accordance with the procedure approved for use by the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 728.456 Reports and records of farm measurements. A record shall be kept in the ASC county office of the measurements made on all farms. There shall be filed with the ASC State office a written report setting forth for each farm for which a farm marketing excess is determined (a) the farm serial number, (b) the name of the operator, (c) the total acreage in cultivation, (d) the farm acreage allotment, and (e) the wheat acreage.

FARM MARKETING QUOTA AND FARM MARKETING EXCESS

§ 728.457 Marketing quotas in effect. Marketing quotas for the 1954 crop of wheat shall be applicable to any wheat of that crop notwithstanding that it may be available for market prior to the beginning of the marketing year or subsequent to the end of the marketing year.

§ 728.458 Farm marketing quota. The farm marketing quota for any farm for the 1954 crop of wheat shall be that number of bushels of wheat produced less the amount of the farm marketing excess for the farm.

§ 728.459 Farm marketing excess—(a) Where measurements are made. The farm marketing excess for the 1954 crop of wheat for any farm shall be the normal production of the wheat acreage on the farm in excess of the farm acreage allotment therefor. The farm marketing excess for any crop shall not be larger than the amount by which the actual production of such crop of wheat on the farm exceeds the normal production of the farm wheat acreage allotment if the producer establishes such actual production to the satisfaction of the Secretary.

(b) Where measurements cannot be made. Whenever the determination of the wheat acreage in excess of the allotment for any farm is prevented by the producer, the farm marketing excess shall be the total number of bushels produced in 1954 on the farm. In the event the producer establishes, in accordance with § 728.461, the total number of bushels of wheat produced in 1954 on the farm, the farm marketing excess shall be the number of bushels of wheat produced in 1954 on the farm in excess of the normal production of the farm acreage allotment therefor.

§ 728.460 Notice of farm marketing excess. Written notice of the farm marketing excess for a farm shall be mailed to the operator of each farm for which a farm marketing excess is determined. Notice so given shall constitute notice to each producer having an interest in the 1954 wheat crop produced or to be produced on the farm. Each notice shall contain a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for a review of the farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or any determination made in connection therewith may be had in accordance with section 363 of the act. A record of each notice containing the date of mailing the notice to the operator of the farm shall be kept among the permanent records in the ASC county office and upon request a copy thereof shall be furnished without charge to any person who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper is interested in the wheat produced in 1954 on the farm for which the notice is given. Each notice shall be on a form prescribed by the Director and shall contain the information necessary in each case to inform the producer as to the basis for the determinations set forth in the notice and the effect thereof.

§ 728.461 Farm marketing excess adjustment—(a) Adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess. Any producer having an interest in the wheat produced in 1954 on any farm for which there is a farm marketing excess may, within 60 days after the threshing of wheat is normally substantially completed in the county in which the farm is situated, apply to the county office for a downward adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess on the basis of the amount of wheat produced in 1954 on the farm. The date on which the threshing of wheat is normally substantially completed in the county shall be determined by the State committee taking into consideration recommendations which the county committee may make and, unless application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess is made prior to the expiration of 60 calendar days next succeeding that date, the farm marketing excess for any farm in the county as determined on the basis of the normal production of the excess wheat acreage for the farm shall be final as to the producers on the farm. The county office shall keep a record of each application so made and the date thereof. The county committee shall establish a time and place at which each application will be considered and shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the hearing. Insofar as practicable, applications shall be considered in the order in which made.

(b) Procedure in connection with an application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess. The county committee shall consider each application on the basis of facts known by or made available to it and on the basis of such evidence as may be presented to it by the applicant. The actual production of any farm shall be determined in view of the relevant facts, including the past production on the farm; the actual yields during the same year of other farms in the community; the actual and normal yields of other farms in the community which are similar with regard to farming practices followed, type of soil, and productivity; the harvesting, processing, and sales of the commodity produced on the farm; farming practices followed on the farm; and weather and other factors affecting the production of wheat on the farm and in the locality in which the farm is situated. In the consideration of any application for an adjustment in the farm marketing excess, the producer shall have the burden of proof. The evidence presented by the applicant may be in the form of written statements or other documentary evidence or of oral testimony in a hearing before the county committee during its consideration of the application. In order to expedite the consideration of applications, the county committee shall receive, in advance of the time fixed for consideration of the application, any written statement or documentary evidence offered by or on behalf of the applicant, and the application may be disposed of upon the basis of such statement or evidence, together with other information bearing on or establishing the facts which is available to the county committee, unless the applicant appears before the county committee at the time fixed for considering the application and requests a hearing for the purpose of offering documentary evidence or oral testimony in support of the application. Every such hearing shall be open to the public. The county committee shall make its determination in connection with each application not later than five calendar days next succeeding the day on which the consideration of the application was concluded. The determination of the county committee shall be in writing and shall contain (1) a concise statement of the grounds upon which the applicant sought an adjustment in the amount of the farm marketing excess, (2) a concise statement of the findings of the county committee upon the questions of fact, and (3) the determination of the county committee as to the farm marketing quota and the farm marketing excess. A notice showing the result of the determination made as aforesaid shall be mailed to the operator of the farm and also to the applicant if he is not such operator.

§ 728.462 Publication of the farm acreage allotments, marketing quotas, and marketing excesses. A record of the farm acreage allotments, farm marketing quotas, and farm marketing excesses established for farms in the county shall be made and kept freely available for public inspection in the ASC county office.

§ 728.463 Marketing quotas not transferable. A farm marketing quota established for a farm may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm.

§ 728.464 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds to the interest of a producer in a farm or in a wheat crop produced on a farm, for which a farm marketing quota and farm marketing excess were established, shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to such marketing quota and marketing excess and be subject to the restrictions on the marketing of wheat.

§ 728.465 Review of quotas—(a) Right to review by review committee. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess, or other determination for his farm in connection with marketing quotas may, within 15 calendar days after the notice thereof was mailed to him, apply in writing for a review by a review committee of such acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, farm marketing excess or other determination, as the case may be, shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Application for review and the review committee proceedings shall be in accordance with the review regulations (Form MQ–51) as issued by the Secretary (Part 711 of this chapter).

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after notice of such determination is mailed to him by registered mail, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the act.

MARKETING CARDS AND MARKETING CERTIFICATES

§ 728.466 Issuance of marketing cards—(a) Producers eligible to receive marketing cards. The operator and all other producers on a farm shall be eligible to receive a marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1954)) if (1) no farm marketing excess is determined for the farm, (2) an amount equal to the penalty on the farm marketing excess has been received from the producer or any buyer as provided in § 728.477 or § 728.478, (3) the farm marketing excess is stored, as provided in § 728.482, or (4) the amount of the farm marketing excess has been delivered to the Secretary, as provided in § 728.483. Each marketing card shall be serially numbered and shall show the names of the State and county and code number thereof and the serial number of the farm, the signature of the county office manager or his designee, the name and address of the producer to whom issued, and the countersignature of the producer to whom the card is issued, or his duly authorized agent, or a statement by the county office manager or his designee giving an explanation of the reason for which the countersignature cannot be made.

(b) Multiple farm producers eligible to receive marketing cards. Any producer who is a wheat producer on more than one farm in a county shall not be eligible to receive a marketing card for any such farm in the county until, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, he is eligible to receive a marketing card for each of such farms. However, only one wheat marketing card need be issued to a producer who has an interest in the wheat crop on more than one farm in the county, provided the farm serial numbers of all such farms are entered on the marketing card and the producer is eligible to receive a marketing card or marketing certificate on each farm in the county in which he has an interest in the wheat crop. The other producers on a farm for which the multiple farm producer would otherwise be eligible to receive a marketing card shall receive marketing cards with respect to the farm notwithstanding the ineligibility of the multiple farm producer. Where a producer is engaged in the production of wheat in more than one county (in the same State or in two or more States), the regulations outlined in this section for issuing marketing cards for multiple farms in a county may be followed with respect to all such farms, wherever situated, if the county committees of the respective counties so decide, or if the State committee has reason to believe that the procedure would be necessary to enforce the provisions of the act. The State committee may require any multiple farm producer to file with it a list of all farms on which he is engaged in the production of wheat, together with any other information deemed necessary to enforce the act.

§ 728.467 Issuance of marketing certificates. The county office manager or his designee shall, upon request, issue a marketing certificate, Form MQ–94—Wheat (1954), to any producer (a) who is eligible to receive a marketing card and who desires to market wheat by telegraph, telephone, mail, or by any means or method other than directly to and in the presence of the buyer or transferee, or (b) whose liability has been reduced to a proportionate share of the entire penalty and such liability discharged in accordance with the provisions of § 728.477 (c). Each marketing certificate shall show the name and address of the producer to whom issued, the names of the State and county and the code number thereof and the serial number for the farm, the serial number of the marketing card assigned to the producer for the farm, the signature of the county office manager or his designee, the name of the buyer or transferee, the number of bushels of wheat involved in the transaction, and the signature of the producer. The original of the marketing certificate shall be issued to the producer for delivery to the buyer or transferee and the duplicate copy shall be retained in the ASC county office.

§ 728.468 Lost, destroyed, or stolen marketing cards or marketing certificates—(a) Report of loss, destruction, or theft. In case a marketing card or marketing certificate delivered to a producer is lost, destroyed, or stolen, any person having knowledge thereof shall, insofar as he is able immediately notify the ASC county office of the following: (1) The name of the operator of the farm for which such marketing card or marketing certificate was issued; (2) the name of the producer to whom the marketing card or marketing certificate was issued, if someone other than the operator; (3) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate; and (4) whether in his knowledge or judgment it was lost, destroyed, or stolen and by whom.

(b) Investigation and findings of county committee. The county committee shall make or cause to be made a thorough investigation of the circumstances of such loss, destruction, or theft. If the county committee finds, on the basis of its investigation, that such marketing card or marketing certificate was in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, it shall cause to be canceled such marketing card or marketing certificate and instruct the county office manager to give notice to the producer to whom the marketing card or marketing certificate was issued that it is void and of no effect. The notice to that effect shall be in writing, addressed to the producer at his last-known address, and deposited in the United States mails. If the county committee also finds that there has been no collusion in connection therewith on the part of the producer to or for whom the marketing card or marketing certificate was issued, it shall cause to be issued to or for him a marketing card or marketing certificate to replace the lost, destroyed or stolen marketing card or marketing certificate. Each marketing card or marketing certificate issued under this section shall bear across its face in bold letters the word "Duplicate". In case a marketing card or marketing certificate is canceled, as provided in this section, the county office manager or his designee shall immediately notify the buyers, elevator operators, or warehousemen who serve the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or marketing certificate is canceled and of the issuance of any duplicate. Any person coming into possession of a canceled marketing card or marketing certificate shall immediately return it to the ASC county office from which it was issued.

§ 728.469 Cancellation of marketing cards and marketing certificates issued in error. Any marketing card or marketing certificate erroneously issued shall, immediately upon discovery of the error, be canceled by the county office manager. The producer to whom such marketing card or marketing certificate was issued shall be notified in the manner prescribed in § 728.468 (b) that the marketing card or marketing certificate is void and of no effect and that it shall be returned to the ASC county office. Upon the return of such marketing card or marketing certificate, the county office manager shall cause to be endorsed thereon the notation "Canceled." In the event that such marketing card or marketing certificate is not returned immediately, the county office manager shall immediately notify the elevator operators, warehousemen, and buyers who serve the county, or in the immediate vicinity, that the marketing card or marketing certificate is canceled. A copy of each notice provided for in this section, containing a notation thereon of the date of mailing, shall be kept among the records of the ASC county office.

IDENTIFICATION OF WHEAT

§ 728.470 Time and manner of identification. Each producer of wheat and each intermediate buyer shall, at the time he markets any wheat, identify the wheat to the buyer or transferee, in the manner hereinafter provided, as being subject to or not subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty.

§ 728.471 Identification by marketing card. A marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1954)) shall, when presented to the buyer by the producer to whom it was issued, be evidence to the buyer that the wheat for which the marketing card was issued may be purchased without the payment of any penalty by him and that such wheat is not subject to the lien for penalty.

§ 728.472 Identification by marketing certificate. A marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)), properly executed by the county office manager or his designee and the producer to whom it is issued, shall, when delivered to the buyer by the producer, be evidence that the amount of wheat shown thereon may be purchased without the payment of any penalty by him and that such wheat is not subject to the lien for penalty.

§ 728.473 Identification by intermediate buyer's record and report. The original and copy of an intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954)), properly executed by the first intermediate buyer and the producer of the wheat and any subsequent buyer in the manner outlined in §§ 728.486 (d) and 728.487, shall be evidence to any buyer that the wheat covered thereby is not subject to the lien for penalty and may be purchased by him without payment of any penalty in the event either (a) the MQ–95—Wheat (1954) shows the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate by which the wheat was identified and the signatures of the producer and intermediate buyer, or (b) the original MQ–95—Wheat (1954) bears the endorsement "Penalty satisfied" and the signature and title of a treasurer of a county committee and the date thereof.

§ 728.474 Wheat identified as subject to the penalty and lien for the penalty. All wheat marketed by a producer or by an intermediate buyer which is not identified in the manner prescribed in §§ 728.471, 728.472 or 728.473 shall be taken by the buyer thereof as wheat subject to penalty and the lien for the penalty and the buyer of such wheat shall pay the penalty thereon at the rate prescribed in § 728.475.

PENALTY

§ 728.475 Rate of penalty. The rate of penalty shall be 45 percent of the parity price of wheat as of May 1, 1954.

§ 728.476 Lien for penalty. The entire amount of wheat produced in 1954 on any farm for which a farm marketing excess is determined shall be subject to a lien in favor of the United States for the amount of the penalty until the producers on the farm, in accordance with §§ 728.482, 728.483, 728.477, or 728.478, store the farm marketing excess or deliver it to the Secretary or until the amount of the penalty is paid.

§ 728.477 Payment of penalties by producers—(a) Producers liable for payment of penalties. Each producer having an interest in the wheat produced in 1954 on any farm for which a farm marketing excess is determined shall be liable to pay the amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess. The amount of the penalty which any producer shall pay shall nevertheless be reduced by the amount of the penalty which is paid by another producer or a buyer of wheat produced on the farm.

(b) Time when penalties become due. The farm marketing excess for any farm shall be regarded as available for marketing and the penalty thereon shall become due at the time any wheat produced on the farm is harvested. The amount of the penalty on the farm marketing excess for any farm shall be remitted not later than 60 calendar days after the date on which the threshing of wheat is normally substantially completed in the county in which the farm is situated, as determined by the State committee in accordance with § 728.461 (a): Provided, however, That the penalty on that amount of the farm marketing excess delivered to the Secretary pursuant to § 728.483 shall not be remitted: And provided further, That the penalty on that amount of the farm marketing excess which is stored pursuant to § 728.482 shall not be remitted until the time, and to the extent, of any depletion in the amount of wheat so stored not authorized as provided in § 728.482 (g).

(c) Apportionment of the penalty. The county committee may, upon application of any producer made prior to the expiration of the time allowed for the remittance of the penalty on the farm marketing excess, determine his proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess if, pursuant to the application, the producer establishes the facts that he is unable to arrange with the other producers on the farm for the payment of the penalty on the entire farm marketing excess or for the disposition of the farm marketing excess in accordance with § 728.482 or § 728.483, that his share of the wheat crop produced on the farm is marketed or disposed of by him separately and that he exercises no control over the marketing or disposition of the shares of the other producers in the wheat crop. The producer's proportionate share of the penalty on the farm marketing excess shall be that proportion of the entire penalty on the farm marketing excess which his share in the wheat produced in 1954 on the farm bears to the total amount of wheat produced in 1954 on the farm. When the producer pays his proportionate share of the penalty, or, in accordance with § 728.482 or § 728.483, stores or delivers to the Secretary the number of bushels required to postpone or avoid the payment of the penalty on his proportionate share, he shall not be liable for the remainder of the penalty on the farm marketing excess and he shall be entitled to receive marketing certificates, issued in accordance with § 728.467, to be used by him only in the marketing of his proportionate share of the wheat crop produced in 1954 on the farm.

§ 728.478 Payment of penalties by buyer—(a) Buyers liable for payment of penalties. Each person within the United States who buys from the producer any wheat subject to the lien for the penalty shall be liable for and shall pay the penalty thereon. Wheat shall be taken as subject to the lien for the penalty unless the producer presents to the buyer a marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1954)) or a marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)) as prescribed in §§ 728.471 and 728.472.

(b) Payment of penalties on account of the lien for the penalty. Each person within the United States who buys wheat which is subject to the lien for the penalty shall pay the amount of the penalty on each bushel thereof in satisfaction of the lien thereon. Wheat purchased from any intermediate buyer shall be taken as subject to the lien for the penalty unless, at the time of sale, the intermediate buyer delivers to the purchaser the original and a copy of an intermediate buyer's record and report, MQ–95—Wheat (1954), properly executed by the producer of the wheat and the first intermediate buyer, which show (1) the serial number of marketing card or marketing certificate by which the wheat covered thereby was identified when marketed, or (2) on the reverse side the statement "Penalty satisfied" and the signature and title of a treasurer of a county committee and the date thereof.

(c) Time when penalties become due. The penalty to be paid by any buyer pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be due at the time the wheat is purchased and shall be remitted not later than 15 calendar days thereafter.

(d) Manner of deducting penalties and issuance of receipts. The buyer may deduct from the price paid for any wheat an amount equivalent to the amount of the penalty to be paid by the buyer pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this section. Any buyer who deducts an amount equivalent to the penalty shall issue to the person from whom the wheat was purchased a receipt for the amount so deducted which shall be, in the case of wheat purchased from the producer by an intermediate buyer, on MQ–95—Wheat (1954), and, in all other cases, on MQ–81—Wheat (1954).

§ 728.479 Remittance of penalties to the treasurer of the county committee. The treasurer of any county committee, for and on behalf of the Secretary, shall receive the penalty and issue to the person remitting the penalty a receipt therefor. The penalty shall be remitted only in legal tender, or by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks, drafts, and money orders tendered in payment of the penalty shall be received by the treasurer of the county committee subject to collection and payment at par, and the receipt, Form MQ–82—Wheat (1954), issued in connection therewith shall bear a notation to that effect and a description of the check, draft, or money order. If the penalty is remitted by an intermediate buyer, the treasurer of the county committee shall, in addition to issuing a receipt therefor on Form MQ–82—Wheat (1954), show that the penalty is paid by entering on the reverse side of the original and first copy of the intermediate buyer's record and report, MQ–95—Wheat (1954), the statement "Penalty satisfied" and his signature and title and the date thereof.

§ 728.480 Deposit of funds. All funds received by the treasurer of the county committee in connection with penalties for wheat shall be scheduled and transmitted by him on the day received or not later than the next succeeding business day, to the State committee, which shall cause such funds to be deposited to the credit of a special deposit account with the Treasurer of the United States in the name of the Chief Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department (herein referred to as "special deposit account") to be held in escrow. In the event the funds so received are in the form of cash, the treasurer of the county committee shall deposit such funds in the ASC county association bank account and issue a check in the amount thereof, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. The treasurer of the county committee shall make and keep a record of each amount received by him, showing the name of the person who remitted the funds, the identification of the farm or farms in connection with which the funds were received, and the name of the person who marketed the wheat in connection with which the funds were remitted.

§ 728.481 Refunds of money in excess of the penalty—(a) Determination of refunds. The county committee and the treasurer of the county committee upon their own motion or upon the request of any interested person shall review the amount of money received in connection with the penalty for any farm to determine for each producer the amount thereof, if any, which is in excess of the security required for stored excess wheat and the penalty due. The excess amount shall be refunded. Any refund shall be made only to persons who bore the burden of the payment and who have not been reimbursed therefor. The excess amount shall first be applied, insofar as the sum will permit, so as to make refunds to eligible persons other than producers and the remainder, if any, shall be applied so as to make refunds to the eligible producers. The amount to be refunded to each producer shall be either (1) the amount determined by apportioning the excess amount among the producers on the farm in the proportion that each contributed toward the payment, avoidance, or security of the penalty on the farm marketing excess or (2) the amount which is in excess of the security required for stored excess wheat and the penalty due on that portion of the farm marketing excess for which the producer is separately liable. No refund shall be made to any buyer or transferee of any amount which he collected from the producer or another, deducted from the price or consideration paid for the wheat, or for which he was liable.

(b) Certification of refunds. The county office manager or the treasurer of the county committee shall notify the State committee of the amount which the county committee and its treasurer determine may be refunded to each person with respect to the farm, and the State committee shall cause to be certified to the Chief Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department for payment such amounts as are approved by it. No refund of money shall be certified under this section unless the money has been remitted to the treasurer of the county committee and transmitted by him to the State committee but has not been covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States.

§ 728.482 Stored farm marketing excess—(a) Amount of wheat to be stored. The number of bushels of wheat in connection with any farm which may be stored in order to postpone the payment of the penalty or with a view to avoiding such penalty shall be that portion of the farm marketing excess which has not been delivered to the Secretary. The amount of the farm marketing excess for the purpose of storage shall be the amount of the farm marketing excess as determined, at the time of storage, under § 728.459 or § 728.461, whichever is applicable.

(b) Storage of excess wheat. Stored excess wheat shall be kept in a place adapted to the storage of wheat. The wheat so stored shall be subject to the condition that it may be inspected at any time by officers or employees of the United States Department of Agriculture or members, officers, or employees of the State or county committees.

(c) Deposit of warehouse receipts in escrow. The storage of wheat in an elevator or warehouse in order to postpone the payment of the penalty or with a view to avoiding such penalty shall, except as provided in paragraph (d) or (e) of this section, be effective when a warehouse receipt covering the amount of wheat so stored is deposited with the treasurer of the county committee to be held in escrow. The warehouse receipt shall be a negotiable receipt or a nonnegotiable receipt as to which the warehouseman or elevator operator is notified in writing by the owner of such receipt and the treasurer of the county committee that it is being so deposited in escrow and that delivery of the wheat covered thereby is to be made under the terms of its deposit in escrow while such receipt remains so deposited. Any warehouse receipt so deposited shall be accepted only upon the condition that the producers by or for whom the wheat is stored shall be and shall remain liable for all charges incident to the storage of the wheat and that the county committee and the United States in no way be responsible for or pay any such charges. Whenever the penalty with respect to wheat covered by warehouse receipt is paid or satisfied from any cause, the warehouse receipt shall be returned to the person who deposited it.

(d) Bond of indemnity. The storage of excess wheat in order to postpone the payment of the penalty or with a view to avoiding such penalty shall also be effective when a good and sufficient bond of indemnity on a form prescribed for this purpose is executed and filed with the treasurer of the county committee in an amount not less than the amount of the penalty on that portion of the farm marketing excess so stored. Each bond given pursuant to this paragraph shall be executed as principal by the producer storing the wheat and either (1) as sureties by two persons who are not producers on the farm each owning real property situated within the county with an unencumbered value of double the principal sum of the bond, or (2) as surety by a corporate surety authorized to do business in the State in which the farm is situated and listed by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States as an acceptable surety on bonds in favor of the United States. Each bond of indemnity shall be subject to the conditions that the penalty on the amount of wheat stored shall be paid at the time, and to the extent, of any depletion of the amount stored which is not authorized under paragraph (g) of this section and that if at any time any producers on the farm prevent the inspection of any wheat so stored the penalty on the entire amount stored shall be paid forthwith. Whenever the penalties secured by the bond of indemnity are paid or reduced from any cause, the treasurer of the county committee shall furnish the principal and the sureties with a written statement to that effect. A bond shall not otherwise be cancelled or released.

(e) Deposit of funds in escrow. The storage of wheat in order to postpone the payment of the penalty or with a view to avoiding such penalty shall also be effective when an amount of money not less than the penalty on that portion of the farm marketing excess so stored is deposited with the Treasurer of the United States to be held in escrow to secure the payment of such penalty. The treasurer of the county committee shall issue a receipt to the person who tenders such funds which shall be received subject to collection and payment at par. Funds in escrow shall be subject to the condition that the penalty on the amount of wheat stored shall be paid at the time, and to the extent, of any depletion of the amount stored which is not authorized under paragraph (g) of this section and that if at any time any producer on the farm prevents inspection of any wheat so stored, the penalty on the entire amount stored shall be paid forthwith.

(f) Time of storage. Storage of wheat in connection with any farm in order to postpone the payment of the penalty or with a view to avoiding such penalty shall not be effective unless the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) and (c), (d), or (e) of this section are complied with prior to the expiration of the period allowed, in accordance with § 728.477 (b), for the remittance of the penalty with respect to the farm marketing excess for the farm.

(g) Depletion of stored excess wheat. The penalty on the amount of excess wheat stored shall be paid by the producers on the farm at the time and to the extent of any depletion in the amount of wheat stored except as provided in paragraphs (h) and (i) of this section and except to the extent of the following: (1) The amount by which the stored excess wheat exceeds the farm marketing excess for the farm as determined in accordance with § 728.459 or § 728.461, (2) the amount by which the stored excess wheat exceeds the amount of the farm marketing excess as determined by a review committee or as a result of a court review of the review committee, and (3) the amount of any wheat destroyed by fire, weather conditions, theft, or any other cause beyond the control of the producer, provided the producer shows beyond a reasonable doubt that the depletion resulted from such cause and not from his negligence nor from any affirmative act done or caused to be done by him.

(h) Underplanting the farm acreage allotment for a subsequent crop. Whenever the wheat acreage on any farm for the 1955 or subsequent crop of wheat is less than the farm acreage allotment therefor, the producers on the farm who stored excess wheat in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section shall, upon application made by them to the county committee, be entitled to remove from storage without penalty any wheat so stored by them, whether produced in a prior year on the farm or another farm, to the extent of the normal production of the number of acres by which the acreage planted to wheat is less than the farm acreage allotment. The amount of wheat which would otherwise be authorized to be removed from storage in connection with the farm under this paragraph shall be reduced to the extent that stored excess wheat from any other crop is authorized to be removed from storage in connection with the farm. The amount of wheat authorized to be removed from storage shall be apportioned among the several producers on the farm who have stored excess wheat to the extent of their need therefor in accordance with their shares in the acreage which was or could have been planted to wheat or in accordance with their agreement as to the apportionment to be made. A producer shall not be entitled to remove wheat from storage under this paragraph in connection with any farm unless, at the time the determination is made under this paragraph, the wheat is stored and owned by the producer and, at the end of the wheat seeding season for the crop for the area in which the farm is situated, the producer is entitled to share in the wheat crop which was or could have been planted on the farm. The acreage planted to wheat for the purpose of this paragraph shall be the acreage planted to wheat, plus the acreage of volunteer wheat, classified as wheat acreage for the crop in accordance with the instructions of the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service.

(i) Producing a subsequent crop which is less than the normal production of the farm acreage allotment. Whenever the actual production of wheat in 1955 or any subsequent year on any farm is less than the normal production of the farm acreage allotment therefor, the producers on the farm who stored excess wheat in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section shall, upon application made by them to the ASC county office, be entitled to remove from storage, without penalty, any wheat so stored by them, whether produced in the prior year on the farm or another farm, to the extent of the amount by which the normal production of the farm acreage allotment, less the normal production of the underplanted acreage for the farm which was or could have been determined under paragraph (h) of this section, exceeds the amount of wheat produced on the farm in that year. The amount of wheat which would otherwise be authorized to be removed from storage in connection with the farm under this paragraph shall be reduced to the extent that stored excess wheat from any other crop is authorized to be removed from storage in connection with the farm. The amount of wheat which is authorized to be removed from storage shall be apportioned among the several producers on the farm who have stored excess wheat to the extent of their need therefor in accordance with their proportionate shares in the wheat crop planted on the farm or in accordance with their agreement as to the apportionment to be made. The determination of the amount of wheat produced on the farm shall be made in accordance with the marketing quota regulations applicable to the crop. A producer shall not be entitled to remove wheat from storage under this paragraph for any farm unless, at the time the determination is made under this paragraph, the wheat is stored and owned by the producer and, at the time of harvest, the producer is entitled to a share in the wheat crop planted on the farm.

§ 728.483 Delivery of the farm marketing excess to the Secretary—(a) Amount of wheat to be delivered. The amount of wheat delivered to the Secretary in order to avoid the payment of the penalty in connection with any farm shall not exceed the amount of the farm marketing excess as determined, at the time of delivery, in accordance with § 728.459 or § 728.461, whichever is applicable.

(b) Conditions and methods of delivery. For and on behalf of the Secretary, the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm for which the marketing excess is determined is situated shall accept the delivery of any wheat tendered to avoid the payment of the penalty. The delivery of the wheat for this purpose shall be effective only when the producers having an interest in the wheat to be so delivered convey to the Secretary all right, title, and interest in and to the wheat by executing a form provided for this purpose in accordance with instructions issued by Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service, and (1) deliver the wheat to a wheat elevator or warehouse and tender to the treasurer of the county committee the elevator or warehouse receipts for the amount of the wheat, or (2) where the producer shows to the satisfaction of the county committee that it is impracticable to deliver the wheat to an elevator or warehouse and receive an elevator or warehouse receipt therefor, deliver the wheat at a point within the county or nearby and within such time or times as may be designated by the county office manager in accordance with instructions issued by the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service. None of the wheat so delivered shall be returned to the producer. Insofar as practicable, the wheat so delivered shall be delivered to the Commodity Credit Corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture, and any wheat which it is impracticable to deliver to such Corporation shall be distributed to such one or more of the following classes of agencies or organizations as the State committee selects, which delivery the Secretary hereby determines will divert it from the normal channels of trade and commerce: Any Federal relief organization, the American Red Cross, State or county or municipal relief organization, or Federal or State wildlife refuge project.

§ 728.484 Refund of penalty erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected. Whenever, pursuant to a claim filed with the Secretary within two calendar years after payment to him of the penalty collected from any person, pursuant to the act, the Secretary finds that the penalty was erroneously, illegally, or wrongfully collected, and the claimant bore the burden of such penalty, he shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States for payment to the claimant, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, such amount as the claimant is entitled to receive as a refund of all or a portion of the penalty. Any claim filed pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

§ 728.485 Report of violations and court proceedings to collect penalty. It shall be the duty of the county committee to report in writing to the State committee each case of failure or refusal to pay the penalty or to remit the same as provided in this subpart when collected. It shall be the duty of the State committee to report each such case in writing to the Director with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to collect the penalties, as provided in section 376 of the act.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 728.486 Records to be kept and reports to be made by warehousemen, elevator operators, feeders, or processors, and buyers other than intermediate buyers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, and each buyer other than an intermediate buyer, who buys, acquires, or receives wheat from the producer or intermediate buyer thereof shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out with respect to wheat the provisions of the act.

(b) Nature and availability of records. Each warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, and each buyer other than an intermediate buyer, shall keep, as a part of or in addition to the records maintained by him in the conduct of his business, a record which shall show with respect to the wheat purchased, acquired, or received by him from the producers or the intermediate buyers thereof the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer of the wheat, (2) the date of the transaction, (3) the amount of the wheat, (4) the serial number of the marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1954)), or marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)), or intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954)), by which the wheat was identified, or the report and penalty receipt (MQ–81—Wheat (1954)), and (5) the amount of any lien for the penalty or of any penalty incurred in connection with the wheat purchased, acquired, or received by him. The record so made shall be kept available for examination by the Secretary or his authorized representatives, and by members of the State or county committees or their officers or employees, for two calendar years beyond the calendar year in which the marketing year ends. The records shall be examined only for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept pursuant to §§ 728.450 to 728.496, or of obtaining the information required to be furnished in any report pursuant to §§ 728.450 to 728.496 but not so furnished. The county office manager shall furnish, without cost, blank copies of MQ–97—Wheat (1954) which may be used for the purpose of keeping the record required under this section.

(c) Records and reports in connection with wheat subject to penalty or the lien for the penalty. Each warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, and each buyer other than an intermediate buyer who purchases any wheat from the producer or intermediate buyer thereof which is not identified at the time the wheat is purchased in the manner provided in §§ 728.471, 728.472, and 728.473, shall, with respect to each such transaction, execute the report and penalty receipt on MQ–81—Wheat (1954) and report to the treasurer of the county committee the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer or intermediate buyer from whom the wheat was purchased or acquired, (2) the date of the transaction, (3) the amount of the wheat, and (4) the amount of the penalty incurred in connection with the transaction, and whether an amount equivalent to the penalty was deducted from the price or consideration paid for the wheat. Each record and report on MQ–81—Wheat (1954) shall be executed in triplicate. The person who executes MQ–81—Wheat (1954) shall retain one copy, give the original to the producer or intermediate buyer, as the case may be, which shall be the receipt to him for the amount of the penalty in connection with wheat, and mail or deliver the remaining copy to the treasurer of the county committee. It shall be presumed that wheat was not identified by MQ–76—Wheat (1954) as provided in § 728.471, or MQ–94—Wheat (1954) as provided in § 728.472, or MQ–95—Wheat (1954) as provided in § 728.473, if the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate or intermediate buyer's record and report does not appear on the records required to be kept pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Records and reports in connection with wheat identified by intermediate buyer's records and reports. Whenever wheat is identified by the intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954), executed in accordance with § 728.487, the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or the buyer other than an intermediate buyer, who purchases or acquires the wheat covered thereby shall retain the first copy as a record of the transaction and forward the original to the treasurer of the county committee as a report on the transaction in every case where he purchases or acquires all or the remainder of the wheat covered by the record and report. In all other cases, where the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder or processor, or the buyer other than an intermediate buyer, purchases or acquires only a portion of the wheat covered by the intermediate buyer's record and report, he shall make a record and report of the transaction by endorsing on the reverse side of both the original and first copy his name and signature, the amount of wheat purchased or acquired, and the date of the transaction and return the forms so endorsed to the intermediate buyer to be delivered to the person who finally purchases or acquires the remainder of the wheat.

(e) Records in connection with wheat identified by marketing certificates. Whenever wheat is identified by a marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)), the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or the buyer other than an intermediate buyer, who purchases the wheat so identified shall retain the marketing certificate as a record of the transaction.

(f) Time and place of submitting reports. Each report required by this section shall be submitted, not later than 15 calendar days next succeeding the day on which the wheat was marketed to a warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or a buyer other than an intermediate buyer, to the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the wheat was produced

§ 728.487 Records to be kept and reports to be made by intermediate buyers—(a) Necessity for records and reports. Each intermediate buyer shall, in conformity with section 373 (a) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out, with respect to wheat, the provisions of the act.

(b) Form of record and report in connection with wheat purchased or acquired from producers. Each intermediate buyer who purchases or acquires any wheat from the producer thereof shall, with respect to each such transaction, keep a record and make a report on the intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954)) of the following information: (1) The name and address of the producer from whom the wheat was purchased or acquired, (2) the names of the county and State in which the wheat was produced, (3) the date of the transaction, (4) the number of bushels of wheat, and (5) the serial number of the marketing card or marketing certificate by which the producer identified the wheat at the time it was marketed, or if the wheat is not so identified, the amount of the penalty, and whether an amount equivalent to the penalty was collected or deducted from the price or consideration paid for the wheat. The record and report shall be executed in quadruplicate and, after the entries described above are made, the intermediate buyer and producer shall certify to the correctness of the entries by signing the MQ–95—Wheat (1954. One copy of MQ–95—Wheat (1954) so executed shall be retained by the producer as a record of the transaction and as a receipt for the amount equivalent to the penalty, if any, which was deducted from the price or consideration paid for the wheat. One copy of MQ–95—Wheat (1954) so executed shall be retained by the intermediate buyer as his record in connection with the transaction. Whenever wheat is identified by a marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)), the intermediate buyer shall attach the original of the marketing certificate to the first copy of MQ–95—Wheat (1954) to be delivered to the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or buyer other than an intermediate buyer, who finally acquires the wheat covered by MQ–95—Wheat (1954) and marketing certificate MQ–94—Wheat (1954). Whenever the intermediate buyer markets or delivers a portion of the wheat covered by a single MQ–95—Wheat (1954) to another and retains a portion of the wheat, the intermediate buyer shall obtain from the person to whom the portion of the wheat is marketed or delivered an endorsement on the reverse side of both the original and first copy of MQ–95—Wheat (1954) showing the name and signature of the person, the number of bushels of wheat marketed or delivered to him, and the date of the transaction.

(c) Manner of making reports. The intermediate buyer shall deliver the original and copy of the intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954)) to the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or the buyer other than an intermediate buyer, to whom all of the remainder of the wheat covered thereby is marketed. When wheat is marketed or delivered by one intermediate buyer to another intermediate buyer, the original and first copy of MQ–95—Wheat (1954) shall be transmitted by one intermediate buyer to another and the last intermediate buyer shall deliver them to the warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or buyer other than an intermediate buyer. If all or the remainder of the wheat is not marketed or delivered to a warehouseman, elevator operator, feeder, or processor, or buyer other than an intermediate buyer, the last intermediate buyer shall within 15 days mail or deliver the original and first copy of the intermediate buyer's record and report to the treasurer of the county committee.

(d) Reports to the treasurer of the county committee. Each intermediate buyer shall, within 15 days after all Forms MQ–95—Wheat (1954) contained in a book have been executed or on December 31, 1954, whichever is the earlier, mail or deliver to the treasurer of the county committee from whom the book was obtained the executed copies and unexecuted sets of Form MQ–95—Wheat (1954) which were retained by him.

§ 728.488 Buyer's special reports. In the event that the county committee or State committee has reason to believe that any buyer has failed or refused to comply with this subpart, the buyer shall within 15 days after a written request therefor made by the county committee or State committee and deposited in the United States mails, registered and addressed to him at his last-known address, make a report, verified as true and correct by affidavit, on MQ–97—Wheat (1954) to such committee with respect to all wheat purchased or acquired by him during the period of time as specified in the request. The report shall include the following information for each lot of wheat purchased or acquired from the persons specified or during the period specified: (a) The name and address of the producer of the wheat, (b) the date of the transaction, (c) the amount of the wheat, (d) the serial number of the marketing card (MQ–76—Wheat (1954)), marketing certificate (MQ–94—Wheat (1954)), or intermediate buyer's record and report (MQ–95—Wheat (1954)), or the report and penalty receipt (MQ–81—Wheat (1954)), and (e) the amount of the lien for the penalty or the amount of penalty incurred in connection with the wheat purchased or acquired.

§ 728.489 Penalty for failure or refusal to keep records and make reports. Any person required to keep the records or make the reports specified in §§ 728.486, 728.487, or 728.488 and who fails to keep any such record or make any such report or who makes any false report or keeps any false record shall, as provided in section 373 (a) of the act, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500 for each such offense.

§ 728.490 Records to be kept and reports to be made by producers. Each person who in 1954 harvests wheat which is subject to the provisions of these regulations shall, in conformity with section 373 (b) of the act, keep the records and make the reports prescribed by this section, which the Secretary hereby finds to be necessary to enable him to carry out with respect to wheat the provisions of the act. The operator of the farm in connection with which a farm marketing excess is determined and in connection with which producers are ineligible to receive marketing cards or marketing certificates under § 728.466 or § 728.467 shall file with the treasurer of the county committee for the county in which the farm is situated a farm operator's report on MQ–98—Wheat (1954) showing for the farm the following information: (a) The total number of bushels of wheat produced thereon in 1954, (b) the name and address of each buyer or transferee of any wheat, (c) the amount of the wheat marketed to each buyer, (d) the amount equivalent to the penalty which was deducted from the price or consideration for the wheat, (e) the amount of unmarketed wheat of the 1954 crop on hand, and (f) wheat acreage for 1954. The report in connection with any such farm shall be made not later than 60 days after the date, as determined by the county committee and the State committee, in accordance with § 728.461 (a), on which the threshing of the wheat is normally substantially completed for the county in which the farm is situated. Upon the request of the county committee or county office manager the operator of any other farm shall make a similar report within 15 days after the request therefor is made.

§ 728.491 Data to be kept confidential. Except as otherwise provided herein, all data reported to or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to and in the manner provided in this subpart shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture, members of county committees, other local committees, and State committees, county agents, and officers and employees of such committees or county agents' offices, and shall not be disclosed to anyone not having an interest in or responsibility for any wheat, farm, or transaction covered by the particular data, such as records, reports, forms, or other information, and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary deems relevant shall be disclosed by them to anyone not having such an interest or not being employed in the administration of the act and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the act.

§ 728.492 Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the county committee to report or arrange for the county office manager to report in writing to the State committee forthwith each case of failure or refusal to make any report or keep any record as required by this subpart and each case of making any false report or record. It shall be the duty of the State committee to report each such case in writing to the Director with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to enforce the provisions of Title III of the act.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

§ 728.493 Farms on which the acreage planted is not in excess of 15 acres—(a) Conditions of exception. A farm marketing quota for wheat for the 1954 crop shall not be applicable to any farm on which the wheat acreage for the 1954 crop is not in excess of 15 acres.

(b) Issuing marketing cards. The county office manager or his designee shall, for each farm to which the provisions of this section are applicable, issue marketing cards and marketing certificates to the producers on the farm in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in §§ 728.466 to 728.469, inclusive.

§ 728.494 Farms on which the normal production of the wheat acreage is less than 200 bushels—(a) Conditions of exemption. A farm marketing quota for wheat of the 1954 crop shall not be applicable to any farm on which the normal production of the 1954 wheat acreage is less than 200 bushels.

(b) Issuing marketing cards. The county office manager or his designee shall, for each farm to which the provisions of this section are applicable, issue marketing cards and marketing certificates to the producers on the farm in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in §§ 728.466 to 728.469, inclusive.

§ 728.495 Experimental wheat farms—(a) Conditions of exemption. The penalty shall not apply to the marketing of any wheat of the 1954 crop grown for experimental purposes only on land owned or leased by any publicly owned agricultural experiment station, and is produced at public expense by employees of the experiment station, or to wheat produced by farmers pursuant to an agreement with a publicly owned experiment station whereby the experiment station bears the costs and risks incident to the production of the wheat and the proceeds from the crop inure to the benefit of the experiment station: Provided, That such agreement is approved by the State committee prior to the issuance of a marketing card for the farm.

(b) Issuing marketing cards. The county office manager shall, upon the written application of a responsible executive officer of any publicly-owned agricultural experiment station to which the exemption referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is applicable, issue a marketing card for the experiment station in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in §§ 728.466 to 728.469, inclusive.

§ 728.496 Redelegation of authority. Any authority delegated to the State committee by this subpart may be redelegated by the State committee.

Issued this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] ROSS RIZLEY,
Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T. D. 53412]

PART 8—LIABILITY FOR DUTIES, ENTRY OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

PROBABLE UNPAID DUTIES OR TAXES; RELEASE OF PACKAGES

The purpose of the following amendment is to provide the importer with a prompt notice of proposed disagreement with the entered rate or value and to afford him a reasonable opportunity to present objections should he desire to do so. The practice of furnishing this information on the permit to release is discontinued, as this form must be surrendered to obtain delivery of the examination packages and is frequently not seen by the importer of record.

The information will be furnished whether or not a specific request for value information has been filed under the provisions of § 14.4 of these regulations. Appraising officers will continue to furnish information in their possession prior to entry in response to such specific requests, but in order to avoid unduly burdening examiners with routine inquiries importers should limit requests to those instances in which appraising officers may reasonably be expected to be in possession of information not readily available to the importer.

Section 8.29 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) If the examiner believes that the entered rate or value of any merchandise in the shipment is too low, or if he finds that the quantity imported exceeds the entered quantity, and the estimated aggregate of the increase in duties exceeds $15, he shall promptly notify the importer of record, on such form as may be appropriate at the port, as to the value or rate believed to be applicable or as to the excess quantity found. If the correct rate, value or quantity cannot be immediately determined or if the information is too voluminous to be set forth in detail, the notice shall specify the nature of the difference by means of an explanatory notation such as "Rate Advance," "Value Advance," or "Excess," and shall advise the importer to call at the examiner's office for additional information. The notice shall be furnished at the time the examination packages are released or as soon thereafter as the information is received by the examiner, whether the merchandise has been examined at the appraiser's stores or elsewhere. The importer shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present objections to proposed advances in rate or value prior to completion of action with respect to advisory classification or appraisement.

[SEAL] C. A. EMERICK,
Acting Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: January 5, 1954.

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

SPECIAL CIVIL AIR REGULATIONS; LANDING WEIGHTS FOR NONTRANSPORT CATEGORY AIRPLANES IN SCHEDULED OVERSEAS AND FOREIGN PASSENGER OPERATION

Correction

In Federal Register Document 53–10786, published at page 8745 of the issue for Tuesday, December 29, 1953, the following changes should be made:

1. In the fourth paragraph, "25,000 pounds" should read "25,200 pounds."

2. In footnote 1 the last sentence should read: "Furthermore, corresponding military versions of the DC–3 have been operated at maximum weights in excess of 30,000 pounds."

Part 610—Minimum en Route IFR Altitudes

Miscellaneous Amendments

The minimum en route IFR altitudes appearing hereinafter have been coordinated with interested members of the industry in the regions concerned insofar as practicable. The altitudes are adopted without delay in order to provide for safety in air commerce. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

Part 610 is amended as follows:

1. Section 610.12 Green civil airway No. 2 is amended to read in part:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude
Mullan Pass, Mont. (LFR)	Missoula, Mont. (LFR)	9,000

2. Section 610.107 Amber civil airway No. 7 is amended to read in part:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude
Miami, Fla. (LFR)	W. Palm Beach, Fla. (LFR)	1,500

3. Section 610.231 Red civil airway No. 31 is amended to eliminate:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude
Stanton, Minn. (LF/RBN)	Red Wing (INT), Minn.	2,400

4. Section 610.306 Red civil airway No. 106 is amended to eliminate:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude
Scottsbluff, Nebr. (LFR)	North Platte, Nebr. (LFR)	5,800

5. Section 610.306 Red civil airway No. 106 is amended to read:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude
Scottsbluff, Nebr. (LFR)	Chappell (INT), Nebr	5,800

6. Section 610.621 Blue civil airway No. 21 is amended to read in part:

From—	To—	Minimum altitude

TITLE 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

Subchapter D—Approved Forms, Federal Power Act

[Docket No. R-132; Order 168]

PART 141—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES)

ELECTRIC UTILITIES AND LICENSEES (CLASSES A AND B)

The Commission has under consideration in this proceeding the amendment of § 141.1 of its general rules and regulations (18 CFR Part 141) by revising six schedules of the Annual Report, FPC Form No. 1, required of Class A and B electric utilities and licensees.

The proposed amendments, developed in cooperation with the Committee on Statistics and Accounts of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, are designed to simplify and clarify certain previously prescribed schedules of FPC Form No. 1.

The Commission finds:

(1) The proposed amendments represent matters of practice and procedure which do not require notice or hearing under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

(2) Adoption and promulgation of the proposed amendments are necessary and appropriate for the purposes of administration of the Federal Power Act.

(3) Good cause exists that these amendments become effective as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Federal Power Act, as amended, and particularly sections 3 (13), 4 (a) through (c), 301 (a), 304 (a), 309, and 311 thereof (49 Stat. 838, 839, 854, 855, 858, 859; 16 U. S. C. 796 (13), 797 (a) through (c), 825 (a), 825 c (a), 825 h, 825 j), orders:

(A) Section 141.1, entitled "Annual Report, Form No. 1, electric utilities and licensees (Classes A and B)" of Part 141 of the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Part 141) is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Instruction 4 to the schedule entitled "Other Physical Property" page 22, is amended to read as follows:

4. List separately any property previously devoted to public service which has a book value of $50,000 or more and give date of transfer to Account 110, Other Physical Property, in addition to date acquired as called for by column (b). Other items of property previously devoted to public service may be grouped.

2. Add the following sentence to Instruction 3 of the schedule entitled "Investments" page 23: "Investments included in Account 123, Temporary Cash Investments, also may be grouped by classes."

3. Delete the words "size of coal and" from Instruction 3 of the schedule entitled "Production and Fuel Oil Stocks" page 30.

4. Substitute the following for the heading of column (c): "Estimated Additional Cost of Project" of the schedule entitled "Construction Work in Progress" page 64.

5. Substitute "$25,000 or more" for "$10,000 or more" where the latter appears in the instructions as the amount of each annual rent to be reported by Class A utilities in the schedule entitled "Rents Charged to Electric Operating Expenses" page 82.

6. In the schedule entitled "Transmission Lines Added During the Year" page 104, add the following sentence to Instruction 1: "It is not necessary, however, to report minor revisions of lines."

and delete the second and third sentences of Instruction 2 and substitute the following: "If actual costs of completed construction are not readily available for reporting in columns (l) to (n), it is permissible to report in these columns, the estimated final completion costs. Designate, however, if estimated amounts are reported."

(B) This order, and the amendments to the Annual Report FPC Form No. 1 herein prescribed, shall become effective December 31, 1953, for the filing of annual reports on FPC Form No. 1 by Class A and B electric utilities and licensees for the year 1953 and thereafter until further order of the Commission.

(C) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Subchapter G—Approved Forms, Natural Gas Act

[Docket No. R-131; Order 167]

PART 260—STATEMENTS AND REPORTS (SCHEDULES)

FORMS AND SCHEDULES REQUIRED OF CLASS A AND B NATURAL GAS COMPANIES

The Commission has under consideration in this proceeding the amendment of § 260.1 of its general rules and regulations (18 CFR Part 260) by revising five schedules of the Annual Report, FPC Form No. 2, required of Natural Gas companies (Classes A and B).

The proposed amendments, developed in cooperation with the Committee on Statistics and Accounts of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, are designed to simplify and clarify certain previously prescribed schedules of FPC Form No. 2.

The Commission finds:

(1) The proposed amendments represent matters of practice and procedure which do not require notice or hearing under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

(2) Adoption and promulgation of the proposed amendments are necessary and appropriate for the purposes of administration of the Natural Gas Act.

(3) Good cause exists that these amendments become effective as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and particularly sections 8, 10, and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 821, 825, 826 and 830; 15 U. S. C. 717, 717g, 717l, 717o), orders:

(A) Section 260.1, entitled "Form No. 2, Annual Reports for Natural Gas Companies (Classes A and B)" of Part 260 of the Commission's general rules and regulations (18 CFR, Part 260) is hereby amended in the following respects:

1. Instruction 4 to the schedule entitled "Other Physical Property" page 22, is amended to read as follows:

4. List separately any property previously devoted to public service which has a book value of $50,000 or more and give date of transfer to Account 110, Other Physical Property, in addition to date acquired as called for by column (b). Other items of property previously devoted to public service may be grouped.

2. Add the following sentence to Instruction 3 of the schedule entitled "Investments" page 23: "Investments included in Account 123, Temporary Cash Investments, also may be grouped by classes."

3. Delete the words "size of coal and" from Instruction 3 of the schedule entitled "Production and Fuel Oil Stocks" page 30.

4. Substitute the following for the heading of column (c): "Estimated Additional Cost of Project" of the schedule entitled "Construction Work in Progress" page 65.

5. Substitute "$25,000 or more" for "$10,000 or more" where the latter appears in the instructions as the amount of each annual rent to be reported by Class A Natural Gas Companies in the schedule entitled "Rents Charged to Gas Operating Expenses" page 92.

(B) This order, and the amendments to the Annual Report Form No. 2 herein prescribed, shall become effective December 31, 1953, for the filing of annual reports on FPC Form No. 2 by Class A and B Natural Gas Companies for the year 1953 and thereafter until further order of the Commission.

(C) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 16, 52 Stat. 830; 15 U. S. C. 717o)

Adopted: January 4, 1954.

Issued: January 6, 1954.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XVI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 51]

PART 1606—GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

PROTECTION OF RECORDS AND DISCLOSING INFORMATION THEREFROM

The Selective Service Regulations are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 1606.22 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1606.22 Protection of records. Selective service offices shall take all possible care to keep records from being lost or destroyed. Under no circumstances shall a record be entrusted to any person not authorized to have it in his custody. When the person charged with the custody of a record transmits or delivers it to another, he shall place a notation showing the person or agency to which it is transmitted or delivered in his files in the place from which the record was withdrawn. When cover sheets of registrants are transmitted by mail a strict accounting shall be maintained of the dispatch and receipt thereof.

2. The following new section is added to Part 1606 immediately following § 1606.41:

§ 1606.42 Disclosing information to former employers. A State Director of Selective Service may disclose to the former employer of a registrant who is serving in, or who has been discharged from, the armed forces whether the registrant has or has not been discharged and, if discharged, the date thereof, upon reasonable proof that the registrant left a position in the employ of the person requesting such information in order to serve in the armed forces.

(Sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 460, E. O. 9979, 13 F. R. 4177, 3 CFR, 1948 Supp.)

The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service Regulations shall be effective immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director of Selective Service.

[Docket Nos. 2310, 2330, 2331]

IROQUOIS GAS CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS

JANUARY 6, 1954.

In the matters of Iroquois Gas Corporation and Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-2310; New York State Natural Gas Corporation and Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-2330; Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G-2331.

Take notice that there have been filed with the Federal Power Commission by the persons and on the dates hereinafter designated several interrelated applications, each for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the individual applicants to construct, acquire and operate certain natural gas facilities hereinafter described, all as more fully described in the respective applications.

Iroquois Gas Corporation (Iroquois), a New York corporation with its principal place of business in Buffalo, New York, and Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, on November 10, 1953, filed as joint applicants in Docket No. G-2310 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity for the construction, acquisition and joint operation of certain underground natural gas storage facilities. The proposed storage facilities, including connecting pipe lines and compressor equipment, will be located principally in the Towns of Aurora, Colden, Boston, Concord, North Collins, Wales, and Eden, Erie County, New York, and will include Iroquois' Aurora Storage Pool authorized in Docket No. G-2129.

The application contemplates a joint storage development between Iroquois and Tennessee to be known as the Colden Storage Field, with an estimated capacity of approximately 10 billion cubic feet of active gas. When completed the facilities, including those authorized in Docket No. G-2129, will contain approximately 120 new wells, 53 reconditioned wells, and 30 reclaimed wells; approximately 17 miles of 16-inch delivery line, along with approximately 62 miles of 12-inch, 8-inch, 6-inch, and 4-inch gathering and well lines, providing connection into the existing systems of both Iroquois and Tennessee.

In order to effectuate the joint undertaking, Tennessee requests authority to acquire from Iroquois an undivided one-half interest in and to the facilities constructed and to be constructed in said Colden Storage Field, as well as authority to construct additional 4,000 H. P. compressor station facilities at its existing Station No. 229, one decissicant type and one glycol type dehydration plant, and two twin 10-inch tube metering stations at the point of connection between Tennessee's existing transmission line and the storage field.

The proposed project is to be used to provide Iroquois with storage facilities to handle additional gas supplies including those authorized in Docket No. G-1969, and to enable Tennessee to store gas for its customers.

Iroquois estimates that the total cost to it of the proposed facilities, including those authorized in Docket No. G-2129, is $2,672,000, which it proposes to finance by issuing to its parent corporation, National Fuel Gas Company, long-term notes or stock, or both. The estimated total cost of acquisition and construction, including base storage gas to Tennessee is $7,982,974, which it proposes to finance as a part of its overall financing program by the issuance of mortgage bonds, preferred stock and debentures, and common stock and retained earnings.

New York State Natural Gas Corporation (New York Natural), a New York corporation with its principal place of business in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Tennessee, on December 11, 1953, filed as joint applicants in Docket No. G-2330 an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the acquisition, development and joint operation of certain underground storage facilities in northern Pennsylvania and southern New York.

The requested authority is proposed to cover (1) acquisition by Tennessee from New York Natural of an undivided one-half interest in and to certain properties of New York Natural known generally as the "Harrison Pool," the "Ellisburg Pool," and the "State Line Pool," and joint operation thereof; (2) the immediate joint development and operation of the full top storage capacity of 19,680,000 Mcf of the Harrison Pool, including the drilling of new wells, redrilling of abandoned wells, construction of pipe lines, measuring equipment, and an 11,000 H.P. compressor station; and (3) the sale of gas by Tennessee to New York Natural for storage by New York Natural in these pools.

The requested facilities are proposed to be used to balance the gas supplies of the two companies against increasing and varying demands.

New York Natural's share of the estimated total cost of the project is $3,682,866 for construction of facilities in the Harrison Pool and $2,192,860 for base storage cost or a total of $5,875,726 which amounts are to be secured from its parent company, Consolidated Natural Gas Company, in accordance with the methods explained in the testimony given by the company officers in Docket No. G-1391. The estimated total cost of acquisition, construction and base storage gas to Tennessee is $6,844,997, including $180,750, the cost of acquisition of the one-half interest in the Ellisburg and State Line Pools, which total amount it proposes to finance as a part of its overall financing program.

Tennessee, joint applicant in Dockets No. G-2310 and G-2330, on December 11, 1953, filed its interdependent application (dependent upon its joint applications with Iroquois in Docket No. G-2310 and with New York Natural in Docket No. G-2330) for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing: (1) The construction and operation of 243 miles of 24-inch new line from Tennessee's existing Compressor Station No. 313 in Potter County, Pennsylvania in the Hebron Storage Field, eastwardly across the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York to a point of connection with Northeastern Gas Transmission Company (Northeastern) on the New York-Connecticut line near Greenwich, Connecticut, with a 28 mile 24-inch spur line extending south from the main line in New Jersey to a point near Newark, New Jersey, there connecting with facilities of the Public Service Electric and Gas Company of New Jersey; (2) the construction of approximately 18 miles of 24-inch new line connecting Tennessee's existing Compressor Station No. 313 in the Hebron Field in Potter County, Pennsylvania, with the Harrison storage field facilities; and (3) the utilization of thirty-five billion cubic feet of underground top storage capacity, twenty billion cubic feet of which is available from Tennessee's previously authorized development of the Hebron storage field and the remaining fifteen billion cubic feet available from the proposed Colden storage area (Docket No. G-2310) and Harrison storage field (Docket No. G-2330); together with necessary measuring and metering facilities. The new 24-inch line will also connect with existing facilities of Consolidated Edison Co. of New York at a point near New York City.

Tennessee intends, after receipt of authorization requested in the above applications, to apply for modification of the certificate issued in Docket No. G-1573 by relinquishing authorization to construct the 263 mile 24-inch line which would connect Tennessee's Hebron field with Northeastern at a point on the New York-Massachusetts state line. This 263-mile line has not yet been built.

The requested facilities are in compliance with conditions contained in the Commission's order issued September 1, 1953, in Docket No. G-1969, and are proposed to be used to provide additional firm contracted demand service to Tennessee's present customers, as follows:

	Mcf per day
New York State Natural Gas Corp.	20,000
Iroquois Gas Corp.	10,000
Pennsylvania Gas Co.	5,000
Inland Gas Corp.	3,000
Louisville Gas & Electric Co.	1,000
Total	39,000

and to the following new customers at points of delivery near Newark, New Jersey, and White Plains, New York:

	Mcf per day
Consolidated Edison Co. of New York, Inc.	30,000
Public Service Electric & Gas Co. of New Jersey	30,000
The Brooklyn Union Gas Co.	25,000
Long Island Lighting Co.	5,000
Total	90,000

with storage service options to these new customers. In addition, the proposed facilities will provide Northeastern Gas Transmission Company, one of Tennessee's existing customers, with a new delivery point near Greenwich, Connecticut.

The estimated cost of construction is stated by Tennessee to be approximately $33,677,000, which it proposes to finance as a part of its overall financing program.

Protests or petitions to intervene in any of the above designated matters may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 27th day of January 1954.

The foregoing applications are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

[Docket No. G-2334]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO., AND INDEPENDENT NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 5, 1954.

Take notice that on December 14, 1953, Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern) and Independent Natural Gas Company (Independent), both Delaware corporations having their principal places of business at Omaha, Nebraska, filed a joint application, pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, wherein Independent, a wholly owned subsidiary of Northern, requests permission and approval to abandon by sale to Northern all of its facilities now owned and operated by it, and Northern seeks a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to acquire and operate such facilities.

The facilities involved include the Grayco Compressor Station in Gray County, Texas, approximately 21 miles of 20-inch pipeline extending from said compressor station northwesterly to a point of interconnection with facilities of Northern in Carson County, Texas, and appurtenant facilities. Through such facilities, Independent presently compresses, transports and sells to Northern an average of approximately 36,000 Mcf per day, and in addition compresses and transports for the account of Northern approximately 10,000 Mcf per day being purchased by Northern from Phillips Petroleum Company. Applicants state that the proposed acquisition will result in elimination of duplicating items of expense with consequent savings to Northern and its customers. Applicants further state that upon approval by the Commission of the proposed sale and acquisition Northern will assume all of the outstanding liabilities of Independent, outstanding common stock of Independent will be surrendered and cancelled, and Independent will be dissolved.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 25th day of January 1954. The application is on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-2338]

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 5, 1954.

Take notice that Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business in Boston, Massachusetts, filed, on December 17, 1953, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of the following natural-gas facilities:

(1) 100 feet of 4-inch lateral line connecting its existing transmission system with the proposed metering and regulating station at Peekskill, New York;

(2) One 4-inch main line tap;

(3) One 4-inch orifice measuring and regulating station;

(4) One secondary regulating station and connecting facilities;

(5) One gas scrubber.

The facilities are proposed to be used to sell and deliver to Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Consolidated), a maximum of 10,000 Mcf per day of natural gas on an emergency basis, thus providing an alternate supply to Consolidated, thereby providing emergency stand-by and improving the reliability of service to Consolidated's customers.

The estimated over-all cost of the proposed facilities is $29,570, which Applicant proposes to finance out of current funds with Consolidated reimbursing Applicant for expenses incurred, relative to the measuring station, up to $30,000.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 25th day of January 1954.

Applicant requests that this matter be considered under the shortened hearing procedure provided for in § 1.32 of the rules of practice and procedure. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-2339]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 5, 1954.

Take notice that on December 21, 1953, El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, having its principal place of business at El Paso, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities as hereinafter described.

The facilities which Applicant proposes to construct and operate are as follows:

(1) Approximately 13.3 miles of 12¾" O. D. pipeline extending from the section side of Applicant's existing Tucson main line compressor station located on the 26" and 30" California system in Pima County, Arizona, and continuing in a generally northeastwardly direction to a point in Pinal County, Arizona.

(2) Approximately 5.5 miles of an 8⅝" O. D. pipeline extending from the termination of the 12¾" line designated in item (1) above, in a northwestwardly direction to a point of delivery to the proposed Saguaro power plant located in Pinal County, Arizona.

(3) A sales meter station for the purpose of metering gas delivered to the proposed Saguaro power plant to be located at the terminus of the facility mentioned in item (2) above.

The proposed facilities will be utilized for the delivery and sale of natural gas to the Arizona Public Service Company for use by the company in the steam-generating plant, which is known as the Saguaro power plant and is located in Pinal County, Arizona.

The estimated annual requirements (stated in Mcf at 14.73 psia) and estimated peak day requirements for the first 3 full years of operation expected to be made to Arizona Public Service Company for use in its Saguaro power plant are as follows:

	Estimated requirements	Peak day requirements
		Summer	Winter
April through December 1954	3,774,172	24,075	12,037
January through March 1955	918,584		12,037
April through December 1955	9,445,077	50,577	24,075
Calendar year 1956	11,414,115	50,577	24,075
Calendar year 1957	12,340,800	50,577	24,075

The total estimated cost of the proposed facilities is approximately $479,879, which Applicant proposes to temporarily finance out of its current working funds.

The Applicant requests that its application be heard under the shortened procedure pursuant to § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 25th day of January 1954. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC., AND CUMBERLAND AND ALLEGHENY GAS CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF INSTALLMENT NOTES BY SUBSIDIARY TO HOLDING COMPANY

JANUARY 6, 1954.

The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and its wholly owned subsidiary Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company ("Cumberland" having filed a joint application with the Commission pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9, and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Cumberland, a West Virginia corporation, is a gas utility company operating in the States of West Virginia and Maryland. In order to provide additional cash required for its construction program, Cumberland proposes to issue and sell at par from time to time, but not later than March 31, 1954, and Columbia proposes to buy, $1,450,000 principal amount of Cumberland's __ Percent Installment Promissory Notes. Said Notes will become due in equal annual installments on February 15 of each of the years 1955 to 1979 inclusive. Interest on the unpaid principal will be payable semiannually on February 15 and August 15 at the rate of 4 percent per annum or such lower rate, being a multiple of ⅛th of 1 percent, as shall be not less than the cost of money to Columbia in its next sale of Debentures. Any Notes issued prior to the sale of Debentures by Columbia will bear interest at 4 percent per annum, subject to change as set forth above.

The issuance and sale of the proposed notes has been approved by the Public Service Commission of West Virginia, in which state Cumberland is organized and doing business.

The expenses of applicants in connection with the proposed transactions are estimated at $1,895 for Cumberland and $150 for Columbia.

It is requested that the Commission's order be expedited and made effective upon issuance.

Due notice having been given of the filing of the joint application, and a hearing not having been requested or ordered by the Commission; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary; and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application be granted forthwith, without the imposition of terms and conditions other than those prescribed in Rule U-24:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said joint application be granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

COMMONWEALTH EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR ACQUISITION OF SECURITIES BY AN EXEMPT HOLDING COMPANY AND FOR AN ORDER CONTINUING EXEMPTION HERETOFORE GRANTED APPLICANT

JANUARY 6, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Commonwealth Edison Company ("Edison"), an exempt holding company and an electric and gas public utility company, has filed with the Commission an application pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), regarding (a) the acquisition by Edison of certain shares of stock to be issued by Northern Illinois Gas Company ("Northern Illinois"), a corporation formed for the purpose of acquiring and operating the gas utility and heating properties of Edison, and (b) the issuance of an order continuing thereafter the exemption set forth in the Commission's order dated June 30, 1948, granting Edison an exemption from the provisions of the act. Applicant has designated sections 9 (a) (2) and 3 (a) (1) of the act and Rule U-23, promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 18, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the reasons for such request the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after January 18, 1954, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Edison, an Illinois corporation, is primarily engaged in the electric utility business supplying electric service in the city of Chicago, Illinois and in the northern part of Illinois. In addition, Edison is engaged in the distribution at retail of gas outside of the city of Chicago and in the northern part of Illinois. Edison also provides heating service to a limited number of customers outside the city of Chicago, Illinois. As of July 31, 1953, Edison's gas utility properties represented, on a consolidated basis, approximately 11 percent of its gross plant and accounted for approximately 14 percent of its total operating revenues for the 12 months ended on that date. It has two subsidiary companies, Sterling Hydraulic Company, an Illinois corporation, which presently holds title to a dam and certain water rights, but conducts no operations and Chicago District Electric Generating Corporation ("Chicago District"), an Indiana corporation and a public utility company, which owns and operates an electric generating station located in Indiana on the shore of Lake Michigan at the Illinois-Indiana State line. Edison purchases the major portion of Chicago District's output of electric energy and the remainder thereof is sold to Northern Indiana Public Service Company, a non-affiliated company operating in Indiana.

Edison proposes to separate its gas and heating properties from its electric facilities by the transfer of all of the gas and heating properties to a new corporation, Northern Illinois, formed under the laws of the State of Illinois for the purpose of acquiring and operating such gas and heating properties. Northern Illinois upon acquiring such properties will become a gas utility company under the act. The transfer of such properties will be made pursuant to the provisions of a Separation Agreement proposed to be entered into between Edison and Northern Illinois. Under the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement the following transactions are proposed:

Edison agrees, (a) to procure from the Trustee under its Mortgage Indenture dated July 1, 1923, as supplemented, the release from the lien of said mortgage of all of its gas properties and heating properties, together with certain franchises and inventories related thereto; (b) to subject the gas properties (with certain exceptions) to the lien of a new Indenture, dated January 1, 1954, with the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, as Trustee, providing for the issuance as the initial series, of $60,000,000 principal amount of Edison's Gas Divisional Lien Bonds; (c) to issue and sell said bonds to underwriters to be selected by Edison and to deposit the entire purchase price derived from such sale with the Trustee under Edison's existing mortgage; and (d) to transfer and convey to Northern Illinois the gas properties, subject to the lien of the new Indenture securing its Gas Divisional Lien Bonds, together with the heating properties, and certain franchises and inventories related to said properties, in exchange for 5,500,000 shares of common stock, par value $5 per share, of Northern Illinois, representing all of the common stock of Northern Illinois to be initially issued, plus an additional number of shares of said common stock (to be determined as hereinafter set forth as soon as practicable after such initial issuance). In addition Edison proposes, in order to provide Northern Illinois with working capital, to purchase from Northern Illinois 100,000 shares of its 5 percent Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $100 per share, proposed to be issued by Northern Illinois, for a consideration of $10,000,000.

Northern Illinois, as consideration for the transfer and conveyance to it of the aforesaid gas and heating properties, agrees, (1) to adopt as its own the Indenture dated January 1, 1954, securing the aforesaid Gas Divisional Lien Bonds proposed to be issued by Edison and to assume the payment thereof as the sole obligor under said Indenture; (2) to assume certain other liabilities of Edison; and (3) to issue and deliver to Edison the aforesaid 5,500,000 shares of its common stock, par value $5 per share, representing all of its common stock to be initially outstanding, plus an additional number of shares to be determined as hereinafter set out; and (4) to issue and sell to Edison the aforesaid 100,000 shares of its 5 percent Convertible Preferred Stock for a consideration of $10,000,000.

The additional number of shares of common stock of Northern Illinois to be issued and delivered to Edison in excess of the aforesaid 5,500,000 shares of common stock to be issued to Edison will be determined as follows:

There will be deducted from the book value of the gas utility and heating assets as determined by Edison from its books at the close of business on a day to be determined, the total of (1) the sum of the amounts of accrued depreciation allocable to the gas utility assets and the heating assets, respectively, (2) the aggregate principal amount of Edison's Gas Divisional Lien Bonds assumed by Northern Illinois, (3) the aggregate amount of certain other undetermined liabilities assumed by Northern Illinois, and (4) the amount of $55,000,000; and by dividing the remainder by $10, the resulting quotient (dropping any fractions) being the number of such additional shares of common stock of Northern Illinois to be issued to Edison.

Applicant states that of the 5,500,000 shares of common stock of Northern Illinois to be issued, 100 shares will be issued against incorporators' subscriptions assigned to Edison and will be deemed to have been paid for by a $1,000 undivided portion, in net book value, of the gas and heating assets transferred to Northern Illinois.

Northern Illinois' authorized capital stock will consist of 250,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $100 per share and 12,500,000 shares of common stock, par value $5 per share. Upon completion of the transfer of the gas and heating properties of Edison to Northern Illinois, the outstanding securities of Northern Illinois will initially consist of $60,000,000 principal amount of bonds, $10,000,000 of 5 percent convertible preferred stock, par value $100 per share, (each share convertible into 10 shares of common stock after January 31, 1957) and $27,500,000 of common stock of the par value of $5 per share, plus the par value of any additional shares issued as heretofore indicated.

Edison is subject to the jurisdiction of the Illinois Commerce Commission and Northern Illinois upon consummation of the proposed transactions will be subject to the jurisdiction of that Commission. The proposed transactions, including the proposed acquisition of securities by Edison, are subject to approval of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Edison, in support of its proposal to acquire the securities of Northern Illinois and of its request for the continuance of its exemption under section 3 (a) (1) of the act, represents, among other things, that the corporate structure of the Edison system has been materially simplified since 1948; that the proposed separation of its electric and gas operations will be a desirable objective under the act; that the gas operations of Edison will be benefited by their transfer to a new company concentrating on their development; and that the operating effectiveness of Edison as an electric utility will also be enhanced. With respect to its application for the continuance of its exemption Edison states that no material part of its income is derived from its subsidiary, Chicago District, and that upon consummation of the proposed transactions Northern Illinois will be a public utility company organized and operating wholly within Illinois.

Edison requests that the Commission's order herein issue pursuant to Rule U-23 on or before January 19, 1954, and that such order become effective upon issuance.

By the Commission.

[No. 31375]

NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN & HARTFORD RAILROAD CO.

MOVEMENT OF HIGHWAY TRAILERS BY RAIL

JANUARY 6, 1954.

The Commission has assigned to Division 3 for administrative handling the petition of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company for a declaratory order, under section 5 (d) of the Administrative Procedure Act, to remove a number of uncertainties concerning the legal relations, limitations, and obligations incident to the transportation of highway trailers on railroad flat cars. Under section 5 (d) the Commission may issue a declaratory order "to terminate a controversy or remove uncertainty."

The New Haven petition seeks to ascertain from the Commission whether its trailer-on-flat-car service lawfully may be confined to the transportation of motor common carrier trailers, to those of motor common carriers and private carriers, or to a limited number of motor common carriers and private carriers; whether it may refuse such service to contract carriers; private carriers, or freight forwarders; whether, in this service, through-route and joint-rate arrangements may be established with motor common and contract carriers and freight forwarders; what tariff-publishing requirements are applicable and must be observed; and it seeks answers to several other questions arising from these operations.

The Commission has also taken note of the widespread carrier and public interest in the movement of highway trailers on flat cars. This transportation development has been the subject of widespread press comment, both news and editorial, which reflects anxiety and uncertainty in culminating business arrangements relating thereto on the part of carriers and shippers. It has also been the subject of resolutions adopted by carrier and labor groups of national scope. A matter currently of much interest among carriers is the question whether a railroad may transport its own freight in trailers on flat cars without holding therefor a motor carrier certificate issued under part II of the Interstate Commerce Act. In sum, the widespread interest in this matter by carriers, shippers, and the public generally requires more than ordinary attention on the part of the Commission.

Division 3 has therefore been authorized by the Commission to proceed under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, the end result of which will be somewhat broader than the requested proceeding under section 5 (d) of that act. The Division proposes, under the foregoing docket number and title, to construct proposed rules governing this area of transportation, after consultation with the various bureaus of the Commission that are involved, and after studying other available data bearing on the subject, particularly the petition filed by the New Haven and any others that may be filed as this matter progresses. Such proposed rules will be published at an early date, as contemplated by section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act. Thereafter a conference probably will be held with interested parties, looking toward a hearing before Division 3 or its Chairman, and/or oral argument before the Commission all to the end of formulating rules that will enable this type of transportation to develop, if it is otherwise destined to do so, with a minimum of legal controversy and uncertainty.

The Division also invites and will receive suggestions from interested parties for formulation of the proposed rules on or before February 15, 1954, and expresses the hope that this matter progress to an early conclusion.

By the Commission, Division 3.

§ 31.112 Grade 44's wool top. Wool top of grade 44's shall be top the average fiber diameter of which is within the range of 35.2 microns to 37.0 microns, inclusive, and the fiber diameter dispersion of which shall meet the following requirements:

10.0 microns to 40 microns, inclusive: Not less than 62 percent.
40.1 microns and over: Not more than 38 percent.
60.1 microns and over: Not more than 2 percent.

§ 31.113 Grade 40's wool top. Wool top of grade 40's shall be top the average fiber diameter of which is within the range of 37.1 microns to 38.9 microns, inclusive, and the fiber diameter dispersion of which shall meet the following requirements:

10.0 microns to 40 microns, inclusive: Not less than 54 percent.
40.1 microns and over: Not more than 46 percent.
60.1 microns and over: Not more than 3 percent.

§ 31.114 Grade 36's wool top. Wool top of grade 36's shall be top the average fiber diameter of which is within the range of 39.0 microns to 41.2 microns, inclusive, and the fiber diameter dispersion of which shall meet the following requirements:

10.0 microns to 40 microns, inclusive: Not less than 44 percent.
40.1 microns and over: Not more than 56 percent.
60.1 microns and over: Not more than 4 percent.

§ 31.151 Practical forms; method of obtaining; conditions. (a) Practical forms of the official standards of the United States for grades of wool top, namely:

Sets: Grades 80's to 36's, inclusive, complete series, mounted specimens;
Demonstrator types: Grades 80's to 36's, inclusive, individually packaged;
Balls: 80's to 58's, inclusive, individual, approximately 10 pounds in weight, when available;

certified under the signature of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service or other official duly authorized by him, will be furnished, subject to the other conditions of this section, upon filing of an approved application and prepayment of costs thereof as fixed by § 31.152.

(b) Each application for practical forms of the official wool top standards shall be upon a blank furnished or approved by the Agricultural Marketing Service, shall be signed by the applicant, and shall be accompanied by certified check, draft, post office money order, or express money order, payable to the "Treasurer of the United States," in an amount to cover the cost of the forms requested, and shall incorporate the following conditions:

(1) That no practical form of the official wool top standards shall be considered or used as representing such standards after cancellation in accordance with this section, or after any subsequent revision of such standards.

(2) That the said practical forms shall be subject to inspection on any business day, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., by the Secretary or by any duly authorized officer or agent of the Department of Agriculture.

(3) That the certificate covering any practical form may be revoked and canceled if it is found upon such inspection that the said practical form is not representative of the official standards.

§ 31.152 Cost of practical forms.—(a) Sets. $20.00 each, f. o. b. shipping point.

(b) Demonstrator types. $2.00 each, delivered to destination within the continental United States.

(c) Balls. $40.00 each, f. o. b. shipping point.

§ 31.153 Loaning of practical forms. In the discretion of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, limited numbers of the practical forms of the official standards of the United States for grades of wool tops, or samples or exhibits illustrating such standards, may be loaned to governmental agencies or to educational and other institutions or organizations for demonstration purposes.

§ 31.154 Determination of conformity. The determination of conformity of wool top with the official standards of the United States for grades of wool top shall be made in accordance with methods prescribed by the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service, copies of which may be obtained from the Administrator on request.

The foregoing amendments provide specifications in terms of microns for the five grades, 48's to 36's, inclusive, standards for which were previously expressed by visually classified physical samples only. The changes also provide for the addition of a new grade designated as 54's and for minor revisions in fiber distribution requirements for grades 80's to 50's, previously defined on a micron basis.

These amendments shall become effective on the first day of January 1955.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of January 1954.

[SEAL] ORIS V. WELLS, Administrator,
Agricultural Marketing Service.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

PART 36—SHELLFISH; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY; FILL OF CONTAINER

PACIFIC OYSTERS

In the matter of amending the definitions and standards of identity for Pacific oysters, raw Pacific oysters, shucked Pacific oysters:

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371; 67 Stat. 18), and upon the basis of substantial evidence received at the public hearing held pursuant to the notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 18, 1953, no exceptions having been filed to the proposed order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 19, 1953 (18 F. R. 7323), the following order is hereby promulgated:

Findings of fact.[1] 1. The existing definitions and standards of identity for raw Pacific oysters were promulgated on evidence received at a public hearing held in 1945. At that time a substantial volume of the production of raw Pacific oysters was packed for sale on contract to the armed services. The basis of bids for Government orders required that the size of raw Pacific oysters be indicated by count per pound or pint. Raw Pacific oysters packed for the civilian market were packed in pint jars, and there was no general usage of containers smaller than pints. The standards promulgated upon the basis of evidence received at the hearing held in 1945 specified names for the various sizes of raw Pacific oysters as follows: "Pacific oysters size ____ per pint," "Raw Pacific oysters size ____ per pint," or "Shucked Pacific oysters size ____ per pint," the blank in each instance being filled in with "5 to 8," "8 to 10," "10 to 12," "12 to 15," "15 to 18," or "over 18," depending upon the size of the oysters in the container. Beginning in September 1952, packers of raw Pacific oysters began to pack their product in 12-fluidounce jars. Within a short time only a small portion of the production of raw Pacific oysters was packed in pint jars, while approximately 80 percent of the production was distributed in 12-fluidounce jars. The labeling of raw Pacific oysters packed in 12-fluidounce jars, with the names showing the count per pint as specified in the standard, proved to be confusing and misleading to consumers. (R. 20-30, 32-35, 41, 71-72, 75-77, 79-81, 83-84, 86, 91, 99-101; Ex. 2-3, 5-7, 9-12, 19, 22, 27, 30)

2. Although existing definitions and standards of identity applicable to raw Pacific oysters provide for six size categories, based upon count per pint, producers of raw Pacific oysters do not customarily pack their product in more than three or four size categories. In displaying offerings of raw Pacific oysters in retail outlets, retailers have employed the terms "large," "medium," "small," and "extra small" to describe the sizes of Pacific oysters available. Retail dealers have also used these terms in their advertisements. Designation of the size of raw Pacific oysters by the terms "large," "medium," "small," and "extra small" is suitable not only for pints but is equally suitable for containers of other sizes. Recipes for oysters in most cookbooks recite cooking times based on the time required to cook raw oysters that come from the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts. Pacific oysters are significantly larger than oysters harvested on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts and require slower and longer cooking to be rendered palatable. Housewives need recipes that give directions for cooking Pacific oysters. Amending the existing standards to provide for using the size designations "large," "medium," "small," and "extra small" will facilitate writing such recipes for distribution to housewives. (R. 21, 36, 39-40, 56, 62-63, 65, 70, 74, 78, 81, 83, 96-97; Ex. 6, 8, 14, 20-22, 25, 27, 30)

3. Evidence was adduced that the division of raw Pacific oysters into six size categories, as provided for in the existing standards, results in considerable overlapping of sizes to the disadvantage of consumer purchasers. Reduction of the number of size categories to four would reduce such overlapping. (R. 56, 62, 70, 82, 85, 95; Ex. 13, 16-17, 23, 26, 28, 30)

4. The term "large," as applied to raw Pacific oysters, applies to oysters of such size that a gallon contains not more than 64 such oysters. The term "medium," as applied to raw Pacific oysters, applies to oysters of such size that a gallon contains more than 64 and not more than 96 such oysters. The term "small," as applied to raw Pacific oysters, applies to oysters of such size that a gallon contains more than 96 and not more than 144 such oysters. The term "extra small," as applied to raw Pacific oysters, applies to oysters of such size that a gallon contains more than 144 such oysters. The oysters in each of the above size categories are of such uniform size that the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein. (R. 88-89; Ex. 1)

It is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to amend the definitions and standards of identity applicable to raw Pacific oysters by revoking §§ 36.17 to 36.22, inclusive (21 CFR 36.17-36.22, inclusive), and by promulgating new sections to read as follows:

§ 36.17 Large Pacific oysters, large raw Pacific oysters, large shucked Pacific oysters; identity. Large Pacific oysters, large raw Pacific oysters, large shucked Pacific oysters, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definitions and standards of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that 1 gallon contains not more than 64 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.18 Medium Pacific oysters, medium raw Pacific oysters, medium shucked Pacific oysters; identity. Medium Pacific oysters, medium raw Pacific oysters, medium shucked Pacific oysters, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that 1 gallon contains more than 64 oysters and not more than 96 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.19 Small Pacific oysters, small raw Pacific oysters, small shucked Pacific oysters; identity. Small Pacific oysters, small raw Pacific oysters, small shucked Pacific oysters, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that 1 gallon contains more than 96 oysters and not more than 144 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

§ 36.20 Extra small Pacific oysters, extra small raw Pacific oysters, extra small shucked Pacific oysters; identity. Extra small Pacific oysters, extra small raw Pacific oysters, extra small shucked Pacific oysters, are of the species Ostrea gigas and conform to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for oysters by § 36.10 and are of such size that 1 gallon contains more than 144 oysters, and the largest oyster in the container is not more than twice the weight of the smallest oyster therein.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the nintieth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 141—TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY FOR ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended by 61 Stat. 11, 63 Stat. 409, 67 Stat. 389; sec. 701, 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U. S. C. 357, 371; 67 Stat. 18), the regulations for tests and methods of assay for antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR 1952 Supp., Part 141; 18 F. R. 5366, 6318, 7309) and certification of batches of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR, 1952 Supp., Part 146; 18 F. R. 3832, 3930) are amended as indicated below:

1. Section 141.201 (b) is amended to read:

§ 141.201 Chlortetracycline hydrochloride. • • •

(b) Sterility. Using 40 milligrams from each container tested, proceed as directed in § 141.2, except that neither penicillinase nor the control tube is used in the test for bacteria.

2. In § 141.204 Chlortetracycline capsules; tetracycline capsules, paragraph (a) Potency is amended by changing the words "Using 1 capsule of 250 milligrams or 5 capsules of 50 milligrams" to read: "Using 3 capsules of 250 milligrams or 5 capsules of 100 milligrams or 50 milligrams".

3. In § 146.28 Crystalline penicillin G oral suspension • • •, paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • •, the first sentence is amended to read: "Crystalline penicillin G oral suspension is crystalline penicillin G sodium or potassium penicillin G and one or more suitable and harmless suspending or dispersing agents and preservatives, with or without one or more suitable sulfonamides and suitable and harmless buffer substances, colorings, and flavorings, suspended in a suitable and harmless vehicle."

4. Section 146.108 Streptomycin syrup • • • is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (a) Standards of identity • • • is amended by deleting the period at the end of the second sentence and adding the words "or bismuth glycolylarsanilate."

b. Paragraph (c) (1) (v) is amended to read:

(c) Labeling. • • •
(1) • • •
(v) If it contains pectin, kaolin, or bismuth glycolylarsanilate, the quantity of each such ingredient used and the name of the gel base.

c. Paragraph (c) is further amended by renumbering subparagraph (3) as (4) and adding the following new subparagraph (3):

(3) On the label and labeling, if it contains bismuth glycolylarsanilate, after the name "Streptomycin and kaolin in gel" or "Dihydrostreptomycin and kaolin in gel," wherever it appears, the words "with bismuth glycolylarsanilate," in juxtaposition with such name.

5. Section 146.201 Chlortetracycline hydrochloride • • • is amended as follows:

a. Paragraph (d) (2) and (3) is amended to read:

(d) Request for certification, check tests and assays; samples. • • •

(2) If such batch is packaged for dispensing, such person shall submit with his request an accurately representative sample of the batch, consisting of the following:

(i) For all tests except sterility; 1 immediate container for each 5,000 immediate containers in such batch, but in no case less than 8 or more than 15 immediate containers.

(ii) For sterility testing; 10 immediate containers.

Such sample shall be collected by taking single immediate containers at such intervals throughout the entire time of packaging the batch that the quantities packaged during the intervals are approximately equal.

(3) If such batch is packaged for repacking or for use as an ingredient in the manufacture of another drug, such person shall submit with his request an accurately representative sample of the batch, consisting of the following:

(i) For all tests except sterility; 5 packages, each containing approximately 0.5 gram.

(ii) For sterility testing; 10 packages, each containing approximately 40 milligrams.

Each such package shall be packaged in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section.

b. Paragraph (e) (1) is amended to read:

(e) Fees. • • •

(1) $10.00 for each immediate container in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (2) (i), (3) (i), and (4) of this section.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay providing for the amendments set forth above.

This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter F—Personnel

PART 571—RECRUITING AND ENLISTMENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 571.1 (b), a new subparagraph (3) is added as follows:

§ 571.1 General. • • •
(b) Definitions. • • •
(3) The period "3 months" commences on the day following that of discharge or separation and ends with the day of the month 3 months later which corresponds to the date of discharge or separation.

• • • • •

2. In § 571.2, paragraphs (a) (1) (v), (2) (iv), (e) and (h) (8) (iii) are amended and paragraph (g) is revoked as follows:

§ 571.2 Qualifications for enlistment—(a) Age—(1) Male. • • •
(v) Men last separated from the Regular Army with an honorable or general discharge and commissioned officers or warrant officers relieved from active duty in the Army under honorable conditions may be enlisted in the Regular Army within 3 months after date of such discharge or relief from active duty, without regard to the maximum age restrictions prescribed above.
(2) Female. • • •
(iv) Women last separated from the Regular Army with an honorable discharge and female commissioned officers or warrant officers relieved from active duty in the Army under honorable conditions may be enlisted in the Regular Army within 3 months after date of such discharge or relief from active duty, without regard to the maximum age restrictions prescribed in this subparagraph.

• • • • •

(e) Police clearance, all applicants. Prior to enlistment of applicants, except those who enlist within 3 months from date of discharge from any of the Armed Forces, recruiting installations will communicate with the police in each town where such applicant has resided for a period of 6 months or more in the previous 3 year period. When reply from police is not received within 21 days, applicant may be enlisted provided the individual is the type desired by the Army and every effort has been made to check character through local sources.

* * * * *

(g) Enlistment restrictions for persons last discharged below grades E–3 and E–2. [Revoked.]

* * * * *

(h) Classes ineligible for enlistment.

(8) Applicants with records of other offenses. * * *

(iii) Minor offenses. Male applicants with records of minor offenses may be granted waivers for enlistment by recruiting main station commanders, if as a result of an investigation, it is determined that applicant will be an asset to the service and is otherwise qualified. These offenses include minor traffic violations and single cases of drunkeness, vagrancy, truancy, peace disturbance, etc., for which no type of civil restraint is imposed. Notation of waivers granted will be recorded as prescribed in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph. No waivers will be granted for WAC applicants, except for minor traffic violations.

* * * * *

3. In § 571.3 (a) paragraph (4) is amended as follows:

§ 571.3 Periods and grades—(a) Periods of enlistment. * * *

(4) In addition to the options authorized in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the reenlistment of individuals who were discharged from the Regular Army and who reenlist in permanent grade E–7, E–6, or E–5 within 3 months after date of last discharge are authorized to reenlist in the Regular Army for an unspecified period of time on a career basis. Regular Army enlisted persons serving in permanent grade E–7, E–6, or E–5 who have less than 1 year remaining in their current enlistment may be discharged for the convenience of the Government for the purpose of reenlisting for an unspecified period of time, provided enlistment is accomplished the day following discharge. Discharge prior to expiration of term of service (ETS) for the purpose of reenlisting for an unspecified period of time is not mandatory, and responsible commanders will approve such discharges only when it is determined that such action will serve the best interest of the Army. An individual whose last period of active Federal service in the Army was in the status of a commissioned officer or warrant officer is eligible for enlistment under this paragraph, provided such individual was serving on Federal active duty in grade E–7, E–6, or E–5 immediately prior to entry on active duty as a commissioned officer or warrant officer; such commissioned or warrant officer service has been continuous since entry thereon; and enlistment is accomplished in grade E–7, E–6, or E–5 within 3 months from date of relief from active duty. The following are special conditions governing reenlistment for an unspecified period of time:

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 119—INDEMNITY

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In Part 119—Indemnity: Regular (Postal Union) Mail, make the following changes:

1. Amend the caption to read "Indemnity."

2. Amend § 119.1 Limits of indemnity for lost foreign registered matter to read as follows:

§ 119.1 Limits of indemnity for lost foreign registered matter—(a) Postmasters authorized to pay claims. Postmasters at Chicago, Illinois; New Orleans, Louisiana; New York, New York, and San Francisco, California, are authorized to pay indemnity claims arising from the loss, rifling, or damage of international registered (Postal Union and Parcel Post) and insured mail and Americo-Spanish ordinary parcel post.

(b) Forms to be used. Form 565 shall be used in claiming indemnity for loss, rifling or damage of international registered mail and for loss of registered c. o. d. mail (Mexico only). Form 2855 shall be used in the case of loss, rifling, or damage of international insured and Americo-Spanish registered or ordinary parcel post and for shortage of nonreceipt of c. o. d. charges on international c. o. d. mail. No c. o. d. service is available to any country except to Mexico. The registered c. o. d. mail service to Mexico will be discontinued effective February 1, 1954.

(c) Source of receipt of claims. Under existing regulations all preliminary investigations of complaints of loss, rifling or damage of international registered or ordinary mail and all inquiries concerning the disposal of international insured mail are undertaken by the Bureau of the Chief Post Office Inspector and at certain designated post offices (Brooklyn, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, New York, Philadelphia, and San Francisco). Therefore, completed Forms 565 and 2855 and supporting papers will be received from Post Office Inspectors in Charge and those seven post offices. Forms 2855 will invariably relate to Americo-Spanish ordinary parcel post and to some cases of international insured parcels only where an inquiry concerning disposal developed into a case of loss. Completed Forms 2855 and supporting papers relating to international insured mail will be received principally from post offices and from Canadian Post Office Inspectors in case of insured mail to Canada.

(d) Limits of indemnity; principal exceptions. The limits of indemnity payable, the extent of the application of the indemnity feature to international mail, and the principal exceptions to the payment of indemnity are set forth in §§ 127.161 to 127.169 of this chapter. Additional exceptions are contained in the country items in §§ 127.201 to 127.383 of this chapter.

(e) Responsibility. The country of origin shall be responsible for the loss, rifling or damage of insured mail exchanged with Canada and undertake the payment of indemnity in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations. Therefore, this Country alone is responsible in the case of insured mail originating therein and addressed for delivery in Canada. In the case of insured parcels exchanged with countries other than Canada, and registered parcels to other countries except Americo-Spanish, responsibility of the country of origin or destination (or intermediation where provided for) is determined in accordance with the provisions of the individual or bilateral parcel post convention under which the parcel was accepted. The Madrid Convention and parcel post agreement of the Postal Union of Americas and Spain apply to registered Postal Union mail and to registered and ordinary parcel post, respectively, for countries of that Union. The Universal Postal Union Convention of Brussels, which became effective on July 1, 1953, governs the question of responsibility for loss (contents and wrapper) of registered Postal Union mail exchanged with other countries. In general, responsibility, in the case of insured mail (except Canada) and Americo-Spanish registered or ordinary parcel post, rests with the country whose exchange office of first receipt failed to issue a bulletin of verification promptly reporting the loss, rifling or damage. Responsibility for the loss of Postal Union registered mail is, until the contrary is proved, incumbent upon the Administration which, having received the article without making any observation, and having been furnished all the required particulars for making an investigation, cannot establish either delivery to the addressee or regular transmission to the next Administration, as the case may be. In any instance (including cases involving bulkbilled mail) in which it is not possible to establish where the loss, rifling or damage occurred, responsibility is assumed in equal shares by the Administrations concerned. Bulkbilling of Postal Union registered articles of nominal value (air and surface) is in effect with Australia, Denmark, Germany (British, American and French Zones), Great Britain, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Yugoslavia. The bulkbilling of registered Postal Union mail to Argentina is limited to AO articles. Ordinary parcels are bulkbilled to Peru and Argentina.

(f) When payment shall be made. (1) Upon receipt of completed Forms 565 and 2855 and supporting papers showing loss, rifling or damage in this country or accompanied with acknowledgement by the other country of loss in its service of Postal Union registered article of United States origin, or loss, rifling or damage of Americo-Spanish registered or ordinary parcel post of United States origin and with authority to indemnify the sender on its behalf, paying exchange offices shall pay indemnity by check, using the same accounting forms prescribed for reporting domestic indemnity payments. The full particulars such as the date, reference number, and complete title and address borne by the letter authorizing payment shall be recorded on Form 2870. If no authorization to pay accompanies the acknowledgement of loss, a letter shall be sent referring to the acknowledgement and stating that payment of indemnity within the prescribed conventional limits is being undertaken and that credit will be claimed in a future Postal Account in anticipation of the concurrence of the other Postal Administration. The same action shall be taken upon the receipt of completed Forms 565 and 2855 and supporting papers for consideration of the indemnity feature, due to failure of the other country to reply to official communications, except that a reminder (Form 2830–a) shall first be sent and a reasonable time allowed for reply. A longer period may be allowed distant countries, but not exceeding sixty days at most. If no reply is received within the conventional period of six months Form 2830 shall be written in triplicate and sent stating that payment has been made and that credit will be claimed in a future Postal Account. A copy of the letter of authorization (or notice of payment) or Form 2830 (in duplicate) with full particulars of the check issued, shall be forwarded to the Controller, Bureau of the Controller, Division of Accounting, Washington 25, D. C., for appropriate attention. The jacket shall be endorsed "Failure to Reply" where applicable and reference made to the specific conventional provisions under which payment was made due to failure to reply.

(2) Claims covering loss, rifling or damage of insured mail to and from Canada will continue to be made the subject of correspondence with the proper Canadian District Post Office Inspector as outlined in § 127.227 of this chapter. However, claims covering loss, rifling or damage of insured mail to countries other than Canada shall be made the subject of inquiry by the paying exchange office of the country of destination in the following manner:

If a case of loss is involved, Form 2803–a (if full particulars of dispatch can be furnished) shall be used. If no particulars of dispatch can be furnished, the claim shall be paid and the relative papers and jacket endorsed "U. S. Responsible," provided that the sender furnishes the report from the addressee on which the claim is based. If no report from the addressee can be furnished the claimant shall be informed that the claim must necessarily be held in abeyance pending receipt thereof. In loss cases, the report must allow a reasonable time for dispatching conditions and customs formalities. Letters shall be written in cases of damage or rifling, where it can be stated that the parcel was dispatched in good condition (sealed in rifling cases) and that no bulletin of verification was received. Complete mailing and dispatching particulars with a full description of the contents (including value) and the method of packing shall be furnished. It shall be pointed out that the weight of evidence indicates that the rifling or damage occurred subsequent to opening for customs purposes and that responsibility rests with the other country by reason of its failure to issue a bulletin of verification. Request shall be made that advice be furnished concerning the outcome of the investigation which will doubtless be made and its views on the question of indemnity. Upon receipt of reply acknowledging responsibility for loss, rifling, or damage indemnity shall be paid as previously outlined for Postal Union registered mail and registered or ordinary Americo-Spanish parcel post.

(g) Indemnity may be paid specially. (1) Pending the outcome of the investigation of the other country, indemnity may be paid specially in cases of loss of insured or registered mail where the indemnity claimed is $50.00 or less, provided that the submitted report of nonreceipt from the addressee is dated a reasonable time after the mail would have been delivered in regular course.

(2) If the case was paid specially and the other country acknowledges responsibility or suggests that the countries involved assume responsibility in equal shares on the ground that it has not been possible to establish where the mistreatment occurred, the reply shall be forwarded to the Regional Accounting Office for inclusion with the original papers, furnishing particulars of approval. At the same time, a copy of the correspondence shall be forwarded to the Controller, Bureau of the Controller, Division of Accounting, Washington 25, D. C., for appropriate attention, including cases where the suggestion covering equal responsibility is rejected. The same procedure shall be followed if the reply relates to a case of loss already paid specially and establishes that responsibility rests with this Service by reason of the issuance of a bulletin of verification, except that no correspondence shall be forwarded to the Controller.

(3) If it develops from the reply of the other country that the indemnity is no longer properly payable, the payee shall be informed of the tenor of the reply and requested to refund the indemnity paid specially. The amount recovered shall be scheduled on the reverse side of Form 3841–R.

(4) If no reply is received from the other country within the period (usually nine months) specified in the bilateral parcel post convention with the other country concerned, payment shall be made under the conditions previously outlined for Postal Union registered mail and Americo-Spanish registered or ordinary parcel post.

(h) When responsibility rests with the United States; disposition of claim papers. (1) In the event that completed Forms 565 or 2855 and supporting papers received show that responsibility rests with this country for the loss of Postal Union registered mail and for loss, rifling or damage of Americo-Spanish registered or ordinary parcel post, the country of origin (including Canada if registered Postal Union mail is involved) shall be notified accordingly and authorized to indemnify the sender on behalf of this Postal Administration within the limits prescribed by the convention applicable. Form 2804–c shall be used (Form 2804–b if arrangements have been made under which indemnity reimbursements are settled quarterly). Such arrangements are in effect with Austria, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Germany (Western Zone), Great Britain and Northern Ireland and Poland.

(2) In any case in which authority is granted to pay indemnity either in full or in equal shares, the jacket shall be endorsed "CR" in the upper left-hand corner and all related papers forwarded to the Controller, Bureau of the Controller, Division of Accounting, Washington 25, D. C., for appropriate attention, including cases involving quarterly settlement countries.

(i) Complaints concerning insured mail from countries other than Canada. Complaints of loss, rifling or damage made by the sender of insured mail originating in countries other than Canada will be received by the selected paying exchange offices through the Bureau of Transportation, Division of International Service, in the inverse order of the receipt of claims relating to outgoing insured mail destined to the same countries, except that such complaints made by addressees will be received from postmasters in this Country. Forms 2843 or 2843–b (if another exchange office is involved) shall be used by paying exchange offices where necessary in having the claim papers (Form 2855) completed. Form 2804–b (in the case of quarterly settlement countries) shall be sent if responsibility for the loss rests with this Country. Form 2804–c shall be sent to other countries. If there is no record of delivery and the addressee furnished a written statement of non-receipt and it is established that no bulletin of verification was issued reporting nonreceipt of the insured parcel involved, the United States Postal Service is responsible. Forms 2804–b or 2804–c shall also be sent in cases where it is found that responsibility for rifling or damage rests with this Country. If it is established that the seals of the parcel, upon receipt by the addressee, were broken (presumably for customs examination), but the parcel did not contain the usual customs rifling or damage notice, or, if received in bad condition by the post office of delivery it shall be concluded that the rifling or damage occurred subsequent to opening for customs purposes and that the United States Postal Service is responsible. If, however, it is established that the seals were not broken and the parcel was in good outward condition on delivery, a letter shall be written to the other Postal Administration stating that fact and that the rifling or damage was discovered only upon opening by the addressee and suggest that responsibility be assumed in equal shares by the two Postal Administrations on the ground that it cannot be determined where the rifling or damage occurred. The letter shall conclude by stating that in the event that the proposal is accepted, credit for one-half of the amount paid may be claimed in a future Postal Account or in the usual manner (quarterly settlement country only).

(j) Claimants to be informed of decision. Paying exchange offices shall notify claimants where the amount claimed is not allowed or the claim is disallowed, stating the reason for the amount allowed or for the rejection of the claim.

(k) Deficient insurance fees. If the insurance fee is deficient and the fee is less than the minimum insurance fee authorized the amount of the deficiency may be deducted from the indemnity payable and appropriate explanation furnished the payee. The minimum insurance only may be paid under such circumstances. The same procedure shall be followed where full coverage was requested at the time of mailing but the fee collected was unauthorized, and indemnity paid for full value.

(l) Restriction in payee. Payment of indemnity is restricted to the sender under the two Postal Union Conventions and the Americo-Spanish Parcel Post Agreement. However, the sender of insured mail may waive his prior right to indemnity in favor of the addressee or owner.

(m) "Force majeure" (causes beyond control). All cases requiring a decision as to whether the loss, rifling, or damage was due to "force majeure" shall be submitted to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Transportation, Division of International Service, Washington 25, D. C.

(n) Time limit. Except in case of insured mail to Canada, first complaint (oral or written) shall be made within one year counting from the day following the date of mailing. In the case of insured mail to Canada, the complaint shall be made within six months from the date of mailing unless it is satisfactorily shown that the delay was unavoidable and due to no fault of the claimant. In this event, the time limit may be waived and the claim papers certified accordingly.

(o) Refund of customs duty. According to the Commissioner of Customs, who has jurisdiction over the matter of refund of Customs duty, merchandise imported by mail is dutiable in the condition in which received (found by examining Customs Officer) and the Treasury Department is without authority to refund or reduce duty as a result of loss or damage to merchandise after it has passed from Customs custody.

(p) Commercial insurance. Pursuant to the provisions of section 381a of title 39, United States Code, all claims for indemnity involving registered mail, or insured mail, or c. o. d. mail, which is also insured with commercial insurance companies or other insuring agencies, shall be adjusted by the Post Office Department on a pro rata basis as a coinsurer with the commercial insurance companies or other insuring agencies. This provision equally applies to claims for indemnity involving ordinary parcel post packages mailed under the Americo-Spanish Agreement relative to parcel post. Therefore, a Declaration of Insurance Company (Form 2828) shall be completed in each instance in order to pay indemnity on a pro rata basis. Payment to the commercial insurance company of the share of the Postal Service as coinsurer under the principle of subrogation shall be made only where the company has compensated the sender in full.

(q) Declared value on customs declaration. Postal Administrations assume no liability for the correctness of Customs Declarations. Therefore, indemnity may not be paid in excess of the value declared in the relative Customs Declaration, if known, although the parcel may have been insured for a greater amount.

(r) Proof of value: extent of damage. Valuations and the nature and extent of damage stated in claim papers shall be given close attention. Valuations of $25.00 or less which appear reasonable or those quoted by reliable business concerns may be accepted without question.

(s) Signatures of sender and addressee. It is especially important that the signatures of the sender and addressee on the applications for indemnity and their names as stated in the Declaration correspond exactly. (Example: If the full name is shown as "John Albert Smith," each name shall be signed in full; not simply "J. A. Smith" or "John A. Smith".)

(t) Delivery of mail. Responsibility of the Postal Service ceases upon delivery of registered or insured mail in accordance with the domestic regulations of the country of destination for articles of the same nature.

(u) Waiver of declaration of addressee. In case of insured mail to Canada or other insured mail where responsibility rests with this Country, the Declaration of Addressee may be waived under the conditions set forth in section 18.23 of the Postal Laws and Regulations of 1948, particularly in the case of gifts.

(v) Insured letters and boxes via air carrier. In case of loss of insured letters and boxes while in transit through this Country or while in the custody of United States flag air carriers enroute to another country, responsibility will be assumed up to the limit for Postal Union registered mail.

(w) Unusual and major cases. Unusual and major cases shall be submitted to the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Transportation, Division of International Service, Washington 25, D. C. for decision. However, the general information and instructions in Part 127 of this chapter, as well as the special provisions therein for each service mentioned, shall be consulted before the submission of any case.

3. Rescind §§ 119.2, 119.3, 119.4, and the note following § 119.4.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 1—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

REVOCATION OF LICENSES

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954;

The Commission having under consideration § 1.402 of its rules providing for the procedure to be followed in the case of revocation and cease and desist procedures, and

It appearing, that provisions should be made in such rules for expediting action in such proceedings subsequent to the issuance of initial decisions in circumstances where immediate or early action is essential; and

It appearing, that such an amendment to § 1.402 of the Commission's rules is authorized by sections 4 (i), 303 (r), 312 and 409 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; and

It further appearing, that since such an amendment is procedural in nature notice of proposed rule making under the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, is not required, and the amendment may be made effective immediately.

It is hereby ordered, That § 1.402 (d) of the Commission's rules is amended, effective immediately, to read as follows:

(d) Hearings on the matters specified in the order to show cause and the practice and procedure in connection therewith shall accord with the provisions of Subparts F and G of this part, except that in all such hearings the burden of proceeding with the introduction of evidence and burden of proof shall be upon the Commission, and except that the Commission may, where the circumstances of the proceeding require expedition, specify in the show cause order, or authorize the hearing examiner to specify by subsequent order, times within which the initial decision in such proceedings shall become effective, within which exceptions to such initial decision or replies thereto may be filed, and within which parties may file notice of intent to seek and participate in oral argument, less than those specified in §§ 1.853 and 1.854.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 303, 312, 409, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended, 1086, 1096; 47 U. S. C. 303, 312, 409)

Released: January 7, 1954.

National Bureau of Standards

[Dept. Order No. 90 (amended)]

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

SECTION 1. Purpose. The purpose of this order is to describe the organization and define the functions of the National Bureau of Standards.

SEC. 2. Organization. .01 The National Bureau of Standards, a primary organization unit of the Department of Commerce, established by the act of May 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1449; 15 U. S. C. 271) shall be under the authority and supervision of the Under Secretary of Commerce and shall be headed by a Director who shall report and be responsible to the Under Secretary of Commerce.

.02 The National Bureau of Standards shall consist of:

1. The Office of the Director which includes the:
(1) Immediate Office of the Director, Associate Directors, Assistant to the Director, and Security Officer.
(2) Office of Scientific Publications.
(3) Office of Weights and Measures, and
(4) Office of Basic Instrumentation.

2. The scientific and technical divisions which are designated by number and name are as follows:
(1) Electricity Division.
(2) Optics and Metrology Division.
(3) Heat and Power Division.
(4) Atomic and Radiation Physics Division.
(5) Chemistry Division.
(6) Mechanics Division.
(7) Organic and Fibrous Materials Division.
(8) Metallurgy Division.
(9) Mineral Products Division.
(10) Building Technology Division.
(11) Applied Mathematics Division.
(12) Electronics Division.
(14) Central Radio Propagation Laboratory.

3. The field operations which include:
(1) Domestic field stations, and
(2) Foreign field stations.

SEC. 3. General functions. .01 The basic functions of the National Bureau of Standards are (a) the provision of means for accurate and adequate measurements in commerce, science and industry, and (b) the determination of physical data such as constants of nature and properties of materials.

.02 In performing these functions the Bureau maintains custody of the national standards of physical measurement in terms of which all working standards in research laboratories and industry are calibrated; carries on research leading to improvement in such standards and methods of measurements; conducts basic research in physics, mathematics, chemistry, and engineering; develops improved methods for testing materials, mechanisms, and structures; determines physical constants and properties of materials; tests and calibrates standard measuring apparatus and reference standards; and studies technical processes. The Bureau also participates in the development, preparation, revision and amendment of specifications for, and the testing of materials, supplies (other than food and drugs), and equipment for the Federal Government; invents and develops devices to serve the special needs of the Government; renders advisory service to, and performs specialized functions for, other Government agencies on scientific and technical problems; advises and assists State and local authorities responsible for the administration of laws and regulations relating to weights and measures; and extends cooperation to States, industries and national organizations in the development of standard specifications and of standard engineering and safety codes.

SEC. 4. Office of the Director. .01 The Director is responsible for the development and coordination of Bureau policies and for administering the affairs of the Bureau. The Associate Directors assist and advise the Director in the performance of his duties; exercise direct supervision over segments of the technical or administrative program as assigned by the Director; and actively aid the Director in management of the Bureau by assisting him in program planning, in coordinating the work among the technical and administrative divisions, and in insuring that the Bureau's operations are properly related to the requirements of industry, science, commerce, and Government. There are four Associate Directors:

1. The Associate Director for Chemistry is responsible for assisting the Director in the planning and coordination of Bureau operations in which chemical specialties tend to predominate. This coordination activity includes reviews of accomplishments in research projects, the review and appraisal of proposed program changes and determination of the relative emphasis among the research projects in the various technical fields. The responsibility extends to all technical divisions but applies particularly to the following: Optics and Metrology, Chemistry, Organic and Fibrous Materials, Metallurgy, Mineral Products, and Building Technology. In addition the Associate Director for Chemistry is responsible for handling matters related to the Bureau's foreign scientific visitors and the relationships which the Bureau maintains with various international bodies and organizations concerned with the units and methods of measurement. The Associate Director for Chemistry also supervises the Bureau's internal educational activities and, in particular, the operations of the NBS graduate school;

2. The Associate Director for Physics is responsible for assisting the Director in the planning and coordination of Bureau operations in which physics, mathematics or engineering tend to predominate. This coordination activity includes reviews of accomplishments in research projects, the review and appraisal of proposed program changes and determination of the relative emphasis among the research projects in the various technical fields. The responsibility extends to all technical divisions but applies particularly to the following: Electricity, Heat and Power, Atomic and Radiation Physics, Mechanics, Applied Mathematics, Electronics, and Central Radio Propagation. In addition the Associate Director for Physics supervises the Office of Basic Instrumentation;

3. The Associate Director for Testing is responsible for assisting the Director in the coordination of the Bureau's activities in the fields of commodity testing, standardization and specifications as well as certain aspects of the Bureau's development program. This coordination involves reviews of accomplishments in testing projects, the review and appraisal of proposed program changes and determination of the relative emphasis among the testing projects in the various technical fields. In addition the Associate Director for Testing is responsible for supervising the activities of the Office of Weights and Measures, the Bureau's relationships with national organizations concerned with standardization and testing and with Federal agencies having important testing needs such as the General Services Administration;

4. The Associate Director for Administration serves as staff assistant to the Director on program management matters, and carries full responsibility for the planning and administrative functions in support of technical programs, including supervision of the Accounting, Personnel, Administrative Services, Shops, Supply and Plant Divisions, and the Management Planning and Budget Staffs.

.02 In the absence of the Director, the Acting Director is automatically the first Associate available in the sequence listed above.

.03 The Security Officer acts for the Director in establishing and effectuating personal and physical security regulations.

.04 The Office of Scientific Publications, the Chief of which is also Assistant to the Director, is responsible for the dissemination of scientific and technical information of the Bureau and, under the guidance of the Director and within the framework of Department Order No. 146 concerning publications management in the Department of Commerce, establishes the policy governing the publications of all material; maintains a library of scientific and technical reference books and periodicals; edits and publishes all manuscripts prepared by Bureau personnel; and acts as consultant on matters pertaining to press releases, speeches, public statements, radio programs and motion pictures.

.05 The Office of Weights and Measures promotes uniformity in laws, rules, regulations, and general administrative procedures of State and local weights and measures jurisdictions, and in the specifications, tolerances, and testing methods for commercial weighing and measuring devices. As a part of this activity, the Office of Weights and Measures conducts an annual National Conference on Weights and Measures.

.06 The Office of Basic Instrumentation analyzes methods and devices for measurements of physical magnitude in order to increase precision and reliability through subsequent laboratory solutions of specific problems; coordinates Bureau projects in basic instrumentation; surveys all work in progress at the Bureau with regard to its applicability to existing or proposed instrumentation projects; arranges for the testing and evaluation of new instrument developments on a continuing basis; stimulates and directs experimental studies of original ideas for improved means of measurements; and, in cooperation with the Library of Congress, arranges for preparation and dissemination of articles relating to instrumentation.

.07 The administrative divisions, under the general supervision of the Associate Director for Administration, are assigned full responsibility and authority for the Director in the execution of their respective staff functions.

1. The Accounting Division administers the official system of central fiscal records, reports, and audits, and provides staff assistance on accounting and related matters;

2. The Administrative Services Division administers custodial functions; facilitates local transportation, duplicating service, mail and wire communications, and records management; and provides other Bureau-wide services at Washington;

3. The Budget Staff advises on financial management and provides staff assistance in the preparation of estimates and the utilization of funds;

4. The Management Planning Staff advises on all aspects of management not otherwise assigned, and provides staff assistance on the maintenance and improvement of organization and methods;

5. The Personnel Division administers recruitment, placement, classification, training, utilization, employee welfare services, and assists operating officials on other aspects of personnel management:

6. The Plant Division maintains the physical plant at Washington, including light, power and other utilities, and performs staff work in planning and providing grounds, buildings and improvements at all Bureau locations;

7. The Shops Division designs, constructs, and repairs precision scientific instruments and auxiliary equipment;

8. The Supply Division performs or facilities procurement and distribution of material; keeps records and promotes effective utilization of property; and acts as the contracting office for all research and other contracts entered into by the Bureau.

SEC. 5. Scientific and Technical Divisions. .01 Generally speaking, each scientific and technical division of the Bureau is engaged in activities categorized as follows:

1. Research, involving fundamental physical phenomena and basic properties of matter and also the application of basic knowledge to development of new scientific and technological processes and materials, the determination of the physical characteristics of industrial materials, structures and equipment, and the investigation of physical phenomena in connection with the development of technical devices;

2. Development, involving instruments, instrumentation techniques, standards of measurement, commodity testing techniques, materials and technological processes; design, construction or technical evaluation of special devices important to national welfare and defense;

3. Testing, calibration and specifications, involving calibration of instruments, analysis and preparation of standard samples for physical measurement; formulation of purchase standards and specifications; acceptance testing of commodities used by the Federal Government; and related technical and advisory services to governmental agencies; and

4. General services, involving compilation and dissemination of the scientific and technical data of the Bureau; production of special materials for the specific needs of the Federal Government; operation of special technical installations and performance of special consultative services.

.02 The fields of activity or specialized functions of the scientific and technical divisions include the following:

1. Electricity Division. Establishment, maintenance and dissemination of units and standards for measurement in electricity and magnetism; determination of fundamental constants of nature; testing electrical apparatus and supplies purchased by the Government; furnishing consulting service in these fields to Government agencies; devising new types of electrical apparatus; making available to the public technical information in these fields;

2. Optics and Metrology Division. Establishment, maintenance, and dissemination of units and standards for light, color, and length; conducting research, devising test methods and making calibrations to make these standards more available for Government and public use; determination of fundamental properties of materials such as refractive index and thermal expansion; calibration and testing of optical apparatus and materials, photographic materials, length standards, and gages purchased by the Government; development of new types of optical and photometric apparatus for military and civilian purposes; furnishing consulting service to other Government agencies; and making technical information available to the public;

3. Heat and Power Division. Maintenance and improvement of the International Temperature Scale; calibration of temperature measuring instruments; determination of thermal data on engineering, structural and scientific materials; preparation and evaluation of new fuels for internal combustion engines; testing automotive and aircraft fuels, lubricants, engines and accessories;

4. Atomic and Radiation Physics Division. Fundamental and applied research in atomic and molecular physics, classification of spectra, standards and constants of radiation and absorption, and development of instruments therefor; physics of the electron in the free state and its interactions with solids; atomic and molecular structure; determination of isotope concentration; precise determination of atomic masses and other important atomic and nuclear constants; study of radioactive materials and processes, standard sources, radiation measurements, research in nuclear physics; high-energy particle physics, particle accelerators, X-ray generation, dosage measurement, and development of measurement techniques; radiation protection development and standardization; coordination of AEC projects at NBS;

5. Chemistry Division. Investigation of the chemical composition and purity of materials; development of methods of chemical analysis; establishment of standards for gas service; determination of the energies of chemical reactions; development of processes of electro-deposition; preparation, maintenance, and standardization of standard samples of composition; development of methods of test, drawing up Federal specifications for material purchased by the Government and testing deliveries for conformance to specifications;

6. Mechanics Division. Establishment, maintenance and calibration of standards of measurement, development of instruments, and advancement of knowledge in mechanics; including the fields of sound, mechanical instruments, aerodynamic engineering mechanics, hydraulics, mass determination, capacity, density, viscosity research and combustion controls; acceptance testing of engineering and structural materials, mechanical appliances, instruments, and structures and calibration of instuments;

7. Organic and Fibrous Materials Division. Conducting fundamental research on the constants, properties, constitution, and structure of organic high polymers, including particularly rubber, textiles, paper, leather, and plastics; evaluation of the performance of products made from such materials and investigation of structure of tooth enamel; participation in the development of specifications by the Government and national standardizing organizations; solving specific technological problems of importance to Government agencies and the public;

8. Metallurgy Division. Development of effective utilization of metals; determination of physical constants of metals and alloys; development of improved methods of measurement in the field of physical metallurgy; investigation of failures of metal parts of transportation equipment, etc.; testing metals and metal products for conformance to specifications;

9. Mineral Products Division. Research and testing on glass, concrete, masonry construction, building stone, lime and plaster, porcelain, enameled metals, and other non-metallic products;

10. Building Technology Division. Determination of physical constants and properties of building materials and structural elements; development of methods for testing materials, mechanisms and structures; conducting research in chemistry, engineering and physics to obtain basic data on properties and performance of building materials and equipment; investigation of the fire resistance and fire-hazard properties of materials and constructions and the effectiveness of appliances and methods for fire prevention; participation in improvement, standardization, and safe and effective use of building materials, structural elements and equipment; provision of information on technical problems relating to building;

11. Applied Mathematics Division. Research in various fields of mathematics important in the physical and engineering sciences with special emphasis on research in statistical and numerical analysis; provision of consulting services in applied mathematics, including applied mathematical statistics; development and construction of tools (such as mathematical tables and automatic computers) for mathematical work; provision of extensive, expert computing services; conducting training in disciplines related to these functions;

12. Electronics Division. Research on the application of electronic methods and devices for establishment of or comparison to standards of weight and measure, determination of physical constants and properties of materials, testing of materials, supplies and equipments, including those for Government purchase; research and development to provide special purpose electronic devices as required by other laboratories of NBS and other Government agencies; advisory and consulting services to other Government agencies on scientific and technical problems in the field of applied electronics; research and development on systems, designs, components and fabrication processes necessary to the achievement and maintenance of functional adequacy in electronic equipments;

14. Central Radio Propagation Laboratory. Collection, correlation and analysis of data on radio propagation; radio propagation predictions; research on radio propagation, measurement methods and standards; maintenance and improvement of radio standards; maintenance of liaisons with other agencies concerned in these fields; dissemination of information on radio propagation, measurement methods and standards.

SEC. 6. Field operations. .01 The domestic field stations of the Bureau include the following:

National Bureau of Standards, Boulder, Colo.

Master Railway Track Scale Depot, Clearing, Ill.—Division 6.

Lamp Inspector, Brookline 46, Mass.—Division 2.

Cryogenic Engineering Section, Boulder, Colo.—Division 3.

Materials Testing Laboratory, Allentown, Pa.—Division 9.

Materials Testing Laboratory, Denver, Colo.—Division 9.

Materials Testing Laboratory, San Francisco, Calif.—Division 9.

Materials Testing Laboratory, Seattle, Wash.—Division 9.

Institute for Numerical Analysis, Los Angeles, Calif.—Division 11.

Standard Frequency Transmitter WWV, Beltsville, Md.—Division 14.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Sterling, Va.—Division 14.

Cheyenne Mt. Field Station, Colorado Springs, Colo.—Division 14.

Radio Field Station, Ft. Belvoir, Va.—Division 14.

Temporary or associated field facilities are organized from time to time to facilitate the conduct of NBS operations.

.02 The field stations outside of the continental United States, all of which are operated by Division 14, include the following:

Radio Propagation Field Station, Anchorage, Alaska.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Panama Canal Zone.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Guam.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Narsarssuak, Greenland.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Pt. Barrow, Alaska.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Puerto Rico.

Radio Propagation Field Station, Puuena, Maui, T. H.

SEC. 7. Effect on other orders. This order supersedes Sections I and III of the material appearing at 18 F. R. 518-520. Any other orders or parts of orders the provisions of which are inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this order are hereby amended or superseded accordingly.

Effective date: December 2, 1953.

WALTER WILLIAMS,
Acting Secretary of Commerce.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

CHIEF, COMMON CARRIER BUREAU

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO ACT ON PETITIONS OR REQUESTS FOR WAIVER OF RULES IN CONFLICT WITH APPLICATION

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954,

The Commission, having under consideration the means of expediting the processing of applications; and

It appearing, that under the rules of the Commission applications for privileges which conflict with the terms or requirements of rules will be accepted in the Commission when accompanied by a petition or request for waiver of or exception to the rules; and

It further appearing, that a number of such requests are received seeking temporary authority to operate in the common carrier radio services for limited periods of time in a manner inconsistent with the Commission's rules and that expeditious handling of such requests can best be achieved by delegating the consideration and action upon such requests to the staff;

It is ordered, That under the authority contained in section 5 (d) (1) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, effective immediately, authority is delegated to the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau, to act upon petitions or requests seeking waiver of or exception to any rule, regulation or requirement relating to the services under his jurisdiction and to act upon petitions or requests relating to the assignment of frequencies to common carrier operations but requiring action under § 2.103 of the rules, when he finds that the operation for which permission is sought (1) is of a non-recurring nature and does not warrant a rule-making proceeding with a view to establishing it on regular basis, (2) will not exceed 90 days, and (3) will cause no harmful interference to any service operating in accordance with the Table of Frequency Allocations. This delegation shall not apply to requests for renewals of any authority to operate granted hereunder.

Released: January 7, 1954.

ARTHUR WESTLUND

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re application of Arthur Westlund, Walnut Creek, California, Docket No. 10215, File No. BP-8321; for construction permit.

The Commission having under consideration a petition filed by the applicant Arthur Westlund requesting a continuance for a period of sixty days of the hearing scheduled to begin in Washington, D. C., on January 12, 1954, in the above entitled proceeding;

It appearing that counsel for the respondent Pinley Broadcasting Company, licensee of Radio Station KSRO, Santa Rosa, California, has no objection to said postponement;

It is ordered, This 6th day of January 1954 that the petition for continuance is granted and that the hearing scheduled to begin in this proceeding on January 12, 1954, is postponed to March 16, 1954, at 10 o'clock a. m.

BUCCANEER LINE, INC.

ORDER SCHEDULING HEARING

In the matter of Buccaneer Line, Inc., Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10376, File No. 1286-C3-P-52; construction permit for new pt pt radiotelephone station (Points of Communication: Colonia, Yucatan, Mexico; Zoh Leguna, Campeche, Mexico; Sac Xaan, Quintana Roo, Mexico).

Having under consideration the matter of designating a date for further hearing in this proceeding;

It appearing that on March 31, 1953, the hearing was continued indefinitely by order of the Hearing Examiner; and

It further appearing that the applicant and American Telephone and Telegraph Company have heretofore requested that a hearing on the application be delayed pending the establishment of overland telephone communications between Jacksonville, Florida, and certain points on the Yucatan peninsula in Mexico; and

It further appearing that the American Telephone and Telegraph Company has now reported the inauguration of message toll telephone service between the points above named and has filed its tariffs with this Commission, effective December 1, 1953; and

It further appearing that there is no need for additional delay in proceeding with the hearing;

It is ordered, This 5th day of January 1954, that the hearing will reconvene on February 5, 1954, at 10:00 a. m.

ORDER CONTINUING ORAL ARGUMENT

In re applications of Montgomery Brodacasting Co., Inc., Montgomery, Alabama, Docket No. 10573, File No. BPCT-670; William E. Benns, Jr., d b as Alabama Television Company, Montgomery, Alabama, Docket No. 10574, File No. BPCT-1055; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954;

The Commission having under consideration its order of December 24, 1953 (released December 28, 1953) designating the above-entitled proceeding for oral argument before the Commission en banc on January 11, 1954; and a motion to continue oral argument filed by William E. Benns, Jr., on December 31, 1953, requesting that the argument be continued until after January 20, 1954;

It appearing, that no opposition to said petition has been filed and that petitioner has stated good cause for the requested continuance;

It is ordered, That the oral argument herein, heretofore scheduled for January 11, 1954, is postponed to January 25, 1954, at 10:00 a. m. at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

ARKANSAS TELEVISION CO. AND ARKANSAS TELECASTERS, INC.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING

In re applications of Arkansas Television Company, Little Rock, Arkansas, Docket No. 10610, File No. BPCT-1057; Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., North Little Rock, Arkansas, Docket No. 10611, File No. BPCT-1740; for construction permits for new television stations.

The Commission having before it a petition filed January 4, 1954, by Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., North Little Rock, Arkansas, requesting a continuance from January 15, 1954, the present scheduled date for the presentation of written direct testimony by the above-entitled applicants, until after a decision is reached by the Commission on the several petitions now pending before it for enlargement of issues and other matters; and

It appearing that the basis for said request for continuance is that there are now pending before the Commission several petitions requesting enlargement of issues and other matters and that until said petitions are disposed of and the questions raised thereby resolved by the Commission, it will be exceedingly difficult, if not impossible, for the applicants effectively to present their direct cases; that the hearing may be shortened if all of the evidence is presented at one time rather than on a piecemeal basis from time to time; and that under these circumstances a grant of the requested continuance would conduce to the dispatch of the Commission's business and to the ends of justice; and

It further appearing that Arkansas Television Company has consented to a grant of this petition and counsel for the Broadcast Bureau of the Commission has no objection to a grant thereof;

Therefore, it is ordered, This 6th day of January 1954, that the petition of Arkansas Telecasters, Inc. is granted; and the time for presentation of direct written testimony in the above-entitled matter is continued from January 15, 1954, to Monday, February 15, 1954, at 2 o'clock p. m.

[Docket Nos. 10833, 10834, 10835]

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLA., ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of City of Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10833, File No. BPCT-749; Florida-Georgia Television Company, Inc., Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10834, File No. BPCT-1624; Jacksonville Broadcasting Corporation, Jacksonville, Florida, Docket No. 10835, File No. BPCT-1625; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 12 in Jacksonville, Florida; and

It appearing, that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; and that each of the above-named applicants is legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station;

It further appearing, that on December 14, 1953, Florida-Georgia Television Company, Inc., filed an amendment to its application which specified alternative engineering proposals; that Florida-Georgia Television Company, Inc., requested that in the event alternative proposals were not acceptable, that the proposal which it designated as its basic request be accepted and the alternative proposal be returned; and that on December 21, 1953, the Commission returned the alternative proposal as not acceptable; and

It further appearing, that City of Jacksonville and Jacksonville Broadcasting Corp. each filed a petition on December 22, 1953, requesting that the application of Florida-Georgia Television Company, Inc., be dismissed and alleging that the filing of alternative proposals was contrary to the provisions of § 1.304 of the Commission's rules; that Jacksonville Broadcasting Corp. further alleged that Table II of section II of the Florida-Georgia Television Company application was violative of § 1.304 in that it lists as subscribers persons who have agreements to purchase stock from present stockholders in the event of a grant of the application; and that on December 29, 1953, Florida-Georgia Television Company, Inc., filed a "Motion to Dismiss Petitions For Dismissal Of Application;" and

It further appearing, that the Commission's action of December 21, 1953, in returning the alternative proposal of Florida-Georgia Television Company renders the questions raised by the petitions moot; and that the listing of the stockholders in Table II of section II of the application form in the manner alleged does not warrant a dismissal of the application;

It is ordered, That in light of the foregoing, the petitions filed by City of Jacksonville and Jacksonville Broadcasting Corp. are hereby denied.

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to commence at 10:00 a. m., on the 5th day of February 1954 in Washington, D. C., to determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences among the applications as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-entitled applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Tulsa Television Company, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Docket No. 10842, File No. BPCT-1394; Arthur R. Olson, Tulsa, Oklahoma, Docket No. 10843, File No. BPCT-1628; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 17 in Tulsa, Oklahoma; and

It appearing, that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; and that each of the above-named applicants is legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 5th day of February 1954, in Washington, D. C., to determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applications as to:

(1) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER POSTPONING DATE OF HEARING

On December 30, 1953, Commission Staff Counsel filed a motion requesting that the hearing in this matter now set to be reconvened on January 12, 1954, be postponed to February 9, 1954. Pursuant to the provisions of § 1.27 (b) (8) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, the Chief Examiner has certified such motion to the Commission for its consideration and disposition.

Counsel for El Paso Natural Gas Company has advised the Commission that the company has no objection to the postponement requested. However, said counsel did propose that the hearing be reconvened on February 8, 1954, rather than a day later as contemplated by said motion.

The Commission orders: The hearing in this matter now fixed to be reconvened on January 12, 1954, be and it is hereby postponed to February 8, 1954, at the same hour and place as heretofore ordered.

Adopted: January 6, 1954.

Issued: January 7, 1954.

NORTHEASTERN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE FOR HEARING

Northeastern Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business in Springfield, Massachusetts, filed on October 1, 1953, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the sale and delivery of additional volumes of natural gas to the Derby Gas and Electric Company, the Danbury and Bethel Gas and Electric Light Company, and Wallingford Gas Company, all as more fully described in said application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and no request to be heard, protest, or petition has been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 29, 1953 (18 F. R. 6838).

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on January 25, 1954, at 9:45 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: January 6, 1954.

Issued: January 7, 1954.

By the Commission.

DEFENSE HOUSING PROGRAMS IN CRITICAL DEFENSE HOUSING AREAS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Appearing below are additional defense housing programs published herein as amendments to Part II (Defense Housing Programs) initially published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, October 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 10963).

Applications relating to the construction of such defense housing may be filed with the local FHA office serving the particular critical defense housing area in which the proposed defense housing is located under appropriate regulations of the FHA; and in connection with such housing, the aids authorized by the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong.) are available. These aids include the more liberal form of Federal Housing Administration mortgage insurance under title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, and the special benefits provided in title III of that act in connection with commitments by the Federal National Mortgage Association for the purchase of mortgages covering defense housing programmed by the Housing and Home Finance Administrator. To be eligible for these special aids all applicable requirements, conditions and restrictions imposed by or pursuant to said title III or title IX of the National Housing Act, as amended, must be complied with. Information concerning such requirements, conditions and restrictions may be obtained from the local FHA and FNMA offices.

The critical defense housing areas listed in Part II hereof indicate the areas in connection with which defense housing has been programmed. In order to be eligible for the special aids authorized, the housing must be located within the designated critical defense housing area.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File Nos. 30-212 and 59-77]

KOPPERS COMPANY, INC.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER REVOKING OR MODIFYING ORDER UNDER SECTION 11 (b) (1) AND DECLARING THAT APPLICANT HAS CEASED TO BE A HOLDING COMPANY

JANUARY 6, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Koppers Company, Inc. ("Koppers"), a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") requesting an order (a) revoking or modifying an order dated June 26, 1945, issued by this Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act, and (b) declaring that Koppers has ceased to be a holding company.

On November 27, 1944, Koppers filed a Notification of Registration under section 5 (a) of the act with respect to sections 4, 5 (other than 5 (b)), and 11 (b) (1) and to the extent necessary to implement compliance with section 11 (b) (1), and only to that extent, section 11 (c), (d) and (e). On May 14, 1945, this Commission instituted proceedings with respect to Koppers under section 11 (b) (1) of the act. (See Holding Company Act Release No. 5793.) At that time Koppers was a public-utility holding company by reason of its holdings of approximately 78 percent of the then outstanding Common Stock and approximately 13 percent of the then outstanding 6 percent Preferred Stock of its then subsidiary public-utility holding company, Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates ("Eastern"). The Commission's order dated May 14, 1945, alleged, among other things, that it appeared to the Commission that the holding company system of Koppers was not confined in its operations to a single integrated public-utility system, within the meaning of the act, or to a single integrated public-utility system, together with such additional integrated public-utility systems as would meet the requirements of section 11 (b) (1), and to such other businesses as were reasonably incidental or economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of an integrated public-utility system or systems. Koppers admitted these allegations and consented to the entry by the Commission of its order dated June 26, 1945, requiring the divestment by Koppers of its Eastern security holdings. (See Holding Company Act Release No. 5888.)

Subsequently, Eastern was recapitalized pursuant to a plan filed under section 11 (e) of the act, which plan was approved by the Commission on February 3, 1950. (See Holding Company Act Release No. 9633.) Pursuant to the plan Koppers' holdings of Eastern's securities were exchanged for 563,347 shares (21 percent) of Eastern's new Common Stock. From time to time thereafter, Koppers disposed of 550,347 of these shares, leaving a balance of 13,000 shares constituting approximately ½ of 1 percent of Eastern's outstanding Common Stock.

Koppers now requests the entry of an order, (a) pursuant to section 11 (b) of the act, revoking or modifying the aforesaid order dated June 26, 1945, and alleges that the conditions upon which such order was predicated do not exist and (b) pursuant to section 5 (d) of the act, declaring that Koppers has ceased to be a holding company.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than 12:30 p. m., January 22, 1954, request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as amended, may be granted.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[4th Sec. Application 28816]

MERCHANDISE IN MIXED CARLOADS FROM DETROIT, MICH., AND CLEVELAND, OHIO, TO CHAMBLEE, DORAVILLE AND ROSELAND, GA.

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

JANUARY 8, 1954.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: H. R. Hinsch, Alternate Agent, for carriers parties to schedule listed below.

Commodities involved: Freight, all kinds, in mixed carloads.

From: Detroit, Mich., and Cleveland, Ohio.

To: Chamblee, Doraville, and Roseland, Ga.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers, circuitous routes and competition with motor carriers, and additional destinations.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: H. R. Hinsch, Alternate Agent, I. C. C. No. 4590, supp. 1.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

CEMENT FROM LEEDS AND RAGLAND TO FLORENCE, ALA.

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

JANUARY 8, 1954.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: R. E. Boyle, Jr., Agent, for The Central of Georgia Railway Company, The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company.

Commodities involved: Cement and related articles, carloads.

From: Leeds and Ragland, Ala.

To: Florence, Ala., and points grouped therewith.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers and circuitous routes.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. ATLANTA AND WEST POINT RAIL ROAD CO. AND BUFFABO CREEK & GAULEY RAILROAD

RAILWAY MAIL PAY

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of January A. D. 1954.

It appearing, that the Commission, by order entered July 17, 1953, reopened the above-entitled proceeding for hearing upon petition filed June 24, 1953, by certain railroads, some 121 in number, as listed in said petition;

It further appearing, that the Atlanta and West Point Rail Road Company and Buffalo Creek & Gauley Railroad, common carriers by railroad, by a joint petition filed December 21, 1953, requests permission to join in and become parties to the said petition filed in this proceeding on June 24, 1953.

Upon consideration of the record and of the reply of the Postmaster General, and good cause appearing:

It is ordered, That the Atlanta and West Point Rail Road Company and Buffalo Creek & Gauley Railroad, be and they are hereby, permitted to join in and become parties to this proceeding as of December 21, 1953, for the purpose of participating in any further proceedings herein and as of that date to join in and become parties to the said petition of the other applicant railroads filed June 24, 1953, subject to the record as heretofore constituted; and that the said proceeding be and it is reopened for further hearing, at the time and place set for hearing in the said petition of June 24, 1953, with respect to compensation and rates of pay for the transportation of the mails and the service connected therewith by such additional railroads:

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon the Postmaster General and each of such additional railroads, and that notice of this action be given to the public by depositing a copy of this order in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, Washington, D. C.

By the Commission.

TITLE 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 30—RADIOISOTOPE DISTRIBUTION

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, as amended (Pub. Law 585, 79th Cong.; 60 Stat. 755 ff) and section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946, as amended (Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong.), additional amendments to Title 10, Chapter I, Part 30, Code of Federal Regulations, entitled "Radioisotope Distribution", promulgated April 9, 1951, and published in Volume 16, Pages 3251 et seq. of the FEDERAL REGISTER, are set forth hereunder to be effective January 15, 1954.

1. Amend § 30.2 to read as follows:

§ 30.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) Commission. "Commission" means the United States Atomic Energy Commission created by the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, or its duly authorized representative.

(b) Distributor. "Distributor" means any person to the extent that such person is engaged in operating Commission-owned laboratories, plants or other facilities under a contract with the Commission and is engaged in the distribution of radioisotopes for the Commission.

(c) Fissionable material. "Fissionable material" means fissionable material as defined in section 5 (a) (1) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 and in the regulations contained in Part 70 of this chapter.

(d) General authorization. "General authorization" means an authorization that is issued for the procurement of any quantity of any radioisotope of atomic number 3 to 83 for the use or uses designated therein.

(e) Human use. "Human use" means the internal or external administration of radioisotopes, or the radiation therefrom, to human beings.

(f) One millicurie. "One millicurie" means that amount of radioactive material which disintegrates at the rate of 37 million atoms per second.

(g) Person. "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, association, trust, estate, public or private institution, group, the United States or any agency thereof, any government other than the United States, any political subdivision of any such government, and any legal successor, representative, agent, or agency of the foregoing, or other entity, but shall not include the Commission or officers or employees of the Commission in the exercise of duly authorized functions.

(h) Radioisotope. "Radioisotope" means any radioactive material yielded in or made radioactive by exposure to the radiation incident to the processes of producing or utilizing fissionable material. Radioisotope also means any other radioactive material.

(i) Research and development. "Research and development" means theoretical analysis, exploration, and experimentation, and the extension of investigative findings and theories of a scientific or technical nature into practical application for experimental and demonstration purposes, including the experimental production and testing of models, devices, equipment, materials and processes. "Research and development" as used in this part does not include the internal or external administration of radioisotopes, or the radiation therefrom, to human beings.

(j) Roentgen (= r). "Roentgen" (= r) means that quantity of X or gamma radiation such that the associated corpuscular emission per 0.001293 gram of air produces, in air, ions carrying 1 electrostatic unit of electricity of either sign.

(k) Roentgen - equivalent - man (= rem). "Roentgen-equivalent-man" (= rem) means that quantity of radiation that, when absorbed by mammalian tissue, produces an effect equivalent to the absorption by this tissue of one roentgen of X or gamma radiation.

(l) Roentgen-equivalent-physical (= rep). "Roentgen-equivalent-physical" (=rep) means that dose of ionizing radiation that is capable of producing energy absorption of 93 ergs per gram of tissue.

(m) Service irradiation. "Service irradiation" means the exposure of materials of any kind to radiation in accordance with instructions and at the request of some person.

(n) Source material. "Source material" means source material as defined in section 5 (b) (1) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1946 and in the regulations contained in Part 40 of this chapter.

2. Amend § 30.13 by deleting paragraph (a) and substituting therefor the following new paragraph:

§ 30.13 Items and quantities. (a) Sections 30.20 through 30.53, inclusive, do not apply to any item listed in § 30.70 Schedule A, nor to any quantity listed in § 30.71 Schedule B: Provided, That no person shall, except as otherwise permitted by the regulations contained in this part, effect an increase in the radioactivity of said scheduled items or quantities by adding other radioactive material thereto, by combining the radioisotopes from two or more such items or quantities, or by altering them in any other manner so as to increase thereby the rate of radiation exposure of himself or others above the original rate therefrom: Provided further, That no person shall administer externally or internally, or direct the administration of, said scheduled items or quantities to a human being for any purpose, including but not limited to diagnostic, therapeutic, and research purposes, except as permitted by a valid authorization.

3. Amend § 30.21 to read as follows:

§ 30.21 Requirements for the approval of applications—(a) Requirements of general applicability. A domestic application for radioisotopes procurement will not be approved unless:

(1) The radioisotope is requested for one or more of the following purposes: Research or development, human use (including medical therapy), industrial uses, processing or making of compounds, or such other useful applications as may be developed;

(2) The applicant has suitable equipment and facilities for the protection of health and safety (such as handling devices, work areas, shields, measuring and monitoring instruments); and

(3) The applicant has suitably trained and experienced personnel and is otherwise qualified to use radioisotopes for the requested purpose.

(b) Special requirements applicable to human uses by institutions. An application by an institution for authorization to procure radioisotopes, other than sealed sources, for human use will not be approved unless:

(1) The applicant satisfies the general requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) The institution has appointed a medical isotopes committee of at least three members to evaluate all proposals for research, diagnosis, and therapeutic use of radioisotopes within that institution. Membership of the committee should include physicians expert in internal medicine, hematology, therapeutic radiology, and a person experienced in assay of radioisotopes and protection against ionizing radiations;

(3) The institution possesses adequate facilities for the clinical care of patients;

(4) The physician designated on the application as the individual user is licensed by a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to dispense drugs in the practice of medicine, and has substantial experience in the proposed use, the handling and administration of radioisotopes and where applicable, the clinical management of radioactive patients; and

(5) The applicant, if the application is for a general authorization, has also (i) previously received a reasonable number of authorizations for radioisotope procurement for a variety of radioisotopes for a variety of human uses; (ii) appointed a radiological safety officer who will advise on or be available for advice and assistance on radiological safety problems; and (iii) appointed a medical isotope committee (see subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) which will review and approve, in advance of purchase of radioisotopes, proposals for human uses.

(c) Special requirements applicable to human uses by individual physicians. An application by a physician for authorization to procure radioisotopes, other than sealed sources, for human use will not be approved unless:

(1) The applicant satisfies the general requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) The applicant is a physician licensed by a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to dispense drugs in the practice of medicine;

(3) The applicant has access to a hospital possessing adequate facilities to hospitalize and monitor the applicant's radioactive patients whenever it is advisable; and

(4) The applicant has extensive experience in the proposed use, the handling and administration of radioisotopes, and where applicable, the clinical management of radioactive patients. (The physician shall furnish suitable evidence of such experience with his application. A statement from the medical isotope committee in the institution where he acquired his experience, indicating its amount and nature, may be submitted as evidence of such experience.)

(d) Special requirements applicable to human use of sealed sources. An application for authorization to procure radioisotopes in sealed sources for human use will not be approved unless:

(1) The applicant satisfies the general requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(2) The applicant or, if the application is made by an institution, the individual user (i) has specialized training in the therapeutic use of the radioactive device considered (teletherapy unit, beta applicator, etc.) or has experience equivalent to such training; and (ii) is a physician licensed by a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to dispense drugs in the practice of medicine.

(e) Special requirements applicable to general authorizations for use in research and development. An application for a general authorization to procure radioisotopes for use in research and development will not be approved unless:

(1) The applicant satisfies the general requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) The applicant has received a reasonable number of authorizations for radioisotopes procurement for a variety of radioisotopes for a variety of research and development uses;

(3) The applicant has established an isotope committee (composed of such persons as a radiological safety officer, a representative of the business office, and one or more persons trained or experienced in the safe use of radioactive materials) which will review and approve, in advance of purchase of radioisotopes, proposals for such uses; and

(4) The applicant has appointed a radiological safety officer who will advise on or be available for advice and assistance on radiological safety problems.

(f) Special requirements applicable to general authorizations for processing. An application for a general authorization to procure radioisotopes for use in processing for distribution to other authorized persons will not be approved unless:

(1) The applicant satisfies the general requirements specified in paragraph (a) of this section;

(2) The applicant has received a reasonable number of authorizations for radioisotope procurement for processing, resale, and distribution of a variety of radioisotopes; and

(3) The applicant has appointed a radiological safety officer who will advise on or be available for advice and assistance on radiological safety problems.

4. Amend § 30.30 to read as follows:

§ 30.30 Issuance of authorizations. Upon approval of an application, the Commission will issue an Authorization for Radioisotope Procurement, Form AEC–374. The authorization shall be the only valid approval for procurement, and its issuance shall be based upon the representations made in the application and shall be subject to and in accordance with the regulation in this part and the terms and conditions stated in the application. Authorizations are issued for the procurement only of the radioisotope or radioisotopes specified in the authorization in the quantity or quantities specified and for the use or uses designated therein.

5. Amend § 30.32 to read as follows:

§ 30.32 Expiration. An authorization shall expire at the end of the period stated therein without the necessity of notice or warning from the Commission. The holder thereof shall neither order nor receive radioisotopes after the expiration of such authorization and no person shall transfer radioisotopes to another person after the expiration date of the transferee's authorization. Expiration of a holder's authorization does not affect his authority to retain possession of previously acquired radioisotopes for the use or uses specified in the authorization and subject to all the conditions and limitations incorporated therein, or otherwise imposed by this part.

6. Amend § 30.54 to read as follows:

§ 30.54 Inspections and tests. Each person who possesses or uses radioisotopes shall permit the Commission, at all reasonable times, to make such inspections and tests as the Commission deems appropriate or necessary for enforcement of the regulations in this part, including, but not limited to, inspections and tests of (a) radioisotopes being used, (b) facilities wherein radioisotopes are used or stored, (c) radiation detection and monitoring instruments, (d) equipment or devices utilizing radioisotopes or used in connection with the utilization of radioisotopes, and (e) radioisotopes waste disposal methods.

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration, Department of Commerce

[Amdt. 55]

PART 610—MINIMUM EN ROUTE IFR ALTITUDES

OPERATION PROCEDURES OVER MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN AND ALONG PARTICULAR ROUTES

The purpose of this amendment is to modify Part 610, Regulations of the Administrator, § 610.3 (c), concerning operation procedures over mountainous terrain and along particular routes, to permit flights at the published minimum terrain clearance altitude within 25 miles of a VOR station even though a higher IFR altitude is prescribed for the route segment. The amendment is adopted without delay in order to provide for safety in air commerce. Therefore, compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable.

Section 610.3 (c) is revised to read:

§ 610.3 Operation procedures over mountainous terrain and along particular routes. • • •

(c) Minimum terrain clearance altitudes. At certain locations VOR reception may not be adequate under normal operating conditions at the minimum terrain clearance altitude along a route segment. Where it is necessary to fly at an altitude higher than the minimum terrain clearance altitude to assure acceptable VOR reception, the higher altitude will be published as the minimum en route IFR altitude for that route segment. However, flights may be conducted at the minimum terrain clearance altitude when within 25 miles of a VOR station based on a reasonable estimate of that distance. At points where the minimum en route IFR altitude is higher than the minimum en route terrain clearance altitude, the altitude specified will be denoted by footnote, and the minimum terrain clearance altitude will be shown as advisory information and for utilization as noted above.

These rules shall become effective January 25, 1954.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS UNDER THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

On October 9, 1953, the Commission announced (in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 4950) that it had under consideration proposed amendments to its proxy rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and invited all interested persons to submit views and comments in writing with respect to the proposals. Subsequently, on December 4, 1953, the Commission gave notice (in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 4971) that a public hearing would be held at which interested persons would have an opportunity to present their views on the proposed amendments, and such a hearing was held on December 16, 1953.

The Commission has considered all of the comments and suggestions received in writing and at the public hearing, and has determined that the amendments set forth below should be adopted. The principal changes made are described below.

I. Sections 240.14a–3 and 240.14a–6 (Rules X-14A–3 and X-14A–6): In order to make available at the Commission an adequate number of copies of definitive proxy statements and annual reports, §§ 240.14a–3 and 240.14a–6 are amended to require the furnishing to the Commission of four copies of such material, instead of the three copies now required. In addition, the amendment to § 240.14a–6 provides that copies of definitive proxy material be filed with each exchange upon which any security of the issuer is listed and registered. The existing requirement in § 240.14a–6 that three copies of preliminary material be filed with the Commission is not changed.

II. Section 240.14a–8 (Rule X-14A–8): This rule now provides that any stockholder proposal submitted with respect to an annual meeting more than 30 days in advance of the corresponding date on which proxy material was released for the last annual meeting shall prima facie be deemed to have been submitted within a reasonable time. The rule is amended to extend this period from 30 days to 60 days, so as to give more time for the consideration of security holder proposals.

The Commission has determined not to adopt the proposed amendment which would have authorized the omission from the management's proxy material of the name and address of a security holder submitting a proposal for action at the meeting of security holders.

The present rule provides for submission of proposals which are proper subjects for action by security holders but does not specifically provide that State law is the standard for determining what is a proper subject for such action. In a prior release, however, the Commission has so stated. (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 3638, January 3, 1945). To clarify this point, the amended rule specifically provides that a security holder's proposal may be omitted from the management proxy material if it is one which, under the laws of the issuer's domicile, is not a proper subject for action by security holders. The amended rule thus specifically provides that State law is to be the standard of eligibility of a proposal under the rule. The Commission wishes to make it clear that it considers this standard consistent with the decision of the Court of Appeals in the case of S. E. C. v. Transamerica Corporation (163 F. 2d 511, C. A. 3, 1947). Under the provisions of the amended Rule X-14A–8 (c) (5), management would also be permitted to omit from its proxy material a proposal which is a recommendation or request with respect to the conduct of the ordinary business operations of the issuer.

The rule places the burden of proof upon the management to show that a particular security holder's proposal is not a proper one for inclusion in management's proxy material. Where management contends that a proposal may be omitted because it is not proper under State law, it will be incumbent upon management to refer to the applicable statute or case law and furnish a supporting opinion of counsel.

Under the present rule where the management contests the propriety of a security holder's proposal, it is required to furnish the Commission with a copy of the proposal together with a statement of the reasons why it believes the proposal may be omitted from its proxy material. This information at present must be furnished not later than the date preliminary copies of the proxy material are filed with the Commission. So that the Commission will have more time to consider the problems involved in such cases and the security holder will have an opportunity to consider the management's position and take such action as may be appropriate, the amended rule provides that a copy of the proposal and a statement of reasons for its omission must be furnished to the Commission and the security holder not later than 20 days prior to the date of filing the management's preliminary proxy material. However, the Commission may authorize a shorter period where it is shown that there is good cause for failure to comply with the 20-day requirement.

Under the present rules a proposal must be repeated in the management's proxy material if it received 3 percent of the total number of votes cast at the last annual or subsequent special meeting. This has resulted in the repetition year after year of proposals which have evoked very modest stockholder interest. The rule is now amended to provide that a proposal may be omitted for a period of three years from the last previous submission if it was submitted within the previous five years and received less than 3 percent in the case of a single submission, less than 6 percent upon a second submission or less than 10 percent upon a third or subsequent submission during such five year period.

III. Items 6, 7 and 8 of Schedule 14A: Item 6 calls for information with respect to the nominees for election as directors of the issuer. The amended item requires information also with respect to directors whose terms of office continue beyond the date of the meeting. The purpose of this requirement is to give to security holders information with respect to the board of directors as a whole as it will exist after the meeting.

Item 7 calls for information with respect to remuneration and other transactions with management and other persons. Since the previous revisions of the item, certain interpretative and reporting difficulties have arisen. The amendments to this item are intended to eliminate these difficulties.

The requirements relating to pension and retirement benefits are separated from those relating to other deferred remuneration payments. This should aid in distinguishing between the two types of payments and result in a simplification of the applicable instructions. For the same reason the requirements regarding disclosure with respect to options are separated from those with respect to other transactions with insiders. Also, a new instruction has been added which permits the omission of information where the aggregate market value of securities covered by options granted or exercised is not more than $10,000 for any one person or $30,000 for officers and directors as a group.

The instructions to the paragraph relating to indebtedness of insiders have been amended to provide that information need not be given where the aggregate indebtedness of any one person does not exceed $10,000 or 1 percent of the issuer's total assets, whichever is less, at any time during the period specified. At present, indebtedness must be described if it exceeded $1,000 during the period.

The scope of the paragraph relating to transactions with insiders has been limited by revising the instructions thereto to permit the omission of information in certain cases. The revision also presents a more precise statement of the requirements relating to such transactions.

Where action is to be taken at the meeting with respect to the selection of auditors, Item 8 requires a brief description of any material relationship between such auditors or any of their associates and the issuer or any of its affiliates. This item has been amended to make it consistent with the requirements of Regulation S–X relative to the independence of accountants.

Statutory basis. The action herein described is taken pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 14 (a) and 23 (a) thereof.

Text of amendments. 1. Section 240.14a–3 (c) (Rule X–14A–3 (c)) is amended by changing the word "Three" in the first sentence to "Four."

2. Section 240.14a–6 (c) (Rule X-14A–6 (c)) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Four definitive copies of the proxy statement, form of proxy and all other soliciting material, in the form in which such material is furnished to security holders, shall be filed with, or mailed for filing to, the Commission not later than the date such material is first sent or given to any security holders. Three copies of such material shall at the same time be filed with, or mailed for filing to each national securities exchange upon which any security of the issuer is listed and registered.

3. Section 240.14a–8 (Rule X-14A–8) is amended to read as follows:

§ 240.14a–8 Proposals of security holders. (a) If any security holder entitled to vote at a meeting of security holders of the issuer shall submit to the management of the issuer a reasonable time before the solicitation is made a proposal which is accompanied by notice of his intention to present the proposal for action at the meeting, the management shall set forth the proposal in its proxy statement and shall identify the proposal in its form of proxy and provide means by which security holders can make the specification provided for by § 240.14a–4 (b). A proposal so submitted with respect to an annual meeting more than 60 days in advance of a day corresponding to the first date on which management proxy soliciting material was released to security holders in connection with the last annual meeting of security holders shall prima facie be deemed to have been submitted a reasonable time before the solicitation. This section shall not apply, however, to elections to office.

(b) If the management opposes the proposal, it shall also, at the request of the security holder, include in its proxy statement the name and address of the security holder and a statement of the security holder in not more than 100 words in support of the proposal. The statement and request of the security holder shall be furnished to the management at the same time that the proposal is furnished. Neither the management nor the issuer shall be responsible for such statement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the management may omit a proposal and any statement in support thereof from its proxy statement and form of proxy under any of the following circumstances:

(1) If the proposal as submitted is, under the laws of the issuer's domicile, not a proper subject for action by security holders; or

(2) If it clearly appears that the proposal is submitted by the security holder primarily for the purpose of enforcing a personal claim or redressing a personal grievance against the issuer or its management, or primarily for the purpose of promoting general economic, political, racial, religious, social or similar causes; or

(3) If the management has at the security holder's request included a proposal in its proxy statement and form of proxy relating to either of the last two annual meetings of security holders or any special meeting held subsequent to the earlier of such two annual meetings and such security holder has failed without good cause to present the proposal, in person or by proxy, for action at the meeting; or

(4) If substantially the same proposal has previously been submitted to security holders, in the management's proxy statement and form of proxy, relating to any annual or special meeting of security holders held within the preceding five calendar years, it may be omitted from the management's proxy material relating to any meeting of security holders held within the three calendar years after the latest such previous submission: Provided, That:

(i) If the proposal was submitted at only one meeting during such preceding period, it received less than 3 percent of the total number of votes cast in regard thereto; or

(ii) If the proposal was submitted at only two meetings during such preceding period, it received at the time of its second submission less than 6 percent of the total number of votes cast in regard thereto; or

(iii) If the proposal was submitted at three or more meetings during such preceding period, it received at the time of its latest submission less than 10 percent of the total number of votes cast in regard thereto.

(5) If the proposal consists of a recommendation or request that the management take action with respect to a matter relating to the conduct of the ordinary business operations of the issuer.

(d) Whenever the management asserts that a proposal and any statement in support thereof may properly be omitted from its proxy statement and form of proxy, it shall file with the Commission, not later than 20 days prior to the date the preliminary copies of the proxy statement and form of proxy are filed pursuant to § 240.14a–6 (a), or such shorter period prior to such date as the Commission may permit, a copy of the proposal and any statement in support thereof as received from the security holder, together with a statement of the reasons why the management deems such omission to be proper in the particular case, and, where such reasons are based on matters of law, a supporting opinion of counsel. The management shall at the same time, if it has not already done so, notify the security holder submitting the proposal of its intention to omit the proposal from its proxy statement and form of proxy and shall forward to him a copy of the statement of the reasons why the management deems the omission of the proposal to be proper and a copy of such supporting opinion of counsel.

4. Items 6, 7, and 8 of Schedule 14A are amended to read as follows:

Item 6. Nominees and directors. (a) If action is to be taken with respect to the election of directors, furnish the following information, in tabular form to the extent practicable, with respect to each person nominated for election as a director and each other person whose term of office as a director will continue after the meeting:

(1) Name each such person, state when his term of office or the term of office for which he is a nominee will expire, and all other positions and offices with the issuer presently held by him, and indicate which persons are nominees for election as directors at that meeting.

(2) State his present principal occupation or employment and give the name and principal business of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is carried on. Furnish similar information as to all of his principal occupations or employments during the last five years, unless he is now a director and was elected to his present term of office by a vote of security holders at a meeting for which proxies were solicited under this regulation.

(3) If he is or has previously been a director of the issuer state the period or periods during which he has served as such.

(4) State, as of the most recent practicable date, the approximate amount of each class of equity securities of the issuer or any of its parents or subsidiaries, other than directors' qualifying shares, beneficially owned directly or indirectly by him. If he is not the beneficial owner of any such securities, make a statement to that effect.

(5) If more than 10 percent of any class of securities of the issuer or any of its parents or subsidiaries are beneficially owned by him and his associates, state the approximate amount of each class of such securities beneficially owned by such associates, naming each associate whose holdings are substantial.

(b) If any nominee for election as a director is proposed to be elected pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between the nominee and any other person or persons, except the directors and officers of the issuer acting solely in that capacity, name such other person or persons and describe briefly such arrangement or understanding.

Item 7. Remuneration and other transactions with management and others. Furnish the information called for by this item if action is to be taken with respect to (i) the election of directors, (ii) any bonus, profit sharing or other remuneration plan, contract or arrangement in which any director, nominee for election as a director, or officer of the issuer will participate, (iii) any pension or retirement plan in which any such person will participate or (iv) the granting or extension to any such person of any options, warrants or rights to purchase any securities, other than warrants or rights issued to security holders, as such, on a pro-rata basis. However, if the solicitation is made on behalf of persons other than the management, the information required need be furnished only as to nominees for election as directors and as to their associates.

(a) Furnish the following information in substantially the tabular form indicated below as to all direct remuneration paid by the issuer and its subsidiaries during the issuer's last fiscal year to the following persons for services in all capacities:

(1) Each director, and each of the three highest paid officers, of the issuer whose direct aggregate remuneration exceeded $30,000, naming each such person.

(2) All directors and officers of the issuer as a group, without naming them.

(A) Name of individual or identity of group	(B) Capacities in which remuneration was received	(C) Aggregate remuneration

Instructions. 1. This item applies to any person who was a director or officer of the issuer at any time during the period specified. However, information need not be given for any portion of the period during which such person was not a director or officer of the issuer.

2. The information is to be given on an accrual basis if practicable. The tables required by this paragraph and paragraph (b) may be combined if the issuer so desires.

3. Do not include remuneration paid to a partnership in which any director or officer was a partner, but see paragraph (f) below.

(b) Furnish the following information, in substantially the tabular form indicated, as to all pension or retirement benefits proposed to be paid under any existing plan in the event of retirement at normal retirement date, directly or indirectly, by the issuer or any of its subsidiaries to each director or officer named in answer to paragraph (a) (1):

(A) Name of individual or identity of group	(B) Amount set aside or accrued during issuer's last fiscal year	(C) Estimated annual benefits upon retirement

Instructions. 1. The term "plan" in this paragraph and in paragraph (c) includes all plans, contracts, authorizations or arrangements, whether or not set forth in any formal document.

2. Column (B) need not be answered with respect to payments computed on an actuarial basis under any plan which provides for fixed benefits in the event of retirement at a specified age or after a specified number of years of service.

3. The information called for by Column (C) may be given in a table showing the annual benefits payable upon retirement to persons in specified salary classifications.

4. In the case of any plan (other than those specified in instruction 2) where the amount set aside each year depends upon the amount of earnings of the issuer or its subsidiaries for such year or a prior year, or where it is otherwise impracticable to state the estimated annual benefits upon retirement, there shall be set forth, in lieu of the information called for by Column (C), the aggregate amount set aside or accrued to date, unless it is impracticable to do so, in which case there shall be stated the method of computing such benefits.

(c) Describe briefly all remuneration payments (other than direct remuneration for services and pension or retirement benefits) proposed to be made in the future directly or indirectly by the issuer or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to any existing plan or arrangement to (i) each director or officer named in answer to paragraph (a) (1), naming each such person, and (ii) all directors and officers of the issuer as a group, without naming them.

Instruction. Information need not be included as to payments to be made for, or benefits to be received from group life or accident insurance, group hospitalization or similar group payments or benefits.

(d) Furnish the following information as to all options to purchase securities, from the issuer or any of its subsidiaries, which were granted to or exercised by the following persons since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year: (i) Each director or officer named in answer to paragraph (a) (1), naming each such person; and (ii) all directors and officers of the issuer as a group, without naming them:

(1) As to options granted, state (i) the title and amount of securities called for; (ii) the prices, expiration dates and other material provisions; (iii) the consideration received for the granting thereof; and (iv) the market value of the securities called for on the granting date.

(2) As to options exercised, state (i) the title and amount of securities purchased; (ii) the purchase price; and (iii) the market value of the securities purchased on the date of purchase.

Instructions. 1. The term "options" as used in this paragraph (d) includes all options, warrants or rights other than those issued to security holders as such on a pro rata basis.

2. The extension of options shall be deemed the granting of options within the meaning of this paragraph.

3. (i) Where the total market value on the granting dates of the securities called for by all options granted during the period specified does not exceed $10,000 for any officer or director named in answer to paragraph (a) (1), or $30,000 for all officers and directors as a group, this item need not be answered with respect to options granted to such person or group. (ii) Where the total market value on the dates of purchase of all securities purchased through the exercise of options during the period specified does not exceed $10,000 for any such person or $30,000 for such group, this item need not be answered with respect to options exercised by such person or group.

4. The information for all directors and officers as a group regarding market value of the securities on the granting date of the options and on the purchase date, may be given in the form of price ranges for each calendar quarter during which options were granted or exercised.

(e) State as to each of the following persons who was indebted to the issuer or its subsidiaries at any time since the beginning of the last fiscal year of the issuer, (i) the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding at any time during such period, (ii) the nature of the indebtedness and of the transaction in which it was incurred, (iii) the amount thereof outstanding as of the latest practicable date, and (iv) the rate of interest paid or charged thereon:

(1) Each director or officer of the issuer;

(2) Each nominee for election as a director; and,

(3) Each associate of any such director, officer or nominee.

Instructions. 1. See instruction 1 to paragraph (a). Include the name of each person whose indebtedness is described and the nature of the relationship by reason of which the information is required to be given.

2. This paragraph does not apply to any person whose aggregate indebtedness did not exceed $10,000 or 1 percent of the issuer's total assets, whichever is less, at any time during the period specified. Exclude in the determination of the amount of indebtedness all amounts due from the particular person for purchases subject to usual trade terms, for ordinary travel and expense advances and for other transactions in the ordinary course of business.

(f) Describe briefly, and where practicable state the approximate amount of, any material interest, direct or indirect, of any of the following persons in any material transactions since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or in any material proposed transactions, to which the issuer or any of its subsidiaries was or is to be a party:

(1) Any director or officer of the issuer;

(2) Any nominee for election as a director;

(3) Any security holder named in answer to item 5 (d); or

(4) Any associate of any of the foregoing persons.

Instructions. 1. See instruction 1 to paragraph (a). Include the name of each person whose interest in any transaction is described and the nature of the relationship by reason of which such interest is required to be described. Where it is not practicable to state the approximate amount of the interest, the approximate amount involved in the transaction shall be indicated.

2. As to any transaction involving the purchase or sale of assets by or to the issuer or any subsidiary, otherwise than in the ordinary course of business, state the cost of the assets to the purchaser and the cost thereof to the seller if acquired by the seller within two years prior to the transaction.

3. The instruction to item 4 shall apply to this item.

4. No information need be given under this paragraph as to any remuneration or other transaction reported in response to (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this item.

5. No information need be given under this paragraph as to any transaction or any interest therein where:

(i) The rates or charges involved in the transaction are fixed by law or determined by competitive bids;

(ii) The interest of the specified person in the transaction is solely that of a director of another corporation which is a party to the transaction;

(iii) The transaction involves services as a bank depositary of funds, transfer agent, registrar, trustee under a trust indenture, or other similar services;

(iv) The interest of the specified person does not exceed $30,000; or

(v) The transaction does not involve remuneration for services, directly or indirectly, and (A) the interest of the specified persons arises from the ownership individually and in the aggregate of less than 10 percent of any class of equity securities of another corporation which is a party to the transaction, (B) the transaction is in the ordinary course of business of the issuer or its subsidiaries, and (C) the amount of such transaction or series of transactions is less than 10 percent of the total sales or purchases, as the case may be, of the issuer and its subsidiaries.

6. Information shall be furnished under this paragraph with respect to transactions not excluded above which involve remuneration, directly or indirectly, to any of the specified persons for services in any capacity unless the interest of such persons arises solely from the ownership individually and in the aggregate of less than 10 percent of any class of equity securities of another corporation furnishing the services to the issuer or its subsidiaries.

7. This paragraph (f) does not require the disclosure of any interest in any transaction unless such interest and transaction are material.

Item 8. Selection of auditors. If action is to be taken with respect to the selection or approval of auditors, or if it is proposed that particular auditors shall be recommended by any committee to select auditors for whom votes are to be cast, name the auditors and describe briefly any direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in the issuer or any of its parents or subsidiaries or any connection during the past three years with the issuer or any of its parents or subsidiaries in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

These amendments shall be effective as to any solicitation of proxies commenced on or after February 6, 1954, except that the amendment to the second sentence of Rule X-14A-8 (a) (§ 240.14a-8 (a)) shall be effective only as to a solicitation commenced on or after March 6, 1954. However, the amendments to Schedule 14A may be made effective at the option of an issuer as to any proxy solicitation commenced on or after January 6, 1954.

(Sec. 23 (a), 48 Stat. 901 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 78w. Interprets or applies sec. 14, 48 Stat. 895 as amended; 15 U. S. C. 78n)

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

[Regs. 118; T. D. 6059]

PART 39—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1951

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Regulations 118 (26 CFR, Part 39) are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 39.23 (m)-1 (e) (4) is amended by striking the first sentence thereof.

PAR. 2. Section 39.53-3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 39.53-3 Extensions of time in the case of foreign organizations, certain domestic corporations, and citizens of United States residing or traveling abroad. An extension of time for filing returns of income is hereby granted up to and including the fifteenth day of the sixth month following the close of the taxable year in the case of:

(a) Foreign partnerships, regardless of whether they maintain an office or place of business within the United States;

(b) Foreign corporations which maintain an office or place of business within the United States;

(c) Domestic corporations which transact their business and keep their records and books of account abroad;

(d) Domestic corporations whose principal income is from sources within the possessions of the United States; and

(e) American citizens residing or traveling abroad, including persons in military or naval service on duty outside the United States.

In all such cases a statement must be attached to the return showing that the person for whom the return is made is a person described in this section. Taxpayers who take advantage of this extension of time will be charged with interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum on the first installment of tax, if any, from the original due date until paid.

PAR. 3. Section 39.44-5 is amended by inserting immediately after the second sentence of paragraph (c) thereof the following new sentence: "On and after September 1, 1953, the functions of the Commissioner with respect to such bonds shall be performed by the district director of internal revenue for the internal revenue district in which the last return of the decedent is filed, and any bond filed on or after such date shall be filed with such district director."

PAR. 4. Section 39.112 (b) (6)-3 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking from the first sentence of paragraph (a) (2) thereof the words "for transmittal to the Commissioner".

(B) By striking the first sentence of paragraph (a) (3) thereof and inserting in lieu of such sentence the following: "For each of the taxable years which falls wholly or partly within the period of liquidation, the recipient corporation may be required to file a bond, the amount of which shall be fixed by the district director of internal revenue."

(C) By inserting at the end of paragraph (a) (3) thereof the following sentence: "On and after September 1, 1953, the functions of the Commissioner with respect to such bonds shall be performed by the district director of internal revenue for the internal revenue district in which the return was filed, and any bond filed on or after such date shall be filed with such district director."

PAR. 5. Section 39.112 (f)-1 (c) (3) is hereby amended by striking the part which follows the first sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Such application shall be made prior to the expiration of the one year after the close of the first taxable year in which any part of the gain from the conversion is realized, and shall contain all of the details in connection with the involuntary conversion. Such application, if made before September 1, 1953, shall be made to the Commissioner, or, if made on or after September 1, 1953, shall be made to the district director of internal revenue for the internal revenue district in which the return is filed for the first taxable year in which any of the gain from the involuntary conversion is realized. No extension of time shall be granted pursuant to such application unless the taxpayer can show reasonable cause for not being able to replace the converted property within the required period of time."

PAR. 6. Section 39.131 (c)-2 is amended by inserting after the last sentence thereof the following new sentence: "On and after September 1, 1953, the functions of the Commissioner with respect to such bonds shall be performed by the district director of internal revenue, and any bond filed on or after such date shall be filed with the district director."

PAR. 7. Section 39.143-7 (b) is amended by striking the last sentence thereof.

Because this Treasury decision merely amends Regulations 118 to incorporate therein the changes made to Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) by Treasury Decision 6041 (18 F. R. 5515), approved September 9, 1953, and to correct certain clerical errors, it is found unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter I—Bureau of Mines, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Explosives and Related Articles; Tests for Permissibility and Suitability

PART 17—BLASTING DEVICES (SCHEDULE 26)

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The Bureau of Mines has determined that certain phases of its testing schedule as set forth in Part 17 (Schedule 26) require alteration. Since the following changes or amendments tend to decrease and clarify the present requirements, it is determined that the notices and procedures prescribed by section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1003) are impractical, unnecessary, and the rules and regulations shall become effective as of the date of filing in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The following revisions are made in Part 17 of this title, heretofore promulgated (18 F. R. 1003): 1. Paragraphs (g) and (h) of § 17.11 are deleted and new paragraphs (g), (h) and (i) are substituted as follows:

§ 17.11 Conditions under which blasting devices are to be used. • • •

(g) A misfired device may not be opened in the mine unless an exception to this section is included as part of the approval for each specific device. The conditions which constitute a misfire will be specified in the original approval.

(h) A waiting period of 15 minutes shall be required before any personnel are allowed to return to the face after a misfire has occurred.

(i) Other conditions which will be set down by the Bureau as appropriate to the particular device tested.

2. Subparagraph (2) of § 17.15 (a) is deleted and a new subparagraph (2) is substituted as follows:

§ 17.15 Tolerances as applied to field samples. • • •

(a) Chemical analysis of field samples. • • •

(2) Other ingredients. For ingredients in quantities of 60 percent or more, the tolerance shall be ±3 percent of the total. For ingredients in quantities not exceeding 60 percent, the tolerances shall be in accordance with those shown in table 2, except for carbonaceous combustible material, where the tolerance shall be ±3 percent of the total.

(Sec. 5, 36 Stat. 370, as amended; 30 U. S. C. 7. Interpret or apply sec. 3, 36 Stat. 370, as amended; 30 U. S. C. 5)

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 120—ANNUAL, SPECIAL OR PERIODICAL REPORTS

ELECTRIC RAILWAY ANNUAL REPORT FORM G

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of December A. D. 1953.

The matter of annual reports from electric railway companies being under consideration, and it appearing that the changes in existing regulations to be effectuated by this order are only minor changes with respect to the data to be furnished, and that public rule-making procedures are unnecessary:

It is ordered, That the order dated December 10, 1952, in the matter of annual reports from electric railways (49 CFR 120.21) be, and it is hereby, modified with respect to annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1953, and subsequent years, as follows:

§ 120.21 Form prescribed for electric railways. All electric railway companies subject to the provisions of section 20, Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, are hereby required to file annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1953, and for each succeeding year until further order, in accordance with Annual Report Form G (Electric Railways),[1] which is hereby approved and made a part of this section. The annual report shall be filed, in duplicate, in the Bureau of Transport Economics and Statistics, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D. C., on or before March 31 of the year following the one to which it relates.

CALIFORNIA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

JANUARY 7, 1954.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Regional Administrator, Region II, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 1, Amendment No. 2, dated January 29, 1953 (18 F. R. 23), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described land in the Los Angeles land district, embracing approximately 155 acres.

CALIFORNIA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 395

For lease and sale for homesite purposes only:

T. 1 S., R. 7 E., S. B. M.,
Sec. 18, N½NE¼, E½NW¼SW¼NE¼, NE¼NW¼, N½NW¼NW¼, E½NW¼SE¼NW¼, W½NE¼SE¼NW¼.

The lands are located in San Bernardino County, California, approximately 4 miles southeasterly from the Town of Joshua Tree. Access to the lands can be had by a graded road passing through the Joshua Tree National Monument from the Town of Joshua Tree. The topography is from hilly to gentle slopes, and vegetation is a desert shrub association. Water for domestic purposes will probably have to be hauled in.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 9:30 a. m., December 14, 1953, which describe tracts in accordance with the provisions contained herein, this order shall be effective upon the date of this order.

3. This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to applications under the Small Tract Act as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject only to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II, subject to the requirements of applicable law. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to disposal under the Small Tract Act only. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

4. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their application by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

5. All of the lands will be leased in tracts of approximately 5 acres with approximate dimensions of 660 feet north and south and 330 feet east and west, each tract forming an aliquot part of the official survey of the section.

6. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued only if the tract applied for conforms to or is amended to conform to the area, dimensions and orientation specified in paragraph 5.

7. Leases will be issued for a period of three years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $100.00 per tract. Application to purchase may be filed during the term of the lease but not more than 30 days prior to the expiration of one year from the date of the lease issuance.

8. Tracts will be subject to all existing rights-of-way and to rights-of-way 33 feet in width along the boundaries thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, County or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

9. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

E. I. ROWLAND,
Regional Chief,
Division of Lands.

C. 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described lands in the Sacramento land district, embracing approximately 140 acres.

CALIFORNIA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 397

For lease and sale for homesite purposes only:

T. 20 N., R. 6 E., M. D. M.,
Sec. 31, E½NE¼NE¼, W½SW¼NE¼, N½NE¼SW¼NE¼, N½SE¼NE¼, N½NW¼NE¼NW¼, SE¼NE¼NW¼, SE¼NW¼.

For lease and sale for business and homesite purposes only:

T. 20 N., R. 6 E., M. D. M.,
Sec. 31, S½NE¼SW¼NE¼.

The lands are located in Butte County, California, about two miles northeast of Enterprise and seven miles southwest of Feather Falls. The lands are accessible from a paved road which crosses the area. The topography is hilly with a vegetative cover of scattered yellow pine and incense cedar and an understory of brush.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 9:00 a. m., December 31, 1953, which describe tracts in accordance with the provisions contained herein, this order shall be effective upon the date of this order.

feet by 330 feet containing approximately 5 acres. Each tract must be described as an aliquot part of a legal subdivision established by the official survey of the section. All tracts will be oriented with the longer dimension extending north and south except that no amendment will be required in the case of the preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2. Where such preference right leases were filed with the longer dimension extending east and west the remaining tract in the ten acre subdivision will also be leased with the longer dimension extending east and west.

6. Leases will be issued for a period of three years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable in advance for the entire lease period in advance of issuance of the lease as to all lands classified for homesite purposes only. Leases on land classified for business and homesite purposes will be issued for a period of three years at a minimum annual rental of $20.00 payable in advance for the entire lease period and subject to increase in accordance with the schedule of rentals contained in the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the following appraised values:

E½NE¼NE¼, N½S½NE¼, SW¼SW¼NE¼, E½SE¼NW¼, SW¼SE¼NW¼ Sec. 31, $40.00 per acre.

NW¼SE¼NW¼ Sec. 31, $30.00 per acre.

N½NW¼NE¼NW¼, SE¼NE¼NW¼ Sec. 31, $25.00 per acre.

Application to purchase may be filed during the term of the lease but not more than 30 days prior to the expiration of one year from the date of the lease issuance.

7. Tracts will be subject to all existing rights-of-way and to rights-of-way 33 feet in width along the boundaries thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, county or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

8. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Sacramento, California.

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

JANUARY 7, 1954.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Regional Administrator, Region II, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 1, Amendment No. 2, dated January 29, 1953 (18 F. R. 23), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described lands in the Nevada land district, embracing approximately 80 acres,

NEVADA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION No. 97

For lease and sale for homesite purposes only:

T. 18 N., R. 20 E., M. D. M.,
Sec. 34, E½SW¼.

This land is located twelve miles south of Reno, Nevada, and is one-half mile south of paved State Highway No. 17. The land is accessible by unimproved road. The topography ranges from gentle slopes to hilly. Vegetation is a sagebrush-juniper type. Water for domestic use will probably be obtainable in wells of moderate depth.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 1:00 p. m., September 26, 1952, and are for the type of site for which the lands are classified, this order shall become effective upon the date of this order.

3. This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to applications under the Small Tract Act as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject only to application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to disposal under the Small Tract Act only. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

4. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their application by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

5. All of the lands will be leased in tracts containing approximately 5 acres with dimensions of 660 feet north and south and 330 feet east and west which form aliquot parts of the existing official survey.

6. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued only if the lands described in the application conforms to or is amended to conform to the area and dimensions specified in paragraph 5.

7. Leases will be for a period of three years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $250.00 per tract in the E½E½SW¼ and E½W½SE¼SW¼ Section 34 and $150.00 per tract in the W½NE¼SW¼ and W½W½SE¼SW¼ Section 34. Application to purchase may be filed during the term of the lease but not more than 30 days prior to the expiration of one year from the date of the lease issuance.

8. Tracts will be subject to all existing rights-of-way and to rights-of-way 33 feet in width on or as near as practicable to the boundaries thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, County or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

9. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Nevada Land and Survey Office, Reno, Nevada.

TULSA BROADCASTING CO. ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Tulsa Broadcasting Company, Muskogee, Oklahoma, Docket No. 10836, File No. BPCT-1261; Oklahoma Press Publishing Company, Muskogee, Oklahoma, Docket No. 10837, File No. BPCT-1326; Ashley L. Robison, Muskogee, Oklahoma, Docket No. 10838, File No. BPCT-1810; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of January 1954;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 8 in Muskogee, Oklahoma; and

It appearing, that the above-entitled applications are mutually exclusive in that operation by more than one applicant would result in mutually destructive interference; and

It further appearing, that pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-named applicants were advised by letters of the fact that their applications were mutually exclusive, of the necessity for a hearing and of all objections to their applications; and were given an opportunity to reply; and

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-entitled applications, the amendments filed thereto, and the replies to the above letters, the Commission finds that under section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing is mandatory; that Tulsa Broadcasting Company and Oklahoma Press Publishing Company are legally, financially and technically qualified to construct, own and operate a television broadcast station; and that Ashley L. Robison is legally so qualified and is technically so qualified except as to the matter referred to in issue "2" below;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 5th day of February 1954 in Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

(1) To determine whether Ashley L. Robison is financially qualified to construct, own and operate his proposed television station.

(2) To determine whether the installation of the station proposed by Ashley L. Robison in his above-entitled application would constitute a hazard to air navigation.

(3) To determine on a comparative basis which of the operations proposed in the above-entitled applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the record made with respect to the significant differences among the applications as to:

(a) The background and experience of each of the above-named applicants having a bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television station.

(b) The proposals of each of the above-named applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-entitled applications.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to Tulsa Broadcasting Company and Oklahoma Press Publishing Company give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in their respective applications will be effectuated.

Released: January 11, 1954.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-2292]

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

El Paso Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal office in El Paso, Texas, on October 26, 1953, filed application with the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of two taps and meter stations on its authorized 30-inch Permian-San Juan crossover line near the villages of Grants and Tatum, New Mexico, for the transportation and sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application on file with the Commission, and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest, or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 13, 1953 (18 F. R. 7211).

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on January 26, 1954, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by the application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Adopted: January 7, 1954.

Issued: January 8, 1954.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-3237]

ADOLF GOBEL, INC.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of January A. D. 1954.

The Commission by order adopted March 13, 1953, pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, having summarily suspended trading in the $1.00 par value common stock of Adolf Gobel, Inc., on the American Stock Exchange for a period of ten days from that date, and subsequently having entered additional orders further suspending such trading in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on that Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule X-15C2-2 thereunder, for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in said securities on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, effective at the opening of the trading session on said Exchange on January 11, 1954, for a period of ten days.

By the Commission.

MISSION OIL CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION FOR FURTHER EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DISPOSITION BY SINCLAIR OIL CORP. OF CERTAIN COMMON STOCK OF SUBSIDIARY

JANUARY 7, 1954.

In the matter of The Mission Oil Company, Southwestern Development Company and subsidiaries and Sinclair Oil Corporation, File Nos. 54-196, 59-97, Albert R. Jones, et al., File No. 70-2681.

Notice is hereby given that Sinclair Oil Corporation ("Sinclair"), a registered holding company which is exempt from the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), other than sections 9 (a) (2) and 11 (b), (c) and (e) thereof, has filed with this Commission, pursuant to said act, an application requesting the Commission to extend for a further period of six months from December 21, 1953, the time within which to effect a disposition of its holdings of the common stock of Westpan Hydrocarbon Company ("Westpan"), which was provided for in a plan approved by the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, by order dated December 21, 1951.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 20, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on said application, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after January 20, 1954, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted, or the Commission may take such other action as it deems necessary or appropriate.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the request for a further extension of time and the reasons given for such request.

The plan provided, among other things, for the disposition by Sinclair, within one year from December 21, 1951 "or such longer time as the Commission may by further order grant", of the reclassified common stock of Southwestern Development Company ("Southwestern"), a registered holding company, and the common stocks of Colorado Interstate Gas Company ("Colorado") and Westpan, non-utility subsidiaries of Southwestern, received by Sinclair under the provisions of the plan. Sinclair disposed of the common stock of Colorado and the Commission, by orders dated December 24, 1952 and July 1, 1953, extended to December 21, 1953 the time within which Sinclair should effect a disposition of the common stocks of Southwestern and Westpan.

On December 24, 1953, the Commission issued its order granting and permitting to become effective an application-declaration regarding, inter alia, (1) the merger of all of Southwestern's public-utility subsidiaries into a single surviving company, Amarillo Gas Company, whose name will be changed to Pioneer Natural Gas Company ("Pioneer"), which will acquire the capital stock of Amarillo Oil Company, a non-utility subsidiary of Southwestern; (2) the liquidation and dissolution of Southwestern; (3) the acquisition by Sinclair of the shares of capital stock of Pioneer which it will receive in lieu of the stock of Southwestern; and (4) the sale by Sinclair (within six months from the date of the Commission's order or within such longer time as the Commission may by further order direct) of the stock of Pioneer which it will receive.

In support of the application for a further extension of time, Sinclair states that it has been unable in the exercise of due diligence to dispose of the common stock of Westpan.

By the Commission.

MYSTIC VALLEY GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING SALE OF PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT COMPETITIVE BIDDING

JANUARY 7, 1954.

Notice is hereby given that Mystic Valley Gas Company ("Mystic"), a public-utility subsidiary of New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). Applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act and Rules U-42 (b) (2) and U-50 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

Mystic proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $5,500,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, due 1974. The price of the bonds which shall be not less than the principal amount nor more than 102¾ percent thereof and the interest rate which shall be a multiple of ⅛ of 1 percent and not in excess of 5 percent will be determined by competitive bidding. Bids will be received up to 12 00 noon on a date fixed by Mystic by giving notice at least 42 hours in advance thereof. Mystic requests that the period for inviting bids be shortened to not less than six days.

The proceeds (exclusive of accrued interest) derived from the sale of the bonds will be used by Mystic to pay an equal principal amount of its promissory notes. Mystic presently has outstanding $5,550,000 principal amount of 3¼ percent notes payable to a bank maturing March 1, 1954.

Mystic is organized and doing business in The Commonwealth of Massachusetts and represents that the sale of its bonds will be expressly authorized by the Department of Public Utilities of that State.

The expenses to be incurred in connection with the issue and sale of the bonds, including expenses for services, at cost, by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, are estimated by Mystic to amount to $58,000.

Mystic requests that the Commission's order become effective upon issuance

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 27, 1954, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason or reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 and U-100 thereof.

[Declaration of Disaster Area 13]

OREGON

DECLARATION OF DISASTER AREA

Whereas, it has been reported that during the week commencing January 4, 1954 and thereafter, because of the disastrous effect of landslides, damage resulted and further damage is expected to result to residences and business property located in certain areas of the State of Oregon; and

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected; and

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act of 1953;

Now therefore, as Acting Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 207 (b) of the Small Business Act of 1953 may be submitted to the SBA Office below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the following county (hereinafter referred to as "the disaster area") suffers or suffered damage or other destruction as a result of the catastrophe above referred to:

County: Clapsop—Small Business Administration Branch Office, 519 South West Park Avenue, Portland, Oreg.

2. Special field offices will not be established to receive and process such applications.

3. No disaster loan application from any resident or firm situated in the disaster area will be accepted under the authority of this order subsequent to July 31, 1954.

Dated: January 12, 1954.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas), Department of Agriculture

PART 722—COTTON

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM FOR 1954 CROP OF UPLAND COTTON

§ 722.504 Basis and purpose. The purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the marketing quota referendum for the 1954 crop of upland cotton. Under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture on October 9, 1953, proclaimed a national marketing quota for the 1954 crop of upland cotton (18 F. R. 6556), and on November 20, 1953, announced that a referendum would be held on December 15, 1953, to determine whether cotton farmers were in favor of or opposed to such quota (18 F. R. 7519). Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the referendum, it is hereby found and determined that, with respect to the proclamation, application of the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is unnecessary.

§ 722.505 Proclamation of results of the marketing quota referendum for the 1954 crop of upland cotton. In a referendum held on December 15, 1953, of farmers engaged in the production of the 1953 crop of upland cotton, 487,453 farmers voted. Of those voting, 458,382, or 94.0 percent, favored the national marketing quota proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the 1954 crop of upland cotton, and 29,071, or 6.0 percent, opposed such quota. Therefore, the national marketing quota of 10,000,000 bales proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on October 9, 1953, for the 1954 crop of upland cotton shall continue in effect.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 342-345, 52 Stat. 56-58, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1342-1345)

PART 722—COTTON

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM FOR 1954 CROP OF EXTRA LONG STAPLE COTTON

§ 722.1104 Basis and purpose. The purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the marketing quota referendum for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton. Under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture on October 9, 1953, proclaimed a national marketing quota for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton (18 F. R. 6557), and on November 20, 1953, announced that a referendum would be held on December 15, 1953, to determine whether cotton farmers were in favor of or opposed to such quota (18 F. R. 7519). Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the referendum, it is hereby found and determined that, with respect to the proclamation, application of the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is unnecessary.

§ 722.1105 Proclamation of results of the marketing quota referendum for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton. In a referendum held on December 15, 1953, of farmers engaged in the production of the 1953 crop of extra long staple cotton, 1,643 farmers voted. Of those voting, 1,467, or 89.3 percent, favored the national marketing quota proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton, and 176, or 10.7 percent, opposed such quota. Therefore, the national marketing quota of 30,000 bales proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on October 9, 1953, for the 1954 crop of extra long staple cotton shall continue in effect.

PART 729—PEANUTS

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF REFERENDUM ON MARKETING QUOTAS FOR PEANUTS FOR THE YEARS 1954, 1955 AND 1956

§ 729.504 Basis and purpose. This document is issued to announce the results of the referendum held December 15, 1953, pursuant to section 358 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to determine whether farmers favor or oppose marketing quotas for peanuts produced in the three calendar years beginning with 1954. The act requires the results of any peanut marketing quota referendum to be proclaimed within thirty days after the date on which it is held. Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the referendum, it is hereby found and determined that, with respect to this proclamation, application of the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and unnecessary.

§ 729.505 Proclamation of the results of the marketing quota referendum for peanuts for the crops produced in the three calendar years beginning with the calendar year 1954. In a referendum of farmers engaged in the production of the 1953 crop of peanuts held on December 15, 1953, 66,433 farmers voted. Of those voting 62,637 farmers, or 94.3 percent, favored quotas for peanuts produced in the three calendar years beginning with 1954, and 3,796 farmers, or 5.7 percent, were opposed to having quotas in effect for the crops produced in the three calendar years beginning with the calendar year 1954. Since more than two-thirds of the farmers voting favored quotas, the national marketing quota proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture for peanuts produced in the calendar year 1954 (18 F. R. 6352) shall be in effect, and national marketing quotas hereafter proclaimed for peanuts for the calendar years 1955 and 1956 shall be effective.

[7 CFR Part 52]

FROZEN MIXED VEGETABLES[1]

U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as herein proposed, of the current United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Mixed Vegetables (7 CFR Part 52, 18 F. R. 8070) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1954 (Pub. Law 156, 83d Cong., approved July 28, 1953). This revision, if made effective, will be the second issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revision is as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.2131 to 52.2142 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090; 7 U. S. C. 1624; Pub. Law 156, 83rd Cong.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION, KINDS, STYLES, PROPORTIONS, AND GRADES

§ 52.2131 Product description. Frozen mixed vegetables consist of three or more succulent vegetables, properly prepared and properly blanched; may contain vegetables (such as, small pieces of sweet red peppers or sweet green peppers) added as garnish; and are frozen and maintained at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

§ 52.2132 Kinds and styles of basic vegetables. It is recommended that frozen mixed vegetables, other than small pieces of vegetables added as garnish, consist of the following kinds and styles of vegetables as basic vegetables:

(a) Beans, green or wax: Cut styles, predominantly of ½ inch to 1½ inch cuts;

(b) Beans, lima: Any single varietal type;

(c) Carrots: Diced style, predominantly of ⅜ inch to ½ inch cubes;

(d) Corn, sweet: Golden (or Yellow) in whole kernel style;

(e) Peas: Early type or sweet type.

§ 52.2133 Recommended proportions of ingredients. It is recommended that frozen mixed vegetables consist of three, four, or five basic vegetables in the following proportions:

(a) Three vegetables. A mixture of three basic vegetables in which any one vegetable is not more than 40 percent by weight of all the frozen mixed vegetables.

(b) Four vegetables. A mixture of four basic vegetables in which none of the vegetables is less than 8 percent by weight nor more than 35 percent by weight of all the frozen mixed vegetables.

(c) Five vegetables. A mixture of five basic vegetables in which none of the vegetables is less than 8 percent by weight nor more than 30 percent by weight of all the frozen mixed vegetables.

§ 52.2134 Grades of frozen mixed vegetables. (a) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen mixed vegetables in which each basic vegetable possesses similar varietal characteristics; in which all vegetables possess a good color, are practically free from defects, possess a good character, possess a good flavor and odor; and that score not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(b) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of frozen mixed vegetables in which each basic vegetable possesses similar varietal characteristics; in which all vegetables possess a reasonably good color, are reasonably free from defects, possess a reasonably good character; possess a good flavor and odor; and that score not less than 80 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(c) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of frozen mixed vegetables in which each basic vegetable possesses similar varietal characteristics; in which all vegetables possess a fairly good color, are fairly free from defects, possess a fairly good character, possess a fairly good flavor and odor; and that score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

(d) "Substandard" is the quality of frozen mixed vegetables that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.2135 Ascertaining the grade. (a) The grade of frozen mixed vegetables is ascertained by considering the factors of similar varietal characteristics and flavor and odor which are not scored and the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character which are scored.

(b) The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors:	Points
Color	20
Absence of defects	40
Character	40
Total score	100

(c) The scores for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character (with respect to each individual vegetable prior to cooking) are determined immediately after thawing so that the product is sufficiently free from ice crystals to permit proper handling as individual units, and representative samples of the product are cooked to ascertain tenderness of the frozen mixed vegetables, collectively, before final evaluation of the score for character. Flavor and odor are also ascertained on the cooked product.

(d) "Good flavor and odor" means that the product and each basic vegetable after cooking has a good, characteristic normal flavor and odor, free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(e) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product after cooking may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

§ 52.2136 Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

§ 52.2137 Color—(a) General. The factor of color refers to the general brightness of all the combined vegetables and to the colors of lima beans, if a component in the mixture, as follows:

(1) "Green" with respect to thin-seeded types (with skins removed), such as Henderson Bush and Thorogreen varieties, and with respect to thick-seeded types (with skins on), such as Fordhook variety, means that the color of not less than 50 percent of the surface area of the individual lima bean possesses as much or more green color as Plate 18, K-5, illustrated in the First Edition of Maerz and Paul's Dictionary of Color.

(2) "Green" with respect to thick-seeded Baby Potato type (with skins on), such as Baby Potato, Baby Fordhook,

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

and Evergreen varieties, means that the color of not less than 50 percent of the surface area of the individual lima bean possesses as much or more green color as Plate 18, J–3, illustrated in the First Edition of Maerz and Paul's Dictionary of Color.

(3) "White" for the respective varietal types (with skins removed or with skins on, as the case may be) means that more than 50 percent of the surface area of the individual lima bean possesses less green color than Plate 18, E–1, as illustrated in the First Edition of Maerz and Paul's Dictionary of Color.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen mixed vegetables which possess a good color may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the combined basic vegetables as a mass and the individual basic vegetables are bright and characteristic of young or tender vegetables that have been properly prepared and properly processed; that any pieces of vegetable material used for garnish are reasonably bright; and that lima beans, if present, possess a bright typical color for the varietal type and meet the following additional color requirements for the respective types:

(1) Thin-seeded type (with skins removed): Thick-seeded Baby Potato type (with skins on). 90 percent or more, by count, of all the lima beans are "green"; and the balance may be lighter in color or may be white or combinations thereof.

(2) Thick-seeded type (with skins on). 85 percent or more, by count, of all the lima beans are "green"; and the balance may be lighter in color but not more than 5 percent, by count, of all the lima beans may be white.

(c) (B) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables possess a reasonably good color, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means that the combined basic vegetables as a mass and the individual basic vegetables are reasonably bright and characteristic of reasonably young or reasonably tender mixed vegetables that have been properly prepared and properly processed; that any pieces of vegetable material used for garnish may be only fairly bright but are not off color for any reason; and that lima beans, if present, possess a reasonably bright typical color for the varietal type and meet the following additional color requirements for the respective types:

(1) Thin-seeded type (with skins removed): Thick-seeded Baby Potato type (with skins on). 65 percent or more, by count, of all the lima beans are "green"; and the balance may be lighter in color or may be white or combinations thereof.

(2) Thick-seeded type (with skins on). 60 percent or more, by count, of all the lima beans are "green"; and the balance may be lighter in color but not more than 5 percent, by count, of all the lima beans may be white.

(d) (C) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables possess a fairly good color, a score of 14 or 15 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good color" means that the combined basic vegetables as a mass and the individual basic vegetables are fairly bright and characteristic of mixed vegetables that have been properly prepared and properly processed; that any pieces of vegetable material used for garnish may be only fairly bright but are not off color for any reason; and that lima beans, if present, possess a fairly bright typical color for the varietal type and meet the following additional color requirements for the respective types:

(1) Thin seeded type (with skins removed): Thick-seeded Baby Potato type (with skins on). More than 35 percent, by count, of all the lima beans are lighter than "green" including lima beans that may be white.

(2) Thick-seeded type (with skins on). More than 40 percent, by count, of all the beans are lighter than "green" but no more than 20 percent, by count, of all the lima beans may be white.

(e) (SStd) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section, a score of 0 to 13 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.2138 Absence of defects—(a) General. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous vegetable materials, slightly damaged units, moderately damaged units, seriously damaged units, and any other defects which detract from the appearance or edibility of the product.

(1) "Harmless extraneous vegetable material" means any vegetable substance other than from any of the basic vegetables or garnish and any portions of the basic vegetables which are normally removed in preparation for processing. Such materials include, but are not limited to, "small pieces" and "large pieces" as follows:

(i) A "small piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material" is any piece or unit of such material similar in shape and the equivalent in size or smaller than 7/16 square inch of leafy material or loose pieces of pods from peas or lima beans, tough or woody stems of any size other than unstemmed units of green or wax beans, ¼-inch cube of corn cob material, ½ square inch of corn husk, and 3/8-inch diameter thistle buds;

(ii) A "large piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material" is any piece or unit of such material similar in shape and larger in size than the equivalent of an applicable kind of "small piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material."

(2) "Slightly damaged unit" means any unit of the basic vegetable or garnish that is affected by slight blemishes, slight discoloration, or similar injury that are noticeable but do not materially affect the appearance or edibility of the unit, and includes, but is not limited to, light discoloration of the hilum of lima beans or other light discoloration of the skin which does not penetrate into the cotyledon of lima beans.

(3) "Moderately damaged unit" means any unit of a basic vegetable or garnish that is affected by blemishes, discoloration, or any other similar injury that materially affects the appearance or edibility of the unit and has the following specific meanings for the respective vegetables:

(i) Beans, green or wax. Any unit blemished by scars, by pathological injury, by insect injury, or by other means which in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle ⅛ inch in diameter.

(ii) Beans, lima. A bean or portion thereof that is spotted or otherwise definitely discolored or that is blemished by pathological injury, by insect injury, or by other means other than light discoloration.

(iii) Carrots. Any unit possessing an unpeeled area greater than the area of a circle ⅛ inch in diameter; and any unit blemished by internal or external discoloration, by sunburn or green color, by pathological injury, by insect injury, or by other means.

(iv) Corn. Any kernel or portion thereof that possesses serious brown or black discoloration.

(v) Peas. Any spotted pea or any off-colored pea (such as brown, gray, cream, or yellow-white) that is abnormally defective and that definitely lacks any tinge of green color.

(vi) Garnish. Any piece blemished by discoloration, by pathological injury, by insect injury, or by other means which in the aggregate exceeds the area of a circle ⅛ inch in diameter.

(4) "Seriously damaged unit" means any unit of the basic vegetable or garnish, other than damaged corn kernels, that is damaged to the extent that the appearance and edibility of the unit is seriously affected and includes, but is not limited to, "shriveled" lima beans that are materially wrinkled and not of normal plumpness; "sprouted" lima beans that show an external shoot protruding beyond the cotyledon or skin; and any unit with brown or very black or very dark spots and serious insect injury regardless of the area affected.

(5) "Other defects" means any defects not specifically mentioned that affect the appearance or edibility of the product, and include, but are not limited to the following:

(i) Beans, green or wax. Loose seeds and portions thereof; and pod sections with very ragged edges that are partially cut or split into two parts, or that are markedly shorter or longer than the predominating lengths of the cut units;

(ii) Beans, lima. Mashed beans, broken beans, loose cotyledons, loose skins, and any portions thereof;

(iii) Carrots. Crushed, broken, cracked, or irregularly shaped units; units with excessively frayed edges and surfaces; and units markedly smaller than one-half the volume of, or markedly larger than, the predominating size of cubes;

(iv) Corn. Crushed kernels, ragged kernels, loose skins, and dark and objectionable pieces of silk more than ½ inch in length; and

(v) Peas. Mashed peas, broken peas, loose cotyledons, loose skins, and any portions thereof.

(b) (A) classification. Frozen mixed vegetables that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present no more than the following defects within the limits stated:

(1) No large pieces of harmless extraneous vegetable material, but 1 small piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material for each 16 ounces net weight, or for each package if the package is less than 16 ounces, of frozen mixed vegetables: Provided, That the combined weight of all the harmless extraneous material is not more than ½ of 1 percent, by weight, of the frozen mixed vegetables;

(2) A total of 3 moderately damaged units and seriously damaged units for each 3 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables of which 1 unit for each 4 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables may be seriously damaged: Provided, That slightly damaged, moderately damaged, and seriously damaged units, either singly or in combination, do not affect materially the appearance or edibility of the frozen mixed vegetables; and

(3) Other defects, individually or collectively, do not affect materially the appearance or edibility of the frozen mixed vegetables.

(c) (B) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables are reasonably free from defects, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that there may be present no more than the following defects within the limits stated:

(1) 1 large piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material and 2 small pieces of harmless extraneous vegetable material for each 16 ounces net weight, or for each package if the package is less than 16 ounces, of frozen mixed vegetables: Provided, That the combined weight of all the harmless extraneous material is not more than ½ of 1 percent, by weight, of the frozen mixed vegetables;

(2) A total of 4 moderately damaged units and seriously damaged units for each 3 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables of which 1 unit for each 3 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables may be seriously damaged: Provided, That slightly damaged, moderately damaged, and seriously damaged units, either singly or in combination, do not affect materially the appearance or edibility of the frozen mixed vegetables; and

(3) Other defects, individually or collectively, do not affect materially the appearance of the frozen mixed vegetables.

(d) (C) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables are fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present no more than the following defects within the limits stated:

(1) 1 large piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material and 2 small pieces of harmless extraneous vegetable material for each 16 ounces net weight, or for each package if the package is less than 16 ounces, of frozen mixed vegetables: Provided, That the combined weight of all the harmless extraneous material is not more than ½ of 1 percent, by weight, of the frozen mixed vegetables;

(2) A total of 5 moderately damaged units and seriously damaged units for each 3 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables of which 1 unit for each 2 ounces of frozen mixed vegetables may be seriously damaged: Provided, That slightly damaged, moderately damaged, and seriously damaged units; either singly or in combination, do not seriously affect the appearance or edibility of the frozen mixed vegetables; and

(3) Other defects, individually or collectively, do not seriously affect the appearance of the frozen mixed vegetables.

(e) (SStd) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section, a score of 0 to 27 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.2139 Character—(a) General. The factor of character refers to the texture, the maturity, and the degree of development of the pods and seeds in green beans or wax beans; the tenderness of lima beans; the tenderness and the degree of freedom from stringy or coarse fibers in carrots; the tenderness and maturity or starchiness of the corn; the tenderness or maturity of the peas; and to the tenderness of the combined frozen mixed vegetables after cooking.

(b) Interpretation of terms. Unless indicated otherwise, the interpretation of the terms with respect to tenderness, texture, maturity, and development of the individual vegetables prior to cooking are the same as those in the applicable United States Standards for Grades of the frozen product.

(c) (A) classification. Frozen mixed vegetables which collectively and individually possess a good character may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the combined vegetables after cooking are tender and that the individual vegetables prior to cooking meet the following requirements:

(1) Beans, green or wax. The bean pods and seeds possess a good character.

(2) Beans, lima. The lima beans, exclusive of white beans, are tender; and any white beans that may be present are tender or reasonably tender.

(3) Carrots. The units possess a tender texture.

(4) Corn. The kernels are no more advanced than the cream stage of maturity, have a reasonably tender texture, and are the equivalent of frozen whole-grain corn that would score not less than 43 points for the factor of "Tenderness and Maturity" as outlined in the "United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Whole Kernel (or Whole Grain) Corn."

(5) Peas. The peas are reasonably tender and are the equivalent of frozen peas that would score not less than 34 points for the factor of "Tenderness and Maturity" as outlined in the "United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Peas."

(d) (B) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables, collectively and individually, possess a reasonably good character, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the combined vegetables after cooking are reasonably tender and practically free from tough fibers and that the individual vegetables prior to cooking meet the following requirements:

(1) Beans, green or wax. The bean pods and seeds possess a reasonably good character.

(2) Beans, lima. The lima beans, including white beans that may be present, are reasonably tender.

(3) Carrots. The units possess a tender texture.

(4) Corn. The kernels are reasonably tender and are the equivalent of frozen whole-grain corn that would score not less than 40 points for the factor of "Tenderness and Maturity" as outlined in the "United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Whole Kernel (or Whole Grain) Corn."

(5) Peas. The peas are reasonably tender and are the equivalent of frozen peas that would score not less than 32 points for the factor of "Tenderness and Maturity" as outlined in the "United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Peas."

(e) (C) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables, collectively and individually, possess a fairly good character, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good character" means that the combined vegetables after cooking are fairly tender and reasonably free from tough fibers and that the individual vegetables prior to cooking meet the following requirements:

(1) Beans, green or wax. The bean pods and seeds possess a fairly good character.

(2) Beans, lima. The lima beans, including white beans that may be present, are fairly tender.

(3) Carrots. The units possess a reasonably tender texture.

(4) Corn. The kernels are fairly tender.

(5) Peas. The peas are fairly tender.

(f) (SStd) classification. If the frozen mixed vegetables, collectively or individually, fail to meet the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section, a score of 0 to 27 points may be given. Frozen mixed vegetables that fall into this classification shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

EXPLANATIONS AND METHODS OF ANALYSES

§ 52.2140 Explanation of terms and analyses. (a) The "proportion of ingredients" are determined on the thawed vegetables by the following procedure:

(1) Separate and assemble from all the containers in the sample each of the basic vegetables;

(2) Weigh each basic vegetable thus composited to obtain the "aggregate weight" of each basic vegetable from all the containers in the sample;

(3) Add the aggregate weights of all the basic vegetables to obtain the "grand total weight" of all the basic vegetables from all containers in the sample; and then

(4) Calculate the percentage of each basic vegetable in the sample by dividing the "aggregate weight" of each basic vegetable by the "grand total weight" of all the basic vegetables.

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 52.2141 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (a) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen mixed vegetables the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if, (1) all containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification; and (2) with respect to those factors which are scored:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers fails to meet the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(ii) None of the containers falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of such total scores;

(iii) None of the containers falls more than one grade below the grade indicated by the average of such total scores; and

(iv) The average score of all containers for any factor subject to a limiting rule is within the score range of that factor for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores of the containers comprising the sample.

[7 CFR Part 903]

[Docket No. AO 10-A18-RO1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, MARKETING AREA

REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the reopening of the public hearing held at St. Louis, Missouri, October 12, 1953, on proposed amendments, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area. The Assistant Secretary's decision of October 26, 1953 dealt with the material issues of an emergency increase in the Class I price differential through March 1954 and establishment of the supply-demand adjustment on a more current basis. In his decision the Assistant Secretary stated that "Final action on these two issues is reserved pending further study of the hearing record and the receipt of further evidence thereon at a hearing to be convened January 19, 1954, at St. Louis, Missouri."

The reopened hearing will be held at the Chase Hotel, St. Louis, Missouri, beginning at 10:00 a. m., January 19, 1954.

The purpose of the reopened hearing is to afford interested parties opportunity to introduce additional evidence on the two issues mentioned above and to receive evidence concerning the additional proposals for amendment hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof. None of the proposals to be considered at the hearing has received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following additional amendments have been proposed:

By Sanitary Milk Producers:

1. Insert in § 903.51 (a) the following:

§ 903.51 Class prices. • • •

(a) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price for the preceding delivery period, plus the following amounts.

(1) Add the following amounts for each delivery period as indicated below:

January	$1.30	July	$1.15
February	1.15	August	1.55
March	1.15	September	1.55
April	.75	October	1.55
May	.75	November	1.55
June	.75	December	1.30

(2) If the utilization percentage calculated pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph exceeds 120 subtract, or if it is less than the 120 add, an amount calculated by multiplying the difference between such percentage figure and 120 by 3 cents, except that nothing shall be added for the delivery periods of April, May or June.

(3) For each delivery period calculate a utilization percentage by dividing the total pounds of Class I milk (including the Class I milk in pool plants, except sales of non-Grade A milk outside the marketing area allocated to other source milk, plus the Class I milk sold in the marketing area from non-pool plants), for the 12-month period ending with the beginning of the month preceding each delivery period, into the total pounds of producer milk during such 12-month period, multiplying by 100, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest whole percentage point.

2. Review the factors used in establishing the level of prices for Class II milk in § 903.51 (b).

3. Delete § 903.80 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

§ 903.80 Payments. (a) On or before the 20th day of each month each handler shall pay to the Market Administrator a sum of money equal to the value of milk received by him from producers during the first 15 days of such month at not less than the Class II price for the preceding delivery period.

(b) On or before the 12th day of each month each handler shall pay to the Market Administrator an amount equal to such handler's net obligation for the previous delivery period as determined pursuant to § 903.70 less payments made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and less proper deductions authorized in writing by producers from whom such handlers received milk. The Market Administrator shall maintain a producer-settlement fund in which he shall deposit all payments of handlers received pursuant to this section and out of it he shall make payments pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period the Market Administrator shall make payment to each producer for milk received by a handler from such producer during the delivery period at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 903.71, subject to the following adjustments:

(1) The butterfat differential pursuant to § 903.81,

(2) Less marketing service deductions pursuant to § 903.88,

(3) Less proper deductions authorized in writing by the producer, and

(4) Adjustment for any error in calculating payment to such individual producer.

Provided, That if the Market Administrator has not received full payment from any handler for such delivery period pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, he shall reduce uniformly per hundredweight payment to producers delivering to such handler an equal amount of money: Provided further, That the Market Administrator shall make such balance of payments to such producer on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following, after such balance of payment is received from such handler.

(d) In making payments to producers pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section the Market Administrator shall pay, on or before the second day prior to the date payments are due to individual producers to cooperative associations authorized to collect payment for milk of members and from which a request for such payment has been received a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to this section.

4. Add of § 903.22 the following:

(k) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, report to each cooperative association of producers the percentage in each class of the producer milk caused to be delivered by the cooperative association or by its members to each handler during the delivery period. For the purpose of this report the milk so received shall be allocated in each class for each handler in the same ratio as milk received from all producers by such handler during the delivery period.

5. Amend "Producer" definition (§ 903.7) to include any Grade A producer delivering milk to a pool plant.

6. Add to § 903.43 (a) the following sentence: "Provided if either plant receives other source milk, the milk shall be classified and allocated to result in the maximum utilization of producer milk in Class I."

7. In § 903.41 (b) (3) (ii) eliminate shrinkage on products other than fluid milk received as other source milk.

8. In the proviso of § 903.52 delete the words "0.05 times the producer milk" and substitute therefor "0.05 times the approved milk."

By Producers Creamery Company of Cabool, Missouri:

9. Consider the adjustment of the shipping provisions contained in § 903.10 and the calculation of the reserve supply credits contained in § 903.11 required to qualify a country plant shipping to a city plant as a pool plant.

10. Consider the relationship between the Class I price under the provisions of Federal Order No. 3 and the Class I price under the provisions of Order No. 41, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago Marketing Area in relationship to the shipping provisions required to qualify a country plant as a pool plant.

By Square Deal Milk Producers Association and Cooperative Milk Producers of Missouri:

11. Eliminate from the order all so-called supply and demand adjustments, both regular and emergency, and have the prices determined by a base formula and seasonal premiums.

12. Reinstate all seasonal premiums as they were prior to March, 1953, hearing except that the premium for April, May and June be raised from 75 cents per hundredweight to 90 cents per hundredweight.

By Edwardsville Creamery Company, Edwardsville, Illinois:

13. Change § 903.10 (a) by striking from said paragraph the phrase "20 percent" and inserting in lieu thereof "30 percent".

14. Add the following subparagraph to § 903.45 (a):

(1a) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk the pounds of skim milk in ungraded milk received as other source milk and disposed of as Class I milk outside the marketing area;

15. Make any other changes, additions or deletions throughout the Order necessitated by the adoption of the above two proposals.

By Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

16. Make such changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

One additional proposal received which is not included in this notice of hearing would provide for an individual handler pool. The Acting Secretary's decision of July 10, 1953 (18 F. R. 4123) provided for marketwide pooling of producer payments. There has been no showing by proponents that conditions have changed or that any additional information is now available concerning this subject which was not fully considered in arriving at the findings of said decision.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 4030 Chouteau Avenue, St. Louis 10, Missouri, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: January 11, 1954, at Washington, D. C.

Deputy Administrator.

[7 CFR Part 927]

MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF MEETING FOR CONSIDERATION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS CONCERNING COOPERATIVE PAYMENTS

Pursuant to provisions of § 927.76 of the order, as amended (7 CFR, Part 927; 18 F. R. 7224, 7581), regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, and of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), notice is hereby given of a meeting to be held on January 21, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at Onondaga County War Memorial Auditorium, Syracuse, New York, for consideration of rules and regulations proposed to be issued pursuant to said § 927.76 of the order. Interested persons will be afforded an opportunity at the meeting to be heard through the submission of data, views, or arguments orally or in writing. All material presented in writing should be in quintuplicate. Copies of the said proposed rules and regulations as hereinafter set forth may be procured from the Market Administrator, 205 East Forty-second Street, New York 17, New York.

The proposed rules and regulations to be considered at said meeting are as follows:

I. Regulations with respect to application.

By the Market Administrator:

Any applicant for cooperative payments pursuant to § 927.76 shall supply the following information to the Market Administrator on forms provided by the Market Administrator:

1. The name and address of the applicant.

2. The type payments applied for.

(a) Cooperative or federation.

(b) Not less than 4,000 members or not less than 6,000 members.

(c) Operating or non-operating.

3. Its organization.

(a) When, where, and under what laws it is incorporated.

(b) Copy of charter and by-laws.

(c) Names and addresses of directors and officers.

4. With respect to a cooperative the following additional information:

(a) Specimen copy of contract or other document denoting producer membership.

(b) Percentage of business with nonmembers.
(c) The number of members.
(d) The names of pool plants to which the members are delivering milk.
(e) Amount per hundredweight received from members and method of collection.

5. With respect to a federation the following additional information:
(a) When, where, and under what law each of its federated cooperatives is incorporated.
(b) The names an addresses of directors and officers of each of the federated cooperatives.
(c) Copy of the charter, by-laws, and specimen of documents denoting producer membership.
(d) A copy of the contract between the federation and each of its federated cooperatives.
(e) The amount per hundredweight each federated cooperative received from members and method of collection.
(f) The percentage of business which each of the federated cooperatives does with nonmembers.
(g) Number of members of each federated cooperative.
(h) The names of the pool plants to which the members of each federated cooperative are delivering milk.
(i) The names and addresses of any affiliated organization which is not a federated cooperative and the nature of such affiliation.

6. Any cooperative or federation which applies for payment on the basis of operating facilities shall report the following:
(a) The location of plants operated by the cooperative or by its federated cooperative.
(b) Percentage of milk handled in plants operated by the cooperative or by its federated cooperatives.

7. Each applicant shall specify its program for the performance of market-wide services with respect to:
(a) Analyzing milk marketing problems and their solution, conducting market research and maintaining current information as to all market developments, preparing and assembling statistical data relative to prices and marketing conditions, and making an economic analysis of all such data;
(b) Determining the need for the formulation of amendments to the order and proposing such amendments or requesting other appropriate action by the Secretary or the market administrator in the light of changing conditions;
(c) Participating in proceedings with respect to amendments to the order, including the preparation and presentation of evidence at public hearings, the submission of appropriate briefs and exceptions, and also participating, by voting or otherwise, in the referenda relative to amendments;
(d) Participating in the meetings called by the market administrator, such as meetings with respect to rules and regulations issued under the order, including activities such as the preparation and presentation of data at such meetings and briefs for submission thereafter; and
(e) Conducting a comprehensive educational program among producers—i. e., members and nonmembers of cooperatives—and keeping such producers well informed for participating in the activities under the regulatory order and, as a part of such program, issuing publications that contain relevant data and information about the order and its operation, and the distribution of such publication to members and, on the same subscription basis, to nonmembers who request it, and holding meetings at which members and nonmembers may attend.

8. With respect to its ability to perform the market-wide services, each cooperative or federation shall supply the following information concerning personnel:
(a) The numbers of hired personnel listed according to the type of jobs performed and showing for each whether employment is full time or part time.
(b) Contemplated changes in personnel.
(c) Training of specialized personnel to qualify them for performing their duties.

By the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc.:

Applications should be in writing and verified. They should also be submitted in a sufficient number of counterparts as will meet administrative needs (number to be specified).

It should be recognized upon initial application that applicants may not have complete staff and office facilities. The creation of financial obligations and the complete staffing of personnel should not be expected without the security of knowledge that the applicant will be approved for payment for market-wide service.

Demonstration of ability to perform market-wide service shall be made by an applicant cooperative or federation of cooperatives in its verified application to the market administrator which application shall state that it has the minimum number of members required by the order, giving the name and plant of such members as of the first of the month next preceding the date of application. In addition the application shall state:

In the case of a cooperative:
(a) The date and place of its incorporation and attach a copy of its by-laws with all amendments to date.
(b) A statement of compliance with § 927.76 (b) (4).

In the case of a federation:
(c) The date and place of its incorporation, and attach a copy of its certificate of incorporation and a copy of its by-laws with all amendments to date. A copy of the certificate of incorporation of each of its federated cooperatives together with a copy of the by-laws of each such cooperative with all amendments to date. A copy of the contract with each federated corporation.
(d) A statement from each federated cooperative as to the manner in which it has complied with § 927.76 (b) (4).

In the case of both a cooperative and a federation:
(e) That it has engaged or will engage the services of each of the following personnel whose qualifications meet with the standards set forth in these rules as shown by the experience record tendered with the application:
(i) Economist;
(ii) Field Supervisor;
(iii) Editor;
(iv) Counsel;
(v) Field men.
(f) That it has or will procure an office with sufficient assistants and clerical personnel.
(g) A comprehensive plan for the performance of each of the services set forth in § 927.76 (e) of the order.

By the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

Procedure to be followed by cooperative to apply for obtaining cooperative payments; an application must be submitted to the market administrator which contains such information that the cooperative meets the following requirements:

1. The applicant submits a bonafide list of the active producer members and such list shall not contain less than the minimum number of active producer members required to qualify the cooperative under § 927.76 (b) (1) of Federal Order No. 27 and State Order No. 126.
2. The applicant submits a budget.

II. Regulations with respect to qualification.

By the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc.:

The terms used in the rules and regulations should have the same meaning as defined in the order, and in addition for the purposes of clarification the meanings hereinafter set forth:

1. "Full authority in the sale of its members' milk" shall be deemed to exist, when:
(a) With respect to a cooperative which is also a handler the milk of members is delivered to it at a pool plant operated by the cooperative; and
(b) With respect to a handling cooperative some of whose members deliver milk to another handler, and with respect to a cooperative which does not operate a pool plant, each member so served shall have executed a written contract exclusively authorizing the cooperative to bargain for the sale of his or her milk, and the cooperative has caused the milk to be delivered to such hander.
2. "Federation." In addition to the requirements set forth in § 927.76 with respect to a federation, such federation shall also be incorporated under the Cooperative Corporation Laws of one of the states in the milkshed.
3. "Member." In addition to the specifications in § 927.76 (a) (4) a producer shall be deemed to be a 'member' when he delivers milk to a pool plant operated by a cooperative, or when he delivers milk to another handler and has a contract in writing with a cooperative which exclusively authorizes the cooperative to bargain for the sale of his milk to the receiving handler, and such cooperative has caused the milk to be delivered to such handler.

Proper and effective performance of market-wide service will depend in a large measure upon the competence and integrity of key and supervisory personnel. Rules on qualification should therefore be written with a view to the performance of market-wide service under the direction of none but highly trained personnel whose education and experience indicate an ability to undertake their tasks uninhibited by a desire for local or political preferences.

Each qualified cooperative or federation should have a minimum technical staff consisting of an economist, field supervisor, editor, and legal counsel. There should also be field men whose number may vary in accordance with the size of the organization. The minimum number should be in the ratio of not less than one to each fifteen hundred members. In addition each qualified organization should have such assistants to the technicians and clerical help as the full performance of their program may require.

The economist should have at least a Master's degree in agricultural economics from an accredited college or university, or education and experience equivalent to the requirements of the United States Civil Service Commission for the position of Senior Agricultural Economist. Academic training short of that level should be considered inadequate supervised training and experience in this field. In addition an economist should have at least five year's professional experience as an economist in the field of marketing milk or dairy products.

The field supervisor should have a minimum academic background and training at least equivalent to a county agent of the Department of Agriculture extension service, and in addition thereto shall have had at least five year's experience as an instructor of agricultural subjects or field work in agricultural matters.

Field men shall have an academic background, at least equivalent to county agents: Provided however, That nothing contained in these rules shall prohibit the employment of field men lacking in this academic background on a temporary basis to perform a specified task, nor upon a permanent basis in accordance with a plan, of on-the-job-training, established by one of the land grant colleges in the milkshed.

Legal Counsel shall be a member of the bar in good standing in one of the states of the milkshed. He may be engaged on a full time or retainer basis. If on the latter basis, his retainer should require that he gives priority attention to the affairs of the cooperative or federation.

Supervision and coordination of the technical staff must be provided. This may be accomplished by, but not limited to, the designation of one of the technicians to be in charge of the program of market-wide service, as described in § 927.76 (e) of the order, under the immediate direction of the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, Delegate Body or other producer groups, however named, which directs the affairs of the cooperative or federation.

The location, size and personnel of the head office should be a matter within the sole discretion of the cooperative or federation, except that in the interest of economy field men should be stationed within areas of concentration of producers.

It is proposed that no rule be made at this time which would require a federated cooperative to pay anything to the federation. If any services are performed by a federation of a non-market-wide nature, the expense of such services shall be promptly billed to the member cooperatives and promptly paid.

An arrangement between a cooperative and its buying dealer or handler under the provisions of which the cooperative may direct its milk to higher utilization upon the demand of the market administrator shall be deemed to be a compliance with § 927.76 (b) (4). Such arrangement may provide for the payment to the original handler of reasonable handling charges.

By B. J. H. Rickert:

Clarify the meaning of "and has full authority in the sale of its members' milk"—particularly as to the following:
1. Length of time of authority in the sale of members' milk.
2. Length of time of contracts committing sales of milk to handlers in classes lower than fluid.

Requirements of the rules and regulations should clarify the following thoughts:
1. Cooperative contracts with its members should grant to the cooperative full authority for the sale of its members' milk for at least a period of twelve consecutive months.
2. The by-laws of both the federation and the federated cooperative should provide for majority rule with the right for minority reports.
3. The by-laws of the federation should give full authority to the Board of Directors, or delegate body of the federation, for the management and operation of the federation. Each federated cooperative shall be entitled to one director or delegate on the governing body of the federation who shall be elected by the federated cooperative. Each federated cooperative should have one vote regardless of size. The governing body of the federation shall employ the manager of the federation and all other employees subject to the employment and dismissal of the manager.
4. The rules and regulations should at least in a general way outline a uniform program, the minimum of facilities, and at least the different departments of work which each federation will be required to maintain.

A specific portion of the one cent to be deducted from the federated cooperative members should be paid to the federation. I suggest not less than 25 percent.

By the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

1. The term "member" as used herein shall be an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit, who has made application for membership and has executed a marketing contract with the cooperative, who is engaged in the production of milk and milk products marketed through the cooperative, and agrees to market through the cooperative all milk produced on all farms owned by him covered by his membership contract.
2. The term "producer member" as used herein shall be a member who delivers milk direct from farm to pool plant.
3. The term "active producer member" as used herein shall be a producer member who has delivered to a pool plant within ninety days.
4. The term "inactive producer member" as used herein shall be a producer member who has not submitted a written cancellation of his membership contract with the cooperative.
5. The term "producer-member marketing contract" as used herein shall be a written instrument between the member and the cooperative which gives the cooperative the authority to market the members' milk and the member agrees to pay the cooperative a minimum of one cent per hundredweight for membership dues, which contract cannot be cancelled less than thirty days after a notice of cancellation is submitted in writing by either party.
6. The term "economist" as used herein shall be an employee of a cooperative who has had equivalent training in milk marketing to that of an extension milk marketing specialist.
7. The term "field representative" as used herein shall be an employee of a cooperative who has knowledge of dairy farming, dairy manufacture, plant operation, and who possesses a milk testing license, and whose activities are principally devoted to the education of producer members.
8. The term "applicant" as used herein shall be a group of producers, either consisting of one cooperative or more than one, who have submitted a form to the market administrator for approval to receive cooperative payments.
9. The term "budget" as used herein shall be all the prospective yearly revenue and expenditures which shall include the following items:
(a) Directors—salaries and travel;
(b) Field organizations;
(c) Publications and membership meetings;
(d) Legal services;
(e) Economist and statistical services;
(f) Administrative;
(g) Contingency fund;
(h) Reserve fund to implement and improve guaranteeing producers a market for their milk.
10. The term "local unit" as used herein shall be a group of producer members in a cooperative who elect their own officers annually and hold not less than two meetings annually, and are comparable to that of a cooperative within a federation.

The applicant performs the following market-wide services:

1. Analyze supply and demand conditions. Employ an economist who shall compile and maintain sufficient data to furnish to the cooperative an analysis of supply and demand conditions in the milkshed and the United States, and relate this information to its effect upon the price of all classes of milk. This will require a constant study of competitive prices of milk in other markets and the prospective market for milk products in this country and abroad. This material must be prepared and assembled in such a manner that it is available and put to use by the cooperative among its members through the publication of the cooperative, meetings of the cooperative, field representatives, and the entire educational program conducted by the cooperative.

2. Formulate proposed amendments. Formulate proposed amendments to the order, supported by the material prepared by the economist, which is essential to the order and for the benefit of all producers.

3. Participate in proceedings. Participate and take an active part in the preparation of proposals for amendments and in the presentation of facts in support of such proposals and actively oppose proposals which in the judgment of the cooperative are not for the benefit of all producers.

4. Participate in meetings. Attend and participate in meetings or conferences called by the market administrator or the Dairy Branch which are for the purpose of more orderly and efficient administration of the order and take an active part in support of matters which in the judgment of the cooperative are for the benefit of all producers in the market.

5. Educate producers. Obtain all necessary facts relating to marketing milk in the New York milkshed and disseminate these facts to producers in terms they can understand. It shall be the determination of the cooperative to relate to the producers the truth. The facilities for accomplishing these purposes will include:

(a) An official publication by the cooperative: This publication shall be published not less often than monthly and shall contain as much as possible of the facts used in the educational program including a summary of all the material presented at hearings.

(b) The cooperative will conduct not less than two meetings annually at the local units of the cooperative, all of which meetings shall include non-members to whom invitations may be extended. The cooperative will also conduct annually two regional conference meetings or local district officers meetings.

(c) The cooperative will employ one field representative for approximately no less than 500 active producer members and no more than 1050 active producer members who will assist in keeping producers informed on current organizational and milk marketing facts. Each field representative will make written periodic reports to the cooperative employing him and these reports shall in general reveal his daily activities.

(d) Guarantee market: Develop a program guaranteeing producer members a market for their milk and show progress in the development of such a [illegible]

III. Regulations with respect to performance after qualification.

By the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc.:

Proper performance of market-wide services specified in § 927.76 (e) (2) shall include collaboration with other producer groups.

In the event that the market administrator shall withhold payment of any funds because of the duel membership of any producer the market administrator shall notify both cooperatives in which such producer's dual membership exists.

The word "furnish" as used in § 927.76 (g) (1) (ii) means make available during usual business hours at the office of the cooperative or federation.

Each qualified cooperative and federation shall report its market-wide activity annually to the administrator and make such additional reports as in the discretion of the administrator are necessary. The annual report shall contain a summary statement of the work performed by the cooperative or federation in the performance of its market-wide service. The report shall also contain a summary of the total expenditures for each function. (A detailed list of expenditures should not be required.) The report shall also contain a statement on the maintenance of the staff necessary to perform the services required.

Nothing contained herein shall prevent a federation from contracting with one or more of its federated cooperatives for the performance of such federated cooperative of all or any part of the market-wide services which need to be performed by the federation as a condition to its qualification: Provided, however, That in the performance of such services the federated cooperative engages the services of personnel having the qualifications hereinafter provided.

By B. J. H. Rikert:

That the cooperative at no time enters into any contract for the sale of the milk it has under its control which would prevent it from selling its milk for use in a higher utilization.

By the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

Procedure for continuance. Procedure followed by a cooperative for continued qualification—the cooperative shall report in writing to the market administrator each year, following the first date of qualification, proof of performance that it is fulfilling the requirements listed during the year. The proof of performance shall contain the following:

1. Number of active producer members within 90 days of the filing of the report.
2. Budget.
3. List of employees, including management, office staff, field representatives, and technicians.
4. Facts prepared by the cooperative which in the judgment of the cooperative are for the benefit of all producers in the market.
5. List of the meetings conducted by the cooperative as well as meetings to which the cooperative contributed active participation.
6. Copy of the official publications of the cooperative and other material relevant to market-wide service published by the cooperative.

Reports and records. A qualified cooperative or federation and any federated cooperative in a qualified federation shall make such records to the market administrator as may be requested by him for the administration of the provisions of this section, and shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or his representative such records as will enable the market administrator to verify such reports.

The following records shall be made available to the market administrator or his representative at the central office of the cooperative ten days following such request:

1. Contracts between cooperative and handler.
2. Utilization of cooperative's members' milk.
3. Accountant's annual audit report.
4. Minutes and records of all meetings within the cooperative.
5. Marketing contracts between cooperative and its members.
6. Signed cancellations of marketing contracts.
7. Records showing transfer in points of delivery of members' milk.

IV. Regulations with respect to suspension and disqualification.

By the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc.:

In the interest of concentrating all study and effort in the direction of procuring immediate performance of market-wide service and necessary rules and regulations to bring that about, we urge the administrator to adopt the same rules heretofore adopted by the Production and Marketing Administration on September 30, 1952, subject however to such changes as are necessary to adapt such rules to the functioning of the administrator's office.

By the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

Disqualification. A cooperative shall not be disqualified if it has failed promptly after demand by the market administrator to arrange for the utilization of milk under its control so as to yield the highest available net return to all producers without displacing an equivalent quantity of other producer milk in the preferred classification: Provided, That the cooperative has pursued a line of conduct in the preparation of proposals and the presentation of evidence at hearings held during the year which would discourage the use of milk for manufacture. However, the cooperative shall make every effort to move milk under its control whenever the market administrator has notified the cooperative in writing or otherwise confirmed in writing, the specific shortage of Class I–A or Class II milk in the market.

V. General.

By the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Inc.:

In the performance of his duties under § 927.76 the market administrator will act with all reasonable dispatch.

By B. J. H. Rikert:

The rules and regulations should state who votes on referendums—the federation or the federated cooperative.

By the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Association, Inc.:

The market administrator shall make available to the cooperative such reports and information that are necessary to the cooperative to carry out its requirements to be qualified. Before a handler is informed by the market administrator that a producer is not a member of a cooperative, the cooperative should first be requested by the market administrator to verify the membership status of the producer. The verification shall be returned to the market administrator within 30 days.

[Docket No. AO-227-A3]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEOSHO VALLEY MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS THERETO WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER, AMENDING THE ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area.

Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353 South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business of the 10th day after the publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the following findings and conclusions were formulated, was conducted at Pittsburg, Kansas, on September 1–4, 1953, pursuant to notices thereof which were issued on August 18, 1953, and August 21, 1953 (18 F. R. 4995, 5122).

The material issues of record related to:

(1) The pricing of Class I milk through March 1954;

(2) Pooling provisions of the order;

(3) The months for which bases should be used in computing payments to producers;

(4) Provisions applicable to handlers subject to other orders who distribute Class I milk in the marketing area;

(5) The rate of deduction for marketing services;

(6) The definition of "producer-handler", "approved plant", "handler" and "producer"; and

(7) Administrative features of the order.

By decision of the Secretary of Agriculture issued October 21, 1953 (18 F. R. 6786), and subsequent amendment of the order effective November 1, 1953, action has been taken on the basis of the record of this hearing with respect to the pricing of Class I milk through March 1954. In this decision evidence with respect to other issues is considered.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Returns to producers should continue to be pooled for the market, rather than by individual handlers; the period for which returns to producers are made under the base-excess plan should be extended to include the months of March, July, and August in addition to the months of April, May, and June.

Under the present provisions of the order all producers supplying the market share in the utilization of all milk in the market. It was proposed that the order provide for uniform distribution of the utilization of each handler among the producers supplying milk to such handler, commonly known as individual-handler pooling.

In support of the proposal for handler pooling it was shown that approximately 70 percent of producers supplying the market would have received higher average blend prices for the first seven months of 1953 under handler pools than under the present market-wide pool, had the same pattern of distribution of receipts and sales of milk prevailed. For July the increases in blend prices for this group of producers under handler pools would have ranged from 6 cents to 51 cents per hundredweight. Approximately 2 percent of the producers would have received the same price and the remainder would have had their blend price reduced by amounts ranging from 27 to 99 cents per hundredweight. Thus some producers could have received prices $1.50 per hundredweight more than those of certain other producers. Utilization of producer receipts as Class I milk in July was reported as 100 percent in the plant of one handler and as 99 percent in the plant of another, each with only a limited number of producers. On the other hand a cooperative association with no plant facilities of its own reported no Class I utilization for some 32 producers whose milk was diverted to unapproved plants for the account of the association.

The record indicates that differences in utilization of handlers are not due to differences in availability of producer supplies at various locations in the extensive Neosho Valley marketing area. Plants with relatively high utilization and those with lower utilization are both widely distributed throughout the area. It appears that differences in facilities for handling milk in excess of Class I needs is the primary cause for much of the difference in utilization. Many handlers under the Neosho Valley order are not equipped to process surplus or reserve milk in their plants. Such plants are primarily designed for the distribution of fluid milk and the operators depend either upon supplemental milk from other handlers to fill their needs in the short season or upon disposition of surplus milk in the flush production season to unapproved plants or to the plants of handlers with manufacturing facilities.

Receipts of producer milk in the Neosho Valley market have increased substantially in the past year. The major portion of this increase has occurred from increased production per farm rather than increased numbers of producers. Subsequently, a number of producers lost their market and all of these would have been deprived of any share of the Class I sales of the market had not a cooperative association accepted the responsibility for marketing the milk of its members and pooled milk under the present provisions of the order. These increased supplies in the market also affected the operations of another cooperative association which operates facilities of its own both for fluid distribution and for manufacturing. In addition to distribution on its own routes this association supplies a number of handlers with their needs for Class I milk above their receipts from producers, and this demand from January through August 1953 was only about a third that of the same period of 1952. The association plant also takes surplus milk from other handlers and this volume increased six-fold. It is apparent that with increased supplies of milk responsibility for handling a greater proportion of the seasonal surplus of milk fell upon cooperative associations of producers.

A bargaining cooperative without plant facilities is a proponent of handler pooling. It proposed that handler pooling be modified to provide some equalization of returns when diversions for the account of a cooperative resulted in a proprietary handler purchasing less of his Class I milk from member producers in the flush production months than in the preceding short production months. It also indicated the probability that it would be necessary to reblend the proceeds due its members so that all would receive a single association pool price. Since this cooperative represents approximately two-thirds of the producers supplying the market, and supplies milk to practically all proprietary handlers, it would expect such association pool prices to be somewhat higher than the uniform market price presently computed. Under such a system of operation and with present distribution of supplies the handler pool price of the operating association with plant facilities would presumably be a lower price, and the uniform prices of independent producers would vary with the utilization of the handler supplied.

Handler pooling performs a valuable function when supplies in a market are short in relation to demand by providing an incentive to producers to move their milk of those handlers having the greatest need for milk for Class I use. In a market fully supplied, or in a surplus situation, however, a handler pool provides for equitable sharing among producers of the lower returns of the supply of reserve milk only if all handlers have facilities for accepting a proportion of such reserve supply. Producer milk sup-piles in the Neosho Valley market are presently adequate, and there are no significant amounts of other source milk allocated to Class I use despite the differences in utilization of individual handlers.

The recent experience of the market does not indicate that under handler pooling handlers with high utilization would increase their supplies under present conditions. The proposal of the proponents for a modified form of equalizing returns indicates the necessity for cooperative associations to engage in handling surplus milk, and for producers whose milk may not be needed at the moment for Class I use to share in the Class I sales of the market.

Proponents base their case for handler pooling primarily upon the fact that under market-wide pooling there is no incentive for a handler to keep his supply related to his Class I needs or those of the market. There is evidence that one handler has increased numbers of producers much faster than the average of the market at a time when this handler's total Class I sales (including those to other handlers) were decreasing. Under handler pooling there would be considerable pressure for low utilization handlers to increase their blend prices, which could be accomplished only by aggressive sales policies or by curtailing receipts and leaving some producers without a market. Either course could conceivably result in considerable instability in the market.

It is concluded that under present conditions in the market individual-handler pooling should not be adopted. The record indicates the possibility that the present qualifications for pool plant participation could be revised to avoid plants being able to increase receipts substantially beyond those for which there is prospective need in the market, but fails to provide a basis for a definite action in this respect.

A proposal that payments to producers be made by the market administrator was closely associated with the proposal for modified equalization under handler pooling. There appears to be no need for such a provision under a market-wide pool in this market.

2. Payments to producers should be computed on the base-excess plan of the order for the months of March through August rather than for the months of April, May, and June only. Under the Neosho Valley order producers establish bases by their average deliveries in the four months of September through December. Deliveries of milk within producers' established bases have prior claim to Class I sales in the period for which bases are used. The use of these bases in determining returns to individual producers for a longer period will provide greater incentive for a more uniform production throughout the year. Such incentive is needed as there is a wide seasonal variation in production in the Neosho Valley market.

3. Payments necessary to equalize prices should continue to be required from handlers subject to another order who distribute Class I milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area; but such payments should be adjusted for contra differences in prices in preceding months, and the payments should be distributed to producers in the market in which such milk is priced and pooled.

Under the Neosho Valley order a handler subject to a Federal order for another milk marketing area who distributes Class I milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area is required to pay to the Neosho Valley pool any amount by which the value of such milk as priced under the other order is less than its value at the Class I price of the Neosho Valley order. Handlers subject to the orders for the Springfield, Missouri, and Tulsa-Muskogee, Oklahoma, milk marketing areas operate routes in the Neosho Valley marketing area on which Class I milk priced under such orders is sold.

A Springfield handler offered testimony at the hearing to the effect that no such payments should be required on milk priced as Class I milk under another Federal order. It was contended that when transportation costs are considered such payments are not necessary to equalize prices as between handlers regulated by different orders if class prices are in proper alignment. It was further contended that the pricing of any commodity must be based upon a reasonable price in a heavy producing area, plus transportation costs to the consuming area, and that the Class I prices of Federal order markets generally reflected such basis of pricing.

The alignment of Class I prices between Federal order markets is generally such that transportation costs on milk moved between such markets equal or exceed any difference between the Class I prices. In the case of the Neosho Valley and Springfield markets however there are particularly difficult problems of alignment of prices, and of the transportation costs, to be considered.

The geographic location of the Neosho Valley market requires that Neosho Valley prices be aligned as well as possible not only with those of the Springfield market but also with those of the Kansas City, Topeka, Wichita, and Tulsa-Muskogee markets. The presence of supply plants for the St. Louis market in the Springfield production area requires close alignment of Springfield prices with those of the St. Louis market applicable in the Springfield area. Orders for all of these surrounding markets have been in operation for longer periods than have the orders for the Springfield and Neosho Valley markets. Prices in each of these other markets have been developed on the basis of conditions prevailing in the market, and in the case of St. Louis, Kansas City (which also establishes the Topeka price), and Tulsa-Muskogee, are subject to automatic adjustment on the basis of supply-demand conditions in the market. Even though the prices for such markets may generally be in reasonable alignment with each other it does not follow that the intervening Neosho Valley and Springfield markets can be constantly kept in precise alignment with each of these markets or with each other.

Since the Neosho Valley price is generally lower than that of any of these markets except Springfield the applicability of the present payment provisions of the Neosho Valley order have almost exclusively been to the operations of Springfield handlers. On an annual average the Neosho Valley Class I price for 3.5 percent milk has exceeded the Springfield price by 20 cents per hundredweight in 1952 and 18 cents per hundredweight in 1953. Differences in the seasonal pattern of prices in the two markets cause the differences in prices to be greatest in the months of April, May and June and least in the months of July through December. At times the Springfield price has exceeded the Neosho Valley price. The maximum difference in any month of this two year period has been 51.9 cents.

Two figures were given as transportation costs to which consideration should be given in the determination of whether any payments were needed to equalize prices. Fifteen cents per hundredweight, represents the cost of movement of bulk milk in truck loads from Springfield to Joplin, a distance of 72 miles. 26.2 cents per hundredweight of milk was represented as the cost of movement of packaged milk from Lebanon, Missouri, to Joplin, a distance of 129 miles. Lebanon, Missouri, is the point at which the Springfield handler proposing elimination of the payment provisions has his bottling plant. Another Springfield handler who distributes Class I milk in the Neosho Valley area has a bottling plant in Springfield. Under the Springfield order the Class I prices applicable at Springfield and Lebanon are identical.

These transportation costs would appear to approximately equalize the prices of the two orders between a Springfield handler who distributes milk in Joplin and a Neosho Valley handler distributing milk in Joplin whose plant is also located in that city. The Neosho Valley marketing area, however extends approximately 100 miles from east to west and 75 miles from north to south. Handlers with plants located within the area dispose of Class I milk at points in the area at considerable distances from their plants in competition with handlers whose plants are located at or near such points of disposition. In Joplin and Nevada, two points to which Springfield handlers move milk, milk is also disposed of as Class I milk from plants in Parsons and Pittsburg at distances of from 56 to 92 miles, and is also sold by other Neosho Valley handlers with plants in these towns. The extensive movements of milk and the competition between handlers with plants at various locations was a primary consideration in the determination of the boundaries of the Neosho Valley area. With no dominant center of population in the area to which it is necessary to attract the principal volume of producer milk, no location adjustments within the area are provided. Thus fully regulated handlers for many of their sales pay the Class I price of the Neosho Valley order and in addition incur costs for movement of milk within the marketing area comparable to those incurred by Springfield handlers on movements to the marketing area.

The obvious impracticability of pricing and pooling milk under two separate regulations is the only reason why handlers subject to other orders are not treated in all aspects the same as the fully regulated Neosho Valley handlers. If such handlers were fully regulated Neosho Valley handlers, their costs for Class I milk disposed of in the Neosho Valley area would be no less than when payments are required under the present provisions.

It is concluded that the payment provisions should be retained in the Neosho Valley order but that the provisions should be modified so that over a year's time they will reflect the annual difference between the price levels of the two orders without being distorted by differences which relate strictly to the seasonal pattern of prices. This may be accomplished by allowing credit against the payments presently computed for any amounts by which the value, when computed at the other order price, of milk distributed in the Neosho Valley market during the preceding eleven months, exceeded its value at the Neosho Valley price. Such credit can of course be used only once as a set-off.

In view of the close relationship between markets in this region it appears appropriate to make provision that the value of the payment may be distributed to producers in the market from which the milk originates if the order for such market provides for receipt and distribution of such amounts. The principal objective of the payment is to provide uniformity in pricing milk to handlers rather than to increase returns to Neosho Valley producers. Accordingly it is provided that, if the other order provides for receipt and distribution to producers of such funds, payments received by the market administrator pursuant to the provision shall be transferred to the market administrator of the market to which the handler is subject. Otherwise such funds will be deposited in the Neosho Valley producer-settlement fund as presently provided.

4. The rate of deduction for performing marketing services for producers who are not members of a cooperative association which performs such services for its members should be increased to 6 cents per hundredweight. The present deduction of 5 cents in effect since the inception of the order, has not been adequate to render proper service to producers delivering milk to the widely scattered plants of the Neosho Valley area. Six cents is the maximum rate for such services now included in any Federal milk marketing order and it is concluded that this amount should be included in the Neosho Valley order rather than the rate of seven cents proposed at the hearing.

5. Definitions. (a) The definition of "producer-handler" should be modified by including approval of a health authority of the marketing area as a means of identification of those persons to be defined as producer-handlers. The chief need for such identification is in the designation of producers whose milk is priced and pooled. Producer-handlers are excluded from the persons defined as producers. The present designation makes anyone who sells any Class I milk of his own production in the marketing area but receives no milk from producers, a producer-handler. It is impracticable for the market administrator to detect all incidental farm sales of milk in the Neosho Valley area which contains extensive rural areas for which health authority approval for such sales is not required. Health authority approval as an identification of producer-handlers will provide a practical method of administration, without providing undue opportunity for a producer to attain a preferred position by making any volume of direct Class I sales and also sharing the Class I sales of the market on milk delivered to a handler. The base rating plan of the order and the opportunity for handlers to discontinue receiving the milk of producers who make direct sales of Class I milk provide additional safeguards in this respect.

(b) "Approved plant", "handler" and "producer". Changes proposed with respect to these definitions were to the effect that (1) the language of the order be clarified so that there be no doubt that the status of plants and plant operators are in nowise altered when routes on which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area are operated by vendors who purchase milk in packaged form from processing plants, and (2) the required health authority approval be specified as "any" rather than "the appropriate" health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area.

No objection was raised to clarification of language with reference to milk disposed of on routes operated by vendors. The present order language has been interpreted to require what the proposal seeks to make explicit. This result may best be accomplished by a slight modification of the language of the definitions of "approved plant" and "handler."

There was testimony that to delete "the appropriate" and substitute "any" in referring to health authorities having jurisdiction in the marketing area would facilitate movements of milk within the area but the record fails to indicate how this would result. In a marketing area in which different health authorities have jurisdiction in separate portions of the area an appropriate health authority to approve a plant or producer is obviously that for any portion of the area for which such plant or producer supplies milk. It is not to be expected that approvals will be issued unless the plant or producer has some connection with the area over which a health authority has jurisdiction.

6. Administrative provisions. (a) The mandatory dates for announcement of the uniform price by the market administrator and for making final payments to producers should each be established one day later than those presently provided in the order. Presently the date by which the uniform price must be announced is the 11th day of the month and final payments are required by the 16th day of the month. Handler's reports are filed on the 7th day of the month. More time is required from date for receipt of such reports and computation of the uniform price. Handlers require the time presently intervening between announcement of the uniform price and date of payment in order to compute and issue payments. The date for announcement of the uniform price should be established as the 12th day of the month and the required date for final payments as the 17th day of the month. The date of a report by the market administrator to a cooperative association should also be changed from the 11th to the 12th of the month to be consistent with the date for announcement of the uniform price.

(b) The market administrator should be authorized to announce the name of any handler who has failed to make required reports or payments without waiting until 10 days have elapsed. The order presently authorizes announcement of the names of those who have not made reports or payments within 10 days of the required date. The 10 day delay in announcing non-compliance prevents the market administrator from disclosing at the announcement of the uniform price the names of any handlers whose receipts and uses are not included in the computation because their reports were not filed in accordance with the order. It is important that handlers and producers be advised when the uniform price is announced whether the price is determined on the basis of reports received from all regulated handlers.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of producers and handlers who would be subject to the proposed marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be amended. The briefs contained suggested findings of fact, conclusions, and arguments with resepct to the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the requests to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the findings and conclusions in this decision.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which effect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following order amending the order, as amended, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with those contained in the order.

1. In § 928.7 delete the parenthetical phrase "(including plant stores)" and substitute therefor the parenthetical phrase "(including routes operated by vendors and disposition at plant stores)".

2. In § 928.8 delete the parenthetical phrase "(including plant stores)" and substitute therefor the parenthetical phrase "(including routes operated by vendors and disposition at plant stores)".

3. Delete § 928.10 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 928.10 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who, with the approval of any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, processes milk from his own farm production and, disposes of all or a portion of such milk as Class I milk within the marketing area, but who receives no milk from producers.

4. In § 928.22 (h) delete the words "within 10 days".

5. In § 928.22 (i) delete "11th day" and substitute therefor "12th day".

6. In § 928.22 (j) (2) delete "11th day" and substitute therefor "12th day".

7. Delete § 928.61 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 928.61 Handlers subject to other orders. In the case of any handler (as defined herein) who the Secretary determines disposed of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, or who otherwise is determined pursuant to the provisions of another milk marketing agreement or order to be subject to the pricing and payment provisions of such agreement or order, the provisions of the order shall not apply except as follows:

(a) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and shall allow verification of such reports by the market administrator pursuant to § 928.33.

(b) If the value of skim milk and butterfat disposed of as Class I milk on routes in the marketing area, as determined under the other order to which such handler is subject, is less than its value as computed pursuant to this order, such handler shall pay the difference to the market administrator. The amount of the payment so computed shall be reduced by the amount of any contra differences in the values of Class I milk so disposed of in the immediately preceding eleven delivery periods which have not served to reduce the payment for any intervening delivery period.

(c) On or before the 14th day after the end of the delivery period payment of the net amount computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall be made to the market administrator who shall:

(1) Transfer the amount of such payment to the market administrator of the order to which the handler is subject, if such order provides for receipt of such funds and their distribution to producers whose milk is priced under such order; or

(2) Otherwise deposit such amount in the producer-settlement fund.

8. In § 928.71 delete "July through March" and substitute therefor "September through February".

9. In § 928.72 delete "April through June" and substitute therefor "March through August".

10. In § 928.80 delete "April through June" as such words first appear in such section, and substitute therefor "March through August", and also delete the proviso appearing at the end of such section.

11. In § 928.90 (b) delete "16th day" and substitute therefor "17th day".

12. In § 928.92 delete "928.61 (b)" and substitute therefor "928.61 (c) (2)".

13. In § 928.96 (a) delete "5 cents" and substitute therefor "6 cents".

HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW ORLEANS, LA., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Correction

In Federal Register Document 54-60, appearing at page 70 of the issue for Wednesday, January 6, 1954, paragraph 10 should read as follows:

10. Renumber § 942.54 to § 942.55.

[7 CFR Part 943]

[Docket No. AO 231-A4]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NORTH TEXAS MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in Dallas Hotel, formerly "Jefferson" 312 South Houston Street, Dallas, Texas, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., January 26, 1954, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modification thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the North Texas marketing area. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Amendments to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the North Texas marketing area were proposed, as enumerated below:

By North Texas Producers Association:

1. Amend § 943.51 (b) by adding the following: "That the price for milk used in the production of Cheddar cheese during the months of February through July 1954 shall be the average price paid, or to be paid, for ungraded milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received from dairy farmers at the plants of Dairy Gold Creamery, Ballinger, Texas, Triangle Cheese Company, Stephenville, Texas and the North Texas Producers Association, Muenster, Texas."

2. Amend § 943.97 by adding the following: "Provided, That this section shall not apply to milk from producers diverted by a handler to an unapproved plant."

By Vandervoort's, Inc.:

3. Amend the order so as to provide that the price of Class II milk be governed by the price being paid producers for manufacturing milk in the area.

By Capell's, Inc. and Tennessee Dairies:

4. Amend § 943.51 so that paragraph (b) thereof shall read as follows:

(b) Class II milk. The price computed pursuant to § 943.50 (c) for the current month.

By Lamar Creamery Company:

5. Immediately following § 943.44 (e) (3) (iii) add: "As Class II milk if transferred or diverted in the form of milk or skim milk from ungraded dairy farmers to a plant which manufactures oleomargarine or mellorine but which does not dispose of Class I milk for fluid consumption."

6. Add to § 943.50 the following plants:

Bennet Creamery Co., Ottawa, Kans.
Epples Creamery Co., Tulsa, Okla.
Sugar Creek Creamery, Russellville, Ark.

7. Delete § 943.51 (b) and substitute therefor "the prices computed pursuant to § 943.50 (c)."

By Producers Creamery Company:

8. Amend § 943.51 (b) to provide for a butter-powder formula that recognizes values established at Central markets and provides for an equitable manufacturing allowance.

By the Dairy Division:

9. Make such other changes as may be required to make the entire order conform with any amendments thereto which may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 6619 Denton Drive, Dallas 19, Texas, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be inspected there.

Dated: January 11, 1954.

HANDLING OF MILK IN PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the reopening of the public hearing held March 23, 1953, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, pursuant to notice issued March 9, 1953 (18 F. R. 1452), such reopened hearing to be held concurrently with a hearing by the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission in the United States Court House, Ninth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, beginning at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., January 21, 1954, for the purpose of receiving additional evidence with respect to a proposal, set forth in the original notice of hearing, to amend the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, and receiving evidence with respect to the additional proposal set forth herein, or appropriate modifications of such proposals. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Evidence adduced at the hearing will be considered in determining whether the suspension of any of the Class II pricing provisions of the order, as amended, is warranted pending the issuance of any amendment to said order as a result of the hearing.

The additional proposal to amend the order, as amended, for the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, has been proposed as follows:

By the Milk Distributors Association of the Philadelphia Area, Inc.:

Re-examine the level of prices under § 961.40 (b) so as to encourage the flow of milk to available fluid cream and manufacturing outlets at all times in a method that results in orderly marketing, and adjust downward the prices of Class II milk in order that products made from it may be in a more competitive position.

Copies of this notice of hearing, the said order, as amended, and the said tentative marketing agreement may be procured from the Market Administrator, 1612 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or from the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1353, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: January 11, 1954.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[Miscellaneous No. 6]

IDAHO

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS

JANUARY 8, 1954.

Pursuant to exchanges made under the provisions of section 8 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976; 43 U. S. C. sec. 315g), the following described lands have been reconveyed to the United States:

T. 8 N., R. 33 E., B. M.
Sec. 2, SE¼.
Sec. 4, Lots 1 & 2, S½NE¼.
Sec. 6, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 & 5, S½NE¼, SE¼NW¼.
Sec. 7, Lots 1 & 2, SE¼NW¼.
Sec. 8, SE¼.
Sec. 19, E½.
Sec. 28, W½SW¼.
T. 7 N., R. 33 E., B. M.
Sec. 6, Lots 3, 4, 5, 6 & 7, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼.
Sec. 7, Lot 1, NE¼NW¼.
Sec. 9, NE¼.
Sec. 17, SE¼.

The areas described aggregate 1880.53 acres.

The SE¼ of Section 2, T. 8 N., R. 33 E., B. M. is a part of the terminus of a stock driveway used for trailing livestock, and it has been determined that this tract should be retained in public ownership to facilitate proper management of public grazing lands under the administration of the Bureau of Land Management.

The remaining lands described are practically level and have an elevation of approximately 4,800 feet. The soil is deep silt loam and is suitable for the production of agricultural crops under irrigation.

The State Reclamation Engineer does not consider the lands to be in a critical area as concerns ground water. The lands from the standpoint of soil, topography and water conditions are desert in character, and it has been determined from local existing wells in the area that an adequate supply of water for irrigation purposes may be developed economically. The lands are classified as desert in character and subject to entry and development under the desert land laws.

While any application that is filed will be considered on its merits, it is unlikely that any part of the lands will be classified for any use or disposal other than that shown above.

No application for the lands may be allowed under the homestead, small tract, desert land, or any other nonmineral public land laws unless the lands have been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of classification or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, and selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m., on the said 35th day, shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Boise, Idaho, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Land Office, Boise, Idaho.

W. G. GUERNSEY,
Regional Administrator.

BAD RIVER BAND OF LAKE SUPERIOR TRIBE OF CHIPPEWA INDIANS OF WISCONSIN

ADOPTION OF ORDINANCE RELATING TO FEDERAL INDIAN LIQUOR LAWS

Pursuant to the act of August 15, 1953 (Pub. Law 277, 83d Cong., 1st Sess.), I certify that the following ordinance relating to the application of the Federal Indian liquor laws on the Bad River Reservation was duly adopted by the Bad River Band of the Lake Superior Tribe of Chippewa Indians of Wisconsin which has jurisdiction over the area of Indian country included in the resolution:

Whereas Public Law 277, 83d Congress, approved August 15, 1953, provides that sections 1156, 1154, 3113, 3488 and 3618 of Title 18, United States Code, commonly referred to as the Federal Indian Liquor laws, shall not apply to any act or transaction within any area of Indian country provided such act or transaction is in conformity with both the laws of the State in which such act or transaction occurs and with an ordinance duly adopted by the tribe having jurisdiction over such area of Indian country, certified by the Secretary of the Interior, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Therefore, be it resolved that the introduction, sale or possession of intoxicating beverages shall be lawful within the Indian country under the jurisdiction of the Bad River Band of Chippewas. Provided, that such introduction, sale or possession is in conformity with the laws of the state of Wisconsin.

Be it further resolved that any tribal laws, resolutions or ordinances heretofore enacted which prohibit the sale, introduction or possession of intoxicating beverages are hereby repealed.

ORME LEWIS,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

HOUSING AND HOME FINANCE AGENCY

Public Housing Administration

DESCRIPTION OF AGENCY AND PRINCIPAL PROGRAMS

This section supersedes section I, section II paragraph a and the list of Field Offices, the headquarters and jurisdictions in paragraph d, and section III paragraph a.

I. Description of agency and principal programs—A. Creation and purpose. The Public Housing Administration (PHA) was created as a constituent agency of the Housing and Home Finance Agency by the President's Reorganization Plan 3 of 1947, effective July 27, 1947. The PHA is headed by a Public Housing Commissioner appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Of the two major programs administered by the PHA, one, the low-rent public housing program, is a direct responsibility of the Public Housing Commissioner, while the other, the public war housing program, is a responsibility delegated to the Public Housing Commissioner by the Housing and Home Finance Administrator. Historically, the PHA is a successor agency to the United States Housing Authority, which was created by the United States Housing Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 888; 42 U. S. C. 1401) to administer the low-rent public housing program established by that act. In 1942 the name of the agency was changed to the Federal Public Housing Authority. It continued under that name until 1947 when it was changed to the PHA.

B. Low-rent public housing. The low-rent public housing program was originally authorized by the United States Housing Act of 1937, which authorized Federal financial assistance to local communities "to remedy the unsafe and insanitary housing conditions and the acute shortage of decent, safe and sanitary dwellings for families of low income. * * *" This law was amended by title III of the Housing Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 422) to perfect its details and to increase the amount of Federal assistance available. Also included in this program are certain projects not constructed under the Housing Act of 1937, as amended, but subsequently transferred to the low-rent public housing program: projects developed by the Public Works Administration before the passage of the act, and Farm Labor Camps and permanent war housing projects transferred under the terms of the Housing Act of 1950 (64 Stat. 73; 42 U. S. C. 1412 (f)).

C. Public war housing. The other principal program administered by the PHA is the public war housing program, which originally consisted of permanent and temporary housing accommodations built under the terms of the Lanham Act (54 Stat. 1125; 42 U. S. C. 1521) to provide housing for war workers and military personnel during World War II. Also included in this program are projects developed under Title III of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (65 Stat. 303; 42 U. S. C. 1591). This title provided temporary or mobile housing for immigrant defense workers and military personnel required in connection with national defense activities in critical defense areas. The PHA is responsible for the management of the housing included in the public war housing program, either by direct operation or through local agencies, and for the orderly disposition of such housing under the terms of the Housing Act of 1950.

D. Central Office Organization. 1. The Commissioner is responsible for the administration of all programs of the PHA and is assisted by an Executive Staff which includes the officials listed below.

2. The Deputy Commissioner is responsible for assisting the Commissioner in the administration of all programs of the PHA and serves as Acting Commissioner in the absence of the Commissioner.

3. The Assistant Commissioner is responsible for directing all activities relating to the financing of low-rent housing projects and for special assignments made to him by the Commissioner, particularly in the fields of housing legislation and PHA policy.

4. The Special Assistant to the Commissioner (Liaison) is responsible for directing Congressional liaison and for activities relating to public relations and information. His office prepares press releases, speeches, reports, etc., about the PHA's housing programs; is the PHA contact point with members of the Congress, representatives of the press, radio, and periodicals; takes care of Congressional correspondence and general inquiries from organizations and individuals relating to the agency's programs; and coordinates the preparation of the PHA's Annual Report to the Congress.

5. The Special Assistant to the Commissioner (Racial Relations) is responsible for activities relating to racial minority groups with respect to all programs administered by the PHA. His office assists the Commissioner in the formulation of policy with respect to minority group participation in the programs administered by the PHA; examines field operations for compliance with PHA racial policies; maintains contacts with national organizations concerned with racial relations aspects of public housing programs and assists in resolving problems advanced by such groups; and collaborates with the Labor Relations Branch to insure compliance with regulations directing nondiscrimination in employment of labor in the construction of public housing projects.

6. The Director of Labor Relations heads the Labor Relations Branch, which provides staff assistance on all matters pertaining to problems concerning labor implications of the PHA's programs; determines prevailing salaries or wages for architects, technical engineers, draftsmen, and technicians, employed in the development of low-rent projects and for maintenance laborers and mechanics employed in the administration of low-rent projects; makes sure that wages prevailing in the locality, as predetermined by the Secretary of Labor, are paid to all laborers and mechanics employed in the development of low-rent projects; examines proposed contracts before they are entered into by local authorities to insure that they conform to labor provisions of the law and to PHA standards; secures wage rate and labor classification decisions from the Secretary of Labor for PHA Federal construction, alteration, or repair; and determines sources of labor supply.

7. The General Counsel is the PHA's principal attorney. He heads the Legal Division and, with the assistance of a Deputy General Counsel, supervises the activities of an Opinions and Legislation Branch, a Programs Branch, and a Bond Counsel.

8. The Assistant Commissioner for Administration heads the Administration Division and is responsible for activities relating to the administrative management and fiscal operatons of the PHA. He supervises the activities of the following Branches:

a. Administrative Planning Branch.
b. Audit Branch.
c. Budget Branch.
d. Fiscal Branch.
e. Personnel Branch.
f. Property and Services Branch.

In addition, the Assistant Commissioner for Administration is administratively responsible for the activities of the Personnel Security Officer, who performs duties relating to the PHA Security Program.

9. The Assistant Commissioner for Programs heads the Programs Division and is responsible for the formulation of policies and procedures governing the development, management, and disposition of public housing projects, for evaluating the effectiveness of such policies and procedures, and for providing technical assistance to operating officials, including the Field Offices, through the facilities of the several Branches of the Programs Division. He is assisted by a Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Programs and supervises the activities of the following Branches:

a. Appraisal Branch.
b. Architecture and Engineering Branch.
c. Construction Branch.
d. Disposition Branch.
e. Management Branch.
f. Mortgage Servicing Branch.

10. The Assistant Commissioner for Operations is responsible for the supervision of Field Office activities and for substantially all operating functions of a program nature which are performed in the Central Office. He supervises the activities of a coordinator in each of the three fields of development, management, and disposition, and in addition the activities of a Production and Document Control Branch.

11. The Chief Economist heads the Economics and Statistics Division and is responsible for activities relating to the economic and statistical aspects of the program of the PHA. He supervises the activities of an Economics Branch and a Statistics Branch.

E. Central Office Address. The Central Office address of the PHA is Public Housing Administration, Longfellow Building, Washington 25, D. C.

F. Field office organization. The Commissioner, in administering the programs of the PHA, has established a decentralized organization, vesting primary responsibility for operating phases of the program in the Field Offices wherever possible. Each Field Office is headed by a Field Office Director who is responsible to the Assistant Commissioner for Operations for the administration of all PHA activities in his area of jurisdiction. He is assisted by an Assistant to the Field Office Director, who is responsible for activities relating to public relations and information, and by the following officials,[1] each of whom is responsible for the activities indicated in his title: Field Office Attorney, Assistant Director for Development, Assistant Director for Management, Assistant Director for Disposition, Field Office Economist, Racial Relations Officer, Production Control Assistant, Chief of Office Services.

G. Field office addresses. The Field Offices are located at the addresses, and have the geographical jurisdictions, shown below:

1. Atlanta Field Office: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee. Public Housing Administration, Peachtree-Seventh Street Building, 50 Seventh Street NE., Room 358, Atlanta 5, Georgia.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

CITIES SERVICE CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF HEARING

JANUARY 12, 1954.

In the matter of Cities Service Company, The Gas Service Company, Gas Advisers, Inc. (File No. 70-3167). Supplemental notice of filing and notice of and order for hearing regarding sale by parent of subsidiary's common stock, request for exemption from competitive bidding and request for recitals required by supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Commission having on December 14, 1953, issued its Notice of Filing regarding an application-declaration filed by Cities Service Company ("Cities"), a registered holding company, The Gas Service Company ("Gas Service"), a wholly-owned public utility subsidiary of Cities, and Gas Advisers, Inc. ("Gas Advisers"), a mutual service company jointly owned by various subsidiaries in the Cities system, pursuant to section 11 (b), 12 (c), 12 (d), and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and Rules U-42, U-43, U-44, and U-50 promulgated thereunder, wherein, among other things, Cities proposed to sell 1,500,000 shares of the common stock of Gas Service, being all of the common stock of that company outstanding, to selected underwriters for public offering and requested that in connection with such sale Cities be granted exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50; and

The Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri having requested that it be notified of any hearing herein, and for leave to intervene if a hearing should be held, and the cities of Kansas City, Independence, Joplin, and St. Joseph, Missouri, having requested that a hearing be held; and Cities, Gas Service, and Gas Advisers having on January 8, 1954, filed an amendment amending and supplementing their original application-declaration, and setting forth additional facts and developments which are summarized as follows:

The amendment states that on December 10, 1953, Cities issued written invitations to four groups of underwriters who had indicated that they would be interested in purchasing the common stock of Gas Service for public offering; that on December 23, 1953, Cities received proposals from three of such underwriting groups and also received a written offer from the Missouri Public Service Company ("Missouri"), a non-affiliated public-utility company operating in the State of Missouri, to purchase the common stock of Gas Service for a purchase price of $32,000,000, subject to approval of its acquisition by the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri. Said amendment further states that such offer by Missouri was substantially in excess of the best proposal received from the three groups of underwriters mentioned above, that it is the judgment of Cities' management that such offer represents the highest price obtainable for the common stock of Gas Service under existing conditions, and that on December 29, 1953, Cities accepted the offer of Missouri subject to obtaining the approval of this Commission of the sale by it.

It is stated no State or Federal Commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the sale by Cities, but that the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri has jurisdiction over the acquisition by Missouri.

Cities has submitted, with the request that it be filed as a part of the record in these proceedings, a memorandum from Missouri as to the latter's future program, if the sale by Cities be approved. It is stated in said memorandum that Missouri proposes to provide funds for the purchase of the Gas Service shares, to the extent of $14,000,000 by the sale of additional shares of its common stock, and to the extent of $18,000,000 from bank loans due six months after the date of lending, that the shares of Missouri's common stock will be offered to Missouri's stockholders pursuant to transferable subscription rights, and that the unsubscribed shares will be purchased by underwriters.

It is further stated that it is Missouri's plant to combine the properties of Missouri and Gas Service by merging Missouri into Gas Service as soon as practicable after completion of the acquisition of the stock of Gas Service; and that this Commission and the Public Service Commissions of the States of Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska will have jurisdiction over various aspects of the merger and accompanying financing.

It is further stated that at or prior to the merger it is proposed to refund the $18,000,000 bank loan by the issuance of approximately $9,000,000 principal amount of mortgage bonds, $2,500,000 principal amount of additional debentures and $6,500,000 in par value of additional preferred stock, all of which will become securities of the surviving company.

Since upon the acquisition of the Gas Service stock, Missouri will become a holding company under the act, it is stated that Missouri proposes to file a Notification of Registration and that upon consummation of the merger, it will be Missouri's intention to apply for an Order of this Commission under section 5 (d) declaring that it is no longer a holding company.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a public hearing be held with respect to the proposed transactions for the purpose of affording an opportunity to all interested persons to present evidence and to be heard with respect to the proposed transactions set forth in said application-declaration, as amended:

It is ordered, That a hearing be held on said matters on January 26, 1954, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. On such date the hearing room clerk will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person (other than the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri, and the four municipalities named above) desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene, shall file with the Secretary of this Commission on or before January 25, 1954, a written request relative thereto, as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at said hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

The Division of Corporate Regulation of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application-declaration, as amended, and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration, without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the proposed sale by Cities meets the requirements of section 12 (d) of the act and Rule U-44 thereunder;

(2) Whether the consideration to be received by Cities for the common stock of Gas Service is reasonable;

(3) Whether compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 with respect to such sale is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to assure the maintenance of competitive conditions, the receipt of adequate consideration or the reasonableness of any fees or commissions to be paid with respect to such sale;

(4) Whether the accounting treatment proposed in connection with the consummation of the sale is appropriate;

(5) Whether, and to what extent, it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers to impose terms and conditions;

(6) Whether the program of Missouri, either as outlined above or as amended or supplemented by evidence adduced at the hearing, is such as to cause the sale by Cities to Missouri to result in conditions, facts, or practices violative of the provisions or standards of the act, particularly sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 11 thereof; and whether such program will impair the effectiveness of State regulation;

(7) Generally, whether the proposed transactions of Cities and Missouri are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements and standards of the act and the rules thereunder;

It is further ordered, That particular attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve a copy of this notice by registered mail upon Cities, Gas Service, Gas Advisers, Missouri, the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri, the State Corporation Commission of the State of Kansas, the Nebraska State Railway Commission, the Corporation Commission of the State of Oklahoma, and the Cities of Kansas City, Independence, Joplin, and St. Joseph, Missouri, and that notice be given to all other persons by publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the act.

By the Commission.

PART 381—DISASTER LOAN PROGRAM

CHANGE IN LOAN APPROVAL LIMITATIONS

Section 381.10 (a), Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (16 F. R. 3971; 18 F. R. 125) is revised to extend loan approval authorities to include economic disaster loans as well as production disaster loans, and to read as follows:

§ 381.10 Loan approval authority. (a) Subject to the policies and procedures contained in §§ 381.2 to 381.9, State Directors are authorized to approve disaster loans in amounts which will not cause the total outstanding principal balance on loans made pursuant to §§ 381.1 to 381.9 and 385.1 to 385.5 of this subchapter, or any combination of such loans, to exceed $12,000 for any one borrower. State Directors may redelegate to State Field Representatives and County Supervisors authority to approve Disaster loans subject to the following limitations:

(1) State Field Representatives may be authorized to approve Disaster loans in amounts which will not cause the total outstanding principal balance on loans made pursuant to §§ 381.1 to 381.9 and 385.1 to 385.5 of this subchapter, or any combination of such loans, to exceed $7,000 for any one borrower.

(2) County Supervisors may be authorized to approve Disaster loans in amounts which will not cause the total outstanding principal balance on loans made pursuant to §§ 381.1 to 381.9 and 385.1 to 385.5 of this subchapter, or any combination of such loans, to exceed $5,000 for any one borrower.

provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. The Navel Orange Administrative Committee held an open meeting on January 14, 1954, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date of this section.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 17, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 24, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 300,300 boxes;

(ii) District 2: 115,500 boxes;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;

(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) Navel oranges handled pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to any size restrictions applicable thereto which have heretofore been issued on the handling of such oranges and which are effective during the period specified herein.

(4) As used in this section "handled," "handler," "boxes," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "District 4" shall have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of January 1954.

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.659 Grapefruit Regulation 192—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than January 18, 1954. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until January 18, 1954, the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to January 17, 1954, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on January 12; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time of this section, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., January 18, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., February 1, 1954, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(ii) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(iii) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, that grade U. S. No. 2 or U. S. No. 2 Bright, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 54 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iv) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, that grade U. S. No. 1 Russet, U. S. No. 1 Bronze, U. S. No. 1 Golden, U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Bright or U. S. Fancy, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(v) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(vi) Any pink seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(vii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, that grade U. S. No. 2, U. S. No. 2 Bright, or U. S. No. 2 Russet which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or (viii) Any white seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, that grade U. S. No. 1 Russet, U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 1 Bronze, U. S. No. 1 Golden, U. S. No. 1 Bright or U. S. Fancy which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee," shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "U. S. No. 1," "U. S. No. 1 Bronze," "U. S. No. 1 Golden," "U. S. No. 1 Bright," "U. S. Fancy," "U. S. No. 2," "U. S. No. 2 Bright," "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§§ 51.750 to 51.790 of this title).

[Orange Reg. 248]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.660 Orange Regulation 248—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than January 18, 1954. Shipments of all oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until January 18, 1954; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to January 17, 1954, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on January 12; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time of this section, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of all oranges, except Temple oranges; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., January 18, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., February 1, 1954, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet;

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges and Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late-maturing oranges of the Valencia type, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than $2^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count of oranges smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida oranges (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title): Provided, That in determining the percentage of oranges in any lot which are smaller than $2^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size $2^{14}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller; or

(iii) Any Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late-maturing oranges of the Valencia Type, grown in the State of Florida, that are of a size smaller than $3^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of such oranges smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerange shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

(2) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," "Temple oranges," "Valencia, Lue Gim Gong, and similar late-maturing oranges of the Valencia Type" and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "U. S. No. 1 Russet" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges (§§ 51.1140 to 51.1186 of this title).

(3) Shipments of Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are subject to the provisions of Orange Regulation 244 (§ 933.647; 18 F. R. 7380).

[Lemon Reg. 520]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.627 Lemon Regulation 520—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 18 F. R. 6767), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified in this section was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on January 13, 1954, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 17, 1954, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 24, 1954, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 45 carloads;

(ii) District 2: 230 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation 519 (19 F. R. 159) and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 949—MILK IN THE SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, MARKETING AREA

SUBPART—ORDER REGULATING HANDLING

§ 949.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon proposed amendments to a tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk produced for sale in the said marketing area as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary, in the public interest, to make this order, amending the order, as amended, effective not later than February 1, 1954, so as to reflect current marketing conditions. Any delay in the effective date of this order would seriously threaten the orderly marketing of milk in the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area. The provisions of the said order are known to handlers, the public hearing having been held on August 26, 1952, November 5, 1952 and May 21, 1953 (18 F. R. 2860), the recommended decision having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 26, 1953 (18 F. R. 5088) and the final decision having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER December 19, 1953 (18 F. R. 8585). Therefore, reasonable time has been afforded persons affected to prepare for its effective date. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order, amending the order, as amended, effective February 1, 1954 and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (Sec. 4 (c); Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of the order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum and who, during the determined representative period (September 1953), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the San Antonio, Texas, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended, as set forth below:
